Section 34

After asking, he stared at Zhang Yuhe to see if he would hide anything.

Seeing Wang Guofeng keep asking questions, Zhang Yuhe couldn't help but shake his head.

But he can understand it.

After all, his situation is somewhat special, and it is indeed difficult for others to accept it after they find out.

Zhang Yuhe replied with a smile.

"Blue Star's national treasure is the giant panda. This is a species unique to Blue Star and not found in Yu Fantian."

"Don't think too much. I'm just lucky. Not long after I joined Yu Fantian, I joined the Dao Sheng Sect. I practiced in the Dao Sheng Sect for hundreds of years, and then came to Yunzhong Mansion to serve as the guardian envoy."

After hearing Zhang Yuhe's explanation, Wang Guofeng couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

Originally, in Blue Star, there were strong men suspected of being natives who took action, but now that he saw Zhang Yuhe's terrifying cultivation level, he couldn't help but think about the worst.

Thinking that they are Yu Fantian's natives, they have some evil intentions towards Blue Star.

Now it seems that he really thought too much.

Players and the natives of Yu Fantian cannot exchange information about Blue Star. There seems to be some rule restrictions.

Since Zhang Yuhe knows Blue Star's situation, it can be basically concluded that he is indeed a player.

It's just that Zhang Yuhe's cultivation speed was so fast that he couldn't accept it for a while.

However, Wang Guofeng quickly changed his mind and thought that with someone as powerful as Zhang Yuhe here, he no longer had to worry about Blue Star's safety.

Many people were worried before that something bad would appear in Blue Star with the revival of spiritual energy.

Are you still worried now?

With Zhang Yuhe here, what could stop his sword?

Thinking of this, Wang Guofeng couldn't help but smile.

He asked Zhang Yuhe.

"Did you kill the eight-clawed sea monster from Blue Star before?"

Zhang Yuhe nodded.

"I saw the news on Skynet, so I solved it quickly to prevent you from making too much noise."

"Let's talk about the Demon God Cult. Where did you find their traces?"

Zhang Yuhe knew that Wang Guofeng might find it difficult to accept for a while, so he brought the topic back to the Demon God Sect.

After all, this is what he needs to consider.

If Yunzhong Mansion really has a secret base of the Demon God Sect, then it needs to be found out as soon as possible.

Then report it to the sect and destroy it.

Wang Guofeng scratched his head and said embarrassedly.

"I don't know where to start with this matter. I just have some speculations and I don't know if they are true."

"It's okay. Speak slowly and say whatever you know."

Zhang Yuhe didn't expect Wang Guofeng to actually see the Demon God Sect's base.

Because this is simply impossible, with the way the Demon God Sect operates.

Once discovered, they would have been killed and silenced long ago. Even if the player has the immortal attribute, he may not have a chance to escape.

After all, after a player dies, he will appear at his original location when he goes online the next day, and he will still be killed when he goes online.

And Wang Guofeng was standing in front of him, so it was naturally impossible for him to have seen the Demon God Sect's base.

Wang Guofeng carefully organized his thoughts, and then said slowly.

"I have a friend who saw a city when Yu Fantian first opened and walked out of the wilderness for the first time. However, as soon as he entered the city, the natives killed him inexplicably."

"After going online the next day, he was also killed very quickly. This made him very angry. He thought that the natives were very hostile to us players. But you also know that the natives did not know the identities of our players at all, even if we ourselves. Even if I want to say it, I can't say it in front of the natives."

"After being killed continuously, he still refused to give up and insisted on going online every day, even if he was killed just after going online."

"After going online at a certain time, he accidentally saw a huge high platform in the middle of the city. The high platform was shrouded in black mist. There seemed to be a horned monster inside the black mist."

Having said this, Wang Guofeng looked at Zhang Yuhe and said with a somewhat uncertain tone.

"I suspect that the high platform is an altar, and the horned monster may be a demon or a member of the Demon God Cult."

Zhang Yuhe tapped his fingers lightly on the table and slowly listened to Wang Guofeng's narration.

He was thinking about the authenticity of this matter. If it was true, it would be a big deal.

As far as he knew, the horned monster might be a horned demon.

But he felt a little unbelievable. Are the demons and the Demon God Sect so courageous? Dare to set up an altar directly in the city?

Moreover, there are demons who appear in the city openly, which sounds very strange.

You know, the devil's aura cannot be concealed at all and can be seen from hundreds of people away. How could it just appear in the city like this?

Could it be that that city is in a secret space somewhere and is not a city under the current rule of Dao Sheng Sect?

And that friend Wang Guofeng is also a ruthless person.

He gets killed as soon as he goes online, but still insists on entering Yu Fantian every day. Such ruthless characters are really rare.

But this also benefits from the player mechanism.

After the player is killed by the natives, the natives will only think that they are really dead.

When they are resurrected the next day and enter Yu Fantian again, the natives will forget that they have killed this person before.

But is this true?

Could it be that Wang Guofeng's friends saw it wrong? Or was he hallucinating?

"Does your friend know the location of that city? Or does he know the name of the city?"

Zhang Yuhe thought for a while, and asked Wang Guofeng with a tentative idea.

In his opinion, if there really is such a city, the biggest possibility is that it is a secret base built by the Demon God Cult in a hidden place. It would take a lot of effort to find it, and it might not be found.

If he can't find the exact location, he can't report it to the sect at all.

He can't say that someone died countless times before seeing it, right?

This sentence can't be said at all.

They can't talk to the natives about the players.

It seems that there is a supreme rule that restricts all this.

"I know, although my friend will be killed quickly every time he goes online, he can occasionally live for a few minutes. He has heard people in the city talking and knows that the place is called Jingkong City."

"What? Jingkong City?"

Hearing this, Zhang Yuhe was so shocked that he almost jumped up.

Jingkong City is a city under the jurisdiction of Yunzhong Prefecture, and its size is about the same as Feiyun City.

It is not a big city.

But there is one thing that is very special, Jingkong City is the ancestral land of the He family.

Before the He family became rich, they had a foothold in Jingkong City, but later they moved the family to Yunzhong Prefecture City.

Despite this, the He family did not give up the operation of Jingkong City.

On the contrary, after the He family became rich, they slowly expelled other forces in the city.

Now Jingkong City can be said to be controlled by the He family, and other people can't intervene at all.

...

Chapter 35 Departure Jingkong City

Hearing that the secret base of the Demon God Cult is located in Jingkong City, Zhang Yuhe feels incredible.

Jingkong City is a regular city under the jurisdiction of Yunzhong Prefecture. It should be densely populated. How could the Demon God Cult choose such a place?

Shouldn't they hide in the deep mountains and old forests? How could they appear in the city so openly?

Zhang Yuhe asked Wang Guofeng with some doubt.

"Your friend didn't hear it wrong, did he? Are you sure it's Jingkong City?"

"I definitely heard it right. Before I went online today, I talked to him about it. It was Jingkong City."

Hearing Wang Guofeng's affirmative answer, Zhang Yuhe became even more confused.

"Is it true?"

Zhang Yuhe fell into deep thought, thinking about how likely this matter was.

The first thing Zhang Yuhe thought of was the attitude of the He and Li families towards him when he first arrived at Yunzhong Mansion.

As for Fengxin Tower, Zhang Yuhe had no idea, because he had already classified Fengxin Tower as suspicious.

There was no reason for him to doubt the motive of Fengxin Tower's existence just because Mingyue Fei hid her strength so deeply.

Not everyone is like him, hiding just for cultivation.

In addition to Fengxin Tower, the attitudes of the He and Li families were also very obvious. The two families were not very interested in him as the new garrison commander.

To put it bluntly, they didn't give him face.

Although it was not to the point of directly confronting him, it was certain that they didn't want to cooperate at all.

After all, he just wanted to borrow some people from various parties to maintain the operation of the garrison, but the He and Li families were unwilling.

What is supporting these two forces? What makes them so confident that they dare not give face to him, the garrison commander?

Is it because the Demon God Cult is behind them? They want to rely on the power of the Demon God Cult to fight against him.

If this is true, Zhang Yuhe feels that the He and Li families are really too LO.

The power of the Demon God Cult is only reflected in its concealment and destructiveness.
