Section 35

If they really want to fight Dao Sheng Zong, the Demon God Sect is not qualified at all.

Is it because of the demons?

Zhang Yuhe quickly thought of another key question.

Is there a new demon that has invaded Yufantian or is about to invade Yufantian?

Only with the support of the demons can the He and Li families not give him a cold shoulder.

Because the demons are indeed strong enough, even much stronger than Dao Sheng Zong.

If it weren't for Dao Sheng Zong's special method to close the demon invasion channel during the turmoil 100,000 years ago, leaving the invading demons without successors.

Then the result of that war is hard to say.

If that were the case, perhaps Yufantian would have become the territory of the demons.

Could it be that there are new demons that have invaded Yufantian?

If that were the case, then something big would happen in Yunzhong Mansion.

Zhang Yuhe also thought of another question.

He has been checking the information of Yunzhong Mansion these two days.

He found that in these materials, the information about Jingkong City was almost blank.

This is very unscientific.

Jingkong City, as a city under the jurisdiction of Yunzhong Prefecture, should have a constant flow of people.

With the flow of people, there will naturally be trouble.

As long as something happens, there should be some records in the data of these garrisons.

However, there is no such thing.

Zhang Yuhe did not see any information about Jingkong City in the data.

Except for knowing that it was the ancestral land of the He family, he knew nothing about Jingkong City.

There must be something wrong when things are abnormal.

After thinking about it, Zhang Yuhe can basically conclude that there must be something wrong with Jingkong City.

As for whether there are really demons there, or whether it is the secret base of the Demon God Cult, we have to investigate it.

"Maybe I should go to Jingkong City."

Zhang Yuhe made a decision secretly, and he planned to go to Jingkong City to take a look.

As for reporting directly to the sect?

Zhang Yuhe did not have this idea for the time being.

How can he report something that has no shadow?

If there is a mistake in the end, the elders of the sect will beat him to death.

"Let's go after we have arranged for Wang Guofeng."

Thinking of this, Zhang Yuhe shouted to the outside.

"Come in."

Qian Zhongshu and his group, who were waiting outside, immediately entered the hall.

They secretly glanced at Zhang Yuhe, and then looked at Wang Guofeng next to them.

The garrison commander suddenly brought someone back, which made them a little curious.

Zhang Yuhe ignored the thoughts of these people. He pointed at Wang Guofeng and said to everyone.

"His name is Wang Guofeng. He will be the manager of the garrison in the future. You must cooperate well with each other."

"Yes."

Everyone responded quickly.

As for Wang Guofeng, he was even more excited. Now that he had Zhang Yuhe as his thigh, he would never have to worry about practicing in Yufantian again.

Wang Guofeng said politely to Qian Zhongshu and others.

"I am Wang Guofeng. I meet all the Taoist friends."

"Meet Taoist friend Wang, Manager Wang."

...

Looking at the polite look of everyone, Zhang Yuhe waved his hand and said.

"Okay, you guys can talk later."

"Qian Zhongshu, I have something to ask you. Have you been to Jingkong City?"

Qian Zhongshu was stunned when he heard Zhang Yuhe ask about Jingkong City.

Why did the garrison commander suddenly ask this?

Qian Zhongshu replied subconsciously.

"Sir, I have never been to Jingkong City."

"Then how much do you know about Jingkong City?"

Zhang Yuhe asked.

Qian Zhongshu was secretly surprised when he heard Zhang Yuhe keep asking about Jingkong City.

He also heard that the He and Li families were unwilling to send people last time.

Could it be that the garrison commander wanted to make trouble for the He family?

This new garrison commander really can't tolerate any sand in his eyes.

Jingkong City is the ancestral land of the He family. The garrison commander has been asking about Jingkong City. Isn't the purpose obvious?

Of course, if the garrison commander wants to crack down on the He family, he will agree with both hands.

After all, the He family fell in Yunzhong Prefecture, which would only benefit the Qian family.

Qian Zhongshu racked his brains for a long time, and then he realized that he knew nothing about Jingkong City.

This made him unable to answer for a while.

After thinking for a long time, Qian Zhongshu shook his head awkwardly.

"Sir, I don't know much about Jingkong City. If you need news about Jingkong City, I can go back to the family to ask."

"Forget it."

After listening to Qian Zhongshu's words, Zhang Yuhe waved his hand to interrupt.

Ask other people in the Qian family?

There is no need at all.

He did not intend to hear any really useful information from Qian Zhongshu.

Zhang Yuhe just felt that Qian Zhongshu, as a local snake in Yunzhong Prefecture, and the legitimate son of the head of the Qian family.

Logically speaking, he should know everything about the entire Yunzhong Prefecture.

If even Qian Zhongshu did not know the situation of Jingkong City, it would be very telling.

This means that someone deliberately cut off the connection between Jingkong City and the outside world.

Even at this time, Jingkong City may have been closed for a long time, and outsiders can't enter or leave at all.

In the entire Jingkong City, perhaps only the He family and the people of the Demon God Cult are left.

Oh, and there may be demons.

Apart from that, there are no outsiders.

Only in this way, even Qian Zhongshu doesn't know any information about Jingkong City.

It is estimated that asking other people in the Qian family will not get more information. If the Qian family leaks the news, it will alert the enemy.

If you want to know the situation in Jingkong City, it is better to go and see it yourself.

"It seems that I have to go to Jingkong City to investigate as soon as possible."

Zhang Yuhe thought quietly for a while and decided to leave immediately. This matter cannot be delayed.

He glanced at everyone and said.

"You go down first. I have something to go out for."

After Zhang Yuhe finished speaking, he instantly turned into a stream of light and disappeared from the hall.

Chapter 36 Fu Bing

Jingkong City is located in the remnant of the Great Python Mountain, 80,000 miles southwest of Yunzhong City.

It is rumored that many years ago, there was a ninth-level cloud python in the Great Python Mountain.

The ninth-level cloud python was arrogant and powerful, and often came out to attack nearby human cities.

Later, several Taoist Mahayana ancestors took action to wipe it out.

It is said that the name of Jingkong City was taken from the magical power of that cloud python.

Yunmang's magical power is called Mirror Transformation. Once this magical power is used, a large area of the sky can be transformed into a mirror, and all nearby creatures will be sucked into the mirror.

Once the mirror is broken, the creatures inside will die.

Zhang Yuhe used all his strength to activate the Tianhuang Feixian Technique and flew quickly all the way.

For ordinary cultivators, it may take several days or even longer to fly 80,000 miles.

But for a top-level cultivator like Zhang Yuhe, 80,000 miles is not too far.

Adding the extreme speed of the Tianhuang Feixian Technique, after flying in the air for less than an hour, he can already see the endless mountains in the distance.

It is the Yunmang Mountains.
