

TOP TALENT, GAME UPGRADE

Section 5

Zhang Yuhe was very excited when he found two items after killing a monster in Yufantian for the first time.

He quickly opened the first box, and a stone filled with spiritual energy appeared in front of him.

The stone was not big, only the size of a mahjong.

"This thing should be a spiritual stone."

Zhang Yuhe quickly picked up the spiritual stone.

"Not bad, it's a good harvest to find a spiritual stone."

Spiritual stones are widely used in the world of immortal cultivation. They can not only assist cultivation, but also be used to set up formations.

Of course, the main use of spiritual stones is currency. It is the universal currency in the world of immortal cultivation.

Walking in Yufantian, if you don't have spiritual stones, it's like having no money in Blue Star. You can't move an inch.

Putting away the spiritual stones, Zhang Yuhe opened the second box, and a burst of meaty aroma hit him.

"Uh, is it a plate of barbecue?"

Looking at the items in the box, Zhang Yuhe was speechless.

He thought about a lot, such as some secret manuals of martial arts, or magic tools and treasures.

He even fantasized about whether he would find a magic weapon.

However, what was placed in the box was a plate of fragrant barbecue, which he had never expected.

"Your imagination is still not big enough."

That's fine, directly ordering dinner is exactly what he needs.

Zhang Yuhe took out the barbecue from the box.

I have to say that the setting of the game system is still very considerate.

The barbecue was actually served to him on a plate, so he didn't have to grab it directly with his hands.

"Go back to eat and practice."

Zhang Yuhe held a long knife in his left hand and a plate of barbecue in his right hand, and quickly returned to the Taoist temple.

As for the yellow sheep corpse on the ground, he didn't even look at it again.

Because Zhang Yuhe suddenly remembered that he didn't bring any seasoning or fire.

There was no way to eat a yellow sheep with nothing, it couldn't be eaten raw.

He was not Bear Grylls, and he really couldn't eat it raw.

After a while, Zhang Yuhe returned to the broken Taoist temple. He cut the barbecue into small pieces with a long knife and then enjoyed it slowly.

After a piece of barbecue, the whole person felt comfortable.

"It smells so good. Let's see what other people are doing."

Zhang Yuhe opened the chat channel while eating barbecue.

At this time, there were not as many people popping up in the chat channel as at the beginning.

But the screen was still refreshed, but the speed was not as fast as before.

"I'm so hungry. Do you have any food? Can you add me as a friend and send me some?"

"Haha, I brought a box of instant noodles before I came in. It's enough for several days."

"There are monsters everywhere outside. How can you be hungry? Go out and kill monsters and eat meat."

"What are you going to do? Can you beat them? I should have brought an AK in earlier."

"AK It's useless. You can't even make a fire here."

"No way, is this true?"

"Yes, I brought a sniper rifle, but I couldn't start a fire at all. It's not as good as a fire stick."

"That's true. Not only are firearms useless here, but even lighters can't be used."

"That's it. Are we going to starve to death here?"

"What are you afraid of? At worst, you can go out and fight wild monsters. It doesn't matter if you die. You can just go back to sleep and come in again tomorrow."

"Don't think too much. If you can't stand it, just log off. , today is only the first day, understand the situation, and come back tomorrow when you are fully prepared. "

"That's right, it won't take much time anyway. Cultivating immortals takes hundreds or thousands of years, so a hundred days is not a big deal."

"The brother above is right, I'm going offline first, Baibai."

"Hey, I'll hold on for a while."

"It's getting dark, so scary, I'm in a deserted village, there won't be ghosts at night."

"It's just right if there are ghosts, just think about Ning Caichen, it's so cool."

"Fuck, buddy, I respect you as a man."

Chapter 5 Qi Training Great Perfection

Zhang Yuhe ate barbecue while watching the players on the chat channel talking nonsense.

Seeing the miserable looks of others, he instantly felt that the barbecue in his hand was more fragrant.

To be honest, he was still not well prepared.

It seemed that except for psychological preparation, he had nothing else. He resigned a month in advance and only prepared a knife.

Of course, no matter how much preparation he made, it was not of much use.

After all, it was the first time for everyone to contact Yu Fantian, and the information provided on the website was really limited.

For example, those big guys who brought firearms in were not as good as him.

Firearms can't make a sound, and they are not as good as fire sticks.

His long knife can at least chop monsters and cut meat, which is simple and practical.

Zhang Yuhe felt that this long knife was worthy of the 50,000 blue coins.

"Continue to practice."

After eating barbecue, Zhang Yuhe didn't waste any time and sat cross-legged directly.

As the skills were running, the surrounding spiritual energy slowly gathered towards him.

He just wanted to practice now and didn't want to think about other problems at all.

For example, as some players said, will there be ghosts at night?

After all, this is a world of cultivation, and it seems normal to have ghosts.

Especially now that they are in the wilderness, this possibility is indeed not small.

Some players are worried that they will be taken away by wild monsters at night?

In fact, in Zhang Yuhe's view, it is useless to think about these problems more, and wait until they encounter them.

...

The next day, Zhang Yuhe woke up from his practice, and the sun was shining at this time.

The night passed peacefully, and he advanced to the fifth level of Qi Refining.

"It's getting slower and slower. It only took one night to level up."

Zhang Yuhe silently complained about his cultivation speed.

If other people knew what he was thinking, they would rush over and chop him to death.

In fact, cultivation is inherently slow.

Normally, it takes about ten days for a high-grade spiritual root to reach the first level of Qi refining from a mortal. There will be considerable differences depending on the level of diligence.

For middle-grade spiritual roots to enter the first level of Qi Refining, it will take at least a month.

As for low-grade spiritual roots, it depends on fate. If you are lucky, you can enter the first level of Qi refining in three to five months.

If you are unlucky and don't practice diligently enough, you may still be a mortal after two or three years.

It only took Zhang Yuhe one day to reach the fifth level of Qi Refining, which definitely broke Yu Fantian's training record.

Who made his talent abnormal?

...

Time passed slowly, Zhang Yuhe stayed in the Taoist temple to practice, and when he was hungry, he went out to catch some game.

He found that the probability of food exploding was very high. On average, for every two monsters killed, one piece of food would explode.

Basically, there are all kinds of barbecues, and occasionally some dry food and the like.

As for the skill secrets, magical weapons, and the like that he was looking forward to, he had never seen them before.

Fortunately, the explosion rate of spirit stones is not low. Through these days of foraging, he has picked up a dozen spirit stones.

I don't know if it is related to the luck attribute, but every time Zhang Yuhe kills a monster, a spiritual stone will almost explode.

In addition to sleeping these days, I just practice killing monsters.

...

A month later, Zhang Yuhe woke up while practicing, and a powerful aura spread from his body to the surroundings.

"Finally we have reached the Great Perfection of Qi training, it's time to go out and have a look."

It's not that he doesn't want to continue practicing, it's just that he can't practice anymore.

Because he had no skills, the system gave him the Qi-Entraining Technique, which he could only practice until Qi training was complete.

If you want to continue practicing, you must find more advanced techniques.

Originally, he was thinking of fighting monsters while practicing to see if he could find out the suitable secrets of the techniques.

However, he was overthinking it, as the skill was not so easy to reveal.
