The beautiful woman said with a smile.

"Don't be anxious, Lord Black Devil. Since I'm here in person, I'm naturally somewhat sure."

"Some time ago, my incarnation passed by here and saw violent fluctuations in the space here."

"Sir, you also know that Yu Fantian's space is stable and will not fluctuate for no reason."

"From this, I judge that the space here should be weaker. Maybe there is a war in the nearby world, and the aftermath of the war is transmitted, shaking the space barrier here."

Hearing the beautiful woman's explanation, Heiying's eyes suddenly lit up.

"Oh, Yu Fantian's approaching world is the Holy World. So as long as a space is opened here, it will most likely be a fixed passage."

The beautiful woman is Zhao Mingyue, the leader of the Demon Cult.

In order to seek to solve the problems caused by the insufficiency of the soul caused by the incarnation of thousands of supernatural powers.

She tried all kinds of methods, but still couldn't solve the problem.

Later, she heard that the Demon Palace in the Demon World could communicate with the upper world.

The demon god in the upper realm is equivalent to a true immortal, so there must be a way to solve her problems.

In fact, the Dao Sheng Sect could communicate with the upper world before, but it was impossible for her to go to the Dao Sheng Sect.

That can only cost you your life.

She has been fighting with the Dao Sheng Sect for so many years, and the two sides have long been in a life-or-death situation.

It is undoubtedly a foolish dream to ask Dao Shengzong to help.

Zhao Mingyue was eager to open the space channel.

This would allow the demons to enter Yu Fantian, destroy the Dao Sheng Sect, and help her settle the grudges she had held for many years.

And she can also take this opportunity to enter the demon world and let the Demon Palace help her contact the upper world to find solutions to the problem.

Although she knew that by doing so, she was seeking skin from a tiger, she had no other choice.

Zhao Mingyue could no longer wait for the Dzogchen to be reunited after nearly ten thousand years of hardship.

If she procrastinates any longer, as her body ages, she will no longer be able to break through to the Mahayana realm.

In order to open the passage between the two realms, Zhao Mingyue actively contacted the remaining demons in Yu Fantian.

With the cooperation of both parties, various actions were attempted.

For example, setting up the Tiangang Boundary Breaking Formation in Jingkong City is one of the attempts.

But this attempt ended in failure.

Yu Fantian's space is stable, and the Tiangang Boundary Breaking Formation alone can only open a temporary passage.

Moreover, the passage is not stable and can only support the passage of demons below Nascent Soul.

If you want the Mahayana demons from the Demon God Palace to come over, you must open a fixed passage.

Just like the passage opened by the demons a hundred thousand years ago.

Unfortunately, that passage is located in the back mountain of Daosheng Sect and is guarded by Mahayana monks.

Even though Zhao Mingyue tried every means, she still couldn't find a chance to sneak in.

...

Chapter 71 The Master of the Demon God Palace, Mo Yuetian

The passage where the demons invaded a hundred thousand years ago was firmly guarded by the Dao Sheng Sect.

Zhao Mingyue thought of various ways to sneak into Dao Sheng Sect secretly.

However, for some unknown reason, the avatars she sent out twice in a row did nothing.

But as soon as he approached the mountain gate of Dao Sheng Sect, he was found beaten to death.

After losing two incarnations for no reason, Zhao Mingyue finally figured it out.

She didn't have to think about the passage in the back mountain of Dao Sheng Sect, she could only find another way.

Zhao Mingyue believed that since the demons could open the first passage back then, she could open the second one.

As long as you find the right place and make adequate preparations, you can do it.

From then on, she sent out avatars to try and walk around Yu Fantian.

For example, in Jingkong City before, it was one of the attempts.

Because many years ago, the ninth-level cloud python caused chaos nearby, and was later suppressed by the ancestors of the Dao Sheng Sect.

According to ancient records, the battle that year caused the earth to tear and the void to shatter.

Zhao Mingyue thought that maybe the space near Jingkong City had been weakened a lot.

Opening a channel here may have unexpected effects.

But the result made her very disappointed.

Regarding the records of the war that year, there may be errors, or it may be a space barrier, which has a strong self-repair ability.

The originally shattered space has long been restored to its original state.

This attempt by Jingkong City failed miserably.

Not only failed to open a fixed passage, but she also lost an incarnation in vain.

Even the Horned Demons who participated in this operation were beaten to death by people from the Dao Sheng Sect.

This made the remaining demon clan have great opinions on her.

After all, there are only a few demons left in Yu Fantian.

If they continue to die like this, they will all die soon.

Just when she was depressed, another incarnation came with good news.

Incarnated on a small island in the Tianxing Sea, I found a sudden violent fluctuation in the space somewhere.

Although the spatial fluctuations quickly disappeared, Zhao Mingyue was very excited.

Because she knows why.

Several demons were summoned this time just to confirm this matter.

Once they determine that this is a weak space location, they will begin to take action.

Opening the space channel is not something she can do alone.

Especially locating the coordinates of the demon world requires the demons to do it themselves.

Zhao Mingyue held the array disk in her hand and slowly surveyed the island.

Suddenly, little stars lit up on the array disk.

Her face was like a mountain flower blooming in an instant, and a seductive smile appeared on her face.

"It should be right here."

After Zhao Mingyue finished speaking, he took out a spear-like spiritual treasure.

Top-grade Tongtian Lingbao, Dingxing Gun.

With the infusion of mana, Dingxing Gun emitted a little light and stabbed towards a certain space.

Boom...

The sky suddenly fluctuated violently, and a dark crack appeared out of thin air, and then slowly closed.

"Haha, the space barrier here is indeed weaker than other places."

The several demons standing behind Zhao Mingyue were so excited that they danced with joy.

In a normal place, it would be impossible for Zhao Mingyue to break the void with his great perfection.

The crack that appeared just now showed that the space barrier here was indeed much weaker than other places.

They really waited too long.

One hundred thousand years.

How many hundred thousand years can a demon live?

Although compared with human cultivators, the demons do have a long lifespan.

But no matter how long their lifespan is, they can't withstand such a hundred thousand years of waste.

The demons who stayed in Yufantian at that time, the weak ones had already exhausted their lifespans and died.

Even most of the demons in the Void Refining Realm could not survive the invasion of time.

At present, there are only eight demons left in Yufantian.

Three combined demons, five Void Refining Demons.

In Yufantian, not only can they not practice, but their strength will also slowly decline.

There is no demon energy here. If it is not transformed, it is not suitable for demons to practice.

But if they want to transform a world, it is obviously not possible to rely on a few people.

Only the Demon God Palace has the ability to transform a spiritual world into a demon world suitable for demons to practice.

And it takes a huge price to transform a world.

They are really about to be unable to bear it, if they don't open the passage.

Maybe it won't be long before they will also sit in Yufantian.

So, even if Zhao Mingyue's incarnation fails every time, they still force themselves to be unhappy and send people to cooperate.

Because this is their last straw.

Seeing the excitement of the demons, the smile on Zhao Mingyue's face became brighter.

After a long time, when the demons were excited, Zhao Mingyue said slowly.

"Lord Black Demon, please try and see if you can get in touch with the Demon Palace."
