Section 73

"Okay, let's set up the cross-border communication array first."

The eight demons took action quickly. They took out magic weapons one after another and opened up mountains and seas nearby.

A huge altar was quickly built.

The combined demon named Black Demon slowly walked up to the altar with a formation disk in his hand.

The excitement was clearly evident on the Black Demon's face, and even his hand holding the array plate was shaking slightly.

They had waited too long for this moment.

The Black Demon slowly sat down cross-legged in the center of the altar, while the others stood around and watched quietly.

"call....."

The black devil, who was sitting cross-legged on the altar, breathed out gently, and then continued to play spells on the array disk in his hand.

Not long after, a black light lit up on the formation disk and shot straight into the sky.

In the Demon World, there is a secret hall somewhere in the Demon Palace.

A tall demon was practicing with his eyes closed.

"Um?"

Suddenly, the demon seemed to sense something, and he quickly stood up and rushed out of the hall.

After a while, he appeared on a huge altar.

When the demons guarding the altar saw this man coming, they all shouted in unison respectfully.

"I've met the palace master."

This person is the master of the Demon God Palace, Mo Yuetian.

Mo Yuetian's late-stage Mahayana cultivation is only one step away from triggering the Heavenly Tribulation to ascend to the upper realm.

However, this step is extremely difficult.

Fortunately, the demons have a long lifespan, and the human Mahayana monks can live for about 100,000 years.

The demons, Mahayana, can live up to more than 300,000 years.

One hundred thousand years ago, Mo Yuetian accidentally discovered a passage leading to Yu Fantian.

Without any hesitation, he led the demon army into Yu Fantian.

It's a pity that the Daosheng Sect was also at its peak back then, and there were as many as five Mahayana monks in the sect.

Although the number of Mahayana monks is still less than that of the Demon God Palace, Dao Sheng Sect has the local advantage, and the battlefield is close to the Dao Sheng Sect's mountain gate.

The two sides started a war that lasted for hundreds of years near the passage.

In the end, the Dao Sheng Sect forcibly closed the passage at the huge cost of sacrificing three Mahayana monks.

Fortunately, Mo Yuetian saw the opportunity quickly and led most of the people to retreat in time.

Otherwise, this group of them would all be trapped in Yu Fantian.

Being beaten out of Yu Fantian by Dao Sheng Sect, Mo Yuetian has always been unwilling to accept it.

He will keep the communication formation that communicates between the two worlds, hoping that the demons left behind in Yu Fantian will be saved.

One day, a message will be sent, so that the inside can be coordinated with the outside, and they can enter Yu Fantian again.

Chapter 72 Secret Discussion

Mo Yuetian stood on the altar, constantly pinching the magic formula in his hand.

Soon, a familiar breath came over vaguely, as if across endless time and space.

He tried to communicate with the other party through the communication array.

"Dark Devil, is that you?"

On the deserted island of Tianxing Sea, I heard a faint voice coming from the altar, and the black devil was so excited that he could not speak coherently.

"It's the Palace Master, Palace Master, I am the Black Devil."

Confirming that it was the black devil who sent the message, Mo Yuetian immediately understood what happened.

He immediately ordered.

"You stay where you are, and I will locate the passage."

Mo Yuetian quickly used the magic formula and began to calculate the corresponding spatial position.

After a while, I figured out a rough idea

He quickly stood up and flew away into the distance.

A short while later, he came to a deserted mountain range.

"It should be here."

Mo Yuetian waved his right hand, and a pitch-black spear turned into a stream of light and flew towards the void in the distance.

boom.....

The void suddenly shook violently.

A huge black hole appeared before his eyes.

Not only that, Mo Yuetian looked through the black hole to the other side.

It seems that a huge altar can still be seen.

However, before he could take a closer look, the black hole quickly healed and disappeared.

The black spear flew out again, and the black hole appeared again and then quickly disappeared.

After trying several times in a row, Mo Yuetian fell into deep thought.

He quickly calculated with his fingers.

"This is indeed a weak space, but it seems that the passage should be opened from the opposite side."

Although as a demon in the late Mahayana stage, he is only one step away from overcoming the tribulation and ascending to heaven.

But when it comes to high-level issues like space, he doesn't know much.

That time a hundred thousand years ago, it was only by chance that they accidentally opened the passage to Yu Fantian.

Although the space barrier here is also weak, it seems that it is not feasible for them to completely open a stable passage.

It may involve more advanced rules, and maybe let the opposite black devil try it.

Thinking of this, Mo Yuetian quickly returned to the Demon God Palace.

Come to the altar again.

He pinched the magic formula and sent a message to the other side.

"Dark Demon, the Holy World cannot open the passage, so we need you to take action."

"Yes, Palace Master, the Black Devil will fulfill his mission."

Hearing Mo Yuetian's voice again, Black Demon replied excitedly.

Just now I saw huge black holes appearing continuously in the sky, and I thought they could just return to the demon world.

Now it seems that it doesn't seem to work.

According to Mo Yuetian's wishes, this space passage needs their side to completely open it.

But that doesn't matter.

They have experience in setting up boundary-breaking formations.

Although it has always failed before, it was just not looking in the right place.

Now that we have found the right location.

As long as we are fully prepared, we will definitely succeed this time.

Just when Black Demon was excited, the array in his hand was suddenly covered with cracks.

"No, the wind chime magic crystal is almost exhausted."

The wind chime magic crystal is a special treasure, an important material to support cross-border communication.

At present, they only have this last one left.

The main reason is that they consumed too much to maintain communication with Mo Yuetian just now.

Otherwise, a complete wind chime magic crystal can be used many times.

"Can't maintain communication anymore..."

Thinking of this, Black Demon anxiously communicated to the opposite side.

"Palace Master, the wind chime magic crystal is almost exhausted, and it will no longer support cross-border communication in the future."

"Okay, I know, you prepare to arrange the boundary-breaking array, and I will lead the army and wait here a thousand years later."

"Yes."

After the communication ended, Black Demon picked up the array and carefully checked it.

"We can only wait a thousand years before returning to the Holy Realm."

Seeing the Wind Chime Magic Crystal in the array disk, which was already covered with countless tiny cracks

The Black Demon felt a little disappointed.

But he soon cheered up.

I have waited for 100,000 years, so why should I be afraid of waiting for another thousand years?

The other seven demons were also very excited at this time. After waiting for so many years, they finally got the chance.

According to Mo Yuetian's instructions, they need to collect materials immediately and prepare to build the Tiangang Breaking Realm Array.

So that after a thousand years, the passage can be officially opened to welcome the arrival of the army of the Demon God Palace.
