Section 74

As for Mo Yuetian, why should they wait another thousand years?

Because the Demon God Palace also needs to make corresponding preparations, and this will take time.

He didn't want to be beaten back by the Dao Sheng Sect like he did a hundred thousand years ago.

Mo Yuetian had already thought about it, and this time he would gather all the forces in the demon world to fight back the Dao Sheng Sect in one wave.

Then completely occupy Yu Fantian.

...

It is not difficult for Hei Mo and others to build the Tiangang boundary-breaking formation.

The difficult thing is how to do it quietly without letting Dao Shengzong discover it.

Once the Taoist Saint finds out, they will arrange a boundary-breaking formation here.

Then the Dao Sheng Sect quickly discovered that there was a problem with the space barrier here.

If that really happens, Daosheng Sect will send people to guard this place.

Where can they find another place with such a weak space barrier?

Although this place is deserted and there are few people coming and going, the Black Demon still feels a little unstable.

We should think of a more appropriate solution.

Thinking of this, Black Devil asked Zhao Mingyue.

"Xianzi Zhao, from now on I will be stationed here and seal off a radius of 100,000 miles. Is there anything you can do to prevent people from the Dao Sheng Sect from discovering this place?"

Zhao Mingyue thought silently for a while, and then said slowly.

"Thousands of years are too long, so it's hard to tell. Although this place is relatively secretive, there are some elders from Daosheng Sect who like to walk around. If they come here, it will be difficult to keep it secret."

If ordinary monks accidentally discovered this place, they would not be worried.

They kill people when they see them. Even if they are discovered, it is enough to kill them without sending any message.

But the people of Daosheng Sect are difficult to deal with.

Especially those elders of Daosheng Sect, if they accidentally break into this place.

Even if they kill someone, they can't keep it secret.

Because Dao Sheng Sect has extremely powerful communication methods.

As long as they are in Yu Fantian, they can contact each other at any time.

"How about we leave this place temporarily and wait until a thousand years later to come back and set up the boundary-breaking formation?"

Zhao Mingyue suggested.

She thought that since she couldn't maintain absolute confidentiality, she might as well leave it alone.

Just wait a thousand years and come back directly to set up the formation.

However, upon hearing Zhao Mingyue's suggestion, Black Demon immediately shook his head and said.

"No, I won't worry if no one is watching here."

"Then there is only one way left, to distract Dao Shengzong's attention."

Since the Black Devil is worried, he wants to guard this place, but he doesn't want anyone to discover him.

The best way is to keep Dao Shengzong busy.

As long as the people of Dao Sheng Sect are busy, naturally no one will care about this barren land.

"Then how to attract Dao Shengzong's attention."

Black Devil was very interested in Zhao Mingyue's suggestion, and he asked immediately.

"If you want to attract the Dao Sheng Sect's attention, you can only continue to arrange the Tiangang Boundary Breaking Formation in other places. As long as you arrange it a few more times and attract a large number of demons to come, the Dao Sheng Sect will be busy even if you don't want to. "

"Okay, I'll ask someone to cooperate with you."

After listening to Zhao Mingyue's suggestion, Black Devil immediately agreed.

Even though they've failed every time before, that doesn't mean it's not effective.

Except for the time in Jingkong City, the other times have successfully attracted countless demons to come.

Although they are all low-level demons, they have kept Dao Shengzong busy for a long time.

After all, once the descending demons disperse, it will not be easy for the Dao Sheng Sect to eliminate them one by one.

It takes decades of work to completely eliminate the descending demons.

The black devil has planned to open a temporary channel every few decades in the future.

As for the materials for setting up Tiangang's boundary-breaking formation, he didn't need to worry about it.

As the leader of the Demon God Sect, Zhao Mingyue would have no problem handling this matter.

He only needs to send a demon to help determine the coordinates, and then start the boundary-breaking formation.

This kind of thing does not pose much risk to them.

Except for the time in Jingkong City, an accident occurred and a demon died.

The other times they had no losses.

Let's do it.

Chapter 73 Demonic chaos everywhere

After everyone continued to discuss other details, Zhao Mingyue flew away.

There was also a Void Refining Demon Clan accompanying him.

Ten years later.

The Demon God Sect set up the Tiangang Boundary Breaking Formation in Beilin Mansion, Yuanzhou, and opened a temporary passage connecting the two realms.

Countless demons followed the passage and poured into Yu Fantian.

Due to the secretive actions of the Demon God Sect, the inner disciples of the Dao Sheng Sect guarding the local area did not notice it in advance.

By the time the temporary passage was closed and countless demons spread to the surrounding areas, it was already too late.

The descending demon clan was like a natural disaster, quickly sweeping across several states.

After receiving the notification, Lu Mingfang responded quickly.

He continuously sent more than 300 inner sect disciples, and nearly 10,000 outer sect disciples, under the leadership of several elders.

Form a powerful army of monks and quickly go to the scene of the incident to eliminate the demons.

After more than thirty years of fighting and eradication, the evil disaster was gradually extinguished.

However, Lu Mingfang didn't have time to recover.

The Demon God Sect took action again and opened a temporary channel in Nanqiao Mansion, Pennsylvania.

Due to the passage that was opened this time, it was a wild place on the edge of Nanqiao Mansion.

Dao Shengzong was completely unaware.

The descending demons, led by the demon cultists, dispersed and moved to the surrounding areas covertly.

By the time Dao Shengzong discovered it, several days had passed.

The largest demonic disaster in nearly ten thousand years broke out.

Although the Dao Sheng Sect continued to mobilize manpower, it still took more than fifty years to eliminate this demonic disaster.

Tao Sheng Peak, Feixian Palace.

Lu Mingfang was reporting information about the Demon God Sect to the sect leader Feng Xiaotian.

"In less than a hundred years, the Demon God Sect opened temporary passages three times in a row in Yunzhong Mansion, Beilin Mansion, and Nanqiao Mansion, causing great damage to various places."

"Some people with evil intentions took advantage of the chaos caused by the demonic disaster and took the opportunity to carry out small actions."

"What's more important is that the Demon God Sect suddenly moves so frequently. I wonder if Zhao Mingyue's actions are covering up some larger conspiracy."

Feng Xiaotian, dressed in white, stood in the center of the hall, quietly listening to Lu Mingfang's narration.

He didn't speak, but was thinking silently.

He had never cared much about the Demon God Cult.

Relying on Zhao Mingyue alone, the Demon God Cult cannot become a big phenomenon at all.

The Demon God Sect seems to be secretive, but its actual power is not very strong. Except for Zhao Mingyue himself, there are no other masters.

If they fight head-on, Dao Sheng Sect only needs to send out a few Fusion Realm elders to easily wipe them out.

Although the Demon God Sect was also an enemy of the Dao Sheng Sect in the past, it did not achieve much.

However, this time, the Demon God Cult frequently opened channels to the Demon Realm, which made him wary.

Although the temporary passage opened through the Tiangang Boundary Breaking Formation can only support the entry of low-level demons.

These low-level demons may bring a lot of trouble to Yu Fantian.

But that's just trouble, not a big deal.

Once the Dao Sheng Sect seriously deals with it, it will not be difficult to solve it.

But he believed that Zhao Mingyue would definitely not do useless work.

It is even less likely to do useless work frequently.

Zhao Mingyue's move obviously had some special purpose.

Perhaps he was trying to improve the Tiangang Boundary Breaking Formation, hoping to use this formation to attract more powerful demons into Yu Fantian.

Maybe she just wanted to make Yu Fantian confused, so she could fish in troubled waters.

Of course, the greater possibility is that Zhao Mingyue is planning a big conspiracy.
