Section 75

All her actions now are just a cover for her conspiracy.

Feng Xiaotian felt that Zhao Mingyue had probably found another weak location in space that could open a stable channel between the two realms.

It is the kind of fixed channel that can support the Mahayana stage demons to enter Yu Fantian.

But for some reason, Zhao Mingyue didn't take action immediately.

Instead, they kept opening temporary channels in various places to attract the attention of the Dao Sheng Sect.

As an old monster who has lived for tens of thousands of years, Feng Xiaotian quickly came up with an idea.

After thinking seriously for a while, Feng Xiaotian asked Lu Mingfang.

"What do you think Zhao Mingyue's conspiracy is?"

"Hard to say."

Lu Mingfang couldn't understand it for a moment.

Although he had fought against the Demon God Sect many times, Zhao Mingyue's actions this time were really a little too strange.

Just like going crazy, he opened the two world passages three times in a row.

You know, every time the Demon God Religion opens a channel, it has to pay a huge price.

Apart from anything else, just setting up Tiangang's boundary-breaking formation is not a simple matter.

A lot of manpower and material resources are required.

And once something is done, Zhao Mingyue himself will not show up, so it will be fine.

But her incarnation is at risk of being killed.

For Zhao Mingyue, who has lost many incarnations, she should not be so irrational.

Lu Mingfang couldn't figure out the key for a while.

Feng Xiaotian said slowly.

"I guess Zhao Mingyue may be preparing to open a truly stable passage."

"It's impossible. Except for the location in the back mountain of the sect, the space barriers in other places are not enough to support the opening of a stable two-realm passage. As for the back mountain, she can't get in at all."

Lu Mingfang was shocked when he heard Feng Xiaotian's guess, and he subconsciously denied it.

This guess is really a bit scary.

"It's nothing impossible. This is the most reasonable explanation. Yufantian is vast and boundless. Maybe it's not just the weak space in the back mountain, but also other places."

"As long as you look carefully, you can definitely find it."

"Zhao Mingyue should also understand this truth, otherwise, she wouldn't be so crazy."

"Sect Master, how should we respond? Should we mobilize everyone in the sect to search for it together?"

After listening to Feng Xiaotian's explanation, Lu Mingfang felt numb all over.

His first reaction was to immediately find the specific location and then arrange for people to guard it.

to prevent new channels from opening.

Feng Xiaotian thought for a long time and said with a helpless expression.

"There's no hurry. Since Zhao Mingyue has found a suitable place, it must have been blocked and hidden by her. If we want to find the specific location now, it will be as difficult as finding a needle in a haystack."

"Then what should we do? We can't do nothing and just wait for the demons to come, right?"

Lu Mingfang was a little anxious. He felt very passive now, but for the moment, he couldn't think of a better way to deal with it.

But they definitely have to do something, and waiting for death is obviously not an option.

Although they had never experienced the disaster a hundred thousand years ago.

But according to classic records, the war that year was extremely brutal.

Dao Sheng Sect lost as many as three Mahayana monks alone.

It was also because of that battle that the Dao Sheng Sect's strength weakened a lot.

Back then, the Dao Sheng Sect had five Mahayana monks, but now there are only two.

Once the demons come in force, whether they can repel them is a question.

The inheritance left by the ancestors can't just be lost in their hands, right?

Chapter 74 The Great Perfection of Refining the Void

Like Lu Mingfang, Feng Xiaotian also felt great pressure.

According to his understanding, the Demon World is similar to Yu Fantian, and they are also dominated by one family.

The Demon Palace rules the entire demon world.

But compared to the current Dao Sheng Sect, the Demon God Palace is much stronger.

According to classic records, there were as many as ten demons in Mahayana who invaded Yu Fantian that year.

Due to the long lifespan of demons, these demons should basically still be alive.

Over the past 100,000 years, the number of Mahayana in the Demon God Palace may have increased.

As for their Dao Sheng Sect, after the war that year, their strength had weakened a lot, and they have not yet fully recovered.

Now facing the demon army, they have no chance of winning.

But what can be done?

If someone knocks on your door, you have to fight back.

Thinking of this, Feng Xiaotian said to Lu Mingfang solemnly.

"Give me the order. From now on, we will form a demon-suppressing army based on the government."

"In addition, open the sect's treasure house and increase the intensity of cultivating the sect's disciples."

Feng Xiaotian didn't know when the demon army would come, so he could only try to improve the strength of monk Yu Fantian.

Once the demons really come, they have enough power to resist.

"Yes, I will arrange it."

After the two discussed for a while, Lu Mingfang walked down the mountain worriedly and left.

After two demonic disasters, the Tao Sheng Sect suddenly sent orders to the world to form demon-suppressing armies in every government.

Anyone who is a monk above Foundation Establishment can join regardless of their origins.

Not only do you get a salary by joining the Demon Suppressing Army, but you can also get corresponding merits as long as you kill the demons.

There are all kinds of magical weapons, martial arts and supernatural powers, and they can all be redeemed as long as you have enough merit.

For a moment, the whole Yu Fantian was boiling.

Many high-level skills and magical powers were originally firmly controlled by the Daosheng Sect.

Now they are actually released in large quantities. As long as enough demons are killed, they can be exchanged for merits.

For the players of Blue Star, this is a great benefit.

Players are not afraid of death. After all, they can be resurrected the next day after death.

The only pity is that there are too few demons now. The demons that appeared in the two demon disasters have basically been wiped out by the Daosheng Sect.

They can't find the target even if they want to kill.

Everyone is looking forward to when the third demon disaster will come.

...

Yinhe Peak.

Zhang Yuhe walked out of the cave.

At this time, his aura seemed even stronger, and he had reached the great perfection of the Refining Void Realm.

For more than a hundred years, he has been staying in Yinhe Peak for retreat and cultivation, and never paid attention to the outside world.

However, he has heard about the demon disaster.

After all, when he is offline, he will also browse the Skynet.

Every time the demon disaster breaks out, the players are very active.

Especially after the Daosheng Sect ordered the formation of the Demon Suppression Army, it is even more so.

Countless players joined the Demon Suppression Army and searched for traces of the demons.

However, Zhang Yuhe didn't care much about the demon disaster. He just practiced.

If the sky falls, there will be tall people to hold it up. He doesn't need to worry about it.

No matter how the Demon God Cult does it, as long as it doesn't affect my practice, it's fine.

For him, the most important thing now is to pass the tribulation again.

Zhang Yuhe stood on the top of the mountain, thinking silently.

"Where should I go to pass the tribulation?"

It's obviously not possible to pass the tribulation at the Yinhe Peak.

The power of the heavenly tribulation is extremely terrible.

The last time I passed the tribulation, the heavenly tribulation directly split a lake of thousands of miles into tens of thousands of miles.

That was the heavenly tribulation of the Refining Void Realm.

Now he wants to break through to the Fusion Realm, and the heavenly tribulation will definitely be more fierce.

If he passes the tribulation in the Daosheng Sect, I'm afraid that the entire sect will be split into a small half.

"Let's go to the Yunmang Mountains to pass the tribulation."

After thinking for a while, Zhang Yuhe decided to continue to choose the Yunmang Mountains as the place for the tribulation.
