Because he felt that there should be no bottleneck in the fusion realm.

"Take your time, I hope it's in time."

Zhang Yuhe put away his thoughts and continued to practice silently.

Time passed slowly.

Every few decades, the Demon God Cult still set up the Tiangang Breaking Realm Array in various places, trying to open a temporary channel connecting the two realms.

However, every time the channel was opened, the Demon Suppression Army in various places responded quickly.

The descending demons were quickly wiped out, and basically no major disturbances were set off.

There was even one time when the Demon God Cult did not even have time to open the channel.

It was discovered by the Demon Suppression Army on regular patrols.

A war broke out instantly.

After receiving the notification, Lu Mingfang quickly rushed to the scene.

He showed his divine power and easily killed a Refining Void Demon with his fusion great perfection.

Zhao Mingyue's incarnation did not escape this time.

After losing another Refining Void Demon.

The actions of the Demon God Cult slowly calmed down.

...

Chapter 79 Mahayana

Winter has gone and spring has come, and more than 800 years have passed.

Ever since Lu Mingfang killed a demon from the Refining Void Clan.

The actions of the Demon God Cult soon fell into silence.

Without the chaos caused by the demon disaster, the Yufantian world has returned to its former appearance.

If it weren't for the occasional discovery of the demons that escaped the net, people would have almost forgotten that there was a demon disaster.

However, after hundreds of years of continuous elimination.

The number of demons that entered Yufantian through temporary passages in the previous few times is already pitifully small.

They are even rarer than the giant pandas on Blue Star.

Every time a demon is discovered, there will be a large group of cultivators watching.

In order to compete for the merit of killing the demon, the cultivators will even fight.

As a result, the number of cultivators killed by their own people is even more than that killed by the demons.

Mainly because the merits of the Daosheng Sect are too tempting.

As long as the merits are enough, even the heavenly magical powers can be exchanged.

For the monks, such temptation is completely irresistible.

The only problem is that there are too few demons.

Without enough demons for them to kill, they simply cannot collect enough merits.

The rules of Daosheng Sect are very rigid.

If you want merits, you can only kill demons.

Apart from this, there is no other way to get merits.

This makes the monks depressed.

Everyone once thought that the so-called merit exchange was just a pie in the sky drawn by Daosheng Sect.

It is simply impossible to collect enough.

The monk who currently earns the most merits.

At most, it is only enough to exchange for an ordinary magic weapon.

As for wanting to exchange for skills and magical powers, the merits are still far from enough.

Despite this, the monks' enthusiasm for joining the Demon Suppression Army has not diminished at all.

After all, apart from patrolling various places in the mansion, they don't need to do anything to get a salary.

So why not join?

Daosheng Sect also accepts everyone.

As long as they are monks above the foundation building stage, the Demon Suppression Army will accept them.

And the salary is paid on time, never in arrears.

Therefore, in some larger prefectures.

The number of demon-suppressing troops has even expanded to hundreds of thousands.

Ordinary people are just watching the excitement, but those big forces have long seen the door.

The Daosheng Sect has formed a demon-suppressing army in such a big way.

And it has lasted for nearly a thousand years, but it has not sent the demon-suppressing army to do anything.

It is obvious that the Daosheng Sect is preparing for war.

As for the purpose of preparing for war? Where does the enemy come from?

That's a bit hard to say.

But they know that it is definitely not from Yufantian.

Because there is no one in the entire Yufantian who deserves the Daosheng Sect to treat it so seriously.

Some people speculate that perhaps the demon army is going to make a comeback and reproduce the disaster of 100,000 years ago.

In order to deal with the disaster, the Daosheng Sect formed demon-suppressing troops in various places.

Some people also speculate that it may be that the Daosheng Sect has discovered a new civilized world.

The formation of the demon-suppressing army is intended to invade the new world.

Some people even speculate that the Daosheng Sect formed the demon-suppressing army to clean up Yufantian's forces.

There were many speculations.

However, Dao Sheng Zong never gave a clear explanation.

It was just silently accumulating strength.

Yunmang Mountains, Thunder Lake.

“Huh, I finally survived another heavenly tribulation.”

Zhang Yuhe stood on the lake and breathed a sigh of relief.

At this time, his aura was fully unfolded, and the intimidating pressure swept across hundreds of thousands of miles.

He was already in the Mahayana realm.

After more than 800 years of hard practice, he finally cultivated to the great perfection of the fusion.

Then he came to Thunder Lake to survive another tribulation.

The heavenly tribulation caused by breaking through the Mahayana realm was indeed extremely fierce.

In the last round of heavenly tribulation, eight nine-colored divine thunders were struck in succession.

There was even a golden thunder at the end.

Zhang Yuhe had never seen any record of golden thunder in the classics.

In other words, there should have been no golden heavenly tribulation in the history of Yu Fantian.

When this unknown golden heavenly tribulation appeared.

It really scared him.

Fortunately, he improved the Renshui Thunder Absorbing Formation.

Although he did not replace the Thunder Absorbing Pillar.

But he redesigned the formation pattern.

The improved Renshui Thunder Absorbing Formation has a strong weakening effect on the Heavenly Tribulation.

It can probably weaken the power of the Heavenly Tribulation by two-thirds.

So when dealing with the first sixty thunderbolts.

He did not use any magic treasures, but directly operated the Galaxy Zhoutian Gong, crushing the heavenly tribulation with his fists.

Even the eight nine-colored divine thunderbolts, after being weakened by the Renshui Thunder Absorbing Formation, were easily dealt with by him.

Only the last golden heavenly tribulation was really scary.

Even though it was weakened by one third of its power by the Renshui Thunder Absorbing Formation.

It still pierced through countless layers of the defense of the Nine Heavens Hunyuan Sword Formation.

It almost hit him directly.

He was scared to death at that time.

If the golden heavenly tribulation really hit him directly.

His small body would definitely not be able to withstand it even if he operated the Galaxy Zhoutian Gong.

"Finally, I got through it."

Watching the sky become clear again.
