Section 91

It's not like you can't fight.

Not aggressive enough, but we can still fight a defensive battle.

Feng Xiaotian suddenly had a strange feeling.

He felt that maybe Zhang Yuhe was the son of destiny raised by Yu Fantian.

Because the demon clan is about to invade, a peerless genius like Zhang Yuhe will appear.

Maybe Zhang Yuhe was born to save the world.

If Feng Xiaotian knew, Zhang Yuhe was just a player from Blue Star.

I don't know how he should feel.

Feng Xiaotian walked up to Zhang Yuhe and asked happily.

"When did Junior Brother Zhang break through?"

"Just today, I just returned from the Yunzhong Mansion."

Zhang Yuhe did not hide anything.

After all, Feng Xiaotian is the leader of Daosheng Sect.

He had some plans that needed Feng Xiaotian's cooperation to proceed.

In Zhang Yuhe's view.

Feng Xiaotian built a demon-suppressing city in Liuyun Corridor to intercept the invading demons.

This is a very wise choice.

But defense alone will definitely not work.

There is an old saying in Blue Star.

If you keep it for a long time, you will lose it.

If you want to completely block the demons, or even repel them in the end, it is very necessary to take the initiative appropriately.

However, facing the fierce demon army, with the power of the Dao Sheng Sect, it was obviously impossible to take the initiative to attack.

Now if they rush over, they can only kill people.

But others couldn't, so Zhang Yuhe thought he might be able to give it a try.

He doesn't need to find those Mahayana demons.

Mahayana demons are not that easy to kill.

But the Demon Clan Mahayana only has thirteen in total.

As long as you avoid these thirteen Mahayana demons, other demons will not kill you at will.

Countless demonic armies descended.

He didn't believe that these thirteen demons, Mahayana, could take care of them all.

As long as he can kill the demon army to the point of defeat, he can naturally reduce the defensive pressure on the Dao Sheng Sect.

As for his own lone wolf action, will he encounter danger?

Zhang Yuhe didn't take it to heart at all.

First, he is a player and may be resurrected if he dies.

It's impossible for the demons to kill him once and still know how to guard his body, right?

Secondly, after breaking through the Mahayana realm, his strength has been greatly improved.

Even if he faced the demons in the late Mahayana period, he was confident that he could survive two moves.

Even if you can't beat him, escaping shouldn't be a problem.

Of course, more importantly.

When he broke through the Mahayana, the innate magical power of his Hunyuan Dao body was finally activated.

Don't know why.

As soon as he broke through the Mahayana realm, Zhang Yuhe suddenly gained an extremely powerful magical power.

According to ancient records, all spiritual bodies have their own innate magical powers.

For example, Li Tian's fire spirit body automatically acquires a corresponding innate magical power when he breaks through to the realm of divine transformation.

He heard from Li Tian that the innate magical power of the Fire Spirit's body was called the Flame of Life.

This is a very special magical power that can quickly restore injuries.

It is precisely because of the existence of this magical power.

Back when he was in Jingkong City, Li Tian was beaten like a sandbag by the horned demon in the Void Refining Realm.

It didn't matter much in the end.

Because of the magical power of Life Flame, it has a very strong restorative effect.

As long as he is not beaten to death on the spot, he can recover quickly.

Relying on the magical power of the flame of life, Li Tian is an invincible Xiaoqiang.

As for Zhang Yuhe himself, the magical power he obtained is called Hunyuan Guiyi.

This is a powerful explosive magical power.

Once Hunyuan is used, one's own strength can be increased by nine times in an instant.

Dao Sheng Sect also has explosive magical powers, but those magical powers can only increase the strength by 10% to 20% at most.

Moreover, ordinary burst magical powers will cause great sequelae after being used.

It may take hundreds of years to recuperate, or it may cause your cultivation to never progress again.

Even after using explosive magical power, it is possible to die on the spot.

However, there are no side effects after using Hunyuan Guiyi.

This is very BUG.

What is the concept of a nine-fold increase in strength?

That's not just as simple as nine of us.

The effect of the superimposed strength is that even in the late Mahayana stage, he is confident that he can kill him.

Of course, such a perverted magical power will naturally have some limitations.

Hunyuan's reunification consumes a lot of money.

Zhang Yuhe estimated.

Even if the sea in his Dantian can continuously provide mana.

That won't last long.

In other words, the time he can break out is very short.

Moreover, this magical power can only be used once every hundred years.

In simple terms.

Hunyuan Guiyi is a super move that consumes a lot of money and has a long cooldown time.

However, once such a big move is used, it will definitely have the effect of turning the world around.

It is precisely this magical power that exists.

Only then did Zhang Yuhe have the confidence to go deep behind enemy lines and fight guerrillas against the demons.

If you really encounter a danger that you can't deal with, just use your ultimate move.

Chapter 88 Learn all about the Sutra Tower

Zhang Yuhe has no intention of guarding Liuyun Corridor with the large army.

He planned to go out alone to hunt the demons.

You can ask Wang Guofeng to mobilize Blue Star players and provide him with information about the demon army.

That way he could hunt the demons quietly.

Although the demon army is large in number.

But he kills one batch today and another batch tomorrow.

One day, we can kill them all slowly.

The most important thing is that this can disrupt the demon army and prevent the other side from being arrogant.

Feng Xiaotian looked at Zhang Yuhe and said with emotion.

"Junior brother is really a natural talent. He has cultivated to the Mahayana realm in just over a thousand years."

"With junior brother here, we can finally relax a little."

"The sect master is too kind. It is everyone's unshirkable responsibility to contribute to the sect."

Zhang Yuhe was not hypocritical.

Daosheng Sect has supported him for many years.

Now facing the fierce demon army, it is indeed his turn to contribute.

He and Feng Xiaotian began to discuss the next response plan.

With the addition of him, the Mahayana ancestor, Feng Xiaotian's original plan naturally needs to be changed.

At this time, Li Tian, who was standing next to him, suddenly spoke.

"Sect master, ancestor, I'm going out first."

"Okay, you go back first, practice well, the war is coming, try to improve your strength as much as possible."

"Yes, sect master."
