Section 96

He couldn't help but ask curiously.

"Master, what is the use of this talisman?"

Zhang Yuhe is a fellow practitioner of all arts. His ability to draw talismans is not the best in Daosheng Sect.

At least he is the top one, but he can't figure out what this talisman is used for.

Feng Xiaotian said leisurely.

"This is something left by the ancestor back then, called the Qiankun Positioning Talisman. Once you encounter danger, just activate the talisman, no matter where you are, as long as you are still within the range of Yufantian, you can instantly return to the ancestor's hall."

Hearing Feng Xiaotian's words, Zhang Yuhe opened his mouth in surprise.

There is such a powerful talisman, the ancestor is awesome.

Chapter 92 Quick Harvest

Zhang Yuhe held the Qiankun Positioning Talisman in his hand and said solemnly.

"Thank you, Master."

He knew how precious this talisman was.

As long as you carry the Qiankun Positioning Talisman with you, you can be said to be completely immortal within the range of Yufantian.

It is estimated that there are not many such talismans in Daosheng Sect.

It is even possible that only this one is left, and Feng Xiaotian carries it with him.

If the Daosheng Sect had multiple Qiankun Positioning Talismans, there would be no reason for Wu Yuemin not to bring one.

If he had the Qiankun Positioning Talisman, Wu Yuemin would not have died.

Feng Xiaotian waved his hand and said.

"You are welcome, junior brother, as long as you can come back safely."

"Don't worry, Sect Master."

Zhang Yuhe solemnly put away the Qiankun Positioning Talisman.

The two chatted about other details for a while, and then walked out of the tent.

Lu Mingfang was waiting outside.

Feng Xiaotian said.

"Let's go, take us to the teleportation array."

"Yes, Sect Master."

The three of them soon came to a huge array, surrounded by dozens of Daosheng Sect disciples guarding.

Zhang Yuhe saw as many as five elders in the fusion realm alone.

The teleportation array of Zhenmo City is a crucial place.

Even though it has not been opened and used yet, Lu Mingfang still dare not be careless.

He arranged a large number of people to guard it.

Feng Xiaotian waved his hand to let everyone go, and then asked Zhang Yuhe.

"Where do you plan to go first, brother?"

"Go directly to Luzhou City."

The teleportation array that Daosheng Sect is still running can only reach Luzhou City to the east.

It is still billions of miles away from Mingzhou.

He plans to go to Luzhou first, and then fly to Mingzhou.

Feng Xiaotian took out the black jade card, cast a spell, and said to Zhang Yuhe.

"I have already greeted the elders guarding Luzhou. You can leave directly after you go there. They won't ask."

"Thank you, Sect Master, then I will leave first."

"Be sure to act cautiously."

Zhang Yuhe nodded, and then walked onto the teleportation array.

Feng Xiaotian pinched the spell with his fingers, and the teleportation array instantly lit up with a dazzling light.

Seeing Zhang Yuhe disappear from the teleportation array, Feng Xiaotian was somewhat inexplicably worried.

He was very worried that this new brother would follow in Wu Yuemin's footsteps.

But there is no way. The demons are so powerful that they have to do something.

Someone has to take risks.

"I hope that Junior Brother Zhang will be lucky and come back safely."

Luzhou City, Teleportation Hall.

As the closest teleportation array to the demon army, there is a combined elder guarding here.

Suddenly, the teleportation array lit up with a dazzling light.

A young man walked out of the teleportation array.

Zhang Yuhe nodded to the elder, then turned into a stream of light and flew away.

The elder looked at the distant stream of light and muttered to himself.

"Who is this person? What is the sect master sending people to Luzhou for now?"

Zhang Yuhe restrained his breath and took a special pill to change his appearance.

The guarding elder could not recognize him at all.

After leaving Luzhou City, Zhang Yuhe used all his strength to activate the Tianhuang Feixian technique and quickly rushed eastward.

His goal was very clear, that is, the demon army.

According to the information provided by the Xiuxian Alliance.

The demon army was divided into tens of thousands of routes, each with about 100,000 to 1 million people.

And there were large gaps between the armies, with the smallest gap being over a million miles.

The largest gap was even tens of millions of miles.

There was no way, because Yufantian was too big.

Even if the demons had billions of troops.

But these demons were still just small dots in Yufantian.

Very inconspicuous.

While advancing rapidly, Zhang Yuhe kept adjusting the direction of advance according to the latest news provided by Wang Guofeng.

Every other day, Wang Guofeng would send the latest intelligence, and they did not use identity jade cards.

Instead, they contacted through the friend chat function in the game.

Compared with the identity jade cards of Daosheng Sect.

The chat function in the game is more comprehensive and more convenient.

Ten days later, Zhang Yuhe suddenly stopped.

This place is close to the border of Mingzhou.

According to the intelligence, there is a demon army ahead, with a number of about 200,000 people.

As for the strength of the demon army, the player who provided the information is not very clear.

Most players are still too weak to tell the specific strength of the demons.

Although some players have practiced in Yufantian for more than a thousand years.

But in terms of strength, they are still far behind the demons.

Except for Zhang Yuhe himself, the strongest player is Wang Guofeng.

He is in the middle stage of the transformation of the spirit.

Among the other players, not even one has reached the Spiritualization Stage, and only a few have broken through to the Nascent Soul Stage.

This is still thanks to the help of the elixir he provided.

Otherwise, the number of Nascent Soul players would be much smaller.

The remaining players are in the Foundation Establishment Stage and the Golden Core Stage, and there are even more players in the Qi Refining Stage.

In order to prevent their life span from slipping away too quickly, these people generally don't stay in Yufantian for too long.

But they will go online every day to look for some opportunities.

Therefore, there will be players who will constantly encounter the demon army.

Although the players cannot distinguish the strength of the demon army, it is not important.

For Zhang Yuhe.

As long as it is not a Mahayana demon, the others are a piece of cake.

No matter whether it is a Refining Void or a Fusion.

With one slap, he can kill a large group of them.

Zhang Yuhe flew quickly all the way, while spreading his spiritual sense and scanning forward.

I saw a large group of demon army coming here in a mighty manner.

"Hmph, I'll start with you."

Zhang Yuhe didn't hesitate at all, he rushed over quickly.

A giant palm holding up the sky, with flames all over the sky, enveloped the demon army.

The top-grade magical power of the heavenly rank, the flames burned the sky.
