Section 98

"After we transform most of Yu Fantian into the demon realm, we won't be afraid of the Dao Sheng Sect coming out of the sky."

"Sooner or later, this world will be ours."

"The palace master is wise."

After listening to Mo Yuetian's explanation, everyone couldn't help but marvel.

Although Mo Yuetian's method seems stupid, it is also very slow to produce results.

But very stable.

When they transform the entire Yu Fantian into the Demon Realm, the monks will no longer be able to survive in this world.

At that time, even if the backers from the Dao Sage and Immortal Realm come to support, they will not be able to change the situation.

It just takes a long time to completely reverse the spiritual energy of a world into demonic energy.

But they really don't need to rush.

Demons have a long life span, even if it takes tens of thousands of years, they can afford to wait.

Seeing the Demon Clan Mahayana, they quickly reached an agreement. Zhao Mingyue, who was standing behind, couldn't help but frown slightly.

But she didn't speak.

Due to the difference in strength, and as a human race.

She has no say at all on the demon clan's side.

Mo Yuetian took her with him just to get more information.

Suddenly, Zhao Mingyue pulled out a mirror and typed a spell, and lines of text were displayed in the mirror.

This is the latest message sent by the believers in Lingzhou.

After careful inspection, Zhao Mingyue hurriedly said to Mo Yuetian.

"Palace Master Qi, we have just received news that the Dao Sheng Sect is building a fortress in the Liuyun Corridor in Lingzhou, hoping to block the advance of the Saint Clan's army."

"Um?"

Mo Yuetian waved his hand, and a huge map appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

Everyone looked at the map and quickly found the location of Liuyun Corridor.

Looking at the terrain of Liuyun Corridor, all the demons frowned.

"This place is a bit troublesome. Once the Dao Sheng Sect gets stuck in the Liuyun Corridor, we won't be able to continue westward."

"Can't you pass by even the other side?"

"Of course not. I've heard of the reputations of Suiyuexu and Wuyahai a hundred thousand years ago. Those two places are completely deserted. Even the immortals can't go deep into them, let alone us."

Mo Yuetian looked at the map quietly.

After a while, he said calmly.

"Ignore it, we just need to advance steadily. Even if Dao Shengzong guards Liuyun Corridor, it will only guard half of Yu Fantian's territory."

"As long as we occupy the east of Liuyun Corridor, we will occupy most of Yu Fantian."

"That's right. As long as we transform everything east of Liuyun Corridor into a demonic realm, Dao Sheng Sect will have no choice but to struggle to its death."

at this time.

The First Demon God, Wei Wutian, suddenly took out a mirror to look at it, and then said in shock.

"No, we have several teams that suddenly lost contact."

...

Chapter 94 Exposed

Everyone in the hall couldn't help but be shocked when they heard that a team had lost contact.

Because the demon army was too numerous, they split the army into tens of thousands.

The various armies formed a wide front and slowly advanced westward.

It's just that although there is a certain distance between the various departments, they will always keep in touch.

Moreover, all armies need to report their progress to the Demon Guards regularly every day.

Why did we lose contact all of a sudden?

Could it be that they encountered a powerful monster and were destroyed by it?

This is impossible.

Even if they encounter a monster that they cannot deal with, they should report it in time.

More importantly, it is impossible for several armies to encounter powerful monsters at the same time.

This is completely impossible.

Mo Yuetian frowned slightly and asked Wu Tian solemnly.

"What happened?"

Wu Tian was also puzzled at this time and didn't know how to answer for a while.

After carefully sorting out his thoughts, he spoke slowly.

"Back to the palace master, it was the reporting time agreed upon by my subordinates and various departments, but six teams did not report to me."

"I sent them messages and got no response."

"Quick, notify the nearby team and go over quickly to check."

Hearing Wu Tian's reply, Mo Yuetian immediately felt something was wrong.

Something must have happened.

If those six teams forgot to report to Wu Tian, that would still make sense.

But there was no reply to the message sent by Wu Tian, which makes no sense.

It can only mean that something happened.

As for what happened, it's hard to tell yet.

Maybe it was a sneak attack sent by Daosheng Sect, or maybe it was resistance from Yu Fantian's local forces.

Although the overall strength of the demon clan is strong.

But after being spread among tens of thousands of teams, the strength becomes much weaker.

In some teams, the ones leading the team only have the cultivation of gods and not even one of them.

Once these teams encounter a sneak attack by Yu Fantian's high-level monks, they may indeed be destroyed.

Faced with the sudden unexpected situation, the hall fell into silence.

The situation is unclear now, and they can only wait for news from other teams.

After Zhang Yuhe destroyed six demon teams in a row, he did not stop.

The number of the demon army is really too much.

He took action six times in a row, and the number of demons he destroyed was just over a million.

Compared to the army of billions of demons, this is just a drop in the bucket.

He had to keep killing.

Kill until the demons are afraid, kill until the demons are in panic.

Kill until the demon army shrinks.

Instead of what is happening now.

Billions of troops were deployed in a wide front, advancing arrogantly all the way.

He just wanted to beat down the arrogance of the demons.

Zhang Yuhe compared the intelligence while adjusting the direction and flew quickly towards another target.

According to the latest intelligence provided by the Xiuxian Alliance.

There was a large demon army 100,000 miles to his left.

This was provided by a Yuanying Realm player.

According to that player.

At that time, he was fleeing westward and suddenly encountered the demon army.

With the strength of the Yuanying Realm, the player fought his way forward.

In the end, he was killed by a powerful demon.

Because that player survived for a long time surrounded by the demon army.

Therefore, he had a rough idea of the size of that demon army.

According to that player's estimate.

The demon team he encountered had at least a million people.

And the demon leading the team was also very powerful.

"Let's do a big one and destroy this team first."

Zhang Yuhe quickly made a decision and planned to destroy this million-man demon army.

He had attacked six times in a row before.

Although he killed a lot of demons, the strongest one was only in the Refining Void Realm.

It was completely impossible to hurt the demons.

He thought that this million-man demon army should have a leader in the Fusion Realm.

If he killed one or two people in the Fusion Realm, the demons would feel the pain.
