

TPOL chapter 1461 - 1480

Was there someone else in the hot spring?

There could not be somebody else other than Phoebe! So, it must be her!

Cheryl had gone to fetch some fruits. Alex, who was sitting at the opposite, had a relaxed expression. Alex felt slightly angry when the leg that he was holding seemed to be not hers... Yet, on the other hand, he thought that it was a little exciting and addictive to do such sneaky stuff.

Perhaps it was out of revenge, Alex also reached his leg out and soon stepped on Phoebe's thigh.

Her slightly closed eyes shuddered violently, yet she still did not move.

Alex made a move again by slowly moving his leg upwards. This time, Alex was in a dilemma... Should he continue doing it?

Looking at Phoebe's current expression, she seemed to have acquiesced to Alex's frivolous act and had no intention to say anything. However, he could not possibly continue doing it!

Just when Alex decided to retreat, Phoebe suddenly grabbed his leg.

Alex struggled a bit but Phoebe grabbed it tightly and warned him with lip-sync. "Don't move. Otherwise, I'll tell Cheryl that you harassed me. The evidence is clear, your denial will be invalid."

"What... What do you want to do?"

Alex perspired heavily as he saw Cheryl had returned with a fruit platter and gone into the water again. But then, he realized Phoebe was massaging his foot's sole under the water.

She was no doubt a doctor. To his surprise, even the foot massage technique was quite professional and comfortable.

Previously, Alex was the one who gave massage to other people. This time, Phoebe took the initiative to give him a massage.

What an indulgence!

He was a bit reluctant to move his foot away. He thought, ‘Since it’s just a foot massage, it should be fine, right?’

“Phoebe, what do you want to eat? Help yourself, okay!” said Cheryl as she smiled.

Phoebe was busy underwater now. How could she have an extra hand to fetch the fruits?

Alex thought that she would just let off his leg like that.

Unexpectedly,

she smiled and said, “I’m kind of lazy in the hot spring now. I don’t really want to move. Why don’t you feed me?”

“Huh? You’re even too lazy to take the fruits with your hands?”

“Yeah! Otherwise, forget it then, I’m not going to eat. You two go ahead and eat. No need to care about me.” Cheryl smiled, but she still picked up a piece of fruit and stuffed it into Phoebe’s mouth.

Alex was dumbfounded. Never did he expect that Phoebe would do that. However, this feeling was somehow addictive. What should he do?

Especially when Phoebe was giving him a foot massage under the water, it was unknown if she was unintentional or intentional that he could always touch her stomach.

***

Compared to Alex’s comfort, someone was very anxious and angry. Gill immediately rushed to the hospital right after he left the hot spring.

However, this matter was truly embarrassing.

As the dignified Lord Commander’s grandnephew, how would he still be able to fool around with women if people were to find out that he had become impotent all of a sudden? It was not pleasant to be talked about behind his back.

So, when the car was driving halfway, he shouted to stop the car.

“Young Master Xenos, what’s wrong? Are we not going to the hospital anymore?” asked his bodyguard. His other subordinate, Winel Grundy, also asked caringly, “Young Master Xenos, are you feeling it again? I find this so weird! How can someone just lose his senses for no reason? I’ve never heard about it before!”

Chapter 1462

Gill grunted. “I was just too nervous previously, there must be something wrong with the atmosphere. Think about it yourself, there were so many people at that time and even the elder of Divine Constabulary came over. It’s just normal for me to lose the senses. Besides, if the elder of Divine Constabulary really went to Department Six to file a complaint, my granduncle will ask about it too.”

“Yes, you’re right. It must be like that,” Winel nodded his head consecutively.

“Then, where should we go now, Young Master Xenos?” asked the bodyguard.

“Back to the hotel! Winel, get me a few slutty women and also some pills.”

He wanted to try it right away if it would work under normal circumstances.

Twenty minutes later, everything had properly arranged. Gill went to the toilet first. When he came out, he did not look well.

That feeling was extremely terrible. However, what happened next had made him devastated.

Winel had gotten him two women.

However, Gill had no reactions at all no matter what they had done to him.

Gill was anxious as well. He was sweating profusely in panic and even took all three pills that Winel had prepared for him. As a result, it still did not work. Half an hour had passed like that, the two women were exhausted. Eventually, they complained with great displeasure.

“Gosh, what the hell? Why do you need to find women when you’re just a eunuch?”

Those two women did not even know about Gill’s identity. This series of complaints had completely offended Gill.

All of a sudden, he got up abruptly and grabbed the wine bottle on the bedside table, smashing it on one woman’s head with a bang. Then, he stabbed the broken bottle into another woman’s thigh.

At once, the blood was dripping and the scene was out of control. However, Gill was not a martial artist, whereas, the two service women were not easy on the eyes as well.

Since women in this industry were willing to sell off their dignity and personality, what else would they not do?

The woman who got hit on the head grabbed a glass cup and fiercely smashed it on Gill’s head.

“Sherry, come and help me!”

“What a useless b*stard! How dare you use violence on us?! Beat him until he dies!”

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The two angry women beat up Gill with punches and kicks. One of them even took video of him. She was snatching all Gill’s belongings while blackmailing him.

“If you ever come to trouble us, your video will be uploaded on the internet, Triller, YouTube and others. When the time comes, everyone will know that you’re a useless man.”

Meanwhile, Winel and Gill’s bodyguard would never have expected Gill to be beaten up and filmed as well. They intentionally waited downstairs to avoid hearing any commotion. When they immediately went back to check Gill after receiving his call, they were shocked.“Young Master Xenos, what happened? Who did this? Could it be that those people earlier are from Divine Constabulary?”Slap!Gill gave Winel a slap across the face.

“D*mmmit! What kind of women did you bring me? I was almost killed!”“Go and find those two b*tches! I want them to know what are the consequences for offending me!”Winel and the bodyguard were shocked.To their surprise, Gill was beaten up. This would become a laughing stock if people knew about it!“Young Master Xenos, how did you people start fighting? You... How did it go? Were you still able to do it?”Those words had completely suppressed Gill’s anger, leaving only panic.How would he still find women in the future if he really could not do it?Most importantly, he was not married yet. If he could not get better for the rest of his life, he would rather be dead!As he thought about it, he did not bother to look for trouble anymore. As he thought about it, he did not bother to look for trouble anymore.

He immediately asked the bodyguard to send him to the hospital with the best andrologist in Michigan.

Chapter 1463

An hour later, Gill had received his medical report in the hospital.

After taking a glance at the report, the andrologist immediately frowned and said while shaking his head, “Mr. Xenos, your condition is quite severe.

According to the detailed ultrasound examination, it has proven that your member is starting to fail. If the condition continues to progress, the area may become atrophied and eventually necrotic. So, my advice is to do the penectomy early before there is any tissue necrosis.”

“Huh?”

Gill was dumbfounded when he heard that. He said loudly, “F*ck, what kind of sh*tty specialist are you? Are you an eunuch specialist? I was still fine yesterday. How can it suddenly not work anymore today? You can't cure me and you're asking me to cut it off?"

The doctor helplessly said, "This is my suggestion as an andrologist. Of course, you don't have to believe me too. Whether you want to do the surgery or not, it's up to you."

Gill was furious. He swept everything off the doctor's table. "You old fart, are you threatening me?"

The doctor glanced at the fierce bodyguard at the side and he did not dare to say anything else.

Winel said, "Make it clear. What kind of disease does Young Master Xenos have?"

The doctor said, "This is an extremely rare functional disorder and very complicated to explain it. He has lost the basic ability of his member. Its nerves have lost their sensitivity and are unable to conduct the messages from the brain. Then, it will lead to tissue necrosis and further infection and erosion that will endanger his whole body."

"So serious? How exactly did it occur?"

"There can be many causes, but I'm thinking it may be related to an unclean relationship between a man and a woman... Such as what he had said, excessive exertion and pressure will cause functional problems. If other complementary medications were taken before, the chances of this happening will be even greater... Therefore, for the sake of your life, a penectomy is recommended to be done early."

"Bullsh*t! Bullsh*t! You're a d*mn quack!" Gill was infuriated. How could this be possible?

"Winel, find me the specialist now!"

Winel frowned. Then, he suddenly said, "Oh! I suddenly remember that I've heard from the Little Pepper from the Hauffer family previously that there's a great doctor in California who's known as the Immortal Doctor.

He

specializes in treating difficult and complicated diseases. Rumor has it that he could even cure a man's pregnancy. It should not be tough for him to cure you, Young Master Xenos."

"A man's pregnancy? Is it even true?"

"I heard that it was a haunting fetus!"

"Damn!"

"There were even rumors that he could cure cancer. He's very great."

"Hurry up and find him for me."

"Alright. I'll go to California at once."

***

Winel clearly did not know that the Immortal Doctor that he was looking for was actually Alex who had turned Gill like that.

Meanwhile, Alex and the others were done with the hot spring bath.

Alex did not really dare to look at Cheryl when they got out.

Originally, he wanted to harass the great beauty, Cheryl, in the hot spring. To his surprise, Phoebe had spoiled his plan. They were playing at each other's feet the entire time.

The feeling was quite exciting, causing Alex to have forgotten his business too. Only after leaving the entrance of the Seven Mile

Hotspring,

Alex gave Zachary a call. "Uncle Xavier, are you still in Michigan? I need to make a report."

"You need to make a report? What kind of report?"

"An owner of the hot spring tried to make Phoebe and Cheryl sleep with the Lord Commander of Department Six's grandnephew in order to get

good graces."

"What? Which hot spring owner? Is he out of his mind? Didn't he see the news about the governor's missing daughter? How dare he act against the wind at this time?" Afterwards, he hurriedly asked, "Miss Larsen and Miss Coney, are you alright?"

Chapter 1464

"We're only slightly frightened."

"That's good."

After Zachary got the address and the name, he immediately went to handle the matter.

As a result, not long after Alex and the others had left, several groups of law enforcement teams belonging to different departments arrived at Seven Mile Springs accordingly and sealed the clubhouse right away. The fat boss was frightened and ran out instantly to greet them, but then he was taken away by a few people from Divine Constabulary.

"You are under arrest for the attempted murder of the governor's daughter!"

The fat boss almost peed himself. "W-what governor's daughter? I've never done it. You must've gotten the wrong person. I'm a law abiding citizen in America. You people can't do this to me. I want a lawyer."

"I'm sorry, lawyers are useless before our Divine Constabulary."

The fat boss was enlightened all of the sudden. He remembered what Phoebe said previously, she mentioned that she would make his establishment close down the next day.

It was not even the next day, yet his clubhouse had been sealed.

Could it be that she was the governor's daughter?

It was too late for the fatty to regret it when he figured it all out in that instant. However, he still had a glimmer of hope. Seeing his secretary was nearby, he immediately shouted, "Shanny, contact Winel Grundy immediately and get Young Master Xenos to save me!"

He ended up being knocked out with a slap by a captain of Divine Constabulary.

"How dare you harass Elder Rockefeller's woman. No one can save you!"

***

Meanwhile, Alex and the others went to a restaurant for dinner right after they had left. Alex mentioned the matter in Mercy Cancer Hospital. As a result, Cheryl was dumbfounded.

“I know about the Mercy Cancer Hospital. It was established six years ago. The president is Professor Shamus Wilson who has published articles in international medical journals. He’d even given us lectures during my days in university!”

Never did Alex expect that Shamus and Cheryl would have such a relationship.

He smiled and said, “If he ever finds out that he used to lecture an Immortal Doctor, he’ll laugh awake from his dreams! That old fart said that he will stay in the hospital to become your subordinate and I said I’ll let you decide on your own.”

After listening to the bet between Alex and Shamus, Cheryl felt slightly unfair for Shamus. “According to the current medical standards, late stage cancer is indeed a terminal disease. How did he know that you had this miraculous pill like the rejuvenation pill? You must have led him onto it.” Alex said, “He came after me first. It’s only right for me to pay him back!

But since he was once your teacher, I’ll let him go this time. I won’t say anything about losing the hospital and I’ll treat that as his contribution to his own medical career.”

Cheryl nodded her head. “I’ve heard about his theory on cancer treatment before. In fact, it is similar to what I’ve learned from Sir Extraordinaire. If we can combine traditional and modern medicine coupled with the treatment methods of Zharvakko, I think we might be able to overcome the problem of cancer.”

“Cheryl, by that time your name will live down the ages and you can at least receive three Nobel Prizes!” said Phoebe enviously. She was a doctor too. Such an honor was impossible not to be envied.Cheryl had been staying in the hotel these few days and she would be returning to California by tomorrow.Alex happened to go back to California as well, so they agreed to leave together tomorrow.Phoebe drove the car and dropped Cheryl off at the hotel first. After saying goodbye in the hotel room and leaving her, Phoebe secretly said to Alex, “You’re so good to your girlfriend. Not only you gave her the Immortal Doctor’s Legacy, now you even gave her a hospital that is worth billions of dollars. Sigh, poor me. As someone’s childhood sweetheart and fiancée with a marriage contract since I was a kid, I don’t seem to be seen in the eyes of somebody.”Alex glanced at her and said, “The Immortal Doctor’s Legacy originally belonged to Cheryl’s grandfather. Moreover, you wouldn’t have time to be any Immortal Doctor too.”Phoebe said, “All I have is time. I can only peel my own toenails whenever I’m free.”Alex shook his head and seriously said, “You won’t have time in the future because you’re destined to be a goddess.”<h4>Chapter 1465</h4>“Goddess?”Phoebe almost laughed when she heard that. “Rockefeller brat, soaking in the hot spring has made your mouth so sweet. This means that the hard work to massage the soles of your feet just now is not in vain. Are you trying to say that I’m a goddess in your mind?”“No!” Alex shook his head. “What I mean is, you’ll need my help to become a true goddess.”

“What does a true goddess look like? Can I fly in the sky?”

“Yes!” Alex replied.

“I think you’re... Are you drunk? But you didn’t even drink just now!”

At this moment, the two people walked into the elevator. Phoebe naturally held Alex’s arm while leaning onto him. The temperature between the two of them started to slowly increase.

When they reached the fifth floor, someone came in.

Alex slightly struggled, but he soon realized that Phoebe was holding onto him tightly. She even raised her head and complained, “What’s wrong? You wouldn’t even let go off my leg just now. Can’t I even hold your arm now? You men are all the same. You people won’t admit doing it after you’re done.”

The two men who just came in turned to them astonishingly.

Alex was speechless and he did not struggle anymore.

When the elevator reached the ground floor, Alex pulled Phoebe’s hand and walked out of the hotel quickly. In fact, the two men’s constant gaze earlier had made him uncomfortable, as if he was a scumbag who was having an affair outside.

“What are you afraid of? Those two don’t even know us,” said Phoebe

as she chuckled.

Alex said, “I’m just afraid it might ruin your reputation. I’m not from Michigan but you’re a famous figure in Michigan. If anyone ever accidentally recognizes you as the governor’s daughter now, it may affect your father later.”

Phoebe shrugged her shoulders.

When they got back into the car, Alex did not ask Phoebe to drive right away. Instead, he said with a serious expression, “What I just said is all true. Do you still remember the phalanx acquired from Viole Zimmer?”

Phoebe nodded her head.

She would certainly remember such a weird incident. However, the phalanx vanished all of a sudden and there was an accident in her family. Various things had happened altogether, so she did not have time to think about the phalanx. If Alex had not brought it up, she would not have remembered it.

“That phalanx is with you,” said Alex.

“What..?!”

Phoebe just jumped up from her seat and hit the car roof in the end. However, Alex’s words had clearly shocked her.

There was also a reason for Alex to bring up this matter.

Phoebe was a doctor. If she kept working in the hospital, she would not have time for cultivation at all. If she wanted to raise her cultivation to the Spirit Severing stage in three years, it would simply be a joke. On the other hand, if Yuno saw that Phoebe was not able to reach the Spirit Severing stage in three years’ time, she would definitely take over her body.

Hence,

Alex had to give her a bit of pressure.

He slowly said, “That’s right! That phalanx of the index finger is now in your body and has overlapped your index finger.”

Phoebe immediately raised her finger and looked at it. However, she could not see the slightest anomaly on her finger until Alex used his spiritual power to point on her index finger.

In the next second, a dim golden light emanated from Phoebe’s index finger, and countless runes burst out of her finger.

Phoebe was dumbfounded as she witnessed the scene. She looked toward Alex nervously. Afterwards, she got up from her seat and pounced onto Alex.

Chapter 1466

“W-what is this?”

“How did this corpse’s phalanx get into my body? Will there be any problem? I don't understand how this happened."

Alex was slightly restless when Phoebe's warm and fragrant body jumped into his embrace.

'Still, she doesn't have to be afraid to this point, right?'

'I've only mentioned a phalanx. If I were to tell you that there's a female ghost staying in your body, will you even be able to sleep well?'

Hence, Alex could only try his best to organize his speech to reduce the psychological pressure brought to her in this matter. He patted her on the back and said, "Don't be afraid. This is a good thing to you. Do you know the origin of the phalanx? This is a once in a lifetime opportunity. It's a blessing that you, Phoebe Larsen, have cultivated for a hundred years.

That's the phalanx of a goddess. Now it has combined with your finger, it means that you'll have the chance to become a goddess."

The term 'goddess' was a yearning for many women including Phoebe.

"Are there really goddesses in this world?"

"Of course! Otherwise, how do you explain this finger?" said Alex.

"But,

opportunities are always accompanied by a little bit of risks. There's a curse on this goddess' finger. Therefore, I must help you cultivate to reach the Spirit Severing stage in three years. Otherwise, you will be in danger."

"What kind of danger? Is it death?"

"Um... You won't die, but you will lose your conscience and might become a vegetative person in the future."

"But, don't you worry because with my help, I'll definitely have you achieve the Spirit Severing stage within three years to remove the curse."

"But, what if I can't do it? Is it because you have no other ways to save me?"

Alex initially said those words to give her pressure, so he nodded his head.

Phoebe was still slightly shocked. She held onto Alex and did not let go. "What is the Spirit Severing stage? Which stage are you at now?"

Afterwards, the two people talked for a long time in the car.

In the end, Alex said, "I'll now teach you a cultivation technique that is suitable for you. It's known as the Heaven's Phoenix Dance Imprint. It's very simple. With your intelligence, you should be able to learn it quickly."

"Hold on..."

"..."

In the next moment, Phoebe suddenly grabbed onto Alex's face and kissed him lightly.

In fact, Alex had kissed her over a hundred times a long time ago but it was who Yunuo appeared, so Phoebe did not know about it. However, Phoebe took the lead at this moment.

That kiss lasted for two full minutes.

With a determined tone, she said, "I know it's immoral to snatch my own best friend's boyfriend but I know you much earlier than Cheryl and we have a marriage contract at a much earlier time. So, I'm not actually snatching, right?! Most importantly, what if I can't survive the three years? I only have three years left and I've not been in a relationship before. I still don't know what it is like to have an intimate relationship between a man and a woman. I'm not happy about it!"

Alex said, "Don't worry about it. I promise that you'll make it."

Phoebe said, "I don't want your promise. This can't be guaranteed. I just want you to promise me that you'll be my boyfriend for three years."

"I... I have a wife."

"I don't care if you have a wife or not. I only have three years left! We're the ones who have a marriage contract. Your wife is the third wheel, so are all other women!"

A drunken banter by William Rockefeller and Grace Larsen had become

Phoebe's maxim and the reason that convinced her to steal her own best friend's boyfriend.

Alex scratched his head. "Ah, whatever it is. Now, can we start learning the Heaven's Phoenix Dance Imprint?"

Phoebe shook her head forcibly. "No. Aren't you going to do something to your beautiful girlfriend?"

Alex was utterly speechless. "Miss, we're in the car outside a busy hotel's entrance. What can I do?"

Vroom!

Phoebe started the car engine and drove to an old neighborhood.

She pulled Alex into an apartment and closed the door.

"What about now?"

Chapter 1467

Phoebe was leaning against the door with her blushed face and seductive eyes. She even grabbed onto the hem of her skirt with one hand.

Alex's mouth went dry looking at this scene.

Phoebe had been seducing him since the hot spring until now. Even a seventy or eighty year old man might not be able to stand it, not to mention that he was a vigorous man with normal functions. Alex was only able to slightly suppress his impulse in his mind when he thought about Dorothy.

When he caught a whiff of alcohol, he was slightly surprised as he said,

"You were drunk driving just now!"

Phoebe was startled for a moment. She frowned and said, "Coward!"

"You've drunk too much."

“Coward!”

“Forget it, I’ll teach you next time.”

“Jerk!”

“I...”

Being called a coward twice and a jerk once had completely angered Alex. Phoebe’s constant provocations had instantly tipped the scales of reasoning and impulse in his mind.

“Rockefeller brat, Rockefeller brat...”

Phoebe shook her head. She finally passed out when she could not bear the burden anymore.

Five seconds later, she opened her eyes again. However, those eyes had become incomparably shocked and confused.

Yuno.

Yuno had awakened and took over Phoebe’s body. At the same time, she also received all the senses and feelings. She was completely dumbfounded as she never thought that this encounter would occur...

the dignified goddess herself, many ancient saints and geniuses wanted to marry her but they could not do it. She had never had any close contacts with men in her entire life. As a result, she could vividly feel the happiness of a woman because she had possessed Phoebe’s body.

If only this was considered as happiness. She struggled slightly but there was no effect at all. Her spirit was unstable as well.

“Leave, leave immediately!”

Yuno did not remind Alex but she chose to retreat quietly, so that she could keep her dignity and consider it as a nightmare. In fact, nothing had happened, right?

However, the truth was, she could not go back to deep sleep for a while.

‘What should I do?’

‘Why is this happening?’

In the end, Yuno successfully fell asleep.

***

Phoebe was asleep.

When Alex, who had finally calmed down again, looked at the mess in front of him, he scratched his eyebrow. He did not regret it!
In fact, he had a hunch that something was going to happen between Phoebe and him when they were in the hot spring. However, he did not expect that things would develop so quickly.
After gently moving Phoebe away from his body, he found the bathroom and took a shower. Afterwards, he patiently looked around the house.

To his surprise, he found something very familiar here, it was an aircraft model.

Chapter 1468

It was the one that he made himself when he was young. He brought back the raw materials from a trip to Hong Kong with his parents. After that, it was made into the finished product and gifted to Phoebe when she was still a young girl.

It was because at that time, she said that her ambition was to be a female pilot when she grew up.

Alex reached out to the model as he smiled slightly.

“The course of life is truly magical. After going around for a long time, I still bump into your net,” Alex murmured as he felt a ripple in his heart again.

“That’s right. I’m your Buddha, and you little monkey can never escape from my palm.”

Not knowing when Phoebe woke up, she hugged Alex from behind. Her warm body was stuck onto him unobstructed. As she pointed at the aircraft model, she pouted her lips and said, “This is the ugliest present that I’ve received when I was thirteen years old. But, it is also my favorite and now, you're my favorite man."

Alex touched her face and said with a frown, "If I'd remember it correctly, you mentioned that you didn't like me at all."

"Don't you know that women are fickle?"

Just then, Alex's phone rang.

At first glance, it was a call from Cheryl. As Alex and Phoebe looked at each other, the atmosphere went silent for a while.

A few seconds later, Alex picked up the call. "Hello, Cheryl!"

"Alex, are you home?"

"Um... I just reached."

"Phoebe has switched off her phone and I don't know if she's home or not. This woman wouldn't be in any trouble again, right?"

During this period of time, Phoebe got caught up in accidents one after another. It had made people slightly jittery.

Alex glanced at Phoebe and said, "Her phone is probably out of battery!

Don't worry, she's home. I sent her home first and even sat in her house for a while!"

The man lied the moment he opened his mouth.

Cheryl said, "Then I'm relieved."

"Mm, don't worry. Get some rest!"

"Hold on..." Cheryl continued, "Phoebe was around just now, so I was a bit embarrassed to say it."

"What is it?"

"I... I can't sleep. Do you want to come over? The bed is a bit cold!"

Phoebe heard it clearly and almost laughed out loud. Cheryl's intention in her statement was already very obvious.

In the end, Alex found an excuse and rejected her.

After the phone was hung up, Phoebe hit him and said, “You should’ve promised her just now. Even though I’ve stolen her boyfriend, I don’t wish she would hate me because of this! Cheryl has a knot in her heart, so we mustn’t let her know that we’re hooked up!”
Alex said, “Nothing can be kept secret forever in this world.”
Phoebe said, “I’ll make preparations before the secret leaks out.” “What kind of preparation?”
“The preparation to make her accept me! It’s a bargain for you!”
That night, Alex taught Phoebe the Heaven’s Phoenix Dance Imprint. Other than that, Alex realized that after Phoebe had been deflowered, it had not harmed her cultivation foundation. Instead, he realized that her meridians were very spiritual, like there was a familiar mass of energy swimming in her body... Upon a closeridentification, it turned out to be a trace of energy contained in the broken Chaos Bead.

‘Since when did it go into her meridians?’
‘Could it be that it’s from the intimate contact just now?’ ‘How about I try it again?’
Alex touched his chin while looking toward Phoebe excitedly.

Chapter 1469

On the second day, Alex accompanied Cheryl to go home.
Phoebe initially agreed to come over to see them off, Alex said that he wanted to try it again but last night. As a result, they had tried it until dawn, and she really could not wake up. She was also afraid that Cheryl might notice something. Well, Cheryl was a great doctor too. Now that she had learned medical skills from Guilherme, she could even check one’s body condition through the Third Eye. When the time came, she would be able to tell what she had done last night at a glance. By then, everything would be hard to explain.

On the way, Alex could tell that Cheryl was somewhat resentful.

She only smiled again after Alex actively told two jokes.

“Anyway, how’s your father?”

Alex suddenly remembered that Cheryl’s father had acted as a matchmaker for the young master of the Witch Doctor Sect last time, but he was punished by Alex as a result. Alex had fed him some parasitic worm and even ordered him to kneel before the grave of his late wife. However, he seemed to have almost forgotten about this matter.

Cheryl gently grunted and said, “Don’t talk about that man...”

Alex was stunned. “What’s going on? Didn’t he kneel before your mother’s grave?”

As a result, Cheryl said that her father had indeed gone to repent before her mother’s grave some time ago due to the threat of the parasitic worm. Furthermore, he even went back home and cried every day.

Cheryl’s grandmother was gullible to his words.

After all, he was her biological son and they had not been reunited for many years. Seeing him being tortured by the parasitic worm miserably, she got soft hearted and pleaded for her son.

In the end, Cheryl had removed the parasitic disease from him with the help of Guilherme.

However, never did she expect that he would turn to cheat the money out of the old lady. He had even scammed and taken away more than three million dollars before going missing. The old lady was so mad that she did not feel like eating for three days. James even beat his chest. He was so angry that his blood pressure had risen.

Alex said, “Do you need my help? I think with the people of Divine Constabulary investigating him, they will definitely find him.”

Cheryl hesitated for a moment. In the end, she shook her head. “Forget it!"

This was also the intention of James Coney and his spouse.

Alex nodded his head and said nothing else.

Just as a saying went, it was difficult for an upright official to resolve a family dispute.

The biggest reason for Old Lady Coney's anger was not that she had been scammed by her son for three million dollars, but she was disappointed that her son refused to change for the better and return home.

Then, she was also worried that her son would suffer hardships out there.

So, that three million dollars that had been scammed was considered as a favor to him.

***

When they had reached California, Alex sent Cheryl back home first.

Before getting out of the car, Cheryl hugged Alex and gave him a warm kiss. She had been holding back that kiss for several days. In that instant, a round of passionate kiss happened and almost went out of control in the car. Until someone lightly knocked on the car window several times, only then did the two people separate from each other panickily. When they raised their heads to take a look, they realized that it was James Coney.

"Alex, when are you going to invite me and Cheryl's grandmother to your wedding?" said James with a smile when the car window was rolled down.

"Grandpa..!"

There was still some saliva on Cheryl's lips. At this time, she has long been embarrassed as she pouted with her blushing red cheeks. She got out of the car panickily and urged Alex to leave. "Hurry up and go now! Hurry up now!"

Alex awkwardly left the place. He felt slightly confused as well.

He was getting more and more emotional debts. The key point was that every woman was someone whom he could not part with, yet he was just one person, after all. When people like Grace Larsen and James Coney came over to urge marriage, how was he going to answer them?

Soon, he got back home. He mainly had two things to attend to after returning to California.

First, he had to concoct a rejuvenation pill to be consumed by the Clown, Quincy Zoppins.

This was Zayne York's condition.

On the other hand, he had already asked his grandfather, Geronimo, to release the person. It should be a very simple thing with his help.

Secondly, it was about the other shattered Chaos Bead.

Chapter 1470

There was a powerful energy in the shattered bead.

Alex's cultivation was very weak previously, so he could not withstand the energy in the bead at all. However, he thought that he could give it a try now. He had hidden the scattered chaos bead in a secret place.

When he was within a hundred of meters away from the bead this time, the remnant of the Chaos Bead in his mind palace vibrated vigorously right away.

'I'm going to find out what is hidden in this bead.'

Alex took out the bead. He took a deep breath. Then, he condensed his mental power to slowly stroke the bead.

Boom!

In the next second, a golden light suddenly burst out of the bead. Numerous strange runes soared out and formed a sphere, wrapping Alex inside it at once.

Meanwhile, Alex could hear a solemn chanting.

"Adoration to Avalokitesvara the Bodhisattva... Mahasattva who is the great compassionate one..."

He fell into a bizarre spiritual world.

Before his eyes was a huge and boundless Buddha statue lying on the ground.

'W-what is this thing?'

***

At the same time, Winel Grundy had tossed around and found Azure Storm of Thousand Miles Conglomerate in order to find the miracle doctor for Gill Xenos.

The person who introduced him to Azure was the daughter from the Hauffer family of Michigan who worked as a lawyer-Rhea Hauffer. She was also the same lady who took the initiative to chase after Azure earlier. She had a nickname called Little Pepper in Michigan, indicating that she was a very difficult opponent in lawsuits.

The two were now in a delicate state under the persuasion of Waltz and Alex.

Most importantly, Azure was slightly unable to stop Rhea's pursuit and he was about to be taken down by her passion.

Rhea has personally brought Winel to the Hell's Angels and introduced him to Azure.

"You want Master Rockefeller to cure your friend?"

Azure was slightly astonished. Prior to this, he did not know the purpose of Rhea's visit today. "What kind of sickness?"

Winel said, "He can't feel his member. He can't erect and can't do that deed with women."

Azure frowned. He felt a bit disrespectful toward Alex for asking him to attend to a patient with this kind of sickness. He refused his request at once.

Winel's expression immediately changed. "You're Azure Storm, right?

I've heard of you before. You're known as the king of California's underworld, but in reality you're just an ordinary hitman and lapdog.

Who

are you to refuse me? Do you know who's the person who wants Master Rockefeller to treat his illness? He's an existence that you guys absolutely cannot offend. Hurry up and get whosoever Master Rockefeller to cure

Young Master Xenos. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to afford the consequences of offending him, and your Thousand Miles Conglomerate would be finished as well."

Michigan was a huge city.

Because of that, many people from Michigan looked down on the people of California, thinking that everyone from California was a country

bumpkin.

Winel was one of them.

Furthermore, he came from a noble family with a vast wealth and even had Gill behind his back. So, he even looked down on Thousand Miles

Conglomerate. The words that he said were extremely awful.

He even felt that it was a great blessing for Master Rockefeller of Thousand Miles Conglomerate to cure Gill's sickness. It was a fortune, so smart people should hold this opportunity dearly.

Azure sneered.

In the next second, he instantly gave Winel a slap on the face so hard that it had made him turn a hundred and eighty degrees on the spot.

"You want my Thousand Miles Conglomerate to be ruined? Who the hell are you?"

"You... How dare you hit me? Do you know who I am? Do you know who is behind me?" Winel was furious. "I don't give a d*mn about who you are. You deserve to be slapped for coming to Thousand Miles Conglomerate and dishonoring Master

Rockefeller," said Azure coldly. Afterwards, he summoned his subordinates.

“Someone come and break this rubbish’s legs and throw him out.”

Soon, Azure’s subordinates charged in and pinned Winel down.

With two crack sounds, Winel’s legs were broken.

Rhea was dumbfounded. Never did she expect that things would develop into this way, so she hurriedly pulled Azure. “Azure, don’t be reckless. You can’t afford to offend the person behind him! Thousand Miles Conglomerate might really be finished if you offend that person.”

Azure looked at her. “Really? Just leave by yourself if you’re afraid!”

Chapter 1471

Rhea Hauffer’s face turned pale.

She looked at Azure in disbelief as she said in a trembling voice, “You... What do you mean? Are you chasing me away?”

Azure said, “You can think of it that way.”

“Why? Can you tell me what have I done wrong? I’m caring about you. I’m worried that you might offend somebody that you shouldn’t. What have I done wrong? You think I’m scared? I’m just worried about you. Don’t you understand?”

Azure looked straight into her eyes. “I understand, but this is also the reason why we aren’t meant for each other. After all, we walk different paths! We people from Thousand Miles Conglomerate can die on our feet than to live on our knees. Besides, he deserves to die for having the guts to insult Master Rockefeller!”

After he made his statement, he ordered his subordinates to throw Winel out of the entrance right away.

“You... You’re simply unbelievable!” Rhea yelled. “You’re inviting a disaster to befall Thousand Miles Conglomerate! Do you know who is behind Winel? It’s the Lord Commander’s grandnephew from Department Six. May I ask, can you afford to offend him?”

Azure was stunned.

Never did he expect that the person behind the opponent would be the Lord Commander. At this moment, he frowned very hard.

If this was the case, it seemed that Thousand Miles Conglomerate really could not afford to offend him.

As for Winel, both his legs were broken and he was thrown out of the entrance. He was insanely infuriated and yelled, “I’m telling you people, you are all finished! How dare you break my leg?! Just wait for Young Master Xenos and Lord Commander’s wrath to befall you people! Your

Miles Conglomerate is going to be razed to the ground.”

“Really?”

At this moment, a luxurious sports car drove in from the outside and stopped in front of the entrance.

A stunning beauty, who was dressed in a crimson red traditional dress, got out of the car. It was none other than Thousand Miles Conglomerate’s

CEO, Waltz Fleur.

After getting out of the car, she slowly walked up to him while looking at him. “Would the Lord Commander listen to a small character like you?”

As she said that, she stepped on Winel’s broken leg with her high heels.

Upon exerting force, Winel yelled in pain.

“Argh! Let go! Let go of your foot. W-who are you?!”

Waltz said, “I’m the CEO of Thousand Miles Conglomerate, Waltz Fleur.”

“You’re Waltz Fleur? Great Listen here, I’m Winel Grundy and I came on behalf of Young Master Xenos! Young Master Xenos is the Lord Commander’s grandnephew from Department Six. Now, you only have one option. Get your company’s Master Rockefeller to head to Michigan to treat Young Master Xenos right now. After that, you have to ruin Azure Storm's martial arts and sever all his limbs. Otherwise, you people... Ow!"

Before Winel could finish speaking, his arm was twisted off by Waltz. Then, it was the other arm.

"The Lord Commander's grandnephew, right? Ask him to see me personally!"

After doing all this, Waltz walked into Hell's Angels in high heels.

She just heard what Rhea had said earlier.

She shook her head at Rhea and said, "Azure is right. Our Thousand Miles Conglomerate is a tough nut. We will only die on our feet rather than live on our knees. It seems like Miss Hauffer still doesn't know my brother well enough. There will be even more conflicts if you two are together forcefully. Miss Hauffer, I think you should just let go of him!"

"Huh?"

Rhea was really confused. "Miss Fleur, you're the CEO of Thousand Miles Conglomerate. How could you let your emotions get in the way? This isn't a problem about being a tough nut or not. Rather, this is a problem about whether the entire Thousand Miles Conglomerate will be overthrown."

Waltz waved her hand. "This is our problem!"

After that, she called two people from Hell's Angels. "You guys, please see Miss Hauffer out!"

Rhea's chest heaved as she was furious. This was the treatment that she got for her good intentions.

'How could these two people be so stubborn? Can't they tell the difference between good and bad words?'

"You-you people are going to regret this."

Waltz was not concerned. Instead, she said toward Azure, "Bro Azure, I shouldn't have convinced you previously. Normal women really aren't suitable for a man like you. Don't worry, I'll find you a satisfactory wife."

"Hmm!"

Rhea was equivalent to the one who had brought Winel and the person behind his back, Gill, here to be provoked by him. This was also one of the reasons why Azure felt disgusted.

She did not even discuss this with him beforehand and brought the person over right away. Now, it may even cause trouble to Alex.

Chapter 1472

What a troublesome woman.

***

Soon, Gill Xenos found out about the news from his side. He knew that not only Winel had failed to invite Master Rockefeller, but all his limbs were also ruined by the people from Thousand Miles Conglomerate. He was instantly infuriated. "Winel, don't worry. I, Gill Xenos, will seek justice for you. I'll definitely let the Thousand Miles Conglomerate know the consequences of offending me."

After hanging up this phone call, Gill made another call out. "Uncle Johansson, it's Gill here. Can you do me a favor?"

***

An hour later, there was a commotion in California. More than a dozen official departments of California conduct inspections on Thousand Miles Conglomerate in turn.

In the end, they had sealed more than a hundred large shops owned by

Thousand Miles of Conglomerate in one go. Even the biggest mall in California had been sealed away. Seals were stuck on the main entrance while the customers were chased out of the mall rudely. Even some people in the mall who had paid money were chased out before they could get their goods. In an instant, there was a great deal of public discontent and grievances.

“Miss Fleur, we have an emergency. Seventy percent of our Thousand Miles of Conglomerate’s business has been sealed away. What should we do?”

“Miss Fleur, the government officials even came to the company to check our accounts, saying that they suspected us of tax evasion.”

“Miss Fleur...”

Waltz was seated at the first chair of the meeting room. At this moment, her subordinates were bringing one bad news after another. However, she was not afraid, as if everything was under her control.

Not long after, someone came to make another report.

“Miss Fleur, some of the senior executives have proposed to resign. What should we do?”

“What?” Azure jumped up instantly. “The company is now in its most difficult time, yet someone actually wants to resign? Which senior executives did that? I’m going to break their legs.”

Waltz waved her hand. “No big deal. Approved!”

Azure said, “Waltz, you’re just letting them go like that? Isn’t that a cheap bargain for them?”

Waltz shook her head. “We can’t force everyone to stand together with us. If anyone would like to resign and look for a better job elsewhere, they are free to leave! But I, Waltz Fleur, will make it clear beforehand, those who leave today shall be blacklisted by Thousand Miles Conglomerate and shall not be hired by Thousand Miles Conglomerate and our allied units at any time in the future.”

Those words from Waltz were passed down, yet those people who proposed to resign did not take it to heart at all.

‘Your company is going to close down. Who would still care if we’re working here?’

As time passed, there was even more bad news about the company, tax evasion, forced buying and selling, using the dark forces of the underworld to retaliate and affect normal business operations as well as social unrest. All of this news came pouring down and making them breathless.

All of these reminded them of Rockefeller Group a year ago.

Back then, Rockefeller Group was in decline and then it had turned from a first-class group to a second-rated group.

Afterwards, more and more employees resigned because everyone was afraid of being implicated, especially the middle and upper management. On the contrary, the workers at the bottom level did not feel much. If someone were to be caught, it would not be the bottom-class people's turn. If they wanted to resign, it would not be too late to wait until the company completely closed down.

Just when everyone was watching Waltz on how she was going to handle the crisis, several people from Department Six walked into the meeting room.

"Who is Waltz Fleur?"

"Get up and follow us!"

The person who spoke was Uncle Johansson whom Gill had called for help. He was in his forties and he was called Lennox Johansson, one of the commanders in Department Six.

Chapter 1473

"Who are you people? Who let you people in?"

"What kind of place do you think this is? Get the hell out of here now!"

The people who could join this meeting with Waltz were the absolute top management of Thousand Miles Conglomerate. They were the key people and there were many martial artists among them. Seeing several men in black barging in and calling for Waltz, the CEO, to leave with them, a martial artist immediately stood up.

Smack!

However, in the next second, a slap landed right on his face. The person who did it was Lennox Johansson.

This person has a pair of big eyes and a crooked, small mouth. At first glance, he was a narrow-minded person. The martial artist who was a director fell on the ground after receiving a slap from Lennox. With a thud, he spat out a mouthful of fallen teeth and blood, shocking everyone at the scene.

Not only did these people dare to barge in, but they even dared to resort to violence.

However, Thousand Miles Conglomerate was not any ordinary company. How could they have not seen blood before when they single-handedly controlled the underworld of California?

At that moment, the majority of the directors stood up and chided.

“Stop!”

“Who gave you the permission to beat people up in here?!”

“Someone come! Are the security guards and bodyguards all dead? Grab these few guys!”

The person who yelled was one of the major shareholders of Thousand Miles Conglomerate. He used to be Lord Lex Gunther’s good brother who was willing to risk his life and limb for him. He was Zenon Yan. However, as soon as he said that, the door of the conference room was once again knocked open. A figure flew in and hit the conference table heavily.

Bam!

The person on the table spat a mouthful of blood. Waltz’s heart skipped a beat and erupted in anger as she could not restrain it any longer. The person was actually Azure.

“Bro Azure, are you okay?”

Waltz jumped onto the conference table and helped Azure get up. Immediately, she took out a healing pill and stuffed it into Azure’s mouth.

She stared sideways at the people before her and said coldly, “Who did this?”

“It’s me. So what?”

A man in his early thirties strutted in from outside the entrance. He had had ahead of long hair and was dressed the same as Lennox and the others.
He even had a cigarette in his mouth while cynically looking at Waltz
who
was on the conference table.

At this moment, Waltz was still wearing her red traditional dress. The way she was squatting over there was very seductive. In addition to her devastatingly beautiful features, it made people lose themselves in endless

wild and fancy thoughts.

“You deserve to die!”

“I don’ t care who you are, you’re going to pay the price!”

As Waltz stomped the conference table heavily, half of the table underneath her foot had crushed. She charged at the long-haired youth like a ghost, spinning her body continuously in the air while emitting a high-pitched scream.

It was her unique skill, Moon of the Nine Revolutions!

“Hehe, beauty, you’re kinda interesting!”

“But, your Thousand Miles Conglomerate’s greatest Chieftains is just like an ant in my hands. You, a woman, dare to fight against me?”

When the long-haired youth watched Waltz ’s offensive stance, he did not show a hint of fear. On the contrary, he was fire eyed.

Since such a beautiful lady wanted to fight him, he could humiliate and take advantage of her by touching and hugging while fighting her.

He spat the cigarette out and extended one arm to press toward that part of Waltz.

“Hmph! ” Waltz’s eyes turned even sterner. Her long leg chopped down

viciously.

Bam!

Crack!

There was a clear sound of a bone fracture.

The long-haired youth’s expression changed abruptly, displaying shock

and pain. His hand that just wanted to grab Waltz had been severed by her long leg right away. A bone poked out at the arm's joint, with blood streaming down.

"What?"

Chapter 1474

"You're a half-stepped Grandmaster? How can you be so strong?"

The long-haired youth took several steps backwards until his back touched the wall. He was holding onto his broken arm with a pale face.

Several people from Department Six were shocked at the same time. They had received the wrong information.

According to the information that they had, Azure Storm was Thousand Miles Conglomerate's strongest martial artist and he had control of California's underworld. Other than Azure, there were no other great martial artists. As for Waltz Fleur, she should only be an Intermediate-Royal ranked martial artist. How could she be a half-stepped Grandmaster?!

"You people deserve to die for trespassing Thousand Miles Conglomerate and hurting my people!"

Waltz stood up with a surging aura.

At this time, the other shareholders and senior executives of Thousand Miles Conglomerate were impressed by Waltz's powerful aura.

Everyone clapped for her.

"Almighty Miss Fleur!"

"Almighty Miss Fleur!"

Lennox's eyes turned cold as he shouted sternly, "Presumptuous! Waltz

Fleur, how dare you hurt my Department Six's people? How should you be punished? Kneel down immediately and confess your crime. Otherwise, we shall kill you without hesitation!"

"Department Six?"

Fleur’s pupils shrank.

When Alex was interrogated by three parties at the Zimmers’ residence last time, the Lord Commander from Department Six was present at the scene and fought Geronimo Melvis. The Martial Honor’s strength had shocked everyone present. Even President Melvis was no match for him.

Meanwhile, many people at the scene had not heard of the secret department’s name, Department Six.

Several people even made snide remarks.

“What Department Six? What a mess. Do they think they’re filming some medieval series? We’re still with the Knights Templar, and I’ll be Jacques de Molay then!” “Hahaha! That’s right, this is ridiculous. What do you people even do?

Were you people released from the mental institution? You even want our

Miss Fleur to kneel before you, do you have the qualification to do so?

Why

don’t you take a piss to look at yourself?”

The mockery from the several people had made Lennox’s face tremble

several times.

Department Six was very powerful and some local officials would tremble three times when they saw them, yet they were ridiculed by a few commoners.

They simply deserved death!

Lennox looked toward Waltz and said, “Does that mean that you’re going to resist the law with violence?” Waltz said coldly, “I know Grant Xenos from Department Six, but I would really like to go and ask the Lord Commander if you’re actually his subordinate! You’re the ones who play dirty on us, aren’t you? Just a word of advice, don’t flatter the wrong person.”

Lennox’s expression changed. He was slightly suspicious. ‘Does Waltz Fleur really know the Lord Commander?’

However, he soon put away the thought.

Gill Xenos was the Lord Commander's grandnephew. Even if Waltz knew the Lord Commander, could she be closer to him than Gill?

"Nonsense! Do you think you really know our Lord Commander just because you know his name? Do you think I'm easily scared?"

Waltz said, "Well, you could try!"

Lennox scowled and said, "Waltz Fleur, don't mislead yourself! I'll give you two options. First, hand over Doctor Rockefeller and follow me to kneel before Young Master Gill Xenos for an apology. Second, your Thousand Miles Conglomerate shall be completely banished and all the senior executives will be jailed."

Fleur smiled. She pointed at the camera in the corner of the meeting room and said, "Aren't you afraid that your actions will be recorded?"

Lennox laughed. "So what? My Department Six doesn't care about these at all when we deal with cases. Fake footage is everywhere and yours is just one of them!"

"We don't have anything else to say then!"

"You're the leader? We can talk again after I take you down!"

Waltz made an instant decision to strike boldly. Waltz used the Moon of the Nine Revolutions to take down Lennox immediately.

However, a few men in black next to Lennox took out their guns at this moment.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Unexpectedly, they fired shots at Waltz without hesitation!

"Ah!"

Everyone at the scene was shocked. To their surprise, those people had guns. Furthermore, they even dared to fire shots on the spot.

These people were indeed fearless!

"Waltz!" yelled Azure. He wanted to charge over to save her but he was heavily injured. How could he possibly make it in time?

Chapter 1475

Gunshots stopped, leaving only dead silence at the scene.

Lennox looked at the fallen Waltz with disdain in his eyes.

“Hmph! Except for that chief steward, nobody in America dares to confront Department Six. You’re an idiot to fight against us. Don’t blame anyone if you die because you have a death wish!”

Meanwhile, the people from Thousand Miles of Conglomerate stared at Waltz and the bloodstains on the ground. They were shocked and terrified.

Even Miss Fleur was beaten to death on the Spot. Wouldn’t people like them be casually dealt with?

As Azure rushed to Waltz’s side, he shouted with reddened eyes, “Waltz! Waltz! No!”

This was his sister, someone who was even Closer than a biological sister. She was also the girl whom he once loved. Yet, she had been shot dead right before his eyes now. He hated it!

“I’ll fight you with my life!” Azure roared like a beast. He was ready to pounce up to Lennox and die with him. He believed that he could do that.

However, a red shadow flashed by their eyes. Just when everyone thought that Waltz was dead, she suddenly burst into action.

She charged right beside Lennox in a split second and choked his neck. Two of her fingers directly pierced through the skin on his neck, with half an inch into his flesh. Two trails of blood wounds were formed as blood flowed down her fingers.

“Ah!”

“She’s not dead!”

The people from Department Six were shocked, so they immediately fired their guns at Waltz again.

However, Waltz hid behind Lennox and applied force on her fingers again, going into another half an inch. Lennox could feel a tremendous pain in his neck. This was his first time in life to be so close to the Grim Reaper.

He felt so painful that he screamed terribly like a pig being slaughtered.

Facing the several guns that were aimed in his direction, he immediately reminded his subordinates of Department Six in a loud voice. “Lower your guns! Lower your guns immediately! Watch out for misfires!”

After looking at each other, several people from Department Six put down their guns.

Waltz ridiculed. “I didn’t expect you to be quite afraid of death. I haven’t even said anything and you’ve already asked them to lower their guns.”

Azure was overjoyed. “Waltz, you aren’t dead! I was scared witless!”

Waltz grunted. “These rubbish can’t kill me.”

However, only she knew that it was still very dangerous just now.

Never did she expect that Lennox and his subordinates would be so lawless. Not only did they accuse them by framing them, but they even shot her under the circumstances without any evidence. It was her fault of negligence that such a department like Department Six had great power. She had just broken the long-haired youth’s arm earlier, so Department Six had an excuse to kill her without bearing any responsibilities.

If she had not worn the Galactic Protection Amulet made by Alex personally all the time, she would not have been able to dodge the few bullets at the beginning. However, the Galactic Protection Amulet had helped her block at least four shots.

Then, she quickly dodge the rest and avoid the vitals. However, two shots had hit her in the end, one brushed through the edge of her stomach while the other hit her left arm.

She faked her death earlier to wait for a good opportunity. Until Lennox had finally put his guard down, she captured him in one blow.

“Waltz, you should know very well that fighting against Department Six won’t do you any good. If you dare to kill me today, I guarantee that you’ll regret it for sure!” Lennox’s neck was in great pain and his whole body was trembling, yet he did not forget to threaten Waltz.

“You people are going to shoot me to death anyway. What else can I regret? Killing one is worth the cost, and killing two is a good bargain.”

“You... Let me be honest with you. The main troop of Department Six is just right outside. The gunshots earlier must have alerted them and they’ll charge in here soon. If you kill me right now, you people will all die here!”

Bang! Bang!

After he said that, there were two loud sounds.

The glass window on the east side of the meeting room was heavily shattered by someone and slammed open. Two heavily armed men in black came crashing in.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

As the sounds of three cans dropping on the ground were heard, a huge swath of tear gas flooded the entire meeting room in the blink of an eye.

Immediately afterwards, loud footsteps came from outside the door.

The main troop of Department Six had indeed arrived.

“Knock out all the targets!”

“Kill all the rebels!”

“Execute Waltz Fleur on the spot!”

Chapter 1476

Waltz heard a man’s cold and merciless voice, but she didn’t have Alex’s capabilities. The tear gas had stung her eyes, making the tears flow out turbulently. She couldn’t open her eyes at all, and couldn’t see clearly the surrounding situation. She could only tightened her hold on Lennox and moved around according to her memory.

At this moment, she heard someone shouting, “Waltz, over here. Waltz, over here...”

When Waltz felt her back had hit someone, she turned around abruptly, trying her best to open her eyes.

As a result, she saw the black muzzle of a gun aimed right in between her eyes. And, the owner of the gun pulled the trigger without hesitation.

Bang!

***

In the building of Thousand Miles Conglomerate, there was a red Porsche 911 parked at the entrance. Rhea Hauffer, who was sitting quietly in the driver’s seat, looked at the inside of the Thousand Miles Conglomerate building through the car window.

At this moment, countless people were running out of the building in panic.

Everyone’s face was filled with fear and anxiousness. Some people among the crowd fell, and then were trampled on.

“Sigh!” Rhea sighed, before saying quietly, “I already said that you would regret it! Fool, what a fool! You thought that it was commendably courageous, but in fact it was just stupid! Such a privileged institution like

Department Six is not something that you, an insignificant figure from the underworld, can mess with! You are what the people say you are, after all!”

“It’s fine, forget it. After all, you are unrefined and not presentable. I, Rhea Hauffer, just wanted to give you some praise, yet you didn’t seize the opportunity.”

She started the car and was about to leave the place. Suddenly, a helicopter flew over frantically. The helicopter had yet to land, and it was still dozens of meters above the ground. All of a sudden, a figure jumped down abruptly.

Boom!

The figure fell directly in front of the building, on the roof of a law enforcement vehicle. In that instant, the entire car was flattened into a scrap metal.

Then, a thunderous voice sounded. “You lapdogs from Department Six, how dare you touch my grandson’s wife?! I want you all to die!”

Immediately afterwards, a few more figures jumped down from the helicopter. The few people rushed into the building like a gust of wind.

All the people from Department Six who were guarding the door were shocked.

Rhea was taken aback as her eyes widened in shock.

‘There are still people coming to help them at this time? They clearly have high level martial arts, who are they?’

However, she soon shook her head and muttered, “No matter who comes over, it’s all useless. Fighting against Department Six, the only end you get from it is obliteration! Azure Storm, this is your own choice!”

Rhea didn’t intend to continue watching, so she drove off. It was because she felt that no matter how the process was, the ending was already cast in stone.

***

Bang!

A gunshot sounded out.

Waltz thought that she would be dead for sure.

Without the Galactic Protection Amulet, it was impossible to dodge the high speed bullets fired at such a near distance.

However, the expected pain on her head didn’t appear.

‘Could it be that taking a bullet to the head felt like this?’

Just as she was feeling cold all over her body, She saw a woman standing in front of her amidst the white smoke all around them. The woman had used dainty, fair hands to block the muzzle of the gun, as well as stop the bullet from coming out.

“Have you asked for my permission before killing her?”

Crack!

The cold body of the gun was twisted and now resembled a twisted knot bun.

Waltz recognized the owner of this voice.

“Aunt!”

Chapter 1477

The person who came was none other than Aunt Rockefeller.

After a hum, she slashed the neck of the Department Six member who had opened fire with a knife, cutting him down instantly.

The tears continued to leak out from Waltz’s eyes, but she was still unable to withstand the sting from the tear gas and quickly closed her eyes once again. Both her eyes were flushed from the stinging. Even her vision became blurred.

However, she had seen it clearly.

Aunt Rockefeller’s eyes were bright and wide without a single hint of tears in them. It seemed that the tear gas had no effect on her at all.

Aunt

Rockefeller held Waltz’s hand while guiding her through the conference room. From time to time, she lashed out with a palm or her knife, causing the members of Department Six to fall to the ground silently and make a series of thud sounds.

Waltz could also hear shouts coming from their walkie talkies, but often there was no response to it.

And then, Geronimo rushed in with Brittany, Maya, Holly and the others, as well as a few experts from Divine Constabulary.

“Those lackeys from Department Six, d*mnit, who let you people come in?!”

“They even dare to touch my grandson’s wife, how dare they have the balls to do this?!”

Meanwhile, Brittany and Maya shouted, “Waltz, Waltz, where are you?"

Waltz quickly replied, "Mom, Maya, I'm here!"

As Aunt Rockefeller stood in front of the broken window, her eyes flashed while looking at Brittany who was coming through the smoke.

She didn't move forward.

Basically, the members of Department Six in the conference room had all been dealt with by her. She believed that Divine Constabulary would be able to deal with the rest of them outside. Seeing Waltz taking a few steps forward and meeting Brittany and the others, she jumped out from the broken window and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

There was only a faint whisper left in the air, "Where did that guy go off to?"

***

With just a call from Gill Xenos, Lennox and the others began their attack on the Thousand Miles Conglomerate.

Up till now, the people from Department Six had been launching their attacks on Thousand Miles Conglomerate.

In the entire process, a day had already passed.

However, Alex's phone had been in an uncontactable state, as if he had disappeared from the world.

Aunt Rockefeller had long gone to Rockefeller Manor to look for him, but there was no one there. She had covered the entire manor with her spiritual sense and searched every inch of the place, but still couldn't find any signs of him.

In the Thousand Miles Conglomerate building, Geronimo and the others had quickly taken control of the situation.

The Lord Commander of Department Six had not shown up, so no one else could pose a threat to Geronimo, who had just officially been promoted to Innate Martial Honor.

Slap!

Geronimo instantly gave Lennox a slap on his face, and cursed, “Bast*rd! You’re the brute who gave the order to make things difficult for

Thousand Miles, to frame them and set them up? God d*mmit, where’s the tax evasion you talked about? Where is the monopoly market they did?” “And you even dare to open fire against my grandson’s wife?! You’re a stubborn one, aren’t you?”

Slap, slap, slap!

Geronimo gave consecutive slaps to Lennox on the face. Lennox’s nose was bleeding, and his face was sore.

The other members from Department Six next to them didn’t dare to make a sound. No one would have imagined that this old madman from

Divine Constabulary would run all the way here to support Thousand Miles

Conglomerate, and even said that Waltz was his grandson’s wife.

Lennox was very depressed.

There was immense resentment in his heart right now towards the intelligence system of Department Six right now. How the hell did they investigate it? How could they have omitted such important information about Waltz being the wife of Divine Constabulary’s president’s grandson?

This was something that could send them to their death!

Although Gill was the Lord Commander’s grandnephew, Geronimo was a big shot who was on the same level as the Lord Commander.

Lennox wouldn’t have dared to offend Geronimo just in order to please

Gill and get into his good graces, until he was out of his mind.

The person who came was none other than Aunt Rockefeller.

After a hum, she slashed the neck of the Department Six member who had opened fire with a knife, cutting him down instantly.

***

With just a call from Gill Xenos, Lennox and the others began their attack on the Thousand Miles Conglomerate.

Up till now, the people from Department Six had been launching their attacks on Thousand Miles Conglomerate.

In the entire process, a day had already passed.

However, Alex's phone had been in an uncontactable state, as if he had disappeared from the world.

Aunt Rockefeller had long gone to Rockefeller Manor to look for him, but there was no one there. She had covered the entire manor with her spiritual sense and searched every inch of the place, but still couldn't find any signs of him.

In the Thousand Miles Conglomerate building, Geronimo and the others had quickly taken control of the situation.

The Lord Commander of Department Six had not shown up, so no one else could pose a threat to Geronimo, who had just officially been promoted to Innate Martial Honor.

Slap!

Geronimo instantly gave Lennox a slap on his face, and cursed, "Bast*rd! You're the brute who gave the order to make things difficult for Thousand Miles, to frame them and set them up? God d*mmit, where's the tax evasion you talked about? Where is the monopoly market they did?"

"And you even dare to open fire against my grandson's wife?! You're a stubborn one, aren't you?"

Slap, slap, slap!

Geronimo gave consecutive slaps to Lennox on the face. Lennox's nose was bleeding, and his face was sore.

The other members from Department Six next to them didn't dare to make a sound. No one would have imagined that this old madman from Divine Constabulary would run all the way here to support Thousand Miles

Conglomerate, and even said that Waltz was his grandson's wife.

Lennox was very depressed.

There was immense resentment in his heart right now towards the intelligence system of Department Six right now. How the hell did they investigate it? How could they have omitted such important information about Waltz being the wife of Divine Constabulary's president's grandson?

This was something that could send them to their death!

Although Gill was the Lord Commander's grandnephew, Geronimo was a big shot who was on the same level as the Lord Commander.

Lennox wouldn't have dared to offend Geronimo just in order to please

Gill and get into his good graces, until he was out of his mind.

Chapter 1478

However, Lennox also understood that with Geronimo's Short temper, he really would be beaten to death at this rate. Moreover, when the time came, it would be impossible to expect the Lord Commander to go all out against Divine Constabulary just because of one subordinate's death.

Department Six wouldn't agree to it, and neither would the higher-ups of the department. So, he needed to save himself, to stand on a moral high ground and manufacture a public opinion.

He protested loudly, "President Melvis, I know that I can't measure up to you and you can even kill me at any time. You're the dignified president of Divine Constabulary, and killing me will be as easy as killing a chicken. But, I'm not afraid of you! Department Six stands behind me, and I will not disgrace them! I stand on the side of reason and justice. Evil can never prevail over good since ancient times, so I don't believe that you can hide the truth from the masses."

"Evil can never prevail over good? F*cker!" Geronimo cursed out directly. "What do you take me for, a demon? When I was leading Divine Constabulary from the cradle to the grave, you piece of sh*t were still wearing pampers, what justice can you represent?!"

Slap! Slap!

As he said that, he slapped Lennox in the face two more times.

"Do you think I don't know what you're trying to do? In order to flatter Grant Xenos's grandnephew, you blind fella actually wanted to destroy Thousand Miles Conglomerate and kill my grandson's wife. You think I don't dare to touch you?"

Lennox yelled, "That's all your slander! I, Lennox Johannsen, have done what's right for the sake of justice! I have a clear conscience and feel no qualms! Thousand Miles Conglomerate has developed underworld forces, oppressed the good people and destroyed the markets! Everyone with eyes could see that! And just yesterday, they had brutally broken the limbs of a man named Winel Grundy from Michigan, and today they attacked my people from Department Six. I acted on behalf of Department

Six to arrest people, what's the problem with that?!"

Geronimo frowned.

Right now, in front of so many people's eyes, this guy kept yelling. As Divine Constabulary's president, if Geronimo killed him directly, he would definitely face criticism.

Moreover, in principle, Divine Constabulary had no right to execute anyone from Department Six. At the scene, there were at least thirty people from Department Six, their gazes all fixed on him.

'God d*mmmit, I should have just beaten him to death during the mess earlier!'

Just when Geronimo was feeling extremely regretful and Waltz along with everyone else were also unable to do anything, a leisurely voice sounded. "I have a problem with that!"

The moment the voice sounded, Brittany, Waltz and everyone else were overjoyed and let out a breath of relief. It was because they could recognize that the person who came was Alex.

After an entire day, forty eight hours, he had finally woken up.

No, it should be said that he had come back.

Going back in time to a day ago, Alex, who had been enveloped by the golden runes that had been released by the Shattered Chaos bead, saw a huge Reclining Buddha statue. Then, he had disappeared from the room that he had been in.

That was also the reason why Aunt Rockefeller had once come looking for him, but didn't manage to find any trace of him.

It was because inside that shattered bead, a small universe on its own had been unexpectedly sealed inside.

Alex had been dragged into that small world after being enveloped by the golden runes.

"Adoration to Avalokitesvara the Bodhisattva... Mahasattva who is the great compassionate one..."

The constant chanting was exactly a pure Buddhist melody.

Alex listened to it with his ears, letting the chants fill his heart. It felt as though it possessed certain magical powers, causing him to have a feeling of wanting to head over to worship it immediately. He soon discovered that the Buddhist melodies came from the mouth of the huge Reclining Buddha.

In the huge reclining Buddha statue that traversed the sky and the earth, the mouth looked like a huge cave. Alex had lost himself in the Buddhist melodies.

He walked towards the Reclining Buddha like a zombie, he even intended to climb through its huge mouth. However, just as Alex had one foot in its mouth, the remnant of the Chaos Bead in his mind palace burst out and shook violently.

Whoosh!

The shock went through the entire Space.

The endless golden Reclining Buddha also broke from the impact and collapsed like sand. Finally, it turned into nothingness, as though it never existed in the first place.

He gave Alex a ferocious look. “You actually broke my Golden Mirage Dragon.”

Chapter 1479

As Alex looked at the monk with black stripes on his face, he was extremely surprised.

‘Where did this monk appear from? And what is the Golden Mirage Dragon? Was it that huge Reclining Buddha statue just now?’

In fact, he had already been enchanted by the Buddhist melodies a while ago. With his current mental power at the Divine Transcendence stage, he could not resist the Buddhist melodies from the Buddhist monk with black stripes on his face at all.

If it weren’t for the sudden shock from the Chaos Bead to cause the collapse of the Reclining Buddha statue, he would have long since stepped into the mouth of the statue. And, that Buddha statue was called the Golden Mirage Dragon. The moment he entered its mouth, Alex would have thrown himself into its trap by getting caught by the monk with black stripes on his face.

Then,

his body would then be taken over by the monk.

This was another existence that was ready to take over someone's body.

Alex looked at the monk with a frown and took two steps backwards.

He could feel that the monk would be a troublesome guy and should be quite powerful. When the monk looked at him, it felt as though his soul was restless, as if it was about to drift out.

"Who are you? What is this place?" Alex asked.

The monk was initially furious, but when he heard Alex's words, he was taken aback. Then, he carefully studied Alex, and then exclaimed after a while, "Y-you're actually a brat who's only at Divine Transcendence!

How

can trash like you enter my Mirage Dragon Realm?!"

Alex was also taken aback. "What's the Mirage Dragon Realm?"

However, the black striped monk ignored him and clutched his own head frantically. If he had hair, all of it would be pulled out right now. He paced around on the spot and said, "Impossible. Impossible! How can someone at Divine Transcendence come inside here? Trash like that would instantly be crushed to death. What's the use of a body like this? It won't be able to withstand the power of reincarnation of mine."

Alex heard it right away. "You want to take over my body?"

The black striped monk stared at him and didn't speak, as though he was thinking of a way.

However, in the next moment, his expression twisted all of a sudden.

The black stripes receded from his face and he had turned into a fair faced monk. He opened his mouth and said, "Amitabha, excellent, excellent!

Black Stripe, you've accounted for everything and arranged all the important secrets, yet you are still no match for the destiny at the end.

You

never would have thought that the first person to enter your Mirage Dragon

Realm would be a Divine Transcendence who has yet to achieve immortality, right?"

Alex was stunned, shocked once again at the turn of events.

'What the hell was up with this monk?'

In the next second, the monk changed again, black stripes started appearing once again.

He snorted and said, "Then, how the heck did he get in? Since he was able to enter my Mirage Dragon Realm, it means that his body is strong enough. He's a deviant who should be able to withstand my power of reincarnation, so it shows that I'm still successful."

Then, the fair-faced monk appeared again. "No, you're destined not to succeed. He might be able to bear it, but you won't."

"Revealer, what do you mean?" Black Stripe asked.

The fair-faced monk replied, "Look at him properly, what does he have in his mind palace?"

After a moment, Black Stripe yelled out, "Oh! No! He actually has Mother Chaos!"

Alex was able to understand what he was talking about again. It seems that this schizophrenic monk couldn't easily deal with Alex due to Mother

Chaos.

With that, he felt slightly relieved. So, he asked, "What in the world are you guys talking about? Can you tell me what this place is? Could it be that it's just an illusion that you guys created?"

The fair-faced monk shook his head. "It's neither an illusion nor a reality."

"What do you mean?"

"To see a world in a grain of sand, and a heaven in a wild flower. Hold infinity in the palm of your hand, and eternity in an hour. This is a universe within the shattered Chaos beads!”

“Huh? Then, how do I get out?”

Alex didn't want to stay here any longer because it felt too dangerous.

If he had known that he would get this kind of results, he wouldn't have picked up the bead even if he died.

The fair-faced monk didn't reply. Instead, he spoke to the black striped monk. “Black Stripe, you and I belong to the same body, and we have been waiting here for countless years. In the end, are you still not going to give up? The path of Buddhism will not perish, and has its reincarnation of destiny. You've spent your entire life trying to completely overthrow the world of Buddhism, yet it's destined that you won't be able to succeed.

The

person in front of you who carries the Mother Chaos is the best proof.

He is the choice that the destiny of Buddhism has chosen! Amitabha!”

Chapter 1480

The black striped monk yelled, “I'm not satisfied, I'm not contented! Buddhism is a path of cultivation. What's the purpose of cultivating Buddhism, and What is the use of Buddhism?”

The fair-faced monk put his hands together. “Virtuous knowledge, enlightenment of oneself, originally pure, but with this heart, you can attain Buddhahood!”

“Black Stripe, you are initially my evil thoughts. You were born because of me, and you will perish with me. I can go with the burning flame of Buddhism too! The only wishes I have are that this unjustified knot will be solved once and for all, the barriers of sins will be removed forever, those evil thoughts will never appear again, the enlightenment will never retreat.

Excellent, excellent!”

The voice of the fair-faced monk was loud like rolling thunder, and it gave Alex a feeling of divine enlightenment.

In the next moment, the fair-faced monk glowed with endless golden light and turned into a form of golden energy, quickly piercing into Alex's body.

Alex was astonished.

In fact, he didn't even understand the old monk's words and intention at all. He was worried that the reason the guy had gone into his body was to take over it.

But soon, a mass of information passed into his sea of consciousness. This was the last thing that the fair-faced monk passed onto him.

It let him understand one thing, the fair-faced monk had an honorific title called Revealer, and Black Stripe was his evil thoughts that had been cut out by his Sword of Wisdom later, allowing the lump of evil thoughts to form its own consciousness. Once it had its own thoughts, Black Stripe wanted to destroy Buddhism, and topple over the entire foundation of Buddhism.

In the end, he obviously didn't succeed.

Revealer had managed to recover the evil thoughts. However, at the time, the evil thoughts had long since taken its own shape, which was equivalent to another complete soul. Revealer used his own body in exchange to seal the black patterns of evil thoughts into the shattered Chaos heads, but Black Stripe still did not give up and had established the

Mirage Dragon Realm, waiting to grab a chance to be reborn through possession.

Then, he ran into Alex, who had the Mother Chaos in his mind palace.

"No, no!"

"Revealer, you're wrong, you're wrong! You shouldn't do this, you shouldn't!" Black Stripe's face and Revealer's face appeared alternatively, looking very much like schizophrenia. Finally, Black Stripe also passed a dash of thoughts into Alex's mind, "Brat, remember to not believe in Revealer's nonsense. Don't cultivate Buddhism, it's a scam, an extremely shocking scam! It's purpose is to obliterate humanity. I will pass you a technique, it's called Brahma's Supreme Touch. It'll be able to save your life

if you ever encounter the great power of Buddha."

With a gush of thought, he was enlightened with perfect wisdom, the flawless Buddhist teachings. And then, whether it was Revealer or Black Stripe, both entered into his body.

They still had soul power. However, with just a turn from the Chaos Bead, those soul powers collapsed.

On the other hand, Alex felt a huge force explode in his body, impacting his internal organs and his meridians. His cultivation base rose rapidly... He was initially only at the early stage of Divine Transcendence, but it soon hit the intermediate stage.

And then, it reached the advanced stage. Then, it had reached the peak!

He was only one step away from Core Formation.

He was only one step away from Core Formation.

As for Brahma's Supreme Touch that Black Stripe had given him, it didn't need Alex's control. To his surprise, it had been evolving in his sea of consciousness, just like it had been practically engraved into his soul. He knew it now even if he didn't want to.

In this case, it was unknown how long it took.

As the Buddhist melodies in his ear gradually disappeared, the scenery in front of him suddenly changed. He had returned to reality. Then, he found out that an entire day and night had passed.

After that, he received a call from Dorothy, learning that the Thousand Miles Conglomerate had faced a great change and it was about to be overturned.

Countless crimes had been listed by the government. Circumstances at

Thousand Miles had even constantly changed, with gunshots being heard from inside the building.

Alex rushed to the Thousand Miles building immediately. He happened to hear Lennox's words.

"I have an opinion in regards to that!"

"Who are you?" Lennox frowned. "Do you even have the right to speak here?"

Alex was calm as he replied, "Weren't you looking for me? You don't even know who I am? I am Master Rockefeller."
