The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1604

Herschel Lancaster shook his head. "Master, conquering America is not what I'm aiming for anymore. Now, I want to step beyond the cultivators' realm, shatter the abyss of the void, and join the ranks of gods! When the time comes, I'll be able to help you step unto The Path of Gods too," he said.

"Great, great, great!" The middle-aged man was none other than Dominique Brahms, master of Hygieia Valley. He repeated the word 'great' three times.

Who wouldn't desire to step unto The Path of Gods that was spoken of in legends?

Even ancient emperors longed for immortality!

"Spiritual Valley Dungeon is opened once every three years. This time, I'm prepared to stay in there for a long while. The speed of cultivation inside is also far superior to the outside world. I'll try my best to figure out The Path of Gods as soon as possible.

"I'll hand over five of the access tokens to the juniors so that they could look for opportunities in another region.

"As for people from Floral Valley..." When Herschel said this, a murderous look appeared in his eyes. "The price of man's success is sacrificing ten thousand others. One must be willing to overlook tiny details. In order to achieve immortality through The Path of Gods, some deaths are unavoidable!" he said.

"Are you saying that you'll kill these people?" Dominique asked.

"Do you have a problem with that?" Herschel asked in return.

"I think it's not enough!" replied Dominique.

His expression seemed even crueler. "Spiritual Valley Dungeon has to become Hygieia Valley's secret for our private enjoyment. No outsiders must know about it! Floral Valley must cease to exist," Dominique harrumphed.

When the woman from Floral Valley heard this, her body trembled. She nearly screamed out loud.

Fortunately, Alex Rockefeller was able to cover her mouth in time.

However, Alex was also shocked by what he heard. Herschel and his master had practically gone mad. To protect a secret, they actually planned to eradicate an entire sect.

“Understood! I’ll lead everyone from Floral Valley into the spell formation and eradicate them right away!” Herschel said.

After saying that, Herschel turned around and walked out.

The woman from Floral Valley, whose mouth was covered by Alex, was in an awful panic. She struggled with all her might. She wanted to tell the people from her sect so that they could quickly escape.

Plock!

A gentle knock could be heard. Luna Flores had struck the woman on her neck to knock her out

The three of them silently backed away to a place where nobody else was around.

“What do you think?” Alex asked Luna.

“Not only does Herschel want to kill up to a hundred women from Floral Valley, but he even wants to destroy the place. This is Hygieia Valley’s base camp. It’s not ideal for us to make a move! Hence, we’ll follow them over to Floral Valley. When the two parties are severely injured, we’ll sneak up on them and attack!” Luna said.

Alex shook his head. “I want to save them,” he said.

“Are you mad? You’ll die!” Luna exclaimed.

“The people who came from Floral Valley are probably all experts. Those who remained in Floral Valley’s base might not be able to cause much harm to Herschel,” Alex said.

“Let’s ask her!” Luna said before waking up the woman from Floral Valley.

As soon as the woman woke up, she groaned about wanting to inform her master.

After that, Alex and Luna found out from her that up to a hundred people who came were indeed experts. Floral Valley knew that Hygieia Valley wouldn’t keep the end of their promise so easily; hence everyone who came was an expert, and they even sent a woman to steal the Spiritual Valley Tokens!

There weren’t many people left in Floral Valley’s base.

“Let’s go!”

Alex immediately decided to rescue the people. He was also getting help from Floral Valley’s members to fight against Herschel. To their surprise, they actually bumped into Nanami Shochiku on their way.

“Alex, why are you here?” Nanami asked in surprise.

‘Damn it! When did my mask come off?’ Alex thought.
