The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1609

“Senior is dead. Senior is dead!”

“He isn’t Senior. He’s a demon that has possessed Senior’s body!”

“How could this be? What exactly is that thing?”

The people from Hygieia Valley all shouted frantically. They didn’t know what to do.

In fact, they didn’t even understand why their senior, Herschel Lancaster, had started killing the Floral Valley people. Although the two sects had always been in conflict, and neither party thought well of the other, a direct confrontation like this had never happened before.

However, the emotions of Floral Valley’s people began to fluctuate.

At first, they thought everyone from Floral Valley would be dead, but to their surprise, Alex Rockefeller and Luna Flores had narrowly succeeded, killing Herschel in the end.

It was then that Dominique Brahms, Hygieia Valley’s master, walked over. He came to look at the results.

In his mind, Herschel’s level of cultivation far exceeded everyone from Floral Valley. Killing them was so easy that he’d take fifteen minutes at most. Herschel was definitely capable of dealing with them. However, to Dominique’s surprise, he saw Herschel’s corpse.

“What... What happened here?”

“Herschel, Herschel, how could you die?”

“Who did this? Who exactly did this?” Dominique’s eyes were wide open with horror.

Herschel was Dominique’s hope of stepping onto The Path of Gods. Now that Herschel was dead, Dominique lost all hope.

“I did it!” Luna said coldly.

“Who are you?”

“The person who is about to kill you!” Luna waved his hand. Dominique was lifted into the air. With a loud bang, he crashed against a building nearby. His head collided against the wall, and he died directly upon impact.

This master didn't have a high level of cultivation.

The remaining matters were rather straightforward. Luna still had her battle powers. Nearby, there was also Maiko Chiba, a half-stepped ghost king. Meanwhile, close to seventy of the Floral Valley people were still alive. They were able to take control of the situation very quickly.

"Lady, is this young fighter alright?"

Floral Valley's president, Alcina Bela, first asked her injured disciples to tend to their wounds on the spot. After asking some people to tie up the Hygieia Valley people, she walked over to Luna and asked about Alex's condition.

Jasmine Gerbera, the woman Alex had used the parasitic poison on, opened her mouth. At first, she wanted to say something, but she kept her mouth shut in the end.

Whether it was Alex or Luna's battle power, nobody from Floral Valley could compare to them. Jasmine was worried that the two parties might end up in conflict after she brought that thing up. What if Luna got mad and killed their president too?

Meanwhile, Luna didn't have a good impression of the Floral Valley people because Jasmine had previously poisoned her. Luna wasn't as kind as Alex.

"Don't worry. He won't die!" Luna snorted coldly.

Alcina didn't know about what happened before. After receiving a cold response like that, she had a rather awkward expression on her face.

"I'm the president of Floral Valley, Alcina Bela. Thank you for helping us earlier. Otherwise, we'd all be dead here! Floral Valley is adept at making pills. Now that the young fighter is injured, we have a high-quality recovery pill for him. Quickly, feed this to him!" Alcina said.

Luna laughed coldly. "Who knows if your pill might be poisonous? I wouldn't dare feed him with it! Also, stay away from us," snapped Luna.

"Ehh...?" Alcina felt even more awkward.

An elder couldn't stand Luna's condescending tone. She ran up to say something. "How could you be this rude? What do you mean it 'might be poisonous'? Our president was kind by offering you medicine. How could your attitude be this terrible?"

"Get lost!" Luna's gaze turned cold.

She strummed her Sky-Devil Zither once. As soon as the sound of the zither could be heard, ripples of energy waves swept over everyone.

Everyone within thirty meters was affected, including Alcina. Nobody could stand straight, and they all fell to the ground.
