The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1616

Two hours later, they finally arrived at the entrance of Spiritual Valley Dungeon.

It was situated within the depths of the forests in Witch Mountain range. Alex and Luna were shocked to see the entrance to the dungeon. It was on top of an ancient, large tree.

In the middle of two large groups was a spinning, pitch-black entrance. It looked as if it was a beast's mouth, a pitless abyss that could swallow one's soul.

"President, these people are..."

There were two groups of people guarding the entrance, one from Hygieia Valley while the other was from Floral Valley. The two groups have been guarding this place for years, hence they managed to make this place into a villa in the mountains.

When members of Floral Valley arrived, their guards came to welcome them immediately. However, they were obviously confused when they noticed Alex and Luna, who were strangers.

On the other hand, the guards from Hygieia Valley were panicking.

They haven't been able to get a hold of anyone from their clan. They tried calling most of them, but their calls were left unanswered, some couldn't even get through. Hence, they had no idea what was happening at that time. They had ordered someone to rush back to inform the others, yet they still have yet to receive any news.

"Master Bela, have you seen Master Brahms?" One of the members of Hygieia Valley asked.

"Capture them!" Alcina said as she gestured to the members of Hygieia Valley.

The martial artists from Floral Valley who were put on standby immediately lunged towards the other group and captured each and every member.

"What is the meaning of this, Master Bela? Are you trying to breach the contract between us two clans?" One of the members fumed.

Smack!

A woman in her thirties slapped the man harshly across his face. She was from Floral Valley, and her sister just died in Hygieia Valley. She wished she could kill off all the members from that clan. "Your clan has been destroyed, what contract is there left?"

“What did you say? Our clan was destroyed? There’s no way!”

Smack smack smack!

The woman lifted her hand and slapped him three times again.

Alex and Luna knew that Hygieia Valley lacked a leader as soon as both their president and highest disciple died. Alcina was quite bold to just take over Hygieia Valley as well.

With this, Floral Valley remained while Hygieia Valley no longer existed.

However, Alex was not interested in this one bit. He was more interested in the entrance on the tree.

That entrance was oddly similar to the teleportation circle he saw in the tomb. It was connected to another space, completely dismissing the distance between them.

With a small leap, Alex jumped up to the tree.

“Hey! How dare you? Who gave you permission to get up there? Get down now!” One of the younger members of Floral Valley yelled at him. She had no idea who Alex was, hence she didn’t know how powerful he was.

“Madeline Charming, don’t be rude!” Alcina scolded. “This is Mr. Rockefeller and Ms. Flores, we Floral Valley are indebted to them, so they will be entering the dungeon with us.”

The young girl named Madeline froze and didn’t dare to say a word again.

“How do we get in?” Alex asked.

Alcina said, “As long as you have the Spiritual Valley Token, you can just walk right in. But if you don’t, you would end up in another space instead, that is extremely dangerous. Us two clans have used everything in our power and paid the price back then to get 109 tokens. But all we have left is 20 now.”

“So what you mean is…”

The dungeon opens for a month, every cycle. When it’s time, anyone with the token would be automatically sent back out. However, if someone were to die there, the token stays inside along with their corpse.”

“So that means we can still find more tokens when we get in?”

“Yes, and if we’re lucky, we might even be able to take it.”

Alex pondered and took out the rest of the tokens and threw it towards Alcina. "I don't have any use for the extras, so you can have it!"

He walked right into the pitch-black entrance with one token on him, vanishing from everyone's sight.

Luna mumbled angrily. "What an idiot? Why is he in such a rush?"

Despite this, she was still worried about her butler, hence she hopped in after dragging Jasmine with her.
