The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1741

The Fairy Doctor shook her head, "I can't refine it. The material for the Heaven Mending Pill is very rare. I've only collected it thrice and refined it thrice. But even if I have the recipe for the Heaven Mending Pill, it still fails in the end. Every time there is a problem with the condensation of the pills, the work is lost"

Speaking of this...

She suddenly realized something and asked, "Are you able to refine it?"

Alex said, "I have never refined a Heaven Mending Pill, but if the ingredients are available, I don't think it should be a big problem."

Listening to this, the Fairy Doctor immediately jumped up. "Let's go to the trading market."

"Trading market? Where's that?"

"It is a place where materials from the ancient battlefield are collected. Except for the parts that were chosen right away on the battlefield, the rest would be sent to the Flying Eagles Academy. Then, they would be sorted into different categories by the specialized personnel of the Flying Eagles Academy. Most of them would become the academy's inventory to train trainees, and some of them will be sold."

Alex asked, "How come I've never heard of this before?"

The Fairy Doctor answered, "This is not open to ordinary community members because the things collected in the ancient boundaries would surely be cultivation materials, or research materials, spiritual herbs and medicines, demon beast blood, demon pellets, and so on. Those are meant to be sold to the outside world, which focuses mainly on several relatively large cultivation sects and cultivation families in America, such as Mount Warriors, Keith, East Flower Sect, Hidden Sword Pavilion, and so on!"

Speaking of this, she sighed again.

“The battlefield inside the Ancient Boundary is very cruel. For thirty years, the Flying Eagles Academy has sent past generations of students, including elite geniuses. Still, in the end, not even one in ten survived the war’s trials and tribulations.”

Alex’s heart sank slightly.

The Fairy Doctor said, “But there is no need to be too pessimistic. With a group of elite experts, my godbrother and Principal Lawlor went to the Dragon King’s Grotto. If we can find the Blood Dragon Pearl, we can quell this catastrophe.”

“Blood Dragon Pearl? What’s that?” Alex was incomparably puzzled.

In front of the Fairy Doctor, he felt like he had a hundred thousand questions because there were many things he simply did not understand in the Flying Eagles Academy.

The Fairy Doctor explained, “I heard that the Blood Dragon Pearl could command the demon race! The demon race is much higher than the demon beast in existence. From all indications, the ancient boundary’s demon beast is likely to be under the control of the demon race. These years, the battle over there has gotten more and more difficult. The demon beast’s combat power is also getting stronger and stronger. According to my estimate, to last half a year is a bit too risky!”

Alex frowned and did not speak. Then, Alex hit a few spells and entered the formation of the warm jade bed.

The green light instantly disappeared. The spiritual liquid that had coalesced slowly dissipated.

Even the spiritual liquid left on the floor quickly decomposed, evaporated, and dissipated into the air. Their clothes, which were wet from the spiritual rain, dried quickly. The effect was miraculous.

“Master Fairy Doctor, in that case, your father... Is still alive?”

The Fairy Doctor nodded, then said, “I even have to ask you for advice on alchemy, so you don’t have to address me as ‘Master’. ‘Fairy Doctor’ is not my name either. That’s a name others gave me. My name is Dawn Winslet, you can call me...”

“Aunt Winslet?” Alex joked.

After a day and a night together, the two were familiar with each other.

“Screw you. How am I that old?”

“Lady Winslet. ”

“Sis’ please. You can call me Sis Winslet!”

They packed up a bit. Then, the two went out.

Unexpectedly, there were several people gathered in front of the house.

When they saw Alex and the Fairy Doctor coming out together, more so with the Fairy Doctor adjusting her collar while walking, the crowd immediately heckled and wailed.

The two of them were stunned.

Very soon, Alex saw Gabby among the crowd. He waved at her, “Gabby, come here.”

Gabby was stunned as she slowly walked over, her eyes darting between the two, conflicted, as she whispered, “Alex, did you sleep with the Fairy Doctor?”

Alex was dumbfounded.

He thought, ‘Damn, Michael, that bastard! What kind of nonsense did he say? Why does everyone know about it after he became the shield?’

The Fairy Doctor’s expression was not pleasant either. She couldn’t care less, but that didn’t mean she liked to be talked about so much.

Alex also did not want to have the Fairy Doctor’s stain on him, for he had a wife and was a family man. It was fine to be a shield for others. But, if he were to admit it in front of so many people, would it not become ironclad evidence? If Dorothy knew about this, it would not be good.

“Who are you listening blindly to? I was asking for advice on alchemy with the Fairy Doctor!” Alex casually found a reason to justify himself.

“This is impossible, right?”

Immediately, a person spoke up, “Didn’t you beat the Fairy Doctor mentor in alchemy last time? The Fairy Doctor even came to your door and wanted to wash your clothes!”

Alex did not know the Fairy Doctor before.

But now, after getting to know her, he found that the Fairy Doctor was a very good woman, such a woman, older than him, should be respected. Most of all, he also wanted to use her bed formation a few more times. He immediately said, “I want to sincerely apologize to the Fairy Doctor because I cheated in the last competition.”

Once he said that, the crowd was stunned. The Fairy Doctor was stunned too.

Alex explained, “In fact, I used a special method to camouflage the Blood Energy Pill, which I refined the other day so that it looked seemingly one hundred percent purity of the Blood Energy Pill. But in fact, I lost. My Blood Energy Pill only had eighty percent purity. The Fairy Doctor went to see me before and asked me for clothes to wash. Actually, she meant the opposite. She was aware that I cheated and found me to settle accounts. I sincerely apologized yesterday, and then, as agreed, I also became a student of the Fairy Doctor... Well, last night, I was punished by her and kneeled all night.”

The Fairy Doctor looked at Alex in shock.

Alex quietly winked at her.

The Fairy Doctor instantly understood that Alex was preserving her reputation and fame, and although she did not care too much, she felt momentarily moved.

The next moment. The crowd got annoyed.

“Holy sh*t!”

“How dare he f*cking cheat?”

“What a shame! How could you do such a thing? Fairy Doctor, how can you accept such a person with questionable character as a student?”

“This is a disgrace to our Flying Eagles Academy. This kind of trash should be expelled and never accepted!”

At this moment, the Fairy Doctor said, “Knowing your mistakes and being able to correct them is the best thing you can do. Our Flying Eagles Academy not only teaches everyone skills but also character. I’m sure he won’t do it again in the future under my tutelage! All right, stand down! Alex, come with me to the trading market.”

“Yes, Mentor!”

Amidst the dumbfounded crowd, Alex followed the Fairy Doctor in a frenzy and went to the trading market.

Behind the crowd.

There stood Michael.

When he heard that Alex cheated with his alchemy, he was stunned for a moment. Then, it dawned on him that this was the f*cking truth!

‘How could a twenty something year old kid be an existence whose alchemy was even more remarkable than the Fairy Doctor?’

Next to him, Spencer said with a grunt, “Michael, it seems that you were tricked by the Fairy Doctor yesterday. I can see that the Fairy Doctor has not lost her virginity and that it is still intact.”

Feeling happy and angry, Michael froze for a while. “Damn, so it was just a shield!”

After a pause, he said, “Okay, then there is no need to catch him. just let him die!”

Spencer smiled. “Good, I’ve already had people put out the news. I believe he will soon enter the line of sight of Flying Eagle.”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1743

Alex and the Fairy Doctor had just walked out of the crowd and were about to go to the trade exchange to look for materials for alchemy when they were unexpectedly stopped by a woman, who was no other than Jane.

Jane was also in the crowd and had heard everything. She was outraged and furious with Alex.

Pointing at Alex, she said, “Fairy Doctor has a good temper, doesn’t bother you, and has even accepted you as a student, but I don’t have the Fairy Doctor’s good temper. You dared to cheat on the alchemy bet and deceive your mentor. If not for the fact that my mentor has already given her nod, I would never have allowed you to join our Elixir Department.”

Alex looked at her and frowned.

The Fairy Doctor said, “Jane, stop talking.”

Jane said, “Mentor, nothing can be accomplished without norms and standards. I am your assistant, so it is my duty to help you teach this bad student a lesson. We cannot let this kind of culture spread in the Elixir Department.”

Then, she said to Alex, “You don’t have to go to the exchange. I will go with the mentor. You go to the alchemy teaching building now and clean all the alchemy furnaces there.”

‘What?’ Alex froze as he listened.

The Fairy Doctor was a bit stunned too. There were thousands of alchemy furnaces in the teaching building. Wasn’t it overwhelming to wash all at once?

Most importantly, Alex was not her real student. Instead, she should be his student. They were now going to the exchange and refining the Heaven Mending Pill to save his father. If Alex was annoyed and ran away, what would happen?

The Fairy Doctor cooled down and said, “Jane, I need Alex for something. You can’t help me with anything. Let’s leave the alchemy furnace in the teaching building to you to clean it!”

“What?” Jane was stunned!

The Fairy Doctor waved her hand, “That’s it, go ahead. Remember, you wash them yourself with no help from other students.”

After saying that, she and Alex turned around and walked away.

Jane was left standing there dumbfounded, but in her heart, she was furious. ‘Why is this happening? Why are you doing this to me? Fairy Doctor, you treat me like this for a fraudulent first-year student. It’s too much! Could it be that you really have an affair?’

At this moment... A man appeared in front of Jane. This man was Michael.

“Sis Jane!”

Jane certainly knew Michael because she was already a student of the Fairy Doctor when Michael was pursuing the Fairy Doctor. When she became the Fairy Doctor’s assistant, Michael had deliberately made good relations with her and sent her many things.

“Sis Jane, it seems that you are getting less and less powerful in front of the Fairy Doctor. With that Rockefeller kid, she might not even need you as an assistant in the future.”

“Huh?”

Jane was shocked.

If she couldn’t be the Fairy Doctor’s assistant, what else could she do? She could not be a tutor in the Flying Eagles Academy because she didn’t have elixir fire and wasn’t qualified enough. So, wouldn’t she be chased away?

“My father’s left-winged army needs someone like you who knows how to make alchemy. It’s okay if you don’t have elixir fire. If you are up for it, I can recommend you to my father. No problems at all, for sure.”

Jane was stunned for a moment. This was really a pie in the sky!

Some people were reluctant to enter Flying Eagles because they were afraid of death. But, she was not a combatant and would not go to the frontline battlefield. So, naturally, she did not have to worry about this. This academy was the first to receive all the resources on the battlefield. It was a fantastic job for her. How could she not be happy?

Chapter 1544 Public Display of Affection

After sitting down, it was time to order. When Queenie was browsing through the menu, Nigel came closer to her and read the menu with her. Queenie couldn't help but exclaim, "This is so expensive!"

"Let's order one to taste it," Nigel said immediately.

"It's alright."

"I want to eat." Then, Nigel turned toward the waiter and said, "Add this too."

Queenie pursed her red lips to suppress the happiness inside. The feeling of being pampered was wonderful.

Bonnie was also ordering the food, but she couldn't pay attention. She was jealous, feeling the fondness of Nigel for Queenie. In the past, that was how Leslie used to treat Bonnie. However, afterward, Leslie moved back to Queenie, so Bonnie became single.

She couldn't understand why Nigel treated them differently, even if the both of them looked similar.

"May I know where the washroom is?" Maggie asked the waiter.

Queenie also happened to need to make the trip and said, "Mom, I'll go with you."

A gleam of scheme flashed under Bonnie's eyes as she watched Queenie and Maggie leave. Then, she immediately got up and went to Nigel as she leaned down to approach him. "Nigel, have you tasted this dish before? Is it good? Can we have one?"

She pointed to a dish and asked Nigel as she deliberately showed an innocent look. However, Nigel only felt the smell of Bonnie's perfume makes him suffocate, so his upper body tried to keep the distance between them as far as possible.

“Feel free to order whatever you want.” Nigel didn’t want to discuss the dishes with her.

“Really? That’s so nice of you.” Bonnie flashed her smile, and her heavy makeup was visible under the light. The lipstick made Nigel not want to look at her more than once, as her face was filled with rich metallic colors, which made her look fake.

Bonnie deliberately stood by Nigel’s side, pretending to be looking at the menu. She wanted to wait for Queenie to come back and see her standing there.

Sure enough, when Queenie walked into the room and saw Bonnie standing beside Nigel, she was annoyed.

“Queenie, Nigel is so kind. He lets me order whatever I want,” Bonnie said with a smile toward Queenie, as if she was praising Queenie’s good taste. In reality, she was trying to show off how well Nigel treated her. However, when Queenie sat back down, he took the initiative to lean closer and stared straight at her with alluring eyes until her displeasure disappeared. Instead, she was getting embarrassed to be stared at by him. So, she reached out to block his eyes to signal him not to look.

However, Nigel quietly held her hand and placed it under the table to grip it firmly.

Bonnie stood close to them, so she directly witnessed the show of affection. Hence, she couldn’t help but feel her heart clogged up and returned to her seat. Then, she saw Queenie holding up a cup and stared at her warningly.

In response, Bonnie deliberately lowered her head to pretend not to notice. It was then that the food came. They opened up two bottles of wine that cost four hundred thousand, and Brandon drank happily. He was happy with his future son-in-law.

Queenie had been blushing, and she had the feeling that her parents could not wait for her to marry tomorrow.

Bonnie's gaze was full of jealousy and hatred. Bonnie regretted that she had stolen Leslie from Queenie. If she hadn't stolen him from Queenie, Queenie would have married him by now, so she wouldn't be lucky enough to meet Nigel.

However, there was no second chance, so Bonnie could only look for future opportunities.

"Mom, I want to go shopping after lunch." Bonnie felt she lacked attraction because her clothes were not of high quality. As such, she wanted to buy a few sets of the latest fashion to complement her style.

Unlike Queenie, who grew up rich with confidence naturally emanating from her heart, Bonnie lacked that. Bonnie was like a girl that grew up in a low-income family; in the face of the money in the upper class, she was like a greedy minion who couldn't wait to hold everything tightly in her hands.

Chapter 1545 Mistaking Bonnie for Her Twin Sister

Queenie had been enjoying the rich girl treatment for her whole life, which resulted in her not prioritizing material comforts. Instead, her mannerisms showed a hint of elegance and confidence.

"All right. Do you need me to accompany you?" Maggie asked.

"There's no need. I'm going alone." Bonnie wouldn't want her mother to see her splurging.

After lunch, the group gathered at the entrance of the restaurant. Queenie didn't feel like going home at the moment, but she felt bad to leave her parents and go with Nigel. An idea occurred to her soon after.

"Did I leave my purse at your house?" she asked with feigned confusion.

Nigel got the hint as soon as he met her eyes, and he answered flawlessly, "It looks like you left it in the first-floor lobby. Do you want to get it with me?"

"Sure. Dad, Mom, I'll go to retrieve my purse at his place." Once she finished her words, she grabbed his hand and hurriedly left the restaurant.

Little did she know, her parents were sharing a knowing look on their faces, but they did nothing to stop her. Instead, they turned to each other and laughed at the situation.

Bonnie seized the opportunity by remarking on the situation on purpose. "It seems like Queenie is expecting to marry him very soon."

"He's a man with good qualities. I want to see her marry him as fast as possible, maybe even more than herself." Maggie smiled knowingly.

Bonnie choked at her words. She was planning to accuse Queenie of a lack of consideration for their parents in the first place. However, their parents were satisfied with Nigel to such a degree that they wanted to see Queenie marry him.

"Mom, I'm going to the mall now. Be safe." After the reminder, Bonnie headed toward a cab.

At the same moment, Queenie already found herself in Nigel's car as she patted her chest in relief. "My parents can't tell I lied to them, right?"

Nigel fought back a smile and comforted her with all seriousness, "They probably can't."

"That's good." She sighed in relief and beamed at him. "It seems like I can expect a free dinner from you."

Her adorable behavior melted his heart. Besides, he found that having somebody to depend on him was something that made him happy.

Reaching out a hand, he caressed the back of her head. "We're heading to the hotel and having dinner over there."

"All right." Queenie nodded obediently.

Meanwhile, Bonnie went to the shopping mall alone for a shopping spree. She had decided to spend a lot on high fashion without monitoring her spending. She found a piece of garment she was interested in, but its price was too expensive for her standards. Thus, she was hesitating the whole time. At that moment, a woman behind her shrieked in surprise, "What a coincidence!"

Turning to the woman who called out to her, Bonnie was surprised to find she had no idea who the woman was. Frowning, she asked, “Do I know you?”

“Don’t you remember me? I’m Lina Perez. We met in the hotel last night.” Lina was sizing Bonnie up when she answered the other woman. She couldn’t help but sneer quietly. She looked pure and innocent under the night light last night, so what’s the matter with the heavy makeup on her face right now? Where did the innocence go? Lina might be envious of ‘Queenie’s’ beauty last night, but now she had second thoughts after meeting ‘Queenie’ in the mall.

Nigel has bad taste in women. How could he fall for a woman who did plastic surgery in the first place?

The realization immediately dawned on Bonnie. The girl before her had mistaken her for Queenie. Judging by the look of the other girl, it was obvious that she wasn’t Queenie’s friend, and was more like a rival to Queenie.

Bonnie cast her a smile. “Miss, you’ve got the wrong person. Queenie is my older sister, and I’m Bonnie.”

“She has a twin sister? I had no idea!” Lina couldn’t contain her surprise. It’s a surprise to see Queenie has a younger sister who looks similar to her.

“That’s right. However, I went missing as a child and only returned to my family a year ago, which is the reason you don’t know anything about it.” After explaining to the other woman, Bonnie began to observe Lina from head to toe as she twirled her hair.

“Queenie is dating Nigel at the moment. Are you aware of it?” Lina shot her another question.

“Of course! We had lunch together a while ago. However, I feel like Queenie isn’t good enough for him in all aspects. Rather, a girl from a noble family like you suits him the most.” Bonnie cast Lina a look of admiration when she said that.

Lina’s eyes shone in excitement as she grasped the key information. Bonnie went missing during her youth and only returned to the Silverstein Family recently. She must resent her sister, who grew up getting pampered by the family.

“Really... Is it really possible?”

“Of course you can, as long as you promise to do one thing for me!”

When Michael said these, he thought of the small object that the Fairy Doctor had dropped and immediately, he was burning inside.

At this moment...

Alex followed the Fairy Doctor and arrived at the Flying Eagles Academy's exchange.

Initially, he thought it would be a place like a trade market, but it turned out that it was not at all and more like a modern office with a row of visual screens that could be operated on, with which one could directly view the names of resources that could be traded as well as the prices.

This felt like ordering food on a take-out app. However, operating this machine required a swipe of the identity card. Every instructor and student had one, but not Alex.

It was because right now, he was not considered a student of any department, and in the academy system, he was still considered unregistered.

There were thirteen kinds of materials for refining the Heaven Mending Pill. However, eleven of them were relatively common and ordinary. There was no need to come to the exchange as the Department of Pills had them in its inventory. But, the other two were extremely scarce. One was a Poisonous Spider Herbal Supplement, and the other was a Fire-attributed Demon Core above the seventh level.

The Fairy Doctor checked in the system, and there was no such thing.

Never mind the seventh-level Fire-attributed Demon Core. The seventh-level demon beast was very powerful. Even the conscious splitting expert might not be able to win against it. This kind of demon beast alchemy was very precious. If it was divided on the battlefield, who was willing to use it?

The Fairy Doctor had gotten it three times before. His godbrother, Gilbert, helped her to get it.

The Poisonous Spider Herbal Supplement was also extremely rare. It was a kind of toxic grass that grew on the back of a highly poisonous spider. This certainly could not be an ordinary poisonous spider but a rare red-headed magic spider living in a hive. Currently, this kind of spider only appeared inside certain secret realms and ancient boundaries. So, this was another material, which was almost tricky to find.

The Fairy Doctor said with a pang of disappointment, "In fact, I told the people at the warehouse before to keep an eye out for these two materials. If these were available, they would find me. Now, it seems that there is none! If one is not a super expert, it is simply hard to get this kind of thing."

Alex said, "Refining the Heaven Mending Pill does not necessarily require poisonous spider herbal supplement. In fact, it can be substituted with something else."

The Fairy Doctor was stunned. "Can it be substituted? I never knew that ingredients in a prescription could be substituted."

Alex laughed, "Sis Winslet, this prescription, in fact, is similar to the prescription of Chinese medicine. It is not set in stone as each pill refined by each alchemist will not be the same! This prescription was originally created by the alchemist. Before this, there was none. So, most used a little common sense to make it."

The Fairy Doctor looked at Alex in shock. "But, to reach the level of changing the materials on the prescription requires a very comprehensive and deep knowledge of medicinal materials and alchemy. At the very least, it is only when you are a level eight or higher great alchemist that you can do it. Could it be that you are a level-eight great alchemist?"

Alex shook his head. "I'm not, but I can blend it in! I'll tell you a few materials. You can check if there are any."

"Good!"

Next, Alex named a few things, but none could be found. There was none.

This time, Alex had no other choice either. “Are all the materials in this large Flying Eagles Academy? There should be something else, for example, some materials that the people in the warehouse might not recognize either?”

“There is one. It is all piled up in another place. I’ll take you there to have a look!”

Very soon, the Fairy Doctor led Alex to another warehouse. As a result, before he could enter the door, the Chaos Bead in Alex’s mind-palace vibrated violently.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1745

“What?”

“What is that?”

Alex was stunned, and then there was a burst of excitement.

From all past experiences, what could make the Chaos Bead react so much was definitely something good, and Alex became incomparably excited about the inventory in this warehouse.

At the entrance of the warehouse were several guards and managers. Seeing the Fairy Doctor, they immediately bowed and saluted.

One of the middle-aged women, who was broad and fat, said with a smile on her face, “It’s the Fairy Doctor. What has brought you here? I even saw magpies chirping when I went out today. So, it was because the Fairy Doctor is coming. A rare guest. Please come in.”

Alex looked at her and almost laughed out loud. Now it was in the middle of winter. How could there be magpies?

It would make sense if there were sparrows.

“Aunt Beck, I’ve come to find out suitable alchemy materials that are available in this warehouse,” the Fairy Doctor said with a veil and a clear, cold voice, however, the address, ‘Aunt Beck’ made the middle-aged woman increasingly excited, probably because she felt very honored that the Fairy Doctor could actually recognize her!

The woman immediately said, “No problem, no problem...”

The woman immediately took the Fairy Doctor into the warehouse and also glanced at Alex before she carefully said to the Fairy Doctor, “Fairy Doctor, my husband had a problem with his cultivation before. Could you help refine a Soul Nurturing Pill?”

Alex turned away, and he laughed silently. ‘So, she had a request. No wonder she was so enthusiastic.’

Alex was unaware that alchemists were scarce talents, especially high-level alchemists. Many people bribed and provided them with things just to beg for pills when necessary.

That was why the Fairy Doctor’s status was so high, and it was not because she had a principal for a godbrother.

Alex was not interested in spending more time on Aunt Beck.

In fact, from the moment he stepped into this warehouse, the Chaos Bead in his mind palace was reacting crazily, vibrating desperately as if it wanted to burst out from inside his mind palace. What made Alex feel even more surprised was that this time, not only was the Chaos Bead vibrating, but the cloud of green air mass next to the Chaos Bead also became unusually active.

“That... What exactly is it?”

Alex looked within the mind palace and glanced at the green air mass.

This was the strange wooden block that he had obtained last time in Hygieia Valley, which eventually turned into a green light and entered his mind palace and did not come out since.

Alex never knew exactly what it was.

‘Could it also be longing for something?’

Alex tried his best to conceal the strange movement in his body, and his eyes gathered spiritual energy to scan through the warehouse. Soon, his eyes locked onto the innermost part of the warehouse.

The Chaos Bead's senses pointed straight inside.

The Fairy Doctor nudged Alex. "Well? Is there something here that can be used?"

Alex covered his forehead and said, "This warehouse is too big. I have to take my time to look at it."

Aunt Beck was a little surprised at his words. She thought Alex was the student of the Fairy Doctor, but why did it seem that the Fairy Doctor attached great importance to this man? Why did she have to ask him for this kind of thing?

The Fairy Doctor nodded. "The ancient boundary appeared thirty years ago, but our research on the ancient boundary is limited to these thirty years. Inside, there are many heavenly treasures and useful things which one may not recognize. They are all piled up, and we cannot determine the good or bad, and some which are a little special but cannot be used. Let's see how many pieces you can recognize."

Alex was originally going to walk to the corner. But now that the Fairy Doctor had said so, he casually looked at them.

It was really surprising.

Just in his left-hand position was a red cloud magic crystal the size of a human head. This thing was red, and on the outside were cloudy patterns. Ordinary people might not recognize it, but he had the inheritance of the Ultimate Book of Medicine. Inside was a wide variety of materials.

This kind of magic crystal was good material for cultivating magic. It was most suitable for Luna's usage.

Immediately after that, he was surprised again. There was a Heavenly Underworld Spider Egg by his feet. This thing was awesome. It seemed to be alive.

'If a Heavenly Underworld Spider hatched out of it, it would be a perfect pet!'

However, Alex was not interested in this kind of poisonous pet.

Immediately after that, an Ice Toad!

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1746

The Essence of the Earth Monarch, the Sky-pure Sand, and so on... There were many rare materials.

Despite seeing the materials, he did not bat an eye and pretended that he did not recognize them. 'Knowledge is wealth. Although you don't know them, I recognize them and even know their values. I can do something about them next time, but now the most important thing is to solve the issue of Chaos Bead and the mass of green air inside the mind palace.'

He was worried that the two ancestors would blow his head if the issue kept dragging on.

'Go over. Go over again!'

Soon after, Alex had seen the origin of everything.

A wood!

It was a piece of dark wood, but its size was huge. It was a hundred times larger than the one obtained by Alex last time.

'It's this kind of wood again! What the heck is this used for?'

Just as Alex was puzzled, a sudden change occurred.

The mass of green light in Alex's mind palace abruptly rushed out of Alex's glabella. With a whoosh, it flowed into the black wood. Fairy Doctor and Aunt Beck only cared about looking at other items in the warehouse, so they did not realize such a change.

In the next second, the wooden block that the green light had rushed in suddenly lit up. It was just a speck at first.

Immediately afterward, countless specks of green light covered the entire wooden block with a whoosh. There was even a stream of light circulating on the wood.

“Ah!”

“What is this? Why did this thing suddenly light up?”

Even the Fairy Doctor was shocked.

However, she felt that the aura emanating from the wood was powerful. It was ancient yet boundless.

Buzz!

Just when she wanted to get closer and take a clearer look, a burst of unparalleled energy abruptly exploded from the wood.

The entire warehouse shook violently for a moment. That wave of energy burst knocked out Alex, the Fairy Doctor, and Aunt Beck right there and then.

Immediately afterward, the several staff who guarded the entrance outside also instantly fainted and lost their consciousness. Just as Alex and the others did not see it, the light on the wood glowed intensely with countless ancient runes circulating on it.

Half a minute later, the strange wooden block that was more than ten meters long turned into a greater mass of green light and ferociously rushed into Alex’s mind palace.

In the next second, the Chaos Bead in his mind palace shook violently and merged with the mass of green light into one.

After an unknown period, the Fairy Doctor was the first to wake up. She rubbed her head and dumbfoundedly looked toward the area with the intense glowing light earlier. As a result, she realized that the glowing thing earlier was gone. Soon after, she saw Alex and Aunt Beck lying on the ground as well. So, she hurriedly supported Alex with her arms. “Alex Rockefeller. Alex Rockefeller, wake up, okay?”

Alex did not wake up. However, Aunt Beck woke up.

She yelled, "What happened? What's going on? D*mn, was it a monster?"

Despite yelling for a long time, the Fairy Doctor did not bother with her at all.

Only then did she calm down and look at Alex. After using her hand to check his breath, she let out a sigh of relief. "He's fine. He isn't dead! Instructor Fairy Doctor, is this your student?"

Seeing the Fairy Doctor's anxious look, Aunt Beck even thought that this was her boyfriend!

The Fairy Doctor nodded.

Meanwhile, Alex's divine consciousness had now immersed in the mind palace. He was instantly stunned after seeing the situation inside.

To his surprise, he saw a tree in the mind palace!

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 1747

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1747

Alex was utterly shocked.

He had never seen anyone who could plant a tree in the mind palace. There was no soil in his mind palace either. What kind of tree was this?

After walking around the tree, he was even more surprised. To his surprise, his dilapidated Chaos Bead was hanging on the tree like a fruit. It had grown into a tree.

'What was going on?'

The tree was not huge, and it was shorter than him. However, it was a real tree with leaves and a trunk. The roots could not be seen. He could not imagine what kind of thing was hidden under his mind palace. That tree was of a species that he had never seen before. There were even some strange runes on the trunk.

These runes were different from those that he recognized. However, once his divine consciousness approached it, he felt a sense of intimacy.

It was very comfortable and friendly. Besides, the tree was surrounded by something misty. He could not differentiate what it was, but it had an ancient yet boundless aura that made his heart tremble.

When his divine consciousness went forward a bit to touch the material, an unprecedented feeling abruptly gushed out in the next moment.

His divine consciousness seemed to have jumped into the boiling water... No, it was in the lava. It was so intensely hot that he jumped in shock and hurriedly retreated backward. However, a wisp of gray air had surrounded him and dug into his divine consciousness.

In that instant, he was in miserable pain and kept yelling... 'I'm done for! I'm going to die!'

As a result, he seemed to have experienced thousands of deaths. His divine consciousness seemed to have been ruined and reintegrated after being cut by thousands of blades. The process of destruction and integration kept repeating. Alex desperately tried to expel the mass of gray mist. In the end, not only did he fail to remove it, but the mist surrounding the tree even slowly expanded and enveloped him within it.

There was only one word left in his consciousness pain!

"Alex Rockefeller, Alex Rockefeller!"

The Fairy Doctor kept shaking Alex's body, checking his pulse and inspecting his pupils.

Since she was a Fairy Doctor, naturally, she had pursued medical skills as well. However, it was bizarre. The spiritual power in Alex's body kept roaming around quickly like lightning. There was even strange energy circulating in it, but he just did not wake up.

When she channeled her spiritual power into Alex's body, it bounced off the strange, abnormal energy.

"What's going on? Could it be that some kind of unknown monster has entered his body and is... Is taking over his soul?"

Aunt Beck exclaimed, "Instructor Fairy Doctor, what's going on with your student? Could it be that it's related to the green light earlier? Ah! He stood closest to it just now. He didn't get attacked or invaded by some evil creature, right?"

The Fairy Doctor hugged Alex and asked with a solemn expression, "What was that glowing thing just now?"

Aunt Beck said, "I don't know either. If I were to know it, it wouldn't have been placed here. Is it some sinister Chi? I heard that there's a kind of plant that can cultivate itself to become a spirit. Could it be that the wooden block was a wood demon?"

The Fairy Doctor was startled for a moment. Her expression became even more complicated. However, she was also helpless under such circumstances.

"There's such a possibility. Let me take him back first!"

The Fairy Doctor picked up Alex easily. Then, she did not forget to remind Aunt Beck. "Don't tell anyone about what happened here just now to avoid causing unnecessary panic."

Aunt Beck immediately nodded. "Don't worry. I'm tight-lipped. Instructor Fairy Doctor, about my husband's Soul Nourishing Pill..."

How could the Fairy Doctor have the leisure to concoct a pill for her husband now? So, she blurted, "Look for me in the office and bring along the materials in one week."

Aunt Beck was deeply grateful right there and then. After that, the Fairy Doctor took Alex and quickly returned to her residence.

She was very anxious.

It was because Alex was her hope. Not only could he help her to advance further in alchemy, but most importantly, he could concoct the Heaven Mending Pill as well. If it were two days ago, she would not have believed Alex when he told her that he could concoct the Heaven Mending Pill.

'You have great talents and can quickly concoct a cauldron of Blood Energy Pill of 100% purity without sniffing it. But, the Heaven Mending Pill is a fifthgrade pill, and the requirement is very high. It's not something that can simply be concocted successfully...' However, Alex had wholly convinced her last night.

Some pill concoction experiences and little tricks that he had said were definitely something that only a pill concoction expert could comprehend.

A layperson would only join in the fun, whereas a connoisseur would comprehend the gist of it.

The Fairy Doctor was an expert in alchemy. After listening to Alex's words, she was suddenly enlightened. Hence, she was very anxious when Alex had suddenly fainted now.

Upon reaching her residence...

Alex Rockefeller still did not wake up.

Finally, the Fairy Doctor thought of something. It was a kind of pill, a fourth-grade pill called the Resuscitation Pill.

If some evil creature had invaded Alex and then wanted to devour his soul, then the Resuscitation Pill was something that could help him. Unfortunately, the Fairy Doctor did not have the Resuscitation Pill nor the stock, so she could only concoct it on the spot.

Furthermore, she had to be fast!

She immediately took out the dedicated cellphone for the Flying Eagles Academy and gave Jane a call.

"Jane, go to the material room right now and help me prepare the materials for the concoction of the Resuscitation Pill. I want to see them within five minutes."

"Huh? Instructor, why do you want to concoct the Resuscitation Pill?" Jane was shocked.

The Fairy Doctor was very anxious and had no time to explain so much. “Why are you asking so much? Hurry up and go!”

Although Jane was very upset, she still quickly agreed to it.

Five minutes later, the Fairy Doctor rushed over to find her. “Jane, are the materials ready?”

Jane said, “There’s still one that I can’t find. Please wait for a moment!”

As the Fairy Doctor was anxious, she could not control her temper and said, “What’s wrong with you? The materials for the Resuscitation Pill are not rare nor scarce items. You can’t even get them all ready within five minutes. How can you be an assistant?”

When Jane heard such words, her heart sank. She immediately recalled Michael Lawrence’s words...

“Okay, I’ve found it!”

After gathering all the materials, Jane handed them over to the Fairy Doctor. The Fairy Doctor took them and headed to the pill room right away.

She did not go to the Elixir Tower because she had her pill room. Furthermore, this pill room was tailor-made for herself, and the success rate of her pill concoction in the pill room was higher than in the Elixir Tower.

Jane, who followed right behind her, could not help asking, “Instructor, the Resuscitation Pill is very unpopular. What are you going to do with the concocted pill?”

The Fairy Doctor blurted out, “Alex Rockefeller is injured and unconscious. I need to use the Resuscitation Pill to save him.”

‘What?’ Jane was instantly taken aback.

‘Alex Rockefeller is injured and unconscious. Haha, this is too great! This little brute just made me worried after coming to the academy. It’s good for him to be in a coma. It’d be the best if he won’t wake up and be in a coma forever!’

Then, she also thought that the Fairy Doctor now loved the new and loathed the old. Ever since that b*stard Alex was here, she had been treated like an insignificant weed.

Michael was right. Sooner or later, this guy would take over her place. As she thought about it, she had made a decision.

When the Fairy Doctor was preparing to concoct the pill, Jane brewed a cup of coffee for the Fairy Doctor. Then, she secretly took out a drug that Michael had given to her earlier and dropped some into the coffee before stirring it properly.

“Instructor, I’ve brewed a cup of coffee for you. You should drink it to refresh yourself.”

“The concoction of the Resuscitation Pill needs at least two hours, and you can’t make a mistake during the time.”

The Fairy Doctor nodded. She did not think much and drank the coffee in a gulp.

When Jane saw her finish drinking, the corner of her mouth lifted slightly. Then, she said, “Instructor, then I won’t bother with your pill concoction. I’ll be standing guard outside. Just call me if you need me for something.”

“Alright!”

Not long after Jane left the room, the Fairy Doctor, who was beginning to handle the medicinal herbs, shook her head violently and felt that something was not right.

“This coffee... Jane...” The Fairy Doctor was shocked as she realized what was happening.

However, the drug’s effect was too strong. In that instant, she almost could not control herself.

“Jane...”

“Jane, what the heck did you feed me?”

The Fairy Doctor excelled in medicine, and her alchemy was currently known to be the best in America. How could she not know that she had been drugged when she felt the strange feeling in her body at this moment? Moreover, it could be said that the drug's effect was simply overpowering.

It immediately made people enter the state.

At this moment, the Fairy Doctor's face was flushed, and her entire neck was reddish too. She yelled and knocked the pill concoction materials in front of her.

Now, nothing else mattered for her. The important thing was that she needed a man!

Her face veil fell off, and the dress was ruined... Just at this moment, she slammed into the corner of the table. As the pain made her sober a bit, she immediately bit her tongue...

At the same time, Jane did not wait at the entrance of the pill room. Instead, she went to find Michael Lawrence and said, "Bro Michael, it's done. The Fairy Doctor has consumed the thing that you've given me just now. She's now in the pill room, and it seems she already has an onset! Moreover, I heard that the Rockefeller guy seems to be injured and unconscious. He should be in the Fairy Doctor's house now."

Michael was not alone.

In his room, there was another person, it was none other than Spencer Queen.

After Jane was done talking, she realized there was another person in the room. She screamed in surprise right there and then.

Michael said satisfyingly, "Don't worry, this is my dad's confidant. He's called Spencer Queen! Sis Jane, you've done well. I didn't expect you to be so efficient. You're really capable. Were you seen by anyone when you came here?"

Jane said, "No, don't worry. I was especially careful."

Michael said with a smile, "That's great then."

Jane was a little terrified as she asked, “Bro Michael, will something go wrong? When the time comes, the Fairy Doctor will know that I’m the one who drugged her. You... Can you make an immediate arrangement to let me leave the academy and go to your father’s place?”

Michael chuckled as he said, “There’s no need to go to my dad’s place.”

“Huh? Why?”

“Because a dead person won’t have to go to my dad’s place.”

“What did you say?”

Jane came to her senses at once. Michael Lawrence wanted to kill her!

In an instant, she was extremely regretful as her face turned pale. She wanted to turn around and run away, but how could she be able to escape from there? Before her hand could touch the doorknob, Spencer caught her and instantly tapped her acupoint.

Spencer said to Michael, “I haven’t touched a woman for a while. Although this woman is incomparable to the Fairy Doctor, she’s also a good consolation prize. Young Master, hurry up and find the Fairy Doctor. Have fun! Remember, paste that talisman on the Fairy Doctor and then take a video. This is evidence. When it’s talked about later, Young Master would be the victim, and the Fairy Doctor would be the one who forces herself on a man by relying on her high cultivation base. If someone has to repent, it’d be the Fairy Doctor!”

Michael nodded. “I understand.”

The Fairy Doctor was Principal Henderson’s godsister. This identity alone had made Michael’s legs give away. Hence, he had resorted to various underhanded tricks. Otherwise, he would have asked Spencer to knock the Fairy Doctor out so that he could force himself on her.

“I’ll go now!”

Michael waved his hand and walked toward the Fairy Doctor’s tailor-made pill room.

Meanwhile, Spencer looked at Jane as he gently brushed her smooth face with his fingers. "Lil' beauty, let's play a game. If you're obedient, I might spare your life."

As Spencer said it, he tore off her clothes. He carried her in his arms and walked into the room. Two streams of regretful tears slowly slid down Jane's face.

Unfortunately, even if she wanted to seek help from the Fairy Doctor, she would be helpless to do so.

Michael excitedly walked toward the Fairy Doctor's pill room.

It had been seven years!

Michael Lawrence had entered the Flying Eagles Academy seven years ago. Ever since he had seen the Fairy Doctor's appearance for the first time, he had been deeply mesmerized by her. However, he had not even touched the Fairy Doctor's hand in the past seven years... The Fairy Doctor was Principal Henderson's godsister and had a good relationship with Jade Benmore. Due to that alone, Michael did not dare to act recklessly.

Most importantly, the Fairy Doctor was pure and noble. She never had a scandal with a man. She was so full of fairy energy that men would not dare to defile her.

However, this time was different. Alex's appearance had ruined the Fairy Doctor's fairy energy and contaminated her with the air of the human realm, causing her to have the lust of a female for a man. The most despicable thing was that she did not want him but got together with that mongrel instead.

This was something that he absolutely could not tolerate.

Hence, he had to strike first to gain the upper hand!

Just at this moment, the principal of the Flying Eagles Academy was not around, and the experts were all out. Jade Benmore had gone to Myriad Demon Valley as well, so she was unlikely to get out of it.

The timing, place, and social conditions were all aligned in his favor. He had decided to give it a try!

He had arrived at the pill room!

However, just when Michael was about to open the pill room door, the door was suddenly pushed open. The powerful shock threw Michael away. Then, he saw the disheveled Fairy Doctor rushing out of the room.

Her eyes were reddened due to the onset of the drug.

However, there was blood on her shoulders. Clearly, she tried to maintain her sanity by harming herself.

After rushing out of the pill room, she hurriedly headed toward her residence.

Michael did not feel angry. Instead, he was ecstatic. This had proven that the Fairy Doctor could not hold back herself any longer. The drug that Spencer had given to him was very effective... Moreover, he had silently put the talisman on the Fairy Doctor just now, so she could not escape him!

Soon after, he caught up to her.

At this moment, Alex finally woke up.

When his divine consciousness returned to his body, he had a feeling that he seemed to have been away from the world for a lifetime. His divine consciousness had experienced millions of cycles of life and death. It was shattered and reintegrated. Unexpectedly, he could still be alive after it had been shattered and reintegrated. It was a miracle.

However, after his divine consciousness had returned his body, The pain subsided, and bliss came out of the depth of misfortune.

To his surprise, he realized that his divine consciousness had made a significant advancement, and it was at least ten times stronger now. In the past, his divine consciousness could extend up to a hundred meters away.

Now, he could sense any movement within a kilometer's range right away. His vision and hearing had improved as well.

This was because his body had followed suit and underwent changes. Subsequently, his mental power also skyrocketed.

He was surprised to find that he was now no longer at the Beginner-Core Formation stage. Instead, he had immediately advanced to the Peak-Core Formation stage. It was one step away from the Nascent Soul stage.

'Chaos Tree?! Could it be that mass of grayish-green air was the chaos energy?'

When Alex regained his consciousness, he learned something new.

That small sapling was actually the Chaos Tree that could produce the chaos energy. This was also the parent body of the Chaos Bead. It was no wonder that the Chaos Bead acted so vigorously at the time, but now it was hanging on the Chaos Tree.

'If it really can keep providing me with the chaos energy...'

Alex just could not imagine it. It would be a windfall.

Just then, his sense was triggered as a figure frantically rushed into the house.

It was the Fairy Doctor.

However, she was clearly not in the right state at this moment. Her face was flushed, and even her breath was warm... Once she entered the entrance, she seemed to be focused on Alex, and then she seemed to have loosened the firm grip on her sanity. Afterward, she pounced on Alex like a tigress and pinned him to the floor, kissing him wildly.

"F*ck!"

"Sis Dawn, what's wrong with you? What have you consumed?"

At a glance, Alex could tell that she had consumed something wrong.

At this moment, Michael followed in. Seeing Alex and the Fairy Doctor mingling together, he immediately flew into a rage. “Let go of her! I’ll turn you into a corpse!”
