The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2021

They were all shocked.

“Gosh! What is that thing?”

“Where did it come from?”

“T-this... Am I still dreaming?”

Soon, they noticed something was not right. An army of demon tribe soldiers flew toward them. The demon tribe crossed the sea like a walk in the park. There were still countless densely-packed, flying demonic beasts in the sky. Majority of them were huge in size. One of them was a golden roc that could spread its wings about five hundred meters wide, covering the sky with a vast dark expanse.

“Oh my god!”

“Quick! Attack, Attack!”

“Request backup! Request backup!”

Boom!

The demon tribe’s army violently collided with the ships and sent a ship flying. It flipped a few turns in the air just like a toy. Finally, a golden roc grabbed and dragged it to an altitude of thousand meters before smashing it down viciously.

Boom!

There was a loud crash.

The ship smashed into pieces when it crashed into the sea, creating a huge wave.

When the people on the two other ships saw that scene, their hearts were in their mouths. Their faces turned pale and they could not even stand still. Such scenes that could only be seen in strange sci-fi movies happened right before their eyes now.

“Boss, what should we do now? They’re coming towards us!”

“How should I know what to do? Jump, jump into the sea!”

However, it was useless to jump into the sea now. They were not going to make it.

This demon tribe army from the ancient force field could crush a bunch of people to death upon releasing their sinister Chi. Almost in the blink of an eye, the two remaining ships also turned into pieces with no survivors.

However, the footage taken from the ship had reached the hands of the officials in Japan.

The officials were shocked.

When they first saw the footage, the Japanese officials thought they were watching some kind of movie special effects. They only believed that all of these were true until they confirmed that the ships were destroyed, the signals were lost and also verified that the footage was sent from the surveillance camera from their ships.

Meanwhile, the footage that the satellite had captured also proved this point.

The entire room was dead silent!

The next moment, Japan’s House of Councilors made a decision to alert the world by releasing the surveillance footage and seek international cooperation in the fight. This was not a matter of a country but a disaster to the human race.

When the news came out, it shocked the entire world.

Meanwhile, Alex and the others still did not know about the earth-shattering event happening outside. They followed Eunice’s instruction and headed all the way towards the depths of the secret realm.

With the company of the Vajra Demonic Ape, ordinary demonic beasts dared not get close at all and fled far away after smelling its scent. So, the journey was very peaceful.

Besides that, given the fact that Alex's daughter that Daya had given birth to was really tiny and none of Alex, Daya, Jade and Phoebe had experience in taking care of babies, so Alex opened the teleportation passage of Kala Temple and sent Daya who had just given birth and her daughter into it.

This time, it was simply like a meteorite falling into a calm lake.

Many people could not believe it, especially Dorothy and Claire. When they looked at Daya's child in her arms and then looked at the four babies in Dorothy's stomach, they had mixed feelings.

Alex knew that the following scene was going to be rather awkward.

He greeted them and left Kala Temple first.

Soon, he found the entrance that Eunice instructed. When Alex took a closer look, he was overjoyed. The teleportation portal here was exactly the same as the broken spell formation that his father, William Rockefeller, had gone into under Caesar's tomb in Michigan.

"Where is this place taking us?"

"Is it also part of the ancient force field?"

"At least, no humans have appeared on the crumbling side of the ancient force field for thirty years, but the opposite of this portal is the range of human activity. It should be a brand new discovery."

Jade was slightly excited.

All these years, she had been standing at the pinnacle of mankind. No matter how many times she tried to break through the realm after Tribulation Crossing, she could not have her wish fulfilled because of the rules. She had not even been able to draw the Lightning Tribulation, which was not normal at all.

She had been trying to find out the reason.

She wanted to find a new place to look for a chance. And, the Yorkshire Palace that Eunice before her eyes spoke of was an ancient sect passed down from ancient times, and the Kamikaze Clan that was inexplicably destroyed here before this proved that there was an even bigger world outside this teleportation portal.

This was truly what she wanted to look for.

She excitedly said, "I'll go check out the teleportation portal first. You people don't have to catch up with me in a hurry. When I get there and understand the situation, I'll come back to call you people. It'll be safer too."

With her displayed cultivation base, it was not too much for her to say this at all.

Alex nodded his head. Phoebe had no comment. Basically, she was not very clear of the situation all the way here.

Jade did some preparation on the spot. Then, she took a step into the dark teleportation portal.

The next second...

Bam!

A loud bang came from the teleportation portal.

After Jade just stepped in for a second, a gush of strong force ejected her fiercely. She smashed right into Alex

"Ouch!"

Alex landed on the ground on his back and slid on it for twenty or thirty meters before he stopped.

The scorched Jade lay on his body and smoldered. Her entire face was black, as if she had just crawled out of the chimney.

Alex looked at her in dismay. “Master, what happened?”

Jade opened her mouth and puffed out a mouthful of black smoke. Afterwards, she started coughing violently and said, “This teleportation portal is broken. There’s a really powerful energy lingering in the portal and I almost couldn’t make it back.”

Having said that, she got up from Alex’s body.

Her clothes were tattered and scorched. With a gentle shake, many black charcoal like things fell off her, exposing her perfect eighteen year old beautiful body.

Jade stared at him. “Are you going to keep staring at me?”

“Oh!”

Alex immediately looked away and went to check the teleportation portal. Before this, he did not pay too much attention to it.

Now that he checked it, he noticed that the teleportation portal was a bit faulty. The series of ancient runes, cultivation patterns and formation patterns did not seem like they were passed down from ancient times, more like they were carved onto it recently. However, these formation patterns had black burn marks on it. So, if he had not looked at it closely, he would not have noticed it.

Phoebe came over to take a glance as well. She said, “Rockefeller brat, obviously these patterns were carved on it recently. Look at the grass clippings and the soil here. They’re newly turned up. It’s definitely not more than a week.”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2023

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2023

After thinking for a while, Alex immediately called out Eunice.

He wanted her to look at the teleportation portal to determine if there was any difference from the one that she had passed through previously.

Eunice was now obedient after being subdued by Maiko Chiba.

She dared not lie at all. After glancing at it, she said, "It's not the same. There are many differences. When I passed through the teleportation portal before this, the surface of the teleportation portal was very small and the formation patterns on the ground were not that big with only a diameter of about three meters. But now, the diameter here is at least doubled and the teleportation portal is much bigger too."

"It is really different! Then, who touched the teleportation portal here?"

A few seconds later, Alex and Jade said almost in unison, "Crazy Crone!"

Only that Crazy Crone who had escaped from the Nature's Palace, the supreme existence that killed more than two hundred Kamikaze Clan's experts instantly, could possibly re-modify such an advanced teleportation formation in a short time.

However, who actually was that Crazy Crone?

Daya was the Goddess of Nature in her past life, and Nature's Palace was where she once had her enlightenment. However, she did not know who Crazy Crone was. Moreover, it had been over ten thousand years from her enlightenment into a deity till current reincarnation. Who could possibly live in Nature's Palace for ten thousand years?

Jade sighed. "Sigh, it looks like this teleportation portal is useless now. As long as my cultivation base doesn't break through into the Immortalization stage, I wouldn't dare to go in! I'll most likely be burnt into ashes by the void's heavenly fire."

At this time, she had changed into new clothes, but her face was still scorched like a black woman.

Meanwhile, Alex squatted down and checked the teleportation portal carefully. He was exceptionally grateful at this point.

The laughing yet crying Crazy Crone must have gone out of her mind.

However, the ancient runes and formation blueprints that she had carved on the ground were very clear and there was no cover-up at all! Alex had studied many of these teleportation formation blueprints before, but most of them had cover-ups or mixed with some other things to obscure the truth and prevent people from understanding the contents of the spell formation...

This could be seen as an anti-theft lock added by the formation maker to his formation, and it was also seen as a string of codes.

However, since Crazy Crone was mad, she did not lock it.

Alex squatted on the ground and carefully studied the teleportation formation blueprint. The more he looked at it, the more he was astonished and admired the work.

“That Crazy Crone is definitely no ordinary human!”

“The aged cultivation patterns on this spell formation contain the principles of the colossal cultivation of heaven and earth. Every alphabet of these ancient runes is in harmony with heaven and earth as well as the sun and moon! Master, you should come over here and try to understand it as well. This will definitely benefit you.”

Jade nodded her head and stepped forward to observe it. Meanwhile,

Phoebe scratched her head confusingly.

But at that moment, a woman's voice rang out in her sea of consciousness, it was the voice of Yunuo. “Little girl, my soul is injured now and I'll not control your body again in a short time. But I have laid a solid foundation for you. You better listen carefully now. I'll pass down the 'Great Peacock Sutra' to you, which is the foundation of your cultivation. Now even without my help, you can still cultivate smoothly! Also, you tell Rockefeller brat to prepare three Tribulation Crossing pills for me. I'll need them after a year.”

Phoebe was immensely shocked, so she hurriedly asked, “You...Who are you? H-how are you inside my body?”

Yunuo said, “It's better for you to not know about my identity now. If you have any questions, you should ask Alex Rockefeller.”

Phoebe still wanted to continue asking but Yunuo had gone completely silent.

Only an extremely ancient and complicated cultivation scripture appeared in her mind.

Numerous scriptures turned into streams of seven colored divine light and flowed in her mind. Voices even came into her ears. She had never touched the 'Great Peacock Sutra', but at this moment, it was as if she had been born with this technique. The spiritual power in her body ran through her body endlessly on its own.

She immediately sat on the ground to perceive this technique.

A colorful peacock seemed to have appeared in front of her eyes. It was as big as the sky and stood towering.

Phoebe cultivated without day and night. Once Phoebe sat down, she forgot about the passage of time. The Great Peacock Sutra flowed inside her body and absorbed the surrounding spiritual energy of heaven and earth, transforming it into her own spiritual power.

This spiritual power once again passed through the Great Peacock Sutra and turned into an even more bizarre power.

Her index finger, which was fused with Yuno's divine bone, began to emit light.

Afterwards, her body's spine seemed to have a communicative ability with that finger. The meridians at the spine became burning hot, as if it was undergoing some kind of strange change.

On the other side, Jade had also fallen into a sort of meditative state while looking at the runes and cultivation patterns on the spell formation.

Meanwhile, Alex kept deducing the formation blueprint of the spell formation in his mind. He integrated the spell formations that he knew into the one right before him.

Just like that, a month had passed.

***

Meanwhile, America was in deep trouble.

The demon tribe had completely taken over Flying Eagle Academy a month ago. Half of the academy was trampled into ruins and countless students lost their lives in that disaster.

It was really a plunge into the abyss of misery. Even the closest city to the ancient force field, Oregon had become a territory of the demon tribe. Since that day, the originally noisy and lively city had gone into the end of times.

Many people died and many people left the city.

The American officials had also launched their killer weapon... The nuclear bomb!

Unfortunately, the effect was not particularly great. The demon tribe was very sensitive toward danger. Especially those elite great demons, they could sense danger even from a few kilometers away.

Besides, the demon tribe had a very strong survivability and extremely high defense. Even if they were within the range of the nuclear explosion, most of them would not die. Eventually, the seven nuclear bombs launched at Oregon only caused small casualties of two hundred or three hundred demon tribe members.

However, the damage to the city was unpredictable.

In the next few decades, half of Oregon might be uninhabitable. The American officials were overwrought but there was nothing that they could do.

At this time, someone finally remembered the former commander of the Flying Eagles, Jade Benmore. If Jade was still alive or if she was still the commander of the Flying Eagles, would all of these terrifying things happen?

Most of the people tended to believe that it would not happen.

If Jade was here, at least she would not be like Darnic Young, who fled the battlefield first and would not even allow the Flying Eagles' experts who protected him to go into the battlefield, such that the demon tribe took down the ancient force field's output effortlessly and how even controlled the ancient force field.

It was up to them how many troops they wanted to send into the Wasteland of America.

Meanwhile, the situation of the world was changing rapidly. The attitude of most countries in the world toward America was to wait and observe its changes.

Naturally, some of the western countries quietly went to communicate with the upper management of the American officials. However, the terms that all of them offered were just daylight robberies and most of them just took advantage of the situation!

They wished dearly that America would split and fall apart.

For instance, at this moment, the Republic of Mai led the representatives of the three other countries to America.

During the meeting, they actually proposed a condition for America to cede its land.

A blonde, green-eyed woman from the Republic of Mai named Katherin was currently in her forties and wearing a pair of gold-rimmed glasses. She had an impish look as she said, "As we all know, the gap of this ancient force field is at the entrance of America. The demon tribe army has occupied your Flying Eagle Academy and they are now holding their troops still. I'm afraid that they plan to mobilize more battle forces. Once they finish their preparations, your America will be completely done for! As for our four countries, as long as you cede the thirty-three percent of cities in the northwest, we'll devote all the forces in our nations to help you fight against it. This deal is a cheap bargain."

"Impossible!" An elder of America slammed the table and stood up. "Not a single city of America shall be lost and not a single inch of America's territory shall be lost. If that's your intention, you can leave now."

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2025

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2025

This elder was the current Emperor of America and the first great ruler.

After that, a few other elders stood up in anger as well.

"The condition of land cession is not negotiable!"

“That’s right! Even if the demon tribe has slaughtered every single one of our soldiers in America, we’ll never cede the lands! ”

“Hmph! If America is gone, do you think your countries will be far away from destruction?”

The representative of Kumani, who was a tall and musculline guy, shook his head and said, “It’s better than having the entire America destroyed by the demon tribe, right? You have so many cities in America. It won’t hurt to let us have a few cities!”

The representatives from the other few countries agreed with him. The Emperor of America shook his head and remained silent.

This time, an elder with the surname Young spoke, “How about this? It’s impossible to cede our lands but what about a lease? Just like what we did with Aroma City back then, we could lease a total of thirty three cities for a hundred years?”

This old man was Darnic Young’s cousin, Zachariah Young.

The elders of America stared at him angrily.

At this moment, someone pushed the door to the conference room open. Two men and a woman walked in with their heads held high. The woman was the tactician who had left the Flying Eagles, Eleanor Curtis.

Eleanor grunted coldly and said, “Lease for a hundred years? Zachariah Young, who are you to say such nonsense? Do the Youngs want to go down in history as an eternal notoriety? You deserve to die as much as Darnic Young!”

Zachariah recognized Eleanor and immediately shouted, “It’s you! Eleanor Curits, the traitor from the Flying Eagles, a scumbag to the human race! You’ve colluded with that b*tch, Jade Benmore, to collaborate with the enemies and sell out our country by selling our information to the demon tribe. How dare you show up here? Do you think this is a place for you? Who do you think you’re? Someone get her...”

Just as he was about to yell, a figure flashed by. A tall, young man suddenly flashed in front of Zachariah with a ghost-like speed.

In front of the Chief and the representatives of the western countries, he instantly grabbed Zachariah by his neck and said coldly, “What did you just call Jade Benmore?”

Zachariah’s eyes burst with anger. He stared at the man and cursed, “What the hell are you doing? Who are you? This is the supreme conference of America. How dare you come here and create a scene? So what if I called Jade Benmore a b*tch?”

“So what?”

There was an imposing murderous intent in the youth’s gaze like an ancient frozen blade. “Without Jade Benmore sacrificing thirty years of her life inside the force field, do you really think you could sit your here and spew bullsh*t? Without Jade Benmore’s bloodshed in the war over there, can you people even live until now? In the end, you actually said she collaborated with the enemies and betrayed the country. You people from the Young family forced her to step down and even put a warrant to capture her. She’s missing in action now, yet you’re still trying to defame her. Do you really think that I dare not kill you?”

Zachariah started shivering as he faced the young man’s cold and stern gaze.

“You... You dare to kill someone here? You must think carefully about the consequences. My brother, Darnic Young, is the commander of the Flying Eagles, a Five-star Warlord. With just a command, you’d be dead no matter who you’re!”

As soon as the voice fell...

Slam!

The other young man in black at the side threw out a square wooden box, landing on the long table. The box was not bound, so it automatically loosened up. Afterwards, a bloody head rolled out of it.

It was Darnic’s head.

Everyone present was shocked!

The representative of the Republic of Mai even exclaimed.

The young man in black said, "I'm sorry, but your brother is dead and he cannot command anyone on your behalf!"

Zachariah was dumbfounded. He could not believe his own eyes at all. The people before him had the audacity to kill the commander of the Flying Eagles. What else could they not do?

This time, the Emperor of America smiled. "Principals, both of you please don't be angry! Darnic Young fled before the war began, so let the dead be dead. But Zachariah Young is the direct descendant of the millennial Young family. This is significantly important!"

When Zachariah heard it, he immediately shouted again. "That's right! I'm the direct descendant of the Youngs and I'm different from Darnic Young. If you dare to kill me, you won't be able to step foot in America again!"

"Really?"

As the young man's gaze turned cold, he gently squeezed his fingers at once.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2026

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2026

Crack!

A soft sound rang out.

The young man just crushed Zachariah's neck in front of the crowd.

Zachariah did not die on the spot. His eyes widened as his face was full of disbelief. He was the leading figure of the Young family's direct descendants, yet he was going to be killed on such an occasion, right in front of the Emperor.

He could not believe it. Rather, he did not want to face it. However, the sense of dying was getting closer. His vision began to darken and he started to fall unconscious. Soon, his consciousness was sucked into a void of darkness that he could never return.

He died!

The crowd in the room looked at each other in dismay as they had a sense of unreality, especially the few representatives of the western countries. They even doubted if they were hallucinating. Zachariah Young's status was lofty, so how could he be simply killed just because someone wanted to?

Most importantly, they were the representatives of foreign countries. 'You people killed someone like that in front of us. Do you people have no regard for our countries? Were you people trying to put on a show for us?'

The Republic of Mai's representative, Katherin, said in a high-pitched voice, "You Americans are really too much! What is the meaning of this? Are you trying to give us a piece of your mind? Why are you still putting up a show when you're already in such a situation? Lease for a hundred years, huh? Alright, the Republic of Mai consents."

As soon as the voice fell...

Slap!

The young man in white, who had just crushed Zachariah to death, suddenly made a slap in the air and landed on Katherin's face. Even though the two people were four or five meters apart, the slap was so loud and crisp that Katherin's face immediately swelled up and her teeth were knocked out.

This young man in white was one of the two founders of Flying Eagles Academy and Jade Benmore's ex-husband, Charles Lewin.

"How dare you hit me?! Are you trying to start a war between two countries?!"

"Emperor Targon, you've to be responsible for this! I'm your America's VIP, yet I'm treated so badly at your capital meeting. You must give me an explanation. Otherwise, the Republic of Mai will launch a crusade against America!"

The representative of the Republic of Mai burst with anger as she shouted hysterically.

Eventually, Principal Lewin made a move again. He rushed over and grabbed her by her blonde hair before dragging her over. "If you are really America's VIP, we'll naturally treat you with courtesy, but are you? You are not, you are scoundrels and even came to America to ask for land cession. Who gave you the courage?"

The more he said, the angrier he was. He applied slightly more force in his arm. The next second, he dragged Katherin's blonde hair off her head, revealing a bald patch off the bloody scalp.

She screamed in a high-pitched voice while her body was trembling in pain.

The several other representatives with her watched the scene in shock and could not stay calm. Their few countries were allies, so naturally they could not just stand there and watch. A white man jumped over and yelled, "Who the hell are you? Why dare you be so arrogant? Do you really want to start a war with us?"

Charles said, "A war? You people aren't worthy enough!"

After he threw Katherin on the ground, he raised his foot and crushed her knee. Amidst the woman's sharp cry in pain, Charles coldly said, "Times have changed! Those things that come out of the ancient force field are not something you people can simply deal with! If you intend to start a war, I alone could take down any of your countries. Do you believe that?"

The woman shivered in excruciating pain.

However, Charles' ruthless act had deeply subdued her mind. At this moment, she dared not speak a single nonsense.

"Piss off!"

"Otherwise, you'll never have to leave."

The representatives of each foreign country looked at each other in dismay even though they were upset. The representative of Kumani took two steps forward and said, "Do you think we'll be afraid if you say a few bold words? America has martial artists, our Kumani also has warriors that are much more powerful than yours. Do you have the guts to fight with the powerful warrior of our Kumani?"

"Warrior?" Charles was contemptuous and his eyes were cold. "You let him come. If he can last a second, consider that I lose!"

"You... You're simply arrogant!"

Soon, this great warrior that the representative of Kumani mentioned came. He was originally the bodyguard of Kumani's representative. During the meeting, he did not come in and was arranged to rest at the side. Showing up at this time, he was actually eight foot two tall and his muscles were like stone.

"A German?"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2027

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2027

Charles took a glance and said indifferently, "You're fugly, German man. You're not even worthy of a flick from me."

The bodyguard glared at him angrily at once. "Bullsh*t! Do you believe that I can kill a skinny brat like you with one punch?"

Charles calmly said, "Make your move then!"

Roar!

The eight foot two tall bodyguard was a solid giant. He blasted a fist as big as a casserole pot ruthlessly toward Charles.

"Die!"

He was so loud that it buzzed and exploded throughout the room, causing many people to experience a brief period of deafness in their ears.

At this moment, Charles reached out one finger in the air and pointed at the giant bodyguard's head before gently flicking his fingers.

Smack!

The giant bodyguard's head burst like a watermelon. Blood sprinkled like rain, splashing all over the faces and bodies of the several western countries' representatives.

The scene was silent all of a sudden.

These foreigners had not figured out how Principal Charles made the move, yet the giant bodyguard was already killed! It was really horrible. Was this still a human being? If Charles were to flick his finger at them, would they still be alive?

“You still don’t want to leave? I’ll count to three. If you don’t leave by then, you better don’t leave forever!”

As soon as the voice fell, the few representatives shivered and immediately fled out of the conference room like they were running for their lives.

After those people left, the Emperor immediately asked the two principals, “Principal Henderson and Principal Lewin, did you guys find a way to fight against the demon tribe during your trip to Dragon King’s Grotto this time? Now that the demon tribe has invaded America and occupied some of the important bases. If we still don’t have any effective ways, America will really be doomed!”

The man in black was the other principal of Flying Eagles Academy, Gilbert Handerson. He was Luna Flores’s father.

Principal Handerson glanced at the Emperor. “Where’s Commander Benmore?”

The official members’ hearts skipped a beat at this point.

The principals were here to condemn them for their crimes!

The Emperor smiled bitterly and said, “We’ve been trying our best to look for Commander Benmore’s whereabouts. But ever since the appearance of the sky bridge anomaly in California, she seemed to have disappeared into thin air. I heard that her disciple has disappeared as well. By the way, do you two principals know that Commander Benmore’s disciple was the one who destroyed Mount Fuji in Japan?”

Charles waved his hand. “This is not important. What’s more important is, I heard that the Emperor personally made a command to arrest Jade Benmore. Is there such a thing?”

The Emperor looked at the few ministers under him and remained silent

This time, one elder said, “Principal Lewin, I know that you’re very angry right now, but the Emperor was helpless in this matter too! The Youngs led a few other families to hold the Grand Conference and united with the thirteen families to force the Emperor to do so. Even if the Emperor wanted to save Jade Benmore, he couldn’t do so either!”

After that statement, someone in the crowd stood up to disagree. “Timmy, don’t you spew vicious slander. Completely legal ballot was held in the Grand Conference. How could you say that we forced the Emperor?”

This time, Charles said, “So, I propose to abolish the rule on the Grand Conference from today onwards.”

The person who stood up earlier said, “How can this be? What rights do you have to do so? I’ll be the first to object to this.”

“Your objection is invalid.”

“Hmph! Who do you think you’re? Who are you to tell me that my objection is invalid?”

“Because dead people don’t need to vote!”

’Dead people? Don’t need to vote? What did he mean?’

The man looked at Charles dumbfoundedly as his eyes and his expression changed drastically. He had an ominous foreboding. He involuntarily stepped back and pointed at Charles as he stuttered, “You... How dare you?! Do you know what this place is? How can someone like you threaten people before the Emperor? You’re simply outrageous! Do you have no regard for the Emperor?!”

Charles shook his head. “It is because of the existence of people like you that the Emperor doesn’t even have the right to speak normally and was forced to put out a warrant to arrest a loyal and meritorious hero. You people from the so-called great families who hold the reigns of government should not have existed ages ago.”

“Nonsense! Who do you think you’re?”

“I’m nobody but a little principal of an academy that has been dominated... But, you people have slandered and framed my woman, so all of you deserve to die. Not to mention annihilating a few bugs like you, I’d even fight the entire world! So what?”

When Principal Lewin said that, he released the aura on him.

The boundless power covered the entire conference room. Everyone felt a sense of powerlessness, as if they were in the endless deep sea but there was nothing that they could rely on, so their heart sank straight to the bottom.

Smack!

Principal Lewin grabbed that person’s uncontrollable body. When he raised his arm and landed his palm, the person’s head immediately burst.

It was cruel, decisive and domineering.

Not only that, Principal Lewin emotionlessly swept his glance across the room and looked at another woman.

With another grab, he captured her as well. “I heard that you were the one who spread the words about Jade’s crimes publicly through media channels. You said she colluded with the enemies and sold out both her country and mankind. A traitor to mankind, right?”

That woman’s face turned pale and her limbs trembled.

“No... No...”

Principal Lewin said, “There’s no use in denying it. Of course I already have the evidence. Do you have anything to say before I kill you right now?”

The woman almost peed herself. She wanted to flee at once.

However, she suddenly found that both of her feet seemed to be nailed to the ground. No matter how hard she tried, she could not move them, as if they had turned into two ornaments.

She knew she might not survive this hurdle. Hence, she simply flew her freak flag. She pointed at Charles and scolded, “Sh*tty Lewin, who doesn’t know that you and Jade Benmore have divorced long ago? You're just scum and trash in Jade Benmore's eyes. Why do you pretend to be infatuated now? Do you think I don't know what you're thinking? After your academy has been occupied by the demon tribe, you just happen to take advantage of this situation to be the Emperor, right?"

Afterwards, she pointed at the Emperor and said, "Emperor, if you want me to die, then I must die. It doesn't matter if I die anyways. But you must see clearly who this sh*tty Lewin truly is. Otherwise, it will be too late to regret it when your status as Emperor is threatened."

The Emperor's expression changed slightly.

Sh*tty Lewin was Charles' nickname.

At this moment, he grunted coldly. "That's the extent of your status! What is the throne worth to those of us who are searching for the Path of God? Let alone the Emperor of America, even if it is the throne of the world's emperor, so what?"

"I might as well tell you the truth. In fact, the world that we're now in is very small and by ancient terms, it's called the Wasteland! Do you know what the Wasteland means? It means that this is a place abandoned by the ancient people, a place that only accounts for less than one ten thousandth of the central world. There's a larger world on the other side of the ancient force field."

"What?"

The crowd was dumbfounded upon hearing it.

"It is because of the existence of people like you that the Emperor doesn't even have the right to speak normally and was forced to put out a warrant to arrest a loyal and meritorious hero. You people from the so-called great families who hold the reigns of government should not have existed ages ago."

"Nonsense! Who do you think you're?"

"I'm nobody but a little principal of an academy that has been dominated... But, you people have slandered and framed my woman, so all of you deserve to die. Not to mention annihilating a few bugs like you, I'd even fight the entire world! So what?"

When Principal Lewin said that, he released the aura on him.

The boundless power covered the entire conference room. Everyone felt a sense of powerlessness, as if they were in the endless deep sea but there was nothing that they could rely on, so their heart sank straight to the bottom.

Smack!

Principal Lewin grabbed that person's uncontrollable body. When he raised his arm and landed his palm, the person's head immediately burst.

It was cruel, decisive and domineering.

Not only that, Principal Lewin emotionlessly swept his glance across the room and looked at another woman.

With another grab, he captured her as well. "I heard that you were the one who spread the words about Jade's crimes publicly through media channels. You said she colluded with the enemies and sold out both her country and mankind. A traitor to mankind, right?"

That woman's face turned pale and her limbs trembled.

"No... No..."

Principal Lewin said, "There's no use in denying it. Of course I already have the evidence. Do you have anything to say before I kill you right now?"

The woman almost peed herself. She wanted to flee at once.

However, she suddenly found that both of her feet seemed to be nailed to the ground. No matter how hard she tried, she could not move them, as if they had turned into two ornaments.

She knew she might not survive this hurdle. Hence, she simply flew her freak flag. She pointed at Charles and scolded, “Sh*tty Lewin, who doesn’t know that you and Jade Benmore have divorced long ago? You’re just scum and trash in Jade Benmore’s eyes. Why do you pretend to be infatuated now? Do you think I don’t know what you’re thinking? After your academy has been occupied by the demon tribe, you just happen to take advantage of this situation to be the Emperor, right?”

Afterwards, she pointed at the Emperor and said, “Emperor, if you want me to die, then I must die. It doesn’t matter if I die anyways. But you must see clearly who this sh*tty Lewin truly is. Otherwise, it will be too late to regret it when your status as Emperor is threatened.”

The Emperor’s expression changed slightly.

Sh*tty Lewin was Charles’ nickname.

At this moment, he grunted coldly. “That’s the extent of your status! What is the throne worth to those of us who are searching for the Path of God? Let alone the Emperor of America, even if it is the throne of the world’s emperor, so what?”

“I might as well tell you the truth. In fact, the world that we’re now in is very small and by ancient terms, it’s called the Wasteland! Do you know what the Wasteland means? It means that this is a place abandoned by the ancient people, a place that only accounts for less than one ten thousandth of the central world . There’s a larger world on the other side of the ancient force field.”

“What?”

The crowd was dumbfounded upon hearing it.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2030

“Jade... Jade Benmore! Jade Benmore has appeared!”

The man's arm that Charles grabbed hurt badly. Then, when he saw the ground was full of corpses, he shivered and was scared shitless as he did not know what had happened here.

Charles immediately asked again, “Where?”

The person said, “I think they're rushing towards Flying Eagles Academy.”

Gilbert said, “You said she has brought reinforcements. Where did the reinforcements come from?”

Overjoyed, the Emperor said, “Could it be that it's the reinforcements from the ancient force field?”

Everyone's eyes brightened up.

This might be possible.

Didn't they just speculate that Jade had entered the ancient force field? The two principals even said that the territory there was vast and many ancient sects existed. Hence, all of this was logical.

Eventually, the guy said, “I think... It's two demonic beasts. An ape and a cat.”

Everyone was bereft of speech. Could an ape and a cat be called reinforcements?

That person stuttered, “It's true! What I said is true! You... You'll know when you see them.”

How could Charles be able to stay still?

When he was in Dragon King's Grotto, all he could think of was this divorced wife of his. For her sake, he was willing to do anything. So, as soon as he came out to hear all kinds of negative news about Jade, he was so infuriated that he wished dearly that he could kill the ministers of America.

Swoosh!

Charles did not even bid farewell and instantly rushed out of the conference room, heading toward Flying Eagles Academy.

“Second Brother!”

Gilbert was afraid that he might be in danger, so he hurriedly followed after him, leaving the crowd who were looking at each other in dismay.

“Jade Benmore has rushed to Flying Eagles Academy. Is she trying to fight off the demon tribe’s army just like that?”

“No matter how strong her cultivation base is, she cannot possibly defeat so many demon tribe members.”

“I’m afraid she’s... Digging her own grave!”

The Emperor yelled, “Enough! Stop making speculations here. Quickly ask someone to bring up the surveillance footage of Flying Eagles Academy over there. We still need Commander Benmore at critical moments. What else can you people do other than fighting all day long? If I were to depend on you people, America would be finished sooner or later!”

On the other side, Alex, Jade and the others had been inside the secret realm for more than a month.

They had gained a lot, especially from the teleportation formation blueprint that the Crazy Crone had left behind. Not only had Alex completely comprehended the trick of that teleportation spell formation, but Jade had also comprehended her own path because of those few cultivation patterns containing the colossal cultivation of heaven and earth and runes.

The few of them left the secret realm, still not fully satisfied. Unexpectedly, they encountered a huge problem.

The Flying Eagles had fallen. The demon tribe had crossed the line and invaded America.

This was such a big deal!

Alex immediately thought about Holly who still had not graduated from Flying Eagle Academy at this moment. He did not know whether the little brat had successfully escaped from the academy smoothly. When he thought about the scene where the demon tribe tragically killed her at a young age, he was overwrought.

However, Holly's phone could not be reached at all.
