The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2051

The long sword pierced through Alex's heart.

The middle-aged man seemed to be taken aback.

It was too simple and weak. That was it? This was the Demon Lord?

Trash!

As a result...

Whoosh!

He felt a hint of pain in his body, and half a bone sword protruded from his own heart.

There was a look of disbelief on the middle-aged man's face as he incredulously stared at his chest. Fresh blood dripped from the bone sword.

He turned around and was met with Alex's face. "H-How... is that possible?"

At the same time, the figure of Alex that the middle-aged man had stabbed turned into a paper doll.

"The Warm Jade Bed is inside the storage ring, right?"

Alex turned and pulled the ring from the man's finger, then pulled the sword out of the man's chest.

However, the middle-aged man's cultivation base was not weak. Even with his heart punctured, he wouldn't be instantly dead. On the contrary, a surge of strong spiritual power protected his heart, and he hurriedly took out a pill to consume it, wanting to repair his heart as quickly as possible.

"Huh, there are even treasures for storage?" Alex pulled off the ancient bracelet the middle-aged man was wearing.

Immediately afterward, a blade once again plunged into his heart. The middle-aged man was splitting with rage. The hatred he felt toward Alex was overwhelming.

He wanted to flee. However, he was rapidly losing the vitality in his body. How frustrating!

He would die to a sneak attack. That was just too irritating!

“If you kill me now, the Mountain Warriors will definitely be able to find you. Then, the Mountain Warriors will avenge me and take revenge on you!” the middle-aged man roared in a low voice.

“The Mountain Warriors do not belong to your uncle! Holly Yates will be the one to retake the Mountain Warriors and build it back up. After that, all of you traitors will die.”

“What? What are you talking about? Holly Yates has had her spiritual roots dug out... Isn’t she already dead? Who the hell are you?”

“I forgot to tell you. I’m Holly’s brother,” Alex said.

Whoosh!

The blade easily sliced through the man’s throat, beheading him. Alex grabbed the man’s soul and tossed it into the Stake of Exorcism.

“Maiko, wring this guy dry. Have him tell you everything about the Mountain Warriors without leaving out anything. I want to know it all.”

“Understood, Master!”

At this moment, the Fairy Doctor had finally managed to locate Alex.

“Alex!”

She glanced at the corpse on the ground and didn’t think it to be weird. If Alex had not killed the middle-aged man, the Fairy Doctor would have done it herself. She didn’t have any intentions of letting him off.

“Didn’t you go into the ancient boundary? I was worried about you. When are you coming back?”

“Sis Winslet, I came here to borrow your Warm Jade Bed to help someone!”

“What?”

Then, Alex told her all about how Holly’s spiritual roots had been forcefully dug out of her.

The Fairy Doctor was very generous and told him that he could just take it.

Alex had checked and found that the Warm Jade Bed was inside the ancient bracelet of the middle-aged man who had died. The bracelet was obviously something unusual.

He and the Fairy Doctor had both tried before to stuff the Warm Jade Bed into the storage ring, but they had been unable to.

Also, Alex was surprised when he looked into the storage ring and ancient bracelet to find that there were dozens of spiritual tools, as well as various kinds of elixirs, spiritual herbs, and spiritual stones. They were so many it was practically piled up like a mountain.

He frowned, then remembered the words the middle-aged man had said and asked, “Sis Winslet, how much do you know about the Mountain Warriors? I’m wondering whether there are some secrets hidden within the Four Great Cultivation Sanctuaries?”

“What kind of secrets can there be in the Four Great Sanctuaries?”

“Times have changed, and the earth’s spiritual essence in the atmosphere is thinner. Even if those places are the Four Great Cultivation Sanctuaries, it wouldn’t be the same as before. I once went to the Mountain Warrior Sect and found that the spiritual essence in the air was very thin. It wasn’t any better than what you can see in the Flying Eagles Academy, and it’s not even comparable to the inside of the ancient boundary.”

“There are many of the Mountain Warriors disciples that enter the Flying Eagles Academy. Some even come looking for a master here!”

When the Fairy Doctor spoke of the Four Great Sanctuaries, she seemed a little disapproving. It was probably because she thought that the Four Great Sanctuaries had long since fallen from grace and were no longer as powerful as they were before.

They even tried to curry favor with the Flying Eagles Academy.

“Look at this!”

Alex tossed her the ancient jade bracelet in his hand. As the middle-aged man had already died, the soul imprint on the ancient jade bracelet had also been dispersed. Thus, anyone could insert their spiritual consciousness inside it to check its contents.

When the Fairy Doctor examined it, she let out a cry of surprise immediately. “There are so many things inside it!”

She looked at Alex in astonishment.

“Look at the quality of it,” Alex said.

This time, the Fairy Doctor studied it for a full five minutes. When she finally came back to her senses, there were many emotions in her expression.

“There’s something wrong with it!”

She also immediately noticed that something was wrong. “Many items in this storage bracelet can’t be found inside the Flying Eagles Academy, and some of them only appear inside the ancient boundary. These are resources that are non-tradable either because the academy wouldn’t sell any of these items. Also, the ones that the academy has gotten had long since been divided and distributed. So how did the Mountain Warriors get their hands on it?”

“Earlier, that man revealed something to me,” Alex said. “The disciples that they sent to the academy were all just an act.”

“So, that’s why you’re saying that the Four Great Sanctuaries are not some poor sods!” the Fairy Doctor said.

Alex nodded. “That man was just the sect master’s nephew, yet he has such a wealth of resources that are comparable to all the inventory in the Flying Eagles Academy. The stuff he has is also of a higher level. Just think about how much more the person in control of them has?”

He paused. “I have a bold thought, whether the Four Great Sanctuaries have already been able to enter the ancient boundary a long time ago, and... Whether there’s something bigger they’re hiding.”

“For example... ?”

“For example, whether they have a trade relation with the sects and cities inside it?”

The Fairy Doctor was stunned by the thought. She pondered about it and then said, “I think... I need to talk to my godbrother.”

Alex nodded, then grabbed the Warm Jade Bed from the ancient jade bracelet and gave it back to the Fairy Doctor. “Sis Winslet, I only need the bed. This ancient jade bracelet should be a good treasure to use, and there are also supplies inside it. Keep them and put them to good use. I won’t go with you to see Principal Henderson.”

“This is yours.” The Fairy Doctor shook her head. “I don’t want to owe you anything.”

Alex thought about it, then grabbed half of the spiritual tools inside and placed them in his storage ring. “Okay, I only need these, and that’s enough. The other things are not very useful to me, and I also took the storage ring. It’s also considered to be spoils of war. Besides, a bracelet is more fitting for a woman.”

When Alex said that, the Fairy Doctor laughed. “Then, I shall accept this as a token of your love.”

The two kissed their goodbyes in the woods.

Once the Fairy Doctor left, Alex flicked his finger to burn the corpse on the ground before he left.

By the time Alex arrived back at Maple Villa, it was already dusk.

He placed Holly on the Warm Jade Bed and activated the formation on it. Soon, the spiritual essence in their surroundings started to gather on the bed. After a while, the spiritual mist evaporated, and the formation pulled on fairy power from far away.

The few people around them were shocked.

Even though they weren't lying on the Warm Jade Bed, they could still reap the benefits from it. The effect of the Warm Jade Bed condensing the spiritual essence around them was much stronger than the formations Alex had made to imitate it.

"With the bed, Holly can last a bit longer," Alex said.

Maya watched as the spiritual essence from far away was condensed from a distance and how it all formed a spiritual vortex above the villa. She couldn't help but voice her worry. "Isn't this a little too obvious? Cultivators will notice it right away, and I'm afraid that it might attract some people that will come coveting it."

Alex furrowed his brows and glanced at it, then said, "It is indeed too conspicuous."

At this moment, Seiryuu, one of the Four Great Princesses that they had scurried away from the Coleman family, said, "My lord, why don't we go to the uninhabited island from before? The spiritual essence in the atmosphere on the sea is stronger by a little, and it's not easy to attract the attention of others there."

After everyone discussed it, it was decided that they did just that.

That night, Alex took the Warm Jade Bed together with Holly and settled her on the uninhabited island.

The Four Great Princesses were also here.

The next day, Alex and Daya brought their daughter back to the Stoermer residence. Just as they arrived at the gates, they saw hundreds of people greeting each other.

The scene had also caused a sensation to ripple across Michigan.

“The prince is waiting at the gates. Who’s the big shot they’re waiting for?”

“I don’t know. Could it be someone from Alaska?”

“Looking at the scene, it shouldn’t be just anyone!”

“Perhaps the person they’re waiting for is the emperor of America?”

The neighbors around the Stoermer residence were alarmed by all the movements, and everyone had stopped to watch, waiting for this mysterious figure to appear.

At this moment, Alex and Daya were together as they flew through the air.

Alex frowned when he saw the happenings in front of the Stoermer residence’s gates and asked, “What’s going on? Why is there such a huge commotion?”

Daya laughed. “I’m afraid it’s my grandfather who probably wanted to use his grandson-in-law’s fame to raise the Stoermer family’s reputation to another level!”

She hugged her daughter and sighed. “My grandfather is a person who values fame and reputation. Before he became the prince of the Stoermer family, he wanted to raise the Stoermer family’s status among the eight great royal families. Even if it were just one step higher, it would still have been better than being at the bottom. Now that he has a rare, well-known grandson-in-law like you, it’s only natural he would make use of it.”

Alex slapped his head.

What should he do?

He had always been a low-key type of person, and he didn’t like to show off in front of others.

Daya shook her head. “Forget it, let’s just go in quietly. It’s fine just to send him a notification after.”

Alex shook his head. "It's not easy for your grandfather either. But, as I'm his junior, I will fulfill his wish! So, let's be high-profile once?"

"How will we do this?"

"There is a saying that says an ideal son-in-law is beautiful and talented, and he rides in on a dragon. So...

let's ride in with a dragon!" Alex said after thinking for a long time.

Daya smiled and said, "I have no objection to that. I'm fine with doing whatever you want to do, as long as I'm with you and my baby. So even if thousands of people object to me, I will still be happy."

Alex looked at her, then pulled out a piece of paper and folded it a few times. Finally, he inserted some spiritual energy and blood as the guide to unlock the spirit.

"Paper Doll Curse of Three Realms, Dragon, transform!"

A golden five-clawed dragon suddenly appeared in the sky. Alex and Daya, who was holding their daughter, jumped up onto it as the dragon rushed toward the ground.

Roar!

A mighty roar rang out, shaking the earth with its volume. Countless people who were on the ground looked up to the sky, completely dumbfounded.

"Oh my god, it's a dragon!"

"It's a golden five-clawed dragon! There really are dragons in this world!"

"Look, look! There seem to be some people on the dragon? It looks like Daya! Who's that man? Is it her husband?"

"Daya is amazing. She really has found the ideal son-in-law who rides in with a dragon!"

The people from the Stoermer family were also extremely shocked.

The patriarch of the Stoermer family felt his whole body shake with excitement.

But just at this moment, there was a cold snort, “A golden five-clawed dragon? Humph, it’s just to fool the world and get a good name, that’s all! Take it down!”

A bolt of golden light shot through the air at high speed.

Alex was shocked. Had he gone too far?

The person coming toward them was very strong. The golden light hit the phantom of the golden five-clawed dragon squarely and instantly.

It was just an illusion dragon. How could it withstand such an attack?

The characteristic of the Paper Doll Curse of Three Realms was that even though the damage from an attack was minor, it was basically like a soap bubble-easily breakable with a touch.

After the golden dragon disappeared, Alex and Daya had to float in the sky once again.

At this moment, a figure rushed over.

“You liar!”

“How dare you fool the people here?”

Seeing the person’s face, Alex’s face was filled with anger. “Nora Stewart, you have a lot of free time, don’t you? Running to my house and causing a ruckus?”

It turned out that the person who flew toward them was a former member of the Flying Eagles, Nora Stewart. Nora looked closer and found that it was Alex and Daya. “Oh, it’s you! Alex, is this your daughter that was born in Nature’s Palace that my sister mentioned? May I see her?”

Daya had not seen her before and quickly tightened her hold on her daughter.

“What do you want to see?” Alex said. “If you like children so much, then hurry up and find a man to marry and give birth to one of your own!”

Nora pursed her lips. “Alex, you’ve changed. We’ve agreed before this that you would help me give birth to one.”

“What?!”

“You’ve forgotten your old love once you have a new one. I can see through you completely.”

Alex felt as though his head was about to explode. This woman was deliberately finding faults with him. He hurriedly said to Daya, “Daya, don’t believe the nonsense out of this woman’s mouth. She’s already fifty, and yet nobody wants her. She also has some disease in her lower half, and she’s not a normal woman. She’s psychopathic, and she also hallucinates.”

Whoosh!

Nora’s anger suddenly exploded.

All that Alex had said were things that she had concealed and were unspeakable, and they were the things that made her suffer bitterly that blew her self-confidence. Alex had dragged it all out in the open like rubbing salt on her wound. In addition, she had encountered matters recently that had put her in a bad mood. She had come out to relax today and met with Alex, who had used a fake dragon to fool people...

Nora suddenly shot forward in Alex’s direction. She wanted to teach him a good lesson.

In the end, Alex moved and appeared behind her with a single move. Then, he raised his foot and kicked her in the rear.

“What?!”

Nora felt embarrassed and angry. She drew out her sword and came at him with a slash.

“F*ck! Nora Stewart, you’re nuts? Are you serious?”

“You dare to humiliate me. I’m going to beat you up!”

Alex frowned, then hurriedly told Daya to step back. This woman was acting extremely abnormal today. Even if she was on her period, she shouldn't be acting like this, right?

Clang! Clang! Clang!

After the Sword of the Universe and Nora's great sword had clashed more than a hundred times, Alex noticed an extremely strange, gloomy, and cold aura on Nora's body.

'What is that?

'Why does it feel like... The aura of the Undying Clan?!'

When Alex realized that, it wasn't a small matter.

'Could it be that Nora has met with the Undying Clan?'

Alex wondered to himself. 'But, where?'

Just at this moment, Nora lashed out more seriously, the aura around her body becoming stronger, and the vague deathly aura around her became more prominent. Her eyes gradually turned blood red...

And in one of his flashes, Alex was behind her and saw something that felt familiar.

'Forerunners!'

It was the kind of thing found in the vast ice palace under Japan's Mount Fuji.

However, the thing that slowly appeared behind Nora didn't look exactly like the Forerunners he had seen before.

It was filled with a gloomy, cold aura. When the thing's eyes and Alex's met, Alex found that the shadow seemed to be able to see him in person.

In other words, that thing was alive.

'This is trouble! Could it be that those things under Mount Fuji didn't all die and have managed to come out? And this has caught their eyes?'

Just as Alex was shocked, Nora suddenly unleashed an ultimate move. She turned around abruptly, then rushed toward the ordinary people at the gates of the Stoermer residence.

“S*it!”

“Daya, stop her! She’s been possessed by something evil!” Alex shouted.

He stepped out quickly, appearing on the ground in the next instant

At the same time, Daya struck Nora with a heavy mental attack.

If it were the usual, Nora would have absolutely started yelling while clutching her head.

But now that Nora had been possessed by that evil thing, she was immune to Daya’s mental attacks. In fact, she took advantage of this interval to suddenly turn and rush back toward Daya.

Whoosh!

Her speed was just too fast.

Daya had just managed to catch her breath, but before she could react, the child in her hands had been knocked out of her arms by Nora’s sword.

“My child!”

Daya seethe with rage, and she hurriedly stretched her hands out to grab the child.

Unexpectedly Nora shot forward to catch the child first In the next instant, she quickly flew eastward.

“What?!”

Daya anxiously yelled, “Give me back my child!”

Alex was furious, and it felt like his heart would explode from the anger that surged through him. Finally, he exhausted all his strength to catch up to Nora.

“Nora Stewart, snap out of it!

“Nora, don’t let some monster take over your mind!” Alex yelled as he gave chase.

However, Nora didn’t pay him any attention at all. Instead, she continued to hurry forward with the child hugged to her chest, releasing various smoke bombs on the way.

After she reached the surface of the sea, she dived in directly.

Roar!

A wave of fury crashed over Alex as his anger reached a boiling point.

His biological daughter, who was only so old, still in her nappies, had been taken into the arms of this old lady into the depths of the sea.

“Nora, you better hope my daughter is fine. Otherwise, I will definitely kill you!”

He didn’t dare to delay any longer and hurriedly followed them into the sea.

However, once he reached into the water, it was like Nora, and his daughter had disappeared from the face of the earth.

“Ahhhhhhh!”

Just as Alex was about to blow his top in anger, Daya arrived.

She was anxious as she asked, “Hubby, our daughter... Where is our daughter?!”

Alex pointed to the bottom of the sea, his eyes bloodshot with stress. “She... She’s gone.”

Daya covered her mouth immediately and started crying.

Alex scratched his head frantically, then finally remembered that there was another way to track his daughter’s location.

“Zharvakko talisman, Blood to Seek Blood!”

After a minute, Alex pointed in a direction. “There!”

Daya was doubtful. “Are you sure? I’m scared that she’s actually hiding nearby.”

“This... It shouldn’t have any problems.”

“Alright, let’s go! ”

The direction pointed by the Blood to Seek Blood talisman only worked once.

However, if the other party kept changing directions, they would need to use it a second time and then a third time...

The young couple could only comfort themselves that their daughter had the inheritance of the Goddess of Nature and that she would be able to survive because of that

Half an hour later, however, they had managed to give chase to a certain place, and they were momentarily baffled. Nora had actually taken their daughter, passed through the gap in the ancient boundary, and entered the other side.

“Where is she going?

“Why do I feel that she had deliberately come for our child? Where is she going with our baby?!”

Daya was just about to collapse from what had happened.

“There must be a purpose to this,” Alex said. “That thing attached to her, it’s from the Undying Clan... No, I need to find some help!”

He quickly gave Jade Benmore a call and asked her to come and help.

As for Daya, she thought about the demon tribes and how this place was where they were located. So, it was most appropriate to ask the demon tribes for help.

Whoosh!

A wave of soul fluctuations burst out of her forehead and cardiac acupoint and into the distance.

Roar!

As Daya's divine thought fluctuated and reached sky high, it didn't take long for an incomparably loud voice to come from afar.

That was the Vajra Demonic Ape's voice. Immediately, then came its other three roars. The roars were long and short and seemed to be saying something. After a few seconds, the roar of countless demons came from the depths of this ancient boundary.

Boom, boom!

The earth trembled, and the roars continued. It was the sound of ten thousand demons moving. A screeching sound was heard. A high-pitched chirp came from the sky.

Soon, a huge roc bird was the first to appear in the air. It spread its wings, which stretched hundreds of meters. Then, a large black mass was formed. This was the Sky Roc King.

A white ape stood on it steadily.

Roar!

The white ape pounded its chest with both arms and let out a thunderous roar.

There was a mournful tone in the voice, which was filled with anger. It was none other than the Vajra Demonic Ape, Baymax.

He had received Daya's divine thoughts, and apparently, the divine thought that rippled from Daya contained the information that her daughter had been snatched away.

Boom...

From hundreds of meters in the air, Baymax jumped down and prostrated before Daya. Despite this, it was still much taller than Daya.

Immediately, the earth trembled, and a large number of demons came whistling.

Aesop, the castellan, was among them.

“Baymax!”

“A villain took my daughter. Can you help me get her back?” Daya said with tears in her eyes.

Baymax nodded, stepped back, and roared.

Roar!

Tens of thousands of demons came out simultaneously, searching worldwide for Alex’s daughter and Nora.

Afterward, Jade arrived as quick as lightning and asked immediately, “What’s going on?”

Alex quickly answered, “The undead possesses Nora. I suspect that it is related to the undead under Mount Fuji. Therefore, anyone who has first entered the Spiritual Ice Stone Palace may be in danger.”

Jade’s face turned gloomy, and she said, “Give me some of both of your blood.”

Very quickly, Jade took Alex and Daya’s blood. Then, she swallowed in one gulp.

“Master...” Alex was stunned. How did this happen?

Daya pulled Alex’s hand and told him not to disturb Jade, who at the moment, with her eyes closed, was motionless, with a path of seven-colored sky glow surging through her body.

She was casting some kind of occult. Alex could not understand.

In fact, Jade was extraordinary. The Dao she cultivated was completely different from ordinary people. She looked like a kind of ancient cultivator who was cultivating the physical body.

Not long after, Jade opened her eyes. “Found it!”

Alex hurriedly asked, “Where is it?”

Jade replied, “Come with me!”

Swish!

The three of them flew up into the sky.

Jade uttered, “The current Nora is fast. She is definitely not her original self. It looks like she wants to exploit your daughter to do something! Alex, what’s so special about your daughter?”

Alex answered, “She was born in Nature’s Palace, does that count?”

“That shouldn’t matter.”

“She is the future goddess of nature.”

“Huh..?”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2057

“She has received the divine heritage of the Goddess of Nature.”

“F*ck!” Jade complained and cursed. It was simply unbelievable.

The trio’s speed was considered fast, but compared to Nora, they were way behind. After being possessed, Nora was ten times stronger in speed than her usual self.

Jade said, “She is too fast and has almost reached Myriad Demon Valley ahead. The mark I made on her has limits. Once beyond a certain distance, I cannot sense her.”

“Myriad Demon Valley?”

Alex suddenly remembered something. "Go, take the shortcut!"

He immediately opened the passage leading to Kala Temple. There was a teleportation point inside the Kala Temple that led directly to Myriad Demon Valley, which could save a lot of time.

Three minutes later, the teleportation array lit up with light.

Alex and the others were teleported inside the cave of Myriad Demon Valley, and when they arrived, Jade immediately sensed something and said, "She's here!"

Alex and Daya were both a little nervous. Their little daughter's life was still in her hands, and she had to be saved.

"Into Myriad Demon Valley!" Jade said again.

This place, right in the middle of Myriad Demon Valley, was the only way. So the three hid behind the boulder at the cave entrance and quietly waited for her arrival.

A series of rapid footsteps were heard. "Three, two, one, strike!"

The trio pounced over.

The one who came was none other than Nora. She was holding the little one in her hand, who had just turned one year old not long ago. She was wailing, most probably because she was uncomfortable. This broke Daya's heart.

Nora's eyes now, all turned blood-red. The ghosted undying clan behind became more apparent.

When she saw Alex and the others striking, she whistled, but it did not sound like what a normal person would make. Holding a baby in one hand and a large sword in the other, she attacked fiercely.

"Nora, wake up!" Jade yelled, this was her sister!

After years of going through fire and water, could she bring herself to kill her?

Splat!

The weapon, Nora's sword, pierced Jade's empty hands that were white as jade and hard as steel. Blood flowed as she grabbed the sword. Nora seemed to freeze momentarily.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Alex immediately dodged to grab the baby.

However, in the next moment, Nora grabbed the baby's neck and said sharply, "Don't come over! Alex, I will borrow your daughter for a while and will not kill her."

This voice, too, did not sound like Nora's own.

"What the hell do you want?"

"What are you going to do with my daughter?"

Nora replied, "I can't tell you. Hehehehehe!"

With something to lose, Jade could only let go. Nora took the opportunity to retreat. She did not run immediately and seemed to be waiting for something until a certain moment, a rumbling sound came.

Alex thought it was the demon tribes who had arrived. However, that was not the case. Instead, it was a group of humans.

Seeing this, Nora immediately smiled in a relaxed way and said, "Stop chasing me. Otherwise, your daughter might really die! Alex, although you have killed so many of my clansmen, I only borrowed your daughter. I am kind, right?"

Alex frowned, "You... You were under Mount Fuji and escaped?"

"That's right!"

In the middle of the conversation, a group of humans of at least a thousand rushed forward. When they saw Nora, they shouted, "Saint", and then surrounded Alex and others.

"I am leaving now. I hope you won't die here!" Nora let out a peal of laughter while holding the baby and ascending in a rush to the sky.

Alex and the others tried to go after them, but they were stopped by the group of people.

“Who are you people?” Jade shouted.

This group of people were all dressed in black and wearing hoods. But there was a deathly aura so thick that one could not seem to shake off. This was a group of humans with ties to the undead.

It was not exactly a possession either.

“If the Witch does not perish, the universe lives together!”

“If the Witch does not die, the Six Realms will be king!”

“Kill!”

When Jade heard this slogan, she exclaimed offhandedly, “It’s the Witch Cult! The Witch Cult is colluding with the undead clan.”

Daya was anxious about her daughter. She did not care so much about that and simply rushed into the sky and sent out a divine thought calling for the demon tribe to come over to help. In the very next second, she stomped her foot fiercely.

Countless Vines burst out of the ground and wrapped themselves around those of the Witch Cult.

“Kill!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2058

Swish, swish, swish!

Countless vines, densely packed, bound the group of members of the Witch Cult who were closest to the ground, all of them unable to take one more step.

The people behind them who wanted to rush up again were blocked by these people and had to jump over them.

Seeing this scene, Alex and Jade were both a little surprised. This ability was quite strong.

In fact, this was not Daya's killing move. The real killing move was that these vines had countless barbs on them, which were incredibly sharp. Once wrapped around the body, the barbs could easily be pierced into the flesh. There were severe neurotoxins on it too. Once released, even the elephant would not be able to withstand it.

Despite being experts in cultivation, these people of the Witch Cult were unable to withstand the rampage and destruction of the neurotoxin in their bodies and soon felt dizzy and even blurred in both eyes.

"What is this?"

"What the hell is this? My head is so dizzy. I can't see clearly!"

"Kill, kill that woman!"

Just as the people of the Witch Cult cried and panicked, Daya grasped a translucent green whip of divine thoughts and viciously lashed it out.

Crack!

With that whip, one could see with naked eyes that those who were bound had their souls directly drawn out and absorbed to the top of the whip of divine thoughts. This whip also seemed to absorb the power of the souls and turned them into its own use.

Jade felt this was creeped out a little, and she whispered to Alex, "This wife of yours is much fiercer than your first wife."

Alex sighed helplessly. "If you had seen the current Dorothy, you wouldn't say that."

"No way? What happened to Dorothy?"

"She awakened in her previous life and became a god. Just after giving birth, she ran away. It seems that she left this realm." .

"My... Goodness!"

Jade was stunned as she uttered that sentence. Subsequently, the two also rushed into the battle ring.

With the help of the poisonous vines, killing the members of the Witch Cult was just like chopping up vegetables.

But, the vines had a limited range. They were limited to within fifty meters in front of Daya. Anything further away was out of reach. When the Witch Cult members saw from afar that the situation was not right, they immediately switched to long-range attacks.

Nearly a thousand people attacked in unison. There was a cluster of bombardment with colorful spells and weapons. It was like a galaxy pouring down, and space was constantly trembling.

“Let’s end this battle quickly!”

“I’ll go to the front and defend!” Alex took the lead.

The golden pellet in his body turned wildly as twelve words of ancient runes emitted a dazzling light. He grabbed the Requiem Clock and put it in front of him.

A bell tolled! It shook the entire world!

Countless attacks fell upon the Requiem Clock, like an ox entering the sea and disappearing without a trace.

A bird’s chirp sounded in the sky. It was the Sky Roc arriving.

The Vajra Demonic Ape, who was on Sky Roe, let out a wild roar and fiercely jumped down from above, landing right in the middle of the Witch Cult crowd.

Daya shouted stemly, “Baymax, kill them all.”

But at that moment, another large group of people from the Witch Cult rushed over from the depths of Myriad Demon Valley.

Daya’s eyes were cold as she said to Alex, “Husband, you are fast. You go after our daughter.”

Alex asked, “Will you be able to manage?”

“It’s okay. The demon tribe will arrive soon.”

Alex grabbed the Stake of Exorcism out and instantly summoned Maiko Chiba. Then, he passed the Stake of Exorcism to Daya and uttered, “The Stake of Exorcism has my divine thought and breath. Hold it, and you will be able to sense where I am. Be careful yourselves!”

He took the Requiem Clock and hurried away.

The clock constantly sounded as it unleashed a bloody path. After stepping on it, Alex clashed out of Myriad Demon Valley.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2059

Roar!

Behind them was a boundless roar of beasts and the sound of earth-shattering murder.

“Nora, you must hold on. Don’t let the monsters hurt my daughter!”

Alex silently chanted in his heart and quickly rushed forward. Although he could not see Nora’s position at this moment, Alex seemed to know where she was. This was because, just a moment after the contact in Myriad Demon Valley, Alex had attached a small paper figure to his daughter’s body.

Through the induction between himself and the paper figure, he could be informed of her location.

Swish swish swish!

Under his feet was a secretly profound Dao pattern.

This was his combination of the spatial formation pattern left behind by the crazy crone and his divine ability to comprehend the laws of space. It could be said that this was an instantaneous movement and for a long distance. But, due to the anxiety in his heart, his spiritual energy gushed out uncontrollably, and the space of one step became larger and larger. A step could span almost dozens of miles. In the words of America, it was equal to scaling a city in one step.

But inside this ancient boundary, the size of the field really had no bounds. Along the way, he also saw countless foreign lands.

Furthermore, he also saw several huge cities and ponds. It was likely like what the leopard demon, Aesop, said, these were the other demon tribe cities.

However, Alex had not caught up to Nora yet.

“How on earth did she manage to reach such a high speed?”

After another moment, he finally felt that the paper figure’s orientation seemed to have stopped.

“Is it tired?”

Alex hurriedly chased after Nora. After a few minutes, he finally caught up.

Nonetheless, he didn’t dare to approach directly but bid a mile away and ended up making a fantastic discovery. This was an ancient forest, but there were countless ancient tree houses inside an open space, which had a peculiar shape and even had an odd lamp hanging, emitting green dots of light.

No one lived inside, but the aura of life here was powerful. It could be compared to the inside of Nature’s Palace.

“What kind of place is this?”

“How is it a bit like the legendary territory where the elves survived?”

However, he didn’t see any of the elven race. He hid his breath and quietly moved forward. Soon, next to an ancient well, he saw Nora and his daughter.

Nora stood at the edge of that ancient well, holding her daughter high as if she was going to throw his daughter into the well. Looking at this scene, Alex could not stay calm. He immediately wanted to rush over and grab his daughter, but he suddenly found something off about the situation. So, he ran into an invisible layer of obstacles that blocked his way.

Buzz, buzz, buzz!

A strange sound came to his ears. It sounded as if Nora was chanting. The sound then grew louder and louder.

A shocking scene appeared. Next to the ancient well, an imaginary image was crossing from the second dimension and slowly surfaced, it was a huge altar.

There were eight tall stone pillars, which bound countless beings.

Huge iron chains were suspended in mid-air.

Alex found his daughter's body, right where the chains were located. At this time, the illusory altar bound his daughter with thick chains as if it had a life of its own. Green light shot from her tiny body.

That was the Goddess of Nature, the power of divinity. The green light and the ancient well below seemed to produce some kind of magical effect. The altar became more apparent, while a boundless giant door rose slowly in the void. It had an incomparable illusion and permeated a mysterious cold and ancient aura.

"I can't wait any longer!"

"She's using my daughter's divine physique to open the Undead Gate!"

Alex was incomparably shocked, and after his mind was made up, he whipped out the Requiem Clock and ruthlessly threw it at the spatial barrier.

Boom!

Alex gathered all his powers to focus on a point. Then, he ruthlessly broke it open. The Requiem Clock made a loud sound. The invisible spatial barrier trembled violently but unfortunately did not break

The huge movement alarmed Nora, who was inside chanting the incantation sacrifice. She looked back at Alex with an incomparably cold expression. Then, feeling more anxious, she chanted the incantation faster.

Buzz...

It was an unknown language, which contained a certain deathly aura.

The illusory altar became clearer and more apparent, and the ancient gate, as if from the distant void, crossed over and came closer and closer. The release of the power of divinity caused the little one to start crying loudly.

Alex's heart felt like a knife was stabbing it.

Grasping the Requiem Clock, he smashed it even more ferociously. Despite a series of vicious smashes, the barrier wall just didn't break.

However, he soon discovered that, around the barrier, there was a strange black shadow. At every other distance, one would appear.

"These black shadows are the foot of the spatial barriers! If I destroy these black shadows, I can break it!"

He hurriedly rushed over and smashed at the black shadows on the ground.

This time he found a feet This attack had actually moved the black shadows, and it let out a sharp scream. This was a living thing!

Roar!

Under the chaotic smashing of the Requiem Clock, the ground cracked. The black shadow underneath finally could not bear it anymore and let out a roar. It broke out of the ground.

Boom!

In the next second, Alex was a little stunned. This was actually a dragon... No. It was a bone dragon. There was neither flesh nor blood all over its body. It was only a skeleton filled with the deathly aura. It was probably twenty meters tall, while its length was even more frightening. This bone dragon fiercely spewed a mouthful of black fog at Alex.

"Toxic death mist!"

Alex was startled.

This was not something ordinary. In the Ultimate Book of Medicine, he had read that there were things that could spew toxic death mist. In the underworld, it belonged to the upper level of existence. If it were in the underworld, this bone dragon would also absolutely become a king and ancestor of existence.

However, now, it was actually here to guard the undead. In fact, this was only one of the black shadows. The black shadows that maintained this spatial barrier could be as many as nine.

He hurriedly escaped by teleportation, pulled out the Dragon Bone Sword, instantly jumped onto the back of the Bone Dragon, and ruthlessly stabbed the Bone Dragon's head with his sword.

Roar!

Clap!

The huge bone dragon let out a roar, but the body turned into a cloud of black sand in the next second, collapsed and disappeared. It turned out not to be a real bone dragon!

Alex celebrated for a moment, then immediately hit the spatial barriers again. But, it still could not break.

It seemed that if the remaining eight black shadows were not broken, this spatial barrier could not be opened. But, inside the ancient well next to the ancient gate, the two huge black portals became clearer and more apparent, with countless living beings crying.

"Husband!"

At this moment, Daya rushed over.

There were also Jade, Sky Roc, Baymax, Aesop, and several other great demons of the demon clan. Naturally, Daya also glanced at her daughter, who was crying loudly. Her heart was dying with pain as she did not know what was happening. Alex hurriedly said, "She wants to open the Undead Gate to the undying clan with the help of the divine lattice inside our daughter. Quick, there are still eight black shadows on the ground. Destroy all the black shadows first before rushing in!"

"The Undead Gate?" When Jade heard this, her heart and soul trembled dramatically.

If the Undead Gate were really opened here, then humanity would be done for.

“Kill!”

“Do it quickly!”
