The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2111

He had no choice!

He never expected that the great Protector from the Governor's Residence would suddenly appear and butt in. This man had a title called Demi-god. He was the strongest expert in Starborn City.

Many people also could not understand it. Charioce's cultivation base was more than enough for him to become the governor of the city. Even if he went to the Plenilune Sect, he would acquire an extremely lofty position. But, instead, he just stayed in a place like Starborn City and served the governor, who only had the cultivation base of Spirit Severing as a Protector. It was simply unbelievable.

However, it was confirmed that the Uoro family would lose all hope of survival if Charioce were to attack the Uoro family.

"You're going to give me the properties of the Uoro's family?"

"Abtal Uoro, you think too little of me."

As soon as he said that, Abtal shivered without knowing what to do.

At this moment, the lucky, still alive Khloe jumped out and pointed at Alex as she said, "Great Protector, this is the guy who has killed the Plenilune Sect's Elder Quint. This guy is bizarre. You have to be careful. You'd better strike now to restrain him and ruin his cultivation base."

The great Protector nodded. "Alright!"

As he said so, he grabbed Alex in the air.

Alex had long guarded his hand. The golden core inside his body spun vigorously, and the golden lake undulated.

"Great Mighty Divine Palm!"

Alex was about to intercept the attack with a blow. Never did he expect that Abtal would rush over from the side. He butted in to help Alex block the great Protector's grab.

"Young Master, be careful!"

Poof!

Charioce grabbed Abtal right on the shoulder and ripped off his arm instantly, causing him to be drenched in blood.

This scene stunned many people.

Alex froze for a moment before throwing the Great Mighty Divine Palm hard.

Boom!

Unexpectedly, Charioce only took a step back. He exclaimed with an 'eek!' as he probably did not expect that Alex's attack would be able to knock him back.

However, Alex turned around and threw a punch at the force field. It was an unbreakable force field to other people, but it was a child's play in Alex's eyes.

Obviously, Charioce's level in spell formation was average.

"The force field has been broken! Hurry up and go!" Alex shouted.

Charioce was even more shocked. "You can break my force field with a punch?"

Alex sneered, "You even dare to call it a force field at this level, huh? It's just a barrier at best. Let me show what a real force field is!"

He raised his hand and flicked out several ancient runes. After landing on the ground, a unique force field was formed and just happened to envelop Alex and Charioce.

Alex did this so that he could allow the Usoro family to make their quick escape.

Whoosh!

Charioce realized the scene before his eyes had changed. The surrounding area suddenly turned into a white space, and the onlookers disappeared as well.

When he threw a punch at the force field, it did not move at all.

“What a powerful force field!”

“Brat, you’ve surprised me!”

“But, isn’t this silly of you? The force field will break if I kill you here, right?”

Alex laughed. “I’m afraid you won’t have this chance. Look above your head!”

“What’s above my head you’re talking about?”

Charioce froze for a moment but did feel something different. He had a feeling... As if he was about to experience the Lightning Tribulation again. So, he raised his head.

“F*ck!”

Dark clouds covered the sky above this barrier with the rapid condensation of infinite lightning-attributed energy and the flashes of densely packed lightning bolts. A gush of coercion that made people want to kneel involuntarily swept through.

What stunned Charioce the most was...

In this storm of tribulation, a gush of the earth-shattering, ancient power of laws was brewing wildly.

‘What kind of Lightning Tribulation is this?’

Charioce looked in utter shock at the half-finished product of the Lightning Tribulation above his head. For a moment, his heart kept shivering.

The Lightning Tribulation was a very mysterious existence. If someone else nearby had the Tribulation Crossing, the said Tribulation Crossing person would be deemed to have sought the other person for help. Then, the size of the Lightning Tribulations' power would be determined based on the two people's overall strength.

One should not say that it was some sort of artificial manipulation, intelligent technology and so on. On the contrary, this was the fair play embodied in the rules of God's Path.

Hence, when Alex was having the Tribulation Crossing, he shut Charioce in the force field to come in as a scapegoat. So naturally, Charioce was instantly furious that he was about to go mad.

He could not help recalling the scene of his Tribulation Crossing last time. That was a narrow escape. If he had not been careful, he would have become a charred corpse on the ground by now. But he had to experience the Tribulation Crossing again now, combined with both his and Alex's overall strength.

"B*stard, do you know that you're digging your own grave?"

"I'm in the second realm to Imminent Immortal. If you count me in your Tribulation Crossing, then the tribulation you're going to cross will be the sum of our both' strength. What you're going to cross is the Lightning Tribulation that surpasses the second realm to Imminent Immortal. How are you going to cross it?"

Charioce was infuriated. Not to mention Alex, he did not have any confidence to do it too. "Since the Lightning Tribulation hasn't descended yet, why don't you remove the godd*rnn force field and let me go now?"

Alex smiled.

How could he not know such a simple principle?

"What's the second realm to Imminent Immortal?"

"Imminent Immortal... Could it be that it's the realm after the Tribulation Crossing?" Alex asked. He did not know that there was such a realm as the Imminent Immortal. There was no introduction of Imminent Immortal whatsoever in the legacy that he had acquired from his ancestor. It only mentioned the next level after reaching the cultivation base of Tribulation Crossing would be the Immortalization realm.

Charioce did not have time to listen to Alex's nonsense. Instead, he saw the Tribulation Clouds overhead was getting denser.

The power of laws in the middle of it was becoming more terrifying as well.

He even seemed to see streams of radiating golden light on the Tribulation Clouds.

"F*ck! There's a Golden Light Lightning Talisman. So this can't be the legendary Apocalyptic Lightning Tribulation of Golden Light, right?"

Even Charioce's heart was in his mouth. This was the Lightning Tribulation to eradicate the heinous, dreadful devil.

He encountered the Apocalyptic Lightning Tribulation of Golden Light with his little cultivation base. That was worse than being cannon fodder!

"Ahh!"

He could no longer bear it. Death would be inevitable in this kind of Lightning Tribulation.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

He frantically launched attacks on the force field, trying to break through the force field's wall. Unfortunately, it did not have any effect at all.

Alex had constructed the field with ancient runes that contained the power of laws. It could not be broken by force.

Crackle!

At this moment, densely-packed lightning sparks appeared overhead. The entire air roared with lightning attributed energy, and the eye of the Lightning Tribulation slowly opened up.

Charioce let out a scream and shouted at Alex, "Brat, hurry up. Open up the force field and let me out. I won't kill you. Besides, I'll give endless benefits, benefits that you can't even imagine having in your life."

Alex said indifferently, "When you're struck to death by the Lightning Tribulation later, everything on you will be mine."

Charioce was so furious that he almost exploded with rage at once. "Are you really dumb? I'm here, yet you still want to survive the Lightning Tribulation safely? You must not have woken up from your sleep, right?"

Alex shrugged and did not say another word.

On the other hand, Charioce had no choice now. He could only use the strongest means of attack to kill Alex in one shot. As long as he died, the Lightning Tribulation would dissipate as well.

"Secret Records of Heaven and Earth, Quake Assault!"

Boom!

Alex could feel that Charioce was putting up a desperate fight. The power of this blow was extremely powerful. Even if the force field separated him, it still shocked him to the point that he staggered and spat a mouthful of blood while his internal organs were writhing in agony.

Poof!

Alex spat the bloody phlegm in his mouth. Then, while looking at Charioce, he felt astonished.

This guy's strength was definitely stronger than Jade's, and it was not just slightly more powerful than Peak-Tribulation Crossing. If he had not cast the force field here so that he could borrow the spell formation's energy inside it, Charioce would have killed him with that shock just now.

'He's an Imminent Immortal. So he's probably already close to Immortalization, right?'

As Alex thought about it, Charioce's eyes flickered.

He never expected that Alex's vitality would be so great that he would only spit a mouthful of blood after receiving his Quake Assault. What was more insane was that Alex's pale face earlier had instantly recovered its ruddiness in just two blinks. At this moment, the eye of Lightning Tribulation had completely opened up.

This time, Charioce knew that he could no longer make his move. Furthermore, he wanted to stay away from Alex as far as possible. The Lightning Tribulation belonged to Alex. If Alex died just in a single blow, perhaps, the Lightning Tribulation would not come after him!

"Haha, brat. The Lightning Tribulation is going to descend soon. Let's see how you're going to die!"

Charioce retreated for a few dozen meters, but it was his limit because the force field that Alex had cast was only that big.

Alex looked at him with a strange expression and said a word softly, "Dumb*ss!"

The next second, the Lightning Tribulation stuck down ferociously. This was a thunderbolt of Lightning Tribulation as thick as a tar barrel covered with tiny lightning bolts at the side.

There were even thundering flames and golden lightning patterns in the middle of it.

"D*mn, it's awesome!"

"It's not in vain for you to live this long if you manage to summon such a Lightning Tribulation!"

Charioce gloated. However, soon, he could not laugh anymore. It was because he realized that Lightning Tribulation did not go after Alex, but it came after him instead.

"Ahh! Ahh!"

"What's going on?"

"F*ck.."

Boom!

Charioce's words abruptly ended. The first thunderbolt blasted him into slag. Then, his body and soul turned into nothingness, leaving only a blue inventory ring that fell on the ground!

Meanwhile, the force field he had cast also vanished in a puff of smoke under the Lightning Tribulation.

In a brief moment, Alex grabbed the inventory ring on the ground. At the same time, he saw the remaining group of the Yggdrasill family was still standing aside and watching the show... At first, they could not see anything, let alone the Lightning Tribulation, because Alex's force field had made it invisible. But now that force field had disappeared, they saw clearly that Alex was standing fine while Charioce had turned into ashes.

A mass of Tribulation Clouds followed Alex overhead.

"Ah!"

"The Great Protector is dead!"

"This guy actually used the Tribulation Clouds to murder the Great Protector."

"Why are these Tribulation Clouds so strange? This... That's all for the Lightning Tribulation of the dreadful devil's Tribulation Crossing, right? Hurry up and run! Don't let the Lightning Tribulation catch you. Otherwise, you'll be identified as a helper of Tribulation Crossing. You'll be dead for sure then!"

The onlookers dispersed at once.

The remaining few Yggdrasill members wanted to escape as well, but Alex took special care of them. He casually constructed a force field, trapping them inside it.

The next moment, the Lightning Tribulation descended!

"Ahh!"

“What kind of Lightning Tribulation is this? What kind of Lightning Tribulation has this b*stard summoned?”

The Yggdrasill family members screamed and shivered. Khloe fell to her knees with a thud because she could not bear the Lightning Tribulation’s coercion. She pointed at Alex remorsefully and begged in pain. “No, I don’t want to die. Please spare me...”

Alex took a glance at her indifferently.

Boom!

The Lightning Tribulation struck down. The lightning caused an explosion.

The second bolt of the Lightning Tribulation struck down ferociously, with Alex at the center. The Lightning Tribulation bolt was double in size and much more powerful than the one that had killed Charioce earlier. The moment it struck down, all Starborn City citizens trembled, let alone the Yggdrasill family.

Some weak-willed people fainted right away.

At this moment, the Chaos Tree in Alex’s mind palace shook violently, and the Chaos Beads on it emitted brilliant light. The chaos Chi energy enveloped Alex.

Due to this, after the Lightning Tribulation descended, it seemed to have lost its target at once. It instantly scattered in all directions, going after the Yggdrasill family.

Boom!

A burst of explosions rang out.

The Lightning Tribulation struck all the people within a one hundred meter radius, leaving hundreds meter deep huge hole.

All the Yggdrasill family members present died and vanished in a puff of smoke.

However, after this blow, the Tribulation Clouds overhead quickly retracted and slipped away, as if it were wisps of clouds swept away by a whirlwind. It disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye, as if it never existed.

Until then, the onlooking crowd earlier came forward boldly and took several glances at the huge, black hole before shaking their heads and sighing.

“It looks like all of them are dead!”

“Who would have thought the curtain would fall on the Yggdrasill family of Starborn City in this way?!”

“What kind of person do you guys think the young master of the Usoro family is?” He could actually summon such a ferocious Lightning Tribulation. He’s not a reincarnation of some rare dreadful devil, right?”

“Who knows?”

At this moment, a figure slowly rose up from the hundreds meter deep huge hole that the Lightning Tribulation had struck. The person looked a little wretched with some specks of dirt covering his head and face, but his spirit was powerful.

“Ah!”

“This dreadful devil isn’t dead yet?”

“He’s still alive after experiencing such a terrifying Lightning Tribulation? What the heck is he?”

The agitated crowd instantly backed off.

The Lightning Tribulation could even kill the Great Protector instantly, yet unexpectedly it could even not harm him.

This person was probably invincible in Starborn City, right?

“Junior...”

At this moment, a woman’s voice rang out in the crowd, it was Frostine Usoro. She was shocked to the core during the terrifying Lightning Tribulation earlier.

After all, she was worried about Alex. After the Lightning Tribulation had dissipated, she hurried over for a check. When she saw that Alex was really alive and had even killed the Yggdrasill family members, she was overjoyed and her eyes were red-rimmed too.

“Where’s Bubbles?” Alex immediately asked after landing on the ground.

Frostine said, “My dad is holding her. Hurry up and go. The people from the Plenilune Sect will arrive soon. If we don’t leave now, it will be too late.”

Alex nodded and left Starborn City with Frostine at once amidst various different gazes from the crowd.

Almost right after Alex and Frostine rushed out of Starborn City, they heard a magnificent sound exploding and saw a mighty golden chariot, which was being dragged by hundreds of fiery-red flying demonic beasts, whistled over.

The chariot was enormous with a length of three hundred meters. It was simply like a huge aircraft carrier.

A vast expanse of darkness covered the sky and the sun. However, it flew at breakneck speed like a flash of lightning streaks. It reached the sky above Starborn City in the blink of an eye.

“That’s the chariot from the Plenilune Sect!”

Frostine took a glance at the huge object in the sky, but she dared not take another look and immediately withdrew her gaze.

It was because if there were supreme experts in the flying chariot, they would be able to sense her existence just from her gaze. It would be troublesome if someone managed to identify her.

Alex was amazed.

Such a huge flying chariot was simply like a mobile air fortress. More importantly, it traveled too fast. It would be the wind at one’s back if it were used on the battlefield.

Passion filled Alex’s eyes.

There was a thought in his mind, he wanted to snatch away the chariot.

At this moment, Frostine hurriedly held his head and forcefully pressed him before rushing to the small woods nearby.

“Shh..!”

“Shield function, someone looked at us just now.” Frostine stuck to Alex’s ear using telepathy. She dared not move at all, but this posture was a little too intimate. After Frostine pressed down Alex’s head, Alex... Well, he bumped into a pair of natural huge boobs face-to-face.

He almost choked to death happily on that fragrant bosom.

“Senior, is it done?”

“Shh, don’t make a sound. Wait for a while.”

“Oh, alright. I don’t mind.”

A full three minutes passed.

Only then did Frostine pat him on the back of his head. “Alright, let’s go!”

Alex was speechless.

Frostine said, “Junior? Junior, what’s wrong with you? Oh my, why are you drooling? You see...”

“Uh, oh, sorry. Senior, I didn’t mean it. I tend to drool once I fall asleep. It’s an unchangeable innate habit.”

“You were asleep?”

“I fainted from the scent.”

“... I think you’re in your dreams.”

In Starborn City, the enormous golden chariot was still suspended in mid -air, and several hundred Plenilune Sect disciples came down from it. The leading person was none other than the Plenilune Sect grand elder, Yngwie Foust.

“Elder Quint?!”

He knew Hermione’s master, Elder Quint, had come here in advance. But now, a bottomless, deep pit appeared on the ground, and there was no news about Elder Quint.

Upon asking, he was stunned. Elder Quint was dead from the lightning strike.

The Yggdrasill family members were dead from the lightning strike as well. All of them were dead.

There were also thirty or so Plenilune Sect disciples’ corpses lying in front of the gate of Usoro Manor.

“Ahh-!” the grand elder howled madly, “Who was it? Who did it?”

Soon, a Plenilune Sect disciple grabbed several bystanders from Starborn City. Upon asking, they knew the entire process of the incident.

“All the Yggdrasill family members are dead?”

Yngwie Foust frowned. Hermione had just obtained enlightenment from a goddess and received the Goddess’ Legacy. She would likely be the rising key figure of the Plenilune Sect in the future. Now that the Yggdrasill family had been annihilated within the jurisdiction of the Plenilune Sect, they had to handle this matter properly.

“All the disciples from the Plenilune Sect, heed my order! Pursue them!”

“Even if you have to chase after them till the edge of the world, you have to capture them for me.”

“Kill on sight!”

Following the grand elder’s order, countless figures on the enormous golden chariot soared into the sky and scattered in all directions, looking for the tracks of those people from the Usoro family.

Half an hour later, Alex and Frostine caught up to the Usoro family. Alex took over Bubbles in his arms. “Young Master, are you alright?” Abtal asked Alex concemedly.

Alex shook his head. "I'm fine."

Having said that, he looked at the Usuro family members who had escaped. Unfortunately, there were not many of them. At least half of them had lost their lives in Starborn City, including Abtal's fourth son, Jonas Usoro.

"Your casualties and losses today are all because of me. I'll help the Usoro family collect this debt in full plus interest."

Abtal said, "Young Master, don't ever say that. As long as you're fine, it's all worth it."

Alex sighed. At this moment, a whim struck him. A shadow transformed from the paper doll rushed back.

He frowned. "The people from the Plenilune Sect have caught up to us."

As Alex was leaving Starborn City, he used the Paper Doll Curse of Three Realms and left a little tail over there.

It was all pretty much surveillance. If the shadow returned, he would be able to know what was happening.

As for the Usoro family, lots of people still escaped. With such numbers, they would be easily discovered.

"Sister, grandpa, you guys take the family members and immediately head deeper towards the dense forest. I'll draw the attention of the Plenilune Sect," Alex immediately said.

Abtal, however, smiled bitterly. "Young master, there is something you don't know. Starborn City is located at the very edge of the Southern Peak. Further inside the forest, there is the 100,000 mile Misty Swamp, containing numerous demon beasts and all kinds of natural poison. Rumor has it that within the 100,000 mile Misty Swamp was the ancient war's original battlegrounds. Infinite numbers of strange eight diagram formations were left behind. Once inside... One would be in extreme danger."

That's right, Percival nodded, adding, "That's a very evil place. Once, several super sects from the ancient holy land led thousands of disciples into the 100,000 mile Misty Swamp. In the end, only two and a half people managed to come out."

Alex was stunned, "How can it be two and a half people? What do you mean by half a person?"

"That half-person became crazy and has disappeared for a long time. The other two people who managed to come out... I heard they also died in the end," Percival said.

"What is the cultivation level of the strongest person in the super sect?" asked Alex.

"Rumor has it that the strongest person who went crazy came from the ancient holy land of Pompeii. Back then, when she entered the Misty Swamp, she was already an immortal."

"An immortal?"

"That's right!"

Alex was shocked, and he had a deep yearning. Suddenly, the image of the Crazy Crone appeared in his mind.

"There are actually immortals."

It meant that in this world, it was indeed possible to break through the transmigration, shatter the void, and walk the path of immortality.

He had tons of questions in his mind.

However, the crowd found that the huge "air carrier," the golden carriage of the Plenilune Sect, was being pulled by hundreds of flying demon beasts and flew towards them.

"Master, the carriage of the Plenilune Sect is flying over. Have we been discovered?" a disciple of the Usoro family shouted with a suppressed voice. His face was full of tension.

With a gloomy face, Abtal stood under the massive. Still, the shade of the forest. He looked towards the sky twice and said, "It's Yngwie, the Grand Elder of the Plenilune Sect. Rumor has it that this person has a special divine mind talent and can soundlessly probe the surroundings. So, he must have found us through that.”

“Then... Then what should we do?”

The people of the Usoro family got nervous, one by one.

Alex saw that a few younger men and women, from time to time, looked towards him. Despite not saying anything out loud, they had that kind of resentment in their eyes, which Alex could still clearly capture. However, Alex did not put this issue in his heart. He just felt sorry. Abtal and Frostine certainly did not intend to resent Alex, but the rest of the Usoro family, such as the sidelines, or other younger generations, had no feelings for Alex at all.

Now thanks to him alone, the Usoros had a broken family. It was completely understandable that they resented Alex.

He sighed.

At that moment, a group of people leaped out fiercely leaped from the top of the golden carriage and pounced on them.

“Kill!”

“Go, go quickly, run to the east!” Abtal ordered loudly.

However, a group of people from the Plenilune Sect had also emerged from the east. The few who rushed to the north engaged the people of the Plenilune Sect. Then, in the blink of an eye, several corpses dropped.

This was a battle of completely different levels.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2117

The Grand Elder of the Plenilune Sect was the first to take the lead, not giving the Usoro family any chance to speak at all.

“So strong!”

“This guy, he’s a little stronger than the Protector!”

Alex was alarmed.

However, it was inappropriate for him to make a move now, as he had just crossed Lightning Tribulation. The Chaos Tree’s effect of shielding the Heavenly Tribulation had made the Lightning Tribulation extremely unreliable as well. Although he had now sort of crossed the Lightning Tribulation, he had not received the blessing of the Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation yet, and his cultivation level didn’t seem to reach firstborn too. Instead, it had turned extremely bizarre.

He now urgently needed to find time to stabilize his cultivation. Otherwise, the realm may not rise, but would revert back to the golden core.

He hugged his daughter and did not make a move.

Such behaviour caused the Usoro family to look even more uncomfortable. With accumulated resentment, they couldn’t help but speak up. “Is there any mistake, Young Lord Rockefeller? Weren’t you very powerful? Aren’t you an unparalleled expert who can even kill the great minister of the Starborn City? Why are you standing there now? Why won’t you make a move?”

Alex still did not move.

Even Frostine was moved. “Brother, what’s wrong with you?”

“I got a little injured during the tribulation just now, and I’m lacking true essence now, so I can’t move,” Alex answered helplessly.

Frostine quickly remembered that Alex didn’t bathe in the Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation to recover from his injuries after the tribulation. The absence of the Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation was proof that the tribulation had not been successful.

The strangest thing was that if the tribulation was unsuccessful, one typically turned into ashes on the spot. But, why was he still alive?

Frostine was anxious too. She had previously thought that Alex could kill the Protector easily, so he should be able to get along with the people of the Plenilune Sect.

“Enter the Misty Swamp, quick!” Alex shouted.

“Enter? Enter to die? It’s a Misty Swamp, and people can’t even do anything about it but you’re actually letting us go. Are you not hurting us enough?” A person from the sidelines of the Usoro family could not help but speak ill of Alex.

At that moment, a sword flew in and instantly decapitated the woman who spoke.

The one who made the move was not someone from the Plenilune Sect, but Elder Usoro.

“Whoever dares to disrespect the young master, kill them all!”

“Immediately do as the young master said, go into the Misty Swamp, while you still have a chance to live. If you don’t go in, you won’t survive more than a tea time!”

Alex nodded towards Abtal. Holding his daughter Bubbles, Alex took the lead and walked ahead, “I’ll lead the way for you!”

Swish swish swish!

Although his true essence was a bit lax and he could not use instantaneous movement, he still moved at a speed that was not slow.

This was really the edge of the Misty Swamp. After a few hundred meters, a heavy fog clouded up the entire area, and vision was greatly reduced. The key was that the divine sense was also affected by the fog here. With the sense only able to sense up to a few meters, they were completely unable to see anything more than ten meters. Instead of being surprised, Alex was actually happy to see this.

This was the perfect place to escape. As long as the people of the Plenilune Sect entered the mist and walked a distance, they would be blind.

On the ancient vehicle, the Grand Elder stood at the edge with an unhappy face, looking at the Usoro clan members who had entered the swamp.

A disciple next to him said, “Grand Elder, they have all entered the swamp. What should we do? Should we chase them?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2118

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2118

“Enter?”

“The immortals who went in came out crazy. Are you sure you want to go in?”

Grunting at the disciple, the Grand Elder said, “Here, people without a background get killed. After all, to the people of the Usoro family, being dead or alive is of little importance. Now, go back and collect the corpses of the Yggdrasill family’s people. Have a scenic burial. Oh, by the way, confiscate the Usoro family’s property.”

Who among the disciples of the Plenilune Sect would enter this damn place? Hearing what the Grand Elder said, he immediately breathed a sigh of relief and left happily.

However, the Grand Elder still left a few people to guard the intersection, at least until the end of seven days.

“The Plenilune Sect people didn’t chase us.”

Frostine looked towards the back for a long time, and after making sure that the ancient vehicle flew away, she let out a great sigh of relief. The people of the Plenilune Sect were too powerful this time, and it was not something the Usoro family could fight against at all.

The short encounter had cost the Usoro family the lives of more than a dozen people.

Moreover, more people were injured.

”Husband, husband! You have to hold on. You can’t leave the children and me behind...”

“Mom, wake up, wake up. Master, master! Save my mom. I’m willing to give you anything.”

“The child’s father, can you still walk? I’m afraid I can’t save this leg!”

There were sounds of wailing and crying.

The Usoro family had many casualties this time. The death of their descendants were not few. The Shadow Guards were the first to bear the brunt. Of the original three thousand shadow guards, fewer than three hundred people survived.

The Usoro family lost countless assets. Unable to bear it, Alex took out several bottles of sacred healing medicine from his storage ring and handed them to Frostine.

“Sister, here is a bottle of major rejuvenation pills. Use it for all of the injured clansmen. As long as they can still breathe, they should all be able to be cured. ”

However, there were soon discordant voices. Someone got the major rejuvenation pill and threw it directly into the swamp.

“No need for you to pretend to be kind. Our Usoro family has come to this point because of you, messenger of death. My husband is dead, and I don’t want to live. If you have it within you, kill me now! Young master? Nonsense!”

One person took the lead, and others immediately followed suit.

At least two dozen major rejuvenation pills were thrown into the swamp.

Abtal was furious and roared sternly. “What do you want? Are you rebelling? Pick up the pills immediately and kneel and apologize to the young master, else, you are traitors to the Usoro family and will be beheaded.”

“Old master, there is no need to be angry. I understand everyone’s feelings,” said Alex.

However, what he received were incomparably resentful eyes.

Alex knew that he could not stay here. Who knew if there were people inside who, blinded by hatred, would take advantage of his vulnerability to strike at him or his daughter Bubbles. Such danger had to be eliminated.

“You guys stay here to heal and recuperate. I’ll go ahead and explore the road.”

Alex held Bubbles and walked toward the front, one step at a time.

“Young master!” Abtal’s voice trembled.

Alex smiled. "Don't follow me! Old master, you are a good man. My father was once kind to the Usoro family, and after this time, you have returned the kindness."

"Little brother, it's not easy to get rid of me. I have decided. Where you go, I will go. I will follow you to the ends of the earth," Frostine added.

"You..."

"Let's go, scouting!"

Frostine pulled Alex and quickly walked towards the front.

She felt deeply disappointed with those clansmen who jumped out with hatred in their hearts, and although she could understand them, she couldn't get past them emotionally.

The further she went, the thicker the fog became. Although Frostine's cultivation realm was stronger than Alex's, she was actually barging in blindly when it came to navigation. She walked in the swamp along the terrain and soon lost the sense of direction.

Moreover, after walking only less than ten minutes, she felt something wrong. She had been poisoned.

On the contrary, nothing happened at all to Alex. Even Bubbles, who was also alive and kicking, showed no signs of poisoning... This was because Alex himself was the inheritor of the Ultimate Book of Medicine. There were still twelve runes of ancient forbidden arts in his body, so even a great weapon like the Chaos Tree and ordinary toxins were completely unable to hurt him.

As for Bubbles, she was even safer with the natural divine lattice protecting her body.

"Brother, I believe I've been poisoned!"

"Quickly take the baby and back off. Don't mind me."

Frostine used her energy to resist the toxin. However, she found that as she used her energy to make her true essence flow, her poisoning symptoms became more and more severe. Soon she became dizzy and could not walk.

Alex hurriedly took out a limit-breaking pill and told her to take it.

When Frostine saw the limit-breaking pill, she was startled. "This... This is a limit-breaking pill? Brother, how did you get such an advanced pill? Did you know that our Usoro family once spent half of our fortune to obtain such a pill?"

Alex nodded. "I've heard of it, but, don't be too concerned. This elixir is actually not that difficult to refine. You must have been knocked by the Remedy Palace. I have quite a few more here, all of which I have refined myself."

"You refined it yourself? You... You are an alchemist?"

As the words were spoken, Alex directly put the elixir into Frostine's mouth. Alex did not feel much when his fingers touched her soft lips, but Frostine's wintry eyes rolled around, revealing a stunningly seductive expression.

On the contrary, the quick glance almost hypnotized Alex.

Nine tails... Is this the talent of the Nine-Tails?

"The limit~breaking pill will be effective for three days to protect you from the poisonous miasma," Alex said. "Sister, I have just broken through my cultivation, but there was no Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation to be added. I need to find a place as soon as possible to stabilize my cultivation quietly."

Frostine felt very strange, because normally after crossing the tribulation, a Golden Light of Thunder Tribulation would appear. It would be considered a failure otherwise.

Before this, she had always thought that Alex had failed to cross the tribulation, which was why he had suddenly lost his fighting ability.

Finally, after walking for another thirty minutes, they came across a mound. It didn't look very big, but there happened to be a stone cave on it.

"Go there and check it out!"

Right after stepping into the stone cave, they felt the sky spinning, and everything around them changed.

“Be careful, sister. This is a formation.” Alex hugged his daughter, pulled Frostine with his other hand, and moved three steps to the left. This wasn’t a very complicated formation. Alex could instantly recognize it with his Buddha Eye’s open state.

He asked Frostine to hold Bubbles for the time being for him to resolve the formation himself.

In just two minutes, the formation cracked. It revealed the true appearance of the inside of the stone cave.

They saw three dead people sitting side by side in the innermost part of the stone cave. In front of them was a stone table with wine cups and wine jars and even a chessboard.

Alex looked at the three dead people, and did not have much feeling.

However, Frostine was astonished. “I know him,” she said, pointing to one of them. “He is the sect master of the Plenilune Sect. Shouldn’t he still be in the sect? How did he die here? It appears he has been dead for some time.”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2120

Alex wasn’t bothered about all these.

He felt a little odd. His Chi was disorganized and had wandered throughout his body, unable to be condensed. The golden core had now completely turned into a big lake.

That’s right. His golden pellet shattered during the tribulation, and he had studied the records of the Ultimate Book of Medicine. The golden core was followed by the firstborn, and the process after the tribulation was to break the core and turn it into a baby. However, after his own golden core broke, instead of the firstborn condensing, it was more like a broken egg, its contents spreading all over the place and turning into a lake.

That was why it couldn’t condense.

“This is for you, sister! ” Alex couldn’t wait to be in seclusion now. He had no choice. Only through this could Frostine take care of his child. But, Frostine couldn’t produce milk, so he took out life spring water, using it as Bubbles’ milk substitute.

He really had to thank Frostine for not abandoning him. If he were in seclusion for a long time, no one would take care of the child, which would be a huge problem.

Once everything was laid out clearly, Alex immediately kneeled and began to raise his vitality.

In Starborn City, the golden cart landed in the old mansion of the Uoro family. A group of disciples of the Plenilune Sect was indiscriminately scavenging. The Uoro family was the top magnate in Starborn City, so it still had considerable wealth.

Large boxes of spiritual stones were carried out from the inner courtyard, as well as all kinds of rare medicinal herbs. It made the grand elder, drinking tea on the old-fashioned wooden armchair, look joyful. “This trip was a good deal!”

“I never thought that a small family in Starborn City could accumulate so much wealth.”

“That...”

“No!”

The Grand Elder suddenly sat up straight, his sparkling. It suddenly occurred to him that if the Uoro family home could’ve hidden such precious treasure, wouldn’t the storage rings they carried on them and in their storage bags contain even more treasures?

“No, this Uoro family must be discovered!”

“We have to at least get back the storage rings of those core personnel!”

With his mind made up, the Grand Elder immediately stood up, about to gather up his disciples, when his mind moved. It looked toward the eastern sky, only to see an extremely strong aura coming from afar. It was a fiery red shadow that was hurrying along.

“Sect master?”

The Grand Elder’s heart shook. He did not expect that the Sect Master had actually come here personally.

Not daring to take his time, the Grand Elder hurriedly greeted him. In a jiffy, a big, fiery red crane landed.

On it rode two people, with the one in front none other than the Master of the Plenilune Sect, Jenson, while the one behind was clearly the Plenilune Sect disciple that had recently been in the limelight. He was said to have received the inheritance of the Goddess Hermione.

“Greetings...”

The Grand Elder was about to salute, when he was interrupted by Jenson, who hurriedly asked, “The Fifth Elder is dead, which we already know. What about his storage ring and his original magic treasure, the Treasure Sword? Have they been found?”

The Grand Elder was stunned. Seeing that the sect master was so anxious to find these two items, they must be of great importance.

“Sect Master, I have not seen them, ” he quickly replied.

“Where is the Fifth Elder?”

“Over there!”

At this moment, the Fifth Elder was not split into slag by the Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation like the Grand Officiant. Nonetheless, his corpse had also been baptized by the lightning tribulation, since it was within range of Alex’s second lightning tribulation when he triggered it. Now, the entire person had a completely different face, and no one could not see his original face at all.
