The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2181

Time passed.

Alex didn't know how long he had been unconscious. In fact, he would have been active the entire time in the curtain of light. The curtain of light was the Great Icebound Curse that the great Genbu had given him.

The Ten-Point Forbidden Spell.

“Z, G, N, Y, E, B, J, I, H, K, D, W!”

And this was only one of them. Yet, this was the core of the forbidden spells. And there were nine other kinds. However, with these cores, it was possible to drive and power the forbidden arcana.

The curtain of light, which was the inheritance that the great Genbu had given him, had a deep comprehension of the Great Icebound Curse in it. Alex just needed to build on the foundation he was given to take it to the next level.

When the curtain of light disappeared, Alex's soul regained control of his body. He found that the humongous mountain-like body of the True Martial Sovereign was gone.

At the end of the Dead Zone, a little further down, there was a huge mystic formation with countless ancient runes flowing automatically in it. The mystic formation was being used to block the passage of the undead from the Undying Clan.

“Sigh!” Alex sighed, sorrow filled his heart.

The hero had passed his prime. The great sovereign had fallen.

Everything he did was for the sake of peace in all realms. How respectable and admirable, and how heavy the burden he had carried.

He flipped his hand, and the half piece of turtle armor appeared. This was what the great Genbu had left for him.

It was equivalent to a shield, which happened to have a compatibility of 99% with his Mystic Armor. So with this half piece of tortoise armor inserted into his Mystic Armor, his defensive power would reach an amazing height. As for Nirvana, it was similar to the Buddhist Holy Lands. It was placed in Alex's mind palace, and it was a portal.

He summoned the portal and tried to enter it.

The result was dumbfounding.

He passed through the portal without anything changing.

"F*ck, it can't be that the portal didn't work, right? Has Nirvana been destroyed?"

For a moment, Alex was stunned by his speculation. There were still millions of Naga tribe members in Nirvana, and the most important thing was that his daughter was also in there!

"D*mn you, great Genbu. You better not have deceived me!"

Alex broke out in cold sweats, and he hurried to study the portal. An hour later, he breathed a sigh of relief. It wasn't that the portal couldn't be opened, it was just that he didn't have enough strength to pass through it.

The great Genbu was really something else. He had given Alex the portal to Nirvana but made it so that Alex could not enter it himself. Alex needed to reach the Immortalization stage before controlling the power of laws to enter the portal and into Nirvana.

"Based on my cultivation method, by the time I can go in, wouldn't my daughter already be married by then? But, there are only the Naga tribes inside there!"

He was already at the end of the Dead Zone, so he wandered for a while. When he finally felt the blessing Lena Rivers had given him starting to weaken, he didn't dare to linger here any longer and hurried back. However, he couldn't find the Ancient Long River Passage.

Instead, he found a silver teleportation portal.

Seeing that his body was about to be crushed by the forbidden restrictions spells here, he didn't put much thought into it and walked straight into the portal.

Buzz!

The teleportation began.

When the pressure around his body lightened and the surrounding area brightened, he opened his eyes, and trembles wracked through his body out of fright.

“Holy sh*t...”

Alex was frightened to the point he almost wet himself.

He had just teleported out of the Dead Zone, and he didn't expect to open his eyes to see a gigantic demon beast, which had its jaws opened and claws extended toward him. It was imposing and threatening, and there was a fierce glint in its eyes as though it could take away one's soul.

It was a giant dragon. Its gigantic body took up the entire ancient space. Its length was maybe thousands of meters, and just its eyeball was already bigger than a villa.

Swoosh!

Alex was instantly flung away before landing a hundred meters away from where he first stood.

Then, he realized that the giant dragon was coiled in the spot, motionless. It looked as though it had been long dead.

It was only then did Alex let out a sigh of relief. He reached out a hand to poke the surface of the giant dragon's body, and it felt as hard as a stone. It had been petrified but was coiled up in the spot, and it looked very much alive.

Alex carefully surveyed his surroundings.

He found that it looked like some kind of enormous cave, and there were rocks everywhere. There were also countless signs of a fight, with sword marks several feet deep visible everywhere. There were also damaged buildings around him.

“What is this place?”

“Why did great Genbu’s teleportation portal lead here?”

Alex walked around slowly, checking out the area. He subsequently discovered that not only was there a petrified dragon, there were also many demon beasts in the same state, as well as humans. They all looked alive but had definitely lost their lives and had turned into rocks.

“There was a great tragic battle here. These people and demons don’t look like they have turned into fossils after dying for many years, but... It looked like they were attacked by something that petrified them and turned them into rocks.”

“Looking at these humans, they didn’t lead a simple life for sure while they were still alive.”

A shudder ran through Alex’s heart.

The one possibility that he could imagine was that this place was once a battlefield in ancient times. One where the Undying Clan and humans were powerhouses and the demon tribes from all the realms in the world fought to the death and ended up here, leaving behind the many corpses.

Ordinary corpses wouldn’t have been able to withstand the passage of time, and they would have returned to dust in the earth. But some had been struck by this petrification curse and had turned into rocks and thus remained here forever.

“Huh, a divine sword!”

Alex’s eyes lit up when he caught sight of a golden sword, and he hurried over to grab it. As a result, just as his hand touched the hilt, the sword fell apart and turned into dust as though it had been made of flour.

“My gosh!”

“Even a divine sword has turned into dust. How many years have passed in this place?”

“Even if it was from ancient times, or the time when the Undying Clan invaded in the beginning, it’s only been a mere ten thousand years. A divine sword can’t possibly not last as long as that, right?”

“Unless...”

He took a few more steps forward. He caught sight of another weapon, a lance.

When he went to pick it up, it instantly turned into a pile of dust like the sword he had tried to pick up previously.

Then, he saw a storage ring. Which ended up the same.

This was too much! Too terrifying! When exactly did this battlefield happen?

Or, could it be that this place had been attacked by the laws of time?

Dust, petrified, dust, petrified... There was nothing left.

Alex explored the cave a few times, but he didn’t find a single valuable thing. He was a little annoyed, and finally, at one of the stone walls, he found a hidden boundary door.

Just as he was about to walk through it, he stumbled upon some text carved into the stone wall.

“The Left-wing Union led the battle against the undead throne army, dueled in this Windsun Cave. A fierce battle that lasted three months and three days, the undead army was all wiped out. But there are also only a few left in my Union, but the undead throne army has immortal souls, and I’m afraid they will be resurrected once more and bring chaos to the human realm. So I will cover the Windsun Cave with Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream. One day, in the world, there will be a thousand here, and in time, it will obliterate their souls.”

“Unfortunately, I am the headteacher of Yorkshire Palace. The teachings will come to an end in my hands, and the line is broken.”

“Descendents who are fortunate enough to come here, learn this knowledge, and pass it on to the disciples of Yorkshire Palace, you have my eternal gratitude! Yasmine of Yorkshire Palace, leaving behind my last words.”

After Alex read this, he finally understood.

It was no wonder all the divine weapons here had rotted and shattered when they were touched, turning into dust. It had been affected by the time spell that was weaved in this place.

One day on the outside was equivalent to one thousand years here.

Did they need to be so ruthless?

How many years would it have been inside here, when already thousands of years had passed on the outside?

Alex couldn't even count the numbers.

“No, that's not right! One day on the outside means a thousand years here... I've been here for so long. It can't be that a thousand years have passed here, right?!”

Alex was stunned.

But after he checked, he was relieved to find that Yasmine's Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream had been cast with the help of a treasure, and the treasure itself had been worn down as the time had passed.

In other words, once the magic treasure had worn out and depleted itself, the Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream would no longer exist.

After that, Alex found a wooden box next to the bones of the headteacher. The box was preserved and intact, completely untouched by the corrosion of time.

He thought that Yasmine had probably deliberately protected this box from being worn out by the Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream when he cast it.

Alex opened the box and found two jade tokens inside it. He reached out with his divine consciousness and sank into it, scanning them quickly. One of the jade tokens contained the teachings of Yorkshire Palace, which was a heavenly top-grade technique that was suitable for women to cultivate.

No wonder Yasmine had deliberately left his last words on the stone wall before he died.

As for the other token, it was a reward to whoever discovered the box.

On it was the spell for the Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream.

After reading it a few times, Alex laughed.

“This Yasmine is fascinating. The secret to the Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream is actually written in ancient Yin text. If I hadn’t received the inheritance from Ksitigarbha and learned how to read it, I wouldn’t even know what it says.”

“So, this Yasmine didn’t want anyone to learn the Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream, nor did she want to have someone hold something over her and leave a bad reputation for her. That was why she came up with such a solution instead. It’s a pity that no matter how many scenarios you planned for, you didn’t plan for the fact that I would also be well versed in Yin text.”

“The Ten Thousand Space-Time Stream, I kindly accept it!”

As for the teachings of Yorkshire Palace, Alex wasn’t interested in it at all. He didn’t intend to let those women at home learn it either, as he was afraid it would just be a fraud. If anything were to happen after they learned it, it would be too late for regrets then.

“Let’s go!”

Whoosh!

Alex walked past the boundary door, taking a step outside. He didn’t expect to find a waterfall with strong currents outside. If he wasn’t careful, he would fall in.

“What... ?!”

Bang!

Alex crashed down and felt that something was wrong. It felt like he had crashed into a person. There were people below the waterfall.

He quickly opened his eyes to check. He found that he happened to be lying on top of a woman. But, more importantly, the woman was not wearing any clothes.

Alex guessed that the woman was probably bathing under the waterfall.

“Uhm...”

‘She has quite a pretty appearance, and her body is also great! But, unfortunately, I don’t have time to appreciate the view. I have to slip away while she’s still unconscious!’

Just as Alex was about to get up, the woman’s eyes opened abruptly, staring straight at him.

“You pervert, you have a death wish!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2184

Ynes Larkin was about to lose her mind. She was the Holy Maiden of Yorkshire Palace, and she was irreproachable and incorruptible. Moreover, she was an established candidate as headteacher of Yorkshire Palace, who would hold the palace’s future!

And, this was the forbidden area of Yorkshire Palace.

But, forget about outsiders, even the people from the palace were not allowed to be in here. Only the Holy Maiden was allowed to train in here, which was why she had no qualms about taking off her clothes to practice under the waterfall.

She never thought that a man would fall from the sky. And it just so happened that the man had fallen on top of her. Not only has he seen her in all her naked glory, but he has also touched her, held her, even the most intimate part of her body had been touched!

'D*mn it, d*mn it, d*mn it!'

'He must have done it on purpose!'

This b*stard must have lurked around and sneaked into the sect's forbidden place in advance just to molest her.

Animal! Lecher! Pervert! She wouldn't be Ynes Larkin if she didn't kill this man!

When Alex saw her eyes open, he panicked.

Oh my god, this was a huge misunderstanding.

Boom!

Ynes unleashed ten percent of her powers. The rage she felt coursed through her.

A heavy palm struck Alex's chest.

'Holy sh*t, what powerful cultivation! 'This woman is terrifying!'

Alex was shocked, and they were too close, and to dodge the blow completely was impossible. More importantly, the woman's hand had no hesitation as it struck out, and she was as fast as lightning. When her palm landed on his body, Alex felt a huge, overwhelming force crash into him.

'She has to be at least in the fifth realm to Imminent Immortal!'

'She's so young, yet she has such unbelievable strength!'

Alex was sent flying backward in the air from that blow, and he rolled on the ground several times in an absolutely wretched manner, knocked out from the waterfall.

Initially, he thought he would cough up blood.

But, no.

The Mystic Armor under his skin in his body had risen automatically. It lit up with a faint, yellow light and easily absorbed the force from Ynes' palm. The remainder of the force from her blow only made Alex tumble back. Though he cut a sorry figure, he was unharmed.

'It's great Genbu's half tortoise armor that has merged with my Mystic Armor, which has boosted my passive defenses.'

'Surprisingly, it can ignore at least 10% of an attack from a fifth realm to Imminent Immortal!'

'Awesome, that's awesome!'

Ynes was surprised to see that ten percent of her powers had actually failed to kill Alex, but she seethed with rage in the next instant and rushed out from inside the waterfall.

She sprang and leaped up high in the air, crossing the waterfall easily. That wonderful body posture, clean, fair and tender skin exuded a boundless sight.

Alex glanced at her and hurriedly said, "Stop, beautiful lady. If I say I didn't do it on purpose, would you believe me?"

"I'll believe you when you're dead!" Ynes snarled.

Boom!

Boom, boom, boom!

She threw out her palms continuously, the water below the waterfall shaking from the impact, and water pillars shot out toward the sky.

Alex appreciated the view as he screamed on the inside from the pain. Even though he wasn't beaten black and blue, the woman's cultivation base was still much higher than his, and her attacks were fierce... Even with his disadvantage, he didn't feel good if he pulled out a powerful magic treasure to fight against her.

He had already taken advantage of her, and if he were to kill or injure her, that would just be too much.

"Beautiful, I really didn't mean it! Who would have thought that you'd be taking a bath under this waterfall?"

“Most of the time, only men dare to do it. So, you can’t blame me, right?”

Ynes was even angrier. “So, it’s my fault then? Firstly, this is the forbidden area in Yorkshire Palace. No one is allowed in here except me. Secondly, you don’t have any marks that prove you belong to our sect, so you’re not a disciple of Yorkshire Palace at all. You’ve trespassed on our forbidden area, hiding here to peep, and now you’re talking back?”

Alex was startled. “This is Yorkshire Palace?”

“Now you’re playing dumb with me?!”

Ynes saw that her palms were not hurting Alex, so she immediately grabbed her flying sword. Then, she continued her pursuit.

Alex jumped nimbly as he shouted, “Beautiful, beautiful! Can we not do this? Look, you’re a beautiful woman, and you’re jumping around in front of me with no clothes on. How embarrassing is that? You’re a woman. You should know how to be reserved.”

The anger that ran through Ynes had made her forget this point. However...

“I don’t have to be reserved toward a dead man!”

“Kill him, Seven Star Blade!”

Boom, boom, boom!

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2185

The earth and mountain shook, and even the waterfalls were interrupted.

The sky was filled with sword glares, to the point that Alex had to take multiple steps back up to a full three hundred meters. Then, finally, he caught sight of something under his feet, only to find a pile of women’s clothes. It was probably the clothes that Ynes Larkin had taken off.

He chuckled. “No need to be reserved? So, you’re very unrestrained then! But, if you don’t wear clothes, it’s a bit humiliating. It’s better to put them on!”

Alex grabbed the clothes and threw them over to her instantly. Then, he darted in the opposite direction.

He felt it only just now that there was something strange about this place. Not only did it restrict air movements, but even the gravity in this place was also much larger than in other places. It also disallowed the use of space techniques, so he couldn't even teleport even if he wanted to.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have fallen from above and into Ynes, which started the problem in the first place.

“Ahhhh!”

“You want to escape? Dream on!”

Ynes was pursuing him as though her life depended on it.

Alex had seen her body, and the only way to clear her reputation and name was for him to die. But, if he got away, what would happen then? She was the Holy Maiden of Yorkshire Palace, and that would be extremely embarrassing.

‘So, this sh*tty pervert have to die!’

Fortunately, there were formations in place in this forbidden area that restricted the usage of spells so that sh*tty pervert would not escape so easily. However, it seemed that he also had some skill, as he still wasn't dead yet.

No wonder he dared to sneak in here to do something so immoral.

She saw Alex running to the edge of the formation, which meant he would soon hit a restriction and cause him to bounce back. Ynes sneered coldly, the sword in her hands already gathering Chi as she prepared to kill him in one blow.

Then, a surprising thing happened.

Alex casually waved his hand and drilled out from the edge of the formation. He did not slow down at all.

Ynes froze.

Immediately after, the blood rushed to her head, and she felt as though she was going to lose her mind.

“Ahhhhhhh! How could this happen?! No, I must kill him!”

Ynes hurriedly tried to follow him but then quickly remembered that she didn't have any clothes. She hurried back and picked up her clothes on the ground.

With a burst of Chi, her wet clothes were immediately dried. It wasn't that she didn't have a storage treasure, but in this forbidden area, it was useless.

After Alex had broken out from the forbidden area, he saw the real Yorkshire Palace.

It was an ancient building. A majestic hall. A huge dojo. And many disciples were walking around.

He panicked a little. The place was too big, and he didn't know where to go. To avoid the few people he saw ahead of him, he took a few detours and got himself lost.

Just then, Ynes had managed to catch up to him.

'F*ck, she just won't let it go!' Alex lifted his legs and scrambled.

In this entire sect, the sad thing is the use of spatial techniques were restricted, and teleportation didn't do any good. He could only rely on his own two feet to run.

By this time, there was no way for him to avoid the crowd, and he could only hope to find an exit as soon as possible.

Soon, someone spotted them.

“Hey, isn't that the Holy Maiden, Ynes?”

“Why is she chasing after a man?”

“Who is that man? There's no mark of our Yorkshire Palace on him. He looks like an outsider.”

“After him! This guy must have offended the Holy Maiden!”

The chatter and buzz got louder, and all at once, the disciples of Yorkshire Palace surrounded Alex

One person who had a sharp eye caught sight of something pink fluttering on Alex’s waist. When they took a closer look, it seemed that it was a woman’s bra, and they were shocked.

“F*ck, look at that thing on his waist. Isn’t that a bra?”

“This sh*tty pervert, did he steal the Holy Maiden’s bra, and is that why she was chasing after him?”

When she heard the words of the disciples around them, Ynes nearly slipped and fell to the ground. No wonder it felt like something was missing when she had put on her clothes!

The number of people who came after Alex was increasing.

Alex was facing a huge problem! Damn! Who did he provoke?

Alex had only used the force field but had caused so much trouble. Fortunately, these people who surrounded him did not have a high cultivation level in general. They were much slower than him.

“Come on, brothers, we need to catch up with that son of a bitch!”

“What is happening? Who is that?” A fellow member of Yorkshire Palace who did not know the situation joined in and asked.

The former replied, “That son of a b*tch stole Ynes’ bra. Who knows what other outrageous things he had done? Let’s catch him and kill him!”

“Holy sh*t, it turned out to be a serial rapist. But, my goodness, since her bra has been stolen, was the Holy Maiden harassed?”

“Who knows?”

“Seeing how the Holy Maiden is about to faint from anger, I think we should hang him!”

Such remarks were repeated over and over again as more and more disciples got involved. There was a fire of gossip in everyone’s heart.

Moreover, the Holy Maiden, Ynes, was highly regarded as she usually wanted to look sophisticated. Now that such a nasty thing had happened, surely the news quickly spread out. When countless Yorkshire Palace disciples heard about it, they fumed with anger.

Rumors, too, began to spread uncontrollably, which became increasingly biased.

“The Holy Maiden was raped by a man who also stole her bra!”

“The Holy Maiden had a rendezvous with a man in the forbidden place. Something happened, and the man took the bra to expose the adultery. The Holy Maiden is now hunting down that man!”

“Goddess Ynes had a secret relationship with the man in the sect’s forbidden place. For as long as five years, the man has been hiding inside. However, they had a fallout this time, and this man escaped... I heard that the Holy Maiden also had an abortion for this man, sigh...”

No one knew where these rumors came from. It became huge very quickly.

Ynes, who was still desperately chasing after Alex, heard such remarks next to her and was instantly angry. She spurted a mouthful of blood, and her body felt weak. She was unable to chase after Alex anymore.

Without Ynes chasing after him, Alex finally breathed a sigh of relief. Then, he stopped to find that a woman’s bra was hanging on his waist.

“Holy sh*t, when did this get here?”

“I brought this thing with me all the way?”

“No wonder those people’s expressions were so odd. How do I prove my innocence now?”

Finally, Alex saw a hundred feet high gate in front of him. By the looks of it, it should be the exit gate of Yorkshire Palace. Alex was happy and hurriedly rushed out while taking off the bra as soon as he could.

"It does not seem good just to throw it away simply!"

"I shall put it away first. Then, I will find an opportunity next time to return this to her and explain myself!"

Otherwise, he would somehow become a perverted serial rapist, which was degrading.

But at this moment, a figure flashed before his eyes and instantly stood in front of him. It was a middle-aged woman.

Her aura fluctuated. Her cultivation was extraordinary at first glance, even more powerful than Ynes'. She must be a senior at Yorkshire Palace.

"Who are you?"

"Uh... Aunty, listen to my explanation..."

"What did you just call me?" The middle-aged woman froze for a moment and shouted coldly.

"Uhm..?"

'Could this woman look young but was very old and thought that I was being disrespectful?'

Then... "Oh, Grandma, listen to my explanation. I was just passing..."

"You are calling me 'grandma'? Impudent!"

Alex's expression stiffened. It was hard to communicate with this old woman.

Plus, he realized there were more and more pursuers behind, including some sect experts. Alex noticed that many were elders among the crowd, especially one who rushed in the forefront, an old lady with a murderous aura. She had a huge divine sword behind her.

“Shit!”

”The man has gotten himself into trouble. That woman has a prominent background. She can’t be the daughter of the Sect Leader, right?”

“There’s no choice but to fight it out.”

He yelled, “It is time to redeem oneself. Sorry, I have to upset you!”

He rose from the ground and attacked the middle-aged woman ruthlessly.

There was an explosion that shook the surroundings.

“The kid has quite the ability. No wonder he dared to sneak into the forbidden place of Yorkshire Palace. Darn it!”

Poof!

The bilocation was hit hard by the woman. It immediately turned into a seven-colored bubble. A soft sound was heard, and it burst. A paper man turned into two halves and fluttered down.

”Is it fake?”

”Damn!”

When she turned around aggressively, she saw that Alex had long since reached the door. He rushed out like a fast thunderbolt, turned outside the door, and she lost sight of him.

The woman was just about to chase him when a young female disciple rushed up and pulled her back. “Master, don’ t chase him! Let him go!”

“Let him go? Winona, who is this man?”

“He... He is Ynes’s love interest.”

“What did you say?” When the woman heard this, her expression changed so much that her body shook in disbelief. This middle-aged woman was none other than Ynes’s master, Breena Davey.

She was also the head of Yorkshire Palace.

The young woman next to her was Winona Zelda, Ynes's senior sister.

Winona was now actually in a very good mood. She had never felt so good before.

Although she was Ynes's senior sister, she could not wait for Ynes to die right away, so that the position of the Yorkshire Palace's Holy Maiden would be hers, instead of the way it was now, Ynes was noble as the Holy Maiden and the future Sect Leader, while she, as the senior sister, could not get anything.

Now, the opportunity had arrived. An inexplicable man had actually taken Ynes's corset and rushed out of the forbidden land.

This was a once in a lifetime opportunity.

In fact, Winona had deliberately spread the outrageous rumor in the sect just now to completely establish that Ynes had secretly fornicated with a man who spoiled her reputation.

Her master, Breena, knew Winona very well. After such a thing happened, even if Ynes was talented and her cultivation level was high, she would still be deprived of the title of Holy Maiden.

Even heaven was helping her!

Slap!

However, Breena heavily slapped Winona's face. "Do not speak nonsense. The Holy Maiden's reputation must not be denigrated."

Winona lowered her head, and an incomparable resentment rose in her eyes.

"Master..."

"You do not have to say much, Winona. I know what you are thinking. When I established your sister as the Holy Maiden and future Sect Leader back then, you were not convinced. But, you have to know that you are not talented enough, and your skill is not as good as others. If you want to ruin Ynes's reputation to steal the Holy Maiden status, you are playing it wrong."

After she had spoken, a group of people from Yorkshire Palace came rushing in.

The old lady, the Grand Elder of Yorkshire Palace, asked immediately, "Sect Leader, where is that bast*rd? Why did you let him go?"

"What bast*rd?"

Sect Leader Breena, who had just returned from outside, had no idea what was going on, but she suddenly recalled that Alex was holding a pink piece of clothing in his hand earlier.

That was...

The Grand Elder said painfully, "Oh, Ynes... Ynes actually hid a man in the forbidden place and fornicated with him for several years, and now that the east window has been discovered, that man even took her corset and waved it through the market. Ouch! It is very shameful indeed

"What?"

Sect Leader Breena was stunned for a moment after hearing the words of the Grand Elder.

If it was just what Winona had said, she didn't believe it. But now it was the Grand Elder who said it, plus there were so many disciples watching and listening without avoiding the issue, this could only mean one thing...

The matter had become a big deal. These disciples of Yorkshire Palace had already known about this. Thus, the Grand Elder was so straightforward about it.

Holy Maiden Ynes hid a man in a forbidden place while committing adultery... This was simply a bolt from the blue. At first, Breena could not believe it. But, she understood her own most beloved disciple well. How would she do such a hurtful thing?

"Grand Elder, speak with evidence!"

“You, did you see it with your own eyes?”

The Grand Elder said, “Not only did I see it with my own eyes, almost all the disciples of the sect saw it. That thief ran out of the forbidden place, with... The Holy Maiden’s corset. The Holy Maiden chased him all the way. Sigh, it is so sinful. Since when did Yorkshire Palace allow such a sinful act? The Holy Maiden hid a lover in the forbidden place. If such news spreads, the other sects will know. Then, they will blame and talk behind our backs. In the future, do we have the dignity to walk around the underworld as Yorkshire Palace’s disciples?”

“When we meet, people will ask, ‘I heard that your Holy Maiden is hiding a man in a forbidden place?’”

“My dignity is gone. I just want to die.”

The Grand Elder said with incomparable frustration, but not without exaggeration. As she spoke, she glanced at Winona. Her words contained hidden meanings.

The Grand Elder was none other than Melanie Zelda, who was Winona’s clan elder. Naturally, she hoped that Winona could become the Holy Maiden, too, and take over the Yorkshire Palace in the future. Unfortunately, the Grand Elder only had the right to suggest candidates to be the Holy Maiden. The Sect Leader was the one who had the power to make the final decision.

This time, Ynes was doing it. If she did not take advantage of it, wouldn’t it be silly?

After hearing this, Breana’s brimming anger made her stomp her foot on the ground. Instantly, a huge deep pit was made.

Heartache! What a shame!

“Ynes, come to see me in the main hall right now!”

The voice was loud and heard in the entire sect. Everyone heard it. They knew that something big had happened.

“Ynes is in big trouble. This time the master is furious. Will she kill her directly?”

”Who knows, if it’s true, I’m afraid it’s not just death!“

”Who would have thought that the Holy Maiden would be such a person. This Holy Maiden is simply a b*tch... The heralds who sell their bodies can still say that they were forced to do so because of the destitute of life, but she, Ynes, as a Holy Maiden, has done such a shameless thing. The reputation of my Yorkshire Palace is seriously damaged. She should be dipped in a pigsty.“

At this moment, countless people in the sect were pointing at Ynes behind her back and even cursing angrily.

When Ynes heard her master’s voice, her delicate body shook, and she also had a feeling that a storm was coming.

At this moment, even rivers and seas would not be able to douse her extreme hatred for Alex. Spitting out a mouthful of blood once again, Ynes’s face seemed to twist ugly for a few moments.

She then walked toward the main hall. Along the way, she encountered many sect disciples. There were also seniors among the sects.

The Holy Maiden was right in front of them. Some ordinary disciples, at first, only dared to whisper and point, but at this time, there was a sect senior who couldn’t help but curse at Ynes and then spit on her clothes. This time, it was like opening a Pandora’s Box.

The surrounding sects’ disciples were watching and followed suit.

”B*tch, corrupting the reputation of my Yorkshire Palace, shucks!“

”So-called Holy Maiden, worse than a prostitute, urgh!“

”I was wrong about you, yucks!“

”B*tch...“

There were lots of noises. Saliva, dirt, vegetable leaves, eggs...

By the time Ynes walked into the hall of Yorkshire Palace, she was in a miserable state. There was filth on her clothes, on her hair, and even on her face.

Breena had been waiting in the main hall for a long time.

When she saw that her beloved disciple was in such a mess, she was furious, but thinking of what she had done, she was a hundred and a thousand times more annoyed. Finally, Breena shouted, "Ynes, give me an explanation!"

Ynes' eyes went red. Then, kneeling, she said, "Master, I'm not wrong."

The Grand Elder, Melanie, sternly shouted, "Ynes, how dare you defend yourself? Everyone in the sect has seen it. You are simply stubborn and unrepentant! You have ruined the reputation of our Yorkshire Palace. You have done such a lowly and nasty thing. You are worse than an animal."

"Please, Temple Elder, sentence Ynes to death!"

A flash of joy seemed to course through Winona, who was on the side.

Sect Leader Breena stared at the Grand Elder in a domineering manner. "Wait, Grand Elder, isn't it a bit hasty to kill Ynes before an investigation?"

The Grand Elder said, "Sect Leader, the facts are in front of us. What is it that is unclear?"

Breena coldly snorted, "Who is that man? Have you ever tried to find out? When did he enter the forbidden place? Did you find out? What can a mere corset tell us?"

The Grand Elder shut her mouth and did not speak.

Breena said, "Ynes, you give me a truthful explanation. What is going on? That man, who is he?"

Ynes shook her head and said, "I don't know."

Winona jumped up and said, "Senior Sister, he came out of your forbidden place and took your corset. How could you not recognize him? Everyone is clear. You have been in seclusion in the forbidden land for almost a year this time. From the moment you entered the forbidden land, it was sealed. No one could enter. You are now saying that you don't know that man. Who would believe it?"

All the people present did not believe it. Even Breena didn't believe it.

Ynes said, "Master, I do not know. At that time, I was practicing under the waterfall. But, then, that man suddenly fell from the sky..."

She told what happened truthfully.

The Grand Elder coldly snorted, "A bunch of nonsense! This sect's forbidden land is protected by the Ten Extinction Formation, which forbids flying and entry. So, who can fall from the sky? If it falls, it can't hit you either."

Breena could not quite believe it. This kind of thing was too outrageous.

Ynes explained, "Master, what I said is true. If there is half a lie, hundreds and thousands of lightning will strike me, and I will fall into the Avici after death."

Winona laughed coldly. "You even dared to hide a playboy secretly. Who would believe your oath?"

Breena said, "Ynes, please come five meters forward."

Breena pressed her palm, and a thousand channels of light enveloped Ynes. A little later, Breena's face eased slightly and said, "Ynes' first son's body is still there, so it is clear that everything is a rumor."

"Master, this... You cannot release Ynes on this basis alone! Even if she still has the first son, she could still have been in there with the wild man to make out with each other, or even fornicate in an alternative way..."

"Grand Elder, you really have a lot of tricks!"

"This... Master, it is a fact that a man came out of the forbidden land. It is also a fact that he took the corset of the Holy Maiden! Based on this alone, Ynes is no longer worthy of becoming the Holy Maiden of our sect."

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2190

Melanie was the Grand Elder of Yorkshire Palace, no matter what. She still had a certain status in the sect.

In addition, Ynes' corset was indeed taken away by Alex, who also walked out of the forbidden land. Countless disciples saw it and could not deny it, and even if Breena wanted to help Ynes, she could not find a suitable reason.

Admittedly, as a Holy Maiden, she must have good character and clean practice. There could be no suspicion of impurity.

Breena finally said, "Ynes, I give you one year to capture that man and prove your innocence in this great hall!"

"Your Holy Maiden status is frozen for this year. Within one year, if you can't get that man back, your Holy Maiden qualification will be deprived forever. Moreover, the sect will recover your entire cultivation."

Winona jumped up. "Master, this punishment is too light. How could her qualification be frozen only when she did such an immoral act? Just cancel her qualification!"

"Humph!"

"Everything is still speculation. If an expert steals your corset and waved it through the market, can this also prove that you are immoral? Winona, put away your petty thoughts, or don't call me master in the future."

"Yes, Master!" Winona secretly gritted her teeth.

It was too unfair and too eccentric. Even at this stage, the old woman was still so defensive of Ynes. If it were her in this situation, this old woman would have beaten her to death a long time ago.

"Ynes, quickly change your clothes and go down the mountain immediately!"

"Yes, thank you, Master!"

Ynes' eyes were red, and she was grateful to her master. She hurriedly went back to her room to take a bath and rinsed off the filth on her body. When she came out of the tub clean, she found Breena appearing in front of her.

"Master..."

“Ynes, you were brought up by me. So, I know your character in and out. You would not keep a playboy in secret. But, the Grand Elder is united with Winona in stirring up trouble in front of everyone. So, I can only help you this much.”

“Also, today I met that man. He has many tactics, especially this paper doll illusion, which is out of this world. He nearly tricked me. When you meet him, you must be careful.”

“Here is a bottle of Lost Soul Pills. It is colorless and tasteless. You take it to deal with him. It may be useful.”

Ynes accepted it. “Thank you, Master.”

Breena said, “The underworld is dangerous. After you go down the mountain, be careful at all times.”*

Then, there was Alex. After escaping from Yorkshire Palace, he panicked and disappeared into a certain primitive forest.

He had no idea that his thoughtless mistake had caused an unprecedented calamity for the Holy Maiden of Yorkshire Palace.

“Senior Yasmine, what you asked me to do, I’m afraid it will take some time before I can do it.”

“In this state now, I’m afraid I’ll be besieged just after I enter Yorkshire Palace!”

After a few flashes, he came to rest by a stream. He didn’t know where this place was.

Previously, when he was with Frostine, he did not properly consult the Southern Peak map to see which territory Yorkshire Palace was in. He had no concept in his head... However, after thinking though, having just exited under the Misty Swamp, he had no idea how the Usoro family was doing now. In any case, he must go to see them first.

Then, it was to find where the Phoenix Sect was.

The reason for doing this was he heard that the rules in the Phoenix Sect were complete, which allowed cultivation to cross into the realm of the Phoenix Sect Sanctuary officially. Now, he wanted to go inside the Nirvana where his daughter was and take her out. To do this, his cultivation must have reached the Immortalization stage.

Alex jumped into the stream and brought some water to his lips to drink.

At this time, a figure quietly appeared by the stream, looking at Alex standing inside the stream to drink water. It did not move and did not make a sound. However, Alex had long been aware of it.

Through the reflection of the stream, he could see the person wearing a silver mask. From the height and body type, it was a man.
