The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2331

It was then that the colorful flames turned into a fire snake, lunging towards the Peak Lord, burning his entire body once again. He screamed in horror and agony.

All the members of the Sun Shrine immediately came forth to help him put out the fire, but they ended up disappointed.

The flame was a mixture of true fire of the Sun and Samadhi. If a person were to be lit up with this, there was no way to extinguish it. All they could do was wait until the fire burned its victim to the ground.

However, it was quite fast. Within thirty seconds, the Peak Lord died a horrible fate. His body turned into mere ashes. It was just way too brutal.

Alex was quite surprised as well. 'This fire is way too strong, what if I accidentally hurt someone on our side? It's like I became a fire-breather or something. That went beyond my expectations...'

However, he then realized that the fire energy he swallowed was decreasing at a rapid pace. Still using the special breathing method, the energy within the flames was being absorbed by his organs. He was able to sense newfound power within his body.

Due to the heat, he tried to touch his face to check on himself. Instead, this gave the others, and himself, quite a shock. He managed to tear a layer of skin down from his forehead. It was dangling in front of his eyes.

"What the... What's happening?"

"I'm shedding?"

Alex's hands started shaking. It was just too weird. He didn't think he'd tear the skin off of his entire face. Some of the female members of the Plenilune sect even felt like puking after seeing this. Alex then tore the whole thing off and threw it to the ground. It was thin, half-transparent, but complete, there was a little dust on it as well.

Despite having a layer of skin torn off, Alex could sense the changes on his skin. It was soft and smooth, making him look like he was glowing.

“Are you... Even human? Could you be a demon?” one of the Peak Lords was petrified.

‘How could humans ever shed like this? Only snakes and other similar beings would do so.’

Some couldn’t help but make their own guesses. ‘Is Alex a snake demon who learned how to shapeshift?’

Alex cracked his neck and moved his shoulders slightly, cracking his joints loudly. “It won’t be polite if I don’t pay back the favor. You guys fed me some flames, so now you get to eat my fists.”

Alex was literally fired up. The sudden expansion of energy within his body was filling up his organs, so he felt the need to move around to release some of this energy.

“Argh!”

Leaping from the ground, he used his own stamina instead of Instant Teleportation. Despite that, he managed to move three times the speed of sound, as thunder and lightning surrounded his figure. He wanted to slaughter the Peak Lords of the Sun Shrine.

These people have been murdering the members of the Plenilune sect. They even tried using extreme methods to obtain his treasures. Hence, they deserved to die a horrible death.

“Dragon Tusk Punch!”

“Dragon Tusk Punch!”

“Another Dragon Tusk Punch!”

Alex yelled, using the same attack this whole time, not intending to change his methods.

His movements were swift and rapid, each punch landed accordingly. As soon as he captured the Peak Lords, he would deliver multiple punches to each of them. In just a blink of an eye, he was able to kill off three of them.

The rest of the Peak Lords shivered with fear after seeing this.

‘That was way too brutal. Is this his true strength? It’s like he’s some large beast!’

Donovan seemed to be wavering, wanting to retreat. Alex was just way too strong for him, and his current self would most likely die here if they fought. Hence, escaping was the only thing he could think of now. However, the silver light from the back of the sanctuary shone way too brightly. He knew that some kind of rare treasure must have been formed, so he wasn’t willing to give up on that yet.

Whoosh...

Donovan clenched his teeth and decided to take the risk anyway. He assumed that he would be able to escape quickly after snatching the rare treasure from the sanctuary. After he became stronger, he would come back to defeat Alex.

‘Oh! And that Xavion Sword as well.’

He figured that it was no normal weapon. As he made his decision, Donovan let out a roar and rushed in, attempting to take the Xavion Sword with him.

In actuality, he had miscalculated. Just as he was about to take the sword, it appeared to have merged with the ground. Not only could he not bring it with him, but the force yanked him back, causing him to fall on his butt.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2332

‘What?’

‘It’s this heavy?’

Donovan couldn’t believe this was real at all. With his cultivation level, he could at least lift items that weighed tons with his arm. Even if the sword were to weigh ten or more tons, it should still move, even just a little.

Nevertheless, it didn’t budge one bit.

‘There’s no way. If it really is this heavy, how did Rockefeller use it? Besides, if the ground couldn’t withstand such weight, it would’ve already sunk’

“What is this?” Donovan was in shock, but he remembered how easy it was for Alex to swing it. He refused to believe that Alex’s arm was this much stronger than his. Hence, the problem had to be with the sword.

Taking a good look at the sword, he noticed an ancient word carved on it, the word ‘Xavion’. He felt as if his heart was hit by a hammer, it started thumping very hard.

‘Xavion?’

‘This is the Xavion Sword?!’

‘Oh my god, this is what I call a true treasure! I have to get this.’

He was starting to regret that he didn’t take much notice of this sword. That was why he was focused on slaughtering the members of the Plenilune sect when Alex was being trapped in the tower.

‘I should’ve taken the sword for myself at the time, but now...’

“I refuse to believe that I can’t move it!”

He then took a golden talisman and slapped it on his body.

It was a rare Strength Boosting talisman from ancient times. When activated, it could increase strength by twofold for a short period of time. If one were to have the strength to lift ten tons, they would lift twenty tons in ten minutes. One could carry boulders if one wanted to.

“Argh!!! Rise!” Donovan screamed, putting both hands on the hilt of the sword, using all his might to lift it. Two harsh footsteps were imprinted into the ground, yet the sword remained on the ground, not moving an inch. Donovan refused to accept this and continued trying to use brute force.

Suddenly, a loud noise came from behind. “Pfft!”

Donovan’s face flushed red.

On the other hand, Hermione covered her nose and took two steps back, visibly disgusted. “Ugh, how disgusting. You farted in public.”

Donovan was quite frustrated as well, but he didn't want to give up. After taking another breath, he used all his might once more.

Pfffft

However, he let out a louder fart, and his pants were almost ruined by this.

Serene couldn't take it anymore, let alone Hermione, who was just a few feet away from him. That was because that was clearly a wet fart. They were worried that he might crap in his pants if he used too much strength again.

Hermione started complaining. "Hey, do you have any decency at all? Don't take a dump here at the Plenilune sect! Even if you wanted to, you could just use the toilet. Are you trying to kill us with that smell? Why would you sh*t in your pants?!"

Donovan wanted to bang his head to the ground. He had never been more humiliated in his entire life.

Boom!

Just then, Alex swung his golden punches towards an elderly Peak Lord's forehead. This punch was filled with Ksitigarbha's divine power, along with the strong energy of the Ten-Point Forbidden Spell. His speed had even increased to being four times the speed of sound.

With an attack of such short-range, the Peak Lord couldn't escape at all. His head exploded from the impact right there and then.

It was extraordinarily gory and terrifying. At this point, seven of the twelve Peak Lords were dead, and one was severely injured.

The Peak Lords of the Sun Shrine weren't just a bunch of nobodies, after all. All of them were Peak Imminent Immortals, yet they were being killed off as if they were mere livestock, dying from just one punch.

All of the members of the Plenilune sect were shivering with fear as well. It reminded them about the monk who tried to pretend to be the sect master and kidnapped Frostine, torturing her here, every single day.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2333

Alex had overheard Donovan's farting as well, it sounded especially disgusting.

He looked towards the sword with reluctance, since Donovan was still holding onto it. He originally intended to take it back using his divine consciousness, but since he was reluctant to, he gave up on that. Instead, he brought out Athena's golden spear and lunged over.

"Donovan, you tried killing both your father and sister. You don't belong to this world, I will punish you in the name of justice!"

"If you admit your faults, immediately hand me over all your mystical tools, like the Five Elements Flag and the storage ring. I might spare your life if you're willing to change."

With this, all the members of the Plenilune sect were puzzled. Hermione was rolling her eyes as well.

Alex sounded quite dignified during the first half of his sentence, but his image completely shattered as soon as he continued speaking. It was obvious that he was just jealous of the mystical tools Donovan had.

"Dream on!"

Donovan decided to make his final struggle and tried lifting the sword again. Yet he really didn't have the strength to do so.

Alex smiled. "Oh, you want the Xavion Sword? Awh, you could've just said so, I'll give it to you."

Alex gestured towards the sword, making it beam brightly. Since Donovan was facing the sword directly, he was able to feel a tremendously powerful energy coming from the sword, along with a terrifying gust of malicious Chi.

He was so scared that he could feel his soul leaving his body, so he didn't dare to hesitate any longer and backed away, bringing out a golden shield to protect himself with.

Clang!

The blade of the sword slashed right onto the large shield. That was Athena's golden shield in Donovan's hands.

Donovan's pupils were starting to tear as blood dripped down his arm. The shield flew out of his hands right after, yet it didn't break at all, which surprised Alex.

That was an attack from the Xavion Sword itself, which indicated that Athena's treasures were indeed quite good, strong in defense.

Alex's eyes darted away and rushed towards the shield, grabbing it as soon as he could.

"That's mine now!"

On the other hand, Donovan didn't try to take it back, his target was the thing in the back of the sanctuary. He then threw an oval shaped thing towards Hermione, yet smaller than an egg. After that, it shone a bright light, exploding as soon as it fell to the ground.

'F*ck, it was a grenade!'

However, the explosion was hundred times more powerful than that of normal grenades. It caused a deep pit into the ground, even the ten meter tall tree nearby broke in half because of this. The trunk fell slowly, crushing all the buildings in its way.

Despite this, the ancient building where Frostine was at wasn't affected, it didn't even suffer a scarpe. It was as if it was a celestial building, unaffected by any explosion in this reality.

Hermione didn't die from the explosion as well. She managed to use one of her trump cards at the very last moment, it was the Golden Body that Xienna gave her. In reality, it was just a strand of hair, sealed with a projection of Xienna inside, planted on Hermione's scalp. With this, she could save herself in crucial moments.

It was obvious that Xienna treated her disciple well, since she gave her three strands in total, which meant that Hermione had three surviving chances in total. She used one back when she was swallowed by the great Genbu, and she used another today.

Xienna's figure instantly showed up and took the explosion for her. However, the projection instantly vanished after the explosion, since it was so strong that it could only block it off.

Donovan then rushed to the back with great speed. Following that was a loud horrifying wail, as Donovan was hit back out, rolling over the ground like a bowling ball. His face was completely covered with blood.

“Uhm...” Everyone froze.

Donovan's actions were quite embarrassing. He was drenched in blood, his nose was crooked, and two of his front teeth were also knocked out. He looked terrible as if his image of being the first prodigy to emerge in ten thousand years was no more.

Even the members of the Plenilune sect gasped in shock.

‘What happened back there?’

‘Was that cruel man injured that badly?’

Just then, a figure slowly walked out of the sanctuary. It was Frostine. Even though she had only been away for a few days, she looked like a completely different person. Her entire body was radiating with divine glow, her beauty even more ethereal and her figure fitter than before.

She exited through the door. Behind her was a vague image of a Nine-Tail, following her closely behind. Her fiery red eyes looked down on everyone. Frostine was, in fact, the one who kicked Donovan out. Her powers exceeded him.

Before she received the legacy, her cultivation level was merely Spirit Severing. Donovan, on the other hand, was fifth realm to Imminent Immortal. The two had such a significant difference in power, yet the tables had turned.

“Why did you...” Serene seemed upset though Frostine managed to defeat Donovan easily. Her eyes were filled with sorrow and disappointment.

Whenever the Nine-Tails received a legacy, a certain phenomenon would occur during the consolidation phase. The more time one took to consolidate, the more power they would receive.

Frostine, however, took only one day to consolidate her powers.

Serene remembered that back then, she had to use up an entire week. That meant that the power Frostine received was just one-seventh of what she received then. In conclusion, it meant that the consolidation phase had failed.

She sighed, knowing that the reason would possibly be because of what Frostine had experienced. Her roots have been destroyed due to the cruel methods the Yavda monk used to forcefully activate her blood, making her end up like this.

Someone who had their legacy ruined wouldn't be able to go far, to begin with.

'How could she become Plenilune Sect master?'

'So this was all for naught!'

Alex had no clue about the old lady's mixed feelings, but he was exhilarated to see that Frostine's injuries had mainly healed up since she showed up with such power.

"Sis, you're alright?"

Frostine turned to him with a sweet smile. "Mhm. Thank you, Alex..."

Alex shook his head as he looked toward Donovan. "Let's talk after dealing with this Sun Shrine guy."

After that, he leaped from the ground and attacked with the golden spear swiftly.

This time, Donovan felt like his life was actually flashing before his eyes. Frostine had given him quite a concussion, after all, and some of his ribs were broken.

His current powers were very limited.

'I'm done for!'

'I, the son of luck, have unexpectedly been defeated time and time again after meeting this Rockefeller guy! Looks like I'll die in his hands today. What a pity!' Donovan thought

At the very last moment, the jade pendant he wore shattered into pieces as a ball of white light dawned upon them. It seemed quite malicious.

Alex could feel a massive, terrifying presence descending. Chill ran up his spine, and goosebumps sprouted all over his body.

Without hesitation, he backed away the quickest he could, dodging whatever that was coming.

Shing!

A sword came from the skies, slashing down on Alex's initial position.

It was horrible. The law power was smashed into pieces, and the space around the area shook as it formed a void within the cracks.

Everyone there started backing away, visibly frightened. The space around Donovan had turned into a vacuum that encompassed a 500 meter radius.

Alex clutched his left side. Although he dodged with great speed, he was still hurt by that white light. It had almost shot through his intestines, and Neela's scales couldn't block it either.

That beam was definitely shining at over ten times the speed of sound.

'What was that?'

'How was it that powerful?'

Alex was slightly shaken. The sky sword's power was way overwhelming. It was completely out of his hands. Such power only meant that it was stronger than an Imminent Immortal. Even the Yadav Akaaran Buddha was no match for this.

Moreover, this light had alarmed the Mystic Maiden in his mind palace. Speaking to him via telepathy, she said, "You're in big trouble!"

"What trouble?" Alex asked.

"Just wait!"

Moments later, Donovan's body exploded with light that glowed with an intense aura, as if a mystical master had descended onto this planet. Within the light, a young madame floated. Her eyebrows were raised, seemingly enraged. "Who wants to kill my son?"

A woman, who claimed that Donovan was her son, was standing up for him. This meant that the woman was his mother, Dolores Orlando.

Donovan was puzzled as well, he had never seen this woman before. He had never had a mother in his entire life. However, she seemed strong, and she popped up out of nowhere just to save him. This was exactly what he needed right now, so this was great.

'That means... Yet another chance!'

'Who cares who she is! Who cares why she abandoned me! As long as she can help, I don't mind calling her my mom!'

"Him!" Seeming quite excited, one of the Peak Lords pointed toward Alex and yelled. "He wants to kill our sect master! This man is also extremely arrogant and evil! He stole the sect master's fiancée and treasures. He's our sect master's arch enemy!"

Upon hearing this, the young madam asked, "Sect master? Isn't Gabriel Simpson the sect master?"

The Peak Lord replied, "Uhm... The new sect master has already taken over. Sect Master Simpson retired."

He didn't dare say that Donovan had murdered Gabriel because he had no idea what the young madam's relation to Gabriel was.

Alex spoke up.

“Retired? Bullshit, they literally overthrew him. All of you worked together to kill your sect master. Oh, and your little son here was the murderer of his own father. Tsk.. tsk...”

“Don’t spout such nonsense!” snapped Donovan. “Mom, why would I kill Dad? He killed him! If it weren’t for him, why would Dad even die?”

He even called them his parents naturally, not feeling any guilt within his heart. To him, it didn’t matter what he had to do, so long it was of help to him. He could even grovel at her feet, let alone calling them his parents.

This was going exactly the way he wanted. The young madam was flattered by how Donovan called out to her. Her expression softened as she turned to him. “Oh my dear son, you have suffered so much! Normal people couldn’t possibly kill their own father, and anyone who could is unique!”

“My son, Mom knew that you would kill Gabriel someday... And I don’t blame you. This is just what we call fate. Once you’ve overcome this obstacle, your life would be perfect.”

This left everyone wide-eyed and mouth agape.

She then turned to Alex, her eyes becoming tremendously cold. “I don’t care who you are, but you’re dead meat if you dare to try and kill my son. I will find you, no matter where you run. Everyone here must die. This is a promise from me, Dolores Orlando! just you wait. Your death is near.”

The woman’s aura was immense, growing stronger by the second, making everyone want to fall to their knees. However, Alex was quite used to threats at this point. He immediately caught on that she couldn’t do anything to him right now. No matter how powerful she was, her current appearance was not her true form.

‘F*ck. Why should I be scared of her, then? Even if I die, I’ll die a warrior!’

“You old hag. Who are you trying to scare, huh?!”

“Buzz off now, will you?!”

Alex lifted the Xavion sword and swung it harshly.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2336

The unique Heavenly Sword flew across the sky, headed towards Donovan and his mother, before viciously slashing down.

Boom!

Ten thousand sword manes smashed down, and the ground cracked open. The field behind Plenilune Sect was directly split into a canyon. It was so powerful that Donovan and his mother were also submerged in it. However, there was no violent resistance as imagined, as if they were a pair of mortals who had long since perished under a single sword.

However, this really should not be.

Just a moment ago, that woman was unbeatable, as if she was the mother of the three thousand worlds.

The fierceness of that slash coming in was also not in line with the current situation. By the time the dust in the sky fell, the mother and son were completely out of sight.

Did they run away?

At this time, a voice surprisingly called out amid the coldness of the woman.

“Xavion Sword?”

“I never thought that this legendary Sword of Heaven would appear here.”

“Human brats. You have successfully angered me. Enjoy your last life. Within three days, I will come to take your head, and collect the Xavion Sword.”

The voice came from high in the sky, but no one was visible.

After the words were spoken, five divine colors flashed in the sky with a human figure in the middle. Quickly, it disappeared. If one did not look carefully, one could not see the difference.

They ran away!

Hermione breathed a sigh of relief and muttered, “This woman with such a big mouth really thinks she is the Western Queen. How annoying.”

The moment she said that, something unexpected happened.

The woman's voice could be heard again. "Very well. A small human ant like you dares talk about me behind my back. After three days, I'll kill you too."

Hermione's jaw dropped, her mouth agape. She never expected that the woman hadn't left. Nonetheless, everyone present was covered by divine senses but couldn't find that person's presence.

"Little slave, there is no need to search."

"She's gone."

In the mind palace, the Mystic Maiden spoke to Alex. Frowning, Alex asked, "The big trouble you were talking about just now. Is she the one?"

The Mystic Maiden seemed to be muttering to herself. "I didn't expect Peacock Heavenly King clan to still be in this realm. Little slave, when she said she would come to you in three days, she wasn't just saying that for fun. She would really come. I know this clan's behaviour to the bone."

"Peacock Heavenly King?" Alex froze for a moment.

Alex was thinking about the young woman who spoke about humans. So, was she not human?

"Where is her cultivation level at?" Alex asked.

"Her cultivation level is still unknown, but killing you will be a breeze. From the power of that slash just now, she is at least a great Golden Immortal demon. To kill a mortal like you, a finger would suffice."

Alex didn't expect Donovan's mother to be of such grandiose origins. A massive peacock demon she certainly was. On the other hand, Donovan was half-human half-demon, or a demon-human in short.

"Mystic Maiden, I am now under you. You will not see me die without saving me, right? You are the Mystic Maiden who can easily kill the Yadav Akaaran Buddha. Super goddess, if this little brother is killed, your reputation won't look good, will it?"

"You are not a little brother, but a little slave." The Mystic Maiden corrected him.

Alex cursed in his heart for a while.

Finally, while clenching his teeth, he goaded, "Well, I am the little slave. Now the little slave is in trouble, does my white lotus-like female master have any advice?"

When the Mystic Maiden heard Alex complimenting her as a white lotus flower, she was overjoyed. "Okay, since you are so good at talking, I will give you guidance. One word, run!"

"And?"

"Nothing else. Run until she can't catch up with you."

Alex wanted to vomit blood on the spot.

'This is your so-called guidance? I think you are giving me a word puzzle. The Mysterious Maiden of Nine Heavens is nonsense. She does things with deception and is rather unreliable.'

Of course, he did not dare to say these words.

At this time, seeing that the momentum had gone, the remaining Peak Lords of the Sun Shrine immediately ran since Donovan's mother simply did not care about their life or death.

They did not want to die in the hands of Alex, the devil.

"Trying to run? Who agrees?"

Alex was annoyed, inexplicably provoking a great Golden Immortal demon. An instantaneous shift blocked the front of a Peak Lord. The Dragon-Tusk Punch, with a strong and overbearing fist, swung out fiercely.

The Peak Lord's heart jumped, and he hurriedly crossed his arms, his true essence pulsating, blocking Alex.

However, it did not help.

Alex's punch was actually accompanied by the sound of a dragon's groan and an elephant's roar. It directly smashed his arm bones and again forward with a punch down, which smashed his chest. The Peak Lord collapsed, bloody and gruesome. He seemed to be unable to live any longer.

On the other side, Frostine also dodged to kill the enemy. She ghosted around with her nine tails. Both of her eyes were bloody red. The foxtail that had been retracted popped out again.

There were supernatural power and the Lunar Eclipse Cut.

Ahead rushed up high.

Hermione, with the last energy of the strange blood, cut down that Peak Lord who had been injured by Alex with a sword.

At this point, of the twelve Peak Lords, only two remained. The two had long been trembling in fear, their legs almost unstable. Regret filled their heart. If they had known that this would be the current result, they would not have rob Alex's treasures.

This was not a robbery. It was simply a way to get killed.

Poof!

A man, facing this high risk, directly knelt on the ground in a naked manner and bowed very spinelessly, "I surrender. Spare my life. I am willing to abandon the darkness and join the Plenilune Sect."

"Surrender? Fine, then you kill him!"

Alex pointed at the last Peak Lord with the golden divine spear in his hand.

The last one, shivering at the words, hurriedly plunged his entire body to the ground and roared, "Big brother, don't kill me. I, too, am willing to give up the darkness and join the light. I am willing to be a cow and a horse for big brother. Oh, oh, I am willing to give all my belongings to you, brother. I will give you whatever you want. I still have two concubines at home, beautiful as flowers..."

While saying that, he took out a storage ring and put it at Alex's feet. He also took the initiative to remove the soul ban on the ring.

Alex rolled his eyes. "I'm not a rag collector. What can I do with your concubines?"

As soon as he spoke, he felt a few very harsh gazes from several women around him. To liken women to rags and asking what could be done?

Alex was asking about the purpose of the concubines and not other meanings!

"Haha! I'm just kidding! Come on, look what's inside this ring?"

In order to divert everyone's attention, Alex picked up the ring on the ground. He did not even look at it but directly poured and spread it all out on the ground.

Its contents were like a small mountain falling down. Infinite amounts of treasures, spiritual stones, spiritual herbs, elixirs, and all kinds of precious refitting materials were seen.

The crowd present was shocked to the core.

"There is so much. We are going to get rich!" Hermione exclaimed.

Alex stroked his chin and appeared satisfied. It was only that the things inside this one ring were more than what had been turned over in the vault of the Plenilune Sect, showing that the Sun Shrine really overflowed with valuable items!

Without saying a word, Frostine directly ran to collect the rings on the corpses of the remaining Peak Lords. Including Gabriel's, there were twelve rings. Finally, he looked at the kneeling Peak Lord. "Just your ring is left, won't you give it?"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2338

Not willing to give?

Wouldn't that be really looking for death?

That Peak Lord almost cried and was busy taking out his own storage ring to hand it over to Frostine. However, after taking a look at its contents, Frostine wasn't at all happy.

Frostine also poured out the contents of his ring. Compared to the one next to him, he was simply shy in his pocket. There were not many good things.

Hermione sneered, "You are both Sun Shrine's Peak Lords. He has so many belongings, and yours is only this much. Is it your lack of ability or lack of sincerity? Forget it, Master. It's better to kill him with one punch. It's a waste of air to keep him anyway."

Alex nodded his head.

The Peak Lord hurriedly shouted, "Wait a minute, I... I really only took this storage ring when I came out. But I still have it at home. There are many more, though. I'll take you to them! Also, I have the key to the Sun Shrine's treasure vault. As long as you go to the Sun Shrine, all of the things in the vault are yours."

Alex's eyes flashed for a moment. He placed prohibitions on the bodies of the two Peak Lords successively.

Afterward, he let Frostine put all the treasures on the ground and back into the ring. "Senior sister, I have something to tell you. Forget it, Hermoine, and... Madame Coufal. Come over to listen!"

"Wait!"

Frostine spoke up and looked at Hermione, "Senior brother, what's with this woman? What is her relationship with you?"

One had to know that the Yggdrasill family destroyed the Uoro family. Countless Uoro clansmen died in the hands of the Plenilune Sect. Hermione played a key role, thus, Frostine's hatred for her ran deep.

Now Alex was walking with her, and she couldn't accept it in any way.

"Uh, she..."

"He is my grandmaster!" Hermione hugged Alex's arm and said proudly, "My master is a superior goddess and has had four children with her husband."

Frostine, I don't know how you got entangled with my grandmaster, but I don't have any wrong thoughts about my grandmaster. My grandmaster will kill you if he finds out."

Frostine had awakened the bloodline, accepted the inheritance, with her force value rocketing up. This was followed by a ghosted nine tails. She now had complete confidence to kill Hermione.

"Your master is your master. It has nothing to do with you!"

"Let's settle the feud between our two families at our hands. I'll duel with you, life or death!"

As Frostine said this, she thought of her father and fellow countrymen's tragic death. Unable to calm down, her chest was filled with killing intent.

"Stop, stop, stop!"

Alex hurried to stop. "She is not a member of the Yggdrasill family. She is the same as you... She has the Nine-Tails bloodline..."

Alex briefly said the real identity of Hermione. The key was, behind Hermione, stood Xienna, who might have given her something. Frostine and Hermione really wanted to fight each other. It was hard to say who would win or lose. just based on Xienna's projection for a brief moment just now, the threat was still quite large. Of course, the most important thing now was not these things.

Rather, Donovan's old mother would kill them.

Alex confided the information that the Mystic Maiden had said to him to each person.

"What? A Peacock Demon at least at Golden Immortal?" Serene was shocked at the words. If it were two thousand years ago, she would not be afraid. At that time, she had awakened five tails, had five nine-tailed divine abilities and had countless heavenly treasures of weaponry with extraordinary power.

Now, she was not very different from an ordinary old lady. How could she have the ability to fight against a great Golden Immortal demon?

Hermione couldn't understand. "Didn't you say that the rules of heaven and earth are missing, and there is no longer a way to break through the Immortalization in the world? How could the great Golden Immortal demon exist?"

Serene shook her head, "It cannot be understood in this way. During the end of ancient times, the Grand Emperor Rowan broke the six reincarnations at the cost of blocking the universe's rules. The purpose was to stop the footsteps of the undying clan. But, the universe, the ancient sacred places, superspecies, the prehistoric giant race were all many. There was even colossal cultivation of heaven and earth which couldn't ban the existence of the Ten-Point Forbidden Spell! Those species that have existed for an unknown number of thousands of years, even from the beginning of the chaos of heaven and earth, had an unknown number of divine weapons in their hands. Using such divine weapons, they can still advance, but they are scarce, and there is no way for ordinary people to obtain them."

Alex listened and secretly nodded his head.

Inside his body, he had the Chaos Tree, and the Chaos Tree would be able to create complete law power that could help him cross the Immortalization stage.

Earlier, the people of the Sun Shrine had long ago shouted out that Alex possessed the Chaos Tree. Serene was also surprised in her heart, but she had not obtained it yet. So naturally, she did not know that the Chaos Tree had such benefits.

Hermione was surprised. "So, as long as you have the divine weapon, we can still advance to Immortalization?"

Serene explained, "But such a divine weapon is legendary. It is very difficult to get! Once, there were also big clans in America. In the previous three thousand years, I do not know how many experts went around looking, digging the ancient land, to find that kind of divine weapon. But, all that came to nothing. There were rumors that the deepest part of the Misty Swamp was once the center of the ancient times where the gods battle. There were countless divine weapons left inside, unfortunately... "

"Unfortunately, what happened?" Alex yearned for that place himself.

This was because the Crazy Crone had come out from there. Dave had also been there.

“That is a cursed land!”

“Those who go in will surely die!”

Seeing Serene’s expression, Alex’s heart moved. “Madame Coufal, did you also go in there once?”

Although Serene was still a little bothered by Alex calling her Madame Coufal, she didn’t say anything. “I have been there, and it turned out to be like this,” she nodded.

Alex was shocked, “So, rumor has it that two thousand years ago, tens of thousands of experts from Pompeii Fairyland entered the Misty Swamp. Finally, two and a half people came out, one of which, was you, Madame Coufal.”

Seeing Serene nodding her head, Alex could not help but compliment her. He did not expect that she was a great person who ranked alongside Crazy Crone.

However, these remarks also proved the Mystic Maiden correct. Donovan’s mother could really be a great Golden Immortal demon or a direct descendant of the Peacock King. For such a person to come and kill them, it was genuinely terrifying.

Those present collectively lost their words upon thinking of the terrible consequences.

“Run!”

Serene said, “She will definitely look for the Plenilune Sect, and when that happens, none will be able to escape.”

“What should the Plenilune Sect do?” Hermione asked.

Serene replied, “As long as people are alive, the Plenilune Sect will not extinguish. From now on, the Plenilune Sect is closed. After breaking up, each sect disciple will have to make a living! I hope that one day, the Plenilune Sect can also reappear on earth.”

As she spoke, she looked at Frostine and sighed. Initially, she still had hope for Frostine, but unfortunately...

Alex keenly perceived her gaze, and his heart thumped.

"Madame Coufal, didn't my senior sister accept the inheritance? Why look so unhappy?"

Once Serene related the tale, Frostine sighed long and hard.

"Senior sister, it's okay," Alex comforted. "Even if the inheritance is incomplete, that's nothing. We can go look for other opportunities! Madame Coufal, you are familiar with this place. If the Golden Core Demon catches up with us, where do you think we should run to?"

"The Dead Zone!" Serene replied.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2340

Alex looked deep into Serene's eyes, making sure that she was not lying to deceive herself.

"Good, let's go to the Dead Zone!"

Alex made an immediate decision. The current situation was urgent as the great Golden Immortal demon would soon come to chase and kill. A barrel of small demons might even be coming along. He could not stay here and wait for death. Most importantly, the Mysterious Maiden of Nine Heavens in the mind palace was a fake. It would not work after being ruthless once.

"However, before I go, I have to get to the Sun Shrine to move their treasure trove!"

This was his grandfather's. Alex dared to burn him with the Fire Tower till his hair and eyebrows were singed. The whole body was naked, a really humiliating scene. Alex did not grab something to comfort him. Was he still Alex?

"Uh, not right..."

He slapped his bald head, and a sudden awakening struck him.

“What’s wrong? What’s not right?” Frostine asked.

Alex answered, “I forgot one thing.”

”What is it?”

“A woman...”

“I also remember Mica Simpson!” Hermione called up.

Some had forgotten about the woman completely. Frostine did not see the image of Mica being pierced by Alex and did not know that she was still pressed in the Fire Tower, but Hermione and Serene both saw it clearly. As women, their hearts still skipped a beat when they thought about that scene.

The two looked at Alex and their expressions became odd.

“What now, master? If Mica gets pregnant, my master will be unhappy with you, right?”

“Mica? Pregnant?” Frostine’s brow furrowed as she became more and more confused.

Alex hurriedly chipped in. “Don’t talk nonsense, how can she be pregnant? My situation with her is not like that at all.” That being said, Alex still hurriedly rushed out.

As a result, he found... That the person was gone.

The Fire Tower of the Universe was still there, and the Chaos Bell was still inside the Fire Tower. After picking up the Chaos Bell, however, he found that there was no one there.

“No way, where did the person go?”

“A big change of life!”

Alex was a little confused, and so were the few women who had rushed here after hearing the commotion. Serene called a few people from the sect who were around and asked them if they had noticed any movement under the Fire Tower.

No one knew. It was as if the woman inside had disappeared into thin air.

Immediately afterwards, Gabriel's body was discovered to be gone. It had vanished without a trace.

"Donovan is known as the son of luck," explained Hermione. "There was one when he had countless strange encounters. He also brought many benefits to the Sun Shrine. I heard that several ancient cave dwelling gods were dug, and he obtained countless magic treasures. That's the reason the Sun Shrine grew into the most powerful sect of the Western Ridge in a short period of time. Mica's body must also have remarkable magic treasures. It is also possible she used the magic treasures to escape."

Alex nodded his head, his heart fired up even more. He must go once to the Sun Shrine.

"Plenilune Sect had a heritage for thousands of years. Now, there is a great enemy coming. Unfortunately, no one here can save the day. Now, I declare the Plenilune Sect as closed. Everyone hurry to pack up and flee the farther the better!"

"After going out, please remain anonymous temporarily, until one day, when a strong person rises, we will meet again," Serene stood in a high place, leaning on her cane, and said loudly.

After these words were spoken, all the people of the Plenilune Sect were sad. Some cried tears of pain, because this was their home, but now they had to leave their homeland
