

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2391

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2391

“These are images of two powerful prehistoric beings. Both of them were so strong that they had taken over an entire era by themselves,” Mystic Maiden reminded.

“Your current skills won’t allow you to use imagery for long periods of time. If you can no longer bear it, you can rest instead. You’d be able to increase your time slowly.”

At first, Alex could feel his eyes growing tired, but he realized that the sword heart within him was reacting to something.

His eyes flashed with silver light, releasing the soreness in an instant. He continued to look over the dragon image bit by bit, scanning every single detail as though worried he might miss something.

Seeing that he had been using his internal vision for quite some time, Mystic Maiden reminded him not to push himself too hard. She even mentioned that one would need at least two years to see the image clearly. However, she was extremely surprised when Alex started training in the Dragon-Tusk Punch, all while looking at the dragon imagery.

A real dragon-shaped phantom appeared behind him. Surreal, it was the exact same dragon in the imagery.

“You’re done?”

“Hah. This little minion has pretty good potential!”

Alex himself sensed it as well. His current Dragon-Tusk Punch, especially the dragon part, had greatly improved. His existing punches actually made him feel like he was an actual battle dragon, his strength having even increased eightfold.

After that, he started looking into the elephant image. The elephant was utterly different from what people typically saw in zoos. This was an ancient battle elephant from prehistoric times. Not only did it have long tusks, it even had horns that made it look savage. More than obvious, its attacks would be heavy and hard. One stomp was almost enough to shatter an entire planet.

In the end, he merged both the powers of a dragon and an elephant together.

Ashe punched the ground, his organs released all their power, causing his body to burst with a golden radiant light as he punched a giant pit out...

One should know that the floor was rather tough, and it was being supported by a formation. The divine lightning of Kalpa could only make a small hole when struck down.

Even then, his fists managed to make such a large pit. He was currently sixteen times stronger than before when it came to hand-to-hand combat.

He could even sense that his body was becoming purer than before. His defense had increased after achieving the Invincible Steel stage; his flesh was currently five times sturdier than before, and all his pressure points felt as if they were being flushed, expanding one after the other.

This time, they weren't being opened up one by one. They were expanding the entire vein altogether. Each vein had several pressure points, some even hundreds. Hence, they could fit another few golden cores in them.

As if his body was experiencing the big bang, the hidden pressure points in his body merged into newly formed stars, bursting with life as they brimmed with obscene amounts of energy within them.

He knew that this was a rare chance since the hidden potential of one's body after reaching a certain level of strength could be opened up. He couldn't afford to miss this opportunity. Alex then took out all the Stardew fruit and the Golden Pear, along with the heavenly law fruit. After that, he shoved all of them into his mouth one by one.

Not only was Pigsy shocked to see this, but Mystic Maiden froze up as well.

'Wouldn't one explode from eating this much?'

In reality, he wouldn't. That was because all the golden cores in Alex's body were invigorating, forming a furnace of forbidden spells as a base for him. Hence, he wasn't scared of exploding at all.

He counted in his head. 'I already opened 101 pressure points in the beginning, but now it's up to 460 or so... The whole vein just opens up way too quickly.'

As his power continued to grow, he started to feel anxious.

'I wouldn't have to deal with all three thousand at once, right?'

In actuality, it stopped at the 499th one, and he couldn't open up anymore. However, he suddenly found a well-hidden marking within his body.

'Holy f* ck!'

'Who the hell marked me down? That old peacock? No wait, she's dead, though.'

'I'd really like to see who on earth gave me this marking.'

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2392

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2392

Now that he had opened up 499 pressure points in his body and refined them into 499 golden cores, Alex's body was pretty cramped up. If the public were to find out about this, they would be terribly shocked, questioning their own existence.

People would typically react this way when no normal person could produce this many golden cores. Not even a hen could produce this many eggs. However, he had been walking a different path after learning the Ten-Point Forbidden Spell, and he was walking further down this road.

Now that all his golden cores were gathered, they turned into the furnace. It was pitch black inside, ignited with an odd, mysterious flame that would change colors once in a while. There were even mystical symbols flowing around, shining on Alex's body and soul

In these situations, the light could shine upon any markings left within his body without fail. It would seem that this one was hidden in a very secluded place. He wouldn't have noticed it even if he were to inspect in detail, let alone how he usually operated.

'Ynes Larkin?!'

'So it was her!'

After he found the mark, Alex traced it back to its source and investigated. In the end, he concluded that it had been planted by the Holy Maiden of Yorkshire Palace.

Thinking back to his relationship with this holy maiden, he couldn't help but feel ridiculous.

However, he figured that he had cut ties with her after he handed Yves the jade medal that Yasmin left for them. At the time, Alex concentrated a forbidden spell energy, preparing to move the marking into the furnace to destroy it once and for all. As he was the secret spell to find the source of this, to investigate where the soul conscience came from, it let out a bright ray of light.

He then heard someone's voice.

"Help me!"

'What?' Alex froze. 'Ynes is asking me for help. Is she being hunted down?'

More importantly, the existence of that marking was an actual way of communication, as if it was able to form a bridge between the two. He attached his divine consciousness to the marking to try and communicate with her. "Ynes?"

Ynes replied. "It's me, Rockefeller. You dang jerk! Someone's trying to kill me now! Where are you? Come save me!"

Alex was speechless. "Hey missy, you're asking me to save you with that attitude? Why would I even want to save you?"

Being chased at this very moment, Ynes was in a panic.

"You're the one who made me like this, so you have to take responsibility! Not only am I being hunted down by the Yorkshire Palace and the Sun Shrine. Now the peacock tribe is trying to kill me too!"

"You bastard, how could you kill and eat their clansmen? Why do I have to suffer the consequences you made? If I die, I'll haunt you for life so you'll live the rest of your life with guilt!"

Alex felt creeped out. 'The Peacock tribe is hunting down Ynes and they know I've eaten peacock meat. But how on earth did they do that?'

"Where are you?"

"I'm going in your direction! Where are you even at? I can sense that you're somewhere around the Endless Sea. Please don't tell me you're there right now."

"Yeah, I am."

"...Ahhhh, I'm done for, I'm so dead! No one ever survives the Endless Sea! What do I do now? I'm going to die! Ugh, Rockefeller, you horny bastard! I will haunt you in your dreams!"

Alex sighed, knowing that this relationship would bring him even more trouble in the future. However, he couldn't bear to just sit back and watch when Ynes was just an unlucky victim in all this.

"Come toward me. I'll meet up with you soon. Don't worry, as long as you run fast enough, you won't die."

Alex called an Undead beast over, it was obviously possessed by an Einherjar.

The beast looked similar to a shark, but it was quite malnourished, and its body looked worn out, as if it was just skin and bones. This was the epitome of a ghost shark, but they possessed great speed.

Since Alex had a sword heart, these fake Undead beasts recognized his strength and thought he was someone close to the woman in a red dress. Hence, they decided that it was safe to trust him completely.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2393

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2393

Alex informed Mystic Maiden and Pigsy about the issue and rushed toward the ghost shark's back. He also stayed in contact with Ynes the whole way over in order to get a grasp on her situation. The two who were currently chasing after her right now were from the Peacock tribe.

They weren't all that powerful, and they had quite a large difference compared to a great Golden Immortal demon. The two were most likely slightly more powerful than ninth realm to Immortal, closing into Immortalization.

'Two Immortals... Would I be able to kill them off with my current powers?'

In the end, he figured that they could still escape even if he couldn't kill them. It was fortunate that his powers had been greatly improved now, so he wanted to try it out on those two Immortals.

The shark was quite fast, especially after it had run out of the formation as if it was as easy as a fish swimming in the water.

Boom!

A series of loud explosions formed a large impact at the bottom of the Endless Sea. They were traveling at a greater speed than Pigsy... Since they were under the water, the shark was able to move around freely.

Pigsy, on the other hand, had to face lots of severe disturbances. Hence its speed was slowed down by quite a bit.

At the time, the two Immortal peacocks headed towards the Endless Sea as they continued to chase after Ynes. Seeing that she was still running in a straight line and deeper into the sea, they were frightened, hesitating if they should continue going after her.

One of them shouted. "Hey, human girl! The Endless Sea is very dangerous! If you end up in the hands of the Undead, you will suffer a fate worse than death."

"Why don't you just come with us and we'll grant you a swift death. We'll even pick a nice burial site for you, or we could just destroy your entire clan."

Ynes had been wanted by the Yorkshire Palace this whole time, and even her master Breena. For some reason, Breena found out that she was learning the forgotten martial arts of their clan, which was why she had to hunt her down, even if she had to travel to the edges of the world to take it from her.

This made Ynes extremely sad. The fact that she had to escape death repeatedly changed her attitude towards her clan drastically.

She didn't even look back as she yelled. "Alright then! Go destroy it however you please! And thank you for that. They're not far behind us!"

At the time, the members of Yorkshire Palace were chasing after her too. The peacocks just came along midway through this chase and were way faster than them.

It was fortunate that she learned the forgotten secret spells, along with everything else she was trained in. With this, Ynes was able to improve her skills and power; thus, her speed was ten times faster than before. She would've been captured long ago otherwise. However, she couldn't help but panic because the peacocks were much faster than her.

"Ugh, it's your fault for not listening, you disgusting wh*re! When we get our hands on you, I swear I'd crack your skull open and pour hot boiling oil into you to eat your brain!" one of the peacocks yelled out angrily.

Ynes shuddered upon hearing that. Realizing that they were getting nearer, she threw two pieces of lightning crystals.

It released a massive explosion as loud as thunder, blocking their path.

After that, she screamed, "You peacocks only target the weak! You're all just pitiful losers! I was kidnapped by Rockefeller, and none of you were able to protect the fiance of your people! Not only are you refusing to hunt down the strong enemy, but you're trying to kill me!"

"You peacocks could never become an ancient divine tribe because you're all cowards! You're all insolent idiots!"

"Damn you!" the peacocks yelled in unison.

Just then, a hundred meter long Ghost Shark leaped out from the deep sea at great speed. The three were absolutely shocked.

"An Undead beast?!"

Ynes could feel her heart jumping out of her throat. She was the nearest to the ghost shark, after all. She could even see its bones that were exposed in the air.

In just a few seconds, she noticed Alex was standing on its back.

“Save me, darling! They want to kill me!” she yelled out to him.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2394

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2394

Alex stood still on the ghost shark, taken aback by her words.

‘She’s calling me her darling now.’

‘Is this Holy Maiden still sane? Did she bump her head or something?’

‘That’s not her style, though?!’

Seeing the two peacocks closing up on Ynes, he took a leap and dropped right in front of her. Standing on the ocean water, he pointed the Golden Spear at the peacocks and turned to Ynes. “Get on the shark first.”

Ynes didn’t dare to get up since it was indeed an Undead beast. Its appearance was just way too ugly.

The two peacocks turned pale once again.

“Wow. Real great! As a human, you’re hanging out with those Undead beasts. You prick! You’re a one in a million traitor! A parasite!” a peacock shouted.

“I’m not in the mood to debate with you. I’d just like to use your bodies to sharpen my tool.” Alex said, then ordered the shark, “Sharkie, protect this shameless brat! And help me out if I can’t defeat them.”

Ynes was extremely annoyed, never expecting Alex to call her a shameless brat. ‘What a jerk! I only ended like this because of you...’

She had been experiencing the worst treatment in Western Ridge for the past few days. She had to suffer things she never had to before. She just couldn’t accept the fact that she was insulted out of the blue.

Everyone else was calling her an unloyal wh*re who cheated on her own fiancé.

She had tried explaining with all her might, but no one wanted to listen. In the end, she decided to just go with it, telling everyone that Alex was her childhood friend. She also said that they had decided to marry each other long before Donovan proposed to her. In the end, Donovan had to force the Yorkshire Palace into complying. Hence, her clan chickened out, arranging her marriage with the Sun Shrine and sacrificing her love life.

However, wanting to fight for her love, she was unwilling to obey her clan. She wouldn't marry anyone else but Alex. She didn't care if she died from this. It didn't matter as long as she could be with Alex in the afterlife.

By employing this messy story, several people actually showed their sympathy and commended her courage. Those who longed for love or youths madly in love empathized with her as well. All of them started supporting Ynes, and their attitudes towards her completely changed.

Hence, it was unsurprising that she called Alex her darling when she saw him.

Just as she was about to talk back, Alex had already lunged towards the two Immortal peacocks without hesitation.

This was precisely what the two peacocks wanted. "You're Alex Rockefeller, right? You worked with the Undead to kill our sacred nun and ate our people's flesh! Such audacity, yet you still dare to challenge us out of spite? You're asking for it at this point!"

The peacock grabbed a sword. The colorful and shiny sword looked like a feather. It was actually made out of real peacock feathers, where every Peacock tribe member had one. Using part of their body and soul, these swords were indeed treasures.

Along with the increase in their powers, the quality of the sword would increase as well. It was a powerful weapon all in all.

Clank!

The Golden Spear clashed with the sword.

Alex felt a strong force coming from it. It almost sent his spear flying out of his hands as well. His body had to endure a harsh impact, causing him to nearly vomit blood.

Immortalization and Imminent Immortals really did have a large difference in power.

The peacocks laughed. “You dare to fight me with that puny power of yours? I really wonder how on earth you killed the sacred nun. She’s such a powerful being! So what did you do to her?”

Alex used the Ultimate Book of Medicine to calm his blood energy down. He knew that he was biting off more than he could chew. He was overconfident after his power improved, thinking he could break a whole universe with just one punch.

However, a mere Immortal snapped him back to reality.

‘Immortals really are pretty strong!’

Moreover, peacocks had the blood of ancient divine beasts, their bodies naturally strong. Since they were quite an old clan as well, they had myriad talents and skills. Without the help of the Seventy two Heavenly Immortal-slaying Formation, it would be quite hard to handle them.

With this, Alex was able to find out even more about just how horrifying the formation was.

“What did I do to her? Do you guys not know yet? I cooked her alive!”

“Don’t worry, you two would follow in her footsteps as well!”

Since he was forcefully enduring this, all 499 of his golden cores were activated at full power, making him rush over immediately. His current speed was just too quick. A mere step was able to bring him straight to where the Peacocks were standing.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2395

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2395

“Die!” the other peacock yelled as it released a blue ray of light out of its mouth. It was a flying sword, aiming to behead Alex.

Alex spun the spear around as his eyes glowed silver. Able to easily recognize the tracks of the flying sword, he struck it harshly. At the same time, he punched the other peacock. He was taking two Immortals at the same time, despite his lower rank in powers.

“You’re nothing compared to us Immortals!”

The peacock who released the flying sword was smiling coldly, eyes filled with disdain. He thought that Alex’s spear couldn’t possibly catch up with his sword. He figured that the sacred nuns died from other causes. That was because they had witnessed the sacred nun being struck by the divine lightning of Kalpa.

Clank!

In reality, Alex’s golden spear struck the flying sword without fail. The blue flying sword was struck down instantly, falling to the ground as it bounced like a ball, letting out a painful cry.

On the other hand, Alex’s Dragon-Tusk Punch landed on the long sword of the other peacock. As both the dragon and elephant roared, his fist struck the blade, letting out a loud noise.

Smash!

The sword made out of feathers was smashed into pieces, the peacocks were heartbroken. But, more importantly, they were starting to feel fear.

Alex’s power was a little too strong than they had expected. Although he hadn’t seemed to achieve Immortalization, he still managed to block their attacks and fight back, gaining the upper hand as well.

Upon fighting back, Alex knew where the baseline was now. His confidence was instantly boosted. “Hmph, Immortals are not all that, huh? Come at me again!”

This time, he kept his spear away, solely using the Dragon-Tusk Punch instead, using the two to train his punches.

Ynes, who was standing at the side, was so shocked that it left her mouth agape. She had overestimated Alex by quite a bit, but his current actions broke that limit even further. He was fighting two Immortalized peacocks with such ease.

Suddenly, the peacock took out a bright golden rope, binding Alex by his waist. After that, it surrounded itself around his body, wrapping him up as if he were a gift box.

“Divine Binding Rope!” Ynes exclaimed, unable to believe that the enemy had such a legendary tool.

She was also quite frantic about this whole situation. If Alex was being restricted, he would surely lose this battle. She knew that she’d have to suffer along with him. They might even try to tie her up to a cross and burn her as if she were a witch.

One of the peacocks laughed out loud. “You really do have some skills, Rockefeller. But I have the Divine Binding Rope. Look at you. You’re being tied up like a little dog. Just you wait and see, I’ll skin you alive, then chop you into pieces and feed you to fishes.”

Alex didn’t seem to care. “Divine Binding Rope? It’s just an embarrassing faux.”

The Chaos Tree brushed over it, turning the faux tool into a pile of useless rope. Alex shook the rope off his body as if it were mere dust that fell to the ground.

The two peacocks were shocked. This was just too odd. ‘Even if it is fake, it shouldn’t be this easily broken, right?’

“I think I’m pretty much done training my Dragon-Tusk Punch. Let’s send you two down to hell then!”

“And this is pretty good timing. I’m still pretty hungry since I didn’t get to eat that old hen!”

“Just die!”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2396

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2396

Alex's fighting style suddenly changed. For the past few moments, he used only the Dragon-Tusk Punch. The two Peacock clansmen thought he would only do this kind of martial arts.

Now, it was simply a variety of styles.

Paper dolls, Spirit Burrs, Mirroring, Sihirbaz Fantasia, the thunder method, and turtle shells were all used, not to mention Western Paradise's Revealer's martial arts.

Dazzled, the two old Peacock clansmen became dizzy.

'How many did you learn? You seemed to know everything.'

The Peacock clan had an ancient heritage with countless clan martial arts techniques. However, wanting to avoid biting more than they could chew, each clan member practiced one or two styles at most. However, this one in front used no less than three types of Buddhist sect techniques before finally throwing out a set of formation diagrams.

"I'm going crazy!"

"How many kinds of martial arts techniques does this kid know? Is he a mobile martial arts library? There are formations too!"

"This kid is very evil. Be careful. If we can't handle him, let's run!"

The two Peacock clansmen discussed retreat.

They found that this human kid, Alex, was getting more and more courageous as he fought. This was especially his kind of mirror art, equivalent to fighting with eight people. One person against four. Now, who could stand that? In a few breaths, one could have been beaten to the wreck, with countless bones broken.

By the side was Ynes. At first, her heart jumped, but finally, she became ecstatic, and she breathed a long sigh of relief. Her beautiful eyes rippled, looking at Alex in amazement. With such combat strength, far beyond her previous imagination, she could not help but secretly think in her heart,

‘Luckily, I ran over to him at the critical moment. Today would be really miserable, otherwise...’

There were even a little bit of evil thoughts inside. This was because she purposely ran over to find him, determined to die. She wanted to die together with Alex, so she rushed in his direction, and as a result, she gained an unexpected surprise.

“It’s too late to run now!”

“How dare you go after my mother-in-law? Besides me, no one can touch my mother-in-law, including the male fowl.”

Alex deliberately said those words to anger Ynes.

This was because he could vaguely see into her mind. During the life and death situation, she ran over to him, wanting to find a cushion before she died... ‘Hey, Ynes, you have changed, you were not like this before! But since Alex was used, then some benefits should be received. It’s okay to take some advantage.’

He sneaked a look at Ynes and found her biting her lips with a facial expression of eating a dead child.

‘Damn’, Alex talked about himself as if he was his own kryptonite.

“Go to hell!” A peacock clan member roared as he fought for his life, grabbing out a square magic treasure and smashing it over at Alex.

That was really fast, and it changed into the size of a mountain after smashing out, and there were dense runes on it that were lighting up and flowing, in which the power of laws appeared, seemingly capable of imprisoning the enemy.

“Heaven Flipping Seal, be careful!” Ynes shouted as she was almost stunned. Heaven Flipping Seal was a very famous magic treasure. It was once included in the top one hundred innate divine weapons. It had great power, and one would not expect it to be in the hands of a Peacock race at the Immortalization stage.

At that moment, Alex also felt a bit numb in the scalp.

This magic treasure was much more advanced than the bundle of immortal rope. As soon as he took it out, it made his body palpitate, with a powerful sense of crisis. Based on that feeling, this Heaven Flipping Seal was likely to be the real thing.

Alex wanted to escape. However, his body was imprisoned and could not move. In an instant, he was smashed and smoldered.

"Alex!"

Ynes let out a yelp. Fortunately, the one who was smashed to death was not Alex's real body but a mirror image. Even so, Alex was in shock, letting out beads of cold sweat. He really shouldn't have underestimated a race passed down from ancient times. Obviously, they weren't even influential in the clan, but they actually carried such a strange object.

If it was the real body that was locked, then the fun would be huge.

The next second!

Alex rushed over and stared at the Heaven Flipping Seal that was as big as a huge mountain. His eyes went red. Before this huge magic treasure was retrieved, Alex hurriedly summoned the roots of the Chaos Tree, and one by one, the roots of the sky burst out from his brow and wrapped around the Heaven Flipping Seal

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2397

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2397

That Peacock clan member laughed outloud, "Fool, this is my original magic treasure. Do you think this can stop the killing intent of the Heaven Flipping Seal? Since you are looking for death, let me fulfill it for you. Go to hell!"

His soul communicated with the Heaven Flipping Seal, smashing Alex to death in one go.

However, in the next second, his face changed drastically. The soul link with the Heaven Flipping Seal was actually severed. No matter how hard he tried, there was no way to activate the Heaven Flipping Seal. He even lost the connection with it.

Poof!

The man spat out a mouthful of blood and discovered with horror that the Heaven Flipping Seal had fallen into Alex's hands. He was in a mighty hurry. The Heaven Flipping Seal had been given to him by one of his elders, so it was real. Although it had been damaged in the ancient war, it was still a great killing weapon and could not be lost.

"Give it back! " His face was fierce and eager as he roared at Alex.

Alex took the Heaven Flipping Seal in his hand and weighed it for a while. It did not feel very heavy, but just now, the feeling transmitted to him from the mirror image was as heavy as a star.

So, this was especially heavy when it was smashed out.

"Give it back to you? Good!"

Alex poured his true essence into the Heaven Flipping Seal and immediately felt activated, weighed a lot, and was still growing rapidly as he smashed it directly.

The Heaven Flipping Seal viciously crashed into the man, immediately crushing him out of his original form and spurring blood on the spot, dying of breath. Alex suddenly realized that this was a good treasure. It was simple and brutal, which suited him well.

Then, he aimed at the remaining one.

The man's heart skipped a beat, and he turned around and ran.

The Heaven Flipping Seal smashed out again. Besides being brutal and straightforward, it was also very direct. It caused the man to be smashed out of his body to his death.

Alex retrieved the Heaven Flipping Seal and was delighted. "What a treasure, it's actually so fierce!"

Ynes ran over and also looked at the Heaven Flipping Seal. Her eyes were full of envy. This kind of innate divine weapon-level treasure made her covet it badly.

However, Alex then sighed. "Unfortunately, this magic treasure is a bit defective. It is broken and cannot be used infinitely. After being used a few times, it. needs to rest for a period of time for self-repair. Otherwise, it'll likely disintegrate."

"Be content. This is a divine weapon from ancient times. If you don't want it, just give it to me," Ynes said.

Alex looked at her and suddenly rushed over, held her down, and slapped her butt.

Ynes yelled out loudly and petulantly. It was an experience she had never had before. She did not feel well, and she was going to faint from anger. "Why did you hit me?"

"It is because you're misbehaving," said Alex.

Ynes face turned black. "How dare you say that about me! Am I not your daughter?"

"Don't think I don't know. You're bringing two Peacock clansmen and trying to pull me to die with you!" Alex said.

Ynes growled, "This was something you caused in the first place. I was dragged by you, who am I looking for if not you?"

Then she told Alex that the Peacock tribe's holy nun had died, and the Peacock tribe was now mad. They issued an ancient wanted notice, calling on all races, forces to jointly besiege Alex, and the army was probably on its way.

Alex froze, then fiercely looked towards the land. There was terrifying pressure rushing over.

Scared, he said, "You big mouth. It is really happening. Run!"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2398

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2398

Alex's eyesight was now greatly enhanced. He could even see very distant places clearly.

At this moment, there was a big turmoil in some parts of the Endless Sea, which were close to land. There was a large group of people running towards this side.

Two huge peacocks headed the group.

“Shit, the Peacock Clan is not really coming out in full force to come here to chase me, right?”

Alex was nimble and threw the corpses of the two Peacock clansmen into his storage treasure, then dragged Ynes and jumped onto the Ghost Shark.

He wondered in his heart and turned his head to ask Ynes, “Strange, how did they know about the fact that I ate a peacock? You planted a soul mark on my body, so you could know what I was doing through that mark, including that I was eating and going to the toilet? Then, you revealed to the Peacock Clan about me barbecuing the clansmen?”

Ynes coldly snorted, “You overthink. I would not want to see you eat and go to the toilet. You are the ignorant one here. You don’t know that the Peacock race has a racial divine ability, called the death spirit pupil, which can see through a treasure of their race. They saw the image that the Peacock race saw before they died and the image of you barbecuing the Peacock race. Now once all these are spread out, you have become the star of this continent. After all, you are the first person who dares to barbecue the Peacock race in three thousand years.”

After a pause, she seemed to remember something, “No, I seem to hear you say just now. What did you do to the Peacock tribe’s sacred nun? Cooked it?”

Alex nodded his head.

Ynes immediately shrieked. Alex was really bold. No wonder the Peacock Clan was going crazy.

At this moment, the ghost shark was activated and it was very fast, swimming towards the depths of the Endless Sea. But just then, there was a sudden energy fluctuation ahead, something burrowed out from under the seawater, and a terrifying aura pervaded.

“What’s going on?”

It wasn't just Alex, but even Ynes felt it. The terrifying aura was fast approaching. No one could immediately determine what it was exactly, but the cultivation of the two was not low, possessing an almost perverted ability of danger perception. Immediately, without any hesitation, they directly drive the ghost shark in the opposite direction to flee.

The ghost shark was the king of the sea, now swimming at full speed, as fast as lightning.

With the distance drawn farther, the oppression of death was also much smaller. The gloomy feeling, however, still remained. The horrible breath was behind but was still approaching.

"What is that?" Ynes was a little nervous.

Alex scratched his head. He recently cultivated the old bull breathing method and ate heavenly treasures. Initially, his hair and eyebrows were singed by the fire. Now, they had all grown out. Even his hair was almost waist length, turning his head into a veritable head of hair. Although he felt very tired, there was no time to deal with it.

He looked toward the Peacock tribe that rushed in front of him and the team that joined in to surround him and said, "I'm afraid, the Peacock tribe made too much noise this time, causing the attention of those creatures below the Undead Sea, thinking that the creatures of the land were going to attack ones at sea."

The two looked at each other and were a little frightened. If this was really the case, the problem was severe.

Ynes asked, "What should we do?"

Alex answered, "Since that group of people attracted the big guy, naturally, those people should deal with it. We don't need to participate blindly."

As he spoke, Alex controlled the ghost shark and wanted to go in another direction, but he suddenly realized something was wrong. The terrifying presence behind him seemed to be impatient and was not heading towards the Peacock clan.

Rather, it was rushing towards them.

“Crap!”

”Darn Peacock Clan... Attracting such a big guy, and it’s now staring at us.“

Alex was so angry that he cursed. He immediately greeted the ghost shark, slamming into the seawater below, desperately escaping. But the two soon found that the terrifying presence was accelerating... Before, it was not that the thing’s speed was slow, but they were oblivious to why it was not at full strength.

”Hurry up, hurry up!”

“I’m so panicked, I feel like I’m being targeted by some big terror.”

Ynes held Alex’s waist tightly so that she wouldn’t fall off when she fell into the sea while anxiously transmitting divine thoughts.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2399

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2399

Alex now did not have the heart to enjoy the charm of the woman’s body. In the midst of being busy, he turned towards the back for a look, using his emerging eyes.

“You scared me to death. What is that thing?”

”I saw two huge blood-red eyes. One eyeball as big as a mountain peak. It’s too unreal. What kind of existence is that?”

Alex almost went crazy. Then again, he finally saw the true face of the one chasing him. It was actually... Another ghost shark, but this one’s true face was so much larger than the one beneath them. It was like a little grandson standing in front of his grandfather.

“I think, I think, that big guy back there, probably wasn’t lured by the Peacock clan, but me.” Alex’s voice was on the verge of tears.

Ynes also saw it clearly. It was a massive sea-like shark. Her voice trembled. “This shark we are riding on can’t be the son of the one behind, right?”

Alex uttered, “I don’t know!”

“Where did it come from?”

“It was trapped in an ancient formation, so I brought it out.”

At this moment, the old shark at the back became angry and violently rushed out with invisible energy. Alex felt a great terror and directly grabbed the Chaos Bell to block behind himself and Ynes.

Clang, clang, clang, clang!

The Chaos Bell emitted a continuous roar.

Alex and Ynes were incomparably uncomfortable. Alex had cultivated to the Invincible Steel stage, so his five internal organs were very strong and could still hold up. Ynes was not ready because she had not cultivated her five internal organs and immediately felt a sharp pain and a mouthful of blood spurt out.

Alex was aware of the situation and hurriedly grabbed Ynes, shielding her in front of him while taking out another bell, the Requiem Clock, this time.

The two bells were set together to resist. The ghost shark continued to sprint madly.

“Let’s find the Peacock Clan’s bad luck!”

Alex instantly had the idea to divert this old shark’s misfortune, and as soon as he thought of it, he immediately controlled the ghost shark and rushed toward the Peacock Clan’s side once again.

Soon, the Peacock clan over there found them.

“Hey... Isn’t that the demon that ate the Peacock clan? Why did he come to our place to throw himself in the net? Could it be that he couldn’t stay in the Endless Sea anymore and finally gave up and came over to surrender?”

“You have a point. I think so as well. The Endless Sea is full of death. How long could he stay? Surely he can not stand, unlike us. With so many experts, even the undying Kraken would also have to retreat and kneel in public!”

Then, there were henchmen shouting at Alex. He sneered, telling him to hurry up and break his own limbs, to kneel and reph towards the Peacock clan, or he would be a treacherous person.

The ghost shark under Alex was still charging.

Alex, however, spoke loudly. “Everyone, today me and my wife have important matters to attend to, and it is inconvenient to catch up with you. So, to show my apologies, I hereby give you this rare mount of mine from all the ages.”

Then, they left the ghost shark and let the ghost shark rush in the direction of the Peacock Clan, while he himself took Ynes and moved at great speed in an instant.

Roar!

The old shark really came for his descendants, and immediately let out a roar. It pounced out of the sea, towards the Peacock Clan.

“Holy sh*t. What kind of monster is that?”

“It’s the undying demon beast brought by that immoral ghost named Alex. How is it so big? That immoral ghost shall not have a good death!”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2400

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2400

Many people came along with the Peacock clan.

This was the rallying cry of the Peacock Mountain, which claimed to be the strongest race on the planet... In fact, the Peacock clan was indeed the most complete race that survived the ancient war period, unlike other ancient races, such as the Benares Dragons, the True Phoenix clan, and the Nine-Tails. During the ancient war, many were wounded and died. Few survived. Some almost faced extinction.

The Benares Dragons only had Neela.

The Peacock clan was so well preserved because they almost did not participate in that great war. They... Were hiding.

Frankly, they were considered very despicable. But, the Peacock clan itself definitely would not think so. They were instead very proud. Thousands of years had passed. The Peacock clan, who initially ranked outside of the top ten in the league of mythical creatures, were now genuinely the first, regarded as the best in the world. No one could match them, the reason why they had so much appeal.

At this moment, there were a considerable number of disciples of Yorkshire Palace, who were also among them.

Just a moment ago, they saw Ynes, who was being held in Alex's arms. One by one, their expressions suddenly changed. Some spoke sarcastically, while some cursed loudly. Ynes was initially the most reputable saint's daughter of their sect, but she was now in cohorts with the devil, hugging together in broad daylight, standing in the face of justice.

They wanted to kill Ynes. Thus, seeing Alex and Ynes coming and being stopped by the allied forces the Peacock clan organized, they were happy that they could finally put this shameless ex-Holy Maiden to death.

But now, they just wanted to cry out loud. This shark of the Endless Sea was too big and incomparably ferocious.

In particular, when Alex released the ghost shark and rushed toward the allied team, a huge old peacock that hovered in the sky didn't hesitate to strike the ghost shark. A green killing aura spurred out from its mouth and hit the ghost shark. Despite this, the ghost shark wasn't really injured. It just dropped a few pieces of rotten meat.

However, the big shark coming from behind looked at it. This was a big problem.

The big shark's murderous aura was even stronger, to the point it actually spat out human words. "Sinful animal, how dare you hurt my father! I want your life!"

The voice sounded very odd. It was like a broken gong, yet strangely boomy. It exploded above this sea, stirring up the sky with waves, with murderous intent rushing towards the sky. A fin raised fiercely, slapping the old peacock.

"Danger!"

"Escape!"

This old peacock was horrified. It ruffled all the feathers on its body. Feeling the extreme danger, it immediately fled in the other direction.

However, it was still a step too late. Its body was hit hard.

The old peacock let out a miserable scream. Its huge body burst into a mist of blood. Countless feathers flew around a large blizzard.

Alarmed, the other old peacock used a secret technique to escape.

The big shark did not bother about the old peacock that fled, but with his eyes on the ghost shark, he pounced on the large crowd and roared, "Land creatures, all of you will die!"

The crowd was in chaos.

They panicked and scattered in all directions.

They felt remorseful. They had come to appease the Peacock clan, so they followed the army to besiege Alex, thinking, "Isn't it just killing a human man? Even if it is the peak of the Immortal, there is the Peacock clan to hold the line. There are so many expert cultivators, and it is absolutely safe and secure here."

The truth was that they had just arrived and met a great terror. The strongest peacock in the group could actually be slapped to death with such ease.

"Run!"

"My goodness, it's too terrifying!"