The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2571

Of course, the people inside didn't sit around waiting for death. They all fought hard against it. However, within seconds, their hearts sank in disappointment. The phantoms of the giant spiritual gods were overly aggressive, their berserk attacks landing randomly. There was no way to hide, and they were all pinned someplace on the spell formation, and they could only take the hits head-on.

Soon, the people with weaker bodies fell.

Bam, bam, bam!

With just a few attacks, some bodies couldn't take the heavy hits, and their bones were broken into pieces. Their souls were violently shaken, almost thrown out of their bodies. Fate was no longer in their own hands.

It was such a helpless feeling.

Thud.

A phantom of one of the giant spiritual gods landed a gigantic punch on someone, causing his armor to be crushed as he shrank his neck backward to brace for the attacks.

However, the number of giant spiritual gods was greater than theirs. Before they could muster up a decent defense, they were stomped on by another god's phantom.

Bones were crushed to ashes, and souls were completely dispersed.

One of them was an Advanced Earthly Immortal. Due to merely practicing sorcery, he had a weaker body compared to the others. In the end, he was beaten to death in just a few punches.

It wasn't going easy for the others either.

More than half of them had countless broken bones. Painful screams filled the air.

The lady who originally possessed this formation flag was also in a bad state. She was pressed against the ground by giant spiritual gods. Not a single punch missed her, making her cry in pain.

“Theela, aren’t those your formation flags?”

“Your grandfather spent half his lifetime using this thing, and now it’s turning its back on us and killing us? Can’t you just regain control of it?”

Unfortunately, Theela was so badly injured that she couldn’t come up with a reply. Within the next thirty seconds, another four people were crushed, their souls vaporizing into thin air.

The few left who were still holding on couldn’t bear it any longer. Everyone was injured at this point, even those who practiced rare sorcery to gain a strong body. They just couldn’t take it anymore, shrieking in pain.

Some even started to beg for mercy.

Initially, Alex planned to keep one or two lives for more information, but now that he knew that Daya and the others might be in danger, he changed his mind. He went on to activate the formation. As the twenty four formation flags were powered up once more, the strength of the giant spiritual gods multiplied.

Bam, bam, bam, bam!

Alex and the Mystic Maiden only watched on the sides during the whole process.

On the other hand, this was absolutely terrifying to Luneth and her team, having annihilated all of these masters without even making a move, after all. This was completely overpowering.

To think that they treated Alex and the Mystic Maiden as novices...

Alex wrapped up the formation flag swiftly and cleaned up the warzone. He took the spatial rings and even stripped the bodies of battle suits that were still wearable. Such a gesture left Lunafreya and the others stunned.

In the end, Alex decided to take it to extremes. He walked to Johann, who was bombed to death and took every single valuable thing on him. Then, he glanced at Chase and immediately had his eye on the necklace around his neck.

It was obviously treasure and a high quality one at that He sensed it when he was up against him.

Grabbing it rudely, he snapped, "I'm keeping this. You may go now."

Cecilia couldn't stand it. "Hey dude, you're an expert! Why would you still rob such things? You don't need them, do you?"

"I have no use for them, but my friends do," Alex said. He paused for a moment, his dark, deep eyes focused on Cecilia with a sly expression on his face.

Cecilia said nervously, "What do you want? I know I'm gorgeous, but I'm just a stack of bones now."

Alex said, "Take your clothes off."

Cecilia gasped. "Huh?"

Cecilia was embarrassed and felt rather uncomfortable.

'I'm all bones now, yet this man has his mind on my body? What is he even going to do with me? And how?'

She hesitated for a good while, then pointed towards Luneth. "Why don't you ask Lunafreya to strip? Her body looks better, she dances sexier, and most importantly, her breasts are bigger than mine..."

Luneth felt like strangling her after hearing this. "Cecilia Peach, are you forgetting your nickname, Peachbuns? Do you remember how you got it? You have such a curvy body. Any man would go crazy at first sight."

The two best friends suddenly erupted into that sort of fight, which made Alex speechless.

‘Peachbuns? Is this another term I don’t understand?’

“Hey, are you guys misunderstanding something?”

“I’m only interested in your clothes, not your bodies.” Alex decided to act on his own to save time. In a few pulls, he grabbed the clothes from Cecilia. He wanted it because he had seen how her treasure clothes could release a shield of fire and an apparition of a phoenix would appear. It was mighty, acting as both protection and defense against the Novians’ secret weapon.

Then, he noticed the tank top left on Cecilia. It looked like a treasure too. However, the cutting of this top was too provocative, making it seem nearly as sexy as a bikini.

She wrapped her arms around her body and said resentfully, “You... You’re being so mean.”

Meanwhile, Alex was still looking at the remaining treasure on her body, visibly excited. He scanned them with his divine eye and noticed what was special about them. The white armor that he took was a powerful defense treasure. However, the truly impressive one was the tank top still wrapped around her ribcage.

It was a piece of red beast leather. Very ancient, it had a bunch of mystical writings on it. The writings weren’t carved on, but they looked rather natural as if they’d come with the leather.

That would mean the phoenix from before appeared from this piece of beast leather.

‘Such precious treasure!’

Even Mystic Maiden recognized it and was shocked.

She said, “Good heavens! This looks like the leather of a three-legged golden crow and looks, at the heavy marks of ancient natural writings. This crow must be of a high level. It’s probably Deity Incarnate.”

Cecilia grabbed onto the leather and retreated backward. Her expression changed. "I can't give you this. I'll have no clothes to wear... Help! This is harassment! My life depends on my clothes. If you dare rob me of it, I'll kill myself right now!"

Alex huffed lightly. His fingers moved as fast as lightning as he snatched the leather over.

"Ahhh! I'd rather not live anymore!"

Cecilia hugged herself and wept on the ground. Her actions made the others speechless.

Luneth spoke up. "What kind of man are you to bully a woman? Do you know what it means to be a gentleman? Give the leather back to her, or else she can't live on! The person I care about most is her. If you don't do what I say, I won't bring you to your friend."

Alex looked at the leather attentively, then memorized all of the writings with his strong memory. When he was done, he simply tossed it to Cecelia and said, "Hey, you're not a pig, so don't roll around naked on the floor. You can just take this back."

He heaved Luneth onto his shoulders and beckoned to the Mystic Maiden. "Let's go!"

"Ahhh!"

"Bastard! You scoundrel, I'll remember you! I, Cecilia, will get my revenge!"

Cecilia could only stand there and watch as the two took Luneth away

The chaperone with the codename Chase was furious.

Alex didn't know that Chase was actually Luneth's personal bodyguard. The Muellers were a very powerful local family. One of her ancestors was a Divine

Monarch as well. They were still alive at this point in time, but they had been weakened.

Luneth had quite the potential. All her elders had high expectations for her, training her in the hopes that she'd one day surpass them. Thus, they spent a lot of time and energy and sent her to the Underworld for a transformation.

Chase was sent by the elders to protect her. There was a reason the elders weren't personally here. No one more powerful than an Immortal Emperor could enter the Underworld.

At this moment, Luneth gave herself up as a hostage to protect them. Yet, there was no way Chase could accept the fact that Luneth was just taken away like that. He couldn't possibly bring himself to tell the news to the elders of the Muellers.

He spoke up. "Stop shouting. It's not safe here. If you start attracting enemies, I can't protect you in my current state."

Cecilia quietened immediately. "What do we do now?"

Chase said, "We heal our wounds first, then we go east. Lune is very smart. She'll definitely survive under him."

Cecilia said grumpily, "Hmph! I think he's gay. It would be hard even if Lunafreya tried seducing him."

Chase didn't answer. He just glared at her.

At the same time, Alex, Mystic Maiden and Luneth were riding on the aircraft they robbed from the trialists of Galaxy Nova. They'd thoroughly examined this kind of aircraft long ago.

The Novian trialists who they killed with the formation this time were all rare geniuses of the galaxy.

Alyssa belonged to the newer generation of geniuses, and those who were killed this time were of the older. They were more powerful than the youngsters and had richer possessions in the rings.

The Mystic Maiden was checking out the items, extremely satisfied.

“There’s quite a good amount of bone pattern spiritual herbs in the ring, many of which we haven’t seen before. Now you should have enough ingredients to make pills.”

Alex nodded.

Bone pattern spiritual herbs were similar to the glowing green tree that he and Shirley encountered in the spider’s dent. They just had different properties and states.

However, from Alex’s research, he could differentiate them from the classifications of pills and fuse the ingredients respectively... It wasn’t a huge difference from his usual procedure, but the effect was greater.

Then, Mystic Maiden took out more bones out of the ring. These trialists all had bone patterns on their bodies. There were a few different colors. Even the weakest ones had green patterns. The most common color within the hon patterns was red, and the strongest of them all possessed three gold patterns.

Alex said directly, “Sis, you can have these patterns. I don’t need them now.”

Mystic Maiden didn’t refuse the offer. She covered the bodies with soul power and said, “That’s for sure. An old monk’s bathing water is full of Yin-Yang Chi taken from the roots of the Underworld. These patterns are nothing compared to Yin-Yang Chi.”

“Why didn’t you drink it that time? Were you really afraid of his bathing water? I don’t believe it.”

“Bastard, I did it for you. Haven’t I treated you well enough?”

Alex was actually kind of brilliant moved. “Thank you so much. Should I repay you with my body?”

Mystic Maiden looked at him in disgust. “Get away from me. You have no right”

Alex smiled. He was only joking, terrified after all.

Luneth was getting frustrated because they spoke in the modern language, so she couldn’t understand it.

“What are you guys talking about? Which world are you actually from?”

Alex dragged her over. "Don't ask questions that you're not supposed to. You're just a GPS now, understand?"

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2574

Alex sat in the passenger's seat.

The aircraft was in a futuristic color. Sleek and bright, it gave the most expansive view. It was relatively comfortable as well, and its flying modes were unlike anything Alex had seen on Earth too. It was a combination of technology and cultivation. Its kinetic energy was fueled by earth essence and was controlled by the power of your mind.

Alex focused on the east and started to fly. He revved up the engine and went on his way.

Luneth didn't seem surprised with the aircraft. "If I were you, I wouldn't fly this fast with this kind of aircraft."

Alex turned his head. "Why?"

Luneth said, "Don't you know? The most dangerous place in the Underworld isn't on the ground but in the air. The sky's the wonderland of the experts of the Underworld."

Alex rubbed his brow bones.

He wasn't used to not having his fleshy body here. He couldn't blink or frown, depriving him of the small habits he'd do when he was usually thinking. He could only substitute them with massaging his brow bone.

"You seem to know a lot about here, but there's one thing I can't understand. How do y'all and those trialists from Galaxy Nova enter here?"

Luneth was surprised at Alex's question. "How did y'all get in then?"

"We collected three Buddhist relics," Alex replied.

"Then don't you know already? We also collected three relics."

Now, not only was Alex stunned, even Mystic Maiden joined in. “Aren’t there only three Buddhist relics in the world? If we have three, where did yours come from?”

Luneth shook her head. “Then you must have been mistaken. There are three hundred and three thousand Buddhist relics, and they are spread out in all corners of the universe. There’s even some outside of the universe. As long as you collect three, you can access the portal at a suitable place.”

Learning such a thing made Alex and Mystic Maiden speechless.

‘No wonder we saw so many people here.’

‘Isn’t there a little too much of the Buddha relic? It’s like a chicken laying eggs, but what was the purpose for such a large amount?’

“Too bad we didn’t ask in detail when we met with Maha Revealer; he must’ve known a lot of information.”

Right then, Luneth screamed suddenly. “Careful, there’s a large demon!” With her voice quivering, she was obviously petrified.

Alex was deep in thought and unfocused. He quickly looked out of the aircraft’s window and saw a blood-red shadow in front. It was like a mountain rising to the skies. Its large size blocked the sky, looming over the world.

It was a gigantic blood-red bone bird.

The blood-red color wasn’t from its bones but because its whole body was covered densely in thousands and millions of red bone patterns.

Luneth felt her legs shivering, and both her hands grabbed onto the arms of her chair. “We’ve seen this demon before. Its powers are astonishing, and it’s extremely vicious!”

“One grab of its claw could crush a mountain peak. It even swallowed dozens of Earthly Immortal bone demons whole in one go. Even if it weren’t the master of the skies, you shouldn’t underestimate it.”

The bird had obviously noticed the aircraft, but it didn’t speed up, seemingly totally unworried that its prey would escape.

Everywhere it passed, the forest beneath remained deadly and eerily silent. All the bone demons dared not make a sound.

“Turn back now. Run!” Luneth screamed out.

The Mystic Maiden said, “We’ve been targeted. We can’t escape now. Let’s just fight!”

“What?” Luneth was shocked, watching as the enormous red bone patterns got closer and closer. She wondered if she’d heard the maiden wrong.

“But it’s such a huge demon! How do we fight?”

Alex stood up, his eyes gleaming with excitement. He’d now achieved 2999 golden cores, hence his soul power and bones had leveled up massively. Moreover, he wasn’t satisfied with the battle just now, wanting to find a worthy opponent and test his skills.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2576

Alex riveted the pursuit, vowing to fight with this monster red-boned bird.

Meanwhile, the massive bird emitted a burst of strange screams and fled quickly.

In the underground forest, countless bone demons watched and trembled.

“This is too ferocious!”

“Who is that human? He actually chased the red-haired monster to the point of wailing! Is this a rebellion?”

“It seems this time, we have remarkable characters among the trialists.”

The bone demons were also able to communicate with their soul power.

Some bone demons, especially the weak ones, hugged each other for warmth. They had been familiar with the trialists who appeared here from time to time. For the trialists, these bone demons who lived here were resources for them to transform themselves. But, for the bone demons, the arrival of the trialists was also a big meal. Devouring human souls allowed their soul power to appear to evolve, deriving higher intelligence and making the body easier to cultivate.

At the same time, the Mystic Maiden of Nine Heavens stepped on her feet, and her body also instantly rushed out.

Her speed was even higher.

After bending her bow and shooting an Arash's Bow, she grabbed the end of the arrow with one hand like a shooting star.

Barf!

Luneth was shocked. How could this work?

These two people really couldn't be judged by common sense.

She looked to the side, there was no one else in the flying machine at all now, and her cultivation had been unsealed by Alex. This was the perfect time to escape. Her spiritual power controlled the flying machine, and it became slower and slower.

Alex, Mystic Maiden, and the big bone bird, were a hundred miles away a long time ago. "To flee, or not to flee?"

Luneth was caught in huge hesitation.

She subconsciously wanted to flee, but, thinking about that big bloody bone bird all screaming in fear, she was afraid. If half of her own escape was intercepted, then the consequences were even worse.

"Forget it, forget it. I want a longer life..."

"When I become a female emperor, I will settle this with him!"

Thinking of this, Luneth also made her decision. She immediately maneuvered the aircraft to the front in pursuit. After a while, the big bone bird was forced to stop, screaming wildly in the air. It began a battle with Alex.

This scene changed her perception.

It was once an unbeatable and fierce bird, killing Earthly Immortals like dogs, only to now be beaten up furiously by Alex by stepping on its head, its body tumbling in mid-air and letting out miserable screams.

Boom...

The bone bird was smashed to the ground. It collapsed on a mountain peak.

Alex's feet remained still. He swung his bone fist, sending punch after punch, beating the bird up and down, digging deep craters on the ground. It somehow could not escape from Alex.

"Sinful animal, are you still arrogant?"

"Submit or die!"

Alex yelled as he noticed the speed of this bone bird, which was much faster than their flying machine. More importantly, if Alex could use it as a means of transport, he would not waste energy in the flying machine control. Instead, he could directly do cultivation on its broad back.

It didn't take long.

The blood-colored bone bird was honest, lying on the ground and panting heavily.

The bones on its body had been broken many times, the pain too much to bear. As the saying goes, a good man wouldn't eat the losses in front of him. It also knew the situation, such a choice was easy to make. It certainly chose to live.

"You are intelligent!" Alex exclaimed, then directly placed a soul ban on it.

At that moment, he was only missing one of the three thousand golden cores. His soul power had improved by leaps and bounds, so it was very convenient to place soul bans on others. There was absolutely no need to sign any more contracts...

Mystic Maiden once told him that soul contracts couldn't be signed casually and that long-term development must be considered, just like selecting a cultivation partner, it had to be done with caution.v

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2577

This was because the soul contract would be reflected in the Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation. The contracted person in control would give a potency bonus in the Golden Light of Lightning Tribulation. This was the way of heaven, where there were gains and losses.

One couldn't afford to be erratic and reckless.

Alex saw Luneth driving a flying machine and came down to ask about the situation.

Alex looked at her and said, "I thought you wouldn't come."

Luneth took the opportunity to express her loyalty. "I will do what I promised, so naturally, I will not go away first."

Alex smiled, "Initially, if you had left, I had no intention of going after you again. But, since you keep your promises so well, of course, I will let you be a woman of your word and guarantee that you will be a good woman who keeps her promises."

When Luneth heard this, she instantly became uncomfortable.

She was really contemplating for a long time just now, if she weren't worried that Alex and Mystic Maiden were doing tricks on her and could catch up at any time, she would have run away long ago...

'Keeping my word?'

'Dream on, what promises could I have with you guys?'

However, what she didn't know was... Alex was casually teasing her a little. In fact, he could see it with a glance that she was lying. Moreover, he would not really let her go because he still needed to use her for the safety of Daya and the others. Thus, he had long left a mark on her body, quietly, of course.

"How about this bone bird?"

“It could be fierce and might turn against us. So I suggest killing it and devouring its bone pattern. There are so many, definitely considered a great fortune.”

Luneth looked around and changed the subject.

As a result, the bone bird’s big black eyes stared at it and sternly chirped long.

This human female actually wanted to eat me?!

“It is now my mount,” Alex said. “The flying machine is too slow. We will save a lot of time by sitting on its back and going to the east.”

The big bone bird hissed, seemingly very unhappy to be Alex’s mount.

The result was a fat beating by Alex.

“You silly bird, you just deserve a beating. From now on, your name will be Silly Bird!”

The big bone bird hissed harshly and refused to agree to death. It also pointed at its neck with its bone wings, probably trying to say, “I would rather die than be a silly bird.”

Then, with its beak, it wrote three words on the ground, ‘Immortal Bird’!

“Ugh, what a lame name!” Alex spat.

However, without delay, he directly grabbed out a pill. This was a healing pill made from bone pattern spiritual herbs, which was very effective in healing bone demons. As soon as the pill was taken out, the Immortal Bird was shocked...

This pill, with dense bone patterns on it, would also levitate and rotate. It contained rules. Once taken out, there was a vibrant medicinal fragrance. After a sniff, one would be soothed, and the pain of bone injuries could be reduced.

Besides the Immortal Bird, Luneth was also stunned. “This is a pill refined from the bone pattern of spiritual herbs?”

“From what my grandfather said, in today’s world, no one has been able to refine this kind of pill for a long time. You are... ”

Alex said, "I am not in the same world like you."

The Immortal Bird was nonchalant, as if afraid that Luneth would snatch the pill away. It swallowed a mouthful of the pills that Alex had taken out. Then, the injuries on its body immediately recovered at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Luneth's eyes popped. "I have injuries on my body too but seeing that I did not abandon you guys, don't you think you should give me one."

Alex pouted his lips, "You have such minor injury, you do not need pills."

Luneth retorted, "It is severe. It hurts whenever I sit."

Alex was speechless as he walked behind her and pressed on her.

"Ah, what are you doing?"

Luneth screamed, unable to guess what Alex, the great demon king, would do next. She felt that her IQ was now at the lower limit and could not be put to any use. Her mind was blank.

"You don't think I'm molesting you, do you? It's all honey not nice to touch at all. I feel as if I'm touching an old bark." Alex spat, his hand condensing countless Zharvakko talismans and spreading them all over Luneth's back wounds. The talismans flowed, and there was earth essence pouring in from around and into the bones.

Luneth immediately felt a difference. Although there was no flesh and blood on her body, her soul power covered it.

Alex's hand touched the bones, but what she felt was soul throbbing. However, she immediately noticed the recovery of the wound...

How can this be repaired without pills and bone patterns?

She turned her neck in a daze and looked behind herself. "What means are you using?"

“Rockefeller’s ancestral tradition professionals in touching old barks.”

Luneth couldn’t help but grind her teeth and was tempted to bite off his neck.

Soon, Alex let go of his hand and finished the treatment.

Then, his mind fell on his mind palace...

In the battle with the Immortal Bird just now, Alex could more or less try out the depth of the golden core, although he couldn’t get the most out of it. When 2999 golden cores powered up simultaneously, resonance happened, raising soul power to unprecedented heights. The immortal mountain’s great lake’s vision was cohesive, just like the imagery created to see Sihirbaz Fantasia. It had an incomparably immense attacking power.

All the bones in his body were white and flawless, but with the blessing of yin and yang.

Most of the secret power contained within Ymir’s Divine Bone flowed out and spread throughout his body. It was some kind of colossal law. It was an attribute that could grow.

Right now, with his skeletal body, he could directly carry the Immortal Bird, and with the rise from the back, his Immortalization was once again raised, which would make the Immortal Bird easier to deal with...

What was missing now was the increase in bone pattern energy.

Taking a look at the Immortal Bird’s body, Alex saw thousands of blood-colored bone patterns. His eyes instantly light up. As the Immortal Bird’s heart pounded, he hurriedly backed up several dozen meters.

“Go... Take us to the east!”

Alex finally dismissed the idea of devouring the bone patterns. The most important thing now was to find Daya as quickly as he could.

The sky was overcast, and dark clouds were bearing down, a storm was brewing. However, the Immortal Bird’s was very swift, like a white horse passing by, fearless of the threatening weather.

“Luneth, what is the pit you said in the east?”

The Mystic Maiden was next to Luneth. She had absorbed the bone patterns of a dozen Galaxy Novians, but her body was the same as Alex's, whereby the bone patterns were not obvious. Instead, her bones were crystal clear, making her delicate and beautiful.

Nonetheless, she was wearing a set of white battle robes. Others could not see her bone patterns.

Luneth said, "The people I'm talking about are not from the Great Northern, but from the female eagle fairy realm, setting up pits to ambush and kill other trialists in the world between netherworlds, not once or twice. I even heard that there were corpse soldiers involved, and once anyone enters that realm, few can escape."

The Mystic Maiden adjusted her sitting posture and asked, "How do you know all this?"

Luneth answered, "Someone in our galaxy had participated in the trial in the netherworld and successfully returned, and it was that person who brought back the information, as well as the memory crystal to prove that he had also entered that realm and escaped it after only nine deaths."

"What is that realm you are talking about, exactly?"

"It is known as the Eastern Immortal Island, but inside, it is hell with eighteen levels."

Alex and the Mystic Maiden had not heard of it before and did not feel anything. However, the Immortal Bird understood clearly. It launched a fierce body lurch and formed strong stagnant resistance.

"Goo? Goo... Goo..."

It stretched its neck, bent over, and gurgled loudly.

It refused to move.

"What's your situation?" Alex slapped the Immortal Bird on the neck.

"Goo, goo, goo?!"

"Goo, you!" Alex coldly snorted. Clearly in a bad mood, he snapped, "If you shout at me again, I will behead you."

“Goo... Goo?” shouted the Immortal Bird subconsciously.

Its body suddenly froze because it was afraid Alex would use a knife to chop his head. This human really did not have the slightest protection from wild animals.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2579

Luneth scolded, “It’s obviously a bird. If you want to chop it off, you should only chop its head off.”

“The bird’s head is forbidden,” replied Alex.

“What do you mean?”

“Go home and ask your father! ”

Obviously, the Immortal Bird knew about that Immortal Island. It was in fear and dared not go there. Alex pulled out his Xavion sword and put it on the neck of the Immortal Bird.

“You can leave your bloody bone patterns here if you don’t want to go.”

In the next second, the Immortal Bird turned into a stream of light and scooted away.

Alex looked at Luneth. “Your navigation mission, it seems to be finished...”

Luneth got a little nervous. “So, you are going to kill me now?”

Alex shook his head. “I don’t have much of a grudge against you, and I have to thank you for providing the information.”

The Mystic Maiden next to him interjected, “You can also understand that this guy loves the care women provides, especially Luneth’s... Since yours are particularly big. It is his beloved.”

“So what about...” she asked, deliberately puffing out her chest. Unfortunately, nothing stuck out.

“You’re free!” Alex said as he patted the bird. “Go and put her down.”

Luneth let out a sigh of relief, quietly satisfied with the result. She didn’t want to go to that so-called Immortal Island, much less stay by the side of the perverted Great Demon King.

The Immortal Bird couldn’t help but call out ‘goo’ before rapidly descending. However, just as it descended less than a thousand meters, there was a sudden feeling of coldness, where a powerful sense of crisis fell. It turned its head violently, and it saw the sky above. A golden light broke through the air as if the wrath of the heavens were falling down.

“Goo!!! Goo!!!.”

The bird screamed desperately, its soul about to fly away in fear.

At the same time, Alex, the Mystic Maiden, and the others also felt unprecedented pressure.

A thick killing intent enveloped each of them. Dark clouds rolled in the sky, the golden light that rushed down fiercely increasing.

It broke out of the clouds. The golden light shone like a great sun.

It was... A giant, paved golden eagle, its size was about ten times bigger than the Immortal Bird.

Alex was shocked. “It’s that giant bird!”

He vividly remembered that the moment he had just entered this heaven and earth, he saw a giant golden bird swoop down in the sky and instantly grab the ancient dinosaur-like giant beast.

That was the one in front of him.

Alex didn’t expect to see it again this time. At that time, there was a feeling that his head was going to explode.

Mystic Maiden moved with great speed and immediately unfolded her divine ability to open the hidden boundary, wrapping around everyone and the Immortal Bird, trying to avoid the giant golden eagle. However, the Immortal Bird, which was in extreme motion, obviously could not hide its whereabouts and was locked.

“Goo, goo...”

The Immortal Bird’s soul trembled in fear. It almost couldn’t fly anymore. It wanted to faint and forget about it. Luneth was even lying on the back of the Immortal Bird, shivering.

Could she not be so pathetic?

If this giant golden eagle came a little later, wouldn’t she be set free?

However, death was now ahead, already beckoning.

Mystic Maiden how was drawn fully, and an arrow was shot up. However, to her surprise, a human figure stood on the body of the massive golden eagle, shooting an arrow over.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2580

Two different arrows collided, erupting with a monstrous noise. The surrounding air was torn apart. There was scurrying turbulence in the pitch-black space, which temporarily blocked the Golden Eagle’s attack a little.

“Go!”

Alex tapped the Immortal Bird, hurrying it up so it would go.

This time the Immortal Bird did not hesitate and flapped its bone wings like crazy. The boney wings were wrapped with true essence, causing the bone patterns to be in rhythm, forming a kind of invisible energy wing that caught a large area of air.

Luneth finally snapped out of her overwhelming shock.

Pointing to the vast mountain range below on the left, “Fly that way, with the resistance of the mountain range forest. It is bigger than you and certainly cannot move as smoothly as you.”

The Immortal Bird could not speak, but it could understand.

The most important thing was that it was now in a state of confusion. Under species suppression, its bird brain capacity was already small. Now, its mental functions had crashed. Only able to listen to Luneth's words, it immediately flew over there.

Another arrow was shot.

This time, it was Mystic Maiden who deflected the attack.

Again, another big explosion occurred.

After several rounds of explosive shooting, the Mystic Maiden was a bit physically exhausted. After all, her body was new and tender, and Arash's Bow was hot. This bow received the baptism of Yin and Yang. Half of its damage was repaired, but there were still defects. It could not be used for a long time and needed to be cooled in between.

"Who is the person standing on the giant golden eagle? Is it just a mount?" Luneth exclaimed. She looked back at the man, whose two black eyes with black flames dancing in the sockets. It was enough to run a chill up anyone's spine.

If that were the case, the problem was too serious. A giant eagle bone demon with golden bone patterns all over his body was merely someone's mount, so how strong was he himself?

Then, thinking about the Arash's bow with arrows shot by the Mystic Maiden was tremendously powerful but could only match the other person's seemingly unusual arrow.

This displayed the terror of the person in question. It was then that the man reshot an arrow.

This time, the arrow was black. It turned into a stream of silent black light, piercing through the void... The distance between the two sides wasn't great, and this arrow was more potent than the previous one.

"I'll do it instead!"

Alex knew that Mystic Maiden was exhausted and needed to take a breather, so he immediately topped up. He grabbed Athena's golden shield. All the golden pellets turned, and infinite secret power flowed into both arms.

Boinggg!

A deafening sound could be heard. Everyone felt discomfort in their ears. Their souls trembled, and the shockwave between the arrow and the shield caused the Immortal Bird's body to tumble in the air and fall sharply.

Luneth cried out in shock, terribly shaken.

The good thing was, amid the chaos, she managed to grab the Immortal Bird's diagonally turned bone wings and held them firmly. If not, she would have been thrown farther.

Between the soul tremors, Alex seemed to hear the angry shrill of a woman.

He did not notice that above the shield in his hand, a bizarre human face emerged with a head full of snake hair and two bloodshot eyes with tears...

"I'll block it!"

Alex grabbed the Xavion sword with the other hand and was ready to meet it.

However, he was pulled back by Mystic Maiden. "You cannot go. That person is too strong. Combined with this eagle, you are no match for him."

Alex said, "I won't fight hard. It is just to create time for you guys."

This could not be helped. The two were getting closer and closer, but the giant golden eagle was simply too fast. It was about to be caught up. Instead of being passive, it was better to take the initiative.

However, the man standing on the giant eagle was of the same mind, and without waiting for Alex to strike, he jumped off the giant golden eagle. The weapon in his hand changed to a divine halberd, and his speed was twice that of the giant eagle.

At the same time, he shouted, "The genius who killed my Galaxy Nova still wants to run?"

"You will die!"

At this moment, the people on Alex's side all felt monstrous killing intent. This person, actually, had come to take revenge for the trialists of Galaxy Nova.

“You guys go!”
