

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2781

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2781

Luna, who'd just walked in, let out a cry of surprise. Alex was right behind her, and he quickly passed through.

They then saw a massive group of living skeletons crowding against one another. Their eyes glistened with green light as they all looked towards Alex. It was as if they were taken aback as well, surprised at how humans could suddenly appear.

"The Undying Clan?!" Alex's heart jumped. This situation was all too familiar.

In the next second, war erupted. As the skeletons came to their senses like sharks that smelt blood. They shrieked and pounced towards them. These skeletons were quite fierce. Most of them even had weapons in their hands too.

Boom!

Alex sent out an attack with his palm. The divine power was like an endless sea, toppling the opponents and clearing them out of Alex's way.

Luna quickly removed the White Bone Whip from her wrist. She then whipped the air and said, "Why do these skeletons look similar to the ones in Spiritual Valley Dungeon?"

Holy energy flowed from Alex's body as he sent the skeletons back with his palms. "They aren't similar... These ones are stronger."

His abilities were no longer weak like before. If he was facing those skeletons back in the dungeon, he would've been able to kill them in one blow with his current powers.

Freya, Claudia, Xerxes, and the others rushed in from behind. Seeing the situation, they immediately joined the battle.

Xerxes was reasonably strong as well. He possessed a rare treasure, which used to be the principal treasure of a Holy Church, a copper blade. It was engulfed in fiery flames, which were deadly to the undead when activated. With that, they were easily cleared out, it was an easy battle overall.

Freya pointed to Luna's White Bone Whip. "Sis, this looks interesting. Where did you get it?"

Luna pointed at Alex. "He gave it to me."

"Oh, I know, it's a token of love."

"You can say whatever you want. I won't deny it." Luna no longer kept it a secret. "Oh yeah, Alex, where's our little Whitey? We haven't seen it since we came out from Spiritual Valley."

Alex shook his head. "I don't know."

The cat was a spiritual, mythical creature that had lived since ancient times. Ever since Alex accidentally entered the Undead Territory, it had disappeared. No one knew where it had gone to.

He had asked Waltz, only to find out that Whitey had stayed at the Rockefeller's for three days after Alex got into trouble. She then vanished without a word.

The skeletons in the caves were all wiped out.

Luna immediately recognized the place. She headed in the direction of where her parents had been. However, there was no one there. Instead, they found three dead bodies lying on the ground.

Hearts dropped to the ground as everyone hurried over to check.

"Careful, don't approach it!" Alex noticed something wrong with his primordial eye and quickly warned the rest.

The three bodies were covered with tiny red furry bugs. They gathered densely on the corpses, having consumed all the flesh. Only their clothes, bones, and abandoned weapons remained.

"These aren't my parents or my aunt!" Luna said. "The clothes are different, the weapons too."

"It's... People from the Lunula sect. They've encountered them."

A battle had definitely taken place here. There were evident marks of it. The three bodies also had apparent sword, inflicted wounds.

Xerxes was anxious. “Where could they’ve gone to?”

Right then, a rustling could be heard in the dark environment. Everyone looked to the source of a sound from a dark passage. A furry red bug the size of a truck slowly crawled out.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2782

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2782

“Oh dear god! What is that?”

Closest to the bug, Freya couldn’t help but scream. As though she had springs under her feet, she jumped away and landed in Alex’s arms.

Martiny rolled her eyes. “Hey, I’m right here, you know?”

Freya immediately blushed. “Mom... Uhm, it’s safer here with Alex,” she sheepishly added.

‘Oh my..! This is how my daughter treats me?!’

Luna looked at her sister, who seemed indifferent. She even laughed about this. “Daddy’s going to be hurt this time.”

Undoubtedly, their father would be heartbroken if his two daughters were taken.

Alex didn’t know where to place his hands, but he could feel an approaching danger. It was coming from the massive red bug.

Whoosh!

The colossal bug opened its mouth wide and sent out a white wind blade. In reality, a thick silk thread spurted from its mouth and aimed at Freya. The thread was so fast that it seemed like a wind blade.

Alex moved thirty meters away in one step, barely dodging the attack.

The thread landed harshly on the ground-like a mass of spider silk, dense and thick Yet, it was far tougher than regular spider silk. Yellow smoke rose from the ground where it had landed, reeking of a dreadful smell.

“Careful, the gas is poisonous!” Xerxes shouted and immediately conjured up a gust of wind with his palms, blowing the smoke away.

However, such movements triggered the red bugs. They were initially in hibernation after consuming their fill, but now, they were waking up one after another, looking in the direction of Alex and the others. Then, they attacked them without any hesitation.

Chh...

Suddenly, the giant bug buzzed and let out a shrill shriek. A sound like sand pouring rang within the tunnel. Everyone became extremely anxious...

“Oh, come on! There’s more?”

“What is this thing even?”

“I’m getting goosebumps. I fear hugs the most, let alone so many of them in one go!” Martiny shrieked.

Alex’s primordial eye shone and looked down the tunnel. In the next second, he shouted, “Run, quickly! It’s an infestation!”

He hugged Freya with one arm and grabbed Luna with his other. After that, he ran straight in the opposite direction. The others naturally followed him.

Xerxes sent a wave of flames at the swarm with the Bronze Sword of the Seven Stars that formed a ten meter firewall in the tunnel. However, it would seem that these bugs didn’t fear the flames. They even started jumping.

The group was now utterly speechless.

The bugs jumped into the flames and continued to crawl swiftly. Millions of poisonous white threads followed behind them like shadows. Xerxes, who was last, cried out loud. Since he was running for his life, the wind blade from his sword wasn’t powerful enough, so Martiny and Claudia had to join him to fight off the enemies in the end.

“Alex, what did you say this was?” Xerxes shouted at Alex while fighting the bugs.

Alex said, “An infestation! It’s a leveled version of parasitic worms. They are extremely cruel and are being controlled by someone. If the queen is here, the owner has to be nearby. They could even be watching us secretly in the dark, waiting for a chance to attack.”

“F*ck! Are these things actually someone’s pet? I knew it! The Lunula sect is definitely evil!” Xerxes was furious. However, these worms had a great defense. Both water and fire couldn’t kill them, and they came in countless numbers. Even Martiny said they couldn’t hold on any longer. It would seem they had no choice but to come up with another solution.

Right then, Alex, who was carrying Luna and Freya, suddenly halted in his steps. Claudia crashed into his back with a loud thud since she hadn’t noticed Alex’s movements.

“Go on, why are you stopping? The bugs are right behind us,” she said quickly.

“It’s a dead-end,” Alex said.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2783

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2783

“What? A dead end?” Claudia turned to look. Their road wasn’t blocked, but another truck size bug was coming from there. Around it was countless smaller bugs.

“Sh*t, we’re surrounded. What do we do?” Freya asked in a trembling voice.

Luna pulled her sister down. “Don’t act dead. Come fight the bugs with us. You’re a descendant of Exorcist Dragons, and you’re scared of bugs? That’s bringing shame to our clan.”

Alex said, “Attack them! You guys follow me!”

Thump!

The Requiem Clock appeared, and waves of holy energy rippled as the clock levitated over Alex. A golden barrier of divine energy then covered everyone. Alex’s left hand held the sheath while his right held a sword gourd. Hundreds of wind blades and light crossed one another, forming a tightly knitted blade web, rotating into the sea of bugs like a blender.

“I’ll help!” Luna kept away her whip and took out the Sky-Devil Zither.

Tring! Tring!

The sound of the zither was deadly, and the sound waves were able to trigger an explosion.

Freya’s powers had significantly improved too. Her mother, Martiny, had brought her to the Dragon Palace once, a hidden place where Exorcist Dragons trained and refined their powers. Freya’s attacks were similar to spells, and the wind was her forte. Thanks to her strong and powerful skill sets, she was a big help.

Freya gathered the whole infestation into a tornado, so Alex and Luna could easily attack the entire thing.

Boom!

Alex brought all his swords together and made them one, killing one of the queen insects with one attack. From its mouth, poisonous thread spewed out like a fountain. Toxic yellow liquid oozed out from its body. The venom was so potent that even the tinier bugs couldn’t stand it. As they came into contact with the raucous liquid, the bugs melted into an ivory solution, which also happened to be poisonous.

With that, the venom flowed towards them like a river stream. Poisonous yellow smoke appeared wherever it passed.

“Dragon God Edict, let the wind blow, the God of Winds!”

Whoosh!

Freya blew the poisonous smoke away with her wind spell. However, the venom was still flowing onwards.

Just then, Xerxes shouted, “Quick, get into the boat.”

He conjured out the golden bamboo boat that levitated midair. It was an ancient holy boat that had various functions only its owner would know. Presently, it had formed a barrier that could block out the poisonous smoke.

“Charge!”

Xerxes sped the boat through the poisonous space, but the sea of bugs continued chasing behind them. To make matters worse, a shady voice could also be heard. "Hmph! You want to leave after killing Lunula sect members? How could we maintain our place in the universe if we just let you walk away?"

Alex and the others turned their heads to find two women standing behind them.

Their attire was similar to the man before, but their faces gave off an uncomfortable vibe. Pockmarked and scarred, the skin looked as though it had been corroded several times by sulfuric acid. Their flesh was shaped irregularly, where colored pieces were scattered all over their faces.

"Argh! These two look so scary!" Freya couldn't help but scream.

The others shuddered as well. After laying their eyes on them, one would naturally be scared, especially the prettier ladies. Seeing such faces made them think of themselves. If something like that were to happen to their beautiful faces, they would rather die.

Alex exclaimed, "It's the human locusts!"

As they spoke, the two women took out a bag each and opened them, releasing two golden, rather poisonous bugs.

"Go! Kill them!"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2784

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2784

Alex's heart skipped a beat as he saw the two golden bugs.

The others, too, knew how bad the situation had turned. The appearance of the two bugs was as if the queen of all bugs had arrived, all the other red bugs started crawling to the ground and shuddered in fear.

"F*ck! Why do we have to encounter such things!" Alex complained, his heartbeat quickened.

He immediately said, "Principal Lewin, you drive the boat and bring them forward. Go search for my master and the others. I'll handle things here."

Of course, Luna disagreed with him. “No. If we leave, we leave together. How can we just ditch you here? I can stay back and fight, you know?”

“Alex, I’ll stay too,” Freya said.

Alex grunted. “What’s the use of you two staying? You’ll only be a burden. Principal Lewin, go, now!”

“Alex, don’t act tough. Can you really handle the situation?” Xerxes asked quietly.

Alex smiled. “Have you forgotten how I killed the Immortal Emperor while we were in the Underworld? Why would I fear a few bugs if I could kill that emperor? Don’t worry, I’m invincible. They can’t harm me, but they might hurt you guys.”

Xerxes indeed had a strong impression of Alex’s powers while they were in the Underworld, and thus, felt assured by Alex’s words. “Okay, I believe you. We’ll wait for you at the front!”

Whoosh!

Alex jumped from the boat and landed on the ground.

Luna’s cry could be heard from above. “Honey, you have to return safely. If you don’t, I... I’ll find another man and cheat on you...”

‘This... Was this a reminder or a threat?’

Freya wanted to say something, but she couldn’t bring herself to say anything bold like her sister. Thus, she stomped her feet and shouted, “Alex, don’t you dare die! We’ll be waiting for you, alright?”

On the other hand, the Lunula sect’s human locusts were unwilling to let anyone go and immediately ordered the golden bugs to attack.

Whoosh!

Alex brought out the Xavion Sword and held it firmly in his hand. He looked like a hero, ready to fight anything that came at him.

Bzzz...

The two bugs let out a shrill sound. Half the size of the red bugs, these ones were way swifter.

In an instant, they extended out two pairs of golden wings with complicated patterns, beautiful but dangerous. The others might not have known how cruel this poisonous bug could be, but he did. It was clearly written in the Ultimate Book of Medicine, after all.

The Golden Beetle was the king of all venomous bugs. They were invincible unless someone had a powerful treasure that could control them. Otherwise... It would be most wise to run immediately after encountering such an insect.

These bugs were a headache to even experts of Incarnate Deity. Yet even the weakest members of the Lunula sect would have such killing machines.

This was why Alex told Xerxes to bring the others and run. He had a chance at living on his own, but it wasn't the same for Luna and Freya. If the bugs caught up to them, they would likely meet their demise.

“Would the Ten-Point Forbidden Spell be able to freeze them?!”

Alex thought of a plan and secretly summoned the furnace of forbidden spells. He would definitely not give up his life. Worst case scenario, he could still hide in the Cleansing Vase.

Whoosh!

The two bugs turned into two rays of golden light. They moved at the speed of lightning and headed right towards Alex. They were getting closer...

The two human locusts gave a cold expression, obviously full of themselves.

“Such ignorance for a bunch of natives. Just die already!” One of them said.

Alex activated his primordial and divine eyes simultaneously, watching the bugs closely and clearly catching their flying route. He then lifted the Xavion Sword while the furnace of forbidden spells worked secretly.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2785

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2785

“The Great Icebound Spell...”

Pshh!

Alex was about to cast the spell. Yet, to his surprise, two red gusts started blowing violently. Like two wind blades, they attacked the bugs fiercely.

Alex was stunned. Taking a good look, it was two embroidery needles with a red thread tied to them. It was Claudia’s weapon!

He could tell that Claudia’s needles were quite powerful. Right on target, they hit the bugs’ mouths when they were wide open. Then, the two red threads lit up as bright as the sun, burning like fire. This kind of thread was more advanced than the silk thread that she’d used earlier.

Hisss...

The bugs hissed loudly in tremendous pain as they struggled on the ground.

Alex didn’t waste time, he cast a Ten-Point Forbidden Spell, the Great Icebound Spell. With the sound of something quickly being built up, the two golden bugs and the red bugs behind them were sealed in ice.

He looked towards Claudia, who was standing beside him. “Why are you here?”

Claudia looked indifferent. “I’m not used to hiding behind others! I owed you my life, so we’re even now.”

Alex was speechless. ‘Don’t I seem to be in a life-threatening situation?’

“Say that after you kill these bugs!”

“Aren’t they dead yet?” Claudia asked.

“You’re overthinking. These are the kings of insects. They are the most powerful of their kind. Even experts of Incarnate Deity try to avoid them.”

As he finished speaking, breaking sounds came from the two ice statues. The golden bugs were untouched. Furious, they crashed their way out of the ice, screaming loudly and waving their antennas. Behind them, the group of red bugs swarmed up.

“That’s troublesome!” Claudia looked grim now. She pulled the thread tight with her hands. The threads were super powerful-their surfaces were covered with deadly energy. No one really knew what they were made of.

Anyway, under Claudia’s control, the two threads became extremely scary. Patterns emerged from them and barged into the insects.

“Switch!” Claudia bellowed before the red thread turned into a large web, trapping the two golden bugs.

In the next second, they were captured by the web, unable to break free for now.

She raised her snow-white cheeks at Alex. “How’s that? Does that count now?”

Alex shook his head. “As long as those human locusts are alive, the bugs can’t be killed. I’ll kill them off!”

The human locusts were linked to the bugs in a mysterious way. Since they had lived together since young, the poisonous insects were like a byproduct of humans, fostering their young with their own bodies. They fed them with their bodies and released them when they were grown...

Hence, the insect actually viewed the human locust as their maternal body. Such a relationship couldn’t be accepted by any normal person. Moreover, their faces were in such a state because they formed while fostering the bugs. It was because the poison in their bodies would be displayed all over their skin. If they took off their clothes, they would look more disgusting and horrifying, like they had the skin of toads.

Now, the human locusts were mad, never expecting the golden bugs to be halted.

“F*ck! I didn’t expect the wasteland’s barrier to be so powerful. Not only did it lessen our powers by half, but the bugs were even affected,” one of them said.

“If not for that, these lowly natives would’ve been long dead!”

“There’s no other way. We have to use the precious demonic blood!”

The other human locust then took out a bottle that contained the blood of some devil. It subsequently transformed the bugs ten times more powerful. This was the preparation they'd made when they crossed the barriers. However, Alex wouldn't give them the chance to turn the tables.

Whoosh!

A shadow passed, and the Xavion Sword swept over swiftly like lightning.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2786

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2786

The two human locusts weren't that strong, and their cultivation had been diminished a little when they crossed the border. Such was the power of the force field.

If it were stronger, the consequences would not be as simple as diminished cultivation, but like the giant bird before, it would have its life diminished. The final ending, however, was the same.

Alex's Xavion Sword cut out a wheel of light. With a single sword, the two human locusts were decapitated.

Poof... Poof... Poof...

What had caught Alex off guard was the moment the two human locusts were chopped apart by the Xavion Sword, the blood inside their bodies spurted out like an erupting volcano.

The blood, which was fishy and smelly, wasn't red but green. Once the green blood met the air, green smoke came out. The strange poison was incomparable.

Fortunately, the Requiem Clock hanging over Alex's head had not been taken off. The golden holy energy was like a shadow, and the highly toxic blood hit the golden shield and corroded it, causing the Requiem Clock to wail.

Clinton, the tool spirit, was probably shivering.

Shhhhh...

The poisonous falcons all hissed viciously at the death of the falcon, and the sounds converged, emitting a noise so unpleasant to the ear, their eardrums were about to be ripped apart.

Claudia screamed, and blood oozed out of her ears. She covered her ears and was unable to hold the embroidery needle with the red thread.

Two sounds could be heard, however. The golden beetles, whose mouths were pierced by the embroidery needles, had broken free. They didn't rush to chase Claudia but returned to the two human locusts before scrambling to eat the corpses and blood.

Alex instantly teleported away.

"Auntie Claudia, are you all right?" Alex looked at her and asked.

"What are you shouting at me for?" Claudia's eyes widened. Looking less than thirty, she had a well maintained appearance that made her look elegant and refined. After being called an auntie by a man as old as Alex, she felt a little strange all of a sudden.

Alex, however, frowned and looked at the blood by her ears, thinking that her eardrums must've burst. Nonetheless, now wasn't the time for that. Instead, it was the best time to kill the beetles.

"Great Ice Bound Spell! "

"Thousand Swords Attack!"

"Burning Thunder Flames!"

Alex's attacks were in full swing. There was ice and fire, with hundreds of flying swords pouring down like rain. The beetles without the human locusts were like floating ducklings that had lost their foundation. They were much easier to kill, especially after the death of the human locusts. Venom flowed out, which poisoned all the other small beetles.

A few moments later, the dust settled.

Alex turned around to find that Claudia had already wiped the blood from her ears. She recovered her composure, then said as she looked at Alex, "Well, your fighting ability is not bad. There is some future."

“ ... ”

Alex froze and was speechless. Finally, he said, “You owe me another life.”

Claudia’s ears weren’t damaged, and she could hear every word. The corners of her mouth twitched. “Brat, how do you count? Although I won’t deny that you have helped me, you saying I owe you life is a little too much, right? We are comrades in the same boat. Without me holding the golden beetle back, could you have killed the human locusts so easily?”

Alex nodded. “Okay, then let’s forget it. ”

Despite getting her life back, Claudia still felt awkward. “I am your aunt. Even if you save me, it is perfectly natural. How can you make me return it?” she growled with gritted teeth.

Alex nodded again, “Don’t worry, I won’t force you.”

“ ... ”

The golden beetles and the human locusts were highly poisonous, and there was no valuable loot, prompting the pair to return to rendezvous with Xerxes and the rest immediately.

However, after running for a reasonable distance, they couldn’t be found.

“Strange. This place is empty, and there are no other signs of battle. Where did they go?”

Logically, they should have been waiting not far away. Alex said, “Could they have found Principal Lawlor’s traces and went after them?”

Claudia asked, “On the way here, did the road fork out or something?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2787

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2787

Alex thought for a moment and shook his head. “No. There is just one road.”

Claudia said, "Look ahead. Xerxes' flying ark is a supreme treasure. It was once a Daoist ancestral temple's treasure. It is speedy, and it might have gone ahead of us."

Alex was hearing the official name of the golden bamboo boat for the first time.

As they moved forward in the dark surroundings, only the sound of two people's footsteps could be heard. It seemed very quiet. After a while, both of them realized that they were off course. According to the mileage calculation, they could have gone from Michigan to California at such ridiculously high speed.

"Something's wrong!" Claudia took the lead and stopped.

"I don't feel right either."

"It's like we're going around in circles. We've taken pretty much the same path. Are we lost?"

Alex shook his head. "The so-called phenomenon is just one of the ordinary formations inside, nothing worth mentioning."

Claudia looked skeptical. "You talk as if you know the formation."

Alex said, "Didn't Moony tell you? I am a formation Grandmaster."

"Ouch!"

"What's wrong with you?"

"I bit my tongue!"

Alex stared at her expression with suspicion on his face, "Aunt Claudia, are you really practicing Serenity?"

Claudia rolled her eyes. "It is none of your business. You said you are a formation master, so hurry up and break the formation here for me."

Alex said helplessly, "If only there were formations here, I would have found it long ago, but the key is that there are no formation boundaries here. It's very normal."

Claudia said, "I think it's because you don't know how to break the formation at all."

Alex looked at her and stopped talking. Instead, he unfolded his primordial eye and looked around, then lay down on the ground again and listened. After a few moments, he felt odder and odder...

"Well? See anything?" Claudia asked.

"It is very strange here... Like... It's a living thing," Alex said with an odd face. "So, it's not that we are lost, but this passage is most likely alive."

"Living things?"

Claudia froze. She had never thought of such a situation, but now that she remembered that the hole they had entered from was bleeding, she became a bit suspicious. She flipped her right hand and grabbed a long knife. Then, she said, "Try it and see."

Her sword was very long. It was about two meters, a little taller than her height. It was sparkling and very sharp. She planted the sword into the ground ruthlessly.

Poof!

No blood spurted out.

However, in the next second, the entire passageway turned upside down and shook ferociously, and the walls of the passage quickly closed.

"Not good, run!"

Alex saw that the situation was not right and quickly picked up Claudia. He teleported forward, but he could not move outside because teleportation was also space-limited.

The closing speed of the channel wall was faster than his teleportation.

The next second.

Snap!

The passage closed.

Alex felt a huge force closing in, sandwiching the two people inside. It was tightly closed, and they were unable to move.

Claudia screamed. She felt like her bones were going to be crushed, and now she and Alex were in a bit of an odd position, like a crossed 'X'. Their surroundings were closed all around.

"Oh, Alex, you quickly move a little. I feel uncomfortable!"

Could this be not comfortable?

It was embarrassing too. Even if one were to cultivate serenity, it wasn't useful!

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2788

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2788

Alex moved with force.

Claudia immediately screamed again, "Don't move, you don't move!"

Of course, Alex was embarrassed. Claudia was also Gilbert's woman and Luna's aunt, and now, he was faced with this kind of situation.

"Do you want me to move a little or not at all?" Alex tried very hard, but a massive and peerless force surrounded the closed channel. If not for his strong physique and with the presence of Ymir's Divine Bones to strengthen his body, he would've been unable to move!

Claudia struggled hard, wanting to change to a suitable position. However, she found that the situation only got worse once she moved. Her heart almost jumped out, her face was red, and she no longer dared to move.

Alex also felt it, and more embarrassingly, he felt a bit horny... It was really torturing.

"Ahem, I don't think this will take long. Let's bear with it. This channel should loosen up again... But this can be more proof from the side that this channel, most likely, is inside some living object."

Claudia quietly cultivated Serenity, forgetting the shame coming from her body. "You mean, this channel is just a part of some living object's body?"

"Yes!"

"This... Is still a bold guess."

Then, the two said nothing more. Due to the awkward position, talking was very difficult. They had to save some strength. As a result, the more silent they were, the more intense their body's six senses were.

Thoughts ran through Alex's mind... 'Holy sh*t! This woman has a first-class body.'

'The muscles are not very elastic... Does she exercise often?'

'How could I have this idea, don't make a fool of yourself!'

Claudia exhaled sharply. "What are you thinking about?"

Alex answered, "I was thinking... How do you take care of yourself?"

"Ugh! Uhm..."

"Ahem... A slip of the tongue. As far as I know, I was going to ask if those who cultivate Serenity need to cut off all romantic relationships. How did you get along so well with Principal Henderson? Won't you suffer a backlash in this way?"

Being asked such a private question by a junior, Claudia was a bit embarrassed, but they were in a state of... Moreover, if Claudia did not say something, Alex might just insult her in his heart!

"I went to college with him!"

"Before I cultivated Serenity, I... Had feelings."

Alex knew a bit about Serenity since it had been explained inside the Ultimate Book of Medicine. Apparently, someone had once cultivated Serenity, but for some reason, she let her guard down and fell in love with a man again...

However, the Ultimate Book of Medicine could not be reversed. It was clear that Serenity was great.

As a result, after Claudia successfully cultivated Serenity, she was actually still in love with Gilbert, which was a bit unbelievable.

“My situation was rather special, so don’t ask.”

“If I don’t distract myself, I’m afraid...”

“You are really evil! ” Claudia was moved. If this went on, there would be trouble. So, she hurriedly said, “Well, then I’ll tell you a secret about Serenity. Before cultivating, one needs to fall in love with a man and then cut off that love to achieve serenity. However, all things are not absolute. The moment prior to officially cultivating serenity, one needs to get the teardrop of a man. You can let serenity’s guard down and become an exception.”

Alex was surprised that there was such a solution. However, the limitations were too great to be universal. It was at this moment.

The closed channel seemed to loosen a little. The crushing force was much less.

Claudia struggled violently and crawled over the side, finally able to free herself from Alex’s offensive behavior. She was a little angry and disadvantaged, and her anger became unbearable, especially when she saw his murderous look in that place.

Pop!

She kicked Alex with moderate force.

In fact, such strength wasn’t a problem for Alex, as the Ymir’s Divine Bone was at his spine. His body had been strengthened many times, and even a hammer could not break it.

Alex did not continue this topic, and she was no longer pissed. Instead, he thought about how they were going to get out of here.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2789

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2789

As a result, the other end of the passage opened up. A rumbling like a sea tide could be heard, shaking the place to its core.

“What’s happening?”

Claudia quickly climbed up. By now, the passage had become bigger again. However, the impact from the other side of the passage was too terrifying.

“Be careful!”

“Get down!” Alex reminded Claudia.

He saw that there was a powerful air pressure that was rushing over. The wind was stronger than a category 20 hurricane. Coupled with the ground being overturned, the passage was also moving in a fierce rhythm.

“What..?”

They were violently blown away and thrust toward the other end. The two finally converged midway through and pulled each other in.

“Requiem Clock, suppress!”

“Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation, Special Stamp of the Three Realms!”

Buzz...

The holy energy burst with golden light, forming a huge Buddha palm that wrapped Alex and Claudia. Like a mountain, they were unmoved, no matter how violent the winds blew.

Time passed. Then, they felt a sudden brightness in front of their eyes and rushed out of the channel.

Ping!

Pop!

They fell out of the passage, only to find a lush and vast jungle outside. Giant trees were everywhere, trees so wide a few people could embrace its trunk. The denseness of the spiritual energy went beyond imagination, even more than when the tide of spiritual energy came. The whole place was foggy, covered with an immortal spirit.

At the top of a distant mountain, a palace that looked like it was made in heaven stood between heaven and earth. The divine light shone, and immortal birds were flying.

It was a peaceful scene.

“Where is this?”

“Where is that palace?”

Alex and Claudia were both shocked. They had previously guessed that this holy realm was inside some living creature, but now, such a world with forests, mountains, and a temple had appeared... What creature could have such an ample space inside its body?

“Could Principal Lawlor and the others have gone to that divine temple?” Alex asked.

Claudia frowned, “I’m afraid... They are still in the passage, and if they encounter the Lunula Sect inside...”

Just as the words came out, the two heard a harsh whistle from the left coming from the depths of the jungle. There was then the sound of human anger and the sound of a fight with an explosion of Chi.

Alex and Claudia glanced at each other and immediately ducked.

“Go check it out?”

“Be careful. Listen to its accent. It’s not one of ours.”

The two crept silently before finally hiding in a large tree seven or eight hundred meters away. They wanted to get as far away as they could to avoid detection.

It was five people fighting against a giant python. They were in the same attire as the Lunula Sect people.

The python didn’t last long and was quickly dismembered.

Then, several people started talking...

“Where did those natives go?”

“They have a subdued sect-level divine weapon in their hands. There’s more than one of them. They must be found.”

“In my opinion, those few are a bit difficult to deal with. We have lost a lot. Why don’t we go back and report to the master so he can pass on some more weapons, then come back and kill these natives?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 2790

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 2790

Although these people spoke the language of the ancient times, Claudia had studied and could understand it.

“In that case, they really had an encounter with our people,” Claudia whispered in Alex’s ear.

Alex nodded, “I just don’t know who they encountered.”

“They are most likely Gilbert and Metzli Flores’ people, because they possessed several pieces of the divine artifact,” Claudia guessed.

After that, those people continued to discuss for a while. The talking got further and further. At such a distance, it was hard to hear simply by ear. Claudia put all her power on her ears, but she could only hear extremely subtle sounds. It was now almost impossible to hear the contents of their conversation.

However, from afar, she saw those people in deep discussions. They seemed to be discussing very important matters. She was so anxious that she could not wait and wanted to continue approaching.

Alex hurriedly pulled her. “There is clear land in front of you. If you go over like this, you will definitely be exposed.”

“Then what? Can you hear them? Can you feel what they are plotting?”

“How about this, you stay here, I’ll go over.”

“Won’t you be exposed?”

“I have my own way.”

Alex moved his body and quietly landed on the ground. With another drill, he disappeared.

Claudia was watching from the tree. Suddenly, she became wild-eyed as she saw Alex actually burrowing headfirst into the ground as if the solid dirt had turned into water.

This was, of course, Alex's newly acquired skill, Earth Escape Technique!

This was an alternative earth transport, with the ability of the Ancestral Bodhi Tree's root hair. It could even travel through multiple realms. In addition to that, it was also compatible with the ordinary Earth Escape Technique.

Alex silently arrived at the location of the Lunula sect group.

Under normal circumstances, people were more sensitive to their surroundings but rarely guarded against enemies under their feet. The heaviness of the earth could shield one's breath. Alex converged on his true essence, now, impossible to be detected. He could hear several people talking in secret...

"Young master, will you give us soup?"

"I'll say the truth once again. Those are sect-level artifacts. Even if we get them, they are not likely to be in our hands. We clearly know what kind the young master is. What worries me most is that when the time comes, some of us will have a bad ending."

"Hmph! I believe that we are simply cannon fodder."

"Then, brothers, should we agree to this? We shouldn't report this to the young master. First, we head to the temple, then explore the heavenly shrine. Those natives have very likely gone to the temple, and it'll be perfect We get the divine weapons and share them equally. There are also a few rather beautiful native women. We'll take turns to enjoy them."

Alex clenched his teeth when he heard this. Not only had those b*stards betrayed their own young master by seizing the treasure, but they wanted to disturb the women on earth. These people were devoid of even half a conscience. These kinds were the scourge of the earth.

Obviously, the Lunula Sect's members were birds of the same feather.

After discussing their plans, several people from the Lunula Sect immediately took action and left from here, recognizing a direction and leaving quickly.

Claudia, hiding on top of the tree, saw that the Lunula Sect members had suddenly left, while Alex had not yet returned. She became anxious, wondering where Alex had gone.

Just when she was about to look around, Alex emerged from the ground over there while most of his body was still buried in the soil.

Swish...

Claudia jumped down from the tree and rushed to Alex's side, towering over him, "Hey, how did they leave? What did you hear?"

Alex tilted his head, "They just mentioned two places... A temple and a sacred shrine. They'll be first heading to..."

As he said this, he tilted his head, his eyes glassy.