The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3147

“Now we’re told there are more than two universes.”

“Hey, life is too short to waste time exploring the universe. ”

Alex sobbed, all he wanted was to live a simple life in peace and quiet, but what happened was that he was constantly trapped in one whirlpool after another, and the vortex became bigger and bigger, and his involvement grew deeper and deeper.

Shelly said, “There is no time for you to be sad because you must defend your family, and because your family is so large, you must naturally pay others several times more! Who is that woman, Pindola? How did you meet her?”

“The other part of the Siddhartha realm, it is assumed that it was cut off and taken away by the people of the Chi Universe,” Pindola moaned as he looked at Shelly.

“What?”

Didn’t this feel like cake cutting?

“What is this kind of operation?” Alex wondered.

Pindola explained, “In the past, Ksitigarbha once remarked that the rules of another world are more sophisticated and perfect, and that without reaching that height, one will never know the heavenly rift that exists between the two.”

Shelly had to take a minute to stabilize from the shock.

Finally, Pindola was to assist the rest of the folks by learning Alex’s customized version of the Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation. Pindola enthusiastically consented to it when he heard about it.

The moment after he completed his strategy of beckoning the huge crowd to the Kala Temple, Alex reversed his direction and returned to the Great Genbu space secret realm.

The teleportation door was opened.

This attracted the Naga tribe within the Kala Temple and then teleported them back through the Kala Temple's teleportation door.

During this time.

Alex spoke to Lena about laying a formidable extermination formation in the Great Genbu space secret realm so that no matter what happened, the Undying Clan would be able to be stopped to a certain extent. The secret realm, on the other hand, was enormous. There were just so many components required to set up a formation in that location.

Alex's ultimate goal in asking Lena was to find out if there were any ready-made materials suitable for constructing formations in the Great Genbu space secret realm.

Shaking her head, Lena said, "No way. However, I know of a location with a big formation that, if it is still present, can be exploited immediately."

"Oh? What happened to it?"

"It's in Pompeii Fairyland."

Lena told him during the conversation that the formation was laid by the alliance leader, Rowan, and his wife, Red Empress, to fight the Undying Clan back then.

"In that scenario, we need to get to Pompeii Fairyland as quickly as possible, or the formation will be ruined."

Lena replied, "When are we leaving? The Naga tribe's elders and youngsters cannot survive in an environment without access to the sea for long periods without risking their lives, at best, they can last only three days."

"That's sufficient! Most importantly, I want to let my mum see our children," Alex added.

Lena felt ashamed and said, "Why don't you just forget about it? Let's put it off till later! I'm still not mentally prepared."

How long has Lena been alive?

It was difficult for her to address a woman so much younger than her. Alex eventually gave in to Lena's proposal.

They continued chatting and decided to leave the next day. The plan, on the other hand, did not change frequently.

By the end of the day.

Cecilia approached him and requested his assistance. It was because she had received a message that her grandmother had followed a group of people into the depths of Pompeii Fairyland's secret realm in search of a chance, but now noticed that her grandmother's life-soul was weak, as if it would go out at any moment, indicating that her grandmother was in grave danger.

"That's great, I was planning on visiting Pompeii tomorrow..."

"Tomorrow is not the day! Tomorrow may be too late, if Grandma is gone, the curse breaker medicines she gave me will lose their effectiveness, and by then, the person you're trying to save will be gone, and I won't be able to help either."
