The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3181

She stopped the spread of the toxin with her supernatural power.

“Hehe!”

Staring at Lena, Jennifer’s eyes gleamed with a strange light, as if a greedy person who saw a pile of gold. “Your blood can actually detoxify the poison. I acquired this poison from the Witch Cult, and there is almost no antidote in the entire world, but your blood could detoxify the toxin slowly. What is inside your blood? God helps those who help themselves. I’ve finally found it after searching for countless years. You’re the treasure I crave the most!”

Jennifer looked like a pervert. She took out another kind of poison and said with a smile, “Guys, try this poison of mine. What do you say?”

“No!”

Cecilia rushed forward and stood in front of Frostine and Lena. While shedding tears, she shouted, “Grandma! Don’t do this! I beg you! Take out your antidote!”

Jennifer retorted, “Get lost!”

Cecilia suddenly took out a long sword and put it at her neck, “Grandma, give me the antidote, or I’ll kill myself in front of you.”

“You...” Jennifer was infuriated.

She never expected her granddaughter to not appreciate what she had done.

“Are you stupid?” she snapped. “Since that Rockefeller brat is not around, quickly and silently deal with this matter. When the time comes, we will shift the blame on someone else and say that the people of the Witch Cult came by. He will like you just the same.”

Cecilia clenched her fist. A streak of wounds formed on her neck, with blood oozing out.

Shocked, Jennifer tossed away the poison in her hand. “No, Cecilia. You know I love you the most! Alright, I’ll listen to you. I’ll give you the antidote to save them. The antidote is here...”

Jennifer’s leg was broken, so she told Cecilia to go over and take the antidote. However, just as Cecilia believed what Jennifer said and moved forward, Jennifer suddenly made a move by sealing her body. She could not move all her limbs at all.

“Ah! Grandma, what are you doing?” exclaimed Cecilia.

“Cecilia, you can’t understand it right now, but you will thank me in the future.” Jennifer got her hands on the poison again with one grab. “Moreover, this fish is something I crave so badly. It will be the foundation of the Peach family in the future, so I’m going to have this fish.”

Lena’s face sank. “You don’t take me seriously, do you?”

She grabbed her weapon and rushed over. However, she took a few steps before she collapsed suddenly.

“What? How can this be?”

Jennifer laughed. “Indeed, you have a decent body that possesses detoxification effects, but you shouldn’t have slit your wrist. Your blood doesn’t detoxify as quickly as my poison. Babe, you’re mine from now on.”

She moved her body and went over little by little.

Just then, a figure flashed. Alex had returned.

Sensing that something was not right, he hurried back after noticing the aura of Frostine’s Nine Tails. Consequently, he flew into a rage with bulging blue veins at a glance of the scene.

“Senior! Lena! Old hag Jennifer, what have you done to them?!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3182

When Cecilia noticed that Alex had rushed back and witnessed this scene, she knew that they were done for.

Lena quickly said, "This old hag poisoned Miss Usoro and me. It's a potent poison from the Witch Cult. I can detoxify Miss Usoro with my blood, but I need time! Be careful, and don't fall for this old hag's trick."

Alex's heart fluttered while looking at Frostine's current appearance.

How painful was that?

"Take out the antidote or die!" Alex growled as he suppressed the rage inside him.

Jennifer sat on the ground. She could only sit on the ground. Her dark face showed a smile. "Grandson-in-law, why are you being so angry? One of them is a fish, whereas the other is a vixen. How can they be better than Cecilia? Besides, the Peach family will become your backer if you marry Cecilia. Brat, you've offended so many sects in the Underworld. Countless old geezers have teamed up to kill you. Only the Peaches can protect you."

Alex said coldly, "Antidote! Don't make me say this for the third time. I don't wish to find it on your corpse."

Jennifer was furious. "Rockefeller brat, don't be stubborn. I just won't give it to you. So what? Are you going to kill me? Do you even have the ability?"

Cecilia cried as she said, "Grandma, take out the antidote. I beg you."

"Shut your mouth, you good-for-nothing girl."

Jennifer said, "Rockefeller brat, don't you have some important people that need to dispel the curse? Do you still want to dispel their curse? To be frank, no one else can dispel the Witch Curse other than me! You better stand aside and keep quiet. I'll call the shots in this matter. You don't have to worry about anything else. I'll naturally help you to dispel the curse."

Alex looked at her. "It looks like the negotiation has failed. Miss Peach, I can only apologize to you. I'll find you a new grandmother."

Alex condensed Chi in his hand and tried to activate the Ten-Point Forbidden Spell right after his voice fell.

However...

'Huh? Something's wrong!' Alex suddenly sensed that he couldn't condense the Chi.

Was he poisoned too?

No!

Alex was very confident in his body.

He had long been immune to all kinds of poisons. Moreover, he had the Ultimate Book of Medicine. If he were poisoned, his body would react immediately and defend itself. However, it did not happen.

"Isn't it strange? Rockefeller brat, you're still too immature. You were not born when I did whatever I pleased in the world!" Jennifer laughed triumphantly as she sat on the ground.

"Do you think I'd poison you? I wouldn't! Because I've long investigated you! You have the alias of a miracle doctor with first-rate medical skills, and you are also a profound alchemist. I'd be too dumb if I were to poison you."

Lying on the ground, Cecilia asked, "What did you do to him then? Grandma, don't harm him. If something happens to Alex, I swear I'll kill myself as a token of apology."

"Cecilia, my granddaughter. Aren't you foolish? I won't kill him, of course! I've cast a curse! Rockefeller brat, why don't you look at your chest?"

Alex unbuttoned his clothes. In an instant, he saw familiar red patterns—the moon, a shrine, and a snake.

"Ah!" Cecilia screamed. "Isn't this... The Witch Curse?! Grandma, how did you know about this? Didn't you say only the members of the Witch Cult could cast this kind of curse?"

Jennifer looked up at the sky and said slowly, "Because I've joined the Witch Cult!"

Buzz!

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3183

Cecilia felt as though her mind was about to explode.

The Peach family's goal was to destroy the Witch Cult, to kill every last one. The Peaches had devoted more than ten generations of efforts to research the removal of the Witch Cult's poison. It was because many Peaches had perished at the hands of the Witch Cult... Both parties should have ended up in a fight to the death. However, the main force of the Peach family, Jennifer Peach, who bore the brunt to resist the Witch Cult and the Witch's poison, unexpectedly said that she had joined the Witch Cult.

Was there anything else more ironic than that?

Cecilia was stunned. Alex was also astonished.

Cecilia bawled and felt that her moral compass had collapsed. "Grandma, why did you do that? Why? Don't you hate the Witch Cult the most? Why did you join them?"

Jennifer replied, "I... I didn't do it of my own volition! However, I recently noticed nothing wrong with joining the Witch Cult. This is a chance."

Looking at Alex, she said with a smile, "Cecilia, this man is decent, but he is disobedient. If you wish to possess him normally, it'd be absolutely impossible. I'm helping you right now. There is a Bewitching Curse in the Witch Cult. After casting the Bewitching Curse, you can make him love only you for the rest of his life, and he will do whatever you tell him to."

Cecilia's face was filled with tears as she shook vigorously. "I don't want that! In that case, he will only be a puppet or a doll at the mercy of someone else. What's the use of that?"

"It's useful, of course! Have you forgotten about it? He has a lofty status in the Wasteland and is the controller of Yukon, who has acquired the luck of the universe. This guy will be of great use to the Peach family and the Witch Cult! If the Witch Cult can extract luck from him, they will no longer have to worry about the inability to achieve greatness."

After saying that, Jennifer took a little bit of blood from Cecilia's body and moved toward Alex. She lifted her hand and wanted to cast the Bewitching Curse on Alex. However, it was then that a crying suddenly came from the sky.

It was a woman's cry.

It was faint at first, but soon, it repeated continuously until the entire space was filled with cries.

"Who's there? Who is crying here? Come out!" Jennifer felt completely uncomfortable by the crying voice.

The crying was heard in all directions. It sounded extremely ethereal.

However, Alex's spirit was lifted because he had heard this cry a few times before. It was the Crazy Crone.

As expected, the Crazy Crone was here.

Whoosh!

Crazy Crone had suddenly appeared and was now standing in front of Alex and Jennifer. Her hair was disheveled and her face was full of wrinkles as she looked at Jennifer and Alex with her cloudy eyes containing eye boogers.

Jennifer jumped in shock.

The Crazy Crone's appearance was too sudden.

Subsequently, she looked at Alex. After looking at him for a while, she suddenly smiled. It was unknown if she had recognized Alex, but she stretched out a hand. That hand was also full of wrinkles and dirty with long fingernails. She had probably left her hands unwashed for many years with fingernails streaked with black grease.

The Crazy Crone touched Alex's face with her hand, making his hair stand on end. Even so, he expressed his heartfelt gratitude to the Crazy Crone.

"Senior, we meet again. Almost three years have passed in the blink of an eye since we last parted. Senior, how have you been in the past few years?"

Looking at him, huge drops of tears suddenly ran down Crazy Crone's face. Judging from her expression, she was definitely putting up a pretense. She was in pain, yet she seemed to be in remembrance, as if she had remembered someone.

Alex thought that she must be someone with a history.

Just then, Jennifer suddenly acted against the Crazy Crone. She viciously stabbed a poisonous dagger with a flashing blue glow into the Crazy Crone's chest.

"Where did this lunatic come from?! Go to hell!"

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3184

The Crazy Crone was focused on touching Alex's face. Her mind was so caught in a deep chasm she simply could not snap out of it. Even a normal person would fall into a crisis when she encountered such a situation, let alone a crazy crone like her.

"Be careful!" shouted Lena.

Alex also sensed it. However, he was currently cursed and the Chi all over the body was subdued by the old hag. Hence, he had no means to effectively block the old hag. His eyes widened in rage as he helplessly watched Jennifer stabbing the dagger in her hand hard into the Crazy Crone's chest.

However...

The expected scene of the dagger stabbing into the body did not occur. The dagger seemed to have stabbed into an extremely hard steel plate and emitted a metallic clang.

Jennifer's hand trembled abruptly. This kind of sensation was odd. Could it be that the Crazy Crone's chest was covered with a thick steel plate?

Furthermore, the dagger in her hand was not an ordinary weapon, but it was an indestructible, razor-sharp magical treasure. Even if there were another hundred or thousand steel plates, it could pierce them effortlessly.

'What did that old hag put on her chest?'

As soon as she thought about it, she sensed something was wrong the next moment. A peerlessly overwhelming and mighty force rushed toward her body.

Ding!

A sound rang out. Jennifer's eyes widened in disbelief.

To her surprise, the dagger in her hand broke the moment it touched the Crazy Crone's chest. Immediately afterward, she felt a pain in the wrist. Completely unguarded, her wrist was broken severely by that force.

'It's not good!' A warning blared in Jennifer's mind.

Having lost her legs, she retreated as fast as she could. Even so, it was too late.

The Crazy Crone's cry stopped and she lashed her palm out like a conditioned reflex... The distance was clearly a little far. With her arm's length, Jennifer was definitely out of her reach. It was because the Crazy Crone did not move at all.

Nonetheless, a huge palm magically landed hard on her crown.

Smack!

One last thought popped up in Jennifer's mind. 'This is impossible!'

In the next moment, her thoughts were all gone because her brain fell out from the smack. The entire head collapsed into the body, the bones were deformed and the internal organs were also instantly shattered by the shock. Her soul even crumbled from the crushing blow.

It was an instant kill!

Furthermore, it was an instant kill with one blow and without any warning.

To the Crazy Crone, it was like smacking a despicable mosquito to its death with a wave of her hand. It was as simple as that. Then, she continued touching Alex's face, immersing herself in her own world and weeping.

The few people around them looked dumbfounded.

She was strong! She was too strong!

Alex had previously looked up to the Crazy Crone, but after reaching the cap, he thought that she was almost an Immortal Emperor. It was because, at that time, the great world of America was not yet open. Rumor had it that there was a large gap between the fellow disciples who went into the Dead Swamp along with the Crazy Crone and the experts who had now come from the universe and easily achieved Heavenly Deity and Divine Monarch.

Only now did he know about that.

The Crazy Crone's level was much higher than theirs. Jennifer's level was at least of a Heavenly Deity. A legless Heavenly Deity was still a Heavenly Deity, but she was far inferior compared to the Crazy Crone.

Just how powerful was the Crazy Crone?

“Grandma?!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3185

Cecilia's eyes widened in disbelief. Her grandmother was the pillar of the Peach family, yet her death was not worth a brass farthing. Even if Jennifer's previous action made Cecilia feel immense pain, she was her grandmother in the end.

Alex was also in a dilemma.

What was the purpose of running so hard to save Jennifer?

Didn't he need her help to dispel the curse on a few people?

Consequently, not a single curse had been dispelled, and he was also inflicted with a curse.

***

As soon as Jennifer died, Alex felt that the curse energy on his chest kept decreasing. The Chi locked by that force could continue to flow.

Whoosh!

Just then, another figure rushed from the depths of the immortal island and appeared before Frostine. "Frostine! Frostine, what happened to you?!"

The comer was the Plenilune Sect's former sect leader, Serene Coufal.

As expected, she had long entered the interior of Pompeii Fairyland and found the Crazy Crone. She was with the Crazy Crone just now. However, the Crazy Crone instantly rushed over here after hearing a commotion, whereas she was slower by one level. Finally, until a certain moment, the Crazy Crone's crying stopped.

She also put down the hand that was touching Alex. She sat on the ground and glanced at Jennifer, who died horribly. She then glanced at Frostine, who was in miserable pain. Lowering her head, she closed her eyes and was lost in thought.

Alex immediately jumped up and rushed toward Frostine. "Senior... "

He activated both the primordial eye and Third Eye. He could see that the toxins in Frostine's body had not been eliminated. Lena's blood did have the effect of detoxification, but it was effective on her. Meanwhile, its efficacy would be reduced when used on someone else.

He hurriedly took out an antidote pill and let Frostine consume it.

Even so, the effect was not significant. The Witch Cult's poison was overbearing.

Just then, Cecilia's voice was heard. "Alex, my grandmother has an antidote pill on her. It's called the Myriad Poison Detoxifying Pill. It's an antidote specifically used by the Peaches to cure the Witch Cult's poison. If you let Miss Usoro consume it, she should be fine."

After that, she cried as she apologized, "I'm sorry. I'm really sorry. I didn't know my grandmother would do that..."

Alex looked at her. He was furious, but after soul-searching, this incident was caused by the old hag, Jennifer. Hence, he could not take his anger out on Cecilia.

He walked over and searched Jennifer's body. He found a storage ring. The space inside was surprisingly huge.

He searched for a long while before he could find that Myriad Poison Detoxifying Pill. At the same time, he even discovered a secret manual with the three words, 'Witch Blood Curse', written on it in ancient writing.

'Is this the secret manual of the Witch Curse?'

A whim struck Alex. He was a little surprised, but now was not the time for research. He kept the ring for himself and fed the Myriad Poison Detoxifying Pill into Frostine's mouth.

With Alex's alchemy, he could tell that it was indeed a genuine antidote pill when he received it. At the same time, he reversely analyzed the pill's composition and even simulated the pill's recipe.

Shortly afterward, Frostine's poison was cleared entirely. However, she immediately entered some kind of hibernation state after detoxification. The three tails became thicker and longer. They were several times taller than her height, wrapping herself up. She looked just like a round fluffy ball.

"What's wrong with her?" Alex asked Serene.

Serene said, "After experiencing this calamity, the Nine-Tails bloodline in Frostine's body has unlocked a new supernatural power again. The fourth tail is about to come out."

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3186

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3186

Frostine's condition was considered to be stable.

Alex hurriedly checked Lena's body... She had cut her wrist to feed Frostine with her blood. As a result, Jennifer seized the opportunity and poisoned her wound.

The amount of toxin was greater. Hence, a blockage showed up for a while as she relied on the detoxification amount of the blood inside her body.

From the examination, Alex noticed that Lena's detoxification ability was not just inside her blood, but her body also contained a unique power, some kind of innate power. Similarly, it could protect her bodily functions to prevent the important body parts from taking severe damage.

"Is this some kind of blessing?" Alex was curious.

That power contained some kind of holy aura.

"A blessing?" When Lena heard Alex talk about the blessing-like power, she remembered something and said, "I heard my mother saying that I received a senior's light blessing when I was born."

"Amazing. This is a light-attributed holy blessing. All of them are extinct now."

"I heard that she's the last Dharma goddess of light. By the way, her name is Helena my maternal grandfather's godsister."

"So, your maternal grandfather is actually Emperor Rowan?"

Lena nodded.

However, it was then the Crazy Crone lifted her head abruptly and shot divine light out of her eyes. Staring intently at Alex, she said nonsensically, "Emperor Rowan? Emperor Rowan? Who is Emperor Rowan? Who is Emperor Rowan?"

Alex and the others all looked at her. Their eyes showed surprise.

At that moment, the Crazy Crone suddenly clutched her head and screamed, "My head, it hurts! It hurts so much! Someone, help me! Help me! Ah!"

She raised a fist and repeatedly smashed herself in the head. Light exploded from her head with every smash. It was simply a spectacle.

"Senior! Senior, stop! Stop beating yourself!"

Alex wanted to go over and stop her, but Lena blocked him. "Hubby, don't go there. She's emotionally unstable and mentally deranged right now. She will attack someone at any time. Moreover, her cultivation is too powerful. She can smack you to death with a casual slap.”

Alex froze. Eventually, he did not go over.

Wham! Wham! Wham!

The impacts could be heard endlessly.

The Crazy Crone kept hitting herself while shouting, “Emperor Rowan! Emperor Rowan! Who is Emperor Rowan? Who am I? Who am I... Ah..!”

It was then that Serene walked forward and pointed at the Crazy Crone. “You’re Lanette Glen, the grand elder of Pompeii Fairyland!”

“Lanette Glen? Lanette Glen? I’m Lanette Glen? No, no, no. I’m not Lanette Glen. Who the hell is Lanette Glen? It’s such an unpleasant name. I’m not Lanette Glen!”

The Crazy Crone shook her head desperately while hitting herself hard. She really had high endurance!

If the fist landed on someone else’s head, they would have ended up like Jennifer.

“Pompeii Fairyland? Am I someone from Pompeii Fairyland? Where is Pompeii? Where is it?”

“I’m not Lanette Glen. I’m not Lanette Glen. I am... I am a sister?”

“Yes, yes, yes. I’m a sister. Hahaha. I’m the sister. No, no... I’m not a sister. I am... A mother. Yes, yes, yes. I’m a mother. I’m my babe’s mother..!”

After saying that, the Crazy Crone froze as if someone had pressed the pause button on her. After a while, she cried her heart out.

“Boo-hoo!”

The listeners really felt sad and wept.

Alex asked Serene, “Senior, has she... Always been like this?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3187

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3187

Serene shook her head and said that it was not the case.

“She is Lanette Glen. Indeed, she is someone from Pompeii Fairyland, and she used to be normal. Besides, her cultivation is powerful, and she is a pivotal bigwig in Pompeii Fairyland. I met her by chance and then went to the Dead Swamp together. You know about that place. In the end, only three people came out alive. She was one of them, but unexpectedly, she went crazy.”

The more the Crazy Crone cried, the sadder she became. Her voice was also getting louder. Later, she even activated her cultivation. Chi vibrated, and laws trembled with sand flying and stones hurtling through the air for a moment.

“It’s not good! She’s so addicted to crying that she’s about to lose control!”

This crying was lethal. The surrounding trees started to break, and the situation did not look well.

Whoosh!

Alex’s clothes were cut by the wind blades formed by the cry.

Cecilia’s painful scream rang in his ears.

She was lying on the ground and could not move a muscle. She bled after the lethal sound wave formed a few wounds on her body.

“Leave quickly! Stay a bit farther!” shouted Serene.

“But, what about Senior?” asked Alex.

Serene said, “She will be fine. The Nine Tails bloodline has awakened, and her body is in a state of absolute defense. Other attacks can’t break her state unless it’s an attack from the king of gods, so you breathe easy.”

After that, Alex hurriedly picked up Lena. He then picked up Cecilia and left this place quickly. However, it was then that Alex sensed something. The three thousand lotuses in his body seemed to have sensed certain attributed energy in the Crazy Crone's crying. Unexpectedly, one of the lotuses gradually bloomed.

'Is some kind of forbidden spell going to awaken again? This is a chance!'

Hence, Alex immediately returned after sending Lena and Cecilia to a sufficiently safe place. Sitting cross-legged not far away from the Crazy Crone, his consciousness sank in. As expected, the blooming speed of that lotus in this place had obviously accelerated. As a result, golden pollen fell once again.

'Great Nightmare Spell!'

Alex had acquired a new mystic art. The Great Nightmare Spell was a great dream that allowed someone to enter a nightmare or leave a nightmare. It could also allow one to enter someone else's dream and influence their minds to dream according to their own will.

'This... Is too awesome, isn't it?'

Alex believed the Great Nightmare Spell was a great way to pick up girls. When he fancied someone, he could enter the other party's dream directly and do whatever he pleased in the dream. He could even affect her thoughts after waking up... One could imagine that if a girl was always in love affectionately with him and engaged in an intimate relationship with him, then she would definitely be affected in reality.

It would bring them closer invisibly. Wouldn't it be easy to court her?

When Alex's consciousness returned, he noticed that the Crazy Crone was still crying.

A whim suddenly struck him.

She had probably entered her own nightmare, judging from the Crazy Crone's current state. Her consciousness and thoughts were trapped in the nightmare by herself. In that case, could the Great Nightmare Spell he had just awakened help her?

Alex acted at that thought

Alex cast the Great Nightmare Spell slowly on the Crazy Crone right away.

Buzz!

Alex felt that his mental strength was about to collapse in an instant.

The Crazy Crone was mentally powerful, so entering her nightmare would be a pain to enter her nightmare. Fortunately, Alex had acquired power from the golden pollen, enhancing his mental strength once again. Therefore, he was not overwhelmed by the Crazy Crone's mental strength.

The next moment, Alex entered the Crazy Crone's nightmare. He was stunned right there and then.

This place was hell!

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3188

What came into sight was endless corpses, dismembered limbs, and a horrific bloodbath.

A woman, drenched in blood, held a three or four year old child in her arms. Numerous spikes had penetrated the child's chest, and its abdomen was exposed in the front.

"Mom... Mom, it hurts..."

Tears streamed down the woman's cheeks. Her face was filled with panic and despair. She kept holding the child, channeling her Chi into it as she coughed blood. However, as the child lost more blood, he became increasingly weaker and paler... He no longer showed a sign of life after a certain moment.

"Ahh!"

Holding the child, the woman trembled and bawled. Next to her knee was a corpse of a kneeling man. His hands were wide open as if he wanted to hug or protect that little child, but he was gravely injured with a bloody hole as huge as a bowl on his chest and abdomen. His internal organs had been hollowed out, and half of his neck was also broken.

"Boo-hoo..."

The woman bawled sorrowfully without tears.

While holding the child in one hand, she held the man who had lost his life beside her with the other hand.

They were a family.

Consequently, the woman's husband died in battle, and her child also passed away. Her family was ruined. The woman had lost the most important people and towers of strength in her life. She was devastated and became crazy.

Her consciousness was trapped in this nightmare all the time, experiencing the torment day in day out.

'This is the Crazy Crone's nightmare-like story!'

Alex appeared in the nightmare. His blood ran cold when he looked at the boundless wilderness with piles of corpses all over the ground. Where was this place?

What had she experienced?

Then, he discovered that all the corpses on the ground were... The Undying Clan members. Judging from the size, they were all extremely powerful existences among the Undying Clan, but at least tens of millions of them ended up dead here.

Did they come to hunt down this family?

Consequently, all of them died here.

Who on earth were these two spouses? Was the woman the Crazy Crone?

Alex returned to the woman's side and looked at her. She was very young and pretty. She definitely did not have the Crazy Crone's unkempt and old look.

The sorrowful crying was still around. Alex squatted down and gently placed his hand on the child's corpse. The next second, that child's corpse slowly became illusory and turned into a golden shadow before it floated up gradually.

This was the forceful interference from Alex's Great Nightmare Spell.

The woman abruptly lifted her head. "Babe. My babe, don't leave. Don't abandon me. Don't leave. Don't leave..."

The golden shadow waved its hand in the air. A child-like voice carried over. "Mom, take good care of yourself. When I am reincarnated, you will still be my mother..."

The woman knelt on the ground.

She looked at the man who was already dead. She then burst into tears after looking up at the child waving his hand. 'Your father is already dead! You won't be inside my womb even if you are reincarnated!'

The child's phantom went away before it finally disappeared.

This was undoubtedly the result of Alex's forceful interference. Those words were all a nightmare he made up. Afterward, the man also left. He turned into a phantom and disappeared before the woman. All the corpses, including the Undying Clan members, also rapidly vanished like vapor.

Alex said to the woman, "You should wake up!"

To the woman, Alex's words were like a wake-up call. It seemed that she just noticed a stranger standing in front of her, so she jumped up abruptly. She pointed a long sword, which suddenly appeared in her hand, at Alex and asked sternly, "Who are you?"

"I'm someone who came to wake you up," said Alex.

"Did you do that? Did you take away my babe and my husband?" The woman's eyes were filled with madness.

"Yes. I took them away."

"I'm going to kill you!"

The woman swung the sword in her hand to slash him without hesitation.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Three entwining tails split open. One could see a new tail rushing out of her body before it soared into the sky and swayed.

The fourth tail had been awakened. Furthermore, this tail that contained a little purple shade looked extremely dignified.

“It turned out purple,” Serene exclaimed with a crackling voice.

“What does purple mean?” asked Lena.

“The Nine Tails tribe’s awakened tail symbolizes a kind of awakened supernatural power. It changes colors according to different attributes and levels. Purple ranks second, indicating that the level of the awakened supernatural power is very high.”

Alex and Lena did not know much about the Nine-Tails tribe. In fact, they had heard about the specifics before. Alex was more concerned about her face.

Consequently, he turned around, only to find that Frostine’s disfigured face had returned to normal state. When she awakened the fourth tail, all her wounds had recovered, perfect as before.

“Senior, how are you?” Alex went forward and asked her.

Frostine opened her eyes and touched her face at once. “My face...”

Alex said, “Don’t worry. You’ve recovered. You look prettier than before.”

“Is that... so?”

She had a makeup mirror in her storage ring. It was a woman’s essential treasure. How could a woman who set store by her appearance not have a mirror?

After taking a glance at it, Frostine heaved a sigh of relief. If she were to be disfigured, she would be ashamed to face anyone.

After that, Frostine solemnly thanked Lena. If Lena hadn’t rescued her with her own blood, she wouldn’t have survived until the end.

Lena smiled as she shook her head. “We are allies, so you can just save the pleasantries.”

Immediately afterward, Lena looked at Alex. “Hubby, is the curse on you... Still there?”

Alex unbuttoned his clothes. The Witch Cult’s curse seal was clearly imprinted on his chest.

***

Shortly afterward, the group went back to look for Cecilia. Her grandmother, Jennifer, had sealed all her limbs. They had not been unsealed until now, so she could only lie down.

After Alex helped her remove the restriction, she looked dispirited, as if she had lost the motivation to live. “Miss Peach! Your grandmother is your grandmother. You are you. Both of you cannot be lumped together. When your grandmother poisoned us, you kept trying to save us desperately. We won’t blame you for your grandmother’s mistake,” Lena comforted her.

Cecilia wept softly as she said, “I never expected that my grandma would join the Witch Cult. The Witch Cult killed my father. My aunt also died at their hands. She hated the Witch Cult the most, but why did she join?”

Alex said, “Perhaps she really could not act of her own volition! She was being controlled!”

Cecilia looked at Alex. Her eyes looked complicated.

“Alex, my grandma has cast the Witch Curse on you! This Witch Curse on the chest is practically incurable!”

Right after Cecilia finished her speech, the few people were anxious. Frostine, lying in front of Alex, carefully looked at those strange curse patterns. “What will happen to someone under the Witch Curse?”

Cecilia said, “He will be very miserable. My father died under the Witch Curse. The members of the Witch Cult could find him and control him via the Witch Curse. And, if he resists, his entire body will suffer severe pain, and his wounds will fester like being bitten by myriads of snakes. Eventually, he will turn into a pile of goo.”

Speaking of that, Cecilia trembled all over.
