The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3240

“Do we let the Undying clan drive straight in and enter the universe if we don’t resist here?”

“When the time comes, are we letting the mortals and low-level cultivators from the universe avert this catastrophe?”

The voice of Phoenix was unmistakably cold. She had grown accustomed to these people’s indifference and selfishness over the years. Last time, she had ended up in the same situation due to their indifference and selfishness. Her flesh was destroyed, her soul was lost, and this current body was just a stand-in for her. How then did her combat power become what it was?

If only it had been that way back then. All of them were singled out by one person!

Alex naturally stood with the Little Divine Phoenix. He could not allow the Undying clan to enter America. It was his homeland, and if it were occupied by the Undying clan, everything would be finished.

“Heaven and earth have no boundary, and there are changes to the universe...”

Alex used his sword heart to search control the formation boundary and arrange the entrance to the boundary in the rumbling direction; the opening here was also the same as where the evil fiery cloud God and the others came in, there was entry no exit.

When Alex had finished with this location.

“Remember, the opening that the Undying clan opened will definitely not be too big, that is to say, they can’t cross the border in huge numbers. As long as you block the opening and kill whatever comes in at the entrance, you are safe,” Alex said to the evil Fiery Cloud God and the others.

“In addition, I will adjust the formation to assist you with the formation!”

“What’s the point of that?” exclaimed the Blood-knife old man.

“It can only postpone the undying clan’s attack for so long, how much longer can we hold out? The undying clan are limitless; even if we fight to the death, we will perish.”

“If you don’t fight, you will soon die, if you fight, you may still have a chance to live,” Phoenix said.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the boundary, in the domain of the Undying.

A young man was blasting the boundary barriers with a magical treasure, where the barriers rippled with wave-like textures and seemed to be digging the dirt. Countless laws that were invisible to the naked eye were dug up.

“This boundary trapped us for a full three thousand years, plus during the previous Genbu guard, there was also a supreme formation. If we had gotten the Shuttle of Nine Stars long ago, why wait for these three thousand years?” Juvia asked, looking at the scene.

“Shuttle of Nine Stars has long been beyond the category of divine weapons. It is a cosmic level hegemonic weapon that originated from the nest of the Chi universe. search Brother had to work hard to find it. As soon as he found it, he contacted me and rushed here to help,” Aria explained.

“It appears that you have a relationship with the eldest search brother, which is very unusual!” Juvia said to his sister.

The formation boundary could be broken in days, and Juvia’s mood was also highly positive. That was why she made this small joke. Surprisingly, Aria stated, “Do you still not see, sister? search Brother’s heart can only fit you and can’t put in other women.”

Juvia froze for a split second. Then, she smirked.

Alex came to mind for some reason because, when Alex was making love with Cheryl, that extreme feeling could be transmitted to her mind. Oh no. It was her perception, a degree of perception that could not be forcefully shielded. It was as if she was forced to have sex with Alex.

This deeply embarrassed her. She also became incomparably enraged.

Her body, on the other hand, was honest. And in the dark, when no one was there, she even looked forward to the sensation, as if she was addicted.

“Damn it!”

“That diffracted universe seed must have cast a curse on me!”

“As long as I murder that guy,” Juvia reflected bitterly, “everything will finish, and no one will know about my ordeal.”

Boom!

At the present time.

The Shuttle of Nine Stars shook violently.

Finally, the boundary barrier was drilled through.

“Juvia, luckily, the border has been drilled through!” said search Brother Rhys as he approached Juvia and her sister.
