The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3483

“D*mn! What is this old geezer trying to do?”

The people in the dungeon roared, knowing that something was wrong. However, they were unable to resist as their cultivation got suppressed, causing them to quickly fall into a coma.

Princess Bea, locked together with Alex, was no exception. After yawning, she lay directly on the ground she so despised and fell asleep.

Alex was in the process of enlightenment at first, but he sensed the strange mental rhythm that had suddenly appeared in the dungeon. At this time, he had long recovered his cultivation and was completely free from the suppression of Golden City’s force field. That mysterious energy seemed to have ignored his existence directly. Hence, the black-robed man’s mental influence had little effect on him. It was all but child’s play in the face of his massive sea of consciousness.

Even so...

‘I’d like to find out what the hell is going on...’

In fact, Alex thought that Grand Emperor Rowan said he lost contact with his ancestor, Blaine, in the Mist Valley back then. It happened that a bizarre golden city existed in this place, so could it be that his ancestor was in this city?

Indeed, it was a blessing from his ancestor that he’d managed to grow to such an extent. Now that he had the news of his ancestor, he had to investigate it no matter what.

At that moment, he pretended to be hypnotized and collapsed lopsidedly on the ground. To his surprise, that man outside, who was wrapped in a black robe, came straight to his cell and he opened the heavy cell door.

‘Is he looking for me?’

Alex focused on the visitor’s action quietly, slightly nervous. Then, he noticed that the visitor paid no attention to him, fully focused on Princess Bea instead.

He heard the man muttering to himself, "Hehe. She really is the princess of the Witch Beast Kingdom, the heir to the purest Xeraphim Bloodline. What a bargain for me."

That man smiled as he took off his black robe.

Alex could see him clearly with the divine eye hidden in his sea of consciousness.

This person was wearing a resplendent uniform with a slightly chubby figure and white hair. He looked like a fifty-year-old old man. Nonetheless, his body muscles were well developed. He took off his clothes right away, fully naked.

'Holy crap! What is this old geezer trying to do?'

His purpose was very obvious. Alex remembered that Bea once said someone would mingle with her flesh and soul because she had the royal bloodline of the Xeraphim clan. Now, judging by the looks of it, it seemed she wasn't lying. A shameless old man had really come to have intercourse with her.

Rip!

The man tore the jacket on Princess Bea with one hand.

'Oh ho! Royal ladies are well-nourished!'

It was not visible when she was wearing the loose dress. Her dress was now torn open, revealing the corset beneath it. Her body size was clear at a glance. Although she was still a lolita, she had everything that she should have, and they were bigger than those of a normal person.

The old man's eyes gleamed as he said, "What a young body, a pure bloodline of the Xeraphim clan. After mingling with her flesh and soul, I should be able to restore my youth! I'm really looking forward to this!"

Alex saw that the old man was about to remove the final piece of garment on Princess Bea and achieve his goal, and after two seconds of hesitation, Alex decided to rescue the girl. He was in no way benevolent, but the identity of the princess of the Witch Beast Kingdom might be useful to him.

Rip!

Alex made his move when the man grabbed Bea's garment and began tearing it.

It happened when the man had very low vigilance. He probably never expected that Alex would regain his cultivation. Then, a sword light flashed in that instant. The razor-sharp Immortal Butcher pierced the back of the man's head and came out of his forehead. The berserk witch and divine power shattered his soul, leading to his complete death.
