

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1038

In fact, he even worked as a chief instructor for special agents.

Could it be that he had used Rockefeller Group, his mother, and him as smokescreens to confuse others?

‘Then, how sincere were you toward us?’

For a moment, he even wanted to give up on looking for William. He felt that William had concealed too much information from them. Even his bed partner did not know his actual situation. How cruel was it to Brittany?

At the same time, at Lush Cosmetics in Michigan.

With the joining forces of Brittany and Maya coupled with Alex acting as the go between, they had successfully acquired the dying enterprise belonging to Susan Hunter’s family, including a total of 1500 workers and a factory building with an area of more than six thousand square meters.

After completing the procedures, Douglas Hunter was very happy.

Although his daughter Susan was already in good health and was no longer in a hurry to use the money to treat her disease, he managed to give a decent way out to the employees under him. Now, Lush Cosmetics had advertisements all over the world. If one were to ask around for a bit, he would know that this was the most popular skincare brand recently, for sure, bar none.

“Mrs. Rockefeller, the handover procedure went smoothly. Let’s have dinner together!” Douglas said with a smile. However, he did not know that his daughter used to have a little known emotional experience with Brittany’s husband, William Rockefeller.

He did not even know who Brittany's husband was!

“Sure!” Brittany said.

Then, Brittany met Susan during dinner. Unfortunately, Brittany did not know all along that Susan was her love rival. However, Susan knew Brittany was William's legitimate wife.

“Mrs. Rockefeller, I used to hear about some of your affairs. Your husband passed away a year ago due to a car accident. And, you were just discharged from the hospital some time ago. I didn't expect that you could recover from such sad affairs within a short time. You have even built such an amazing brand like Lush Cosmetics. I really admire you!” Susan tried to make insinuations as she said, “It seems that incident didn't affect you very much. Is it because the relationship of you both was already at odds then?”

Brittany was stunned as she did not know why Susan would ask such a question.

After taking a look at Susan, she said, “You're wrong. My husband and I were in a good relationship.”

Susan said, “If I were you, I would have failed to recover after such a setback! It looks like Mrs. Rockefeller is really a strong woman!”

“Cough, cough...”

Douglas hurriedly cleared his throat and signaled his daughter with his eyes to not pick a fight. ‘Really, why did you touch on a sore point with her? She has just lost her spouse. Why are you talking about this?’

He did not know that the sense of vanity in Susan had risen after meeting Brittany. She felt that an ordinary woman like Brittany was a bit unworthy of William.

At this moment, someone called Brittany on her phone.

It was a call from Chloe Zea. She sounded extremely anxious. “Mrs. Rockefeller, something’s happened. Stephen Hendrix has been kidnapped. Nicholas Hudson is injured after being beaten by someone too. Also, another two colleagues... Were beaten to death.”

“What?” Brittany stood up right away. There was a cold light in her eyes as she glared.

Her hand on the table was filled with an extreme chill. With a burst of anger, she froze half of the dishes on the table.

Hiss!

She narrowed her eyes in disbelief.

She thought that Brittany was a very ordinary woman who was unworthy of William, but she possessed peerless martial arts. She was not an existence whom she could compete with at all.
