

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1151

The beautiful doctor just did not want to get down from his back as she finally got the chance of intimate contact.

Naturally, Alex could feel the existence of that great figure on the back of him. He could only use his super strong willpower to suppress that thought in his mind.

He said, “Be good and wait for me here. You have the jade pendant for self-protection. You won’t feel any pain even if you fall on your ass.”

“I can come down if you want me to, but you have to kiss me first”

“Um...?”

Alex turned his head in astonishment as he had said those words about their relationship earlier for nothing. “Aren’t you afraid that I’ll abandon my wife and children just like your father?”

“What am I supposed to be afraid of when I’m just a mistress at best?”

“...”

“Are you going to kiss me or not?”

“Doctor Coney, I’m starting to suspect that you’re an imposter. I’ve known you for a year, you weren’t like this before.”

“That’s your fault too. Starting from the moment that you’ve seen my true colours for the first time when you came into my office without knocking the door, you’ve become my prey.”

After those words, Alex kissed her aggressively on the lips for three minutes till she was almost out of breath.

In front of the former site of Ganoderma in the mountain valley, boxes after boxes were removed from the inside. There were several trolleys outside the entrance. The boxes were carefully sent toward the outside after they were moved onto the trolleys.

“Hancock, is this the last batch for today?”

“Yes!”

“Then let’s follow the ship out to Morro to have some fun. Damn, I haven’t had a woman for half a month, my heart is itching! I feel dull staying in this depth of mountains and forests.”

“Aren’t there a few women in this valley?”

“You call those women? Even the sow are cleaner than them. I get sick whenever I smell that stench. I still don’t want to get any sickness.”

“That’s true. The women here are rotting away.”

The two men pushed the trolley out of the valley. Then, they made a turn and were about to head into a narrow road. As a result, they ran into a young man.

He was Alex Rockefeller.

“You two there, what do you have on this trolley?” Alex asked straightforwardly.

“Huh ?”

The two men, Hancock and Wilbur, were instantly stunned when they saw a young man appearing out of nowhere whom they did not recognize at all. They glared at him. “Where did you come from?”

Alex replied, “I came from outside.”

Hancock’s eyes suddenly flashed. “What are you doing here?”

“Looking for Ganoderma! You still haven’t told me about it. What is in this box? Why are you here?”

Alex reached out his arm and patted on one of the boxes.

Hancock and Wilbur glanced at each other.

In the next moment, they both took out a dagger from their waist right away. Hancock charged forward first and drew the dagger toward Alex’s neck, slashing it down.

It was fierce and vicious.

This man drew out a knife and tried to kill a person even before any conflict occurred.

If an ordinary tourist were to come here by accident, he would probably be dead without anyone knowing. In the end, he would only end up as a missing case. There would never be a time for the truth to be revealed. When the dagger was still ten centimeters away from Alex’s neck, he reached out his hand and pinched the blade of the dagger.

“Ah?!” Hancock was stunned.

His ferocious, blood-red eyes that were filled with killing intent before suddenly turned into a shocking expression. No matter how hard he tried, the dagger could not advance by an inch.

Meanwhile, Alex exerted force on his fingers.

Crack!

The dagger broke off from its root of the handle.

Hancock pinched the hilt of the dagger in his hand while the blade of the dagger completely fell into Alex's hand. His expression changed abruptly as he knew something was not right.

This person that could break the dagger with his bare hand. He was definitely not an ordinary man.
