

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1153

The door was not shut properly at all.

After the two doors closed on the left and right were kicked open, they directly flew into Ganoderma and knocked over seven or eight workers working inside. Suddenly, the people tumbled and wailed non-stop. After that, Alex stepped into the entrance. When he saw the scene inside, he frowned.

What a messy garbage dump!

There was no effective force protection inside. Seeing Alex hit the door, two low-ranked martial artists who usually maintained the public order symbolically came out. Alex took them out easily with two slaps.

After that, everything else was safe and secured.

These workers were no different from the people working in an ordinary workshop, they were all real workers.

Alex randomly pulled a woman and asked her. He found out that she was a villager in a small town in Morro. It was because the wage here was not little with a total of two hundred dollars a day, including food and shelter even though it was far away from their home. Yet, for these village women with little ability, having a monthly salary of six thousand dollars was considered very good. Most of the workers had similar circumstances as her.

“Then, do you know what you are producing here?” Alex asked again.

“I... I know. This is an ingredient for cosmetics.” When the woman spoke, her eyeballs rolled.

Slap!

Alex gave her a slap on the face directly. “You’re lying!”

The woman's expression had betrayed her true nature. In fact, all of the workers here knew that they were producing venom. It was something that was even more harmful than other controlled poisons nowadays. This was because a few women who were snatched from the outside were trapped inside this Ganoderma.

Many people present had seen the reaction of those women after being force-fed with the venom.

Rumor had it that a university female student from a metropolis who once came to the Southwestern Province for a trip had a chaste temperament and would rather die than yield. However, after drinking the venom, her entire person had changed... Now, she was the dirtiest and smelliest sow in Ganoderma.

Anyone could have sexual intercourse with her by feeding her just a bit of venom.

The woman who got slapped fell to the ground.

At this moment, an unkempt woman with a dark face walked out and instantly said, "I know the situation here. The things produced here are not cosmetics at all, but a kind of very harmful venom that could cause addiction. Moreover, it could cause extremely strong hallucinations. This place is a drug den! These people are all the accomplices! Inside of this Ganoderma, there are even three rooms that trap the women who had been kidnapped from the outside. They are specially provided for the men in here to vent their carnal desires! All of these people here deserve to die!"

Alex stared at this woman and realized that her facial appearance was very remarkable. The darkness on her face seemed very abnormal. It was not like she was born with it.

It seemed more like it was painted or dyed on her later.

When the woman said this, the other woman who had been knocked over by Alex yelled, "Big Black Chick, what the hell are you talking about? You're the one who deserves to die! How could this place produce venom whatsoever? These are raw materials for cosmetics, okay? This brother over here, you can ask around outside. There's a cosmeceutical brand called Regen and these are the raw materials for Regen Cosmeceuticals. If I've said any lie, I'll get struck by lightning!"

Alex calmly replied, “Indeed, I do know about Regen Cosmeceuticals.”

Upon uttering such a statement, the dark-faced woman had a horrified and anxious expression, as if she was afraid that Alex would be convinced.

However, Alex continued, “I also know that the venom is added as another ingredient inside the products of Regen Cosmeceuticals. So, you are actually trying to cover it up for your boss, right? You know that the venom is very harmful, but you want to make money while ignoring your conscience. You really should get struck by lightning. Now you get what you wish for!”

Alex raised his arm as he said.

Boom!

A loud explosion sounded. An explicable lightning appeared above the woman’s head, striking directly on her head.

She was struck to death on the spot.

“Ah!”

“This is the manifestation of the God of Lightning! The deity has come descended to Earth!”

“The deity has come to condemn sins! The deity has come to condemn sins!”
