

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1276

Alex Rockefeller lifted his fist and punched the biometric fingerprint lock.

Boom!

A loud collision was heard. Forget the biometric fingerprint lock, even the entire alloy door had caved in completely.

Alex tugged at the spot where the door had curved upward. After some force was exerted, a creaking sound could be heard under the door before it was pulled open.

“Oh my goodness!”

Anna Coleman was engulfed by a thick layer of Yin energy that rushed out. She immediately jumped onto Alex’s back and clasped her hands around Alex’s face. However, Anna was only wearing a halter top and a pair of short denim.

As such, Alex could feel the soft pressure against his back. His heart started to pound against his will. On top of that, Anna’s legs were also wrapped around his waist. This posture inevitably made him feel excited.

Meanwhile, Maya Howard's Silver Frost strengthened further. She glanced at Alex, and her gaze intensified. Right then, a high-pitched sound could be heard from the passageway that connected to the basement.

It sounded like a cat.

Right after that, cats were meowing one after another. It sounded like these cats were somewhere deep in the basement.

“Hey, why are there cats meowing down there? It sounds like there are a lot of them. Could this be a place that's used specifically for rearing cats?” Anna leaned against Alex's body as she curiously cocked her head to look through the entrance to the basement. Finally, she seemed to have caught sight of a person's shadow.

“Ahh! There's someone down there. I saw something. I really did. It's a woman,” Anna cried out in shock.

Alex patted her on the back “That's not a human. It's a ghost!”

“Ahh...” Anna shouted in surprise.

Immediately after that, she realized that Alex had patted her on the buttocks earlier. It was a very awkward spot too. Anna bit her lip and kept her mouth shut.

Maya also felt a little nervous.

Alex smiled before holding Maya's hand. "Don't worry. You're wearing the Galactic Protection Amulet. Ordinary ghosts won't dare to come near you!"

"Master, what's a Galactic Protection Amulet? Can I have one too?" Anna asked nervously.

Alex made the Galactic Protection Amulet according to the first sword of the Dragon's Bane of Thirty-Six. It was modeled after the Dragon Bone Sword's blueprint. After figuring it out on his own, Alex carved the formation on a piece of emerald and made it into a protection amulet. He named it the Galactic Protection Amulet.

"I don't have another one. I'll make you one when I'm free next time," Alex said.

"Don't worry. I'm your greatest protection amulet," Alex said after a pause.

When Anna heard this, she hugged Alex even more tightly.

Alex secretly rolled his eyes. To be honest, he was secretly pleased with the outcome. Anna was practically squishing him!

"Tigress, don't you feel pain? Don't you feel anything?" Alex thought.

After going through the entrance, they started walking down a bending pathway. Based on the progress they made, this place had far exceeded the depth of an ordinary basement. The further down they went, the heavier the Yin energy. The sound of cats meowing also grew louder... Until finally, a huge round pit appeared before them. It had a diameter of up to a hundred meters, and it was so deep that the bottom of it couldn't be seen.

It contained dark red stuff that smelled bloody.

Blood!

This was a blood pool.

Meanwhile, there were countless black cats above and around the blood pool!

There were up to ten thousand such black cats. Each black cat was connected to a tiny tube from which fresh blood dripped into the blood pool below them.

When the group of people saw such a shocking scene, their scalps tingled.
