

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1293

While Soraya was unconscious, these people still acted dumb and got on the boat to leave. Now that Soraya had spoken up, there was no chance that the situation would change.

Besides, they chose to act out, proving Soraya's accusations. These people, trapped for a few days, were starving and on the verge of a mental breakdown. They decided to attack Soraya out of anger and even wanted to devour her soft flesh out of hunger. On the brink of death, humanity's cruelty was on display.

Now, they had made the first move. The intention to kill was obvious, the level of violence in the air overwhelming.

A grandmaster was a grandmaster for a reason.

Even after five days of going hungry, they were grandmasters regardless, not to mention that there were two grandmasters and four half-stepped grandmasters.

“Careful!”

“You bastard! Lochlan, you dare revolt against us?”

“Be careful, master!”

The crowd immediately went chaotic.

Shaun and Lochlan's first target was Alex. They hated Alex a lot and used full force upon attacking.

On this boat, only Alex could become a threat to them even when they attacked together. The others were all just amateurs that offered no threat.

Facing the combined attack of two grandmasters, Alex stood still, emotionless.

Anna was extremely anxious, and Soraya, who should've hated Alex to her guts, and wished he died on the spot, feared for him as her first reaction when she saw him in danger.

She herself was surprised.

'I've been tortured by him until I have feelings for him? Have I gone mad?'

Yet, in reality, in that weird illusion... She enjoyed it very much too.

Two approaching grandmasters indicated that Alex was about to be killed.

At that critical moment, Alex held up his hand lightly and spoke in a cool voice, "I have a sword, and it can slash to anything in this universe!"

Swish, Slash!

Dragon's Bane of Thirty-Six, Sword of the Universe has appeared!

The sword slashed diagonally, two heads flew up into the air.

The two did not die immediately after being beheaded. They saw with their own eyes, their bodies spurting blood and falling to the ground. And finally, with utmost unwillingness, they succumbed to death.

“Huh..?”

“He killed two grandmasters just like that?”

Everyone was shocked and in disbelief.

Lexia stomped her foot and shouted. “Kill them!”

Lexia only brought seven women with her on this trip to California. No men came along, but that didn't mean there weren't any experts. With them was a female grandmaster, the only female grandmaster of the Melvis family. Besides, Stephanie was also an expert, a half-stepped grandmaster.

On the other hand, the four half-stepped grandmasters that attacked had been starved for five days. They had lost at least half their combat power.

Soon after, these four half-stepped grandmasters were defeated.

The fight was over in a second.

Old lady Lexia sighed softly. ‘After this battle, the Melvis family’s power has gone down by half, not to mention that incident from Ruby’s side. The Melvis’ really had their losses. When it’s time to rank the families in Alaska, their ranking will surely go down.’

‘But, if Alex could come back to the Melvis family, instead of going down, their power would be raised by several levels.’

‘A martial arts expert could probably do anything he wanted, even in Alaska.’

‘How many experts are there in America?’

With these thoughts, Lexia immediately told Alex, “Alex, it’s all thanks to you this time that you’ve allowed us to see who Lochlan really was. It’s the Melvis family’s luck that he’s dead.”

Soraya pouted.
