

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1304

That rush of inner force seemed to have disappeared into the thin air. Alex's expression did not change and there was not even the slightest reaction.

‘What? How is this possible?’

Nanny Kim trembled in shock. She saw that Alex was clearly an ordinary person. How was it possible for him to block out her ultimate move, the Tiderip of Dark Force?

‘Again!’

She reactivated the Dark Force. However, the result was still the same.

Alex calmly said, “Who’d have thought that you, an Intermediate-Earth ranked expert, actually turn into a heartless human trafficker? You’re better off without the cultivation!”

He shook his hand backhandedly.

A gush of spiritual power containing the thunderous might rushed back at Nanny Kim’s body, as if it were an overwhelming force.

A series of burst sounds was heard.

Every inch of the meridians in the old woman's arm were broken. Her middle and lower energy cores were destroyed by the thunderous might. The destructive force instantly smashed her arm into dregs.

“Argh!” Nanny Kim screamed.

It was too late to let go of her hand at this moment. She spat out a mouthful of blood. While shrivelling on the ground with a pale face, she pointed at Alex tremblingly. “W- who on earth are you? How dare you destroy my cultivation. You and I are sworn enemies!”

Smack!

It was Azure who rushed over.

“Damn old hag, you really hide deep enough! For an Earth expert to hide in a place like this in California, you can really hide well!” As Azure said, he kicked the old woman in the stomach a few times, causing her who already had her energy cores damaged to spit another two mouthfuls of blood. “Hide more! Now that your martial arts are ruined, you don't have to hide anymore, right? Hahaha!”

The old woman viciously said, “Azure Storm, do you think you're that great just because nobody is competing with you for the throne of the underworld? Let me tell you, you're just a person with limited vision and experience in my eyes and I'm just too lazy to care about you. Today, you brought along people to smash up my place and ruin my energy core. Just you wait, someone will come for you.”

Azure asked, “Who?”

However, the old woman refused to talk about it.

Crack!

Azure did not hesitate to step on her leg.

“Ouch!” Nanny Kim wailed in pain as her leg was broken. Her entire leg was trembling.

Azure smiled and said, “Is it very painful? This is for you to enjoy it, so you could feel the emotions of the children abducted by you! Speak! Where are the children bought by you?”

Nanny Kim smiled all of a sudden. “You better kill me!”

“You want to die? But it won’t be so easy!” Azure raised his foot and stepped on her other leg. After that, he took out a small bottle. “Do you know what this is? It’s a kind of parasitic disease from Canyonland. Have you heard about the heart scratching pill of a hundred days?”

“What? The heart-scratching pill of a hundred days?” Nanny Kim screamed terrifyingly. She seemed to know what it was.

“So you know about it! That’s even better. Just one pill and I promise you’ll be crying out comfortably as you scratch your body happily!” Azure immediately poured a pill out. But then, he stopped again. He called two of his subordinates over and said, “Do you guys have a pair of scissors or nail clippers? This old hag’s fingernails are well maintained, and she won’t be able to scratch it well later. Cut them sharply and make them into triangles, so that she could scratch it even better.”

“Alright!” The subordinates immediately moved.

They did not have scissors or nail clippers, but they had knives. It would work the same.

Soon, Nanny Kim’s fingernails were shaved like pyramids one by one. If she were to scratch her body with these, it would guarantee that a blood wound would be formed with a single scratch.

Alex looked at Azure. He realized that this brat was quite talented in torturing people.

Azure continued, “Force her mouth open. If she dares to bite her tongue, plug off all of her teeth... Right, you aren’t going to try to bite your tongue and kill yourself, right? Let me tell you a general knowledge. You won’t die by biting off your tongue, the key point is that it’s very painful!”

“No, no, don’t!” Nanny Kim was horrified. “Please don’t feed me the heart scratching pill of a hundred days. Please don’t. I’ll speak, I’ll speak. I’ll tell you everything!”
