

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1306

Alex was flabbergasted. Then, the suspicion in his heart became firmer. “Then have you seen Carol Rockefeller?”

Elijah replied, “No.”

Alex nodded his head and said, “Alright... If I didn’t guess it wrongly, your mother should have been taken away by Carol under duress. Now, Carol has walked the path of evil cultivation and she’s cultivating a kind of insidious demonic art. Your mother is now specifically helping her to abduct five or six year old kids. Once they fall into Carol’s bands, they are most likely killed! So, if you don’t want to lose your mother forever, tell me her whereabouts and I can help you to rescue her.”

Elijah was stunned for a while and said, “Is she involved in the incident at Disneyland as well?”

Alex nodded his head.

Elijah fell and sat on the ground.

After taking a glance at him, Alex was about to leave the place.

However, Elijah stopped him. “Alex, the current Carol Rockefeller is indeed not the same Carol Rockefeller that she used to be. Now, she has become very scary and even given birth to a haunting son! I can tell that thing is not a human but a monster! If you’re really capable, I beg of you, help me to rescue my mother! If I’m not wrong, my dad was killed by her.”

Alex stopped walking as he nodded his head. “If you hear any news about her, give me a call.”

“Alright!”

After leaving Paige’s residence, Alex went straight to Rockefeller Manor.

At the same time, Hailey Lawson and Zoey Carter were at the manor as well. Charles Carter was out of town but he, who had now received the news of her daughter being abducted and almost lost her daughter, was rushing back overnight. Besides, Brittany Rockefeller was back too. She saw the news when she was on her way back and learnt about Zoey’s incident as well as the big movement of Thousand Miles Conglomerate. Then, she rushed back immediately without stopping.

When Alex arrived at the manor, the women in the family went up to him and asked if he had found the mastermind behind the human traffickers.

Alex said, “We did find out about it. It’s done by an human trafficking organization called the Beggar Gang. Now the California official has established a special team and is conducting a raid. There should be a news broadcast by tomorrow! Thanks to Sis Yaeger’s help this time, we managed to find the children’s exact location. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.”

Afterwards, he asked Hailey, “Is Zoey’s birthday in a lunar year, lunar month and on lunar day?”

Hailey was stunned for a moment. “I’m not sure about this!”

When she reported Zoey’s birthday in the lunar calendar, Alex calculated the time and it was exactly in a lunar year, lunar month and on lunar day.

Maya who was standing aside asked, “Bro, what does this have to do with Zoey’s abduction?”

Alex nodded his head slightly. “I’m suspecting that the mastermind of this incident is a bit related to Carol Rockefeller! This woman has walked the path of evil cultivation and she hates me to the core. Hence, everyone must be careful of this woman from now on.”

An hour later, Charles arrived at the manor. He was so anxious that he rushed over from Michigan in a helicopter right away.

After listening to the entire incident, he had a moment of fear.

Afterwards, he gratefully thanked Alex, Zella, Waltz and the others. The news was all over the internet, naturally he saw it as well. Never did he expect that Thousand Miles Conglomerate would take the matter so seriously that they mobilized more than tens of thousands of employees and offered a billion dollars just to look for his own daughter. He mentioned on the spot that he was going to offer Zella a billion dollars to thank her personally but Zella turned down the offer in the end.

Charles said with a firm expression, “I want to set up a foundation dedicated to fight human traffickers nationwide. I’ve thought about this matter thoroughly when I was on my way here! I only have one daughter. If my daughter is missing, it's pointless no matter how much money I earn or how many houses I own. All of it would be meaningless! So, I want to set up this foundation and take down human traffickers at all cost, so that there would be no human traffickers in America in the future.”

Clap! Clap! Clap! Clap!

Waltz clapped her hands. “Bro Carter, this establishment of this foundation will be a contemporary work of gathering great merits that will benefit the country and the people as well as future generations! How about you count me in?”

Brittany said, “Count my Rockefeller family in as well!”

On the next day, a piece of news from California shocked the entire America.
