

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 281

Pepper's heart jumped in shock. However, she still pretended to be innocent, crying as she said, "I... I really didn't mean to. It's Mr. Rockefeller... He forced himself on me."

Anna smiled coldly as she said, "Oh really? Can Mr. Rockefeller actually force himself on you? Even if ten clones of this guy were to force themselves on you, I'm sure you can beat them up easily with one hand. You're an Intermediate-Royal ranked fighter. You really put up a good act by pretending as a weak little lady. Look at your face. To think an average woman like her could scratch your face to this state, your acting really is top tier."

Pepper's eyes twitched. "Who are you?"

Anna replied, "I'm from Divine Constabulary, I'm here to ask you a few questions, come with me!"

Pepper's expression instantly darkened as she finally realized that her identity had been exposed. In the next second, she forcefully swung her palm toward Anna. Her skills as an Intermediate-Royal ranked fighter were immediately revealed.

"Hmph!" Anna chuckled coldly. If an Intermediate-Royal ranked fighter could beat her, she would rather bang her head to a wall.

"Dragon-Tusk Punch!" She swung her fist to intercept Pepper's attack.

Bam!

Their hands met with a loud sound of impact. With a burst of inner force, Anna instantly sent Pepper flying.

However, Anna's expression changed as she could feel a stinging pain in her fingers. After retracting her fist, she took a look at her hand and realized that there was a needle stuck between the finger bones.

“You cheater!” Anna fumed.

After being sent flying, Pepper spat some blood out in mid air. However, she actually made use of Anna’s force and retreated to the back. She instantly withdrew over dozens of meters away from them.

Anna tried to catch up on her.

However, Pepper suddenly threw out a black, round object. It exploded as soon as it hit the ground, releasing a thick, choking smoke.

Anna immediately avoided the gas. However, as soon as she wanted to continue the chase, Pepper was nowhere to be seen.

“Japanese ninjutsu!” Anna was frustrated.

This Pepper woman was a prime suspect, yet now she had escaped. How could she explain to Leader Sky when she got back later?

She was infuriated, turning to Alex and screamed, “Hey Rockefeller, are you not going to help?”

Everything happened way too fast, the rest of the Rockefellers couldn’t react to the situation at all.

Alex took a glance at a nearby tree and said, “Anna, I’m really doubting your abilities. Did you bribe your way into the organization?”

With that, he picked up a huge decoration stone and threw it in a flash. His target was on the tree that he was staring at just a while ago.

Pepper hid in the tree like a raccoon, not moving a muscle. It was as if she had the ability to hide her breathing as well. It was really amazing. If Alex didn't activate the Third Eye, it would be really difficult to discover her location.

Bam!

The stone landed hard on Pepper's butt. After letting out a yelp of pain, Pepper fell from the tree.

"That's where you were hiding," Anna was overjoyed and immediately rushed toward Pepper.

However, Pepper was faster than her. Enduring the pain on her butt, she kicked away Bill's caretaker, who was supporting him, and then grabbed him by the neck with one hand, as if he were a powerless chick. She said, "Don't come near me, or I'll kill him."

Never did the Rockefeller old man expect himself to be held hostage, so he cried in fear. However, he was just a paralyzed old man, there was no way that he could struggle his way out of her grip.
