

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 456

“Give me a second,” Maya Howards quickly said. Eventually, Alex Rockefeller ended up waiting for her for half an hour.

When Maya reappeared, her looks had completely changed. Wearing a white, strapless T-shirt, coupled with a pair of partially-torn, shin-length jeans, as well as a pair of high heels, she emanated youthful energy. As charming as she looked, the way she dressed made her look several years younger than she was. It was as if she was back in college again.

Alex looked straight at her, and he couldn't help but think about the first time he set his eyes on her.

“Hey, what are you staring at? Let's go!”

Maya took him by the arm and started walking out of the villa.

In the past, Maya was shy and didn't dare hold his hand with her own initiative. But after seeing Alex having an affair with Waltz Fleur, she suddenly became much bolder.

“I want to have a buffet!” Maya exclaimed.

Within half an hour, the two of them arrived at a rather well-known buffet restaurant.

Meanwhile, at the Yowell's family's place. An old man with short, white hair had arrived.

This person's eyes emanated a powerful brilliance, and he carried around him an imposing aura.

"Who are you looking for, old man?" A guard patrolling by the door stopped the old man from walking further.

The old man blinked once, and the brightness in his eyes was fully concealed. His imposing aura had been replaced by the amiable aura of an old man. "Please inform Mr. Rockefeller that I, Nathan Pattingson, from the Pattingson family, would like to see him," the old man said.

It turned out that he was the Pattingson family's head who had come from North Tokyo to personally apologize to Alex Rockefeller.

The guard was stunned. "Old man, did you go to the wrong place? You're at the Yowells. There isn't anyone here by the name of Mr. Rockefeller."

At this moment, Keith Yowell happened to have returned from somewhere else, and he was even accompanied by Michelle Yowell.

When Keith saw the old man, he nearly got scared out of his wits. "Pattingson... Mr. Pattingson, why are you here?" Keith asked through trembling lips.

How could Keith not be terrified?

Last night, they killed Gerald Pattingson. Now, Gerald's father was here. Anyone would guess that the old man must have come for revenge.

Now that Alex Rockefeller wasn't here, would the Yowell family be afflicted once more?

But in the next second, Keith was extremely shocked to see Nathan bowing deeply to Michelle. "Pleased to meet you, Ms. Rockefeller. I am here to personally apologize to Mr. Rockefeller," Nathan said.

Keith and Michelle were both shocked.

When Alex received a call from Michelle, he was putting food on his plate.

"What? The head of the Pattingson family came to apologize to me?" Alex was also stunned momentarily, but he soon understood why this happened. It seemed that his pretense as a Grandmaster was even more effective than he had imagined.

"I'm outside now. Let him wait," Alex said after thinking briefly.

"Alright." Michelle nodded.

After hanging up, Michelle turned to look at Nathan. "Rockefeller... My husband asks you to wait here," she said.

While Michelle was speaking on the phone earlier, she had removed her face mask. Nathan's heart jolted when he saw the word 'sl*t' on her face. He became even more humbled. .

Winnie Pattingson had the audacity to carve such a word on the face of a grandmaster's wife. She had every reason to die.

Meanwhile, Alex returned to the dining table with his food.

To his surprise, there was a man sitting on his chair. Alex recognized him immediately.

This man was his classmate in college, Roger Graham. At this moment, Roger was looking at Alex with a tilted head and a look of contempt on his face. "Alex, do you still remember me? I can't believe a coward like you would dare to have a meal alone with Maya out here. Aren't you scared that your wife would kick you out of the house and make you sleep on the streets?" said Roger as he laughed.
