

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 501

“Are these seeds?” Alex didn’t find another patch of spiritual soil. However, he found a bunch of weird-looking seeds in a black antique porcelain jar that were slightly flowing with Chi.

He had no idea how long they had been around, but they looked as if they were on the brink of death.

‘Could Clown have dug up these seeds from some other grave?’

‘So, their Chi would start depleting once they were out of the grave. Otherwise, why else would they still be alive?’

‘I’ll think about that later. As long as there’s Chi flowing in it, they must be good.’

Alex took a plastic bag out and kept the seeds before placing the whole bag into his pocket. As for the porcelain jar, he didn’t want to take it since the members of Divine Constabulary might think he was being greedy.

In just a few moments, Anna, Sky and the others arrived at the scene in two helicopters.

Sky slapped Alex’s shoulder as he looked at Clown, who looked as if he was taking his last breaths. “It really is Clown! You’ve done well, my friend. We’ll give you full credit for this mission.”

Anna huffed. “So this guy had been hiding on the oceans. No wonder we couldn’t find him in California!”

Alex turned to her and asked, “Where’s the pizza?”

Anna rolled her eyes. "You have to wait at least twenty minutes for pizzas. Do we look like we have the time for that? I just asked them to deliver it to your house."

She then threw him a bag of food. "Here, it's for you."

"What is this?"

Anna pointed to the words on the bag. "Are you dyslexic? It's pretzels!"

In just a few moments, the members of Divine Constabulary arrested Clown and cruised into one of the ports to confiscate all the tomb antiques.

Alex and the others were sent back to California by helicopter. It was midnight by the time Alex got back to Maple Villa. He didn't expect to see Brittany, Waltz and Maya watching television while eating chips.

"How are you guys not asleep yet?" Alex was surprised.

"Oh, we forgot our sense of time. This show is too good." Maya said as she yawned.

Alex took a look at the television and just saw commercials.

'What's so good about commercials?'

Just then, he realized that the three were actually waiting for him to come home.

Brittany stood up. "Alright, alright, we're done with television for the night. Run along to bed now, we have a busy day ahead of us! You go to sleep too, Alex!"

Brittany and Maya then went upstairs to their rooms. Waltz, on the other hand, leaned onto him. She had showered a while ago so she smelled nice and soft. Wrapping her arms around his neck, she said, "Did you get a taste of that pretty superstar? You've been out for quite a long time, you know? Hmmm, I can even smell some perfume on you. Don't tell me..."

Alex panicked. "What? No way... Where?"

Waltz pinched him hard on his chest and huffed. Turning around, she rushed upstairs as well.

Alex took a sniff of his clothes. 'I can't smell any perfume though.'

He decided to take a shower as soon as he got back to his room.

He remembered the seeds he collected earlier. He picked out a few good ones and planted them in the pots by his window. He wasn't sure how long they'll be able to survive after all.

At the same time, he noticed that one of the frosty octagon flowers already bore a few seeds.

The next day, Zendaya showed up at Maple Villa. She came by to help with the commercials for Lush Cosmetics. She also wanted to thank Alex for saving her last night. With the recent event, Alex had saved her twice.

Brittany was overjoyed to see Zendaya as she excitedly clasped onto her hands. "Oh my, Zendaya! Hello! I'm Brittany, Alex's mother. I'm such a big fan. Your concert was so amazing last night!"

Even though she was someone who had gone on stage multiple times, Zendaya was slightly startled when Brittany grabbed her hand. She felt extremely nervous. This nervousness felt like she was seeing her mother-in-law for the first time.