

The Pinnacle of Life –

Chapter 0531

Alex Rockefeller slapped Vanya Tyler a little too hard. Vanya was only a normal girl. How could she take it? She immediately spun around and fell to the ground. Half her face had become swollen and she coughed out a mouthful of bloody teeth.

Everyone's hair was standing.

After being hit so hard, Vanya was unable to react for a long while.

“You! How dare you hit Ms. Tyler? You're in trouble. You're in big trouble. Even God can't save you now!”

The Chanel store's manager shouted in surprise. Meanwhile, another staff member quickly went to look for security guards.

“Security, security! Ms. Fernandez's daughter has been hit! Come here, quickly!”

Two security guards happened to be passing by the door. When they heard that Ms. Fernandez's daughter had been hit, they were shocked.

They immediately charged into the store.

“Who did it?”

“Which idiot dared to hit Ms. Fernandez's daughter? Does he have a death wish?”

Right then, Vanya stood up with the help of Chanel's staff members.

Vanya noticed at least five or six of her fallen teeth on the ground, all in close proximity to each other. Her expression at the time was simply indescribable. There was a mix of extreme anger, fear and resentment. Teeth that had been knocked off couldn't be put back. She would have to install dentures.

Vanya was still so young, but she would already have to install so many dentures. How would she spend the rest of her days?

She screamed hysterically as she pointed at Alex and shouted. “He did this. This b*stard did this. Hit him. I want him dead! Whoever kills him, I'll give them a million dollars. He hit me first. You won't be incriminated for killing him.”

The two security guards both felt tempted. As the saying goes, brave men existed whenever a great reward was involved. The two security guards let out a loud cry before picking up their hats and started swinging at Alex's face.

Bang! Bang!

Alex was nonchalant as he casually kicked the two security guards to the ground. They couldn't get up even after a long time.

The Chanel store's manager nearly went mad. "Are you crazy? Didn't you hear what I said? Ms. Fernandez works for Thousand Miles Conglomerate. She works for Lord Lex Gunther. How dare you mess with Thousand Miles Conglomerate and Lord Lex Gunther? Do you really want to die? It's fine if you want to die, but shouldn't you think of your family and friends? Do you want them to be severely punished as well?"

Alex laughed coldly. Lord Lex Gunther was an ass-kisser. Whenever he saw Alex, he acted as if he'd seen his grandfather. Would Lord Lex Gunther dare to severely punish Alex?

Besides, the entire Thousand Miles Conglomerate belonged to Alex's family.

Alex snorted coldly. He slapped the pretty store manager across her face too.

"Miss, are you alright?"

"This man must be crazy. He even hit our store manager!"

The store manager covered her face. She was extremely angry. She immediately took her phone out and called Vanya Tyler's mother, Ms. Fernandez, on the phone.

At this moment, Claire Assex was scared out of her wits.

For those who lived in California, the mere mention of Lord Lex Gunther's name was enough to make a kid stop crying out of terror.

Claire immediately rushed over and grabbed Alex by his hand. "You idiot. You can't do anything right. Do you really want to drag us down with you to hell? Who asked you to hit them? They work for Thousand Miles Conglomerate and Lord Lex Gunther! Don't you know that? Haven't you heard of them? He's going to kill everyone in our family! Get down on your knees and apologize to Ms. Tyler right now! Otherwise, I'm going to slap you!"

What?

Alex froze for a moment. His eyes narrowed while he looked coldly at Claire. "Don't you have any brains? She did this to you and Beatrice. Aren't you angry at all? You even want me to get down on my knees and apologize. Do you want me to lick toilet bowls and eat sh*t with you as well? Are you willing to do that?"

Claire's face turned pale.

She was in so much panic that she was about to wet her pants. "But, they work for Thousand Miles Conglomerate and Lord Lex Gunther. What can we do? We'll die! Later, you must act a little more humbly. Accept all the blame and bow to them a few more times. You'll lick the toilet bowls on your own. Do it for Beatrice and me too," Claire said.

Alex was dumbfounded. Although he had heard about many weird mothers-in-law, he truly hadn't met anyone as weird as Claire.
