

“Yes?”

Chen Hao lifted his head and saw someone approaching him. A middle-aged man was running anxiously toward him.

He could not recognize the face of the middle-aged man.

It appeared that the man did know him.

At that moment, Chen Hao stepped forward.

“Damn, why did you step forward, Chen Hao? Didn’t you hear him asking for a Young Master Chen?”

“Haha, exactly. Isn’t this embarrassing?”

Several high school classmates who were behind Li Chao burst out laughing.

Even Li Mingxue was smiling with her mouth covered.

Liu Min was also rolling her eyes.

“I really can’t understand Chen Hao. I’m speechless!" Liu Min laughed bitterly while shaking her head.

"Young Master Chen, I have driven your car here. The car is parked at the C Area of the parking lot. This is the key. The Master would like you to go home earlier today."

With that, the middle-aged man handed over the car keys with respect.

"I got it, Uncle Li. I don't need anything for now. You may go back."

At this moment, a guy who stood beside Li Chao walked over to him with a bitter smile while shaking his head.

"Damn, turns out someone was mistaken!"

Chen Hao was slightly embarrassed.

"Are you trying to be funny? Young Master Chen and Chen Hao don't sound too similar to me!" One of the guys taunted.

"Well, we should carry on drinking. Oh right, Miss Liu, when would you be available? I would like to organize a classmate gathering. You have to be there!”

Li Chao started to get tired of mocking Chen Hao. Instead, he decided to talk to Liu Min.

“Great, no problem. After you have decided on the date, please inform all the classmates. I will definitely be there!”

All of them agreed to the plan. Li Chao and the rest of them continued drinking without paying any regard to Chen Hao.

Later, Chen Hao went upstairs together with Liu Min.

“You really are embarrassing, you know that? You got all excited at the mention of Young Master Chen. Damn, I even felt embarrassed for you!” Liu Min gave Chen Hao a piece of her mind.

After that, she returned to the rest of the gang.

Chen Hao was used to her attitude. Hence, he sat down on the empty seat beside Liu

Min.

As Liu Min was about to begin another round of reproach, they heard the host of the event giving his welcoming speech.

Also, it seemed like he had begun his speech for a while now.

Therefore, she was forced to stay quiet.

It was unknown when a prize wheel had appeared on the stage.

Several names were written on the wheel.

One of the names was Young Master Chen. His formal name was not written there.

After all, this was the welcoming dinner for Young Master Chen. Everyone knew who the name represented.

It seemed like there would be a lucky draw.

All the prizes were placed in the middle of the stage, and one of the prizes was a Mercedes-Benz G500.

“Liu Min, you almost missed the highlight of the event. Take a look at the wheel. Can you see whose names are written on the wheel?”

At this moment, a girl who sat beside Liu Min grabbed Liu Min’s arm and said, “Wang Qiang? Damn, you participated in the lucky draw?”

Liu Min tugged at Wang Qiang’s arm excitedly.

“Haha, yes. A round was held to pick the qualified participants just now and I was chosen. In fact, I feel honored just by having my name appear next to Young Master Chen’s. As for the G500, it doesn’t matter even if I didn’t get it in the end!” Wang Qiang stated contentedly.

“It matters. That car is a Mercedes-Benz G500. It cost at least two million! If we could win it, it would be such a pleasure to travel around in it!”

Liu Min continued excitedly, “Oh right, is Young Master Chen here? Which one is him? Take a look at that table. All of them look like prominent figures from the city!”

“Young Master Chen is not here yet. However, two legendary businessmen in the City of Jin Ling, Li Zhenguo and Zhao Zixing, are here. According to General Manager Li, Young Master Chen will be here soon. Anyway, he will surely be here as he has already promised to!” Wang Qiang said enthusiastically.

Chen Hao, who was sitting beside them, was checking on his phone. As expected, he had already received several calls from Li Zhenguo.

Liu Min got upset once again having seen Chen Hao busy checking on his phone.

She was about to criticize him again.

At the same time, the host’s voice blared out from the speaker.

“Ladies and gentlemen, the lucky draw will begin now. Let’s spin the wheel and see who will walk away with the biggest prize tonight—the Mercedes-Benz G500!”

In this county, the car was considered a lofty prize. Everyone could tell that the Chamber of Commerce was very sincere in organizing the event tonight.

As soon as he finished speaking, the prize wheel started spinning.

Ding!

“Congratulations, Mr. Chen Dong! You are the winner of a golden keyboard worth a hundred thousand!”

The prize wheel continued spinning.

Ding!

“Congratulations...”

“.....”

One by one, the prizes were given out. Three prizes had already found their winners.

Ding!

“Congratulations to Mr. Wang Qiang, the winner of a jade bracelet worth two hundred thousand!”

“Oh my god!”

Listening to the host’s words, Liu Min got so excited that she almost fainted.

The sound of clapping rang out from the audience.

In fact, the prize only formed one of the reasons that made Liu Min thrilled.

It was so exciting for her mainly because she could finally get the chance to be onstage together with Wang Qiang. Moreover, they would be surrounded by so many prominent figures, and there were several reporters below the stage!

Oh my god!

She felt so honorable! She could not ask for more in her life!

Liu Min, who was overjoyed, gave a slap on Chen Hao just because she was too excited!

“Who will be the lucky one to bring back our biggest prize tonight?”

As soon as the host’s voice was heard, the entire hall became quiet.

As the needle on the prize wheel moved slower and slower, everyone’s eyes got bigger and bigger.

Ding!

At last, the needle stopped moving.

“Congratulations to Young Master Chen, the winner of the Mercedes-Benz G500 worth two million, the biggest prize of tonight! A round of applause please!” The host exclaimed excitedly.

“Wow! Oh my god!”

Everyone screamed at the top of their lungs.

For other prizes, the winners were really picked at random. However, the biggest prize would surely be reserved for Young Master Chen, although he might not be too excited about getting it.

Everyone knew the routine of these events.

“Alright, all the winners, please come onstage! On the other hand, Young Master Chen, are you here? If you are here, please do join us onstage too!”

The entire place fell into silence again.

Everyone’s gaze was wandering, trying to locate him.

“Get ready Wang Qiang, we are about to be onstage together with Young Master Chen!”

Liu Min smoothed out some creases on her dress and attempted to cover up some stains that were on it.

Hastily, she stood up while holding Wang Qiang’s arm.

As for Chen Hao, he thought it would be bad if he went back on his words.

So, he gave up trying to keep a low profile.

He decided to stand up together with Liu Min and followed them to the stage.

“Damn, why are you following me?”

When she was about to get on the stage, Liu Min realized that Chen Hao was standing behind her.

She immediately asked in bewilderment.

“To get the prize!” said Chen Hao.

“Damn, your name was not mentioned at all. What prize are you receiving? The winner is Young Master Chen, not Chen Hao. Are you deaf?” Liu Min said anxiously.

“Hey, Wang Qiang, you have no idea about this. I bumped into some of my students at the lobby just now. The butler from one of the students’ family was here and the butler called out Young Master Chen. At that moment, Chen Hao foolishly walked over to the butler. It was so embarrassing!”

“Now, he is thinking of going onstage to receive the prize! If he ends up being a laughing stock, we would be humiliated when the others know that he is my student!”

Liu Min was worried about this.

“Young Master Chen, please join us onstage!”

At that time, Li Zhenguo, who was invited to be the presenter, got onstage too.

He looked at Chen Hao with utmost respect and uttered these words.

“Okay!”

Chen Hao nodded his head. Without offering any explanation, he made his way to the center of the stage.

Zhao Zixing and the other outstanding figures of Jin Ling Commercial Group, who were sitting at the VIP seats below the stage, got to their feet and cried out respectfully, “Congratulations, Young Master Chen!”

“Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen!”

Chen Hao put on a slight smile on his face.

“Damn, so he is the renowned Young Master Chen!”

At this moment, the entire place plunged into a deadly silence.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Liu Min, who was still reproaching Chen Hao a short while ago, was especially shocked.

She was so shaken that her eyes were on the verge of popping out.

Damn!

She knew Chen Hao's family background clearly. He was just a poor loser with no money.

What about Young Master Chen?

He was the man of the hour in Jin Ling City. He was about to transform Ping An County into a whole new place.

Anyhow, Liu Min failed to see the connection between the two.

However, Li Zhenguo and Zhao Zixing definitely knew Young Master Chen personally.

Surely there was no mistake about the identity of Chen Hao.

Damn, Liu Min's mind was in a turmoil.

"General Manager Li, are you guys mistaken? Why are you guys addressing this poor dude as Young Master Chen?" Liu Min could not help but ask.

Li Zhenguo frowned slightly. He took a glance at the stain on Liu Min's dress before addressing the organizing staff with annoyance, "What's happening? Why is this woman allowed to be onstage? Did you not see that her dress was dirty? What's more, she is being so rude to Young Master Chen!"

"We're so sorry, General Manager Li and Young Master Chen. It's our mistake!"

The staff immediately nodded their heads to express their apologies.

The staff pointed at Liu Min and Wang Qiang, then ordered, "You and you! Get out of here!"

"Huh? Why? He is an impersonator. He is just a poor student. You guys have mistaken him for Young Master Chen. I am his teacher. Damn, Chen Hao, please say something. Please clarify to them that you are just a poor guy and they have mistaken you for the wrong guy!”

A few guys were already there to shove Liu Min and Wang Qiang off the stage.

Nonetheless, Liu Min cried out reluctantly.

Firstly, they had to suffer the public humiliation of being ordered to get off the stage.

The other thing was, how could Chen Hao be Young Master Chen? Liu Min felt like dying if that was the truth!

Therefore, the only thing she wanted was for Chen Hao to offer some clarification.

Afterall, Chen Hao was just a loser. He even stepped forward when someone was calling for Young Master Chen just now at the lobby.

At that moment, Li Zhenguo averted his gaze toward Chen Hao.

His gaze was inquisitive, trying to gauge Chen Hao's decision.

After all, if that woman knew Young Master Chen personally, Li Zhenguo could not be too rude to her.

Unexpectedly, Chen Hao replied, "We are just acquaintances. She used to be my teacher."

Chen Hao revealed a slight smile and said, "However, if you really want me to say it aloud, I will say it. Yes, I am just a poor guy. I am just a student with no money. They have mistaken me for the wrong guy!"

"Ha! General Manager Li, did you hear that? Hahaha, he admitted it. He just admitted it!" Liu Min exclaimed.

She wondered whether Li Zhenguo was impressed by her actions.

However, Li Zhenguo cast Liu Min a smirk before saying, "Someone please get these two people out of here!"

Several guards were already standing by. In the blink of an eye, they got hold of Liu Min and Wang Qiang, who was in a daze, and shoved them off the stage.

Only then did the hall return to a much peaceful state.

Chen Hao really could not stand Liu Min any longer. Ever since Liu Min treated him that way at the petrol station, their relationship had turned sour.

Back then, Chen Hao decided to be tolerant with her, just like how he was tolerant with Zhao Yifan for taunting him. It was for the sake of Ma Xiaonan and the girls. Therefore, he let it go.

However, Liu Min was a different case. He had no need to endure her attitude any longer.

Hence, Chen Hao decided to become decisive.

Anyhow, Chen Hao was the winner of a Mercedes-Benz G500 from the lucky draw event. At the beginning, the organizer thought that Chen Hao would think that the prize was too shabby. After all, the prize was sponsored.

Yet, Chen Hao had no comments about the prize.

For him, the car was already quite decent.

Also, he had already returned to this small county. It was unrealistic for him to travel around the county with his Lamborghini.

Initially, he had thought of borrowing a car from Li Zhenguo. Now, the G500 would come in handy.

After that, the guests started to drink and chat among themselves.

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed.

Uncle Wu had also been discharged from the hospital.

Chen Hao had quite an empty schedule for today. Therefore, he planned to check on the business plans over at Li Zhenguo's.

He had also received several calls from his sister.

In the midst of their conversation, Chen Hao suddenly remembered that his father had asked him to do something. His father had asked him to visit his previous comrade in arms in Ping An County. He had been here for one whole week but he had totally forgotten about this.

Chen Hao had nothing else to do today. So, after getting some gifts, he made his way to a high-end residential area of Ping An county where Jiang Weidong, also known as Uncle Jiang, stayed.

As previously mentioned, the two families were driven apart due to several incidents that had happened between them.

However, his father was a person who treasured his old friendships.

His father was not convinced. Despite the selfish nature of humans, it was hard to forget a relationship completely.

Six years ago, Chen Hao's father had brought him along to Uncle Jiang's place to ask for his help to get into high school. At that time, Uncle Jiang treated them with indifference.

Chen Hao knew how his father felt about this.

This time, the only difference was that he was here alone, and he had come with a brand new identity!

He wondered whether he would be treated in the same way as before. Hehe...

As he was deep in thought, Chen Hao had arrived at the right location according to memory.

He knocked on the door.

"Who is it?"

A middle-aged lady opened the door.

Of course, Chen Hao recognised the lady. Her name was Tang Lan. He used to address her as Aunt Tang, and she was Jiang Weidong's wife. According to what he heard, she was a director at a bank. She was great at what she did.

“Hi, Aunt Tang. Do you still recognize me? My name is Chen Hao. I used to frequent your place with my father!” Chen Hao greeted her with a smile.

“Oh! I remember you. You are the son of one of Jiang's comrades in arms, Chen Jindong. It has been a while. You have grown up a lot! Please come in!”

She took a look at the stuff in Chen Hao's hand.

Tang Lan offered the pleasantries nonchalantly.

She had gotten very used to these visitors. Judging from Chen Hao's look, she knew that he was here to ask for help.

Deep down inside, she had already come up with an excuse to turn him down.

However, she could not be too rude to him.

He walked into the living room and saw a middle-aged man reading papers on the sofa with his legs crossed.

He acted as though he was the president of a company.

Naturally, that person was the Uncle Jiang whom Chen Hao had mentioned. He had heard that Jiang Wei Dong was the current director of the Development Bureau.

They were a typical family full of government officials.

“Hi, Uncle Jiang!”

For some unknown reasons, Chen Hao was still very uptight around them even though so many years had passed.

“Hi. Oh, you're Little Chen. It's been a long while. Oh right, I heard that your father was trying to make money abroad to pay for his debt?” Jiang Weidong tossed the papers aside and asked.

“Yes, he's earning money overseas!” Chen Hao said with a laugh.

"You just graduated from university this year, right? What do you major in?" Jiang Weidong inquired nonchalantly. He lifted the cup and blew on the tea leaves that were floating on the surface.

"I am from the Literature Department. I major in Chinese Language and Editing."

"Ahem. Although the subjects you do are quite unpopular, it would be easy for you to seek a job. By the way, have you found a job?" Jiang Weidong asked.

"Not yet, Uncle Jiang! I am here today just to visit you. Besides, my father has instructed me..."

"Jiang, you have a meeting later right?"

At this moment, Tang Lan, who was standing at the side, suddenly interrupted their conversation.

"Oh yes, there's a meeting I need to attend later. It's quite urgent. If it wasn't for this, I would have made Chen Hao stay for lunch!" Jiang Weidong smiled lightly.

Chen Hao was not too dumb himself. He could sense in their tone that they thought he was here to ask for a job.

Therefore, they were trying to come up with an excuse so that he would leave.

Alas, it appeared that little to no friendship was left between the two families. He would tell his father about everything that happened on this trip. He guessed his father would give up any hope of reviving the friendship from now on. Before waiting for them to finish, Chen Hao had already stood up and was about to leave.

Right at this moment, a girl walked out from her room on the second floor of the duplex building, wearing earphones. The girl was quite pretty.

"Mom, my friends are coming to have lunch later. Is the food ready? Do you need help?" the girl said with a smile.

When she caught sight of Chen Hao, she stared at him and asked, "Mom, who is he?"