

Trick Me 1081

Chapter 1081: why are you sitting on my bed?

After realizing this, Li Jie was very surprised, but he did not say anything. He only did what a bodyguard should do and stood by the side to protect Xia Jinqi.

Yan Jun also noticed Xia Jinqi's line of sight. He looked over and saw Wen Qing lying on the ground.

"What's going on?" He asked her.

Xia Jinqi's brows were still furrowed. There was lingering fear in her watery eyes. "I came in to see her. She suddenly pounced on me and said she wanted to kill me..."

At that time, Wen Qing's eyes and actions were filled with intense hatred. That kind of hatred was even more terrifying than what Xia Jinqi had seen from Yan Qing!

She didn't understand. When Wen Qing left, didn't she already put everything down?

Why did she suddenly come back and hate her so much?

What exactly happened?

Yan Jun's dark eyes paused. He felt Xia Jinqi's trembling body and hugged her tightly. "Don't be afraid. It's okay."

Xia Jinqi still didn't come back to her senses for a long time. She just leaned into Yan Jun's arms in a daze and looked at the woman lying on the ground.

After a while, Wen Qing moved her body and slowly woke up.

Li Jie's knife attack did not have the intention to kill her. He only had the intention to knock her out temporarily.

Initially, he only wanted Wen Qing to let go of Xia Jinqi first, so he did not use much strength.

Everyone in the room was waiting for Wen Qing to wake up. They wanted to see how she would explain that she had amnesia and killed someone. What was going on?

Who would have thought that after Wen Qing woke up, she would rub her neck and look around the room in confusion. She slowly stood up and said, "what happened to me? My neck hurts..."

Everyone was stunned. Wen Qing's reaction... was she going to say that she didn't know what had happened just now?

Just as this thought formed in her mind, Wen Qing turned her head and saw Yan Jun. Then, she took two quick steps towards Yan Jun..

Yan Jun rejected her. Afraid that she would take the opportunity to hurt Xia Jinqi again, he subconsciously stood up and blocked in front of Xia Jinqi.

Wen Qing was stunned. She didn't know why Yan Jun looked at her with such a guarded gaze. "Jun, what's wrong with you? Why are you looking at me like that?"

After saying that, she turned to look at Xia Jinqi behind Yan Jun. "why are you sitting on my bed?"

Xia Jinqi raised her eyes and made eye contact with Wen Qing. Her willow-like eyebrows furrowed slightly.

That's not right.

It wasn't that kind of gaze.

When Wen Qing looked at her just now, she wasn't so at a loss... ..

"You tried to strangle me just now. Do you still want to continue pretending?" Xia Jinqi stared at her and slowly stood up.

Wen Qing was even more confused now. "Strangle you? How is that possible? Didn't I fall asleep just now? Moreover, I don't even know you. Why would I strangle you?"

"..."Xia Jinqi really admired her. Her acting was so good. Shouldn't she go get an oscar-winning little gold figurine? nove/lb.1n

Yan Jun looked at this scene, and his deep black eyes darkened again and again.

When he entered, he did indeed see Wen Qing strangling Xia Jinqi's neck and refusing to let go.

But now, she was pretending that she didn't remember anything?

"Wen Qing, what exactly do you want to do?" Yan Jun shielded Xia Jinqi behind him and questioned Wen Qing in a deep voice.

From the beginning, he wanted to save her at the auction because of their past friendship.

Now, it seemed that her existence was a huge threat to Xia Jinqi.

Or was it another huge conspiracy?

Chapter 1082: Why did you accuse me wrongly?

Wen Qing's originally confused expression suddenly crumbled when she heard Yan Jun's questioning. Two lines of clear tears flowed down her reddened eyes. She pounced over and tugged at Yan Jun's sleeve as she cried out "Jun, why did you say that? Do you believe her and not me? I... I don't even know her. Why would I kill her?"

After saying that, she glared at Xia Jinqi and scolded, "why did you accuse me wrongly? I didn't want to strangle you!"

"ACCUSE ME?" Xia Jinqi sneered and pulled open her collar, revealing the bloody marks on her neck. "The marks are still here! Wen Qing, how are you going to explain this?"

"I . . . It wasn't me..." Wen Qing shook her head hard and refused to look at Xia Jinqi. She then grabbed Yan Jun's hand and refused to let go. "Jun, she lied to you. I didn't strangle her. I really didn't..."

Yan Jun no longer had the patience to listen to Wen Qing's sobbing excuses. He forcefully shook Wen Qing's hand away and held Xia Jinqi as they walked out of the door.

Wen Qing's hand fell empty. When she looked up again, she could only see Yan Jun's back as he left.

She stood where she was. She could no longer control her tears and they flowed down.

Li Jie looked at her coldly. Without saying anything, he turned around and left as well.

When he went out, he locked the door.

Those who attempted to harm the chairman had to be isolated.

Yan Jun directly brought Xia Jinqi into the car.

He looked at the dark red scar on her neck with a heartache. His black eyes darkened again and again. "I'll get someone to bring Wen Qing away. She can't stay with you anymore."

After the scene just now, how could Yan Jun let Wen Qing stay with Xia Jinqi?

Xia Jinqi coughed again. Her expression eased up a little, but she was still pale.

After hearing Yan Jun's words, she looked up at him. "You took her away. What if Lu Yiming finds out?"

"I have a way." Yan Jun didn't explain too much. He didn't want her to continue worrying about this matter. n./0vELBIn

Wen Qing was his former friend. She had nothing to do with him, so he shouldn't let her bear all this.

Xia Jinqi saw the seriousness in Yan Jun's dark eyes, so she let him be. "Alright."

Judging from Wen Qing's appearance, she would definitely not let things rest until she was dead.

Spending more than 300 million to buy a person who wanted to kill her all day long was really not a pleasant feeling.

Yan Jun hugged her back into his arms again and patted her shoulder with one hand. His cold dark eyes were filled with killing intent.

No matter who was behind this, he would never let it go!

After sending Xia Jinqi back to the Yan family, Yan Jun began to arrange for Wen Qing to be transferred.

The sky had already darkened. Xia Jinqi had taken a shower and was curled up on the big bed alone. The more she thought about the scene that had happened in the afternoon, the more she felt a lingering fear.

In Wen Qing's heart, how much did she hate her that she would glare at her like that... ..

But then why did Wen Qing pretend that nothing had happened?

Xia Jinqi could not figure this out.

When Yan Jun and Li Jie rushed in, they had clearly seen Wen Qing strangling Wen Qing without letting go.

Wen Qing would not be so stupid as to think that her words would deceive everyone, right?

Unless, she really couldn't remember... ..

But how could a person lose their memories continuously for no reason?

Even if they lost their memories, it couldn't be just for Xia Jinqi, right?

After thinking for a long time, she still couldn't think of a reason. Xia Jinqi fidgeted with her short hair.

Just as she was fidgeting, her phone vibrated.

Chapter 1083: No matter how dark the night is, the dawn will come!

She took a look and saw that it was a video call invitation from Ji Yunjing.

She paused and quickly picked it up.

“COUSIN?”

“Xiao Qi, it's me.” Ji Yunjing's familiar handsome face appeared on the screen. Then, it shifted to Yu Han and Xiao puff who were playing on the big bed. “Is Everything okay? The children miss you. Come and take a look.”

Xia Jinqi looked at the two little cuties on the phone screen. Suddenly, she was not annoyed at all. She could not help but smile. “everything is fine. What is Xiao puff playing?”

Ji Yunjing moved closer to Xiao puff. The camera turned and aimed at the shrieking chicken in Xiao Puff's hand. He pinched it, and the chicken cried out twice. Xiao puff giggled along with him. It was very comical.

“Xiao Puff, come. This is mommy. SAY HELLO TO MOMMY!” Ji Yunjing put the phone in front of Xiao puff and asked her to look at Xia Jinqi on the phone.

Xiao puff was still playing shrieking chicken, but in the blink of an eye, she saw mommy. She immediately threw away the shrieking chicken and hugged the phone. “Mu... ya...”

She moved her small mouth and babbled, but no one knew what she was saying.

Xia Jinqi found it funny. “Xiao Puff, did you Miss Mommy?”

Xiao puff held her phone and played for a while. Then, she moved closer to the screen and pouted. “giggle...” then, she laughed.

Xia Jinqi thought that she didn't know what was going on in the video, but when she saw her kiss, her heart melted.

Ji Yunjing had already handed the phone to Yu Han. “Yu Han, come and say hello to Mommy.”

Yu Han looked over and saw the little mommy on the phone. He cried out, “mommy...”

The words he said slowly became clearer. It was obvious that he was calling mommy.

Xia Jinqi choked up. She had been gone for a few days, and she missed the two children too much.

“Yu Han...”

Seeing that Xia Jinqi was about to cry, Ji Yunjing picked up the phone again and asked the nanny to take care of the two children while he went to the room next door.

“How’s it going over there? DID ANYTHING HAPPEN?”

Xia Jinqi hurriedly collected her emotions and smiled. “It’s pretty good. What could have happened? Where’s GRANDPA?”

“He’s still the same. I just miss you,” Ji Yunjing said as she glanced at the courtyard downstairs.

Other than going out sometimes, grandpa always liked to sit alone in the courtyard for the whole day.

“Don’t worry about the children. Understand what’s going on over there as soon as possible. Take care.”

“En, thank you, cousin.” Xia Jinqi’s voice trembled slightly. Hearing her cousin’s words, she didn’t know how reassured she was.

If it weren’t for her grandfather and cousin taking care of the two children, she wouldn’t have dared to come back so boldly.

If it was possible, she also wanted to be by the two children’s side.

“We’re a family and we’re still talking about this. Alright, I won’t disturb you anymore. Rest early.” After Ji Yunjing finished speaking, she ended the video call.

Xia Jinqi put down her phone and looked up at the moonlight outside the window. She thought of Xiao Puff’s kiss just now and Yu Han’s soft, very clear numbness... ..

She suddenly felt full of strength!

Yes, she still had her family and two cute little babies to bring back. How could she be depressed here?

No matter how difficult the matter was, there was always a solution.

No matter how dark the night was, it would eventually usher in the Dawn!

Xia Jinqi looked at the bright moonlight outside the window and suddenly smiled.

Chapter 1084: Surprise

However, as she looked at it, she discovered something rare.

Under the moonlight, there seemed to be a huge ferris wheel!

And it felt very close, as if it was right in front of her!

Xia Jinqi rubbed her eyes and ran to the balcony to take a closer look. Only then did she realize that it was really a ferris wheel. It was just that the night was too dark, so she could not see it very clearly.

She did not remember where there was an amusement park in the vicinity... ..

Could it be that it had just been built?

Thinking of this, Xia Jinqi could not help but get excited again.

She ran downstairs quickly and happened to see di Qu in the living room. She asked, “uncle Di Qu, is there an amusement park around our house?”

“No...” Di Qu shook his head. He had lived here for decades, so he was very familiar with the surroundings.

This area was filled with rich people. There were not many people living there, and each family occupied a large area. How could they build an amusement park around it.

“But I see a ferris wheel!” Xia Jinqi walked out of the door excitedly and pointed at the huge circle that stood in the dark. “Uncle Di Qu, look! It’s here!”

Di Qu looked up and smiled in understanding. “Young Madam, you mean this? This is in the backyard. It was just completed two days ago.”

“In our house?” Xia Jinqi was shocked. “We have a ferris wheel in our house? And it’s this big?”

She had only come back after dark for the past two days. Moreover, she had deliberately paid attention to her surroundings, so she did not notice this huge circle.

If she had not watched the moon for a while after the video call, she would not have noticed it at all! n--
⊙).v)-e)/l.-b(/l)(n

“Yes, Young Madam. Do you want to take a look?” Di Qu suggested with a smile when he saw Xia Jinqi’s excitement and excitement.

That thing was built by young master. Di Qu guessed in his heart that it should be prepared for Young Madam, Young Master, and young miss, right?

However, seeing young Madam’s surprised look at this moment, he should only know about it now.

“Can I?” Xia Jinqi asked with a pair of big eyes full of hope.

“OF COURSE!” Di Qu nodded and asked the Security Guard to bring a scooter over. He personally bent down and invited Xia Jinqi to get in the car. “Young Madam, please!”

Xia Jinqi got into the scooter. Her eyes were still fixed on the Ferris Wheel!

It was too magical!

She had only left for a short while!

There was already such a big ferris wheel in the house!

Di Qu personally drove the scooter and sent Xia Jinqi over.

The Yan family's mansion was too big. Sometimes, it would take twenty to thirty minutes to walk over. Hence, after repairing half of the destroyed land, the road was widened and the scooter could be used frequently.

The scooter was a bit like a tourist car. There were no doors on both sides, and the front and back rows of seats could seat two to six people at a time.

Di Qu drove very slowly. The night wind blew in, blowing away the last bit of depression in Xia Jinqi's heart.

Along the way, di Qu parked the shuttle bus on the outer side of the Ferris wheel, which was still more than twenty meters away.

"Young Madam, this is not completely completed. Let's take a look outside."

"okay." Xia Jinqi got off the bus immediately. She stood on the grass and looked up at the huge ferris wheel.

"It's so big. You should be able to take in the entire scenery of Rao city, right?" As she looked at it, she could not help but sigh.

It was a pity that it was not finished yet. Otherwise, Xia Jinqi would really like to sit on it and take a look. The scenery would definitely be very beautiful!

Di Qu also looked up at the big fellow that seemed to be completely compatible with the dark night. He sighed and nodded. "Yes."

Xia Jinqi looked at it and asked, "why did you suddenly set up a ferris wheel in the backyard?"

Chapter 1085: begged you to give him another chance

"This... was ordered by young master. I think it should be for you, Young Madam." Di Qu smiled. Young master rarely returned to his house, let alone repairing the damaged ground ...

It was easy to guess who young master was willing to do all this for.

Xia Jinqi's expression froze. She suddenly recalled that day when she was on the roof with Yan Jun. Yan Jun had asked her if she wanted a paradise, and she said that she wanted... ..

At that time, she was just joking with him!

She did not expect that he would really move such a romantic thing like the ferris wheel back home?

Moreover, he had never told her about it...

This confidential work was really well done!

Di Qu did not wait for Young Madam to speak. When he turned around, he saw the pure and blissful smile on young Madam's face.

He hesitated for a moment, but he still felt that there was something he had to say. "Young Madam, I have something to ask of you with thick skin..."

Xia Jinqi's gaze was still fixed on the ferris wheel. "What is it? Uncle Qu, tell me."

"Young Madam, young master has not been able to eat or drink all day long since you left. Once he saw that you were back, he was willing to eat on time and slept much better," Di Qu muttered.

Upon hearing this, Xia Jinqi shifted her attention away from the Ferris Wheel and listened to di Qu's words seriously.

"Look at this ferris wheel. Young master is also the one who is focusing on completing it day by day. I have been in the Yan family for so many years, but I have never seen young master pay so much attention to anyone. Young Madam, young master really loves you very much."

"..."Xia Jinqi did not speak, but the tip of her nose was a little sour.

In fact, she did not need others to say it. She could feel that Yan Jun was really good to her.

After Zhai Qu finished muttering, he finally said his request. "So... Di Qu wants to beg young Madam. If one day in the future, young master does something that makes you sad, I beg you to give him another chance."

The reason why di Qu said this was because he also understood Xia Jinqi's character.

In fact, Xia Jinqi and long Qingxin were more or less similar. They were both strong-willed, and their eyes could not contain a single grain of sand.

Long Qingxin had left that year because she found out that Yan Youcheng had done something that had let her down.

Di Qu had been by Yan Youcheng's side all these years. When he saw that Yan Youcheng had made many mistakes but was unable to turn things around and ended up alone, he felt sympathy in his heart.

Di Qu did not want the young master to walk down this path one day.

Xia Jinqi's eyes flashed when she heard di Qu's words. She did not know how to answer di Qu's question.

If Yan Jun had really done something wrong to her, she would definitely leave without hesitation.

She was really very similar to long Qingxin. She would never forgive betrayal and deception.

When she thought of this, she suddenly understood why long Qingxin would rather live alone in Qingxin garden than move here.

Once some estrangement was created, there was no way to restore it to its original state.

"Uncle Qu, Yan Jun won't." Xia Jinqi smiled and directly denied di Qu's hypothesis.

She believed in Yan Jun's character.

Love was love, not love was not love.

If there was a day when he did not love her anymore, he could bring it up directly. It was better than betraying her.

Di Qu thought for a long time but he did not expect Xia Jinqi to answer him like this.

After being stunned for a moment, he smiled and said, "Young Madam is right."

If Young Madam believed in young master like this, what more him?

Chapter 1086: Why did she suddenly come back?

Xia Jinqi didn't say anything more. Instead, she continued to look up at the huge ferris wheel in front of her.

This Yan Jun, I didn't expect him to be so romantic... ..

..

Yan Jun arranged for someone to secretly take Wen Qing away.

Although Lu Yiming had many spies, Yan Jun had more tricks up his sleeve.

He had plenty of ways to secretly transfer someone.

In a remote old house in the suburbs.

Wen Qing was still unconscious. Ben, who had just gotten off the plane, rushed over as soon as he received the news from Yan Jun..

"What happened? Why did she suddenly come back?" Even now, Ben still found it unbelievable Why did Wen Qing suddenly return to Rao city? Without informing him, he said, "we originally had an academic seminar this week. I invited her to be a guest, and she agreed."

While Ben explained the situation he understood, he followed Yan Jun to visit Wen Qing.

"She didn't contact me when she came back. She appeared at an auction last night, and when she woke up, she had already lost her memory." Yan Jun succinctly recounted the encounter with Wen Qing, as well as her attempt to kill Xia Jinqi this afternoon After that, she pretended not to know anything.

Hearing this, Ben frowned. He put down his bag and went to look at Wen Qing, who was sleeping on the bed.

First, he checked her heartbeat, body temperature, and pupils, and found that everything was normal. Then, Ben looked at her hands.

There were some dried blood stains on her fingernails. It was not much, but it was enough to prove that Yan Jun was telling the truth when he said that she tried to kill someone.

"Did she bring any luggage with her? Or what kind of medicine?" Ben Initially suspected that she might have taken drugs and caused a mental disorder.

However, Yan Jun shook his head. "No."

When Wen Qing was sent back by the auction house, she did not have anything on her. She was only wearing a gauze dress.

The rest was gone.

According to the rules of the auction house, the source of the goods was never revealed, and there were no records that could be checked.

Ben continued to search Wen Qing's arms. Behind her ears and behind her knees, he did not find any suspicious needle marks.

"You said that her memory only stopped a few years ago?" Ben Asked again.

"Yes."

"That's strange. Even if she took the medication and injected it with an injection, it's impossible to strictly control where she began to lose her memory." Ben Frowned. His Blue Eyes were filled with suspicion. "unless it's hypnosis."

It was hypnosis again.

"CAN IT BE UNDONE?" Yan Jun glanced at Wen Qing lying on the bed, his expression grave.

If someone deliberately hypnotized Wen Qing, it wouldn't be for her to kill him, but for Xia Jinqi?

Could it be that Lu Yiming had done something?

"We'll know when she wakes up." Ben Couldn't guarantee that he would be able to undo this hypnosis.

He still didn't know what exactly Wen Qing's symptoms were.

He had to rule out that it really wasn't a neurological disorder caused by pathology before he could consider using hypnosis therapy.

As soon as Ben finished speaking, Wen Qing, who had been sleeping, slowly woke up.

When she opened her eyes, she stared blankly at the ceiling, as dull as a doll.

When Ben noticed this detail, his heart skipped a beat.

When a normal person woke up, they would be very lazy and at a loss.

Because the brain had just been awakened at that time, a lot of sensory information had not been completely received, so their reactions were somewhat slow.

However, the moment Wen Qing woke up, she clearly carried some kind of command.

It was as if something was waking her up. or rather, the moment she woke up, she was controlled by some kind of command.

Chapter 1087: I thought you were angry and would never come to see me again

But that was only a reaction that lasted for a few seconds. It was fleeting.

Wen Qing immediately sat up. When she saw that the person sitting by the bed was Ben, she immediately pulled his arm happily. "Ben? Why are you here?"

After saying that, she saw Yan Jun standing by the side. Her eyes immediately teared up. "I thought you were angry and would never come to see me again."

Previously, when Yan Jun saw Wen Qing Hurting Xia Jinqi, he did not have the slightest sympathy for her. But now that he heard Ben's conclusion that she might have also been framed, Yan Jun could only sigh softly. "Don't think too much."

Before the truth was out, he did not want to frame anyone.

Seeing that Wen Qing's heart was tied to Yan Jun, Ben could not help but sigh dejectedly. He asked, "Ah Qing, didn't you promise to come to my academic seminar? Why did you come to Rao city all of a sudden?"

He wanted to follow his memory and find the loophole in Wen Qing's memory.

Wen Qing frowned and thought for a moment before she began to shake her head. "What academic seminar? I don't remember."

When Ben heard her say this, he did not continue to ask. Instead, he changed the topic. "Forget it. Did you come to Rao city to look for someone?"

"Yes, I came to look for Yan Jun." Wen Qing nodded and answered quickly.

"other than him, you also need to look for someone." Ben began to guide Wen Qing in an orderly manner, trying to get more information out of her.

Actually, when he heard Yan Jun say that Wen Qing deliberately waited to be alone with Xia Jinqi before making a move, Ben more or less had a plan in mind.

There was a trigger in Wen Qing's mind.

It could be that she was alone with Xia Jinqi. It could be that Xia Jinqi said something or something else.

Ben was not clear about this, so he prepared to try them one by one.

First, he had to confirm if Wen Qing was only targeting Xia Jinqi.

Wen Qing's eyes were dull for a moment, then she shook her head stiffly. "I'm here to look for Yan Jun."

"Yes, you're here to look for Yan Jun. What about another person? Are you looking for another person?" Ben continued to ask.

"Yes..." Wen Qing suddenly opened her mouth. Her voice became flat, and her eyes changed.

Hearing this, Yan Jun's eyes flickered, and he looked in Wen Qing's direction.

Ben, however, did not show much emotion. He only maintained his previous tone and voice. "Who? Who are you looking for?"

"..."Wen Qing did not speak, but her eyes were still staring straight at him. It was a terrifying sight.

Ben Waited for a while, but when he saw that she still had no reaction, he could only change his words. "Have you found the person you're looking for?"

Unfortunately, even if Ben asked this question, Wen Qing did not speak anymore. She just stared at a certain spot, her gaze somewhat unfocused.

Just like when Xia Jinqi went to see her, she bent her knees and leaned against the bay window.

Seeing her like this, Ben knew that it was useless to continue asking.

He turned around to look at Yan Jun. the two of them exchanged a look and left the room together.

After the two of them left, Wen Qing, who was alone in the room, suddenly turned her head to look at the tightly shut door and gave a strange smile.

"..."

Yan Jun and Ben went to the room next door.

There was a bottle of mineral water on the table. Ben Opened it casually and gulped down half of it, but there was still no relief on his face.

Yan Jun seemed to have guessed something, but he was not in a hurry to ask. Instead, he waited patiently for Ben.

After a long time, Ben finally put down the bottle of mineral water in his hand. "Ah Qing's condition is very bad. I had a few simple words with her just now. She answered me consciously and even wanted to guide me."

If even Ben had said so, then one could imagine Wen Qing's current situation.

Chapter 1088: placed a spy next to Lu Yiming

Yan Jun pondered for a moment and asked, "hypnosis?"

"hypnosis and drug counseling." Ben Thought the same at the beginning, but later he felt that it should not be so simple. "It might have been injected with some kind of neurotoxin. As for the specifics, I will only know after I hypnotize her."

"Are you confident?" Yan Jun saw the hesitation in Ben's eyes and his slightly trembling hands.

This was the first time Yan Jun saw Ben like this.

Ben Wiped his face and did not give an answer for a long time.

If it was just a simple hypnosis, then with his hypnosis, it should not be a big problem.

But if the other party really gave Wen Qing a neurotoxin-type drug, then it would be permanent damage to her nerves, which was irreversible.

In addition, Wen Qing was his good friend for many years. Under the double pressure, Ben's hands trembled nervously.

After a long time, Ben took a deep breath and looked up at Yan Jun. "I will do my best. But it's best to find out if she was injected with the drug first."

Yan Jun Xuan eyebrow slightly condensed, and looked at next door Wen Qing lived in the direction of the house, Deep Eyes.

"You don't have to worry about that. I'll get to the bottom of it."

He put a spy beside Lu Yiming.

It's time to send a message back.

Late at night.

Lu Yiming's official residence.

The third floor of the villa, so large a whole 400 square meters of space, in addition to the load-bearing column outside, did not do any partition.

There was a desk by the window with red wine on it.

Lu Yiming in this office desk, the hand held a glass of red wine, leaning against the boss chair closed his eyes to rest.

Beside his ears was the beautiful classical music that was emitted from the surround sound system.

At this moment, he looked like a human being and was enjoying his wonderful life.

There were three people sitting behind his chair.

Li Kun, Cui Ziyang, and Qu Yang.

These three were his right-hand men.

The three of them placed their wine glasses in front of each other, but they didn't drink much. After exchanging glances with each other, none of them said anything. They were all waiting for Lu Yiming to finish listening to the music.

After a few minutes, the song ended. Lu Yiming slowly opened his dark eyes, turned his chair, and glanced at the three people in front of him.

"Is there any movement from Yan Jun?" He put down his wine glass and got down to business.

"He seems to be very close to Lego's people," Qu Yang was the first to answer. Then, he took out a few photos from the folder he brought and placed them in front of Lu Yiming.

Lu Yiming took the opportunity to take a look.

The photos were taken when Yan Jun went in and out of Lego.

"He can go in and out of Lego so freely and frequently. He must have a lot to do with Lego," Qu Yang added.

As soon as Qu Yang finished speaking, Cui Ziyang expressed his different views. "Not exactly. Lego took Wen Qing away. Yan Jun probably went there to snatch Wen Qing back."

"If that's the case, Lego's people shouldn't be so polite to him," Qu Yang retorted calmly.

The two people were talking passionately, but Li Kun, who was beside them, did not speak. He maintained his composure and did not even move his eyebrows.

Lu Yiming looked at him with interest. "Li Kun, what do you think?"

After being called out, Li Kun did not have too much of an emotional fluctuation. He only spoke faintly "No matter what the relationship between Yan Jun and Lego is, our most important chess piece is Wen Qing. As long as she sees Xia Jinqi, she will do her best to get rid of her. "It's best if she is killed. If she can't be killed, there will naturally be people who will come to sir. "They should be the ones who should be the most anxious. Sir, just wait and see."

Chapter 1089: was his old lover

After hearing this, Lu Yiming laughed and clapped in satisfaction. "Well said! This is the effect I want!"

Qu Yang and Cui Ziyang looked at each other and looked at Li Kun in surprise. "Why is this?"

Li Kun didn't answer. He just smiled knowingly.

He didn't open his mouth to explain because he knew that Lu Yiming would announce such a perfect plan proudly.

He was self-aware and would not steal the spotlight.

Sure enough, when he saw Qu Yang and Cui Ziyang's dumbfounded faces, Lu Yiming frowned and looked at them "You guys, you spend all day thinking about how to destroy the Yan Corporation and cut off Xia Jitian's source of income. But why haven't you thought about who is the most important person in the Yan Corporation?"

As he said this, Lu Yiming poured himself another glass of wine. Holding the glass, he stood up and walked around the chair, talking about everything he had arranged with great enjoyment and pride "If you want to defeat Yan Jun, you have to start with the person closest to him... Wen Qing is his old lover. If something happens to her, how can Yan Jun not care?"

"I've already asked someone to bring her from Nevada. Then, I'll use the newly developed neurotoxin to control her brain. With hypnosis, I'll let her get close to Yan Jun. In fact, I want her to find Xia Jinqi.

"The reason for the hypnosis is that once she sees Xia Jinqi and confirms her target, she will attack her with all her might!"

When that time came, Xia Jinqi would be dead, and Yan Jun would be in so much pain that he wished he could die. Xia Jinqi isn't dead, and Yan Jun still has to think of a way to save Wen Qing, so he will definitely come looking for me... ..

And the moment he comes looking for me, it means that Xia Jinqi is by his side and Wen Qing has already discovered her.”

This was actually a trap.

No matter how the matter developed, no matter what choice Yan Jun made in the end, the final beneficiary would be Lu Yiming.

When Qu Yang heard this, he felt enlightened and suddenly enlightened.

However, Cui Ziyang didn't understand. He asked again, “why did Yan Jun Come? Is there an antidote for that neurotoxin?”

“BINGO!” Lu Yiming turned back to look at Cui Ziyang and snapped his fingers. “The antidote is with me. I want Yan Jun to Trade Xia Jinqi... I want to see what kind of choice he will make between the two women!”

After Cui Ziyang heard this, he gave Lu Yiming a thumbs up with admiration. “Sir, you really thought it through! Excellent! This move is too excellent!”

Lu Yiming listened to this flattery and looked even more pleased with himself. His eyes were even more twisted.

He loved to watch his prey struggle under his control, beg for mercy, and fear... .. And finally die with barely any breath left ...

Li Kun quietly observed the change in Lu Yiming's expression and chose the right time to say, “but there is still an important problem at the moment.”

As soon as he said this, the smile on Lu Yiming's lips faded away. He turned to look at him with narrowed eyes, his gaze dangerous. “What problem?”

What problem could there be with such a detailed arrangement?

Li Kun smiled and looked down at Yan Jun's photo on the table with extreme sarcasm “I just don't know when he will be able to guess your intention, sir. Although Ben has already gone back, what if this Ben is not capable enough to find the problem with Wen Qing? Then wouldn't all our previous efforts be in vain?”

“This... is a problem.” Qu Yang nodded ...

Lu Yiming also fell silent.

What Li Kun said was not unreasonable.

Yan Jun had hidden Xia Jinqi too deeply. If Wen Qing had not found Xia Jinqi, when the poison took effect and she died, wouldn't he have wasted his time?

Chapter 1090: Who wouldn't want to be a big star by his side?

He had spent a lot of effort to turn Wen Qing into this and send her to the auction house. Otherwise, she would be dead before he could use her.

Cui Ziyang glanced at the crowd. Seeing that no one said anything, he fawned over Lu Yiming and suggested, "This matter is actually very simple. We just need to find someone to leak the information to Yan Jun."

Qu Yang and Li Kun had different expressions, but they both lowered their eyebrows and did not look at Lu Yiming and Cui Ziyang.

Both of them did not want this task to fall on them.

If they interacted with Yan Jun, they might be suspected by Lu Yiming.

In the future, they might even be involved in internal strife. It was a tiring and thankless task.

Lu Yiming pondered for a moment and felt that Cui Ziyang was right. He glanced at the three people in front of him. "Who's going?"

"..."the three of them fell silent.

No one was a fool. They took all the tasks on themselves.

Cui Ziyang was the one who gave the idea. He naturally knew that no matter how well this kind of thing was done, it would bring a lot of trouble when it came back. Therefore, he rolled his eyes and started thinking about Li Kun.

"I think this matter belongs to Manager Li, right? Since you know so much about this matter, you definitely know how to leak the news."

Li Kun was smart. Recently, he had been highly appreciated by Lu Yiming. This made Cui Ziyang a little jealous.

After all, if Lu Yiming were to take over in the future, who wouldn't want to be a big star by his side?

This Li Kun was a little too much of a hindrance.

When Lu Yiming heard this, he looked at Li Kun but didn't say anything. He turned back to look at Qu Yang. "Qu Yang, what do you think?"

Qu Yang wasn't as good at talking as Cui Ziyang, nor was he as smart as Li Kun. However, his eyes were sharp and he was especially good at judging people. Therefore, Lu Yiming wanted to hear his opinion.

Qu Yang originally wanted to protect himself and did not want to get too involved in the battle between Li Kun and Cui Ziyang. However, since Lu Yiming had asked him personally at this moment, Qu Yang did not want to get involved.

He first looked at Cui Ziyang, then looked at Li Kun. His expression did not change, but his eyes were filled with fog. He thought about it more than 800 times.

This matter could be left to anyone, but Lu Yiming just had to ask him... ..

He probably wanted to take this opportunity to see who he was helping, right?

To be honest, Qu Yang was more optimistic about the Smart Li Kun. Although Cui Ziyang was a Schemer, he was also a talkative person.

As the saying goes, disaster comes from the mouth.

If you speak too much, you will lose.

One day, Cui Ziyang might face a fatal disaster because of his talkative mouth.

However, at this time, he could not openly help Li Kun, in case Cui Ziyang hated him and Lu Yiming would be suspicious.

Therefore, after weighing the pros and cons, Qu Yang chose to speak up for Cui Ziyang first, to achieve the goal of self-protection.

“Manager Li’s ability is outstanding. I believe that this matter will be done very beautifully.”

As soon as these words were said, Lu Yiming smiled and nodded. “Li Kun, since everyone has said so, I’ll leave this matter to you.”

Li Kun did not refuse. Instead, he smiled and said, “don’t worry, sir.”

After discussing this matter, Lu Yiming sat back in his chair and asked, “How’s the situation on Xia Jitian’s side?”

“There’s no big movement. He’s just preparing for next week’s speech,” Qu Yang replied and looked at Lu Yiming with a frown “Sir, in addition to you going to this speech, you have to bring your family to gather votes. Xia Jitian’s big family has a lot of people, you...”

At that time, Lu Yiming gently placed his left ring finger on the table. The sparkling gem still had a certain dazzling luster.
