

Trick Me 1091

Chapter 1091: I don't have any family members

Qu Yang's meaning was very clear. He was hinting to Lu Yiming that if he had any family members, it would be best to bring them along. Otherwise, he would be at a disadvantage.

However, ever since they had followed Lu Yiming for such a long time, they had never heard of Lu Yiming having a wife or anything like that.

But he didn't have a wife, and he wore this ring all day long. This was very unbelievable.

Lu Yiming was still in a good mood just now. After hearing Qu Yang's words, his face suddenly darkened, and his aura became turbid and dark.

"I don't have any family members." He threw out a sentence coldly, as if a few words were squeezed out from between his teeth.

Li Kun looked up in surprise, and happened to see Lu Yiming's tightly clenched hands.

Without family members, there would be no family members, but Lu Yiming said this in such a tone. It was very obvious that he was hiding something.

Lu Yiming had always hidden himself very well. Even the three of them, who were his confidants, were not very clear about Lu Yiming's private affairs.

Cui Ziyang saw that the atmosphere was a little stiff, and hurriedly opened his mouth, wanting to ease the atmosphere.

"Xia Jitian only has Xia Chuanxu, his only son, by his side. Xia Mingzhu is still in the disciplinary committee, so what advantage does he have? Brother Qu, you're worrying too much! No matter how hard they try, the votes have already been decided by US!"

Cui Ziyang cleverly changed the topic and kowtowed to Lu Yiming, making Lu Yiming have a better impression of him.

Since the topic had been changed, Lu Yiming's mood eased up again.

"Alright, I have my own plans. You guys can go back first."

Lu Yiming had already given the order to leave. The three of them looked at each other, stood up together, and left.

When they walked downstairs, Cui Ziyang was like a little person who had gained power and began to mock Li Kun. "Manager Li is really amazing. He actually quietly helped sir handle Wen Qing's matter."

Wen Qing's matter was Li Kun's secret responsibility, so when they were talking just now, Qu Yang and Cui Ziyang were both dumbfounded.

And Lu Yiming had given this matter to Li Kun to handle alone. This showed that he had positive trust in Li Kun.

This made Cui Ziyang very unhappy.

Li Kun glanced sideways at Cui Ziyang. His eyes were indifferent. The words he said were also well-behaved. "The things that Sir has instructed us to do, we just have to do our best to do it. "

"Humph! You speak as if it's true. Aren't you just trying to please Sir so that you can be promoted in the future?" Cui Ziyang said disdainfully.

Actually, this was what everyone thought, but Cui Ziyang had to say it out loud. He had to make the originally simple matter complicated.

Qu Yang could not stand it anymore, so he spoke up to help Li Kun. "Alright, director Cui, we are all working for Mr. Li. Why are you so serious?"

"Serious with him? Bah!" Cui Ziyang spat. He quickly walked two steps, got into the car, and took the lead to leave.

Li Kun glanced at Cui Ziyang indifferently. He did not say anything and was about to get into his own car.

However, Qu Yang pulled him back. "Brother Li, you can't be really angry, right? You know how Ziyang is. He just speaks without restraint."

Not seeing that he could get into the car, Li Kun turned back to look at Qu Yang. He smiled and shook his head. "Of course I won't be angry. Mr. Li loves that mouth of his the most. As long as he doesn't let him speak, his heart will itch."

Hearing Li Kun say so, Qu Yang's impression of him increased. He took the initiative to invite him. "Brother Li, you're right. It's just time for dinner. Why don't we have a meal together?"

Chapter 1092: clearly wants you to beg him

Qu Yang rarely took the initiative to approach Li Kun like this. No one knew what he was up to today.

Li Kun did not reject him and nodded. "Okay, I'm hungry."

"Then what are you waiting for? Get in the car!" Qu Yang also smiled.

The two of them got into the same car.

Qu Yang and Li Kun left Lu Yiming's official residence together, but neither of them noticed that at the corner of the back street, Cui Ziyang was sitting in the car, squinting as he watched the two of them leave together.

Afternoon

In the afternoon.

Yan Jun received two confidential letters at the same time.

The content was roughly the same, and it was concise and clear about Wen Qing's situation. However, among the two letters, one was flattering, and the other was concise and clear.

Wang Mang had also read the two letters at the same time, and he was also very puzzled. "Why are there two letters?"

There was only one undercover, and once the message was sent back, it meant that he had to bear the risk of being discovered.

Moreover, that was the undercover that Yan Jun had spent a lot of effort to send to Lu Yiming.

Because of this, he had not made any big movements during this period of time. He had been patiently waiting.

But now, although the news had come back, something had gone wrong.

A person would not send the same news twice in an envelope, and the tone of the two times was different.

"could he have been suspected?" Wang Mang thought for a moment and could only come to this conclusion.

If not for the fact that the spy had been suspected or had been discovered, Wang Mang really could not figure out why he had used two envelopes.

"He's temporarily safe." Yan Jun quickly came to a conclusion.

"How do you know?" Wang Mang raised his eyes to look at Yan Jun, not understanding how he could tell that the spy was temporarily safe.

To receive two secret reports at the same time, this was definitely an unusual thing!

Of course, Yan Jun also knew that this was definitely not an ordinary thing, but he compared the two secret reports "It's obviously the tone of the two people. If the spy was discovered, they wouldn't need to go through so much trouble. Moreover, the contents of the two secret reports are roughly the same."

If the spy was suspected or exposed, then the contents of the two secret reports would definitely not be the same.

Wang Mang still did not understand what he was hearing. However, since Yan Jun said that it was fine, then it was definitely fine.

Putting aside the matter of the spy for the time being, then the contents of these two letters... ..

Wang Mang hesitated for a moment and looked at Yan Jun. "second young master, what do you plan to do? Lu Yiming, this treacherous villain, deliberately found someone to leak the information. Isn't it obvious that he wants you to beg him?"

Yan Jun didn't answer.

He knew that Lu Yiming didn't just want him to beg him this time, he also wanted to drive a wedge between him and Xia Jinqi.

Saving one person and injuring another was not worth it for Yan Jun..

Actually, what Wang Mang wanted to ask more was whether Yan Jun wanted to save Xia Jinqi or Wen Qing... ..

However, due to the current sensitive period, Wang Mang was very tactful and didn't ask a single word.

He thought about it. If he was involved in this matter, he would definitely choose to save his wife.

People were selfish, especially in this life-and-death situation. Who could be so strong and awe-inspiring to save others?

Although Wen Qing had some friendship with Yan Jun in the past, but... .. That was in the past after all ...

While Wang Mang was putting himself in Yan Jun's shoes, Yan Jun also had a choice in his heart.

But he didn't say it out loud. It was just that there was no shock in his dark and alluring Phoenix Eyes.

At this moment, Ben's phone call suddenly came in.

Chapter 1093: take a good look at me!

When Yan Jun picked up the phone, Ben's almost shrieking voice came from the other side. "COME OVER QUICKLY! AH QING IS IN TROUBLE!"

Hearing this voice, Yan Jun immediately frowned and stood up. "I'll be there right away."

However, he went downstairs.

Wang Mang did not know what had happened, but seeing Yan Jun's face turn green, he knew that something must have happened again.

He also followed quickly.

In the suburbs.

Before Yan Jun entered the house, he heard a shrill scream in the room. "Kill her, I'm going to kill her! AHHH!"

Even Wang Mang's throat tightened when he heard this voice, and he felt uncomfortable all over.

Why did it feel like a female ghost demanding her life?

Wang Mang rubbed his arms, and suddenly felt a little cold behind him.

When Yan Jun pushed the door open and entered, he saw Wen Qing's long hair draped over her shoulders, her red eyes almost bulging out of their sockets, and the tips of her fingers were covered in blood, and she was still struggling.

And Ben, who was hugging her, was covered in blood marks that she had scratched out on his neck, face, and arms, one after another, and they were especially eye-catching!

"Ah Qing! Calm down... I'm Ben! Look at me properly!" Ben Did not seem to mind if Wen Qing would hurt him. He continued to hug her gently and never thought of abandoning her ...

Unfortunately, Wen Qing seemed to have been possessed and could not listen to Ben's words at all. She kept muttering, "kill her... kill her..."

She was like a wild beast, crazy and bloodthirsty. She no longer had any rationality in her mind.

Especially those eyes that were filled with hatred and evil, as if they were a sign that she had gone mad.

Back then, Wen Qing was young, kind, and understanding. Even a year ago, she was gentle and had a temperament. Although she had turned dark for a period of time in order to pursue the love in her heart, in the end, she had stopped at the precipice in time. It did not cause any irreparable mistakes.

But now, at this moment, she was so crazy, so bloodthirsty... ..

Just a little drug and a little hypnosis could change a person so completely!

If Yan Jun had not seen it with his own eyes, he would not have believed it... .. n)-0V1b1n

He frowned and took a few steps forward, pulling Wen Qing. "Ah Qing, it's me."

When Yan Jun opened his mouth, Wen Qing, who was still in a frenzy, suddenly trembled. She turned her head to look at Yan Jun in a daze.

Her eyes, which were initially filled with terror and hatred, slowly turned calm and finally became completely clear.

She smiled and said, "Jun, you're here..."

Then, her eyes went black and she lost consciousness and fell into Ben's arms.

Ben hugged her tightly and looked up at Yan Jun. His deep blue eyes were very responsible... ..

Wen Qing was so crazy just now. Ben hugged her and coaxed her for so long, but he couldn't bring her back to her senses.

But Yan Jun only said one word. No, maybe he didn't even need to say anything. As long as he appeared, Wen Qing would return to normal.

The difference between the two was so obvious.

Whether he cared or not, it was also so obvious.

Ben's heart was both sour and sad.

It had been a year.

This year, he had been extremely protective of Wen Qing. As long as she had needs, he would always be by her side.

He had done so much because he hoped that she could slowly forget Yan Jun, walk out of her past pain, and take a good look at the world.

Chapter 1094: Keeping Her alive

Yan Jun was not the only person in this world, and Yan Jun was not the only one worthy of her deep love.

Gradually, Wen Qing did not look as dispirited as when she had just returned from Rao city. She had lost her appetite, and her person had become cheerful and lively. He had clearly seen all of this.

Whether she would fall in love with him in the future or whether she could give him a chance, it did not seem to matter.

As long as he could see that she was good, his heart would also be happy.

Who knew that such a day would not last long before it was broken again.

Wen Qing inexplicably came to Rao city from Nevada, and was inexplicably sent to the auction. In the end, she inexplicably turned into such a crazy appearance. n-.o-(v)-e((ℓ)(b(-1).n

And all of this was because of Yan Jun... ..

Thinking of this, Ben Really wanted to beat up Yan Jun and ask him why he had to treat ah Qing like this, what right did he have to treat love like this!

However... ..

Ben Did not do this.

He also had no position to do this.

He wasn't ah Qing's person, and he knew that Yan Jun couldn't be blamed for things turning out like this.

From the very beginning, Yan Jun had clearly rejected Wen Qing. He had also expressed that he loved Xia Jinqi very much and wouldn't do anything that would betray Xia Jinqi.

All of this was because Wen Qing's obsession was too deep in her heart.

She didn't let go, which gave those bad guys a chance to take advantage of her... ..

Thinking of this, Ben gritted his teeth and calmed the anger in his heart. After settling Wen Qing down, he told Yan Jun about his latest discovery.

"when Ah Qing returned to Rao city, other than looking for you, she was also looking for Xia Jinqi. I accidentally mentioned this name in front of her just now, and she instantly exploded," Ben said He could not help but think of Wen Qing's sudden outburst of emotions, and his blue eyes were filled with heartache.

She was a good person, sigh... ..

Yan Jun's face was gloomy, but he was not surprised.

Seeing him like this, Ben asked, "you... did you find something?"

Yan Jun's gaze was like a hook. After hesitating for a moment, he said, "Ah Qing was injected with a neurotoxin."

“As expected.” Ben’s face suddenly darkened, and he frowned deeply. He then looked in the direction where Wen Qing was lying. “Is there an antidote?”

Ben was quite familiar with this field.

Most of the research and development of neurotoxins were originally designed to control, with the exception of some fatal ones.

Things that were used to control and threaten would inevitably have the possibility of being removed.

Since that person did not take Wen Qing’s life, the neurotoxin used might also have an antidote.

The Secret Report Yan Jun received was that there was an antidote, and the antidote was in Lu Yiming’s hands.

However, Lu Yiming’s condition was that Yan Jun had to take Xia Jinqi in exchange... ..

However, Yan Jun said to Ben, “not yet.”

When he said these two words, Wang Mang, who was standing at the door, frowned.

He had read the two secret reports.

The antidote was in Lu Yiming’s hands. It was extremely difficult to get it.

When he looked at Yan Jun again, he saw that his eyes were firm and unmoving like a mountain.

It seemed that he had already made up his mind.

Wang Mang said nothing and pretended not to hear anything.

Ben Believed Yan Jun’s words. He let out a long sigh and his eyes were already red.

“I will do my best to develop an antidote and keep her alive.” Ben Gritted his teeth. Every word that came out of his mouth was extremely difficult “But it might damage most of her brain nerves. Her intelligence level will become lower and she will have to live a muddled life for the rest of her life.”

Chapter 1095: If can not save you, I will take care of you for the rest of your life

In short, without the antidote, Wen Qing would not die with Ben as an expert. It was just that she might have to be a fool for the rest of her life.

“thank you for your hard work.” Yan Jun nodded, the lines of his jaw tightened.

He did not care what was right or wrong. He could not let anything happen to Xia Jinqi... ..

So... ..

He got up and walked to Wen Qing’s bedside. He looked down at her and swore in his heart.

“Ah Qing, I will do my best to help you get the antidote. But if I can’t save you, I will take care of you for the rest of your life.” n-.o-(v)-e((ℓ)(b(-1).n

Xia Jinqi didn't go to Lego much these two days. She only brought Li Jie to visit a few organizations that had previously secretly helped Huo Ting investigate Lu Yiming.

Among them were people from the former FBI and CIA, and even private detectives.

These people were also very powerful. They had also been tracking Lu Yiming for some time, but there had been no progress.

After Lu Yiming came out from the Discipline Inspection Commission, he wiped his ass very clean. After that, he even asked his subordinates to do things for him. Therefore, no matter how they investigated, his body was clean, purer than pure milk.

Huo Ting had started his investigation in the army, but not only had he achieved little, he had also exposed himself.

Therefore, Xia Jinqi planned to stop using the police force's resources and investigate bit by bit.

As long as Lu Yiming had done something bad in the past, there would definitely be traces left behind. There was no way that he would not leave even the slightest trace behind!

When she returned to the Yan residence, it was already dark.

Xia Jinqi took a shower and changed into a comfortable dress. Then, she walked around the living room.

The sky was getting darker and darker. Dinner was ready, but Yan Jun was still not back.

Di Qu saw that it was quite late, so he suggested, “young madam, you should eat first. There's no need to wait for young master. He might be a little late.”

“has he been so busy recently?” Xia Jinqi looked in the direction of the door as she walked to the dining table.

Di Qu served Xia Jinqi some soup and nodded. “Now that young Madam is at home, young master will come back no matter how late it is. Previously, he only came back occasionally and did not eat much. He slept very late and went out very early in the morning.”

In just twenty days, Yan Jun had lost a lot of weight. Di Qu felt sorry for him, but he was just anxious.

“Old Madam came twice. Even if young master does not have an appetite, he can still eat the food she brought.”

“...” Xia Jinqi listened and her beautiful eyes narrowed. She should have come back a long time ago.

Yan Jun was like this. He was very stubborn.

He clearly missed her, but he still pushed her away and pretended not to care.

However, speaking of Old Madam, Xia Jinqi had not seen her for a long time.

“How is Grandma's health? Is she in good spirits?” Xia Jinqi asked as she drank the soup.

“Old Madam looks very good. She walks with the wind! I think her health is very good.” Di Qu recalled that when old madam came that day, she looked very energetic. She looked exactly the same as she did a few decades ago.

Compared to her, Yan Youcheng’s health was much worse... ..

The last time he entered the ICU, Yan Youcheng kept coughing in the middle of the night. He kept saying that he would not be able to last until the new year.

Di Qu kept urging him to rest more, but he still thought about the Yan family and wanted to entrust the black tortoise hall to second master.

During this period of time, he had been traveling outside and rarely came back.

As time went by, Yan Youcheng and long Qingxin had not seen each other for a long time.

This huge Yan family was much quieter.

Chapter 1096:; the second person who was interested in his past

Xia Jinqi was relieved when she heard this. “Grandma knows how to take care of her health. She will definitely live a long life!”

After living a clean and unsullied life for so many years, taking care of her health and character would not be bad.

After dinner, Xia Jinqi began to look through the information she had brought back from the private detective during the day regarding Lu Yiming.

Now that Huo Ting was restricted, it was inconvenient for him to move around. Xia Jinqi was the only one who could take over and continue the investigation.

The maid brought up coffee twice. She remembered that when young master was around, the study room was also lit up all night like this. Now, it was young Madam.

Li Jie went out at night and brought back a lot of documents. They were piled up in front of Xia Jinqi.

“This is all the information you can find on Lu Yiming.” Li Jie patted the documents. He had no intention of reading them. They were all prepared for Xia Jinqi.

Xia Jinqi couldn’t finish reading so much information in such a short time. Seeing that Li Jie was fine, she asked him to help her look for them. “Look at the pile at the back. There are too many. I can’t finish them all.”

Li Jie’s footsteps stiffened slightly. He looked at Xia Jinqi and then at the pile of documents behind her. After a long time, he didn’t move a single step.

After Xia Jinqi flipped through a few pages, she felt a little tired. When she went to get a Coffee Cup, she saw that Li Jie was still standing there in a daze. She couldn’t help but be a little surprised. “Why... What’s the matter?”

“I can’t read,” Li Jie paused and said.

“...”this time, it was Xia Jinqi who was stunned.

She really didn’t expect that there were still people who couldn’t read in this era?

Seeing that Xia Jinqi didn’t say anything, Li Jie continued, “I went to primary school for a few years, and then I joined that mysterious organization. I only knew some basic words.”

He was a person who didn’t have a childhood. He had grown up with only cold guns, strong muscles, and two younger brothers who needed to be protected.

He only needed to ensure that the three brothers had food every day and didn’t go hungry.

In that kind of place, no one would care if you could read or not.

When the financiers looked for mercenaries on the assassin rankings, they wouldn’t care about what kind of education they had.

After Xia Jinqi heard this, she suddenly felt a little apologetic. Then, she was very curious about the mysterious organization that Li Jie mentioned.

“Tell me about it. That mysterious organization. You probably remember where it is and who it is.” She really wanted to know what kind of devil den it was.

Xia Jinqi’s words slightly shocked Li Jie.

She was the second person other than Huo Ting who was interested in his past.

Usually, big shots like them would not have the time to care about the past of people like him?

Ha, she and Huo Ting were not ordinary people.

No Wonder Huo Ting asked him to protect her.

Not long after, Li Jie began to recall his experiences when he was young.

“that place is like a remote mountain area. There are mountains surrounding it, but the mountains are not high. There are potholes in a large plain, and it is very muddy. When it rains, the water in the potholes is yellow.

“there are many wooden stakes and a lot of old tires in the open field. A few piles can build a shelter from the rain.

Every morning, a man wearing a cow mask would appear with a bucket of buns in his hands. Li Jie’s emotions were clearly fluctuating as he said this. His calm black eyes were suddenly filled with murderous intent that could destroy the world.

“every time it comes to this time, it’s a sign of a massacre. The more buns you grab, the fuller you’ll be. If you can’t grab them, you’ll starve to death...”

Chapter 1097: everything that couldn’t kill him would eventually make him stronger!

Xia Jinqi's brows furrowed when she heard this. Suddenly, she felt a gust of cold wind blow past her back. It was very cold, very cold.

"children as young as a few years old, the older ones are only around ten years old. They fight with each other, kill each other, and bite each other... the younger ones can't beat them. Some of their ears will be bitten off, some of their legs and arms will be broken, and some of their eyeballs will be gouged out. "

"..."Xia Jinqi resisted the churning of her stomach, and her face instantly turned as Pale as a sheet.

What kind of Devil's den was that... ..

"those who are injured will quickly get infected in those mosquito-infested places, and many people will start to have fever in the middle of the night. Those people are afraid of spreading infectious diseases, so someone will sneak in in the middle of the night and drag these seriously injured children out and bury them nearby. "

When Li Jie said this, his eyes narrowed, and the corners of his mouth pulled down tightly.

It had been many years, and he had never dared to sleep too deeply.

Because he didn't know if he would be dragged away like this after sleeping soundly and buried underground.

Even after he left that Organization for so many years, he still retained this habit.

He was vigilant. No matter where he was or what he did, he had to maintain a high degree of vigilance!

This was the only way to prevent himself from being in danger.

"What happened after that? " Xia Jinqi put down the document in her hand and focused on listening to Li Jie talk about the past.

If she wanted to understand more about that organization, she could only hear as much as she could about that place.

"later, those who survived were transferred to a bigger venue. There were more children there, but without exception, they were all stronger and fiercer. This time, the elimination rate was higher, faster..." Li Jie sneered He suddenly remembered that he once stole food from three people by himself, but was chased and beaten by more than ten older children.

He was beaten until his head was bleeding. At night, he developed a high fever and almost died.

It was his second and third brothers who protected him and hid him in a place where the patrolling people could not see him. They also used rainwater to clean his wounds, which allowed him to escape death.

He stood up again and rushed into the crowd more fiercely than the last time, stealing more food.

Then, more people beat him violently.

He fell down again and again, and stood up again and again!

Everything that couldn't kill him would eventually make him stronger! ! !

The days went by like this.

His eyes were more vicious, his hands were more powerful, and he ran faster!

Finally, one day, the food arrived, and no one dared to touch it first!

Everyone hid far away, waiting for him to take enough food and leave before those people dared to fight for it.

No one could imagine that he was only ten years old at that time.

One look from him could make a boy who was five or six years older than him give in.

He stood out from countless people and finally became a murderous devil.

Xia Jinqi could see what the viciousness on Li Jie's face meant.

He really climbed out of a pile of tens of millions of dead people. The murderous aura emanating from his body was also honed from those ghastly white bones... ..

"Do you still remember how many times you changed the scene?" Xia Jinqi sighed softly, suppressed her slightly choked voice, and asked.

"Five Times," Li Jie replied in a deep voice.

He remembered it especially clearly.

Because every time he transferred, it meant that a new massacre had begun.

And every time he transferred, he also witnessed his growth step by step!

Chapter 1098: come and take a look. Is this the place?

After Xia Jinqi heard this, her eyes narrowed again.

"Five Times? Where could such a large area be?" Xia Jinqi flipped through the map of Rao city and searched the surroundings, but she couldn't find such a large area.

Moreover, not only did the map have to be large, but it also had to be remote and not easily discovered.

Otherwise, if it was discovered by passersby, what was the point of playing?

After flipping through the map, Xia Jinqi pondered for a moment. Suddenly, an idea flashed through her mind, and she recalled a sentence that Li Jie had said earlier.

"You just said that there's an empty space with mountains all around... what's there?"

"Big tires," Li Jie answered.

Those tires were very big, and when they stood up, they could reach his shoulders.

It was the first time he was thrown into that place and couldn't beat the big kid. He hid in the tires, and every time, he was able to escape.

Later, he used the tires to hide from the rain. The smell of broken tires was everywhere. When the rain fell, it made a tapping sound on the tires. There were also many splashes on his body, and he remembered it very clearly.

“No.” Xia Jinqi shook her head, and her brows furrowed even more. “It’s that sentence from before.”

Li Jie focused his mind and thought for a moment. “WOODEN STAKES?”

“Yes! ! It’s wooden stakes! Are there many of them? What kind of wooden stakes?” Xia Jinqi became excited, and her large, clear eyes seemed to be able to shine ...

Li Jie didn’t understand what was so special about those wooden stakes. He only carefully recalled for a moment. “There aren’t that many of them. Maybe ten or twenty. There’s something tied to them, and some of them have already fallen.”

After hearing this, Xia Jinqi had already realized something. She immediately threw the map in front of her aside and took out an important document from several years ago. She kept flipping through it.

As she flipped through the pages, Xia Jinqi’s expression was very grave. Even though she didn’t find anything, her hands didn’t stop moving.

Li Jie looked at her crazy actions. His face was full of confusion, but he didn’t say anything to disturb her.

Because he could see that Xia Jinqi was flipping through a book. It was a document that a private detective used his hard connections to steal from the government.

It recorded the defensive maps around Rao city over the past ten years, as well as many military and political secrets.

What surprised Li Jie was that Xia Jinqi had finished reading such a thick book in the past few hours?

In fact, Xia Jinqi had indeed finished flipping through the book. However, she had flipped through it hastily and was looking through it selectively. She did not read it word by word.

However... She vaguely remembered that she had seen a photo just now. The scene on it was very similar to the scene that Li Jie had described just now ! !

After flipping through it for a few minutes, Xia Jinqi’s movements came to a stop, and her gaze was fixed on a certain page in the book.

“The original army’s area 47 garrison.” Xia Jinqi read a sentence written on the book, and then she looked up at Li Jie. “Come and take a look. Is this the place?”

Li Jie heard her and walked over. He lowered his eyes and glanced at the black and white photo on the book.

With just a glance, his entire body swayed, and his vision blurred. The memories in his mind were instantly brought to life.

His eyes were red, as if he would never forget that place even if he died!

Hearing Li Jie's identification, Xia Jinqi was so excited that she couldn't control herself!

It seemed that searching for information was still very useful. At least they had found the place where the crime was recorded!

Xia Jinqi carefully looked at the words that recorded this photo again.

Chapter 1099: was about unmarried people, not divorced people.

"after the troops were transferred, the site was transferred to the disciplinary committee." The more she read, the more Xia Jinqi frowned.

She put down the book and took Lu Yiming's appointment records. Comparing them, there was just a coincidence "After Lu Yiming joined the Disciplinary Committee, these lands were requisitioned by the disciplinary committee. The Disciplinary Committee's work is probably the most secretive, so no one can ask for any information. So even if Lu Yiming used these lands to raise death warriors, no one would know..."

If the truth was really as Xia Jinqi had guessed, then did Lu Yiming really have the power to cover up the sky at that time? Under the banner of the Discipline Inspection Commission, did he do such a despicable and despicable thing?

However, for such a long time, no one had discovered or exposed him. It could be seen how powerful Lu Yiming was.

Li Jie did not move the so-and-so land that Xia Jinqi had mentioned. He just stared at the corner of the old photo and pointed. "This is where they buried the sick child."

He did not expect that such a small photo would actually capture a place that left a deep impression on Li Jie.

Could this be fate?

Xia Jinqi looked at the place that Li Jie pointed at and was suddenly shocked. "You didn't remember wrongly?"

"absolutely not." Li Jie shook his head.

He had even forgotten who his biological parents were and what they looked like. However, he would never forget this place for the rest of his life!

Xia Jinqi's heart suddenly jumped.

"If that's the case, then the ground should be littered with corpses... If we find these corpses, we can accuse Lu Yiming of abusing his power and harming young children!"

When Li Jie heard Xia Jinqi say that she could convict Lu Yiming, he carefully stared at the photo for a long time and confirmed with absolute certainty, "this is the place! When I was here, there were at least ten children buried here!"

“...”At least ten... ..

Xia Jinqi was shocked when she heard this, but she forced herself to calm down. “Go and make preparations. Let’s go and take a look at this place! ”

It was not practical to guess what the truth was. Only by personally going to the scene would one know a thing or two!

“Yes, chairman. ” Li Jie nodded and immediately went to get ready.

Li Jie was the person who wanted to find the mastermind behind the operation that year and bring him to justice.

After all, as one of the victims, he deeply knew how dark and cruel that incident was... ..

The remaining Xia Jinqi was in the study room.

She was very excited.

She continued to check Lu Yiming’s employment history, but unexpectedly, she saw a resume that said Lu Yiming was married.

At that time, he was 24 years old, but later, in his 30-year-old information, it said he was unmarried.

It said unmarried, not divorced.

This... .. What was going on ? ?

Could it be that he secretly tampered with his own information?

Xia Jinqi frowned and thought for a while, then she thought of Fang Shaoan.

Didn’t Fang Shaoan’s father help the three Li brothers reestablish their identities?

Since they could reestablish their identities, it should be easier to modify the information, right?

Moreover, the Security Bureau would backup several copies of all the information. Perhaps they could find Lu Yiming’s previous information.

Thinking of this, Xia Jinqi took her phone and went to the balcony to call Fang Shaoan. She wanted to ask him to help her look up Lu Yiming’s information.

Just as she walked to the balcony, Yan Jun walked into the living room downstairs.

Chapter 1100: was no longer allowed to be checked!

Di Qu was still waiting in the living room. When he saw Yan Jun return, he immediately went forward to help him take off his coat.

“Young Master, you’re back. Have you eaten?” Di Qu asked as if it had been a day.

Yan Jun did not answer. Instead, he asked Xia Jinqi, “where is she?”

Di Qu did not need to ask to know who the young master was asking. He immediately answered, "Young Madam has been in the study room ever since she ate."

Yan Jun nodded and did not say anything else. He went straight upstairs.

He had been cooped up in the study since he had eaten?

Was Lego so busy?

With this thought in mind, Yan Jun had already walked into the study.

When he entered the room, he did not see anyone at first glance.

There were only documents, materials, maps, and books scattered on the desk that belonged to her. All of them were open. Beside them was a notebook with many words written densely on it.

He furrowed his eyebrows and walked over. He picked up a stack of information from it. It was about Lu Yiming.

His sharp black eyes narrowed. Yan Jun pursed his thin lips. The aura around him was a little cold.

She was investigating Lu Yiming?

Coincidentally, Xia Jinqi had just finished her phone call. She pulled open the balcony door and walked in.

Seeing that it was Yan Jun who had returned, Xia Jinqi was instantly overjoyed. She walked to his side and said, "you're back..."

However, Yan Jun frowned and looked at her. His eyes were ice-cold. "You're investigating Lu Yiming?"

"Yes!" Xia Jinqi nodded proudly. Then, she told him about her gains tonight. "So, many years ago, he was secretly training death warriors for himself. He caught some children and let them..."

Before Xia Jinqi could finish her words, Yan Jun interrupted her. "You're not allowed to investigate anymore!"

His eyes were dark and malicious, and he spoke in an overbearing manner that did not allow any discussion.

Xia Jinqi was momentarily stunned. She raised her trembling eyelashes and stared at him, asking in puzzlement, "why?"

"someone will investigate these things! In the future, don't ask about his matters anymore!" Yan Jun's every word was loud and clear, not allowing the slightest bit of resistance.

It had been a long time, but Yan Jun had never spoken to her in such a tone.

Xia Jinqi's heart ached and she was a little scared. "If I don't investigate, who will? Erhuo is being watched all day long, and you haven't seen anyone all day..."

Although she said that, Xia Jinqi's heart was as clear as a mirror. Yan Jun had gone to Wen Qing's place for the past two days.

She did not know about Wen Qing's situation. She only thought about how Wen Qing had almost killed her that day. She really did not like Wen Qing. Moreover, Yan Jun had been with Wen Qing the past two days.

Initially, Xia Jinqi did not want to care about these things. She trusted Yan Jun, so she did not ask about it. Instead, she tried her best to investigate Lu Yiming's matter.

Once Lu Yiming's bad deeds were exposed, Huo Ting could be saved, the Yan Corporation could be saved, and the children could come back. Then, they could reunite as a family.

Yan Jun saw the fog lingering in Xia Jinqi's eyes, and for a moment, his heart ached.

His gaze softened, and he raised his hand to gently support the side of her face. "I was too emotional."

He let out a long sigh and pulled her into his embrace. "I'm sorry, Ah Jin."

He was too afraid... ..

Wen Qing had been fine before, but she had been silently captured by Lu Yiming and turned into that state.

Yan Jun was worried that if Xia Jinqi continued to investigate, Lu Yiming would find out sooner or later.

He couldn't imagine that when Xia Jinqi fell into Lu Yiming's hands... ..

He really regretted it. He shouldn't have brought her back from Berlin in the first place.

Perhaps if she had stayed in the Ji family, things wouldn't have turned out this way... ..
