

Trick Me 1261

Chapter 1261: was filled with a sense of strangeness

She would do whatever her identity was.

When she was at Lego, she had to be wise and calm. She had to think twice about every word and every judgment, afraid that she would make a wrong step.

However, in front of Yan Jun, she could be a gentle wife or a spoiled lover. She could be herself.

Similarly, when Yan Jun was at the Yan Corporation, he was a cold-blooded, ruthless, and decisive CEO. He was a wise and decisive decision maker.

In front of Xia Jinqi, he was able to take off those masks. He was able to anger her like a child and snatch away her dumplings, causing her to be furious.

Seeing that the corner of her mouth was stained with some sauce, he took a tissue and gently wiped it away for her. "You're really like a child."

When the stall owner saw this scene, he couldn't help but laugh.

This couple was really close.

When the dumplings were almost eaten, an ambulance came into the street corner.

There was no horn, nor was there a motorcade leading the way. It was very quiet as it quietly drove in.

Xia Jinqi looked at them curiously, and she heard Yan Jun's deep voice. "They're here."

They had waited for so long in the cold wind, and finally, they had waited for this car.

"Let's go and take a look." Yan Jun glanced at Xia Jinqi, took the lead and took a step forward, following the ambulance.

Xia Jinqi nodded and also took two quick steps forward, walking side by side with Yan Jun..

The two of them were cosplaying as security guards tonight. They were responsible for the security of the villa in this area. Even if they walked back and forth inside, they wouldn't be discovered.

The ambulance didn't drive very fast, and Xia Jinqi didn't have to walk too fast to catch up.

However... Up until now, she still didn't know what exactly this place was ? ?

Yan Jun only said that he would bring her here, so she came as well.

It wasn't until the ambulance stopped in front of a villa that three or four men in white coats alighted from the car. They were all carrying boxes made of special materials, looking very mysterious.

As for those men, they all wore masks and didn't speak. They were so quiet that it was a little scary.

Xia Jinqi looked a little scary, so she asked Yan Jun, "what are they doing? "

Normally, when an ambulance arrived, wouldn't the first thing they do is rush down with a stretcher or a first aid kit? n--0Vεl&1n

These people seemed to be familiar with the road, and they weren't in a hurry at all. Obviously, there was a problem.

Yan Jun was also observing the movements of those people and the things they were carrying. Hearing Xia Jinqi's question, he said, "This is Lu Yiming's house."

"How do you know?" Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows and looked at him in surprise. She sighed in her heart. Lu Yiming was really cunning. There were houses everywhere.

However, a house was like a person. Lu Yiming was so abnormal that even this house had a sense of strangeness.

"Cui ziyang brought the news last night," Yan Jun said. Then, he retracted his gaze and walked forward as if nothing had happened.

They could not stop at the entrance of the villa as if nothing had happened. Otherwise, they would attract attention.

Xia Jinqi did not stop. After hearing Yan Jun's words, she turned around and looked at the villa carefully. "No one needs emergency treatment, but an ambulance came."

The same doubts were quietly brewing in Yan Jun's heart.

Originally, this news was for Xia Jinqi to hear, but Yan Jun was worried that she would come alone, so he personally arranged everything.

"It seems that I have to find an opportunity to enter the villa to take a look." Yan Jun narrowed his deep black eyes, and his voice was clear and cold.

He only looked around outside, and sure enough, he could not see anything.

Chapter 1262: who are you Why haven't I seen you before?

Xia Jinqi nodded, thinking of a way to get in.

As she walked, she saw a maid in uniform cleaning outside a villa.

She rolled her eyes and suddenly had an idea. She turned to look at Yan Jun. "why don't I disguise myself as a maid and sneak in?"

She had seen a maid outside the villa just now.

If she was lucky, she might really be able to sneak in.

Yan Jun heard this and stopped in his tracks. He flatly refused, "No."

Dressed as a maid, she was the only one who could enter.

He didn't know about her outside. What if something happened?

" ... " Xia Jinqi was so excited that he poured a bucket of cold water over her. She felt a chill run down her spine. "Why not? "

"It's not safe. " He had reason and evidence. He took another step forward, as if he didn't want to continue discussing this topic with her.

Xia Jinqi quickly followed him. "Lu Yiming probably didn't think that we would come here, right? I saw that the security outside the villa wasn't very tight, so I went in to take a look. If there's anything, I'll shout out loud, and you can hear me! "

Yan Jun, "..."

Xiu Xiu's brows were tightly knitted. She stopped and was about to tell her, but she took a step forward and said, "alright, it's decided! Wait for me outside! "

Xia Jinqi first executed the report, then left with a sentence and ran away.

She had to find a maid's outfit!

Seeing that she ran away like she was having a good time in the blink of an eye, Yan Jun could only helplessly stretch out his hand to pinch the space between his brows.

Forget it.

Since she was already here, if she wasn't allowed to go in and take a look, she probably wouldn't be able to sleep tonight.

Xia Jinqi obviously knew what Yan Jun was worried about, but she couldn't suppress her curiosity. She had to find out what was going on.

Moreover, the white bone case at the Criminal Investigation Unit had reached a bottleneck. Without any new clues, they wouldn't be able to progress.

Now that Xia Jitian had stepped down, even though there was still Xia Chuanxu, he still couldn't suppress Lu Yiming's momentum.

Huo Ting still hadn't regained his real power. To be honest, under such circumstances, there was a high chance that Lu Yiming would rise to the top.

When this winter was over and everything was settled, no one would be able to change the situation.

Xia Jinqi also wants to do her part.

After finding the maid's clothes, Xia Jinqi asked the other two security guards to help her sneak into Lu Yiming's villa through the back door.

The loss of Yan Jun came before the security here have been bribed, otherwise she is really difficult to blend in.

The inner courtyard of this villa is not big, about 20 square meters, planted a few bamboos, not even a pavilion.

Xia Jinqi did not waste much effort, from the back kitchen position into the villa.

As soon as she entered, she ran into a man in a black suit.

The man looked Xia Jinqi up and down and felt that she looked very unfamiliar. He shouted, "stop! Who Are you? Why haven't I seen you before?"

Xia Jinqi's legs froze on the spot. She turned around and lowered her head. "I'm new."

"New?" The man repeated. He looked Xia Jinqi up and down for a while before he remembered. "Xiao Lan just left yesterday, and old Jin already recruited New People?"

Xia Jinqi rolled her eyes. What a coincidence?

Then, she extracted the main point from his words and made up a lie. "Yes. Old Jin said that I will temporarily take Xiaolan's position and be responsible for..."

"Xiaolan used to serve on the second floor. You can go up." The man wasn't suspicious at all. After hearing Xia Jinqi's words, he also pointed upstairs for her.

Chapter 1263: my wife

Xia Jinqi's drumbeat-like heart finally calmed down a little. "alright, thank you, sir."

With her head still lowered, she walked past the man and headed upstairs.

It was so close, so close... .. She was almost recognized. Fortunately, she was quick-witted and managed to turn the situation around !!

In the end, she was only one step up when she was stopped again. "Wait, what's your name?"

The man asked again and glanced at Xia Jinqi, his gaze somewhat strange.

"My... My name is Bei Bei." Xia Jinqi rolled her eyes and had another devious idea ...

In any case, she had just gotten away with it, so she could just randomly pick a name.

"Bei Bei? My Baby's Bei?" The man's tone was a little ambiguous. He walked over and stared at Xia Jinqi with lecherous eyes. "raise your head and let me take a look."

Xia Jinqi, "..."

No Way She came in to probe for information, and she met a pervert?

The man saw that she had her head lowered the entire time, so he thought that she was embarrassed and at a loss. His tone became even more frivolous. "Don't be afraid. I'm the person responsible for the safety of this place. You can just call me brother Wei from now on. I'll take care of you!"

"okay..." the corners of Xia Jinqi's eyes twitched a little... .. Brother Wei ? Are you sure that's his name ?

“You...” brother Wei was about to say something when a group of people just happened to walk down from upstairs.

It was the few men who had just gotten out of the ambulance.

Xia Jinqi hurriedly retreated to the side and lowered her head. She silently sized up the box in their hands, not knowing what was inside.

At this moment, brother Wei did not have time to flirt with a new maid. He immediately nodded and bowed as he sent the few men off. “Doctor Zhao, sorry to trouble you. Is My wife okay?”

The moment she heard the words ‘my wife’, Xia Jinqi’s breathing seemed to have stopped.

Yan Jun said that this was Lu Yiming’s house.

Then, could the wife in this house be Lu Yiming’s wife?

Xia Jinqi suddenly remembered the ring that Lu Yiming always wore on his left ring finger.

He often touched that ring. So he was missing his wife?

But in the past, no one had ever mentioned that he really had a wife?

“Her condition is very stable. Everything is fine.” The leading doctor stopped in his tracks and gave an explanation. “take her temperature every morning and evening for these two days. Double the injection and give her an extra hour of massage.”

“Yes, yes, yes. I’ll make the arrangements right away.” Brother Wei was very respectful towards this doctor Zhao. It seemed that this doctor Zhao had an extraordinary status.

Only then did doctor Zhao nod his head and did not stay any longer. He led the other doctors and left quickly.

After he left, brother Wei straightened his body and spat fiercely. “He’s just a Bullsh * T doctor. He’s acting like he doesn’t care about anything all day long!”

Xia Jinqi, “...”

So, this was what it meant to be a person in front and a person behind?

As expected, no matter what kind of social class or environment, a creature like a villain was indispensable!

However, at the moment, Xia Jinqi still had to inquire about the so-called Madam from the villain’s mouth.

“Brother Wei, is Madam’s health very bad?” Xia Jinqi cleared her throat and asked.

When brother Wei heard Xia Jinqi’s clear and melodious voice, he immediately smiled back. “It’s not just bad! It’s been so long, but I haven’t seen her wake up!”

“She hasn’t woken up?” Xia Jinqi frowned, becoming more and more confused.

Could she be a vegetable?

When she asked this question, brother Wei began to have some doubts. "That's not right. Since you're here to support Xiao Lan, old Jin couldn't have not told you about this, right?"

Chapter 1264: was for people who were on the same side

This place was different from other places to begin with. Most of the people who came in had to undergo inspection.

Xiao Lan, who came in last time, had been filtered through layers and layers. However, she had no choice but to resign after being harassed by brother Wei.

Otherwise, who would be willing to give up such a high-paying job?

However, since Old Jin had recruited New People, he should have explained everything in this villa clearly.

How could he not know this?

Xia Jinqi was afraid that he would see through her, so she smiled sheepishly and began to find an excuse. "Old Jin has been too busy recently. He said that he wanted me to familiarize myself while working. He only mentioned a little about Madam's matters."

"Has Old Jin been very busy recently?" Brother Wei frowned and still looked at Xia Jinqi suspiciously. He sized her up and down and felt that something wasn't right. "When did you come in?"

"I..." Xia Jinqi was thinking about how to phrase it when a male voice suddenly came from outside the door, interrupting her current awkwardness.

"I introduced her in. Why? Do you still want to personally investigate?" ... The familiar voice caused Xia Jinqi to unconsciously glance sideways ...

The man who came in from outside the door was tall and big. He wore a black jacket and had a buzz cut. His skin was tanned, but his eyes were bright and spirited, making people not dare to easily meet his gaze.

This man... ... Xia Jinqi recognized him at a glance. Wasn't this the captain of the Criminal Investigation Unit, Yu Yang??

She had seen him the last time they dug up the bones in the valley.

This man was from the right, and his abilities were not bad. He became the captain of the Criminal Investigation Unit when he was in his thirties.

He... ... Why was he here??

And judging from brother Wei's appearance, he did not seem to be a stranger to him.

Brother Wei also turned his head to look at Yu Yang, his gaze full of disdain.

"You introduced him here? Have you checked his identity? Who Dares to bring him here? Are you going to take responsibility if something happens?"

Her tone was also very unpleasant when she spoke. It seemed that the two of them were not on the same page.

Yu Yang had already walked over. He glanced at Xia Jinqi and shielded her behind him. He looked straight at brother Wei and said, “naturally, I introduced her here because I trust her. I think you should know the reason why Xiaolan left better than me, right?”

“Don’t be so SMUG, kid! You’re the boss here!” With a SNORT, brother Wei did not dare to say anything more. He turned around and left.

Speaking of Xiao Lan’s matter, brother Wei knew that he had a guilty conscience. He didn’t dare to confront Yu Yang any further, so he could only run away.

Xia Jinqi looked at brother Wei who had gone far away. After a long while, she turned back to look at Yu Yang. “You... why are you helping me?”

“We’re all on the same side,” Yu Yang said in a low voice.

It was obvious that he had recognized Xia Jinqi long ago.

Her face was a rare beauty that could topple countries and cities. It was unforgettable at a glance.

However, when Yu Yang first saw her, he thought that she looked like a man and only thought that she was a handsome young man.

Now that he looked at her, she was actually a woman?

When he recalled how even Huo Ting was polite to her, Yu Yang knew that she had a high status without even guessing.

Now that they met here, although it was unexpected, he still had to help her.

When Xia Jinqi heard Yu Yang’s words, the corners of her lips subconsciously curled up into a smile. After checking that there was no one around, she asked him in a low voice, “is there a madam in this villa? which room is she in?”

“follow me.” Yu Yang didn’t say much. He directly took a step forward and took the lead to go upstairs.

Xia Jinqi followed.

Chapter 1265: The mysterious woman

Xia Jinqi observed her surroundings and the route she had taken. At the same time, she tried to figure out the reason why Yu Yang had appeared here.

He had been assigned to handle the Mountain Valley’s corpse case. Since he was able to investigate this far, he must have already found some clues related to Lu Yiming.

This person was really capable.

In such a short time, he had already found the right direction.

Moreover, it was under the condition that no news was released to the public.

After all, even Xia Jinqi only thought that there was no news from the Criminal Investigation Unit. She even thought that they had entered a bottleneck.

However, she did not expect that Yu Yang, who was the captain, had already infiltrated the enemy's inner circle without making a sound. He even managed to get a position in this villa.

With him here, Xia Jinqi's movements would be much smoother.

However, Xia Jinqi did not see anyone on her way up the stairs.

Just as she was puzzled, she heard Yu Yang say, "Xiao Lan is usually the only one here to look after the place. She left yesterday."

Xia Jinqi knew about this, but when she heard it again, she still felt that this coincidence was too unbelievable.

Could it be that the heavens knew that she would pretend to be a maid and come in today?

"Didn't you say that there are patients inside? Is it enough for one person to take care of them?" Xia Jinqi looked at the empty corridor in front of her and asked with a frown.

According to Lu Yiming's generosity, if the Madam in the villa was really his wife, he would definitely arrange for many people to take care of her. Why did she look a little too ordinary now?

At that moment, Yu Yang had already stopped in his tracks. He turned his body to look into a glass window and signaled Xia Jinqi. "This is the reason why we only need one person."

When Xia Jinqi heard this, she hurriedly turned her head and looked in the direction that Yu Yang was looking.

She saw that beside a thick and heavy electronic lock door, there was a huge transparent glass.

Inside the glass, there was an enclosed space.

There was a special bed in the middle of a room that was about 20 square meters.

There was a woman lying on the bed.

Xia Jinqi tried her best to see her face clearly, but she found that there seemed to be a kind of fog rising in the room. It lingered around the woman's body, making everything foggy. She could not see clearly at all.

She could only vaguely make out that it was a woman with long hair and a pale face.

She was holding a lot of tubes in her hands and pulling them to an instrument at the side.

While Xia Jinqi was in a daze, Yu Yang had already reached out and touched the glass window.

The moment he touched it, the originally transparent glass window was like a screen that was awakened. Immediately, a lot of data appeared.

It was all about the mysterious woman in the room.

Her body temperature, heart rate, blood pressure, and even her brain waves were detected.

All of this indicated that the woman in the room was still alive.

Not only that, her various indicators were normal, but she had been in a coma.

Xia Jinqi suddenly remembered what brother Wei had said just now, 'I've never seen her wake up.'

"What's wrong with her?" Xia Jinqi asked with narrowed eyes.

"She was like this when I came here. No one can enter her room. The password is only known by the doctor who just came and the owner of this house." Yu Yang only knew so much.

He had been here for a while, but other than seeing the doctor often, he had never seen the owner of this house appear.

Xia Jinqi frowned when she heard this. She finally came back to her senses and turned to look at Yu Yang beside her. "Why are you here?"

Chapter 1266: Lu Yiming's wife

They had been up here for a long time, but they didn't hear any noise from upstairs.

It seemed that no one had come here.

Since that was the case, they might as well solve their doubts here.

"Why are you here?" Yu Yang looked back at her, his chestnut-colored eyes dark.

He worked in the Criminal Investigation Unit all year round, and all he did was investigate and investigate cases. Moreover, the cases that came to him were all extraordinary.

Such a Labor that consumed his energy and attention made him know little about the outside world, so he didn't pay attention to the news, so he didn't know Xia Jinqi's real identity.

He only knew that she was close to Huo Ting and knew about the skeleton case in the valley, so he told her all this. n.(OvelbIn

"I... Of course, I know something." Xia Jinqi's pink lips curved slightly, and a shrewd look appeared on her face. "Captain Yu must also know something, right?"

Yu Yang sized her up for a moment, but he didn't finish his sentence. He said, "this house is under Cui Ziyang's name."

"But in fact, the owner is Lu Yiming," Xia Jinqi continued his words.

He didn't want to say more, but she didn't hide anything.

He was the main person in charge of the white bone case, so it was fine to reveal more information to him.

However, after Yu Yang heard this, his eyes paused, but he didn't say anything more.

Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows. "You already knew?"

“Yes.” Yu Yang nodded and asked Xia Jinqi, “what else do you know?”

“Nothing.” Xia Jinqi shook her head and turned to look at the glass window. Her puzzled gaze fell on the woman who was still lying quietly. “Who is she?”

“everyone in the villa calls her madam. If the master is really Lu Yiming, then who do you think she is?” Yu Yang pushed all the clues in front of Xia Jinqi. However, he didn’t say it directly. Instead, he let Xia Jinqi come to this conclusion.

Xia Jinqi frowned but didn’t say anything.

The woman inside was really Lu Yiming’s wife?

She tried hard to squint her eyes to see if the woman lying on the ground was wearing a ring, but she found nothing.

The fog was too thick and blocked her vision.

“I checked Lu Yiming’s information. It shows that he is unmarried.” Xia Jinqi shook her head and didn’t make a conclusion easily.

Little did she know that Yu Yang said as soon as she said this, “anything that can be called information can be faked.”

He had been working in the police station and had sent many spies and informants out. Before these people went out, their identities and information would all be tampered with.

Moreover, the process was not difficult.

Especially with Lu Yiming’s current status, it was easy for him to change his information.

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi could not help but frown and look at him.

By saying this, did it mean that he also felt that the woman lying inside was Lu Yiming’s wife?

In deep thought, Yu Yang said again, “there’s another room here.”

As he said this, he walked forward.

Xia Jinqi finally came back to her senses and followed his footsteps in puzzlement.

The room next to the mysterious woman was also locked by a passcode door. The only difference was that there was no transparent glass window outside this room.

“Madam’s room needs a palm print and a passcode to be unlocked at the same time. “This room only needs a passcode to be unlocked. I’ve asked the housekeeper, Lao Jin, but he doesn’t know what’s in this room either.” Yu Yang looked at the door in front of him. His gaze was very heavy, as if he couldn’t wait to penetrate this specially-made steel explosion-proof door to see what was inside.

Chapter 1267: Was really the will of Heaven, or was it secretly arranged by someone?

Xia Jinqi also looked at the number keyboard on the door, thinking to herself, I don't know what the password is!

Lu Yiming's brain was so clear-headed that even the people close to him might not know his password, let alone her.

So... Xia Jinqi began to guess what was in this room ...

"What valuable thing does it need to be locked with a password? And it's placed next to her wife's room? If..."

Before Xia Jinqi could finish her sentence, a conversation came from downstairs.

"Sir, Doctor Zhao just came over. After the check-up, he said that Madam is fine. It's just that he'll need to add an hour of massage every day in the future. Xiao Lan just left yesterday, and I haven't found a suitable candidate yet..." this voice sounded quite unfamiliar to Xia Jinqi. However, Yu Yang's expression instantly darkened. He grabbed Xia Jinqi and said, "let's go!"

Xia Jinqi instinctively wanted to struggle, but in the next second, she heard an even more terrifying voice. "The new person must be reliable. It doesn't matter how much it costs."

This... .. Was Lu Yiming's voice !!

Why was he here?

Didn't they say that Yu Yang had been here for a long time, but he hadn't shown up yet? !!

Xia Jinqi only felt a buzz in her head as she thought of Xiao Lan who had just left yesterday... ..

Why did all sorts of coincidences happen to her?

Was it... .. Was it really God's will, or was there someone secretly arranging it ? !

Before she could think of anything else, Xia Jinqi had already been dragged into the darkness by Yu Yang.

The two of them held their breath and didn't dare to make a sound.

And the ones who came up the stairs were Lu Yiming and the housekeeper, Lao Jin.

Lao Jin had been by Lu Yiming's side for many years, and he was deeply trusted by Lu Yiming. That was why Lu Yiming was so relieved to give him this villa.

"Don't worry, sir. I will do my best to find a clever girl and serve madam well." Lao Jin's tone was very pious. It could be heard that he especially respected Lu Yiming, and it was the kind that came from the bottom of his heart.

Lu Yiming didn't say anything. He just nodded, and his expression looked a little lonely.

When the two of them walked to the door of the mysterious woman's room, Lu Yiming first used his palm print to unlock it. Only then did the virtual numeric keyboard pop up on the screen, indicating that they needed to enter a six-digit password.

Xia Jinqi, who was hiding in the distance, watched everything carefully. She wanted to take the opportunity to see what kind of secret Lu Yiming would set up.

However, Lu Yiming didn't stop for a long time. Instead, he looked back at Lao Jin. Lao Jin understood and immediately nodded, turned around, and left.

After Lao Jin left, Lu Yiming entered a string of numbers on the virtual numeric keyboard.

Then, with a beep, the thick password door opened.

Lu Yiming walked in and closed the door again.

The moment the door closed from the inside, the originally transparent glass window seemed to have condensed a layer of mist, isolating everything in the room.

This was a specially made glass. After being electrified, it would form a kind of physical vision block.

This Lu Yiming was really thoughtful... ..

Was He afraid of people peeking?

Xia Jinqi retracted her gaze and silently memorized the password that Lu Yiming had just pressed.

[090915]

From the surface, this string of numbers should be a date.

Perhaps something had happened on this day that left a deep impression on him, such as a wedding.

Or perhaps, it was his wife's birthday.

In short, it was worth it to come tonight.

Not only did she know that Lu Yiming might have a wife, but she also knew his usual password.

If this password was really a date, she might be able to follow the clues and find more clues about him!

Chapter 1268: the Casino has a confidentiality agreement. It does not have the right to disclose the client's information

Xia Jinqi looked around and began to think of a way to escape.

Fortunately, Lu Yiming did not notice her and directly went into the mysterious woman's room.

However, when he came out later, it was hard to guarantee that she would not be exposed.

"Is there another exit here?" Xia Jinqi turned her head and asked Yu Yang.

Yu Yang frowned. Just like what Xia Jinqi did just now, he secretly memorized Lu Yiming's password.

After hearing Xia Jinqi's question, he came back to his senses and said, "No."

His answer was very absolute, directly denying the fantasy that Xia Jinqi had yet to make.

He originally thought that Lu Yiming was a thorough person and might have left him a way out. n.(o--v.-e/.L--B-(l)n

Seeing that Xia Jinqi did not speak for a long time, Yu Yang said, "The one who was with Lu Yiming just now is Lao Jin. He is the housekeeper here, so he must be downstairs now. If you go down now, you will be walking into a trap. There is no other way out here, so you can only wait here for Lu Yiming to leave."

Hearing his words, Xia Jinqi raised her thin eyebrows. "You are the captain of the Criminal Investigation Unit. Aren't you afraid that Lu Yiming will recognize you if you sneak in here?"

"He has never seen me. ". "Besides, this place is not as complicated as you think. ". "usually, the people in charge of taking care of are ordinary people. There are no surveillance cameras everywhere in the villa. Other than the two rooms on this floor that are absolutely not accessible, it is no different from working in an ordinary rich family," Yu Yang said calmly It was clear that he had been here for a long time and had thoroughly understood this place.

But even so, the longer he stayed here, the more it meant that he had found nothing here.

If he had found anything, he would have left long ago.

He wouldn't have met Xia Jinqi here by chance.

And he wouldn't have helped her at such a critical time.

Xia Jinqi thought for a moment and asked again, "what else did you find out about Lu Yiming?"

Xia Jinqi was more and more impressed with this person since he was able to find this out quietly.

"There's nothing to investigate about his historical information. His account is also extremely clean. There's no corruption or bribery. "

"Of course. He's someone who wants to be president. How can he convince the public if he doesn't make these documents cleaner?" Xia Jinqi smiled wryly. She had learned to be smarter now.

To investigate a person, one couldn't just look at the information on the surface.

Information was the most unreliable and also the best at lying.

"That's the problem, " Yu Yang added. His expression immediately darkened. "On the surface, he doesn't have money in his account. How can he do these things?"

To win over the hearts of the people, to control public opinion, and even the villa here, which one of them doesn't cost money Even if he really doesn't need to spend money, would he not accept the money sent by the people who flatter him?

Since he accepted it, he had to put it somewhere else. Either he has an account overseas that I can't find out about, or... .. He put the money in Macau ...

He often went to the casinos in Macau some time ago. The casinos can set up a separate account for the customers to store the gambling capital. "However, the casinos in Macau have a confidentiality agreement. They have no right to disclose the customer's information. "

Yu Yang's words were very long.

Perhaps even he himself did not notice that he had actually mentioned the recent progress and difficulties.

He also completely did not notice that when he finished speaking, the smile on Xia Jinqi's lips suddenly stopped.

Chapter 1269: I've caught more criminals than YOU'VE EATEN SALT!

The casinos in Macau could indeed save money for their clients, and they did not have the right to disclose their clients' information.

But... .. She was the behind-the-scenes boss of the Casino. If she wanted to investigate a person's account, she could do it with just one sentence ...

It was just that no one had ever investigated Lu Yiming's past whereabouts. They were all investigating his past promotion history and personal information.

They had not thought of investigating LU YIMING'S MONEY!

Yu Yang had worked as a criminal investigator for more than ten years. His habitual thinking was different from theirs, and the focus of the investigation was also different!

This could be considered a direction..

However, when Xia Jinqi looked up at Yu Yang again, her gaze suddenly turned cold!

She quickly pulled out the fruit knife she used for self-defense and pressed it against Yu Yang's lower back with lightning speed!

By the time Yu Yang sensed the murderous aura rolling over from behind him, it was already too late!

His entire body froze, like a petrified statue, not moving at all.

Xia Jinqi approached him and lowered her voice. "Why are you telling me all this? !"

Logically speaking, Yu Yang wasn't familiar with her. Just based on their first meeting, he could tell her all these clues?

Other things were fine, but he just had to mention Lego in front of her.

This made Xia Jinqi suspicious!

Did he know something?

Yu Yang was talking too much, so he forgot that this was only the second time Xia Jinqi had met him.

Now that she reminded him, he realized that there was something wrong with his words.

He didn't expect the woman behind him to be so alert. She was even more sensitive than him as a police officer.

Yu Yang smiled helplessly and shook his head. "It's my fault, it's my fault. I shouldn't have told you about these things."

Xia Jinqi didn't know what he was thinking, but when she heard his laughter, she fell into a deeper layer of doubt.

At this critical moment, Yu Yangmeng, who was originally under her control, stopped smiling. Her eyes were like a wild wolf, shining brightly!

He turned around at an extremely fast speed. With one hand, he grabbed her hand that was holding the fruit knife and pressed it against her wrist. No one knew how he used his strength, but a sharp pain came from her wrist, forcing Xia Jinqi to instantly lose her strength!

THE FRUIT KNIFE FELL!

At the same time, his other hand had already reached out and grabbed Xia Jinqi's throat, pressing her whole body against the wall!

Everything happened in an instant!

The advantageous position that Xia Jinqi originally occupied was turned around in the blink of an eye!

Yu Yang moved closer to look at Xia Jinqi and squeezed out a few words from between his teeth. "Did you take my job as a police officer for nothing for more than ten years? I've caught more criminals than you'VE EATEN SALT!"

After saying those harsh words, Yu Yang let go of Xia Jinqi again.

It was obvious that he had no intention of doing anything to her. It was only because she had used a fruit knife to lower his lower back just now, which offended the dignity of an old policeman.

He had turned his hand around to show off his skills in front of her so that he wouldn't be looked down upon by a little girl.

After letting go of her, Yu Yang picked up the fruit knife that had fallen to the ground again and carefully put it away. "You carry a murder weapon with you. If Lao Jin finds out, you won't even be able to walk out of this door!"

Xia Jinqi rubbed her sore right wrist. There was no anger in her eyes. Instead, there was a faint smile.

This captain of the criminal investigation team was really something.

Judging from his reaction, he probably didn't say those words to her on purpose.

Chapter 1270: Bi Yue

It was all Lu Yiming's fault for teaching her too many lessons. It was always better to be careful.

A man's heart is like his stomach. How could he trust her so easily without testing her?

"showing off in front of Captain Yu, I'm really too reckless." Xia Jinqi smiled and did not mind at all.

Yu Yang did not express his position. He only sized her up before asking, “what’s your relationship with chief huo?”

“We grew up together,” Xia Jinqi answered. Seeing Yu Yang like this, it seemed like he really did not know her identity.

In this way, there was no ulterior motive.

In that case, Xia Jinqi finally completely let down her guard. “You said just now that Lu Yiming has a private account in Macau’s casino? I do have a friend in the casino who might be able to help you.”

“THAT’S GREAT!” Yu Yang hurriedly nodded. He was currently in a difficult situation. It would naturally be best if there was someone who could help!

Xia Jinqi couldn’t help but frown when she heard him suddenly raise his voice. She placed her index finger on her lips and made a shushing gesture to remind him.

They were squatting in a corner now. It was one thing for them to make such a big commotion just now, but Yu Yang was still talking so loudly!

Yu Yang only realized that he had lost his composure after being reminded by her. He hurriedly stuck his head out and looked at the corridor.

He saw that the originally empty corridor was now silent. There was not a single sound.

The glass window of the room where the mysterious woman was in was still a blur, which meant that Lu Yiming was still inside and had not come out.

Xia Jinqi also stuck her head out and looked over. She could not help but be curious. What exactly were Lu Yiming and the mysterious woman doing through that piece of specially made glass?

In fact, the moment the password door closed, the room inside belonged to a completely enclosed space, completely isolating the air and sound from the outside world.

The room had an independent air circulation device, an oxygen generator, a humidifier, and a thermostat controller. All of these created a self-circulating ecosystem that simulated the outside world.

From the Moment Lu Yiming took the first step into the room, he had removed all the hostility and darkness from his body.

He seemed to be affected. His usually straight back was now slightly bent, as if something was pressing on his shoulder.

He first took a look at the instruments surrounding the mysterious woman. After seeing that everything was normal, he sighed and turned to get a basin and water.

He wet the clean handkerchief, wrung it dry, and wiped the hands of the woman lying on the bed.

Even though she lay there all day and did nothing, whether it was her hands or her clothes, they were clean, he still repeated this simple and monotonous action.

After wiping one, he changed to another.

This time, he was even more careful.

Because on the woman's left ring finger, there was a shining sapphire ring.

It was a perfect match with the one on his hand.

After looking at the ring for a moment, he raised his eyes, and his deep gaze finally landed on the woman's face.

Her small face was pale and almost transparent.

It was not considered a peerless beauty, but it was delicate and pretty, and could not be compared to other things.

"Bi Yue came all the way out of Mount Mu, su'e asked about her troubles.

The world's most sorrowful and round, only Fang Zhulei would not do it."

Lu Yiming suddenly recited two lines of poetry. After he finished reciting, he couldn't help but smile bitterly. "Bi Yue, back then, I said that your name wasn't a good one, but you didn't change it. It made us husband and wife, even if we die, it's not enough. We're more than enough to live apart."
