

Trick Me 1281

Chapter 1281: I know what I'm doing

Even though Yan Jun had used so much manpower and money, he still couldn't find anything about Lu Yiming.

It had to be said that Lu Yiming only used a short 15 years to become a member of parliament and become a presidential candidate whose approval rating was second only to Xia Jitian. His methods and wisdom were indeed extraordinary.

After Yan Jun heard her words, his deep eyes suddenly flickered.

Then, he looked at Xia Jinqi and asked, "his wife?"

"I didn't believe it at first either, but after thinking about it, this is the only possibility." Xia Jinqi didn't understand Lu Yiming, but all the signs indicated that the mysterious woman must have a deep relationship with Lu Yiming.

In addition to that unborn child, Xia Jinqi was even more convinced.

There was also the ring that Lu Yiming often wore on his left ring finger. He must have known the meaning of that position.

Since it was Xia Jinqi who said it, Yan Jun naturally believed it.

He sneered, and his dark eyes were extremely cold. "You hid your wife and child well, yet you came to have designs on my wife and Child?"

Lu Yiming's move was truly ruthless.

Xia Jinqi was shocked by the coldness in his words. Her starry eyes widened as she asked him, "what do you plan to do?"

"I will return the favor," Yan Jun replied. His extremely slow tone was filled with killing intent.

"..."Xia Jinqi's long eyelashes trembled, and she suddenly didn't know what to say.

Lu Yiming was a despicable person to begin with. Everything he did was despicable, and even if he was cut into pieces, he wouldn't be able to escape the blame!

If Yan Jun hadn't sent her and the children away in advance, no one would know what would have happened!

Now that he knew Lu Yiming's weakness, it was understandable that Yan Jun would use this to deal with him.

But... ..

Xia Jinqi thought of the woman lying behind the glass window and couldn't bear it.

She stretched out her hand, and her warm palm covered the back of his hand. "Jun, we won't learn from him."

Her voice was full of worry as she called back Yan Jun's mind.

He chuckled and held her small hand in his palm. "Don't worry, I know what I'm doing."

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi smiled.

She lowered her head and leaned against his shoulder. She closed her eyes comfortably and took a nap.

For a moment, the car quieted down again.

Yan Jun did not close his eyes to rest. Instead, he helped Xia Jinqi pull on her overcoat. He turned his eyes to look at the dark night outside the window.

The neon lights outside the window reflected in his deep black eyes.

He naturally did not copy Lu Yiming.

However... ..

It was a little painful. Since Lu Yiming dared to bet on him, he naturally had to pay back double the amount.

When they returned to the Yan family, Xia Jinqi was already asleep.

Yan Jun did not wake her up. Instead, he carefully carried her upstairs and took care of her. After lying down, he went to the study room to deal with the official matters that had been left behind during the day.

That night, the study room was brightly lit again until daybreak.

In the Huo family's courtyard.

"PA!" Like a sharp knife, it tore a hole in the daybreak. nove.lb(In

The servants outside who were about to send the things in felt their scalps tighten. They lightened their footsteps and turned around to return the way they came.

The old master was losing his temper again. No one dared to go in at this time.

Inside the House, old master huohad already thrown teacups all over the floor. He supported himself on the table with one hand and stood up with his cane. He pointed at Huo Ting, who was kneeling in front of him, and his face was Ashen. "Say that again?!"

Chapter 1282: The person you like

Huo Ting knelt down straight, neither servile nor overbearing. "I don't want to get married."

“You!” Grandfather Huo was so angry that he stomped his feet and threw a pile of photos on the table in front of Huo Ting “How is the SU family’s daughter not worthy of you? ! She is the third generation of the military! Her looks are also top-notch. Where are you going to find such a good girl? !”

The photos were scattered all over the floor. They were all photos of the Su family’s daughter, Su Xiangxiang, that grandfather huο had sent people to look up.

She was a very clean and delicate girl. She was not old, especially her big eyes. They were very clear and without any shrewdness.

More importantly, it was her background.

Su Xiangxiang’s grandfather was once one of the most capable arms of long Qingxin’s father. After the reform, general long retired and recommended Su Xiangxiang’s father, Su Jiangong, to the military region.

Su Jiangong held an important position in the military region. Later, he married the daughter of the Minister of political affairs, Lin Wanqiong. He was like a fish in water and became a military family second only to the huο family.

Later on, Lin Wanqiong gave birth to two sons and a daughter for him.

Now, his two sons, Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian, both held important positions in the military region. As his beloved daughter, Su Xiangxiang had been secretly protected since she was young, and not many people knew about it.

It was evident Su Xiangxiang’s position in the SU family.

If Huo Ting married Su Xiangxiang, not only could he get the support of the Su family, but his relationship with the long family could also be improved.

Once Yan Jun became the president in the future, it would also be a great blessing for the Huο family.

Huo Ting looked down at the scattered photos on the ground. He frowned slightly and bent down to pick up the photos one by one.

“No matter how good she is, she’s not the person I like. What’s the use?” He sighed and put the photos neatly back on the table.

“...”Grandfather Huο felt a chill run down his spine when he heard his sad words.

He knew what this kid was thinking, but what was done was done. If he continued to be obsessed with her, the one who would suffer would be himself.

“As you can see, little Qi is doing very well now. What can you do if you keep thinking about her? Can you still snatch her back from Yan Jun? !” Grandfather Huο hardened his heart and scolded him in frustration.

Huo Ting had no parents since he was young and was brought up by grandfather huο. If he did not wake him up at this time, who would be able to control him in the future?

The Huο family could not just end like this, right?

Huo Ting could not be alone forever. n(-σ--∇/-e./L-/B-(l/(n

Sometimes, the guidance of the elders was very useful.

Huo Ting did not say a word, but his face was unusually Pale.

He was not that selfish. For his own selfish desires, he forcefully separated a pair of lovers.

He knew that the girl only had feelings for him as a brother and sister. Even if he used lightning-fast methods to snatch the girl back to his side, the girl would not be happy, and he would not be happy either.

Instead of taking the risk to destroy this precious relationship between a brother and a sister in pursuit of that elusive and even hopeless love, it was better to guard this friendship and be her brother.

This way, they might still be able to live in peace for the rest of their lives.

So, he would not go and snatch it.

Grandfather Huo waited for a long time, but huo ting did not speak. He was furious again. "You don't dare to snatch it, you don't dare to forget it. Say It yourself, what do you want to do? Ting 'er! You're not young anymore, you're already the head of a district!

You're no longer a teenager who can be willful and die for love. Do you understand "Lu Yiming is so aggressive now. How long can the Huo family last?

"although you're only suspended now, what about tomorrow "What about the day after tomorrow?"

Chapter 1283: giving birth

Hearing this, Huo Ting was finally moved.

Of course, he knew what the current situation was like.

But... ..

"Don't tell me that by marrying Su Xiangxiang, my huo family will be able to keep it?" He said coldly. He didn't think that he would have such a day.

Using his own marriage to maintain his family.

When did he fall to such a state?

"Don't talk to me in such a sarcastic tone Not to mention you, even Xia Jitian wants to have a marriage alliance with the YAN family, right Humans are born to live in groups and the situation is turbulent. If you don't band together, you will be the first one to be abandoned!" Grandfather Huo shouted His heart beat faster in the excitement. His vision went black and he almost fainted.

He quickly sat down with his hand on the table and took a deep breath. Only then did grandfather huo change his attitude and advised huo ting earnestly "The SU family chose Xia Jitian back then. They are in the same situation as us now. Lu Yiming killed us. The Su family is the next to be killed. The Su family is not as powerful as us. Lu Yiming will kill him faster than us That's why they are willing to marry the Huo family. Do you understand Su Jiangong is also a sensible person. He knows how to stabilize his foundation before the big waves come... " ... "

Huo Ting's face turned extremely ugly.

Everything his grandfather said was reasonable. He could not refute a single word.

In terms of status, the Xia family was above the huo family.

But even so, Xia Jitian still needed to marry his daughter to stabilize his power.

Marriage was something that could be seen everywhere, especially in large families.

With Huo Ting and Xia Jinqi's identities, they were destined to not be able to escape such a fate.

However, Xia Jinqi was lucky. As soon as she married, she met the right person.

However, Huo Ting... ..

Once this marriage was successful, it would be a lifetime of imprisonment and imprisonment.

To Huo Ting, he had a person in his heart that he could not get. Marriage might not be so painful for him, but to Su Xiangxiang, who he had never met before, it was extremely unfair.

Huo Ting was a kind person. He was not willing to harm an innocent girl for himself.

"Grandfather, we are on good terms with the SU family. We can call Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian brothers. Why must we have a marriage alliance? and Su Xiangxiang... "

"Do you think it's as simple as being on good terms with them?" Grandfather Huo interrupted him, leaving huo ting speechless "How long can you be brothers with the two sons of the Su Family When you die, who will manage the SU and huo families Only marriage. Only if you and the Su family's daughter give birth to a child, the blood of our two great families will flow in this child He is the hope of the future!"

"..."Huo Ting was speechless.

Perhaps, he understood all these principles. He just... .. wanted to find an excuse to avoid it ...

Seeing that he was silent, Grandfather Huo's tone softened a little "Grandfather doesn't have to force you. After all, it's not sweet to force things. You are the only seedling in the huo family, and the Huo family will be handed over to you in the future. Whether you live or die, it will be up to you to decide! "

Old Master Huo's words were very tactful.

He leaned back in his chair and rested his hands on his walking stick. He did not speak anymore and just sat there quietly.

After a long time, Huo Ting finally compromised.

He sighed and lowered his straight shoulders. "Does the SU family agree to this marriage? "

Chapter 1284: had a very good reputation

"I agree." Grandfather Huo suddenly became concise.

He had a sharp eye. He could tell at a glance that Huo Ting's broad shoulders represented the determination in his heart.

Since he had already moved on, there was naturally no need for him to make long speeches.

If he had known that Huo Ting was a good child, he would not have been so willful that he would watch his family's destruction.

Perhaps, he should be grateful for this disaster.

If it were not for the circumstances, his stubborn grandson would not have agreed to it so easily.

With that thought, Grandfather Huo took out a movie ticket from his pocket and handed it to Huo Ting. "The entire movie city is reserved for tonight's movie. You and the Su family's daughter can go and watch it."

Huo Ting looked up at the movie ticket with the VIP logo on it. Then, he looked at the promotional name for the movie, "happy family." His body immediately stiffened.

This kind of movie... .. Perhaps only the elders could pick it out for them ...

The meaning was not too obvious.

If the indecent Fang Shaoan was present at this time, he would definitely pat Huo Ting on the shoulder to comfort him "Alright, brothers. The elders have also moved with the Times. They know that you young people like to watch movies when you're in a relationship. This is much more artistic than asking you to sit in a coffee shop, right "although in my opinion, they might want to give you two bags of hotel rooms so that you can give birth to a baby at any time!"

Huo Ting closed his eyes and did not say anything in the end.

He obediently extended his finger and took the movie ticket. "okay, I'll go."

Thinking back to the past, Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun had also created the illusion of a natural marriage under the arrangement of their parents.

In fact, everyone knew that the two of them were the victims of the family marriage.

It was just a bit of a formality, but they still had to leave. It would be better to say this out loud.

In the end, history was repeating itself in Huo Ting's case.

Now, it was time for him to go through the formality with the young lady of the Su family whom he had never met before.

He did not know what kind of state of mind the other party was in at the moment... ..

Three camouflage military jeeps stopped in an orderly manner.

However, the people sitting in the car were not Huo Ting, but the three siblings of the Su family.

The eldest brother, Su Zhihang, was driving while the second brother, Su Zhilian, was sitting in the passenger seat.

After the car stopped, the two brothers looked at each other. In their similar eyes, there was the same worry and heartache “little sister, I have already investigated Huo Ting’s character for you. He has been working with grandfather Huo in the military since he was young. He has a good reputation in the military and has never had any scandals with that woman. He is more or less a clean person. This time, he knows that it is a marriage alliance with our family, so he will not act recklessly. “He’s a little older than you, so don’t act like you’re at home. Don’t be rude. ”

As the eldest brother said this, his second brother disagreed.

“Our Xiangxiang is a treasure to begin with. So what if we act a little unreasonable in front of Huo Ting? Are we marrying our little sister or giving him a servant? Xiangxiang, listen to second brother. Whatever happens at home, happens in front of Huo Ting! ”

“second brother! When he gets married in the future, they’ll be a couple. They should support each other and respect each other. What if you teach Xiangxiang like this and spoil her? Also, what about our Su family’s reputation? Do you still want it? ” n(-σ.v.-E)-l)/b).1)n

Seeing that her two brothers were about to fight over their own matters, the girl sitting in the back seat hurriedly spoke up to stop the war of words that was currently going on in the Germinal Organization.

“Alright, alright. I will remember the words of eldest brother and second brother!” The girl spoke. Her voice was soft and tender with a hint of sweetness. It was extremely pleasing to the ear.

Chapter 1285: I am willing to marry

The two brothers stopped talking and stopped talking. They turned around and looked at their precious little sister with dotting eyes.

“Xiangxiang, did you dress up specially today? You’re all pink and tender. That Huo boy will definitely like you when he sees you!” Su Zhilian praised Su Xiangxiang without holding back. In his eyes, his little sister was the best.

In fact, Su Xiangxiang did dress up specially for tonight’s date.

It couldn’t be considered a woman’s appearance for her own pleasure, right It could be considered a simple form of respect.

“I hope so.” Su Xiangxiang smiled embarrassedly. After bidding farewell to her two brothers, she turned around and got out of the car.

Her father’s adjutant followed behind her and escorted her into the film studio.

As for Su Xiangxiang herself... ...

To be honest, she had seen Huo Ting's photo in person. There were even a few times when she went to the military district to look for her brothers, and she had even seen Huo Ting from afar.

Even though the two of them didn't know each other at that time, and they hadn't exchanged greetings, Su Xiangxiang only had an impression of him in her heart.

Moreover, Huo Ting's military aura couldn't attract her at all.

It was fine if it was a girl from an ordinary family, but she herself was from the third generation of the military.

Her grandfather was famous for his military achievements, and her father was a respected senior. Her two older brothers held an important position in the military district.

Although she herself didn't serve in the military seriously, she grew up listening to her grandfather and father's heroic deeds. n(-ø--V/-e./L-/B-(l/(n

To put it exaggeratedly, she spent more time in the military camp than she did in school... ..

She just didn't expect that the third generation of her family would marry a soldier.

Sigh, she used to fantasize about marrying a doctor, a teacher, and so on. In short, she didn't want to be a soldier anymore.

It wasn't that she thought soldiers were bad, but sometimes it was too dangerous to go on missions.

She was worried about a family of soldiers, and now there was one more... ..

Su Zhilian looked at his sister's disappearing figure, and the smile on his face finally disappeared, replaced by a bitter and vengeful look.

"brother, has our family reached this stage? We have to sell our sister in exchange for peace."

He still couldn't bear it in his heart. After all, he was his sister whom he had doted on since young. Now, for the benefit of the family, he had to let his sister marry him.

Su Zhihang was the eldest of the three children. Naturally, he was more mature and steady.

"As the children of the Su family, you should bear the responsibility of the children of the Su family. Let alone Xiangxiang, even we can't escape," Su Zhihang said lightly and looked at his younger brother with a meaningful look.

He restarted the car and prepared to drive away.

The car in front heard the sound of the engine at the back and naturally opened the road slowly.

Su Zhilian was silent for a moment and sighed again. "But Xiangxiang, she... she is our sister. She is still so young. What if she doesn't like Huo Ting? This is something that will happen for the rest of her life."

This time, Su Zhihang didn't answer again.

There was no answer to this question.

Since he had chosen to get married, the only way was to fall in love with each other as much as possible. Otherwise, what was left for him could only be a life of pain.

Su Zhihang recalled that when he was discussing this matter with his parents last night, Xiang Xiang had unknowingly walked over and heard it.

At that time, the expression on her face was very determined. She said word by word, "MOM, Dad, big brother, don't make things difficult for me. I'm willing to marry Huo Ting. "

Chapter 1286: falling in love with Huo Ting

He was going to marry either way. Who wouldn't marry him?

Moreover, this man and his family could ensure that their family would be prosperous and could protect their parents and brothers. Su Xiangxiang didn't complain.

She was even a little glad.

Fortunately, she hadn't fallen in love with anyone yet. She could still stay passionate and focus on falling in love with Huo Ting.

She didn't have so many rebellious feelings.

She loved her family and loved her family, so she was willing to get married.

However, when Su Xiangxiang mustered up her courage and wanted to get along with Huo Ting, huoting was late for their first date.

.. What happened to the soldier being punctual?

Su Xiangxiang chuckled. Forget it, she was already used to it.

Her father and brothers were often so busy that they couldn't even see each other. How could they expect them to be punctual?

They were only punctual to their country.

In the end, they were really bored waiting. Su Xiangxiang began to watch the movie by herself. When she was hungry, someone sent popcorn in. It was cream-flavored and had just the right amount of sweetness. It was just enough to relieve her boredom.

Twenty minutes later, Huo Ting finally arrived.

He was wearing casual clothes, but it could still be seen that he was tall.

However, when he came in, the movie was playing. There was no extra light in the room, so Su Xiangxiang did not see his face clearly.

Su Xiangxiang was facing the screen, but huoting was a little uncomfortable and did not look at her at all.

Just like that, the two of them did not look at each other, but they still sat together.

They even had a couple's seat. The two seats next to each other did not have handrails.

To be honest, the whole area of seats was empty. It was the first time the two strangers met, and they were sitting so close together. It really made people want to run away.

"I'm sorry, Miss Su. I was delayed by the traffic," Huo Ting was the first to speak, explaining why he was late.

After he went out, it started to rain heavily. It used to be a part of the road that was rarely blocked by traffic, but tonight, the traffic was terrible.

"It's okay." Su Xiangxiang smiled and shook her head, but she had a strange feeling in her heart.

She was born in Rao city, so she couldn't be more familiar with the surroundings. She had never encountered a traffic jam in this area.

After that, the two sat upright and looked at the big screen, falling into silence.

The movie just happened to show a newly married couple on their honeymoon in Bali. Huo Ting watched and unconsciously frowned.

If this marriage was really successful, he probably wouldn't have time to take her on a honeymoon.

With the current situation, it was hard to say what the future would be like.

But he still wanted to ask her what she thought. "You... know about us?"

"I know," Su Xiangxiang answered very obediently.

Ever since Huo Ting came in, she had been very quiet and didn't say much. She only answered when he asked a question.

It was not so annoying.

"You agreed?" Huo Ting asked again.

Actually, he wanted to ask this question the most when he came over for tonight's date.

He thought that Su Xiangxiang's answer was only two kinds.

One, I agreed.

Two, I did not agree, but there were countless reasons that made me have to agree.

However, Su Xiangxiang gave him a third completely different answer.

"I do." She had not said much, and her words were concise to the point that she did not say much.

However, the meaning of her words was clearly expressed.

Huo Ting was shocked by her answer.

I'm willing to agree with you. The difference and meaning between the two are not just thousands of miles apart.

Just as Huo Ting was deep in thought, Su Xiangxiang finally took the initiative to ask him, "what about you?"

Chapter 1287: sent her home

When she arrived, her brother had told her to behave in front of Huo Ting. Naturally, she would not act rashly.

Moreover, it was normal for her to be reserved in front of a strange man.

However, Su Xiangxiang could not help but ask another question.

Even if they were not in love, at least both parties had to be willing.

If they were not willing, or if he already had someone in his heart, then this marriage... ..

Su Xiangxiang could not help but hold her breath, hoping to hear a happy answer from Huo Ting.

"I..." Huo Ting did open his mouth, wanting to tell her about himself. After all, he was going to get married, and he did not want to hide anything from her.

Especially since he had someone else in his heart. He was afraid that he would not be able to give her love in this lifetime.

However, just as he said this, his mobile phone began to buzz.

Huo Ting's thoughts were interrupted. He took out his mobile phone and saw that it was a call from his adjutant.

He immediately said, "let me take a call first."

"Okay." Su Xiangxiang still smiled obediently and turned her head to look at the big screen seriously.

The newlyweds who were on their honeymoon in Bali had a big smile on their faces. They looked really happy.

On the other side, Huo Ting picked up the call. As he listened to the call, he covered his other ear with his hand to barely hear the adjutant's voice.

"chief, COME BACK QUICKLY! There's a situation!"

The adjutant was brought up by Huo Ting. Huo Ting knew his character the best. He was definitely not a rash person.

Judging from his anxious tone, something important must have happened.

Immediately, Huo Ting's face darkened. "I'll be right back."

After hanging up the phone, he turned to look at Su Xiangxiang. "I'm sorry, Miss Su. Something came up. I'm afraid I have to leave first."

He spoke very politely, but his expression was a little nervous.

Su Xiangxiang naturally wouldn't force him to stay. She immediately said, "then you can leave first. I'll leave after watching the movie."

If one of them left, they might not be noticed. If both of them left, they wouldn't be able to watch the movie either. If word got out, who knew what would happen to them.

Besides, she didn't have any other plans tonight, so she just treated it as if she was relaxing alone.

"I'm sorry," Huo Ting said, then got up and left.

He came and left in a hurry for tonight's date. He didn't even get a good look at the Su family's daughter.

Many years later, when Huo Ting recalled what happened today, he felt a little regretful. n-)D./v--e--l)(b--1/-n

He was indeed too abrupt.

Outside the movie city, it was pouring rain.

Before Huo Ting got into the car, he subconsciously turned around and looked behind him. He furrowed his brows slightly and ordered his personal guard, "leave a car. Send Miss Su home later."

"Yes, chief." The Guard's reply was originally sonorous and forceful, but it was suppressed by the sharp sound of the rain.

Huo Ting did not hear it clearly. He was afraid that he would also hear it clearly, so he patiently added, "send her home for me."

The guard paused. He did not know why the chief repeated the same words, so he answered even more seriously, "yes, Sir!"

"..."Huo Ting's eardrums hurt a little from the sound. He got into the car and soon disappeared in the misty rain.

Su Xiangxiang stayed behind to watch the movie.

Even though it was a boring, boring, and lousy movie... ... It could be considered a romance movie !!

Chapter 1288: was not angry

However, Su Xiangxiang still finished watching it.

When she came out, the rain had not stopped.

Su Xiangxiang did not bring an umbrella with her. When she stood at the entrance of the movie city, she secretly sighed.

Her brothers must have thought that Huo Ting would send her home, so they left early.

But who knew that Huo Ting would have something to do at the last minute She did not have an umbrella now, so she could only wait.

Not Far ahead, there was a military jeep parked.

Huo Ting's guard, Xiao Zhang, had not left yet. He had been waiting at the entrance of the movie city.

The entrance was too conspicuous, so he moved the car to the side.

After waiting for more than an hour, he had already begun to doze off. He nodded his head in a daze and woke up with a start. He looked towards the exit of the film studio and happened to see a pink figure.

He rubbed his eyes hard and took a closer look. Only then did he realize that there was indeed a young girl standing there.

A Pink Blouse, a high-waisted short skirt, and waist-length black hair swayed in the wind.

She stood alone, staring blankly at the waterfall-like rain.

Xiao Zhang did not dare to be careless. He immediately started the engine and drove to the girl. He got out of the car and walked over with an umbrella. He asked respectfully, "excuse me, is this Miss Su?"

Su Xiangxiang was thinking about how long the rain would last when she saw a military jeep driving towards her.

"Yes." She nodded slightly. She looked at the man in the military uniform in front of her and felt a sense of wariness in her heart.

When Xiao Zhang heard her affirmative answer, he quickly smiled and said, "chief huo asked me to send you home. Miss Su, please get in the car."

After that, he opened an umbrella for Su Xiangxiang.

"Chief Huo?" Su Xiangxiang was stunned, and the word 'Huo Ting' immediately flashed through her mind.

Didn't he take a phone call and leave in a hurry?

He even left someone to send her home?

"Yes. Miss Su, please." Xiao Zhang nodded and opened the car door for Su Xiangxiang.

Su Xiangxiang did not refuse. She thanked him in a low voice and got in the car.

Xiao Zhang closed the car door for her, then hurriedly went around the front of the car and got into the driver's seat.

The car slowly drove out, but the road was a little congested.

Su Xiangxiang looked at the long queue of cars in front of her and could not help but raise her eyebrows curiously. "Why is there traffic jam?"

"I heard that there was water in the front, and there was an accident. The Lane was half closed. When we came here before, it was even more congested than now, but now it's better," Xiao Zhang answered casually.

"..." Su Xiangxiang frowned slightly. She remembered that when Huo Ting came, he told her that he was late because of the traffic jam. She originally thought that it was just an excuse, but unexpectedly, it was true?

As she thought about it, Su Xiangxiang could not help but laugh at herself.

What was she thinking about?

However, this was the first time she met someone, and she actually suspected that he was lying?

No, no, no. She was too sensitive.

Xiao Zhang heard the laughter behind him and turned around in surprise. He thought that she was angry that Huo Ting was not only late, but also left early. He quickly explained, "the chief had something to do, so he left first. When he left, he told me repeatedly that I had to send you back on his behalf."

Su Xiangxiang heard his words, paused for a moment, and then laughed even more happily. "It's okay, I know. I'm not angry."

Xiao Zhang saw that she was smiling as if she was really happy and did not look unhappy, so he did not say anything more.

However, when he turned around, he was still puzzled. Normally, when a girl was stood up on a date, shouldn't she be very angry?

Why was this person... Not angry at all, but she was smiling so happily??

Chapter 1289: like it or not

Xiao Zhang did not know that Su Xiangxiang was really not an ordinary girl.

The Su family was loyal and fierce, and the men all worked in the military area.

When Su Xiangxiang was young, her father was often not at home, even if it was not easy to go home, the military area a phone call, her father had to go back immediately.

Whether he just came home to eat a bite, or just began to help Su Xiangxiang with her homework, or just fell asleep.

Later, the brothers also grew up, becoming exactly the same as her father, or more than that.

She had long been used to this kind of life. She also knew that this was the duty of men, to protect the family and the country, to risk their lives.

By the time Xiao Zhang sent Su Xiangxiang to the front door of the Su family, the rain had already stopped.

After thanking Xiao Zhang, Su Xiangxiang went into the house.

Her parents and two brothers were sitting in the living room. When they saw her return, everyone looked at her.

Su Xiangxiang was stunned at first, then she smiled. Were they all nervously waiting for her news at home?

“Dad, mom, brother, I’m back.” Su Xiangxiang raised her little face and walked over.

Her mother, Lin Wanqiong, quickly pulled her to the Center of the SOFA and sat down. She asked anxiously, “how is it?”

She had long guessed that they would be curious, but... .. This was too grand??

Su Xiangxiang smiled sheepishly as she looked at her parents, who were sitting on her left and right respectively, and then her two brothers... ..

“En... It’s pretty good,” she answered ...

Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian looked at each other, their expressions different.

Lin wanqiong asked again, “I’ve met Huo Ting a few times. He’s quite handsome and has been in the army all year round. He’s also a tough guy. He’s definitely not bad!”

Although she had met all the members of the Su family in Huo Ting, Su Jiangong was the only one who came into close contact with him.

“right...” Su Xiangxiang didn’t use many words to describe Huo Ting. She just listened to her mother’s nagging and the smile on her lips didn’t fade.

Speaking of which, she didn’t pay attention to Huo Ting at all tonight.

It was too dark in the cinema, and they didn’t say much at all.

Of course, she didn’t mention that Huo Ting was late and left early, so that her parents and brother wouldn’t worry about her again.

Su Jiangong, who had been silent all this time, frowned when he saw his daughter’s evasive look.

“Xiangxiang, if you’re not satisfied, I’ll cancel this marriage for you.”

Su Jiangong loved his precious daughter the most.

His two sons had been training with him in the army since they were young. They were all tough and thick-skinned, so he didn’t feel the slightest bit of heartache.

However, it was this little daughter who had been in his hands since she was young.

He could not protect this family by himself, and he definitely could not do something like selling his daughter for glory.

When Su Zhilian heard his father’s words, his eyes immediately lit up.

It was not that he did not like Huo Ting, but he just did not want to mistreat his sister.

Su Zhihang, on the other hand, kept looking at his sister. He frowned and did not say a word.

As the eldest son of this family, he had a lot more things to consider than Su Zhilian.

Su Xiang was also shocked by her father's words for a moment. She opened her mouth and was about to say something, but was interrupted by Lin Wanqiong. "Jiangong, don't be anxious. Let's hear what Su Xiangxiang has to say first."

After saying that, she looked at Su Xiangxiang and asked gently, "Xiangxiang, you can say it yourself. Do you like it or not? No matter what decision you make, your parents and brothers will support you."

"Yes! Xiangxiang, if you don't like it, just say it. Your brothers will protect you!" Su Zhilian also nodded vigorously.

Chapter 1290:

Su Xiangxiang felt warm in her heart when she heard that her whole family was protecting her.

She grew up under the care of her whole family.

Her parents doted on her, and her two brothers pampered her.

She had never done anything for this family since she was young. Now that the SU family was in trouble, how could she make her parents suffer and let her brothers suffer?

She thought about it and suddenly smiled gently.

"Dad, mom, you misunderstood. Actually... Huo Ting is quite good. I quite like him." Her voice was soft and pleasant to the ear. It was light and airy, like a marshmallow filled with sweetness ...

She didn't hate Huo Ting. If she didn't hate him, she just liked him, right?

Well, she wasn't lying. She would like him in the future.

"Are you serious?" Su Jiangong asked in a hurry. He looked a little excited.

If his daughter really liked huoting, wouldn't it be great if the two families got married?

"Yes." Su Xiangxiang nodded slightly and turned around to smile at her father.

"THAT'S GREAT!" Lin Wanqiong said these words for Su Jiangong. A smile naturally appeared on her face. "Xiangxiang, you're really my good daughter! The Su family will be saved this time!"

Lin wanqiong excitedly hugged Su Xiangxiang, and Su Jiangong also took the opportunity to hold the mother and daughter in his arms. "since Xiangxiang, you also like that kid, then is the marriage decided?"

"Okay." Su Xiangxiang continued to smile.

Looking at her parents' excited look, Su Xiangxiang knew that her decision would not be wrong.

Hearing this, Su Jiangong smiled and patted Su Xiangxiang's shoulder, then got up to write a reply to the huofamily.

After Su Jiangong got up, Su Zhilian sat on the seat that Su Jiangong had just sat on.

He looked at his sister with a worried expression and sighed. "Xiangxiang, don't tell me you also like that Kid's skin? That kid is indeed a little handsome. Is this what a little girl like you like?"

Su Xiangxiang was stunned by what he said.

Huo Ting seemed a little handsome?

Yes... .. although she didn't see him tonight, she had secretly seen his profile a few times before ...

At that time, he was looking through a document with his adjutant, guards, and a few people he didn't know standing beside him.

The weather was good that day. The Sun shone on his tall and straight body, as if it was plated with a layer of Halo. It was so dazzling that it made one's mind waver.

Lin Wanqiong glared at her second son. "Love at first sight has always been Zhong's appearance and temperament! Our Xiang is good-looking, and standing together with the Huo kid, they really match!"

"Yes, yes, yes, our Xiang is the best-looking in our family!" Su Zhilian supported his brow with one hand, unwilling to argue with his mother about this issue.

Speaking of which, Su Jiangong was not bad-looking. It was said that he was a flirtatious youth when he was young.

Lin Wanqiong was also one of the top beauties in Rao city. Her family background was not light either. Otherwise, how could she easily take a liking to Su Jiangong? ? ?

The parents had good genes. The children born naturally would not be too bad.

Su Zhilian and Su Zhihang were famous handsome men in the military district. There were many rich ladies out there who wanted to woo them.

However, Lin Wanqiong and Su Jiangong had praised their daughters' good looks since they were young. They had always looked down on their two sons.

The reason why Su Zhilian asked that was because he had received so many love letters recently that it could fill up his bedroom... ..

He really could not understand why girls liked him with his bad temper?

No matter how he looked at it, it was probably... .. He was just a little white and a little handsome ? ?

Sigh, this annoying 'beauty' .
