

Trick Me 1301

Chapter 1301: He wanted revenge

Even so, Xia Jinqi knew that the 9 / 15 riot was a vicious incident. Those who were involved in this kind of incident, regardless of whether they were the victims or the mastermind, would be classified as dangerous.

The higher-ups were saying that it was better to kill the wrong person than let them go. It was a miracle that Lu Yiming could escape. Moreover, he even turned around and wiped himself clean. Until now, no one knew about his past.

“whether it was the victim or the mastermind, it’s still too early to make a conclusion,” Yan Jun’s indifferent voice came faintly, cold to the bone.

He had some impression of this matter.

At that time, although he was sent abroad by his mother, he still learned a lot through the foreign media.

That year, another major event happened. After the presidential election was successful, every president had a fixed duration of five years in office. However, in that year, the president, who had just taken office for a year, was forcibly removed from office.

A month later, the president was assassinated.

At that time, the long family was not as lonely as it was now. It was the long family that came forward, along with many people of high status. Among them, there was no lack of the Yan family and the Huo family. They pushed the new president into office to stabilize the overall situation.

The reason why Yan Jun paid special attention to this matter was also because it was the first time after his grandmother, Long Qingxin, and his grandfather, Yan Youcheng, divorced for so many years that they had contacted each other and joined hands to do something together.

At that time, he felt that his grandfather and grandmother were both capable and responsible people. At a critical moment, they could forget about the past... ..

However, these things only flashed through Yan Jun’s mind and he did not say it out loud.

If Xia Jinqi were to hear it, she would probably hold her forehead and sigh again.

She and Huo Ting were still fooling around in the yard. While they were fishing in the pond, Yan Jun had already begun to care about national affairs... ..

Different, different, we’re different... ..

Xia Jinqi thought for a moment and suddenly said, “He might really be a victim. “according to what Yu Yang learned, Lu Yiming’s wife hasn’t woken up for many years. If I calculate the time, it’s very likely that she was affected by that incident. “and that unborn child... .. It’s also possible that she was dug out during that riot.”

He had previously learned a lot of scattered and messy information, but now that he put it together with the 9 / 15 incident, it all made sense.

It was possible that during the 9 / 15 incident, Lu Yiming experienced the destruction of his family and his personality changed drastically. After hiding his wife and children, he sneaked into the discipline inspection commission and captured a lot of children to torture and watch them kill each other.

This... .. seemed to fit the behavior trajectory of a psychopath ...

However, Xia Jinqi instinctively felt that things would not be so simple.

Lu Yiming had been hiding in the disciplinary committee for so many years, and he had secretly trained children to be his death warriors. There must be a bigger conspiracy.

Xia Jinqi gasped and looked at Yan Jun in surprise. "If he really is a victim, then everything he did was... for revenge?"

Yan Jun looked at her fixedly, his jaw very tense.

He didn't deny it, which was equivalent to agreeing with Xia Jinqi's point of view.

Lu Yiming didn't do all these things for revenge. Could it really be for the presidency?

He should know that paper can not cover fire. One day, he would be exposed. Even if he became the president for a short time, he would soon be brought down.

Then, there was only one reason why he would fight for this position.

He wanted revenge.

And his enemy must be very powerful. He had to be the president to have the right to punish his enemy.

Chapter 1302: obeyed, dear wife.

"Who does he want to take revenge on? Wasn't the mastermind of that riot already brought to justice?" Xia Jinqi asked again.

Yan Jun's brows were tightly knitted. He thought to himself for a moment. "perhaps the real culprit hasn't been punished."

As soon as these words were said, Xia Jinqi immediately understood.

Just like the incident with Li Jie back then, the person in charge of the organization and Planning on the surface was punished, but the real instigator, Lu Yiming, was alive and well. Not only did he not receive even the slightest accusation.. He even started to run for president openly.

"But who could this person be? Now that Lu Yiming has the power, who else can he not touch?" Xia Jinqi racked her brain.

In the beginning, Xia Jitian had suppressed Lu Yiming, but now that Xia Jitian had collapsed, Xia Chuanxu was not Lu Yiming's opponent at all.

He was still not satisfied?

“maybe, there’s more than one person,” Yan Jun opened his mouth and said in an indifferent tone.

When Xia Jinqi heard his words, she felt displeased. “More than... one person?”

If that was the case, then how big would Lu Yiming’s game be?

Yan Jun was silent for a moment and didn’t continue. When he turned around, he happened to see Xia Jinqi’s tightly knitted eyebrows.

She shouldn’t have to worry about these things.

Back then, he didn’t want her to investigate Lu Yiming, but he couldn’t stop her, so he let her treat it as a game. Who knew that she would really find out so much with just one investigation.

“Okay, don’t bother. Yu Yang is a capable person. There will be more news soon.” Yan Jun supported her shoulders and looked into her eyes seriously. “Now, go back to sleep.”

Xia Jinqi knew that he meant to tell her not to let her imagination run wild.

There were a hundred or a thousand possibilities here, so it was better for Yu Yang to investigate them thoroughly.

It made sense. It was better to go back to sleep.

“Alright.” She nodded, took his hand, and was about to go to the bedroom.

Yan Jun paused. He was about to tell her to go back to sleep first, but when his thin lips moved, a soft finger immediately attached to his lips.

“You told me not to think about it, so don’t think about it. GO BACK TO SLEEP!” She imitated his tone and said with a dignified frown.

Yan Jun paused for a moment, then smiled. He took her hand that was pressed against his lips and kissed it gently. Following her words, he said, “yes, my dear wife.”

“PFFT...” Xia Jinqi couldn’t help but burst into laughter. She glared at him and said, “BE SERIOUS!”

“Okay, wife.” He slightly changed the way he addressed her, but he didn’t change the most important word.

Xia Jinqi shook her head helplessly, but her heart was filled with sweetness. The corners of her eyes and brows were filled with a smile. The worry she had just now was completely gone.

She went back to sleep with Xia Jinqi. Before the sky was bright, Yan Jun got up.

He moved gently, afraid that he would wake up Xia Jinqi who was still sleeping.

After washing up in the room next door, he changed into a suit and went downstairs.

The lights in the kitchen had not been turned on yet. It was still not time to make breakfast, and the cooks had not gotten up yet. There were only a few servants on night duty who saw Yan Jun walk down before they could change shifts.

All of them had surprised expressions on their faces. “young master, what are you... I’m going to call the cook who made breakfast to get up immediately!”

“No need.” Yan Jun straightened his collar and looked at the kitchen casually. He knew that he had woken up too early. “I have something to do and I will go out. You guys just need to work and rest as usual.”

With that, he walked away.

Chapter 1303: the relationship between you and me. A discerning person could tell at a glance

He could guess more about what happened last night than Xia Jinqi.

He was supposed to do something last night, but he was stopped by Xia Jinqi. He couldn’t bear to let her worry, so he moved it to this morning.

First, he went to see Xia Jitian and asked about what happened that year. When it was daybreak, Yan Jun went to the Huo family.

Huo Ting hadn’t been reinstated yet, so he couldn’t go to the military district. Most of the time, he was at home.

When Yan Jun went, he happened to be jogging in the morning.

He had been used to doing morning exercises for many years. It was really hard for him to get used to stopping for a day.

Even though he wasn’t in the military district, he still woke up early. After running in the yard for more than half an hour, he was drenched in sweat. Only then did he feel refreshed.

When he used the white towel hanging around his neck to wipe his sweat, Yan Jun came.

Huo Ting subconsciously glanced at the sky. The King of Hell came to find him so early in the morning. He must have something to do.

“During Times of emergency, you came to find me so brazenly. Don’t you need to avoid suspicion?” Huo Ting joked. He took a bottle of water and sat in the yard to drink.

He had learned to treat Xia Jinqi as his sister, so he also took Yan Jun as his brother-in-law. He didn’t have so many rules when he spoke.

Yan Jun slowly walked over and sat down on the chair opposite Huo Ting. He replied, “a discerning person can see the relationship between you and me at a glance. Is it useful to avoid suspicion?”

Huo Ting was rebuked, and a mouthful of water almost choked in his throat.

After swallowing it with great difficulty, he straightened his expression and looked at him. “What’s the matter?”

“Yes.” Yan Jun nodded and simply told Huo Ting about the discovery last night and the series of conversations he had with Xia Jitian.

Huo Ting's expression changed slightly when he heard that.

"He actually hid it so well?" Huo Ting clicked his tongue.

No one would have thought that the long-forgotten incident of 9 / 15 would have a direct connection with Lu Yiming.

Not to mention Yan Jun, even Huo Ting and Xia Jitian had investigated Lu Yiming in the beginning, but no one had found anything.

Lu Yiming's methods were really good.

"And it was the girl who found it?" Huo Ting was shocked again "She was also the one who found the mountain valley's skeleton case. This girl... I can't tell. She's an expert in investigating cases? Why don't we send her to the Major Crimes Department? Such a talent should serve the country!"

Yan Jun, "..."

Seeing that Yan Jun's face was showing signs of lividity, Huo Ting hurriedly waved his hand. "I'm just joking."

In fact, Xia Jinqi was also lucky. With a little obsession and the help of so many people around her, she followed the guidance of fate and gained a lot.

Speaking of which, Huo Ting was almost done with the mountain valley's skeleton case. Xia Jinqi just finished the investigation and found the key photo.

Cui Ziyang wanted to suck up to Yan Jun and leak the information about Lao Jin, so Xia Jinqi followed the clues and found clues.

"You suspect that Huo Ting wants to take revenge on the big families that suppressed the incident?" Huo Ting finally became serious and counted the families that were involved in the incident "Yan Jun, Xia family, Huo family... I remember that the Qu family also helped, but Lu Yiming still kept Qu Yang by his side. What's going on?"

This was one of the reasons why Yan Jun came to look for Huo Ting. noVe)lB)In

The Qu family was involved in the incident that year. Yan Jun had just learned about it from Xia Jitian.

He had originally suspected that Xia Jitian might have remembered wrongly. Now that he heard from Huo Ting, this matter was like a stone hammer.

"As expected."

Chapter 1304: had too much to give up

"What do you mean?" Huo Ting raised his eyebrows and looked at Yan Jun in confusion.

It seemed that he had heard a lot of news from Xia Jitian.

Yan Jun tilted his head and looked at the rising sun behind the half-covered clouds. His eyebrows were raised. "The QU family only joined in the past to find out the movements of the other families."

As soon as he said this, Huo Ting almost immediately reacted. "The QU family actually submitted to Lu Yiming?"

"Most likely," Yan Jun gave an answer.

Otherwise, how could an outsider like Lu Yiming know so clearly which families had joined hands back then?

Moreover, Lu Yiming had even transferred Qu Yang to his side and put him in an important position. Even the valley where the bones were buried had been guarded by Qu Yang.

From a certain point of view, Lu Yiming had given Qu Yang absolute trust.

If that was the case... ..

Huo Ting snorted softly. "What a good Qu Ruoshan who obeys the Yang but disobeys the Yin! He has been hiding really well for so many years!"

Qu Ruoshan had been subservient to the right on the surface since more than ten years ago, and he had been doing things carefully over the years.

If Yan Jun had not discovered the secret, no one would have known that Qu Ruoshan was Lu Yiming's man.

"If Qu Ruoshan's vote is missing, the Xia family will definitely lose." Yan Jun withdrew his gaze and looked at Huo Ting.

Hearing this, Huo Ting could not help but be moved. "Has the Fang family decided to vote for Lu Yiming?"

"Yes." Yan Jun nodded. He knew Fang Shaoan's current situation. This vote could only be given to Lu Yiming.

"..."Huo Ting did not speak anymore.

Qu Ruoshan, who used to be affiliated with the Xia family, was now confirmed to be Lu Yiming's man. Fang Shaoan turned to the left again, and the Xia family instantly lost two votes, falling behind Lu Yiming in an instant.

Yan Jun was also silent.

The air seemed to be frozen, and it was abnormally cold.

After an unknown amount of time, the rising sun hung high above their heads, and a ray of bright sunlight suddenly covered the entire courtyard, illuminating the side where Yan Jun was sitting.

Huo Ting looked at him carefully for a moment, and as if he had finally made up his mind, he asked him, "I also heard about the Xia family. If this goes on, Lu Yiming will get his way sooner or later. You... really won't consider it?"

Huo Ting had never said these words before. *noVe)lB*In

After all, at that time, Xia Jitian was still in his prime, and he was Yan Jun's father-in-law. He would never go over his father-in-law's head.

Back when Yan Youcheng was still in charge of the Yan Group, Yan Jun did nothing and let Yan Qing cause a ruckus inside.

After Yan Youcheng retired, Yan Jun took over the Yan Group.

With thunderous means, in just a month's time, the Yan Group was revived. Not only did they reach a strategic cooperation with the Quan group in Sanjiang, but they also worked together to push the stock price to an unprecedented level.

Now that Xia Jitian had stepped down, logically speaking, Yan Jun should have nothing to be afraid of.

However, he had been sitting still and watching Xia Chuanxu and Lu Yiming mediate.

Yan Jun was deep in thought when he suddenly heard Huo Ting's words. He came back to his senses and his dark eyes reflected Huo Ting's face.

He knew that Huo Ting wanted him to consider the position of president.

Ji Heng had mentioned it to him earlier, but he did not respond.

"there are too many things to give up on that position," Yan Jun finally said slowly with his thin lips raised.

At first, Huo Ting did not understand what he meant, but when he saw his troubled expression, he roughly thought about it and understood. "Are you afraid that you won't have time to take care of the girls and children?"

Yan Jun did not speak, but tacitly agreed.

Chapter 1305: had a change of heart

There was a huge difference between being the big BOSS of a corporation and being the leader of a country.

The person in charge of the Yan Corporation could be the decisive King of Hell, or the infatuated child who doted on his wife like his life. He could even disregard everything for the sake of the woman he loved.

However, as a leader and as the president, he had to put the country and the people first.

In this way, no matter what decision he made or on any occasion, he could no longer say the words, 'I'd rather betray the world than let you down' for Xia Jinqi.

The difference between the two was really too great.

Yan Jun was unwilling to touch this position for a long time because he was still unwilling to lose his original heart at this moment.

Seeing through Yan Jun's thoughts, Huo Ting's heart shook again.

So it turned out that Yan Jun was actually doing all he could to ensure the Xia family's rise to power for Xia Jinqi's sake... ..

If it could be said that in the past, Huo Ting still had a trace of hope for the servant girl, then from this moment on, he had completely broken his thoughts.

Yan Jun was like this. For the sake of the servant girl, he could even disregard the position of president. It could be seen how deep his love for the servant girl was, and how important the servant girl was in his heart... ..

For the servant girl to be able to marry Yan Jun was also a blessing that came from several lifetimes of cultivation.

"If you lose some, you will gain some. For example, supreme power and reputation." Huo Ting smiled lightly and changed the topic to look at Yan Jun..

He now somewhat understood why the Yan and Xia families would have a marriage alliance back then.

The two most famous aristocratic families in Rao city were indeed of equal status.

Once the Xia family fell, the other Yan family stood up. n--o.)V.)E(-I).b)-I))n

Yan Jun could also use the resources of the Xia family. In addition to the support of the Yan Family itself, he would be many times stronger than Xia Chuanxu.

Yan Jun's face was originally dark, but when he heard huo ting's words, he suddenly smiled coldly. "It's just a seemingly gorgeous cage. "

Imprisoning words and deeds, imprisoning sincerity.

If it was not because Xia Chuanxu could not suppress Lu Yiming, Yan Jun would not have such thoughts.

"It's a cage, but it's also an iron wall. It can protect everyone you want to protect, " Huo Ting added leisurely.

He Really Understood Yan Jun. he knew why Yan Jun was suddenly interested in the presidency.

Perhaps it was because Lu Yiming was getting stronger, or perhaps it was because he knew that Lu Yiming's conspiracy was more far-reaching. In short, Yan Jun was tempted.

And as long as Yan Jun was tempted, nothing had ever escaped his grasp.

Yan Jun did not seem to want to continue this topic. He looked up at Huo Ting deeply and said, "has the marriage between you and the Su family been decided? "

Yan Jun knew about this matter not too late, but he had never had the chance to communicate with Huo Ting.

Since they met this time, he naturally had to ask.

Huo Ting was still thinking about what would happen to the girl if Yan Jun became the president, but when he heard Huo Ting's words, he was obviously stunned and did not react for a long time.

Him and Su Xiangxiang?

Speaking of which, he was also ashamed. His marriage was probably known by everyone in Rao city, but as the person involved, when he thought of the name Su Xiangxiang, he did not have a face that matched her.

He did not even know what Su Xiangxiang looked like?

He only vaguely remembered seeing a very gentle girl at the cinema that day.

While he was trying his best to recall, he remembered that his grandfather had shown him a photo. Yan Jun said again, "If you don't want to, you don't have to force yourself."

He was already a little puzzled, but after hearing Yan Jun's words, Huo Ting was completely frozen.

Chapter 1306: hopes that you can live a happy life

"What do you mean?" Huo Ting asked back.

Everyone was looking forward to this marriage, but only Yan Jun..

He actually told him that he didn't have to force it?

Yan Jun glanced at Huo Ting with a very shallow gaze. "I'm confident. You don't have to sacrifice yourself for the good."

What he meant was that Yan Jun was confident in dealing with Lu Yiming, and he didn't need Huo Ting to marry the SU family for the sake of the military district.

If Huo Ting really wasn't willing, then this matter would be dropped.

"You... specially came here today to tell me this?" Huo Ting's pupils constricted as he asked ...

Yan Jun nodded.

"Why?" Huo Ting asked again.

Yan Jun answered, "Jinqi also hopes that you can live a happy life."

There was no other reason. It was only because Yan Jun understood Huo Ting and knew that his heart was in Xia Jinqi. Marrying someone else at this time was just a temporary measure.

If this made Huo Ting regret it for the rest of his life, it would indeed be unfair.

After hearing Yan Jun's words, Huo Ting was silent for a long time.

His face was pale, and his eyelids were slightly lowered, covering his dark eyes and all his emotions at the moment.

For Yan Jun to say such words, it proved that he was really confident.

But could Yan Jun protect him for a while, but could he protect him for the rest of his life?

There were some things that he had to face on his own.

Thinking of this, Huo Ting raised his head, and his thin lips were tinged with a faint smile. "Are you happy now?"

Yan Jun frowned and looked at him, not understanding.

"You and the girl are also connected by marriage, aren't you also very happy?" Huo Ting smiled, with three parts helplessness and three parts misery. "Don't worry about me, I know what to do."

Although he said that, Huo Ting's heart was filled with silent gratitude.

The current Yan Jun should be extremely busy, but he still took the time to talk to him about this... ..

One had to know that over the past two days, everyone around him had been talking about how good this marriage was, saying that he was blessed and had good taste.

But only Yan Jun told him not to force himself if he was unwilling.

Sigh.

Life was really fickle.

Yan Jun had snatched away the girl that he regarded as a treasure. He used to hate Yan Jun as much as he loved the girl.

Who knew that at such a time, only Yan Jun would protect him.

Seeing him like this, Yan Jun did not say anything more. He only said, "new faces will be entering the military area soon. I'll have to trouble chief hu to inform his men to keep it quiet."

"It's a small matter." Huo Ting nodded and agreed immediately.

After he agreed, he came back to his senses and looked at Yan Jun in surprise. "I've been reinstated?"

The words were spoken very well. Yan Jun had specially called him chief. It was definitely not a sudden idea.

"someone will inform you in the afternoon." Yan Jun nodded.

Huo Ting's heart skipped a beat. Just as he was about to ask if Yan Jun was helping him, he remembered another meaning in Yan Jun's words. He quickly asked, "new face? What do you mean? You want to send people into the army?"

"A group of my guards." Yan Jun's eyes did not even flicker as he replied indifferently, "just in case."

"..."

Guards could disguise themselves as soldiers?

Unless these people had been trained according to the standards of soldiers since the beginning!

Or perhaps, this was simply an army!

In order to build an army, besides the most important people, there had to be arms and weapons.

Huo Ting was stunned to remember that the Queen of arms, Shangguan Mingyue, had come to Rao city some time ago.

Wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

When he looked at Yan Jun again, the expression in his eyes had completely changed.

"What exactly do you want to do?" He opened his mouth, and there was a hint of solemnity in his words.

To hide an army, did Yan Jun want to rebel?

Chapter 1307: was handsome and handsome, like a celestial being

Yan Jun stared at him without a trace of panic. He repeated what he had just said indifferently, "just in case."

The meaning was very clear. He did not have the intention to rebel. He only wanted to protect himself.

Huo Ting stared at him for a long time before the suspicion and wariness in his eyes disappeared. "Okay, I'll help you."

At this point, even if Yan Jun wanted to rebel, Huo Ting would not stop him.

Perhaps, he would even go with him.

Who asked Lu Yiming to become increasingly arrogant?

If such a person really became the president, who knew what Rao city would become.

However, if Yan Jun raised his army at will, he would be a traitor. n-)0vetBIn

He had to find a suitable opportunity, a suitable opportunity, to properly punish Lu Yiming.

After thinking for a moment, Huo Ting finally reminded Yan Jun, "as long as you do what is right, everyone will help you. But if you have any evil intentions, Yan Jun, when the time comes, I will personally send you to prison."

The moment he finished speaking, an East wind blew, blowing the tall tree behind Yan Jun..

"Rustle..." the sound passed.

The golden leaves fell to the ground and scattered around Yan Jun..

Yan Jun curled his thin lips and stood up slowly.

The warm sun in the early winter made his figure stand out. He was handsome and looked like a celestial being.

“That day will never come. ”

In his deep voice, there was unquestionable determination and seriousness.

With that, Yan Jun strode away with his long legs.

The golden leaves he stepped on covered the entire courtyard, making it look magnificent.

Huo Ting held his breath at that moment.

Looking at that scene, he seemed to see a peaceful and prosperous era... ..

A peaceful and prosperous era that belonged to Rao city.

It was not until a long time after Yan Jun left that he came back to his senses and immediately smiled.

Yes, who was Yan Jun?

Why would he do something that was disadvantageous to Rao city?

If he became the president, he would only benefit the people of this region.

..

In the afternoon, Huo Ting indeed received a transfer order, asking him to return to his post.

Huo Ting did not want to probe into who Yan Jun had found and what he had done to allow him to be reinstated. He only knew that in times of emergency, extreme measures were used.

Seeing the Xia family, which the rightists had painstakingly promoted, become like this, many people's hearts began to waver.

Now that Yan Jun was willing to accept orders in the face of danger and stand up to support the world, that was naturally the best.

It could not only stabilize the hearts of the people, but also give Lu Yiming a heavy blow.

Huo Ting was very willing to open the way for him.

Naturally, there were many people like Yan Jun who were willing to help him.

Huo Ting, who was focused on the situation, would never have thought that after he returned to the military district to finish his trivial matters, he would run into the two Su brothers in the training ground.

These two brothers seemed to be practicing with guns, and there was a slightly shorter and thinner soldier next to them. He was very unfamiliar with the side of his body, and he didn't know if he was a newcomer.

Huo Ting was not unfamiliar with Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian. Although he didn't see them often, he had seen the transfer orders for these two people from time to time after he took over the position recently.

Previously, when Su Zhihang went out on a mission and came back to report on duty, Huo Ting had seen him before.

At that time, he felt that this person was aboveboard, had a quick mind, and was worthy of a big responsibility.

Now that the huo family wanted to be on good terms with the SU family, Huo Ting naturally had to pay more attention to these two people.

As he slowly walked over, someone beside him noticed him. "Hello, chief."

As soon as he said this, the two brothers of the Su family immediately turned around and looked at Huo Ting.

He didn't know if it was huo ting's misconception, but he felt that the way these two brothers looked at him was as if they had seen a ghost?

Chapter 1308: The people outside of called him sniper God

"chief."

"chief."

The two Su brothers stood straight and saluted huo ting.

Huo Ting nodded. He glanced at the people in front of him and finally stopped at Su Zhihang. "Did you get a good result in the world shooting championship?"

"I got the runner-up in the 300-meter running target and the 25-meter pistol shooting speed. I got into the top 20 in the sniper competition," Su Zhihang answered with a hint of disappointment on his face.

Huo Ting thought for a moment and asked, "this year's sniper champion is Shangguan Nan again?"

"Yes. The longest range is 3,020 meters," Su Zhihang answered again.

"..."

The people present were all stunned.

The guard next to Huo Ting didn't quite understand these numbers, so he subconsciously opened his mouth and asked, "3,000 meters, is it very powerful?"

Huo Ting turned back to look at him, his gaze somewhat cold.

The guard immediately shrank his head, knowing that he had misspoken.

Su Zhihang explained to him, "the world's longest sniper record is now maintained at 3,450 meters."

"..." The guard gulped. He knew why the chief had glared at him just now. "So powerful?"

Su Zhilian, who was listening by the side, was absent-minded. He tried his best to hide his little sister, Su Xiangxiang, who was hiding behind him.

Sigh, he didn't know what had gotten into this girl today, but she insisted on coming to the shooting range to play. He thought that now that Huo Ting was also suspended, no one in the military region would care about him, so he gave her a camouflage uniform and let her sneak in.

Who knew that she wouldn't die? Not only did huo ting resume his job, but he also met them.

Should she say that it was fate?

Su Xiangxiang had been hiding well, but when she heard her brother's words, she felt a little curious. She could not help but ask, "what kind of difficulty is three thousand meters?"

It was the most difficult in the world. It was obvious how powerful it was.

As soon as Su Xiangxiang said that, she immediately thought to herself, "Oh no. "

The next second, she felt a sharp gaze in front of her. She quickly lowered her head and did not dare to look at it.

Oh No.

She must not be recognized... ..

Su Zhilian immediately took a step forward and quietly hid Su Xiangxiang behind him.

Su Zhihang also hurriedly opened his mouth to interrupt Huo Ting's thoughts "The effective shooting range of a rifle in the hands of an ordinary infantryman is only 400 meters, not even a fraction of this distance. The AWM sniper rifle, which was once synonymous with high-precision sniper rifles, can only guarantee an effective shooting range of about 1,500 meters when firing 8.6 mm. 338 caliber rifle bullets. Even the famous Barrett, who fired 12.7 mm bullets, can only provide an effective shooting range of about 1,829 meters for the shooter. "Moreover, the trajectory of the bullet will also be affected by the wind speed. More than three thousand meters, which means that you have to shoot in an arc to hit the target. Ordinary people can't do that. "

"In other words, this has far exceeded the shooting standard of any army. " Su Zhihang thought for a moment and added.

"..."after hearing this, Su Xiangxiang and the guard were completely shocked.

Shangguan Nan was so powerful?

No wonder people outside called him the sniper God... ..

Huo Ting had already understood what Su Zhihang said. He wanted to take a look at the soldier who spoke just now. He felt that this voice was inexplicably familiar, like a woman.

However, he was blocked by Su Zhilian, so he didn't pay much attention to it. He only said, "recently, a batch of new soldiers came?"

Huo Ting didn't expect Su Xiangxiang to come at all. He just looked at the unfamiliar face and thought of Yan Jun's words in the morning. He subconsciously thought that it was Yan Jun's people.

Chapter 1309: what kind of trouble could he cause by following his fianc???

"Yes." Su Zhihang nodded. He thought that since the chief had asked, it should be an investigation, so he asked, "the personnel registration has been filed. Does the chief want to see it now?"

Huo Ting frowned slightly and refused, "no need."

After that, he looked at Su Zhilian. "arrange them into a team and train as usual."

"Yes." Su Zhilian answered while hiding his precious sister.

After giving some instructions, Huo Ting turned around and prepared to leave.

When he brushed past Su Zhilian, he deliberately took a second look at the new recruit standing behind Su Zhilian.

Since he was Yan Jun's man, why not take him for a walk and see the capabilities of Yan Jun's men?

To be chosen by Yan Jun and sent here, they should not be ordinary people.

With that thought, Huo Ting looked at the new recruit. "You, come and lead the way for me."

Su Xiangxiang's body stiffened, but she still did not dare to raise her head. Her hands were tightly clenched into fists.

When she went out today, she clearly looked at the ALMANAC and said that today was a great day!

How could it be... .. So unlucky ? ?

Not only did she encounter huo ting after doing bad things, but now she was called by him to follow him?

And he even led the way... ..

She just wanted to say that she was not familiar with this place!

The training grounds generally did not allow outsiders to enter. In the past, when she came to the Military District to look for her brothers, it was always in a special reception room. This was really her first time coming to this training ground... ..

Su Xiangxiang did not move, but Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian were as if they were facing a great enemy.

"Chief, let me show you around." Su Zhilian quickly walked over and volunteered.

Coincidentally, during the time when Huo Ting stopped, the training ground had been reorganized.

Now that Huo Ting was reinstated, he would definitely come to familiarize himself with it as soon as possible.

After all, it was his own territory. Where there was a grass and a tree, Huo Ting understood it in his heart.

However, in the face of Su Zhilian's initiative to volunteer, Huo Ting shook his head. "You guys continue training. Let her do it."

With that, he took a step forward.

Huo Ting turned his back, and Su Xiangxiang immediately exploded on the spot. She turned around and winked at her second brother, silently shouting, what should I do, second brother!!!

Su Zhilian had no other choice. He could only grab some mud on the ground and rub it on Su Xiangxiang's fair little face, making her dirty. He pushed her out. "I told you to make trouble, but you insisted on coming! Good luck to you!"

Su Xiangxiang, "..."

Su Zhihang frowned. He wanted to go up and pull his sister back, but was stopped by Su Zhilian. "Hey? Big Brother, what are you doing?"

"If you let Xiangxiang go like this, what will you do if she gets into trouble?"

"What kind of trouble can she get into by following her fianc??? And didn't Xiangxiang say last night? She likes our chief. What a great opportunity. If she goes, so be it." Su Zhilian seemed to have come to his senses He didn't hide Su Xiangxiang anymore. Instead, he looked at the back of Huo Ting and her. He suddenly felt that they were very compatible, very compatible! ! Hahaha ! !

"..."Su Zhihang buried his forehead in the palm of his left hand with a helpless expression.

On the other side, Su Xiangxiang jogged for a while before she caught up with Huo Ting.

However, when she really caught up with him, she didn't dare to get too close. She could only follow him from five steps away. Her little face was buried very low as she looked at Huo Ting's constantly moving heel with fear.

After walking for a long distance, Huo Ting stopped in front of her. Su Xiangxiang also immediately stopped in her tracks.

The guard saw that Huo Ting was looking at the scene in front of him with a deep frown and immediately understood and explained, "the front has widened the shooting range, so the obstacle training has moved back a little. But overall, it's more than 500 square meters wider than before."

Chapter 1310: Let me take a look.

"Who approved the document?" Huo Ting asked in a deep voice.

At this rate, the entire mountain behind them would be taken over.

Moreover, this was done deliberately when Huo Ting was suspended.

The person behind all this clearly had deep intentions.

The guard paused. As a small guard, he didn't know much. He turned around and glanced at the recruit behind him. "The chief is asking you a question!"

" ... " Su Xiangxiang gritted her teeth and lowered her voice. "I don't know... "

Huo Ting's body stiffened and he turned around to look at her.

Su Xiangxiang continued to lower her head desperately. She really didn't know!

Fortunately, the guard helped her to smooth things over. "chief, this is also a newcomer. Maybe he really doesn't know. "

Upon hearing the words 'newcomer' , Huo Ting remembered that Yan Jun's men had indeed been placed in recently. It was understandable if they didn't know.

However... .. n/)o-.17-.e.(1)B(-1-(n

After pondering for a moment, Huo Ting finally said, "let's go for a run and I'll take a look. "

Su Xiangxiang,"? ? ??"

She was not a pig, why would she run for him to see? ! !

The guard saw that she had not moved for a long time, so he reminded her, "the chief wants you to run around the obstacle training ground to see the effect! "

After the expansion, there were also a few obstacles that had not been set up before. Huo Ting wanted to see the difficulty of these things, as well as... .. He wanted to see how capable Yan Jun's people were ...

However, Su Xiangxiang was still UNMOVING.

Seeing this, Huo Ting was a little angry. "What, I can't order you around? "

Although he said this on the surface, Huo Ting was on guard in his heart.

Could it be that these people only listened to Yan Jun's orders?

Was this a soldier or Yan Jun's personal death soldier?

One couldn't blame Huo Ting for being so careful. After all, there was a phrase called 'blinded by greed' .

He didn't want to see a second Lu Yiming being born.

He had said that he would help Yan Jun, so it was even more impossible for him to just watch Yan Jun walk in the wrong direction.

Some things, the sooner they were discovered, the better.

Su Xiangxiang was so scared by Huo Ting's words that all the hair on her body was about to stand up!

In her impression, Huo Ting was always cold and indifferent. There was no expression on his face, but he was still considered gentle and did not get angry or anything.

Now, she did not even need to raise her head to look at him, but she could feel the cold and unyielding dignity emanating from his body!

She gritted her teeth and could only nod. "Yes. "

Then, she imitated her brothers' way of doing exercises and started running.

She had learned 80-90% of the postures, so she could still pass the test, but this physical fitness... ..
Cough, cough, it was fine if she did not say it ...

The first stage of the 400-meter obstacle was to cross the three-step pile and the trench.

Su Xiangxiang was not unfamiliar with this thing. She had played with her brothers in the past and had jumped many times.

She adjusted her body shape and sizzle and ran to the front of the starting line. She stepped on the ground with one foot and took a big step forward with the other foot. She stepped on the first pile with the sole of her front foot. Then, she quickly took a big step forward and stepped on the second pile with the sole of her foot. Then, she stepped on the third pile with the back foot. Then, she took a step forward with the other foot and landed in front of the end line.

The trench was too wide, and she almost fell in when she jumped.

Fortunately, she was safe and stopped at the edge.

She took a deep breath, and her face was a little Pale.

Huo Ting, who was next to her, quietly observed her movements. He narrowed his eyes and thought to himself, "her physical fitness is really bad. "
