

Trick Me 1341

Chapter 1341: must have been bought from the Shangguan family

After Wang Mang left, Yan Jun did not continue eating. Instead, he took out his phone and took out the photos of Yu Han and Xiao puff. He looked at them again and again happily.

During this period of time, he had not taken the initiative to have any contact with Macao.

The News of the two children was obtained from Xia Jinqi. Ji Yunjing would tell them about the recent situation of the two children every day.

This way, even if they did not live together, he would still be able to know every bit of information about the children.

Just by looking at them, the corners of his lips had already formed a faint curve.

It was a rare opportunity for him to see the children.

Now, he had more things to control, and he wasn't as powerless as before. He could only watch as the mother and son Left.

Xia Jinqi originally wanted to make arrangements through Lego's influence, but after checking, she discovered that Rao city had inexplicably put the entire city under martial law.

Be It cars, trains, or high-speed trains, all of them were under martial law.

As for what the martial law was, it wasn't announced to the public. It was just that the checkpoints were abnormally strict.

Xia Jinqi suddenly felt bad. This matter was most likely done by Lu Yiming, and the ones who had to be under martial law were definitely them.

Were they afraid that they would escape midway?

Xia Jinqi pinched the space between her brows. She went back to look for Yan Jun and told him the whole story.

Unexpectedly, Yan Jun smiled. He pulled her in front of him unhurriedly and helped her brush the stray strands of hair on her temples. "Let's go by water."

"Ah?" Xia Jinqi was a little confused and asked, "by boat?"

Yan Jun did not answer. Instead, he asked with a smile, "do you still remember Qinghuai's Holiday Villa?"

"I remember." Xia Jinqi nodded slowly and remembered that time when she, Yan Jun, Zuo Xiaoran, and Fang Shaoan went to play together. They even made a lot of jokes.

“It takes less than five hours to reach Macau from the Qinghuai River Basin to the south along the river,
” Yan Jun said.

Xia Jinqi knew that the river in Qinghuai was connected to the sea, but... “The dock should have been cordoned off. Even if you have a yacht, it would be easy for you to be discovered, right?”

She was not afraid that Lu Yiming would know that they were out at sea, but she was afraid that Lu Yiming would guess where the two children were hiding.

She once thought that Yan Jun was making a mountain out of a molehill. It was just a Lu Yiming. So what if he stirred up a big storm? Why would he secretly move the three of them behind her back?

However, the things that Xia Jinqi had experienced since she returned, especially the Fang family’s experience, had made her deeply understand how thoughtful Yan Jun was back then.

Yan Jun looked back at her. His deep eyes were like the Milky Way, flickering with a dazzling light.

“...”Xia Jinqi was surprised.

Submarine... .. Alright, of course it wouldn’t be easy to be discovered ...

But when did Yan Jun prepare all the submarines?

“I originally planned to use them... but now they come in handy,” Yan Jun said ...

Actually, he had just bought the submarines not long ago. They had all been sent to the Qing Huai Sea yesterday, within the jurisdiction of the Arqi Island.

He had originally planned to... .. Use them to transport soldiers and arms ...

The ARQI pirates were in Rao city. It wasn’t far, but he had to be prepared.

If the surface of the sea was controlled, then there would be nothing under the sea that could hold them back.

Xia Jinqi blinked and asked, “military submarines?”

“Yes.”

“where did you buy them?” Xia Jinqi blurted out. Then, she quickly reacted and muttered to herself, “Oh, I must have bought them from the Shangguan family. I can only buy them from their hands... so the person you went to see yesterday was Shangguan Mingyue?”

Chapter 1342: Was the Betrothal gift you gave me?

“No.” Yan Jun shook his head. “It was Leng Sicheng.”

“Leng Sicheng?” Xia Jinqi was really shocked and repeated these three words.

She was Xia Jitian’s daughter, and Rao Cheng and Li Cheng had good diplomatic relations. She got to know Shangguan Mingyue along the way, so she naturally knew what kind of role Leng Sicheng was.

Li Cheng's legendary figure, Li Cheng's youngest general since the founding of the country!

Li Cheng was different from Rao Cheng. The general there was the faith of the entire country, an existence even higher than the President!

In other words, Leng Si city was equivalent to Li city's No. 1. Not only did he control the military and political power, but he also had the final say in political matters.

Xia Jinqi was done with her shock. She turned around to look at Yan Jun and said embarrassedly, "you... you guys..."

After mumbling for a long time, she suddenly didn't know what to ask.

Yan Jun even found Leng Si city and even bought a military submarine from the Shangguan Family... ..

He was... .. Preparing for war ? ?

Xia Jinqi was still far from knowing that Yan Jun had already stationed troops on the Arqi Island, enough to take down the entire Rao city.

Moreover, what Yan Jun bought from Shangguan Mingyue was not just a military yacht.

Guns, ammunition, rocket launchers, and even... .. Tanks, armored vehicles, and some newly developed weapons ...

With such a huge number and such strong financial resources, it was not an exaggeration to say that if Yan Jun had the heart to occupy the mountain and be king, he would be able to take down Rao city by now.

It was no wonder that Huo Ting was afraid of him. After all, there were not many people in the world who had such an ability and could still hold onto their original heart. n(017e1B1n

Then, could it be Yan Jun?

Huo Ting didn't dare to guarantee it, so he could only try his best to believe it.

After thinking for a long time, Xia Jinqi deliberated in her heart before she looked into Yan Jun's eyes again. She asked him seriously, "did you cooperate?"

There were no particularly sensitive words, but the two of them knew clearly what kind of cooperation this cooperation referred to.

Yan Jun didn't take back his hand that brushed her hair at the temples. Instead, he held her cheek and rubbed his thumb slightly. "Don't worry, I know what to do."

He did not answer her directly, but since he did not deny it, it meant that he had tacitly agreed.

Otherwise, Xia Jinqi really could not think of anything that would make the big shots of chestnut city personally make a trip.

It was one thing for him to make a trip, but it was actually done secretly. Other than Yan Jun, no one knew his whereabouts.

“Will there be danger?” Xia Jinqi asked despite knowing the answer.

“No.” He also knew that there was danger, but he still lied.

How could there not be danger?

It was just that these things had to be done by someone.

Xia Jinqi gritted her teeth. At this moment, she really wanted to tell him not to do it.

He didn’t have to do such a dangerous thing... ..

But she couldn’t say it out loud.

She could only mix her worries with understanding and swallow them all down.

She sighed softly and changed the topic. “What about Leng Sicheng? Has He left?”

“He’s on the Arqi Island,” Yan Jun answered.

“Oh...” Xia Jinqi first nodded. Then she felt that the name sounded a little familiar, so she asked him tentatively, “was it a Betrothal gift you gave me? I remember there’s an island...”

“En.” Yan Jun curled his lips and casually scratched the tip of her small nose. He teased, “to think that you still remember it.”

Xia Jinqi wrinkled her nose and smiled sheepishly without much confidence. “Of course I remember...”

At that time, Yan Sheng only gave her money. Later, Xia Jitian and Hong Xianglin asked for the storefront of soaring Dragon Square and an island for her.

Chapter 1343: was still more suitable for Yan three-year-old... .. Not even one more year ! !

For a period of time, it was occupied by Xia Tianjiao, but later, Xia Chuanxu asked for it back for her.

She was also worried about taking it for herself, so she simply returned it to Yan Jun..

One lego wasn’t enough for her... .. She really couldn’t bear another island ...

In the end, she threw it away for more than a year and almost forgot about it.

If Yan Jun hadn’t mentioned it, she would have almost forgotten about it.

But... .. What was Leng Sicheng doing on that island ? On vacation ? ?

Xia Jinqi did not continue to ask.

With Leng Sicheng’s identity, he must have something important to come and see Yan Jun, and it was very likely that it involved state secrets.

She rolled her eyes and her gaze fell on the dining table in front of Yan Jun..

She barely touched it, and she did not know if it was not to his liking.

“You ate so little?” She frowned and asked in surprise.

Yan Jun came back to his senses and did not say anything. He lifted his injured arm and brought it to Xia Jinqi.

“Alright. I’ll feed you.” Xia Jinqi smiled helplessly. She touched the temperature of the lunch box. It was still alright. She sat next to him and began feeding him.

Yan Jun’s eyes contained a smile as he opened his mouth very consciously.

He ate two mouthfuls obediently. He didn’t know if it was because of his childish nature or because he was angry that she didn’t want to feed him just now. Out of the blue, he bit the chopsticks that she put the food into his mouth.

” ... ” Xia Jinqi’s hand froze. She couldn’t take out the chopsticks. She glared at Yan Sansui in anger and amusement. “Let go!”

“...”He didn’t move.

Xia Jinqi twitched again, but there was no reaction.

She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. She could only coax him helplessly. “Let go...”

He still didn’t move.

“then how am I going to feed you? !” Xia Jinqi laughed until she was almost out of breath.

Yan Jun was probably really not full. When he heard this, he finally let go of his teeth.

Xia Jinqi let out a sigh of relief and continued to feed him.

However, when this mouthful of food was sent over, Yan Jun bit down on his chopsticks again.

Xia Jinqi, ” ...”

Are you addicted to playing? ! ! !

“Are you not eating anymore? If you’re not eating, I’m leaving?” She threatened.

So, he let go.

The next time she fed him, he continued to bite down on his chopsticks.

Every time, he would only give up after she coaxed him nicely.

Xia Jinqi felt helpless and amused at the same time. She did not tire of repeating this boring game with him.

From then on, Xia Jinqi decided to give Yan Jun a nickname.

It would be called ‘Yan three-year-old’ !

What cold-faced King of Hell? It was completely out of character!

Yan three-year-old was more suitable for him... ... One more year was not enough ..!

Late at night, Yan Jun took Xia Jinqi out of the back door of the hospital quietly and went to Qinghuai.

From Qinghuai to the sea, they boarded a submarine and headed all the way to Macau.

The hospital had also made arrangements. They told the public that Yan Jun was still unconscious in the ICU and no one was allowed to visit him. Even the Yan Corporation was handed over to Yan Youcheng, so the people outside had no doubt about it.

Now, Yan Jun held more power in his hands. When he left, he did not leave even a trace for Lu Yiming.
n(/0VellB1n

The next day, there was no movement from Lu Yiming's side. He thought that Yan Jun was really seriously injured and unconscious in the hospital!

In fact, it wasn't just Lu Yiming. Even Huo Ting didn't know that Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi had secretly left Rao city.

He only knew that Yan Jun and Fang Shaoan had a falling out. The two of them had a big fight on the street, and it was very embarrassing.

The Fang family's matter was also out of his expectations. Regardless of whether it was Lu Yiming or not, the entire Rao city was now in a state of panic and rumors were spreading.

Chapter 1344: could not be taught no matter how hard he tried

It was said that those who followed the land would prosper and those who went against the land would perish.

Huo Ting had a headache for a long time because of this matter.

He came to the military district early in the morning to deal with these matters and sat down until the afternoon.

Unknowingly, he felt a little hungry.

Putting down the document in his hand, Huo Ting subconsciously began to look for something on the desk.

After looking around, he did not see anything that he was satisfied with. He casually asked the guard, "did you not prepare anything to eat?"

After adding food for a few days, he was already used to it. Now that it was suddenly gone, he began to think about it.

The Guard was also stunned for a moment. He smacked his forehead and remembered that Miss Su wasn't here today!

If she wasn't here, then there was definitely no food... ..

However, he didn't expect the chief to be hungry at this time. He immediately said, "your subordinate will go and prepare it now!"

After saying that, he left.

Previously, Miss Su had asked him not to tell the chief that she was the one who had sent the food. Now that the chief hadn't asked about it, the guard could only lie.

Anyway, there was a canteen in the military district. He could just go down and let them make some food. n@ve.Ib-1n

Huo Ting did not say anything and continued to look at the documents.

When the guard came up again, he had already brought two plates of pastries. They looked quite exquisite, but they tasted completely different.

Huo Ting was also a person who could endure hardship. After being in the army for a long time, he had long lost the habit of stirring up trouble, but... ..

This sudden change of taste still felt a little strange.

"Did you change cooks?" He asked casually, not taking it to heart.

"..."The guard lowered his eyes guiltily and quickly thought of an answer in his mind.

He hesitated for a while, but Huo Ting had already noticed something fishy and looked at him sharply.

The guard wiped the sweat from his forehead and couldn't care less. He opened his mouth and said straightforwardly, "the one from a few days ago... was sent by Miss Su... she didn't come today, so..."

Huo Ting suddenly frowned and his eyes were a little gloomy. "Miss Su? Su Xiangxiang?"

"Yes. She said that it was specially prepared for you to thank you, chief. She also said that I shouldn't tell you." The guard was going all out.

This was obviously a good thing to do, and it wasn't something to be ashamed of. He didn't understand why Miss Su wanted him to keep it a secret?

Moreover, wasn't she going to marry the chief... .. Why was she still hiding it ? ?

After hearing this, Huo Ting thought of the snack that appeared on time a few days ago. He raised his hand to support his brow.

It seemed that Su Xiangxiang meant to thank him for allowing her to borrow the shooting range of the military district.

His mind couldn't help but think of her disheveled figure and her dirty little face.

"Why didn't you come today?" He suddenly asked. He did not know what kind of emotion he was feeling.

"I heard that... the Su family is having a family banquet today. Not only Miss Su did not come, but the two young masters of the Su family also did not come," the guard replied ...

Hearing this, Huo Ting also remembered that he had indeed heard from Su Xiangxiang that the Su family would have a family banquet in two days.

Moreover, she was going to perform shooting at the family banquet.

He did not know what kind of results she would get... ..

Huo Ting felt helpless when he thought of how she had missed the target several times that day and couldn't teach her.

While shaking his head, he unconsciously smiled.

That smile was very faint, but it came from the bottom of his heart.

The guards next to him were all stunned... ..

The chief could only smile when he thought of Miss Su. When he was facing them, he always had a stern face and all kinds of seriousness. He would often run with heavy weights as punishment. It was so tiring!

Chapter 1345: how could his people be easily bullied by others?

Oh, no, there was also Miss Xia.

When the chief and Miss Xia were together, they seemed to have completely changed into a different person. They laughed and played around like children.

However, Miss Xia and the chief were childhood friends, so it was normal for them to have a better relationship.

The guard saw that the chief did not speak for a long time, so he retreated to the side and prepared to leave.

However, just as he turned around, Huo Ting suddenly spoke.

"What's the schedule for this afternoon? "

The guard was stunned for a moment before he came back to his senses. "The people from the council will come over for a routine inspection. "

The military district had been expanded. Huo Ting was not the only one who had to be meticulous in understanding these details. The higher-ups would also send people over to understand them.

To put it nicely, they were here to inspect, but in reality, they were here to monitor Huo Ting's every move.

Since the military district had been handed over to Huo Ting, there were naturally some people who were dissatisfied and had to be wary of him.

Huo Ting furrowed his brows slightly. He got up and walked out of the door. "Let's go get some air. "

The guard glanced at the food on the table and followed after him.

He first went to the combat training ground to guide the recruits, then took a detour to the shooting range.

This place was not fully open yet, and only a few higher-level soldiers could enter. So when Huo Ting went in, there was no one inside.

There were only two pistols on the reserve table, and a box of half-used .45 caliber bullets.

Huo Ting looked down in understanding. There was no need to think. Su Xiangxiang must have used the leftovers.

He walked over and slowly loaded the bullets into the gun. Then, he loaded the gun and skillfully started shooting at the 25-meter target.

All of his movements were basically inertia.

After one round, two bullets missed the target.

No one in the field reported the ring, but the guard saw it clearly.

He subconsciously widened his eyes and looked at Huo Ting in disbelief... ..

Was he seeing things?

The chief, who had always been a hundred percent accurate, actually... .. actually missed the target ? ?

And even though he missed the target, he didn't see any slight change in the chief's expression?

This... .. What was going on ? ?

In fact, Huo Ting did not even notice how many rounds he had hit. All he was thinking about was the situation where he had taught Su Xiangxiang that day.

A recruit who had no foundation at all would need at least a few months of training before he could barely pass.

Su Xiangxiang had only trained for a few days, what results could she get?

It was obvious that she would definitely embarrass herself if she attended that family banquet today.

Thinking about how she had missed a few rounds that day, Huo Ting put down his gun and raised his hand to pinch the space between his eyebrows.

That girl, when she mentioned the Su Family's family banquet, she looked listless and listless.

She wouldn't be bullied if she went, right?

Huo Ting turned to the side and sighed slightly.

He had eaten so much of her food these past few days... ..

As the saying goes, eating a person's mouth is soft, but taking a person's hand is short.

He couldn't just stand by and watch her get bullied, right.

Moreover, since he had decided to get married, she would be his woman from now on.

How could his woman be easily bullied by others?

The more he thought about it, the more huó ting frowned. He threw down his gun and walked out. "Get the car ready."

"???" The guard paused. He didn't understand what the chief was thinking. "where is the chief going?"

"Do you know where the Su family's banquet is?" Huo Ting asked coldly.

"I don't know..." The guard shook his head.

How would he know about the Su Family?

"Go and investigate." Huo Ting didn't give him time to think. His tone became heavier. "Immediately!"

Chapter 1346: oh my God, someone save her!

"Yes!" The guard instantly stood in a military posture and answered firmly!

However, when he finished answering, he realized that something was wrong. "Chief, are you going out? But someone will come and check on you later..."

"Am I not an eyesore to them by being here?" Huo Ting snorted and his eyes were extremely gloomy.

It was obvious that those people must have been sent by Lu Yiming.

Lu Yiming's heart only suited him if he wasn't here!

It just so happened that he was feeling suffocated and wanted to go out for a walk.

At the same time... .. He returned the favor of eating that girl's food for the past few days ...

He had always been a person who didn't like to owe others anything.

"..."the guard was so embarrassed that he wanted to cough. However, he was glared at by Huo Ting and forced it back. He turned around and opened the door.

Lin Xi's shooting range in the north of the city.

Private shooting range.

It was usually not open to the public. This time, it was the SU family who came out and specially rented this place for a day.

From the name of this shooting range, it was also known that the owner of this place was called Lin Xi.

The shooting range had been cleared long ago, and the people who came were all members of the Su family.

Since it was a family banquet, everyone dressed casually when they came, and no one wore military uniforms.

Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian, the two brothers, were dressed in suits and leather shoes, and they looked very handsome.

The two brothers sat on both sides of the backseat, and Su Xiangxiang sat in the middle.

She was also dressed up today, and it was unusually gorgeous.

However... ..

Su Xiangxiang tugged at the Hem of her skirt for the fifth time, and she lamented, "since I'm already at the shooting range, I thought I could 'travel light' ..."

This 'travel light' naturally did not mean that she would not wear it. She just thought that she could wear it casually.

Who knew that her mother had specially brought her a set of clothes this morning. She said that she would definitely let her change into this set of clothes so that she would look like the main character of a family banquet.

Helplessly, Su Xiangxiang did not want to disappoint her mother, so she could only change into this set of clothes.

Su Zhilian looked at his sister and commented while resting his chin on his hand, "she looks pretty good! Isn't our little princess supposed to dress like this?"

"... she does look good, but it's not convenient at all!" Su Xiangxiang spread out her hands, feeling rather helpless ...

"It's just a pistol shooting, relax." Su Zhihang also glanced at his sister, his eyes clear and calm.

Su Xiangxiang, "..."

She also wanted to relax.

But this princess dress and her frequent miss-the-target battle record, she really didn't want to come to this place to lose face.

Covering her face, Su Xiangxiang lamented. It would be great if someone came to save her!

"Alright! Xiangxiang, YOU HAVE TO BE OPTIMISTIC! Maybe those b * Stars from uncle's family are even weaker than you?" Su Zhilian brushed the strands of hair on his forehead, saying with great confidence and joy.

Su Xiangxiang felt her scalp go numb. "second brother, didn't you hear what third uncle said before? Cousin Qing took a sniper rifle when she was 12 years old?"

Every family was like this. They would compete with any kind of aristocratic family.

For example, the Yan family would compete to see who was better at business and who would make money.

The Xia family would compete in means, politics, and the art of controlling people.

The Su family didn't have anything else. They were in the military for n generations. Naturally, they would compete in marksmanship, military ranks, military merits, and so on... ..

Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian could be considered the cream of the crop in the Su family. They had been in the limelight since they were young and completely outclassed the children of those uncles' families.

Now that Su Xiangxiang was finally born, and she was not very famous, they were still not in a hurry to find a family to hold a family banquet. On the surface, they said that they wanted the children to come out to gain experience, but in reality, everyone knew that they wanted to step on Su Xiangxiang. They wanted to make Su Jiangong's family lose face.

When she thought of this, Su Xiangxiang sighed even more heavily... ..

Oh my God, someone save her!

Chapter 1347: what kind of benefits do you want to get?

Su Zhilian listened to this and thought about it seriously. Then he nodded and said, "yeah, I think so. "

In Su Jiangong's generation, including his cousins, there were a total of nine siblings.

Su Jiangong was the eldest in the family, and people outside called him boss Su.

The cousin sister that Su Xiang mentioned was the only daughter of her fourth aunt, Fu Wanqing. She was the same age as Su Xiangxiang and they played together when they were young. However, they rarely saw each other when they grew up, but because she was too outstanding.. Therefore, people in the family often talked about her.

In fact, strictly speaking, Fu Wanqing couldn't be considered a member of the Su family. However, her mother, Su Zhiya, liked Su Xiangxiang's grandfather very much, so she was able to hang around the SU family.

However, this hanging around gave Su Xiangxiang even more pressure.

Su Zhihang looked at his sister who was frowning and said, "no matter what, you're still someone who has an engagement with Huo Ting. They don't dare to make things difficult for you. "

It would have been better if she didn't say this, but when she said this, Su Xiangxiang felt even sadder in her heart!

"They knew that I had an engagement with Huo Ting, so they deliberately wanted to hold a family banquet so that I could embarrass myself... " Su Xiangxiang pouted. She mumbled, "I didn't get any benefits at all. Instead, I got into so much trouble because of this engagement... "

If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have been so soft-hearted and agreed to this engagement.

Su Xiangxiang sighed for the umpteenth time. She was really afraid of these aunties!

Su Zhilian, on the other hand, had nothing to do with her. He was so high and mighty, yet he still had the mood to tease her “Xiangxiang, what benefits do you want to get Huo Ting has opened up a big backdoor for you You should know that in our area, we have the right to kill anyone who trespasses on the spot But you, not only are you free to go in and out, the entire shooting range is yours!”

The three siblings did not quarrel with each other for long before the car stopped.

The elders in front of them all got out of the car one by one. Only then did Su Xiangxiang get out of the car with her two brothers.

At this moment, there was already a crowd of people standing in front of Su Xiangxiang. All of them were staring at her as if they were looking at a gorilla in a zoo.

Su Zhilian sighed in his heart, but he could only pretend that he did not see anything. He lifted the hem of his skirt and carefully got out of the car.

Su Zhilian helped Su Xiangxiang up and was noticed by the chatty people around him. “Look, it’s just a shooting range. Do you have to dress so luxuriously? You really think of yourself as a princess. You even need someone to support you when you get out of the car. How Noble is that?”

“How noble can it be? The blood flowing in your body is the same as ours!”

“She can be considered a Weirdo in our family! I heard that she was raised elsewhere since she was young. Who knows what kind of poor country she is? I don’t know what kind of taste the huo family has, but they just fell for her!”

Su Xiangxiang, “...” she silently let go of her second brother’s hand.

Su Zhilian also heard the conversation. He did not take it to heart at all anyway. “They just say that grapes are sour because they can’t eat them! Let’s go Xiangxiang, second brother will take you in!”

As he said that, he took a step forward and walked into the field.

Su Xiangxiang casually glanced at the shooting range in front of her.

She had come here once a few years ago. n./o/- $\mathcal{V}()$ (E-)L)- $\mathcal{B}$ //l-(n

At that time, the place was even more desolate. There were rocks everywhere, but now it seemed to be more refreshing and exquisite.

The mountains and rivers were beautiful, and the scenery was not bad. At the foot of the mountain, there was a circle of lush jungle surrounding it.

There was also Lin Xi. It had been a long time since they had last seen each other... ..

Chapter 1348: Don’t steal the limelight

Entering the inner court, a line of about ten cousins began to greet each other.

Su Xiangxiang was not very familiar with these people, but she could still recognize their faces.

After following her parents for a round, third uncle, fourth aunt, fifth uncle, and sixth uncle all called her, and she felt numb.

Soon, the target shooting competition began.

The fourth aunt, who originally looked quite normal, began to act like a demon at this time.

“Big Brother, you’re really lucky! Zhihang and Zhilian are both so outstanding, and now that Xiangxiang also has such a good in-laws, presumably, this shooting is also an outstanding person, right?” Su Zhiya said Her eyes glanced at Su Xiangxiang, and her gaze was unkind.

Su Xiangxiang sighed secretly and began to act like a demon.

Lin wanqiong naturally heard the hidden meaning in Su Zhiya’s words and did not expose it. She immediately smiled at the girl behind Su Zhiya and praised her “Our Xiangxiang has been spoiled by her two brothers since she was young. How can she compare to Wanqing? Even her grandfather praised her!”

She did not know if Lin Wanqiong did it on purpose, but when Su Xiangxiang heard her say the word ‘grandfather’ , she seemed to bite especially hard.

Su Xiangxiang hurriedly raised her eyes to look at Su Zhiya. As expected, she saw the corners of her eyes and mouth twitching... ..

Her mother’s words were amazing. She emphasized that no matter how amazing Fu Wanqing was, she was only a granddaughter and could not be compared to the Su family.

It was also equivalent to reminding Su Zhiya not to steal the spotlight.

Su Zhiya was so angry that her face turned black, but the daughter behind her had a smile on her face. She said gently, “aunt, sister Xiangxiang has always been the role model for our sisters. We should all learn from her.”

Su Xiangxiang looked at Fu Wanqing, but when she saw that her smile was calm and friendly, she could not find anything wrong with it.

But when she said that... .. No matter how she looked at it, it sounded like sarcasm ? ?

Everyone knew that she had been raised outside since she was young, so she had no chance to practice shooting. Today, she was here to make a fool of herself... .. And she even said that she wanted to learn from her ...

As a mother, how could Lin Wanqiong tolerate others mocking her precious daughter?

Just as she was about to flare up, Su Jiangong, who was beside her, coughed and said with a dark face, “Xiang, Wanqing, you guys go and get ready. The competition is about to start.”

Su Jiangong hated this kind of intrigue between brothers and relatives. They were all fighting over each other.

His younger siblings were all disappointing. As the eldest brother, he could not be a good-for-nothing and support the family. Could he just watch the family fall into despair?

However, when he supported the whole family, his younger siblings started to be jealous again... ..

They used to be jealous of him, but now they were jealous of his child... ..

Su Jiangong buried his forehead in his palm and sighed again.

When Su Zhiya heard that the shooting competition was about to start, she immediately calmed down and looked at her daughter. "perform well. Don't let GRANDPA down, and don't let mom down, okay?"

Fu Wanqing's heart trembled. She roughly knew how she would be punished if she didn't perform well today.

She bit her lower lip and nodded slightly.

Su Zhiya hugged her again. "This is mommy's good daughter. Go ahead."

Fu Wanqing turned back to look at Su Xiangxiang. She had wanted to invite her to go with her, but she didn't expect to see Lin Wanqiong and Su Jiangong surrounding her.

"Xiangxiang, don't be nervous. Just hit her." Su Jiangong Patted Su Xiangxiang's head, looking like a loving father.

Chapter 1349: he was definitely here to look for Su Xiangxiang

Lin wanqiong smoothed Su Xiangxiang's long hair and encouraged her, "we're just here to have fun. Relax! How about mom and dad bring the three of you to Central Street for hotpot tonight?"

"Sure!" Su Xiangxiang hurriedly nodded. Her parents' care and love instantly dispelled the fear and timidity in her heart.

She raised her big smile and said, "MOM and dad, I'll go over first."

"Okay."

"Go ahead."

Su Jiangong and Lin Wanqiong smiled as they sent her off.

Fu Wanqing, who was at the side, saw this and her hands, which were hanging by her side, were already creaking.

Su Xiangxiang wanted to come over and greet her again, but she turned a blind eye. She snorted coldly, turned around, and left.

"..."Su Xiangxiang blinked her eyes. She didn't look for trouble and walked on her own path.

During the shooting competition, only a few cousins, who were about the same age as Su Xiangxiang, were choosing their own guns in the shooting shed in the shooting range.

Behind them was a slightly larger shed where the elders of the Su family were sitting.

Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian were already international-level players. Naturally, they didn't need to participate in such a child-like competition.

The two of them sat at the back. Su Zhilian was bored and began to look around. He wanted to take a walk, but he saw a familiar military jeep driving toward them.

When the car was closer and he could see the license plate clearly, Su Zhilian turned around and looked at his brother. "brother, did we invite Huo Ting to our family banquet?"

Su Zhilian heard this and frowned. He looked back at Su Zhilian as if he was looking at a fool.

"He wasn't invited. Why did he come?" Su Zhilian was still in a daze. He didn't understand why.

Su Zhihang finally understood what he meant. "Huo Ting is here? where?"

"Yes. Isn't that so?" Su Zhilian pointed behind Su Zhihang.

Su Zhihang turned around and looked in the direction Su Zhilian pointed. He saw that the military jeep had stopped not far away. Huo Ting just got out of the car. He was dressed in military uniform and looked very handsome.

He walked straight towards the shooting range without any hesitation.

Su Zhihang was also stunned and couldn't speak for a long time.

This was the SU family's family banquet. Outsiders would not be invited.

Then how did Huo Ting know about this place?

Could it be that Xiang Xiang told him?

Just as this thought popped up, Su Zhilian acted as if he suddenly understood. "Oh, I know. He must be here to look for Xiang Xiang."

After saying that, he smiled ambiguously. "This kid, is he fascinated by our Xiang Xiang? Hahahaha! Xiang Xiang is really good. In the future, let her call me second brother with Huo Ting! Let's see if he still dares to punish me for doing push-ups in the future!"

As soon as he said that, there was the sound of gunshots coming from the shooting range. Then, someone announced, "let the match begin!"

Then, the score began to be calculated.

"Su Zhicheng, .45 caliber, M1911 pistol, 25 meters!"

This was one of Su Xiangxiang's cousins, second uncle's family. He did not look good and even stuttered a little when he spoke. However, he had a docile personality and was very good to people.

He stood beside Su Xiangxiang. Su Xiangxiang added fuel to his fire while she was at it. "Good Luck, brother Zhicheng!"

Su Zhicheng smiled and nodded at her. Then, he walked past her and went to the shooting position in front.

After he left, sixth uncle's eldest daughter, Su Wei'er, said sarcastically, "it's such a cold day, and we have to come out with so many people because of a certain person. You're really putting on a big front!"

Chapter 1350: you, Miss, have no temper

The temperature in the suburbs was lower than in the city, especially near the mountainside. Su Wei'er adjusted her clothes, her eyebrows knotted from the cold.

She was also a good-for-nothing when it came to shooting, so she hated such occasions.

Her heart was burning with anger, and she had nowhere to vent it, so she could only scold Su Xiangxiang to vent her anger.

Su Xiangxiang listened to this inexplicable complaint, and her hand, which was playing with the gun, paused slightly.

"There's something I've said before, and I don't like such occasions and competitions." Her tone was not good. Su Xiangxiang frowned and subconsciously glanced at Fu Wanqing, who was standing at the end.

Among the siblings, Fu Wanqing's marksmanship was the best. This so-called family banquet was also instigated by Su Zhiya. The goal was very simple. She wanted to let her daughter shine at the family banquet.

Su Wei'er noticed Su Xiangxiang's gaze. She did not say it directly, but she continued to scold Su Xiangxiang "Isn't that because you, the young miss, don't have a temper? It's fine if you let any Tom, Dick, or Harry ride on your head and behave atrociously, but you're being led by an outsider's nose!"

These words were obviously referring to the mulberry tree and the Locust Tree. As for this outsider... ..

All the children present had the surname Su, except Fu Wanqing.

Fu Wanqing's hand, which was selecting bullets, suddenly froze.

She raised her eyes to look at Su Wei'er, her face somewhat Pale.

"Su Wei'er, what do you mean? Your grandfather is also my grandfather!" Fu Wanqing was originally in a bad mood, but after being ridiculed by Su Wei'er, her expression immediately changed.

"That's right, you already said that you're my grandfather. Isn't grandfather an outsider?" Su Wei'er sneered fiercely, completely ignoring her. She took the gun, bypassed Su Xiangxiang, and stood at the spot where Su Zhicheng had just stood. n-o))v-/e-.l--B)/1(-n

After Su Zhicheng finished fighting, it was her turn.

This order was also decided by the drawing of lots. Su Xiangxiang was the last one.

She didn't know if it was luck or someone deliberately let her be the last one?

She didn't have time to think about the tricks in this. Fu Wanqing was already hopping mad. "So what if your surname is Su? Don't forget that you have a sister Xiangxiang with a good family background and good in-laws in front of you! Even if you're an Orthodox member of the Su family, you'll never be able to make a name for yourself!"

Su Xiangxiang continued to load the bullets with a baffled look.

She didn't even say a word. How could two people quarrel over her head?

Sure enough, Su Wei'er turned her eyes and glared at Su Xiangxiang. She sneered mockingly. "Well, then let everyone see clearly how good our Su family's eldest daughter's marksmanship is!"

Hearing this, Su Xiangxiang immediately understood. The finale was most likely arranged by Su Wei'er.

Knowing that Su Xiangxiang's marksmanship was terrible, she deliberately let her be the finale. Wasn't this letting everyone laugh at her to death... ..

After Su Wei'er finished speaking, Su Zhicheng's shooting ended. The scoring staff called Su Wei'er's name, and she went on stage.

Su Wei'er did not disappoint and got a 0. All of them missed the target.

Fu Wanqing snorted disdainfully, and Su Xiangxiang seemed to see herself for a while... ..

The elders sitting in the back row did not make a sound. Their faces were especially ugly. Su Wei'er was so embarrassed that her face was red. She ran off the stage.

Next, Fu Wanqing went up on stage.

After a few shots, she began to announce the target.

"Five bullets, three shots on target, two shots with seven points, one shot with eight points, a total of 22 points!"

When the elders in the back heard this, their faces slowly turned better, especially Su Zhiya's. Her face was filled with pride!
