

Trick Me 1391

Chapter 1391: he was just a child... ..

He couldn't care less anymore. He left Huo Ting, who was still sick, and went straight to the front line to command the counter-terrorism rescue.

The gathering of the elite troops took only ten minutes.

Half an hour later, all the terrorists in the jurisdiction were annihilated.

After that, Grandfather Huo was commended for his outstanding ability to respond and command.

But even so, more than a thousand people still lost their lives that afternoon.

Three office buildings with more than 50 floors were destroyed. A central square, four old streets, and a kindergarten.

Thinking about those things back then, grandfather huo closed his eyes regretfully.

"Lu Yiming, I can understand your mentality as a victim of the September 15 incident. But now that you're doing this, how are you different from those thugs back then?" Grandfather Huo opened his eyes again, and his eyes were unusually sharp!

Could it be that just because he was a victim, he could take revenge on society without any scruples?

"Ha... don't confuse me with them. If I wanted to kill people, I wouldn't use such bloody and despicable methods." Lu Yiming pursed his lips and sneered at those murderers back then ...

No plan, no ART, no intelligence... ..

"What else do you want? Since the things of the past are already in the past, you have already run for president, and you have the support of so many people. You can walk on the path of righteousness and be a president WHO LOVES THE PEOPLE LIKE A SON!"

Grandfather Huo sighed in disappointment. He really wished he could open Lu Yiming's head and see what he was obsessed with!

Born as a person, he was bitter and bitter. Whether it was luck or misfortune, everyone had to face it. No one could escape it!

However, if everyone was stubborn and used their misfortune as an excuse to do more evil things, the world would be in chaos long ago!

Lu Yiming gritted his teeth and stared at Grandfather Huo "It's easy for you to say, but what about my wife What about my son My son was only five months old, but he was dug out of the womb and used to brew wine What did he do wrong? ! He was still so young, why did you treat him like this ? He's just a child... " " " " "

He would never forget that scene and scene.

He rushed into the house and saw bi yue lying on the ground alone, covered in blood. There was a huge gash on her stomach, and her intestines flowed all over the floor... ..

His hands were trembling, and he couldn't care less about his blurred vision. He picked up the pile of intestines and hurriedly stuffed them back into her stomach... ..

He would never forget what it felt like.

It wasn't enough to describe what it felt like to have an open wound and deep hatred... ..

Grandfather Huo,"..."

He did not know what happened after that.

The casualties were so heavy that there were more than a thousand people. How could he take care of all of them?

Later on, 120 people arrived and sent their injuries to be treated. Later on, the names of the dead were recorded. How could Lu Yiming and his wife not be included?

Grandfather Huo frowned. "You hid information?"

At that time, whether it was the media reports or the government, they were all very concerned about this matter.

Many officials were fired and investigated because of that matter, not to mention promotions and such.

Those who were related to that matter did not have a good ending.

However, not only did Lu Yiming survive, he also hid his past and successfully infiltrated the disciplinary committee. In the end... .. He was actually nominated as president ...

Chapter 1392: the new container

What should he say?

Should he say that he would have good fortune if he survived the disaster?

Or should he say that he was extremely capable and extremely powerful?

If he wasn't so extreme, perhaps he would have been praised by the later generations as an extremely inspiring example.

Lu Yiming listened to grandfather Huo's question, but he felt that it was like a joke.

"I hid information? Wasn't it you who falsely reported the number of casualties back then? 2,209 people died at the scene, and 1,871 were injured! But what about you? You falsely reported that there were no more than 2,000 casualties! has your conscience been eaten by dogs? !"

These questions forced grandfather huos to be speechless.

Indeed.

They had falsely reported the number of deaths and injuries back then.

“Once the riot broke out and the 4,000 deaths and injuries were spread out, the people’s hearts would definitely be stirred!” Grandfather Huo gritted his teeth. Even now, he still felt that this decision back then was the right one!

“In order to appease the people’s hearts, you let so many of them die in vain? Is this what you should do as the people in power?”

Grandfather Huo frowned. “even if their deaths were not announced, the higher-ups have already allocated double the pension. They have not lost a single bit of what they should have!”

“pension?” Lu Yiming’s face twisted even more when he heard these three words “Don’t lie to yourself, chief. Who did those pensions go to? You’re not going to tell me that you don’t know, are you? Do you think that we will see a single word? You didn’t see many people being kicked out of the hospital because they didn’t have money, right? Your grandson, Huo Ting, was in the hospital that day, right? You were in the high-class Ward and received the best treatment, but what about us? We were covered in injuries. We deserved to be kicked out, right?” “!”

“...” Grandfather Huo’s face was as dark as an abyss, and he couldn’t refute a single word.

Lu Yiming then cursed a few more profanities. When he brought up what happened back then, a ball of fire burned in his heart. It rushed straight to the top of his head, burning his entire body.

He tore off his tie with one hand. Without those restraints, he seemed to be able to catch his breath.

After a long while, Grandfather Huo continued, “since you’ve endured it for so long, why didn’t you wait until you became the president before taking revenge on us?”

Karma. Who planted the Karma and who bore the consequences? How could he still be clear about it now? no! ve) LB-In Grandfather Huo closed his eyes, unwilling to cling to the past anymore.

The important thing was the present.

Lu Yiming, who had always hidden himself well, why couldn’t he hold it in all of a sudden?

“When will I take revenge on all of you? Is there a conflict with whether I’m president or not?” Lu Yiming suddenly sneered, extremely deliberately.

Actually... ..

It was because he had received the news that Yan Jun had left Rao city.

In addition, Fang Shaoan had already defected, so the number of votes he could get was already more than Xia Chuanxu’s.

Everything seemed to have become a permanent residence.

He was already nominated as president, and he would officially take office next spring. What was there to be afraid of?

Just as Yan Jun often said, after this winter, everything would end.

Lu Yiming also had this thought.

No matter what, starting from next spring, he would have a new identity, enjoying that high and mighty position, enjoying the feeling of overlooking all living things... ..

Before all of this came, of course, he had to wipe away all the stains from the past.

Of course, there was also the most important point.

Bi Yue's condition was getting worse.

Many of her organs began to fail, and there was even a sudden cardiac arrest.

He couldn't wait any longer.

He had to finish everything as soon as possible and get Xia Jinqi so that Bi Yue's brainwaves could have a new container... ..

Chapter 1393: If you do anything wrong, you will die.

"You won't be president." Grandfather Huo poured cold water on him. "Even if you are lucky enough to become president, countless people will send you to hell."

"..." Lu Yiming's face froze.

Grandfather Huo continued, "in this world, justice still prevails. Lu Yiming, if you do anything wrong, you will die."

"You!" Lu Yiming clenched his hands that were hanging by his side. His blood-red eyes were about to pop out of their sockets!

If it weren't for the fact that it was Huo Tianlin who personally led the troops to save him from being surrounded by a hail of bullets during the 9 / 15 incident, Lu Yiming really wanted to punch him!

At this moment, Lu Yiming's phone vibrated.

It was a call from Qu Yang.

He picked it up. "What's the matter?"

"Sir, Huo Ting is here."

"..." Lu Yiming's expression turned extremely ugly in an instant. He was silent for a second before saying, "block him first. I'll be there right away."

Then, he hung up the phone.

He turned around and glared at Grandfather Huo before he turned around and left.

After he left, the door was closed again.

Then, there was a clicking sound as the door was locked.

In the darkness, Grandfather Huo softened his body and leaned against the wall. "Ah..."

A cold wind blew in from a window above his head and then blew through the gap between the door and the floor, causing the door to creak.

Grandfather Huo looked out of the window and could vaguely see a few snowflakes falling down.

The snow had yet to stop.

In less than two hours, Rao Cheng had wrapped himself up in silver and transformed into a world of snow.

There was still no snow on Arqi Island.

It was an exception. It was a pure land that was not disturbed.

The children had yet to be picked up. Yan Jun and Leng Sicheng, Xing Chen, were discussing in the meeting room. Xia Jinqi brought the fragrant coffee to the Cyber Command Room.

In the vast space, only ran Xiangsi was there. ~~no~~^{no} ~~le~~^{le} ~~lb~~^{lb} -In

She sat alone in front of three computers. One of the swivel chairs was very busy. One moment she was controlling the first computer, the next she was controlling the third computer.

Her hand speed was also extremely fast. The speed at which she typed on the keyboard was so fast that it was almost double.

Especially at this moment, her expression was very serious. It was as if at this moment, in her eyes, other than the rows of lines of code on the computer, nothing else mattered.

It was completely different from the mischievous girl who had been smiling at her in the afternoon.

Xia Jinqi hesitated for a moment. She didn't know if she should make a sound to disturb her?

Just as she was about to turn around and leave, a male voice suddenly appeared in the empty room. "guest at the door, since you're here, why don't you come in? Master will definitely be very happy to have you here."

"..."Xia Jinqi froze and subconsciously began to search the room.

She only saw ran Xiangsi inside. Why was there someone else?

Before Xia Jinqi could find a trace of her, ran Xiangsi had already turned around and looked at her.

"Jinqi? Why are you here? Is something the matter?" Ran Xiangsi frowned slightly. She did not expect her to come looking for her at this time.

After all, in the afternoon... .. Cough cough ...

After hearing ran Xiangsi's words, Xia Jinqi did not plan to leave. She carried her coffee and walked in again. "I didn't have a chance to talk properly in the afternoon, so I came to see you."

After that, she placed the steaming hot coffee in front of RAN Xiangsi. "I'll have to trouble you to stay up late tonight."

"No trouble, no trouble." Ran Xiangsi finally let go of her tense emotions and waved her hands repeatedly.

Chapter 1394: In you can directly call me 'handsome'

Just now, she had been working on the security of the network and had made sure that it was tight to prevent her from being attacked by the hackers when she was hijacking the satellite.

As a hacker, besides having the ability to break through the defenses of others, the ability to protect oneself was indispensable.

Just as the security had been set up, Xia Jinqi happened to come over. There was also coffee as a reward. It was really the best leisure time.

Although the coffee was a Cappuccino, it was a little sweet for her... ..

But, she still liked it!

"Thank you, you even specially brought me coffee!" Ran Xiangsi put down the coffee that she had just taken a sip of and smiled at Xia Jinqi.

"You're welcome." Xia Jinqi smiled as well. She then looked around and asked, "Is there anyone else here?"

The male voice that she heard just now seemed to have come from here. However, Xia Jinqi looked around a few times and did not find anyone else besides Ran Xiangsi.

"Oh, you're talking about the princess! He's an artificial intelligence." After introducing her, Ran Xiangsi turned her head and looked at her computer screen. She called out, "Princess, this is Xia Jinqi, my friend."

The moment she finished speaking, that deep and pleasant male voice sounded once again, filling the entire empty command room.

"Hello, Miss Xia. Please allow me to introduce myself. I was created by my master, the Great Miss Ran Xiangsi, on her own initiative. My name..." when she said this.. He paused for a moment. The Blue Pattern on the screen twisted into a ball, as if it represented the struggle in his heart. "My name... don't mention it. You can just call me 'handsome'."

This self-introduction was a little... .. Long ...

Ran Xiangsi almost spat out the words she heard. "handsome? Where did you learn that from?"

"Respected Master, I just updated the latest Internet language pack," the princess replied.

"Alright, just don't follow the bad example!" Ran Xiangsi continued to wave her hands, looking especially disgusted.

After that, she directly told Xia Jinqi, “don’t listen to his nonsense. He’s called the princess. I also have a golden hair called the prince. They’re a couple. I used to be more of an Otaku and didn’t go out much. I didn’t have many friends, so they were the only ones who could accompany me.”

Princess,” ... Master, please change your name.”

“I won’t change it,” ran Xiangsi replied without any hesitation. “What a good name!”

Princess,” ...”with a Chirp, the blue icon representing him on the screen instantly disappeared.

Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows curiously. Before she could ask what this meant, she heard ran Xiangsi say, “he’s throwing a tantrum again. It’s fine, let’s talk about us.”

Xia Jinqi,” ...”he seemed to be really smart. He even knew how to get angry... ... n-/0vElb1n

“Oh right, I’m sorry about this afternoon. I saw that you were good-looking and that you were so affectionate with Mr. Yan, so I looked at you for a while longer,” ran xiangsi smiled embarrassedly.

In fact, she didn’t feel it at first. Later, when she calmed down, she realized that this was the first time they had met. She should have been more reserved. She was afraid that she would scare others.

Xia Jinqi saw that her face was slightly red and seemed to be very embarrassed. She smiled and shook her head. “It’s okay. Yan Jun and I are already very grateful that you and Mr. Xing could come and help us. Don’t mind these things.”

Just now, before Xia Jinqi came, Xing Chen had looked for Xia Jinqi and told her that ran Xiangsi had this personality. When she met someone she liked, she would be like this. Occasionally, she would be a little mischievous, but she had a good heart.

Chapter 1395: the era of big data

“actually, you don’t have to thank me. This is what I should do.” Ran Xiangsi smiled embarrassedly. Her expression was awkward, but she still decided to tell her about the past “When I was young and famous, my heart was as high as the sky. I heard that the Rothschild family was the most mysterious and richest family in the world, so I made a bet with my peers. Then, I hacked one of the Rothschild family’s banks and secretly got some money out. But don’t worry, I didn’t take it for myself. I donated all of it to do good!”

If Ran Xiangsi didn’t want to talk about this, she could hide it for the rest of her life. However, seeing Xia Jinqi being so amiable and hiding it from her, she didn’t feel good either.

However, what ran Xiangsi didn’t expect was that Xia Jinqi knew very little about the Rothschild family. It could even be said that she was very unfamiliar with it.

At this moment, it sounded as if ran Xiangsi was listening to other people’s gossip. She hurriedly asked, “so powerful? Can you secretly transfer the money in the bank?”

Just listening to the identity of a hacker made people feel very curious and yearning.

In the past, Xia Jinqi had only seen the deeds of these people on television news or Weibo. Today was the first time she had seen a real hacker!

Moreover, it was such a cute girl!

Originally, Ran Xiangsi was waiting to be criticized, but when she heard Xia Jinqi's words, it seemed like...
... She wasn't angry ??

She didn't scold herself, but instead, they started to talk about other topics.

This... ..

"Yes... yes..." she answered embarrassedly ...

"They won't trace it back to you?" Xia Jinqi asked again, the corners of her eyes and brows filled with curiosity.

"No..." Ran Xiangsi continued to shake her head stiffly. Then, she explained to her.. "We hackers all have a unique way to launder money. Using A well-programmed program, we can make a sum of money go around the world within a minute. We use foreign servers and websites, so there's no way to trace it within the country."

Of course, a top-notch hacker like ran Xiangsi could usually be done within thirty seconds.

Since they were talking about money laundering, Xia Jinqi instinctively thought of Lu Yiming's source of funds.

The police couldn't find any traces of Lu Yiming's money laundering, so what about top-notch hackers?

"Xiangsi, then can you reverse-trace these money laundering accounts?" Xia Jinqi suddenly looked at ran Xiangsi with interest.

"REVERSE-TRACE?" Ran Xiangsi hesitated for a moment and took another sip of coffee.

But it wasn't impossible, it was just that... .. The amount of work was a little big ...

But seeing Xia Jinqi's sincere gaze and the cup of warm coffee in her hand, why not help her?

"That's fine, but who do you want to check?" Ran Xiangsi finally put down the Coffee Cup.

"His name is Lu Yiming." Xia Jinqi saw that she had agreed to it, so she hurriedly said, "we checked his accounts before, and they're all clean. Even the Internet police can't do anything about it."

As she said this, Xia Jinqi took out a photo of Lu Yiming's ID card from her phone and showed it to ran Xiangsi.

Ran Xiangsi took it and entered some information into the computer. Soon, she found all the relevant information about Lu Yiming in the big database.

Identity cards, residential addresses, work units, bank card information, even the restaurants and hotels that had recently used credit cards, all of them were at a glance.

In the era of big data, everyone's privacy was minimized.

Chapter 1396: is inhuman!

Ran Xiangsi sifted through all the information, her thin brows gradually creasing together. "from the looks of it, it is indeed very clean."

Even Ran Xiangsi said so, Xia Jinqi's heart really skipped a beat.

It seemed like finding a loophole in Lu Yiming's information could only be a fantasy.

Slightly disappointed, Xia Jinqi still felt like she wouldn't give up. "Logically speaking, there should be a large amount of money flowing through his account, why can't I find it?"

As long as a person lived on earth, there would definitely be traces left behind.

But was Lu Yiming really that good at hiding it? ? ?

Ran Xiangsi listened and thought for a moment. She started to check all the accounts related to Lu Yiming's account "maybe he's clean himself "For example, he authorized another person. This person could be his trusted aide, an accountant, or anyone. This person helps him manage all his money. "In this way, all of his money wouldn't flow from his account. Naturally, you wouldn't be able to find anything."

This was a well-known rule in the hacker circle.

However, Xia Jinqi seemed to have been enlightened. Her original thinking was suddenly broken.

Just as she was about to think of something, Xia Jinqi's phone rang.

After picking up the call and saying a few words, Xia Jinqi's expression changed slightly. She hurriedly turned around and said to Xiangsi, "Xiangsi, I'll go over first. There are servants outside. If you need anything, just tell her directly or ask her to come find me."

"Okay, you can go." Xiangsi nodded and watched Xia Jinqi leave with a smile on her face.

After Xia Jinqi left, she took another sip of coffee before fully concentrating on her work.

She used her own resources to find out as much information as possible about Lu Yiming.

After checking them one by one, she was in a dilemma. "How can there really be no trace at all? Could it be that this Lu Yiming... isn't human? ... He's inhuman!"

After saying a few words, she directly blew up the angry princess.

"Master, swearing is a bad behavior," she said seriously.

"I didn't swear!" Ran Xiangsi shook her head and refused to admit her guilt. "swearing is like this: F * Ck Your GRANDPA!"

The princess said, "master, swearing is also a bad behavior."

"Okay, okay, I won't tease you anymore." Xiangsi couldn't help but laugh. She didn't expect to argue with an artificial intelligence!

After calming down, she focused on the computer again. "Princess, help me analyze Lu Yiming's social network and identify the people who have the most contact with him and the most regular people."

"Okay, I'm happy to serve you, my master."

Perhaps the princess herself did not know how much of a lackey she was. She was clearly diving to protest just now!

What happened to her backbone! ! !

Three seconds later, a dialog box popped up on the other computer. It was the list of Lu Yiming's connections that the princess had sorted out in just three seconds.

Most frequently met: Qu Yang, Li Kun, Fang Shaoan, Cui Ziyan.

The names were ranked according to the number of people they met, from high to low.

Most regularly met:

Once a month: Zhao Chongbin.

Once a week: Jin Weiguang.

The information was extracted from the surveillance cameras of the major shopping malls, hotels, and entertainment clubs in Rao city. The facial features of the people who met Lu Yiming were then compared in the face database. The identity of the person could be obtained in a second.

Chapter 1397: Are you leaving now?

Artificial intelligence had greatly increased the efficiency of human work. At the same time, it had also achieved high-precision information capture.

Ran Xiangsi rested her chin on her hand and looked at those people carefully. "Let's start with the people with the most regular patterns. Let me see, who exactly is this Jin Weiguang..."

As she muttered, Ran Xiangsi entered the three words "Jin Weiguang" into the computer.

Soon, old Jin's photo popped up.

"Eh, it's an old man!" Ran Xiangsi continued to check his account and found that there was a fixed inflow of funds almost every month. The amount was not large, but it was not small either.

Out of instinct, she checked the source of the money flowing in, but found that the money came from an offshore account. It was very mysterious.

"hiding abroad again?" Xiangsi curled her lips into a smile. At first glance, it looked like this kind of thing was done by a colleague, but the method was a little clumsy. At first glance, there were many flaws.

Even the princess said disdainfully, "there's no technical component. Compared to my master, it's far worse."

“Let’s not check the offshore account for now. Let’s first look at this Zhao Chongbin who we meet once a month... HMM? Is He a doctor?” Xiangsi looked carefully at the hospital where Zhao Chongbin was working. It was a fairly standard public hospital. They had a complete set of medical qualifications and were even qualified to operate independently as professors. “They’re all quite normal...”

Just as she finished mumbling, Xiangsi opened up Zhao Chongbin’s bank account information and was suddenly a little dumbfounded.

“His monthly salary is less than 20,000, but his annual expenditure is a few hundred million?”

Once Xiangsi said that, the princess immediately began to trace Zhao Chongbin’s money chain and soon made a discovery “every once in a while, an offshore account will send money to his account. This offshore account is the same as the offshore account that sent money to Jin Weiguang.”

“interesting.” Ran Xiangsi smiled and looked at the offshore account that connected Zhao Chongbin and Jin Weiguang. She rubbed her hands and was ready to go all out “It looks like we have to find out who owns this account first. Princess, come, connect to the server in the Middle East.”

“Yes, master.”

Just like that, the master and servant began to cooperate happily.

On the other side.

Xia Jinqi received a call from Yan Jun and hurried to the beach.

There were only a few lights on the beach. They were not very bright, and a few speedboats could be vaguely seen floating on the surface of the sea.

The waves were still a little big. Wave after wave came, and the speedboats floated and sank along with the waves.

The sea breeze was also strong. It blew on the body, and it was exceptionally cold to the bone.

Yan Jun’s long body stood in the cold wind.

His black coat made him look even more slender and tall.

He was talking to Wang Mang about something. The index and middle fingers of his right hand held a half-burned cigarette. White smoke curled around the side, adding to the illusion.

A few soldiers at the side saw Xia Jinqi walk over, and they stood in their military positions and saluted, “Young Madam!”

This voice was quite loud, causing Yan Jun and Wang Mang to look at her at the same time.

Xia Jinqi had also been looking at Yan Jun the entire time. The moment he turned his head, their gazes met.

Yan Jun waved his hand, gesturing for Wang Mang to get on the boat first. He then took a few steps in Xia Jinqi’s direction.

When the two of them were less than ten feet apart, they stopped.

Xia Jinqi could not help but reach out to grab his sleeve. "Are you leaving now?"

He had said that he would wait a little longer, but it had only been half an hour when he suddenly said that he was leaving again.

I'm afraid that bad news has come from Rao city.

Chapter 1398: you can rest assured

Yan Jun threw down the cigarette in his hand and reached out to pull her into his embrace.

"I'll go back first. There are still many guests here. Master can't leave all of them." His deep voice immediately echoed in her ears.

When Xia Jinqi heard this, her heart suddenly stopped.

She was just about to open her mouth and want to leave with him.

However, he took the initiative and completely interrupted her thoughts.

While she was in a daze, his thin lips moved close to her ear and whispered softly, "hug the children for me properly."

Hearing the pain in his voice, Xia Jinqi tightened her grip on his sleeve. "Okay. Don't worry."

She knew how much he missed the children.

Now that he was in such a hurry to leave, could it be... .. That something happened to Yan Youcheng ??

Xia Jinqi opened her mouth but suddenly stopped asking.

She quietly leaned into his embrace, enjoying the warmth and reality of this moment.

Thirty seconds later, he released her and turned to leave resolutely.

Xia Jinqi froze in the distance... ..

She raised her eyes and looked at him as he left. A white mist was already lingering in her eyes.

The gravel crunched as he took large strides, and the night wind lifted his dark coat... ..

Soon, he boarded the speedboat.

A wave of ships quickly sailed deep into the sea. In the blink of an eye, they were swallowed by the sea-sky night and disappeared without a trace.

Xia Jinqi hugged her arms, trembling with cold.

She turned around and just took a few steps back when the soldier standing guard next to her pointed in the direction of the sea. "Young Madam, LOOK!"

Xia Jinqi turned around when she heard the sound. She saw a white cruise ship slowly approaching her on the dark sea... ..

On the speedboat.

Yan Jun was sitting on one side. His right hand was on the railing, and he was looking into the distance.

The night wind was very strong, and the sound of the engine was also very loud. The roar along the way was like riding the wind and breaking the waves.

No one noticed that at this moment, Yan Jun's eyes had turned red without a sound.

His eyes were empty as he looked at the other side of the sea. No one knew what he was thinking about.

Wang Mang, who was sitting behind him, would occasionally look at his silhouette with a worried expression. However, he did not dare to ask anything, afraid that it would trigger his sadness.

Fifteen minutes ago, there was bad news from Rao Cheng.

Fang Shaoan had heard from Qu Yang that Lu Yiming had not only captured Yan Youcheng and Huo Tianlin, but also tortured Yan Youcheng with inhuman methods.

At this moment, Yan Youcheng was probably only left with his last breath... ..

Even if Yan Jun rushed back as fast as he could, he was afraid that he would not be able to see Yan Youcheng for the last time.

Every minute and second now was like torture.

Yan Jun sped all the way back to Rao city, and it was already the second day.

Unsurprisingly, Fang Shaoan brought people with him to cordon off the entire city and stopped Yan Jun's car on the grounds that Yan Jun was investigating criminals.

Fang Shaoan was also traveling with Qu Yang.

Obviously, Qu Yang was here to act as a surveillance character.

With him around, even if Fang Shaoan wanted to go easy on him, he couldn't.

Taking out his gun, Fang Shaoan poked at Yan Jun's car before the driver in the car rolled down the window.

"Yan Jun, it seems that I was too lenient last time. You have the strength to run around so quickly?"
Fang Shaoan deliberately lowered his voice, with a cold and mocking smile.

Yan Jun glanced outside the car, his gaze sweeping over Qu Yang Behind Fang Shaoan. Finally, he fixed his gaze on Fang Shaoan. "Let him through."

That cold and stern gaze looked down on him. A haughty air of an emperor rushed over, pressing down on Fang Shaoan's body, causing his entire body to tremble. A cold air instantly rushed to the back of his head!

Chapter 1399: asked Mr. Yan to condescend and get out of the car for inspection

Huh?

This was a little different from the script that they had agreed on earlier... ..

Fang Shaoan and Yan Jun had been brothers for so many years, so they could clearly see that there was something wrong with Yan Jun's gaze.

Could it be that something had happened midway? ? ?

Fang Shaoan didn't have time to think about it. He gritted his teeth and took a deep breath. Very quickly, he reorganized himself. "Get out of the car obediently! I suspect that you have concealed firearms!"

With Qu Yang watching from behind, even if he wanted to let them pass, he had to put on an act first...

...

In this day and age, putting on an act was not easy.

As for Yan Jun, who was sitting in the car, his face darkened. The pressure around him dropped again and again!

Seeing the two of them meet like this, Qu Yang, who had been watching the show, walked out in two steps. He patted Fang Shaoan's shoulder with one hand, but his gaze fell on Yan Jun. "Mr. Yan, please don't blame us. We are just doing our job. "You know, there have been many missing persons cases reported in the city recently. Mr. Lu also attaches great importance to it. He wants us to solve the case as soon as possible. We can't let any of them slip through the net. "Mr. Yan, please condescend and get out of the car for inspection. "

These words were spoken one after another.

Fang Shaoan looked back at him and narrowed his eyes slightly.

Why didn't he feel that Qu Yang's eloquence was this good before?

Could it be that he had learned from Cui Ziyang?

Moreover, it would have been fine if he had not said these things. However, when he did, Yan Jun's handsome face turned even more livid!

Lu Yiming did not only capture Yan Youcheng and Huo Tianlin. In order to cover up his crimes and to stop the public from talking, he had actually created dozens of missing persons cases in the city.

Moreover, these missing people were all people of high status. The kidnappers had called the families of these missing people to extort large amounts of cash.

The disappearance of Yan Youcheng and Huo Tianlin was just a coincidence, not the illusion that someone was targeting them.

Otherwise, the disappearance of the two famous people in Rao city at the same time would have aroused the suspicion of everyone!

Yan Jun had long seen through Lu Yiming's little trick.

At this moment, he was sitting in the car, his jaw was very tight. He leaned against the leather seat and did not intend to get out of the car.

He did not even glance at Qu Yang. Instead, he lowered his eyes, and his right index finger, which was well-defined, tapped gently with a certain rhythm.

"I'll say it again. Let him through." He spoke again, and his calm tone was full of authority!

"..."Qu Yang was also stunned. He obviously did not expect Yan Jun's aura to be so high and mighty. It was as if he was born to be a king. Everyone should submit to him!

Just like that summit, there were so many high-ranking officials and dignitaries in the hall. All of them had extraordinary statuses, but everyone was looking at Yan Jun with their eyes.

Only Yan Jun sat alone in the hall, resting with his eyes closed in peace.

As he sat there, everyone stood there and accompanied him for a few hours. No one dared to complain!

Fang Shaoan saw Qu Yang's hesitation and thought to himself, it has only been a few days since we last met, but second young master Yan's aura has become much stronger.

"enough, you can't talk to him! We..."

Fang Shaoan didn't say anything, but the sound of a grenade came from afar.

"WHOOSH! !"

A huge grenade landed outside the city gate!

At that moment, Fang Shaoan froze on the spot.

In his mind, there was only one sentence: Second Young Master Yan, are you F * * King Crazy Using the thing that blew up the tank to blow me up? ? ? !

Chapter 1400: at least, he would not hurt innocent people

"Bang!" Suddenly, a huge gust of air spread out!

Fang Shaoan and Qu Yang were both affected, and the two of them were thrown to the ground by the strong gust of air!

Ignoring the pain in his body, Fang Shaoan hurriedly turned his head back. What he saw was the flames after the explosion and the billowing smoke!

"..."when he turned his head back, the city gate had already been opened, and Yan Jun's car had already left.

What was left was a pack of wolves at the city gate... ..

Fang Shaoan stood up in a daze and watched Yan Jun leave in a daze.

Based on his understanding of Yan Jun, he would definitely not do such a radical thing unless it was absolutely necessary.

Could it be that Yan Youcheng... ..

Fang Shaoan did not dare to continue thinking.

He had experienced those things once before, and he could understand Yan Jun's feelings at this moment.

Yan Sheng indeed did not have much talent. Yan Jun's ability was also thanks to Yan Youcheng.

If Yan Youcheng really died on Lu Yiming's body, Fang Shaoan could not imagine what Yan Jun would do... ..

Qu Yang also stood up shakily. The loud explosion made his ears ring and his head feel dizzy.

"Quick! CHECK THE CASUALTIES!" Qu Yang shouted. Soon, a group of armed police rushed out of the city and surrounded the explosion site to check one by one.

Two minutes later, the armed police reported, "NO CASUALTIES!"

Qu Yang,"..."

There were no casualties in such a large-scale Explosion?

Was it a coincidence, or did the person who fired the grenade already know the location?

While Qu Yang was in a daze, Fang Shaoan walked over as if nothing had happened and patted him on the shoulder. "Yan Jun knows his limits. He won't kill the innocent. "

With just a casual sentence, Fang Shaoan moved his body and walked towards the explosion site.

Qu Yang, who was still frozen on the spot, was left.

He was stunned and subconsciously thought of what Lu Yiming had done.

Lu Yiming was using the same extreme method. Lu Yiming was treating human lives like grass, while Yan Jun... .. At least, he wouldn't hurt the innocent ...

If Yan Jun was the president, at least many innocent people would be saved... ..

Qu Yang clenched his teeth slightly. When he realized that such a thought had appeared in his mind, he was shocked and broke out in a cold sweat!

The Qu family had been loyal to Lu Yiming for more than ten years, how could he think of helping others to take the position? ! !

And... ..

Qu Yang turned his eyes and looked at Fang Shaoan, who was not far away.

He followed up with a frown, "what did you mean just now? Don't forget, you are working for Mr. Lu now. "

Fang Shaoan listened to his stupid loyalty and smiled coldly. "Of course I won't forget. But in terms of facts, Lu Yiming can't compare to Yan Jun."

Qu Yang,"..."

At this moment, Qu Yang seemed to understand a little, but he also seemed to not understand anything.

His face was pale, his eyes were empty, and his gaze wavered. It was as if he had been greatly stimulated, and it was also as if the conviction that had been deeply rooted in his heart for a long time was being shaken.

Fang Shaoan had experienced all of this before.

He glanced at the ground that had been destroyed by the explosion and turned around to call for his assistant. "report all the funds needed for maintenance to Yan Jun."

"Yes, minister." The assistant nodded and immediately went to investigate the scene.

Fang Shaoan looked back again and saw that Qu Yang was still in a daze for a long time. He suddenly changed the topic and said angrily, "but Yan Jun killed my parents. I WON'T LET HIM OFF!"

With this last sentence, Qu Yang became even more confused after hearing it.
