

Tick Me 141

Chapter 141, you're also half a master

Sometimes, even if you were like this, you wouldn't be able to refuse the kindness of others.

Xia Jinqi walked over awkwardly and sat down.

Qi Maolin was rather gentlemanly as he chose a cocktail for her.

"This Cup of wine is called deep sea blue."

Xia Jinqi looked towards the source of the sound. The funnel-shaped Cup was filled with a sea-blue liquid. The color was pure and natural, intoxicating one's heart.

At the edge of the cup, there was a small piece of fresh lemon, adding a more artistic conception to the deep sea blue.

"Thank you," Xia Jinqi said with a smile. She dragged the wine glass with her hand and took a sip.

Although she was drunk last night and had a headache when she woke up this morning, she was still drunk in this intoxicating liquid.

It was cool to the mouth. As expected, the wine had the taste of the sea as its name suggested.

Qi Maolin finally asked the question in his heart when he saw her relaxed expression and that there was no one else in private at the moment. "Mrs. Yan once visited my casino?"

Xia Jinqi's hand that was holding the wine glass froze when she heard that. She replied, "yes, once or twice."

Actually, it wasn't just Qi Maolin's casino. She had been to more than half of the casinos in Las Vegas.

However, what she didn't expect was that Qi Maolin actually knew Yan Jun..

Moreover, Xia Jinqi had seen Qi Maolin at Yan Jun's grandmother's place that day. It could be imagined that Qi Maolin and long Qingxin's relationship wasn't simple.

"You're also interested in gambling?" Qi Maolin asked with a slightly surprised tone.

He had more or less heard of Xia Jinqi's reputation in the outside world, so he couldn't help but be a little curious about her.

"It's alright..." Xia Jinqi answered with a confused expression. "I've played blackjack a few times, Baccarat, and so on."

She hadn't entered and left the Casino for free so many times. She only knew a few popular ones, like the ones played by Yan Jun's friends last time, but she didn't.

Qi Maolin heard this and smiled. "I see. When I go back this time, I'll have a good plan with my men. Mrs. Yan will only go and talk about happiness, regardless of whether you win or lose."

What he meant was: in the future, when you come to the casino, the money you win will be yours, and you don't have to pay money even if you lose.

Xia Jinqi's hand immediately trembled again, and she hurriedly rejected him. "There's no need, Mr. Qi. I only go there once in a while, and I don't particularly like to play."

"Oh?" Qi Maolin raised his eyebrows in confusion. "This is the first time I've heard that you don't go to the Casino to gamble?"

He looked at Xia Jinqi like this. It should be more than once that she went to the Casino... ..

There were many people going to the casino every day, but it was really rare to see people who didn't go for gambling.

Xia Jinqi's scalp was a little numb from Qi Maolin's question. She could only open her mouth and change the topic. "I just play occasionally..."

Seeing Xia Jinqi like this, it was obvious that she didn't want to say anything more. Qi Maolin didn't continue asking and changed the topic. "If I think about it, the casino will be handed over to Yan Jun in the future. In the future, you'll be half the owner, so there's no need to take it to heart."

He thought that she was feeling embarrassed... ..

These words made Xia Jinqi extremely surprised. "Isn't the Casino Yours? Why would it be handed over to Yan Jun?"

She still remembered that when Yan Jun introduced it to her, he said that Qi Maolin owned the largest casino in Las Vegas... ..

"I don't have any children. There will come a day when I'm too old to do anything. Old Madam Long is interested in buying the Casino, so I'm happy to be at ease." When he said this, Qi Maolin sighed softly. There was endless loneliness between his brows.

Chapter 142: Jin Qi's secret

Xia Jinqi didn't know what to say to comfort the lonely Qi Maolin at this moment. She only looked at his lowered eyes and the corner of his mouth that was pulled down, and her heart suddenly felt sour.

This strange feeling caused her to unconsciously let down all the defenses in her heart.

"Actually, I'm not good at gambling, but I own half of the casinos in Macau." When she spoke of this, Xia Jinqi could not help but sneer, and she seemed to be mocking herself.

Up until now, Macau was the number one gambling city in the world.

Meanwhile, Xia Jinqi owned more than half of the casinos in that city.

A year ago, this was something that she had never thought of.

Qi Maolin had just taken a sip of Brandy, and before he could swallow the spicy liquid, he was stunned by Xia Jinqi's words.

“More than half? Could it be that you’re from Lego?” The moment he asked this question, Qi Maolin’s face turned slightly Pale.

Lego was the name of a group.

It was rumored that Lego was the real boss behind most of the casinos in Macau, but this group was very mysterious and rarely appeared in front of the world.

Even Qi Maolin had only seen a LEGO executive more than ten years ago when he was competing with the King of gamblers.

After so many years, his appearance had also undergone a huge change. Even if that person appeared in front of him, he would definitely not be able to recognize him.

Xia Jinqi nodded dejectedly. It could be seen that she was not that proud of her identity.

“something happened to the previous leader. According to the ranking, I have the highest share and become the successor.” Xia Jinqi sighed again. She could not help but admire the magic of fate.

In the early years, it was popular to buy horses in Rao city. Huo Ting was a few years older than her, so he secretly brought her to buy horses.

She randomly picked a few bets, but who knew that she would win.

Huo Ting gave her the money. The interest was high, and in addition to the living expenses that her family had given her over the years, she used it to invest.

In the end, a few years had passed, and the amount of money was getting bigger and bigger. She didn’t spend it either. Instead, she found a classmate who worked in stocks and asked him to help her invest in stocks.

She lost half of the money, and the remaining half was given to someone else to raise funds.

Who would have thought that as the money flowed, it actually flowed into Lego... ..

She had originally only wanted to save up enough money so that she could completely leave the Xia family, but in the end, she had accidentally become the leader of Lego... ..

She really didn’t mean to reap what she sowed.

Moreover, the news of taking over Lego was only found out the day after she and Yan Jun got married.

If it had been two days earlier, she might have... .. Really run away from the wedding ...

Qi Maolin,” ...”

He held a Shallow Square Cup filled with Pale yellow liquid in one hand. He did not put it down for a long time and maintained this posture.

He thought that his expression at this moment must be one of shock and awe?

The profits of the casinos in Macau were seven times that of LAS VEGAS IN A year!

And at this moment, he was sitting next to the new leader of Lego who controlled half of the casinos in Macau?

And she was a young girl in her early twenties?

“Then you went to my casino because...” Qi Maolin paused for a moment and didn’t finish his sentence.

Xia Jinqi knew what he wanted to say, so she was fortunate enough to complete it for him. “I don’t know how to manage it. I wanted to steal it from you.”

Previously, although Xia Jinqi was also a shareholder of Lego, her shares were pitifully small.

Even so, Lego still gave her a task to practice the management of the Casino.

Anyway, thinking about it, it wasn’t a bad thing. She began to enter and leave the casino. She took the time to go to Las Vegas once a month to experience the casino atmosphere there.

Chapter 143 the Iron Pestle is ground into an embroidery needle

One must know that casinos are the most profitable.

No matter how many people soak in the casinos every day, no matter how many people become rich overnight and how much money they win, the final winner will always be the casinos.

An endless stream of wealth flows into the casinos, and from the casinos into the banks. The banks then turn the money into loans, and it flows back into the hands of the people... ..

Qi Maolin was well aware of the mystery, and he also knew too well the enticement of the position of Lego leader and the potential great danger.

There were too many people who coveted this position of wealth.

There were also too many people who hated Lego’s actions over the years, waiting for an opportunity to take revenge.

For some reason, he began to worry about the girl beside him.

“Does Yan Jun know?”

If Yan Jun knew, then at least he could protect her more.

Who knew that Xia Jinqi would shake her head instead... ..

It was a little bad. She actually told Qi Maolin all the secrets that she had covered up so tightly.

Even Yan Jun didn’t know, and she hadn’t thought of how to tell Yan Jun either. She kept feeling that these things were complicated.

Qi Maolin frowned. He couldn’t figure it out in a short period of time, so he could only say it temporarily “find a suitable opportunity and tell him. He has to know anyway. Moreover, Jinqi, Lego should have connections with people in the underworld, right? Your father is also a member of parliament who is participating in the election, so it’s within your control.”

Inexplicably close, Qi Maolin called out to Jinqi.

Actually, when he first met Xia Jinqi at the Casino, he felt that she was very similar to an old friend of his.

He chased after her, wanting to take a closer look at her face, but she disappeared into the endless stream of people.

Later on, as time passed, he also threw this matter to the back of his mind.

He did not expect to meet her again at Yan Jun's wedding.

He took the initiative to greet her, just for the sense of familiarity in his heart, but by chance, he dug out the secret that she carefully hid.

Xia Jinqi carefully tasted the deep meaning in Qi Maolin's words. She suddenly felt a thousand pounds pressing down on her, making her feel breathless.

For a young man to suddenly become a high-ranking official, she didn't know whether it was good or bad... ..

As the two of them were talking, Fang Shaoan walked over while rubbing his temples.

"sister-in-law, give me two of your sleeping pills. I don't feel like I can sleep either... "

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi's brows instinctively twitched. She wanted to retort him, 'Do you think this is candy that you can eat whenever you want? '

However, when she thought about how he had even lent her his treasured wedding dress, she became gentler to him. "You can't sleep without a beautiful woman accompanying you? "

"sister-in-law, what are you talking about? I'm not a hotheaded kid in my early twenties. I drool every time I see a beautiful woman, and I can't sleep all night! " Fang Shaoan waved his hand and didn't mind talking about his glorious past at all "I've seen countless women over the years, and I've long trained my self-control! Isn't this on a plane? I can't stay awake for twenty hours, can I? "

As he said this, Fang Shaoan spread his hands helplessly. He wasn't a diamond in the rough, spending 365 days a year with women?

He did not want to grind an iron rod into an embroidery needle at such a young age... ..

Xia Jinqi was thinking about whether his words were true or not when Qi Maolin, who was beside her, glanced at Fang Shaoan and smiled. "I didn't expect young master Fang to come. "

Ever since Fang Shaoan lost half of the Fang family in a high-stakes Gamble in Las Vegas three years ago, Qi Maolin had never seen this young man in his own casino.

Seeing him this time, he could not help but be a little surprised.

Chapter 144 made his heart ache

Fang Shaoan rubbed the back of his head in embarrassment. "I'll reminisce about life while I'm at it! "

Xia Jinqi didn't understand the meaning of this 'life' . She only saw Fang Shaoan's eyes filled with bitterness when he said this.

This was the first time she had seen Fang Shaoan like this... ..

She was used to seeing him laugh and be happy. It was really surprising to see him suddenly have such an expression.

"So you're someone with a story too..." Xia Jinqi looked at him with a faint smile and took out a small white bottle from her pocket. "The medicine is here. Tell me your story and I'll give you the medicine."

Was it a fair deal?

Fang Shaoan rarely fell silent. His eyelids drooped slightly and his yellow-brown bangs pressed down as if they were pressing down on his world.

Seeing him like this, Xia Jinqi knew how important the story in his heart was, so much so that the straightforward Fang Shaoan did not want to mention it.

That must be something that hurt him very badly, right?

She did not want to dig deeper. She only poured one out of the small white bottle, broke it into two halves, and gave half to Fang Shaoan.

"Yes, it's not that I'm stingy, it's just that the medicine is too strong. I usually take one, but you should be fine after taking half."

Xia Jinqi said it like it was real. She firmly believed that the medicine in her hand was a prescription sleeping pill. Otherwise, why would she be able to sleep well every time she took one pill?

Fang Shaoan looked at the broken white half-circle in his palm and was momentarily absent-minded.

Just now, Xia Jinqi unintentionally said that she wanted to hear his story, which made him recall the unforgettable incident from three years ago... ..

Humans have lived for so many years, how could they not have some sad things?

He never deliberately buried it, but he also never took the initiative to bring it up.

Initially, he thought he could forget about it. Who knew that when he thought about it again, he would still feel a little deprived of oxygen.

When she saw Fang Shaoan obediently take the medicine, Xia Jinqi stood up and walked to the guest room.

Since Fang Shaoan had come out, Yan Jun should be free now, right?

For some reason, she suddenly wanted to visit her.

It had only been an hour, and she was already thinking about it... ..

..

After Xia Jinqi left, Qi Maolin stood up and walked over as well. He Patted Fang Shaoan's shoulder.

“She’s still working at my place. Are you sure you want to go?” When Fang Shaoan heard the sincere words, they turned into a dull hammer that struck his heart.

A simple ‘she’ reminded him of all his past memories.

His fingers tightened. He held half a pill in his palm and spoke again. His voice was as cold as ice. “She has nothing to do with me anymore.”

Qi Maolin saw him like this and knew that even though so many years had passed, he still couldn’t let go.

No wonder he insisted on getting on Yan Jun’s plane this time. It turned out that it was all for her.

“For people who are destined to have no results, it’s not a bad choice to give up.”

Fang Shaoan did not reply this time.

People who are destined to have no results... ..

What a cruel sentence.

It made his heart ache.

“...”

Xia Jinqi followed the path she came from. It was very easy for her to find Yan Jun in a room that was similar to a study room.

The moment she entered the room, he asked without raising his head, “why aren’t you sleeping?”

“I can’t sleep,” Xia Jinqi replied with three words. She walked quickly to Yan Jun’s desk and gave him a rough glance. “Are you working?”

The person who had been having fun at home all day actually started to soak in the pile of documents after leaving the room.

Chapter 145 sleeping together

“there are some things that need to be dealt with,” he answered as he picked up his pen and signed his name on a document.

Xia Jinqi saw that his hand speed was very fast, and she looked at the mountain of documents on the desk. She couldn’t bear to continue disturbing him. Just as she was about to turn around and leave, she was stopped by Yan Jun. “there are magazines on the bookshelf next to us. If you can’t sleep, you can read them.”

What he meant was that he wanted her to stay here and accompany him.

Xia Jinqi’s originally somewhat disappointed heart suddenly jumped up because of his simple sentence.

“Okay!” She smiled and nodded. She walked to the bookshelf in two steps, randomly picked two magazines, and sat opposite Yan Jun..

Fortunately, the table was big enough. After putting away his documents, there was still a lot of space left for Xia Jinqi.

A fashion magazine and a financial magazine were not her style.

Xia Jinqi flipped through the pages with little interest. From time to time, she would look up at Yan Jun in front of her.

His eyebrows were like mountains in the distance. Under his slightly lowered eyes, his sharp black eyes constantly swept over the lines of words.

The high bridge of his nose, his tightly pursed thin lips, and even the lines of his lower jaw were all so charming in Xia Jinqi's eyes at this moment.

And the light gray shirt he was wearing perfectly outlined his perfect figure... ..

He was indeed a man who could easily make people intoxicated.

Xia Jinqi looked at him quietly. As her eyes moved, she actually felt a little sleepy.

In her daze, she suddenly remembered a question she had asked Yan Jun before.

She had asked him if there was anyone he liked, but he had replied that there was no one.

Such an outstanding person, was there really no one he liked?

Xia Jinqi did not understand why she had become narrow-minded and started to trace his past.

And there was also the secretary by his side who was eyeing him covetously... ..

Yan Jun had handled about two-thirds of his official duties and was very tired.

Out of habit, he reached out and pinched the space between his eyebrows. When he looked up, he saw the girl who was sleeping on the table in front of him.

Under the gentle light, her snow-white skin was even more radiant and moist. Her thick and long eyelashes had a fan-shaped shadow hanging down, which accentuated her snow-white skin and Cherry Lips.

Just as he knew, as long as she fell asleep, she would be very obedient. Once she drank, she would go crazy.

Thinking of her intoxicating alcohol tolerance, Yan Jun unconsciously curled his lips and shook his head helplessly with a smile.

Closing the official document, he walked around the desk and gently hugged her, wanting to take her to bed to sleep.

Who knew that such a small movement would actually alarm her.

“I... I fell asleep?” She was half-asleep. Seeing that it was him who came to hug her, she took the initiative to raise her hand and wrap it around his neck, muttering ...

“En, go to bed.” He lowered his voice to comfort her.

Xia Jinqi didn't resist. She closed her eyes again. Her whole body was soft, and she didn't have any strength at all.

After going around a door, there was a bedroom at the back.

The plane wasn't as spacious as her home. It was only a few steps away.

Feeling that someone had gently put her on the bed, Xia Jinqi opened her eyes in a daze and reached out to grab the corner of Yan Jun's shirt.

“sleep together...” she didn't know what she said, but she opened her mouth unconsciously.

Yan Jun was about to get up and leave when he suddenly froze.

He lowered his head to look at her and saw her curled up like a newborn baby.

That soft tone seemed to be acting coquettishly.

His heart moved and he sighed softly. He laid down beside her.

He let her small hand pull at his shirt and pulled out the creases. He was not angry.

Chapter 146 had been squeezed dry

On the contrary, his heart was extremely satisfied when he saw how dependent she was on him.

It was as if she had been possessed. Her every action also worried about his heart.

When she woke up again, the plane had already landed safely.

In the early summer of Las Vegas, even the air was filled with a wave of heat.

Who knew what kind of miracle this entertainment city located in the desert would display.

Xia Jinqi stretched her body and walked out of the cabin. The first thing she saw was Fang Shaoan, who had dark circles under his eyes and messy hair like a chicken coop.

“Shaoan?” Xia Jinqi tried calling his name, afraid that she had mistaken him for someone else!

Fang Shaoan turned around when he heard her. His eyes did not focus on Xia Jinqi at all. “SISTER-IN-LAW...”

When he spoke, even his voice was flat. There was no fluctuation at all. He sounded very weak.

“Are you okay?” Xia Jinqi looked at him worriedly. Why was it that they had not seen each other for a night? It was as if they had been squeezed dry.

Don't die of exhaustion, right?

Fang Shaoan began to cry. “I'm fine. I just haven't slept for two days. sister-in-law, your sleeping pills aren't fake, right? Why don't I feel sleepy after eating them?”

The day before he knew that Yan Jun was coming to Las Vegas, he had been suffering from insomnia.

He kept thinking if he should come along... ..

In addition, he wasn't used to it on the plane, so he couldn't sleep even after taking the pills!

He seriously suspected that Xia Jinqi didn't give him sleeping pills, but something else!

"That's impossible. I've been taking them all this time. Are you too serious?" Xia Jinqi denied Fang Shaoan's guess without thinking.

Why was she wandering around with fake pills?

"Then give me two pills tonight. Maybe the dosage isn't enough..." Fang Shaoan replied weakly.

Yan Jun, who was talking to Qi Maolin, also heard every word of their conversation.

He glanced at Xia Jinqi without batting an eyelid. Seeing that her expression remained the same, Yan Jun retracted his gaze.

The medicine was really fake.

She didn't know yet.

The four of them got off the plane and got into the car.

Qi Maolin and Fang Shaoan were in the same car, while Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun were in the same car.

At this moment, the night was still dark, and everywhere they passed by was filled with neon lights, dazzling everyone's eyes.

Xia Jinqi occasionally took a few glances, but she wasn't intoxicated by such a beautiful scenery.

On the other hand, Yan Jun, who was beside her, had a slightly solemn expression after receiving a call.

"I have some matters to attend to, so you can go straight to the hotel or let Shaoan bring you around."

"Oh..." when she heard that he was leaving, Xia Jinqi was a little disappointed.

"speaking of which, you're not unfamiliar with this place," he said again, choking Xia Jinqi until she was stunned.

Alright, he was reminding her of the lies he had told her before. He said that he came to Las Vegas to get sleeping pills... ..

Indeed, people could not lie, especially after their lies were seen through. It was very awkward.

"actually, I..." Xia Jinqi recalled what Qi Maolin had said earlier. She was hesitating whether to tell Yan Jun her true purpose of coming to Las Vegas when the car stopped.

Xia Jinqi instinctively looked out of the car window and realized that they had arrived at the hotel they were about to stay in.

The waiters came over to open the door for them. All of them had their heads lowered and didn't dare to take another look inside the car.

Xia Jinqi followed them out of the car and happened to see a bodyguard carrying two suitcases down from a car behind them.

HM?

Did they bring luggage when they came out?

It didn't seem like it... ..

She was only informed of her destination a second before she boarded the plane. Where did she find the time to make preparations?

Chapter 147. Don't even think about it. You'll get hurt

Puzzled, Yan Jun and Qi Maolin had already finished discussing. The two of them had matters to attend to, so they left first. Xia Jinqi and Fang Shaoan entered the hotel first.

The bodyguards with suitcases followed behind Xia Jinqi. Xia Jinqi didn't think much of it. She just took it as her and Yan Jun's personal luggage.

The hotel staff came out to guide them. Just as they were about to go straight to the elevator, Fang Shaoan's scheming came.

"sister-in-law, Qi Maolin's casino is right next to it. Why don't we go play first? The night is long. Don't tell me you really went to bed so early?" The dispirited Fang Shaoan from before suddenly became spirited.

Xia Jinqi still didn't know about his stormy deeds three years ago. She only thought that he was curious and that she had slept soundly on the plane, so she agreed.

"Okay." Xia Jinqi nodded. She turned around and looked at the two bodyguards behind her. "Can you bring the boxes up first?"

The two bodyguards looked at each other with some hesitation in their eyes.

"Young Madam, aren't you... going to the Casino?"

"Yes." Xia Jinqi continued to nod. She couldn't bring two boxes of luggage to the Casino, right It was so awkward... ..

However, the bodyguard said, "the boxes are filled with US dollars. Young Master said that it's for young Madam to play with."

Xia Jinqi was dumbfounded. She stared straight at the two big boxes and cursed silently in her heart.

US dollars?

Both boxes were filled with US dollars?

According to this size, there should be at least five million US dollars in each box, right?

If converted into RMB, there should be a total of more than 70 million US dollars?

More than 70 million US dollars, and she was just going to play with it?

Xia Jinqi was in a daze. Fang Shaoan had already taken off his toad-like sunglasses. His eyes widened and he couldn't help but swear "F * CK... 70 million? I only brought 20 million! Rich and rich. sister-in-law, how much money does your husband have? Can you give me a figure? "

Fang Shaoan had asked Yan Jun this question a long time ago.

There was nothing else but pure curiosity.

To be honest, a top-tier richest man standing in front of you is your friend. Don't you want to ask him how much money he has?

In the end, Yan Jun only replied coolly, "how much money do I have? You don't even need to think about it. You'll get hurt. "

Fang Shaoan: Pawn.

Since he couldn't get anything out of Yan Jun, he might as well ask his wife!

Xia Jinqi gulped and tried hard to suppress the shock in her heart. "Don't think about it. That's not a height that we can reach. "

Fang Shaoan: Pawn.

Sure enough, it wasn't as if a family didn't want to enter the same house. The two of them were only getting married because they wanted to anger him to death! ! !

At this moment, Xia Jinqi had no time to care about Fang Shaoan. She only hesitated for a moment before saying resolutely, "you guys should send the box up first. I'm not playing, so I'll go take a look. "

She would never use 70 million to gamble!

It wasn't like she had never opened a casino before... ..

The two bodyguards looked at each other again. Both of them were in a difficult position.

This was young master's order. They couldn't leave young madam's side without permission.

Fang Shaoan finally came back to his senses and immediately stopped the two bodyguards "You're already here, how can you not play Sister-in-law, don't you know how to play It doesn't matter, I'll teach you Anyway, this bit of money is nothing to your husband He already gave it to you, so he definitely didn't expect you to win back much "Besides, isn't that why we came here? "

Xia Jinqi, "..."

She hadn't even gone yet, and she already knew that she would lose everything?

Chapter 148: She also had her own pride in

"I'm not here for gambling. " Xia Jinqi smiled at Fang Shaoan, then insisted on not bringing cash into the casino.

The two bodyguards couldn't disobey the young Madam's orders, so they obediently sent the box to the hotel room and followed Xia Jinqi into the casino.

Throughout the whole process, Fang Shaoan kept sighing.

"Aiya, sister-in-law, do you think you have the willpower or are you stupid? You don't even play when you have the money! Also, why do you think your family has so much money? Isn't money used for entertainment?"

However, no matter what he said, Xia Jinqi pretended not to hear him.

She was more independent in money matters. Otherwise, she would not have started investing when she was only a teenager.

Back then, she did not dislike gambling. Speaking of which, she was able to become the leader of Lego because she bought a few horses in the beginning... Buying horses was a form of gambling, it wasn't really buying horses to raise

It was just that this money belonged to Yan Jun, she didn't want to take it. Small gambling was also enjoyable, she had enough money.

The main reason was that when she married Yan Jun back then, her parents were doing it for the Yan family's money. If she took Yan Jun's money again, wouldn't that mean that she also married for money?

In this matter, she also had her own pride.

When the group of people walked into the Casino, Fang Shaoan felt that his saliva was dry, but Xia Jinqi didn't seem to be affected by him at all.

At the same time, he looked at Xia Jinqi with admiration in his eyes.

It seemed that second young master Yan really did not choose the wrong person. Such a strong and independent woman was suitable to be his wife.

One had to know that the Yan family's business was extraordinary. If Yan Jun's wife was a Gambler, it would not be good.

He knew too well the excitement and loss of control on the gambling table, and too well the sour feeling of losing half of the family's assets... ..

Therefore, when he gathered Xia Jinqi just now, it could be considered as a test for her.

"sister-in-law, you said that you don't gamble, so why did you come to the Casino?" Fang Shaoan smiled and continued the topic just now.

"COME AND PLAY!" Xia Jinqi answered calmly. Her eyes did not forget to carefully observe the internal planning of the Casino and the control of the scene.

The casinos in Macau also needed some changes and development in recent years. She was looking for a breakthrough from the ultra-high service standards of Las Vegas Casinos.

“commonly known as joining in the fun?” Fang Shaoan seemed to understand Xia Jinqi a little. “I also came to join in the fun, but who knew...”

As he went on, Fang Shaoan’s voice became lower and lower, and finally hidden into the dust.

Xia Jinqi did not continue listening. All her attention was drawn to the bustling casino in front of her.

The last time she came here was four months ago. She did not expect the change to be so great.

The space on the first floor was about half the size of a football field. The interior decoration was very luxurious and had a Nevada local style.

The gambling tables were big and small. The dealers were men and women. They were all young and beautiful with delicate faces.

Every gambling table was surrounded by gamblers, men, women, young and old, smoking, drinking, excited and silent. There were even some who were crying. All of them were immersed in this atmosphere.

After walking for almost half a circle, Xia Jinqi’s gaze was suddenly attracted by a large round table.

That place was different from other places. Compared to the gambling tables scattered all over the hall, this place was like a luxurious private room. There were more than twenty people surrounding and watching. Not a single person smoked, and no one dared to make a loud noise.

Chapter 149, the beauty smiled

From the looks of it, the person at the gambling table must have an extraordinary identity, right?

Xia Jinqi’s interest was piqued, and she walked towards the large round table.

Just as she got closer, she was stopped by a black waiter. “Miss, there are no more seats inside.”

Xia Jinqi was a little confused at first, but then she realized that the number of people who went in to watch was limited.

She originally thought that since she couldn’t go in, she might as well go somewhere else. In the end, the two bodyguards behind Xia Jinqi stepped forward and showed her something. The black man immediately backed off and even made a respectful gesture to Xia Jinqi.

Xia Jinqi was a little embarrassed... .. Money and power were indeed good things ...

No matter how far they walked, they could become passes.

No one stopped her. Xia Jinqi took a few steps inside and looked around. There were only three men on the gambling table. They all looked to be in their forties or fifties. The wrinkles on their faces were a little obvious, but they were all wearing gold and silver. It was obvious that the tycoons from all walks of life were here to deliver money.

The dealer in charge of dealing cards was a stunning Asian woman.

Her makeup was exquisite, her eyes were sharp, and her aura was also quite good.

Xia Jinqi was slightly surprised. This was America, why would they use Asians as dealers?

Should she hire a few foreigners as dealers?

Fang Shaoan was also looking around in boredom, but he didn't expect to see the female dealer on the gambling table.

For a moment, he seemed to be petrified. He just stood there in a daze, unable to say a word, and his throat was dry and tight!

On the plane, Qi Maolin had said that she worked at his casino.

But he didn't think that it would be such a coincidence. This world was so small, and he actually... .. Met her again ...

In three years, he thought that he could change a lot.

However, time didn't seem to leave too many marks on her face.

She was still as beautiful and eye-catching as ever.

Even the way she dealt cards was no different from three years ago... ..

Fang Shaoan's heart was instantly stimulated by this unchanged her.

The smile on his lips faded bit by bit. Fang Shaoan quietly pulled Xia Jinqi and said in a low voice, "sister-in-law, let's go to the other table and have a look."

"Why? This dealer is so beautiful. Let's have a look! Don't you like beautiful women the most?" Xia Jinqi didn't know the relationship between Fang Shaoan and this dealer. She was simply attracted by the dealer's beauty.

She was also a beauty lover. It wasn't too much to look at beautiful things!

"Then I'll go to the side and wait for you." Fang Shaoan's eyes darkened, and he turned around to leave.

Qi Maolin only guessed one thing right.

He came to Las Vegas for this woman.

But that didn't mean that he still loved her.

Who knew that just as his feet moved, someone beside him seemed to recognize Fang Shaoan and suddenly exclaimed, "Fang Shaoan?!"

Because of this shout, everyone at the gambling table looked in Fang Shaoan's direction, including the beautiful dealer.

Xia Jinqi also followed everyone's line of sight and looked at Fang Shaoan.

Did he meet someone familiar?

Fang Shaoan froze on the spot, and people around him recognized him one after another.

“It’s really you! The Fang Shaoan who lost half of his fortune for Julie Three years ago? ! ”

“You’re here again? Tsk Tsk, looks like you’re still unable to forget your feelings for Julie! ”

“Our Julie’s charm is really great. Is Young Master Fang here to make the beauty laugh again? Hahahaha!

Chapter 150 she was really moved

Who can easily forget the high-stakes gambling event that rocked Las Vegas three years ago?

Fang Shaoan in particular, this face of the east, is even more impressive.

Xia Jinqi did not know Fang Shaoan’s past, at this time listening to the surrounding people’s discussion, could not help but be somewhat stunned.

Fang Shaoan lost half his fortune for a woman named Julie?

Just when I was wondering who this Julie was, I heard an incredible voice coming from the table behind me... ..

“Shao’an... is that you? ”

Xia Jinqi looked back to the sound and happened to see the beautiful dealer with a fluent Chinese, red eyes, staring straight at Fang Shaoan’s back.

Heart unconsciously Deng A, Xia Jinqi Qi fu forehead could not be this female dealer, is Julie?

Fang Shaoan after hearing the call Mengran clenched his fists, inadvertently in the silent confirmation of Xia Jinqi’s guess.

That’s right, the dealer who dealt cards at the gambling table was Julie, the woman who made him lose half of the Fang family.

Taking a deep breath, Fang Shaoan tried his best to calm his heart.

He turned around, and his cynical black eyes met Julie’s gaze.

Their eyes met, and many things that he had forgotten returned to his mind in an instant.

Fang Shaoan did not say anything. He just stood in the crowd, quietly looking at the woman in front of him.

It had been three years.

He just wanted to know how he would react when he saw her again three years later.

That was why he shamelessly begged Yan Jun to bring him here.

He knew that Yan Jun would not reject him.

Although he always quarreled with Yan Jun, he never doubted the Brotherhood between them.

After three years, when he stood in front of Julie Again, his heart was unprecedentedly calm.

As for Julie... ..

The moment she saw Fang Shaoan, her eyes were indeed red.

The past did not have to be buried. No matter what, this man had almost gone bankrupt because of her.

No woman could withstand such deep affection.

She was, like, really touched.

But... ..

That was a long time ago.

Two people look at each other, see in the eyes of Xia Jinqi, inexplicable surge of the heart.

To let Fang Shaoan burn down half of the Fang family, he must have loved this woman called Julie?

Three years after the reunion, I do not know will let them rekindle the spark of love?

A playboy like Fang Shaoan, who can remember a person in his heart for three years, must be deeply in love... ..

After a short silence, a fat-faced old man suddenly stood up at the table.

He put his arms around Julie's shoulders and moved his greasy mouth closer to Julie's ear. "Baby, don't tell me you still remember this little kid?"

Julie didn't avoid him and let him take advantage of her.

At that moment, the tears in her eyes had already been withdrawn.

She arched her eyebrows and opened her seductive red lips. Her soul-destroying laughter could be heard immediately. "Uncle Hua, don't be silly! How can he compare to you?"

Seeing this, Xia Jinqi was so shocked that her jaw dropped... ..

Why didn't she play by the rules?

She thought that according to the usual setting, Julie should have been bullied in the Casino, and then Fang Shaoan would stand up for her. That was why she lost all her wealth, right?

But looking at the situation now, it seemed... .. A little strange ...

Just as she was watching the show, the bodyguard behind her suddenly approached Xia Jinqi and said in a low voice, "young Madam, young master asked someone to send two more boxes of cash over. He said that he was afraid that young madam would be bored."
