

Trick Me 1611

Chapter 1611: time limit

Among all the People Li Kun knew, only Lu Yiming could do such a thing.

However, Yan Jun gave a negative answer. "It's not him."

During this period of time, Lu Yiming had been at the Yan family and kidnapped Xia Jinqi and Yan Yuhan. Now, he was still being pursued by Fang Shaoan. He didn't have time to create a riot, nor did he have time to rob a bank.

The person who robbed the bank should be someone else.

Yan Jun lowered his eyes. His slender fingers were holding a photo of the scene of the bank robbery — A close-up of the face of a man wearing a smiling Buddha mask.

Even if he could not know the identity of the man, and there was no recording of the scene, just from a few photos, Yan Jun could already determine that the man wearing the smiling Buddha mask was the leader of this group of thugs and had the highest authority.

The bank president had just wiped away his tears when he heard Li Kun mention the name Lu Yiming. He was suddenly a little confused.

The incident in the afternoon had happened suddenly. The municipal government had not had the time to announce the matter of Lu Yiming being sent to the Privy Council. Other than the core members of the left and right parties, very few people knew about this matter.

However, those who were able to sit in the position of president were all people with some level of status. Despite the doubts in their hearts, they did not ask about it. They just stood silently at the side and listened to the conversation between the two people.

No matter what, if Lu Yiming really fell, then Yan Jun was undoubtedly the number one person. This was something the president knew.

In such a short period of time, Yan Jun already had a clue. "inform Huo Ting to strengthen the city defense. The people entering and leaving must be thoroughly checked for identity. Once suspicious vehicles are found, immediately detain them!"

Li Kun was stunned when he heard this. He frowned and asked, "young master thinks that this group of thugs is still in the city?"

Otherwise, why would they detain the cars leaving the city?

Yan Jun put down the photos and smiled coldly. "Not only did they not leave, they most likely have a fixed residence in Rao city."

"..."Li Kun still did not understand. Just based on these few photos, how could young master be able to determine that the group of thugs were still in the city?

Just as he was about to go out and ask clearly, a familiar voice came from outside the door. "How do you know?"

As soon as this was said, Yan Jun and Li Kun turned around at the same time, and the president also turned around.

They saw Huo Ting, who was dressed in a shining military uniform, walking quickly towards them.

Huo Ting also went to the four disaster areas, but each time, he was separated from Yan Jun..

In the end, when he came to the bank headquarters, he did not expect to hear Yan Jun's words and his own thoughts as soon as he walked in. He was excited, but he still wanted to ask the reason. n--
O17eLb1n

Yan Jun saw that his face was heavy, and his military uniform was also stained with blood. It was probably left behind when he was on the frontline of rescue in the disaster areas.

"Time Limit." Yan Jun's thin lips kissed. He glanced sideways at a huge clock hanging in the bank lobby "from the riot to the bank vault being robbed, the criminals only took 43 minutes. From the city center to the four gates of Rao city, it took at least 50 minutes, but they disappeared without a trace within 20 minutes."

Li Kun and the bank president heard this and came to a sudden realization at the same time.

Only Huo Ting, his eyes full of agreement, slowly curved his lips. "indeed. When I was tracking the milk delivery truck used by the criminals to transport cash, I also found that they disappeared 20 minutes later near a large car wash factory in the west of the city."

"Car Wash Factory?" Yan Jun raised his eyebrows and was about to ask something when another person rushed in from outside the door. His voice was very anxious. "Jun 'Er!"

Chapter 1612: How much needed him!

Everyone looked back and saw the furious Yan Sheng walking quickly towards Yan Jun. His face was livid as he reprimanded him sternly "You've been to all four disaster areas. Why don't you go home and take a look? Your mother and Xiao puff have been looking for you all night! Why don't you go and take a look?!"

That stern look was something Yan Jun had never seen before.

Everyone present was also stunned and all of them fell silent. No one said anything.

After all, this was a family matter of the Yan family.

Before everyone could regain their senses, Ji Xinyu had already rushed in with Xiao puff in her arms. She pulled Yan Sheng and was about to leave. "What are you doing? Of course, my son has his own things to do! I know that he's fine, so I'm satisfied! Let's go home!"

From the start, it was because Xiao puff suddenly cried and cried non-stop that Ji Xinyu brought her to the hospital.

After going to the hospital for a check-up, she found out that Xiao puff had some gastrointestinal discomfort. She wanted to tell Xia Jinqi not to worry too much, but when she called home, there was no one to pick up. If she called again, she wouldn't be able to get through.

When she rushed home in a hurry, she found that the house was in a mess. Corpses were strewn all over the place, and the atmosphere was filled with blood.

Coincidentally, she met Xia Jitian and Hong Xianglin at the door. Ji Xinyu was also afraid that Xiao puff would be frightened, so she could only go to the Xia family home first.

After that, she tried to contact Yan Jun, but unfortunately, she couldn't contact him.

Fortunately, Xia Jitian found out about Yan Jun's current situation and also knew that Xia Jinqi and Yu Han had been kidnapped.

Ji Xinyu knew that Yan Jun had gone to chase after Xia Jinqi and Yu Han, so she brought Xiao puff and waited at the Xia family home.

After enduring for a few hours, Yan Jun finally returned. However, he went to four disaster areas in a row and did not pick up Xiao puff. Xiao puff cried out for her daddy and Mommy all the way, and Yan Sheng could not hold it anymore. He brought Ji Xinyu and Xiao puff and chased after them.

In the eyes of others, Yan Jun was the high and Mighty Speaker Yan. However, in Yan Sheng's eyes, he was only a son, a son who only cared about the big picture and could not even take care of his own family!

"What home? Where is there a home? ! That is a mass grave! " Yan Sheng, who doted on his wife, shouted. At this moment, he was so angry that his face turned red and his neck was thick. He shook off Ji Xinyu's hand and shouted at Yan Jun loudly "Your grandfather gave the Yan family to you. Is this how you protect the Yan family? There's also Yan Qing. He's your grandfather's son after all. Your grandfather had just passed his seventh birthday, and you already sent Yan Qing's body back. You have the ability to protect a city, but why don't you have the ability to protect a family? Yu Han and Jin Qi's whereabouts were still unknown. Xiao puff cried out for her Daddy. You can pity the people in the city, but why can't you pity your own family? !"

Yan Sheng was really mad.

The Yan family, which had been restored with great difficulty, had now been blown up again.

Most of the servants in the family had been killed innocently, and the courtyard was filled with the corpses of the people from Black Tortoise Hall. How could that be considered a home? It was simply a haunted house!

Especially when Yan Youcheng had just gone, and now Yan Qing was gone, and his grandson and daughter-in-law were missing!

When Ji Xinyu, who was wiping her tears with red eyes, and Xiao Puff, who was sobbing, were received from the Xia family, the television news was still broadcasting the report of Yan Jun, Speaker Yan, greeting the people in the disaster area!

He was so angry that he could not contain his anger He did not care about the current situation. He just wanted to let Yan Jun know clearly how worried his family was and how much they needed him!

Chapter 1613: I'll take her with me

Faced with his father's rebuke, Yan Jun did not refute a single word.

He silently endured all of this and did not intend to explain anything.

His father's words were not a single word wrong.

He cared about Rao Cheng, but he did not care about his own family.

Before he could say the words 'sorry', Xiao Puff had already stretched out her two short arms towards him and called out in a childish voice, "Daddy..."

At that moment, everything that Yan Jun had been holding on to in the bottom of his heart completely collapsed.

The fog in his deep black eyes gradually surged, and waves of bitterness rose in his heart one after another... ..

He went forward and pulled Xiao puff into his arms. He hugged her soft body tightly and sighed heavily.

Seeing this scene, Yan Sheng also felt very uncomfortable in his heart.

After saying those words just now, he had actually vented a lot of his anger.

He also knew how difficult it was for Yan Jun, but... .. Sigh, who asked him to be Yan Jun ? ?

Li Jie just happened to rush in at this moment. He was originally panting heavily, but when he saw Ji Xinyu and Xiao puff, the worry in his eyes eased and he said in a low voice, "Chairman, I'm sorry. When I arrived at the Xia family home, they told me that my wife and young miss had already left."

Yan Jun shook his head unnoticeably, indicating that he was fine.

Yan Sheng and Ji Xinyu looked at each other and felt that something was wrong. Then, they asked Li Jie, "did you go to the Xia family home just now?"

"Yes." Li Jie nodded, and his tone was apologetic. "after I left the Yan family home, the Chairman asked me to pick you up, but I was delayed halfway. When I arrived at the Xia family home, you had already left."

In fact, when Yan Jun went to Chase Xia Jinqi and Yu Han, he had asked Li Jie to pick up Ji Xinyu and Xiao puff.

However, something unexpected happened midway. Li Jie's feet were caught, so he staggered.

After Ji Xinyu heard it, she hurriedly went to look at Yan Sheng. Yan Sheng's expression also eased up a lot, and he even felt a little guilty because he had wronged Yan Jun..

With so many people in trouble at the same time, Yan Jun was unable to split himself.

He coughed awkwardly before looking at Yan Jun and said embarrassedly, "Jun 'er, just now..."

"Dad, you're right." Yan Jun was the first to speak. He Patted Xiao Puff's sobbing back and said, "take mom to grandma first. Leave the Yan family to me."

He didn't ignore the Yan family. He just put the Yan family at the back.

Hearing this, Yan Sheng felt even more guilty, but he couldn't say anything. He could only Pat Yan Jun's shoulder, his eyes red.

Ji Xinyu also came forward, wanting to take Xiao puff with her. "Jun' er, don't worry about what you do. Xiao puff, come with us. We'll take good care of her."

Yan Jun shook his head and said indifferently, "I will take her."

He hugged Xiao puff's arms tightly.

Xiao puff's two short arms were also tightly wrapped around Yan Jun's neck, leaning against his shoulder wearily. There were tears in her big black and white eyes. Obviously, she had just cried and used up all her strength.

"This..." Ji Xinyu looked at the father and daughter in front of her with some difficulty and advised, "it's better for us to take her. You still have a lot of things to do and you can't take good care of her."

"Yes, your mother and I can at least help you," Yan Sheng added.

However, Yan Jun insisted, "Li Jie, send them back."

Li Jie heard this and walked to Yan Sheng and Ji Xinyu's side. "Master, Madam, let's go."

Ji Xinyu still wanted to say something, but Yan Sheng shook his head at her and dragged her away.

Chapter 1614: was really cold-blooded

For a moment, the hall became silent.

Huo Ting frowned. He glanced at Xiao Puff, whose eyelashes were still wet, and asked, "you didn't bring the girl back?"

At the time of the incident, Huo Ting was still in the bureau of Military Affairs. After the riots broke out in the four regions, he was busy with the first line of disaster relief.

Later, even if he found out, he also knew that Yan Jun had already chased after him.

He had the same thought as Li Kun. He thought that Yan Jun would bring Xia Jinqi back, but after hearing Yan Sheng say this, he found out that Yan Jun came back alone.

"..."Yan Jun fell silent.

The answer was obvious.

Seeing this, Huo Ting turned around and rushed out of the door without saying a word!

Needless to say, he must have gone to look for the girl.

Now that the work in the disaster area had been arranged properly, Yan Jun would handle the rest of the matters. He had plenty of time to squander!

After rushing to the door, Huo Ting stopped in his tracks again.

After thinking for a moment, he turned his head back and looked at Yan Jun with a burning gaze. "Don't worry, I will bring her back."

After saying that, he left quickly.

Logically speaking, Huo Ting was once Yan Jun's love rival. At this time, he should have blamed Yan Jun, but he didn't.

Perhaps it was really because he wasn't in his position and didn't care about politics... ..

When he became the head of the military region, he knew the sorrow of being in power.

The lesser of benevolence was protecting the innocent.

The greater of benevolence was saving the world from fire and water.

He saw everything Yan Jun did.

Since Yan Jun couldn't leave in a short period of time, then he would help him bring the girl back!

After Huo Ting left, Yan Jun let out a long sigh of relief. He stopped the tears in his eyes and lowered his head to kiss Xiao puff's forehead. Then, he turned around and continued to explain to the bank president how to handle the follow-up matters.

After that, he went to the City Hall.

The security department was destroyed. All the confidential documents and Zhong Yang's communications were moved to the City Hall. It had become the most complete temporary command center.

All the reconstruction of the disaster area, the pacification of the staff, the tracking of the thugs, everything was handled by Yan Jun..

No matter what he did, no matter how busy he was, Yan Jun always brought Xiao puff with him. Most of the time, he carried her personally. Even when she fell asleep, he refused to let her go.

This was the first time that two female secretaries working at the City Hall had been transferred to Yan Jun's side.

After delivering two cups of coffee, he finally could not help but remind Yan Jun, "chairman, the sky is already bright. Do you want to rest for a while?"

Hearing this, Yan Jun looked up from the pile of documents, but he did not look at the female secretary. He turned to look at the blue sky outside the window and then looked back at the phone on the table.

After waiting for an entire night, Fang Shaoan and Wen Tao's calls had not come. How could he fall asleep... ..

On the contrary, Xiao Puff, who was in his arms, seemed to be sleeping very soundly because she knew that her daddy was right beside her.

"According to the list, the meeting will start in half an hour." Yan Jun opened his mouth slightly and handed over a document.

The secretary quickly took it, "yes, chairman."

After they left, another female secretary hurriedly came over and said mysteriously, "I heard that the president's wife and child were taken away by the thugs, but he can still sit here calmly and read documents? Isn't he anxious at all? He's really cold-blooded..."

"But he's been hugging his younger daughter and isn't willing to let go. He doesn't seem like a cold-blooded person..."

"Hey, let me ask you. If you were to choose, would you be willing to marry our president? He's the kind of person who puts the country first and doesn't care even if his wife's life is in danger."

"You can't say that, right? Perhaps the president is also very anxious about his wife. It's just that in the current situation, he has no time to spare!"

Chapter 1615: said that he had let Xia Jinqi down

"Sigh, you're right... .. I heard from my father that there was a riot in Rao city more than ten years ago, but the president at that time couldn't be suppressed at all. The political power was like a plate of loose sand, and it wasn't until the next day that they carried out a full rescue. Four or five days had passed, but they still hadn't found all the missing people. The people were filled with resentment, and it was very chaotic ! !

Although the scale of our riot this time was several times larger than that of more than ten years ago, the rescue and pacification were basically completed in one night. It was enough to show that our speaker was swift and decisive. Right now, everyone outside was praising the speaker's good deeds. If not for the speaker, who knows what would have happened this time... ..

Yan Jun was the next president that everyone knew well. Those who could be his secretary must be the children of high officials.

The children of officials also had a clearer understanding of the current situation.

The other female secretary also sighed when she heard this. "Yes, it's all thanks to the speaker... he saved tens of millions of people in the disaster area, but who will save his wife and children..."

"Don't worry! The speaker is such a good person, his family will definitely be fine!"

The two secretaries muttered as they left, leaving Yan Jun alone to taste the thousands of arrows piercing through his heart, the regret and self-blame that was like cutting flesh.

He sat deep in the chair, his left hand holding the sleeping Xiao Puff, his right hand holding a pen, and he had just finished signing a document.

His eyebrows were sharp and his eyes were bright, and the cold air around him was threatening. Suddenly, he gripped the pen tightly in his palm, almost breaking it!

The veins on the back of his hand suddenly bulged, and because he used too much force, they trembled heavily!

If it weren't for these... .. How could he have turned back halfway ! How could he have abandoned Ah Jin and Yu Han ! !

If he could, he really wanted to abandon all of this and desperately look for his wife and children!

He didn't care about the retribution, the city, or the people He only wanted to care about his family... ..

"Ah Jin..." he muttered those two words, and there was a faint hint of sobs in his voice.

Frustrated, he reached out for the cigarette. Just as he put it in his mouth, he looked down at the little guy in his arms.

Sighing, he put the cigarette down, afraid that a little bit of smoke would not be good for her.

His loving gaze stared at Xiao Puff's fair little face, which was very similar to Xia Jinqi's, for a long time. Yan Jun's heart seemed to come alive. n(0vELBIn

He picked up the pen again and continued to read the next document.

If someone asked him if he regretted making that decision, he would definitely give a negative answer.

If history repeated itself, he would make the same choice.

But this did not mean that he did not love Xia Jinqi and did not care about Xia Jinqi. It was just that... .. Some things, no matter how difficult, had to be done by someone ...

In fact, Fang Shaoan and Wen Tao had also chased after him. According to the situation at that time, Yan Jun's return was indeed the wisest choice.

However... ..

As a husband and a father, he had failed in his duty.

It was he who had let Xia Jinqi down and their son down... ..

Time passed bit by bit. Fang Shaoan and Wen Tao had already tracked Yan Qing's GPS for an entire night.

Everyone began to feel tired and their attention began to wander.

Fang Shaoan pinched the space between his eyebrows and lit up a cigarette. He took a deep puff and finally woke up a little.

He passed the cigarette to Wen Tao, but Wen Tao shook his head. "I quit. "

Fang Shaoan was slightly stunned when he heard that. He turned around to look at him in astonishment, but he heard him say, "Rose said that she doesn't like the smell of cigarettes. "

Seeing the serious expression on his face when he spoke, Fang Shaoan could not help but laugh. "You're still the same as before, the crazy devil who spoils his sister. "

Chapter 1616: you're talking about little cannon fodder

It was supposed to be a joke, but Wen Tao took it seriously.

He looked back at Fang Shaoan and frowned. "You've changed a lot. "

"..."Fang Shaoan's fingers that were holding the cigarette suddenly froze, as if recalling something. The light in his eyes dimmed bit by bit.

Wen Tao didn't say anything more about him, but instead said, "second young master Yan has also changed a lot. "

When the topic was changed, Fang Shaoan came back to his senses and smiled awkwardly. "really? I don't think so. "

Yan Jun had changed a lot compared to before?

Wasn't he just married and had a wife and Child? How had he changed?

Wen Tao said seriously, "his level has increased. He's different from us. "

Fang Shaoan looked at him in surprise. "What do you mean? "

"His situation is much bigger than we thought. His heart is also colder than we thought," Wen Tao said calmly. He looked down at the flat panel that was about to run out of electricity and took the charging device from the car.

When he said this, Fang Shaoan immediately understood what Wen Tao meant.

It was nothing more than saying that Yan Jun had given up his wife and child for the country.

This... ... Was it cold-blooded ? ?

Fang Shaoan suddenly felt injustice for his best friend. He frowned and glared at Wen Tao "Is being rational cold-blooded? If he was cold-blooded, would he go back to Rao city to clean up the mess? If he was cold-blooded, would he spare no effort to help me? ! All you saw was him leaving his sister-in-law and child behind, but did any of you see the pain in his heart?

Second Young Master Yan was the most affectionate person. To be honest, I have never seen him treat any woman so well. When his sister-in-law was in trouble, his heart was more anxious than anyone else And the little cannon fodder, that was his biological son Even a vicious tiger would not eat its own son. Would he be so cold-blooded that he would abandon his own son "No matter what he is doing now, he must be waiting for our call every second, waiting for the news of sister-in-law and the LITTLE CANNON FODDER! ”

“...”Wen Tao was shocked by Fang Shaoan’s sudden anger. He originally did not have any intention to belittle Yan Jun, but why did this guy suddenly fly into a rage?

Just as he was about to explain, a cold voice suddenly came out of nowhere from inside the car, “who are you calling the little cannon fodder? ”

That low, threatening voice was obviously Yan Jun..

Wen Tao and Fang Shaoan were stunned at the same time, and they subconsciously began to search the car.

When did this guy put a listening device in their car?

The driver in the front row saw this and very perceptively handed over his phone. It showed that he was on the phone, and the call had been going on for eight hours... ..

Fang Shaoan blinked and suddenly had an epiphany.

This driver was actually connected to Yan Jun all the time, so all their conversation just now was heard by Yan Jun?

His face instantly turned green and then white like a chameleon. Fang Shaoan coughed lightly and explained, “you heard wrong... I’m talking about Xiao Yuhan! ”

Little cannon fodder was the nickname he had privately given Yu Han... .. Who asked his sister to be Xiao Puff? This name just happened to match ! !

However, he had always called her in private and did not dare to call her in public. Who knew that he would actually be caught red-handed by second young master Yan!

Scratching his face awkwardly, Fang Shaoan quickly winked at Wen Tao, hinting for him to quickly change the topic! ! !

Second Young Master Yan had a lot of anger in his stomach right now. If all of it was directed at him, IT WOULD BE FATAL!

Wen Tao was more or less gloating over Wen Tao’s misfortune. who asked this kid to spit at him so indiscriminately just now?

At this moment, he naturally wanted to add insult to injury. “I heard it too. You’re talking about little cannon fodder. ”

The air was suddenly frozen.

Chapter 1617: Zhang Shaoan, continued his nonsense and chased after him

There was a sound of someone's heart breaking... ..

Fang Shaoan's left hand trembled as he covered his little heart. He stared at Wen Tao in grief. "Scum."

Not only was Wen Tao not angry, but when he saw Fang Shaoan like this, he laughed and turned to Yan Jun. "second young master, how's the situation on your side?"

Yan Jun was silent for a moment before Fang said, "it's all within expectations."

When he heard the two of them talking and did not mention him again, Fang Shaoan wiped the sweat from his forehead and felt relieved.

He looked down at the tablet and saw that the RED DOT had stopped!

Fang Shaoan took a deep breath and shouted excitedly, "it stopped! sister-in-law, it stopped!"

Wen Tao was stunned and quickly dodged the tablet. "where did it stop?"

"..."Yan Jun on the other end of the phone suddenly fell silent.

"It seems to be a deep mountain." Fang Shaoan quickly zoomed in on the map and looked at it carefully. He was troubled. "It's not in the map of Rao city anymore. We can't find out exactly where it is."

Wen Tao looked at it and frowned. "This is the territory of a neighboring country. We have no right to enter."

Outside Rao city, it was no longer their territory.

This Lu Yiming was really cunning. He actually ran into someone else's territory. n-/OVL&1n

When Yan Jun heard this, he made an international call without saying anything.

After a minute, he hung up and turned to Wen Tao and Fang Shaoan. "You can go in. No one will stop you. A MAP will be sent to you later."

Wen Tao and Fang Shaoan looked at each other and seemed to understand something.

Bringing a large group of people and weapons into the territory of another country would never be allowed.

Even the country's high-ranking officials, or even the president, would need some time to contact the highest leaders of other countries, but Yan Jun... .. One Minute, one phone call was enough ? ?

Fang Shaoan gulped and said to Wen Tao, "you're right. He and we are really not on the same level..."

This kind of thing was unprecedented. Only Yan Jun could do it, right?

"cut the crap and chase after him." Yan Jun's cold voice came from the loudspeaker of the phone, interrupting Fang Shaoan's worship.

“AHEM!” Fang Shaoan coughed lightly and quickly opened the new map that he had just sent and compared it with the GPS signal. “It’s in the forest. Go in from the left.”

As he spoke, the driver had already turned the steering wheel to the left.

Wen Tao also looked out of the car and suddenly shouted, “Stop The car first!”

The driver immediately stepped on the brakes and the entire motorcade stopped.

Fang Shaoan was so scared that his tablet almost fell off. He asked hurriedly, “what’s wrong?”

“There seems to be a sentry post up ahead.” Wen Tao’s face was solemn. “Go back first. Don’t be discovered.”

Fang Shaoan also looked outside but didn’t see anything. “Where’s the Sentry Post?”

“raise your head.” Wen Tao glanced at him, then picked up the driver’s phone and said to Yan Jun, “second young master, things are a little troublesome.”

Fang Shaoan obediently raised his head and searched around with great effort before he found a high platform that looked like a turret not far to the left. There were also people patrolling the area with guns.

Fortunately, it was daytime and the forest was dense. Fang Shaoan’s car was hidden under the trees, so it was difficult to see it.

If it was in the middle of the night and the lights were on, they would have been discovered long ago!

Chapter 1618: I will feel guilty for the rest of my life

After some negotiation, Yan Jun suddenly asked, “what are the sentries wearing?”

“They should be a civilian.” Wen Tao glanced at the person on the Sentry Post again. His clothes were a little tattered, and it didn’t look like a military uniform.

He understood what Yan Jun meant. If this person was wearing a military uniform, then it wouldn’t be a big deal. But since it wasn’t a military uniform, it meant that this person was an organization that had broken away from politics.

Moreover, he had accepted Lu Yiming... .. It was very likely that Lu Yiming had set up some organization in a neighboring country ...

If that was the case, then there was definitely more than just this sentry post, and there was also more than just this sentry post.

Yan Jun’s voice sounded again, “find a place to hide, and don’t act rashly.”

“What’s going on? Could it be that he has really gathered troops here and is showing some self-respect?” Fang Shaoan, who had realized later on, also realized that this matter was not ordinary.

He actually hid guns, could it be that he also hid an army?

After thinking for a while, Fang Shaoan asked again, "then sister-in-law is now... isn't she deep into the enemy army?"

"..."Yan Jun was silent.

Wen Tao habitually pushed up his glasses on the internet. "To be exact, she should be under close surveillance."

Under such circumstances, Wen Tao and Shaoan alone would not dare to force their way in.

"You guys keep watch. Huo Ting will be here soon." Yan Jun's cold and clear voice spread in the air, as if a god had descended, and could not be resisted.

"..." Fang Shaoan rolled his eyes. He was silent for a while before asking Wen Tao in a low voice, "isn't he Huo Ting's rival in love? Is this a reconciliation?"

Wen Tao glared at him coldly with a hint of warning.

However, Fang Shaoan had already retracted his head resentfully and continued to guard the little red DOT on the tablet.

Sister-in-law, sister-in-law, you must be well. Otherwise, I will feel guilty for the rest of my life... ..

Xia Jinqi had already woken up for a few hours.

The fury and hatred in her heart had also been suppressed a lot. She no longer lost her rationality like last night. Instead, she calmed down.

This was because she realized that she had been brought to a completely unfamiliar place. Even the furnishings in the room were completely different from the ones she had seen before.

She was not bound by her hands or feet. She could move freely in the room, but she was not allowed to go out.

The door seemed to have been locked from the outside, and the windows were closed. Just the light from the glass ceiling could barely see the interior of the room clearly.

The wooden structure of the small house was so simple that there were only beds, chairs, and dining tables. On the wall hung a deer head that could not be seen as real or fake. Other than that, there was nothing else. Moreover, all of them were made of wood. From the looks of it, they were hand-polished.

Xia Jinqi did not know why, but she suddenly had an extremely strong premonition. This place was very likely a small mountain village where traffic was blocked.

She did not know how the situation in the country would change, but she knew one thing. Since Lu Yiming had brought her to flee, it must be because Yan Jun had won. Lu Yiming had completely lost. He had no shelter in Rao city, so he had to hide.. He could only find a remote place to hide.

Therefore, Xia Jinqi did not find such a place surprising.

However, she had no idea how long she had been locked up in this place, how Yu Han was, how Xiao puff was, or how Yan Jun was.

She didn't even know what time it was or what day it was... ..

Not knowing anything was really torturous.

Xia Jinqi frowned hard and was thinking about how to break out of this predicament when there was a sound coming from outside the door. Then, someone pushed the door open and entered.

Chapter 1619: love goes deep

A strong light flooded in in an instant, so piercing that she almost couldn't open her eyes.

She instinctively narrowed her eyes and vaguely saw that a man had walked in.

Her first reaction was that it was Lu Yiming, but when she completely opened her eyes, she realized that it was a stranger.

The eyelashes and pupils of his right eye were black, and his skin was slightly yellow. He didn't look like a foreigner.

He glanced at Xia Jinqi, placed the food in his hand on the table, and turned to leave.

He was a very baffling person, but Xia Jinqi wasn't afraid of him because his eyes were very gentle and didn't have any aggression.

After he left, Xia Jinqi came to a realization — this should be the person in charge of delivering her food.

After all... She was also a hostage. Lu Yiming couldn't let her starve to death, right ? ?

Coincidentally, she was also hungry.

She slowly walked to the table and sat down. Looking at the dishes on the table, Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows slightly.

Three dishes and one soup.

Scrambled egg with tomato.

Braised beef brisket with radish.

Stir-fried Broccoli.

Crucian carp soup.

Along with a bowl of white rice, it was a pure common dish of Rao city's small restaurant.

After admiring it, Xia Jinqi picked up her chopsticks and began to eat leisurely.

"The taste is not bad!" As she ate, she didn't forget to sigh with emotion.

Although she was captured by Lu Yiming and brought to this godforsaken place that she didn't know where, the treatment was pretty good. At least in terms of food, it was quite suitable for Xia Jinqi's appetite.

After eating and drinking, she took a walk in the room. Feeling bored, she could only lie back on the bed and prepare to take an afternoon nap.

Being captured by such a dangerous person, it could not be said that she was not afraid. However, Xia Jinqi also knew that it was useless to be afraid. Moreover, she knew that Yan Jun and GRANDPA JI would definitely think of ways to save her.

The biggest consolation was that the two children were not captured... ..

Therefore, what she could do now was to eat and drink, protect herself from being injured, and wait for rescue.

After Xia Jinqi fell asleep, the door of the small wooden house was opened again.

This time, it was Lu Yiming who came.

He had already changed into a clean set of clothes, his hairstyle was much more energetic, and the wounds on his body were all bandaged up.

When he came in, the person in charge of guarding the door was reporting Xia Jinqi's situation to him.

"there hasn't been any noise. She should be taking an afternoon nap now."

Lu Yiming pursed his lips when he heard that. He was really calm and composed.

"where's the food?" He asked softly.

"I've eaten it all."

After receiving an affirmative answer, the corners of Lu Yiming's lips curled up slightly. His gaze naturally fell on the wooden bed facing the door.

Xia Jinqi was lying on her side, seemingly in a deep sleep.

Lu Yiming waved at the person behind him. That person immediately retreated and stood guard at the door.

Lu Yiming walked over alone and sat by the bed. n-/Ovelbin

He carefully observed Xia Jinqi's sleeping face. Lu Yiming could not help but imagine her as Bi Yue.

He had already brought the container out. He was just waiting for Zhao Chongbin to bring bi yue over to transplant the brain waves.

Very soon... .. Very soon, his Bi Yue would wake up and return to his side once again ...

"Yue'er, I've finally waited for you." Lu Yiming unconsciously reached out his hand and caressed Xia Jinqi's temples, calling her Yue'er.

The longing that had lasted for fifteen years had turned into obsession. At this moment, it finally erupted!

Everything that Rao city had painstakingly built was destroyed in an instant. He only had bi yue left... ..

Therefore, Bi Yue had to wake up, and Xia Jinqi had to become bi Yue!

Chapter 1620: who do you think I married?

That unfamiliar touch instantly woke Xia Jinqi up.

She opened her eyes and saw that Lu Yiming was so close to her. His gaze was so lingering and sorrowful that it was truly frightening!

All the hair on her body stood up. Xia Jinqi immediately stood up and retreated hastily!

“What are you doing!” She questioned loudly, with rolling anger and a trace of undetectable fear.

At that moment, the gentleness in Lu Yiming’s eyes and the extended right hand froze at the same time.

After seeing Xia Jinqi’s repelling and resisting expression, Lu Yiming’s consciousness was gradually awakened.

The gentleness in his eyes disappeared in an instant. He darkened his face and said sarcastically, “to think that you can still sleep!”

After repeatedly confirming that Lu Yiming had returned to normal, Xia Jinqi replied coldly, “why can’t I sleep? You’re the one who did the wrong thing, not me.”

Facing Xia Jinqi’s usual sharp tongue, Lu Yiming was already used to it. He stood up unhurriedly and threw the phone in front of Xia Jinqi. “HMPH, take a look for yourself!”

With that, Lu Yiming quickly stood up. A flash of panic and concealment flashed in his eyes.

Xia Jinqi’s reaction just now woke Lu Yiming up. After realizing what he was doing, he couldn’t help but feel a lingering fear. nDVe-L&/1n

He was afraid that he had already begun to imagine that Xia Jinqi was bi yue... ..

He was afraid that if he continued like this, he would sooner or later go insane.

Not wanting Xia Jinqi to notice his weakness, Lu Yiming quickly threw out the phone to attract Xia Jinqi’s attention. He stood up in a panic and ran away from her, also running away from the unfamiliar him.

Xia Jinqi was indeed attracted by the news headlines on the phone screen.

[Yan Jun personally visited the four disaster areas and was awarded the title of Savior!]

Scrolling down, without exception, it was written that Yan Jun was there so that the people affected by the disaster could be saved. They could have food and shelter, and they were all praising his good deeds.

Xia Jinqi hadn't finished reading when Lu Yiming, who had completely recovered from his shock, laughed at her. "Xia Jinqi, in the face of benefits, your love is so insignificant that it makes people laugh. He knew that something happened to you, but he abandoned you for the presidency."

Perhaps because he couldn't stand the invincible love between Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun, Lu Yiming was jealous. He always thought of ways to break them up.

This time, in the eyes of ordinary people, what Yan Jun did was unforgivable in love. It just so happened that Lu Yiming used it as a sword in an attempt to pierce Xia Jinqi's heart.

Under such circumstances, an ordinary person would have long been dejected... ..

But Xia Jinqi was always so different from the rest.

She wasn't as fragile as Lu Yiming imagined. She threw her phone down, looked up at Lu Yiming, and said word by word, "who do you think I married?"

Lu Yiming, "..."

Xia Jinqi suddenly remembered that when she was in middle school, she had an upset stomach and had gone home early. She had not expected to see her parents arguing.

At that time, she had been hiding at the door, listening to the sound of the quilt being broken. Then, Hong Xianglin had cried and questioned Xia Jitian, saying that he had not been home for a month and asking if he really cared about this family.

She remembered very clearly. At that time, her father had asked back, "who do you think you married?"

"You married not just me, but the entire country! I've been busy with official business this month, and I really can't get away!"
