

Trick Me 1631

Chapter 1631: do not abandon hope under any circumstances

The atmosphere in the room froze for a moment.

Xia Jinqi waited for a moment, but he did not say anything. Instead, he took another step and was about to leave.

Xia Jinqi would not give up a chance that fell from the sky so easily. She frowned and asked, "can you tell me what this place is?"

Even if there was only a glimmer of hope, she wanted to give it a try!

Moreover, the way she looked at this person was not fierce. Moreover, the food he cooked was delicious. Perhaps he was a good person?

She was locked up in this place and did not know anything about the outside world. While she was waiting for help, she could not miss any chance to escape.

Under any circumstances, she must not give up hope... ..

After a long period of silence, the one-eyed man finally turned around. His gentle gaze met Xia Jinqi's gaze. He did not say a word, but he used both hands to fiddle with it. It looked completely out of order.

Xia Jinqi did not understand what he meant, but at least she understood that this person was mute and could not speak.

This was going to be difficult... ..

She rolled her eyes and said, "can you write it down? I don't understand what you mean."

As she spoke, she pointed at a cup of water on the table.

She motioned for him to dip his finger in the water and write on the wooden table. It would dry quickly and leave no traces behind.

The one-eyed man looked at Xia Jinqi and then at the Cup of water. He seemed to understand and slowly walked back.

He dipped his right index finger into the water and began to write on the table.

Xia Jinqi looked carefully because this might be her only hope of escaping... ..

However, the more she read, the more Xia Jinqi felt that something was wrong.

This mute actually wrote: "You can't get out. "

Xia Jinqi, "..."

It was as if a basin of water had been poured from head to toe, chilling her heart.

She had thought that he was someone who brought hope, but she didn't expect him to be so heartless and desperate.

Xia Jinqi's heart was empty for a moment, but she didn't stop there. Instead, she bit her lower lip and looked at the mute with extreme stubbornness. "I'll definitely get out!"

On the contrary, the one-eyed mute was shocked by the tenacity in Xia Jinqi's eyes. He was absent-minded for a moment, as if he was reminiscing about something.

In just a short while, a shout came from outside the door. "FIRST EYE! Are you done? Why did it take so long to deliver a meal?"

The one-eyed mute immediately snapped back to his senses. He no longer looked at Xia Jinqi, turned around, and walked out quickly.

After he left, Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows. "first eye? His name? Is it so simple and crude..."

After she finished speaking, the door to the room was slammed shut.

Xia Jinqi was left sitting by the wooden table. She looked up at the sky outside the transparent glass, her palms gradually clenching.

She's been here all day, and I don't know how the kids are doing, but GRANDPA JI, cousin, Lego, they're all freaking out... ..

And Yan Jun... ..

Where are you now?

Well, I. . . . . A little scared . .

As soon as he came out of the cabin, a guard with a gun kicked him in the butt. "So slow and ugly!"

At first glance was kicked a stagger, but always lowered his head, also did not say anything.

Another guard came over and advised, "forget it, why are you arguing with a disabled person?"

"What bad luck!"

Eyeball took the opportunity to walk away quickly.

He went back to the kitchen and found that there were not enough fish. He took the fishing rod and went out to fish, but on the way, he found Fang Shaoan's convoy.

Seeing that the license plate number was not from his country, eyeball immediately hid behind a tree and did not dare to make a sound.

Chapter 1632: bringing troops into the country

At that time, Fang Shaoan was leaning against the door of the car. He glanced at the sentry post in the distance and then turned back to look at Wen Tao, who was also standing by the side and had not spoken for a long time.

"It's been a whole day. Do you think... sister-in-law will be okay?" Fang Shaoan asked worriedly ...

Wen Tao heard him and kicked away the gravel under his feet. He frowned. "I'm not worried about sister-in-law now."

Fang Shaoan was slightly stunned. "Then what are you worried about?"

Under such circumstances, he was actually not worried about sister-in-law?

Who knew what kind of changes would happen in a day and a night What If... ..

Without waiting for Fang Shaoan to continue thinking, Wen Tao said, "second young master is too calm. This isn't like his usual style."

"If he isn't calm, then it won't be him! When have you ever seen the cold-faced Hades jumping around anxiously?" Fang Shaoan snorted, feeling that Wen Tao was making a fuss out of nothing.

In the long time he had known Yan Jun, Fang Shaoan had never seen him panic because of anything.

Otherwise, why would people call him the cold-faced Hades... ..

Hiding behind a tree in the distance, Fang Shaoan was originally listening expressionlessly, but when he heard the words 'cold-faced Yama', his eyes suddenly focused and he looked back at their base in disbelief.

Could it be that the woman who was captured... .. Was Yan Jun's woman ? !

On the other hand, Wen Tao shook his head. What he said and what Fang Shaoan thought were two completely different things. "I've contacted Li Kun. He said that second young master only used one night to suppress the riot in Rao city, and he also perfectly cleaned up the mess."

"... " Fang Shaoan's eyes widened, and his hands on his waist subconsciously lowered. "really?"

Wen Tao nodded. When he opened his mouth again, he obviously hesitated for a moment. "also..."

"What else? Hurry up and say it! It's so anxious!" Fang Shaoan really wanted to give him a slap!

If there was anything to say, he could just say it directly. Hiding it like this could really suffocate people!

"I heard that the neighboring country's president has already allowed second young master to bring troops into the country..." after hesitating, Wen Tao still said it.

However, as soon as he finished speaking, Fang Shaoan, who had been noisy and restless, suddenly fell silent. He looked at Wen Tao in a daze, as if he had received a huge shock.

A moment of suffocation.

After a long while, Fang Shaoan swallowed his throat and asked tentatively, "bring troops... into the country? Second Young Master requested it?"

"Yes." Wen Tao nodded.

He was not clear about the specific situation, he only heard Li Kun's words.

Fang Shaoan's brain spun rapidly. He used the few clear-headed thoughts he had in his life to think for a long time before he realized the seriousness of the matter. "He won't personally bring troops over, right? Didn't he say that Huo Ting would come?"

"I'm not sure." Wen Tao shook his head. No one could catch up with Yan Jun's train of thought, and no one knew what he was thinking.

"... After hearing what you said, why do I feel that... Second Young Master Yan is just the calm before the storm? He... he won't really bring the army here, right? A hero in a rage for a beauty? Blood flowing for 30,000 miles?" Just thinking about the image in his mind.. Fang Shaoan could not help but rub the goosebumps that suddenly appeared on his arms.

Wen Tao did not answer, but used silence to express his approval.

Fang Shaoan turned around and saw the worried look on his face. His eyebrows twitched, and he turned to look at the Sentry Post. "Lu Yiming, Oh Lu Yiming, I'm not saying that you deserve it, but you really deserve it! It's not good to mess with anyone, but you have to mess with the King of Hell..."

Chapter 1633: was not mute

After eavesdropping on the conversation between Fang Shaoan and Wen Tao, one eye, who was hiding behind a tree, was shocked... ..

He did not expect that Lu Yiming had kidnapped Yan Jun's woman, and Yan Jun already knew their exact location!

Gritting his teeth, one eye quickly turned around and prepared to leave.

However, the moment he turned around, an ice-cold gun was pressed directly against his temple, followed by a surging killing intent and a powerful pressure!

"where do you want to go? !"

The person who came was Huo Ting! ! ! n--OveℓB1n

He held his breath!

The harmless eye in front of Xia Jinqi exploded with a strong sense of ruthlessness!

He was careless!

He was only concerned about the shock in his heart just now, so he didn't notice that someone was approaching him from behind!

As soon as Huo Ting opened his mouth, Wen Tao and Fang Shaoan also heard the voice and hurried over.

"Chief Huo, this is..." Fang Shaoan was the first to ask.

"He's eavesdropping on your conversation," Huo Ting answered succinctly, then looked at him. "Who are you? Lu Yiming's man?"

Wen Tao opened his mouth, but he didn't make any sound. It seemed like he was telling Huo Ting that he was a mute.

However, even if he didn't speak, Wen Tao had already seen through his disguise.

The transparent lenses reflected a cold light. Wen Tao said, "yes, he's Lu Yiming's man. He has a red belt around his waist, just like the people on the Sentry Post."

Hearing this, Fang Shaoan subconsciously turned his head to look at the sentry post in the distance.

Although he couldn't see it clearly, the Little Red Dot was eye-catching.

"They actually sent out spies?" Fang Shaoan snorted coldly, and his gaze turned cold.

Since he had confirmed the identity of this person, it was naturally impossible to let him go back.

Wen Tao pushed his glasses and looked at the fishing gear placed at his feet. He analyzed, "there shouldn't be any spies who carry fishing gear with them, right?"

"And it's a mute!" Fang Shaoan added.

"not necessarily." Huo Ting shook his head and denied Fang Shaoan's words.

Fang Shaoan looked at Huo Ting in confusion. He saw Huo Ting pull the trigger of his pistol and threatened, "where is Xia Jinqi? If you don't tell me, I'll shoot you to death!"

"..."Fang Shaoan blinked. He wanted to ask a mute, but it was unnecessary... ..

However, the moment Huo Ting's index finger bent slightly, the mute opened his mouth!

"In... in the cabin!"

His voice was very hoarse, and it sounded particularly uncomfortable to the ears. It was as if his throat had been severely damaged, so much so that he would never be able to recover.

Fang Shaoan and Wen Tao were dumbfounded at the same time.

They had thought that he was really a mute. They had never thought that he would actually be able to speak?

So... .. Under the threat of death, even a mute could speak ??

Unlike their shock, Huo Ting seemed to have expected it. His expression was very calm, and he continued to ask, "how is she now?"

"Very... very good." Cold sweat covered his body. Since he could not continue to pretend to be a mute, he might as well stop pretending ...

If he did not feel a strong killing intent from Huo Ting, he would not have exposed himself so quickly... ..

He had reason to believe that if he did not speak, this man in front of him would really kill him.

After getting the answer, Huo Ting's heart that had been hanging in the air all the way could finally breathe.

“Lu Yiming sent you?”

Chapter 1634: Would there be an exception to

One eye shook his head.

“How many people are there in total?”

One eye continued to shake his head.

Huo Ting’s patience was almost worn out. He pointed the pistol at one eye’s head with some force and poked it so hard that one eye’s head leaned back a little.

He was about to say something fierce when Fang Shaoan’s curious words came from the side. “Chief Huo, how do you know that this guy isn’t mute? Wow, he’s really good at acting!”

As he spoke, Fang Shaoan looked up and down at one eye, his eyes filled with surprise.

Why didn’t he see that this guy was faking it?

Hearing this, Huo Ting smiled coldly and looked at him with a mocking gaze. “The first time he saw me, his mouth opened slightly.”

“Huh?” Fang Shaoan didn’t understand. He opened his mouth a little, and he could tell that he wasn’t mute?

He subconsciously opened his mouth... .. It was no different from usual ...

Wen Tao, who was beside him, had already understood the essence. He smiled and said, “I see. The first time a real mute is frightened is when his eyes change, because he can’t make a sound with his mouth.”

From the way he looked just now, it was obvious that his mouth moved first, and then he used his consciousness to control himself so that he couldn’t make a sound. His performance was very far-fetched.

The usually careless Huo Ting was very meticulous in this aspect.

No small action could escape his eyes!

Fang Shaoan nodded as if he didn’t understand, and then asked, “just based on this? What if there are some exceptions?”

People’s habits could be said to be strange, and it was normal for everyone to have a little hobby.

However, Huo Ting smiled mysteriously. “Will there be any exceptions?”

“...”Fang Shaoan was dumbfounded.

Wen Tao also smiled in understanding.

Of course, there wouldn’t be an exception.

This was because huoting didn’t know how to shoot at all. He wasn’t the kind of person who would disregard human lives. What he said just now was just to scare him for a glance.

Of course, the key was that Huo Ting's eyes were in place. He had to be fierce, and he had to show his killing intent!

This kind of ability was trained from interrogating criminals all year round.

Huo Ting put away the gun, but he didn't quickly put it back on his waist. Instead, he turned it around in front of his eyes before putting it back.

Huo Ting's eyes widened. When he looked at Huo Ting again, his teeth were already chattering!

He was tricked!

This pistol didn't even have a silencer on it. If it was fired, the sentry on the Sentry Post would definitely hear it!

So... .. This man didn't plan to shoot from the beginning Huh?

He actually tricked him... ..

"draw the map of your camp. " Huo Ting raised his hand, and a soldier handed a piece of paper and a pen to Yi Mu.

Yi Mu didn't take it at first, but after Huo Ting glared at him, he took the paper and pen resentfully.

While he was drawing the map, Wen Tao walked to Huo Ting's side and whispered, "chief Huo, can I have a word with you? "

Huo Ting looked back at him and walked to the side.

There were people behind him who surrounded him to prevent him from playing tricks.

After walking to the side, Wen Tao asked the question in his heart, "how many people did the chief bring this time? "

To be honest, Wen Tao had secretly noticed that there weren't many people behind Huo Ting.

"Eleven people. " Huo Ting didn't hide his answer. "This is not Rao city after all. "

It was already very difficult to travel freely on the territory of other countries, not to mention how many people he had brought with him.

These eleven people were all huο Ting's personal guards. They were all trusted aides and were very skilled.

Wen Tao was silent for a moment and was about to say something when Fang Shaoan, who was eavesdropping from the side, blew his top. "Just eleven people? That second young master Yan even asked the president of a neighboring country for the right of passage for the army? "

Chapter 1635: this man is no simple man

Huo Ting did not know about this, but when Fang Shaoan said so, he frowned. "Is the information accurate? "

“Yes.” Wen Tao nodded.

“...”Huo Ting was surprised at once.

Yan Jun to the right of passage to the army, but did not let him lead the team, then the only possibility is that Yan Jun will personally lead the team. n(-Ov eLBIn

Fang Shaoan also more or less understand, but also a bit confused, “not right... He is not the speaker? Can mobilize the army? ”

The speaker of Rao does not have the authority to mobilize the army, but... ...

“Yan Jun has his own army.” Huo Ting lightly opened his lips, the bottom of his eyes is already a clear.

It seems that Yan Jun is planning to come in person with the army.

He could not help but smile-he said, how can Yan Jun really put the girl?

If that’s the case, how can he trust the girl to be in the hands of someone who doesn’t care about her?

Fang Shaoan was frightened by Huo Ting’s words, “what? What did you say Yan Jun had? Army... Army? Did I hear wrong? ”

When Yan Jun was arranging the army on the Arqi island, something happened to the Fang family. Fang Shaoan did not know about Yan Jun’s recent situation, so he naturally did not know about the army.

Hearing Huo Ting mention it now, it was as if he was struck by lightning, completely dumbfounded.

He hurriedly turned back to look at Wen Tao. Seeing the latter’s calm expression, his heart became even more uneasy. “You know about it too? ”

Wen Tao touched his nose and did not deny it.

Fang Shaoan was so angry that he slapped his forehead. “I’m the only one who doesn’t know? What a good Yan Jun, just how powerful is he? ”

How awesome would it be if he had a powerful army that he could mobilize at will!

Huo Ting did not continue to watch Fang Shaoan stomp his feet in anger. He turned around and walked up to Yi Mu. Looking at the simple map that he had drawn by hand, his eyes deepened. “Is there a sea here? ”

“Yes. It’s behind the mountain.” Yi Mu nodded and spoke without any hesitation.

Huo Ting listened while silently sizing up Yi Mu.

After he was captured, everything went smoothly. He was not like other people in organizations who refused to comply even after death or torture.

His obedience was a little unexpected... ...

Huo Ting instinctively felt that this person was not simple.

Soon, he finished drawing the manuscript at a glance and handed it to Huo Ting. "That's all I know. It's useless even if you capture me. Moreover, if I don't go back later, Lu Yiming will definitely notice."

Glancing at the manuscript, Huo Ting sneered, "you know quite a lot." He also knew that if he didn't go back, Lu Yiming would notice something strange.

Wen Tao also walked over to look at the manuscript and compared it with the map he obtained previously. It was roughly similar. This person was probably not lying.

"How do you guarantee that after we let you go back, you won't leak our whereabouts?" Wen Tao suddenly asked.

Huo Ting frowned and looked at Wen Tao with a slightly surprised gaze.

Because he did not intend to let this fake mute go back... ..

He looked at the few of them and answered, "I'm a mute, I can't speak."

This... .. was really an 'honest' answer ...

"only dead people can't speak." Huo Ting glared at him and even said that he couldn't speak. Wasn't he talking about being happy now? !

At first glance, he knew that these people wouldn't easily believe him, but he didn't want to fall into their hands, so he could only say.. "That woman is doing very well now. Not only did Lu Yiming not hit her, but he also asked me to cook according to her preferences. Everyone in the village said that this is the wife of the village that Lu Yiming snatched away."

Chapter 1636: discovered that Yu Han had gone missing

The moment these words were said, the three people present froze.

They all knew what kind of person Lu Yiming was, and they also knew what kind of things Lu Yiming had done.

Now that Xia Jinqi had fallen into his hands, it was already a miracle that she was still alive until now... .. And she even said that she was the wife of a bandit ...

"Are you fucking kidding me?" Fang Shaoan couldn't help but swear and spat fiercely, "is that bastard even worthy?"

He was slightly stunned at a glance. He didn't expect that these people's reactions would be so intense.

Zhuge Wentao didn't want to continue wasting time on this topic. Instead, he asked a question that no one noticed. "What about the Child? How is the Child?"

Everyone subconsciously felt that Yu Han was with Xia Jinqi. If Xia Jinqi was safe, that meant that Yu Han was also safe.

However, Wen Tao discovered a problem from this fake mute's words... ..

In all of the fake mute's words, he only mentioned Xia Jinqi. He didn't even touch a single word about Yu Han.

Was this fake mute lying to them, or did something unexpected happen?

As expected, he was stumped this time.

He looked at Wen Tao in confusion. "What Child? Lu Yiming only brought one woman back."

If there was another child, he would definitely know, but he had never noticed the existence of any child.

The answer made the three people in front of him panic.

Fang Shaoan opened his mouth slightly and looked at Wen Tao in surprise, only to see the same surprise on the latter's face.

Huo Ting immediately grabbed Wen Tao's collar, his cold gaze tightly clutching his right eye. "Tell me the truth!"

At first glance, he realized that something was not right, but he thought about it carefully and confirmed that there was no child. "I'm telling the truth! There was only one woman when I came here, and there was no child."

He said it with such certainty that there was no sign of lying at all. Moreover, he had already told him about Xia Jinqi's situation, so there was no reason for him to hide the news of another child.

Huo Ting frowned. He let go of his gaze and rubbed his temples. Then, he turned around and asked Wen Tao, "Does Yan Jun know?"

Wen Tao shook his head. "We all thought that Yu Han was with sister-in-law."

However... This guy said that he had never seen any child before ...

Huo Ting took a deep breath and did not hesitate for long. He turned around and looked at Wen Tao again. "You, think of a way to bring me in."

No matter what, he could only think of a way to see the girl first.

Before he could make a statement, Wen Tao and Fang Shaoan stood out at the same time to stop him. "No, it's too dangerous! Lu Yiming has seen you before. If he finds out, he will die!"

Fang Shaoan was very emotional. His own parents were killed in this way, and then he saw Yan Qing... ... He knew Lu Yiming's methods too well ...

In addition, they were now on the land of another country, and Yan Jun hadn't come yet. If Huo Ting went alone, he would basically be sending himself to his death.

Taking advantage of the situation, he said, "they will never allow outsiders to enter."

He didn't want to cause unnecessary trouble... ...

"If you don't go into the Tiger's den, you won't get the Tiger's son." Huo Ting was determined to go in.

Wen Tao, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly asked, "chief Huo, do you really have to go?"

"I have to go!" Huo Ting answered firmly.

They were just guarding outside and didn't know anything at all!

He had to see for himself what kind of situation the girl was in!

Wen Tao looked at her and smiled darkly. "I think I have a way to let you in."

Chapter 1637: stripped him of his clothes

His gaze made his whole body tense up, and he suddenly had an ominous premonition.

"You... what do you want to do?" He took two steps back, instinctively wanting to escape ...

Fang Shaoan did not understand Wen Tao's meaning at first. After all, this person liked to wear a pair of glasses on a daily basis. He looked refined and gentle, innocent and harmless.

But after thinking about it, weren't such people mostly refined and degenerates?

Looking at his evil smile, he most likely guessed what he meant.

Immediately, he blocked one-eye's retreating steps and sneered, "you'll know soon enough."

Night fell quietly. The sentries on the sentry post in the distance had changed to a second group, but no one noticed the commotion in the Forest in the distance.

Ten minutes later.

One-eye was stripped naked and curled up under a tree, shivering. His only eye stared at the few people in front of him and couldn't help but tremble. "You... you..."

He was so angry that he couldn't speak.

Huo Ting's adjutant stood in front of him, holding a neatly folded military uniform in his hands. "sorry, the chief doesn't like others to wear his clothes."

With that, he took off his coat and threw it to Yi mu so that he could barely cover himself.

But even so, it was very easy to have problems with just one coat in such a harsh winter.

Wen Tao glanced at him. "take him to the car. It'll be troublesome if he freezes to death."

"Yes." Someone immediately came forward to carry Yi mu into the car.

After Yi Mu got into the car, Fang Shaoan withdrew his surprised and curious gaze.

He didn't realize it before, but after Yi Mu was stripped naked, Fang Shaoan saw that 70% of the skin on his body was burned, and there were many knife scars and gunshot wounds.

"What did he go through..." he shook his head and sighed softly.

Fang Shaoan was touched by the scene. There were still countless whip wounds on his back, but the difference was that those were left to him by his father.

And his motive... ..

“He’s also a person with a story,” Wen Tao replied indifferently, his eyes deep.

This person at first glance was definitely not as simple as they appeared to be.

However, he wasn’t in the mood to guess this person’s motive. As long as things went smoothly and didn’t delay saving his sister-in-law and Yu Han, it would be fine.

“You go and look after him. I’ll report the situation to second young master,” Wen Tao said as he turned around and walked into the depths of the forest.

Fang Shaoan nodded. As he walked back, he looked up at the sky.

The pitch-black sky was not much different from Rao city... ..

Even the air was as cold as before.

Hopefully, everything was fine.

No one would get into trouble again.

Under the Sentry Post Not Far Away.

Huo Ting wore a set of clothes. His entire face was covered up completely, leaving only his right eye.

He was about the same height as one-eye, and no one recognized him when he walked into the stockade with his fishing gear.

The person who opened the door for him even mocked him, “one-eyed Monster, you went fishing again? With that look in your eyes, all the fish you caught are blind, right?”

Huo Ting kept his head down and didn’t say anything. He imitated one-eye’s steps and walked into the stockade.

When he decided to sneak in as one-eye, Huo Ting carefully observed one-eye’s steps and body movements. Now, he could imitate them easily.

In addition, one-eye was a mute, and he was not liked by people, so it was even easier to fool him.

Fortunately, when he was a police officer back then, he had the experience of being an undercover in a gang, so he had a Ruffian air about him.

Chapter 1638: went to Xia Jinqi’s room

Although the experiences in his early years were very hard, fortunately, he also benefited a lot from them.

According to the map drawn at a glance, Huo Ting smoothly found the logistics kitchen of the entire stockade.

When Huo Ting went in, he glanced at the entire kitchen.

In the space of less than 30 square meters, there were a total of three middle-aged women busy picking vegetables. A bald, greasy man was frying vegetables in a big pot. It was unknown if there were fruits or other things in it, but in short, it was colorful. It seemed that he had no appetite at all.

One of the women saw Huo Ting enter with an empty fish basket and joked as usual, "I told you that the stream outside was frozen. No fish, no fish. You just didn't believe me!"

Huo Ting's hand paused. So the fake mute was really going fishing... ..

A woman next to him interrupted "You've been here for dozens of years. How could you not know when there's no fish?" "It's our leader. He insisted that the woman likes fish and has to COOK EVERY MEAL!" "But I don't think there will be any fish for the next few days. Tonight, the temperature will drop again. Most of the rivers outside have been frozen."

Huo Ting's brows twitched. That woman must be referring to the girl.

But... .. Although the girl likes to eat fish, she doesn't have to eat it every day ??

Moreover, what was Lu Yiming trying to do to treat the girl so well?

"speaking of which, that woman is really handsome! I like her just by looking at her, let alone leader."

"Hey, I heard that leader went to the woman's room tonight! Do you think..."

"really?"

"Really! Isn't my brother close to protect the chief? I just went to bring him some food and saw him guarding the woman's door!"

Just as the middle-aged woman said this, there was a loud clang!

The women looked up and saw a fish basket smashed on the ground, and there was no one in front of them.

"where's Kazumi? Wasn't he here just now?"

"Who knows... This mute has a very strange temperament!"

Outside the kitchen.

Huo Ting was already running towards the direction of the small wooden house that was mentioned at first glance!

Along the way, his heart was racing non-stop!

Even though he had long let go of his love for the girl, he still treated her as his own sister!

Knowing that his sister might be being bullied, how could he calm down!

After running wildly, he finally saw the legendary small wooden house. Just as he was about to approach, he was stopped by a guard.

“Wait! Chief is inside, what are you doing here?” The Guard who spoke was the younger brother of the Cook, and they all looked somewhat similar.

“...”Huo Ting acted as a mute and gestured with his hand sign to ask what he wanted to eat for dinner.

Don't ask him why he even knew sign language. He could only blame himself for being unable to understand the hand gestures he had learned for a long time during special forces training. In a fit of anger, his grandfather sent him to a school for the deaf and mute for a period of time.

All those shocking memories from the past were now put to good use... ..

The guard also understood some simple sign language. After understanding what he meant, he hurriedly waved his hand. “what's there to eat! Hurry up and go back. Don't DISTURB CHIEF'S ELEGANT MOOD! Otherwise, YOU'LL SUFFER!”

Just like what he said at first glance, everyone here thought that Xia Jinqi was Lu Yiming's wife. As long as the two of them were alone together, everyone would subconsciously think in that direction.

Chapter 1639: The Fastest Man in

Hearing the guard say this, Huo Ting was even more worried!

Just as he was about to force his way in, he saw the tightly shut door suddenly open from the inside.

Lu Yiming walked out from the inside with a very gentle and satisfied smile on his face.

Huo Ting,“...”

The guard couldn't care less about Huo Ting. He turned around to face Lu Yiming and lowered his head to show his respect.

“guard well.” After saying these words, Lu Yiming flung his sleeves and left.

It wasn't hard to see that his footsteps had become lighter... ..

The guards followed his footsteps, while the rest of the people stood guard at the door of the cabin, chatting about dirty jokes. “Look at the leader, he looks so proud!”

“It's been two hours, TSK TSK TSK, impressive!”

“ONLY OUR LEADER! If it were you, it would take at most ten minutes!”

“F * Ck You! How can it be that fast? Twenty minutes, alright?”

“HAHAHAHAHA! The fastest man!”

“...”Huo Ting's expression became uglier and uglier. He took a few steps to the two people guarding the door, raised his fist and smashed it down!

One of them was beaten to a pulp. Wiping the blood from the corner of his mouth, he looked up and cursed, "you ugly one-eyed Monster! How dare you hit me? !"

As he spoke, he was about to hit back, but he was stopped by another person. "Forget it, forget it. Didn't you kick him during the day? Let's call it even! "

"Bah! Who Does he think he is! He doesn't even deserve to carry my shoes, let alone call it even! " That person struggled to hit huò ting.

Being beaten by someone he had always looked down on, his pride couldn't take it.

Huo Ting was also at the moment when his blood was boiling. He planned to finish off these two people and directly rush in to see how the girl was doing. Then, someone walked over from behind.

"What are you doing? ! "

"Captain. " The two gatekeepers immediately stood up straight. No one dared to act rashly.

Huo Ting also calmed down. After realizing his situation, he quickly lowered his head and stood silently at the side.

It was good to be mute. There was no need to speak at all times.

The person who was called the captain walked over. Without even asking about the situation clearly, he directly reprimanded the two gatekeepers and punished them to go outside to patrol the night.

For a moment, only huò ting and the captain were left outside the cabin. ~~none~~ In Huo Ting looked for an opportunity to think. After all, it was too easy to expose his identity when he was alone with others. Who knew that just as he turned around and took a step forward, the person behind him called out to him.

"Wait. "

His footsteps suddenly froze.

Huo Ting clenched his fists, and murderous intent began to gather in his eyes.

However, the person's next sentence was, "leader, I don't want to see what happened just now a second time. "

Huo Ting's eyes froze, and he thought to himself, "what? "?

The person behind him said again, "If you can't bear it, you'll mess up the big plan. You've endured it for ten years, so why should you care about one or two days? Only by enduring it can we wait until the day we take down Lu Gou! Before that day arrives, please bear with it! "

.. Hearing this, Huo Ting roughly knew that that one-eye was really not an ordinary person.

One-eye and this captain in front of him should be standing opposite of Lu Yiming.

No wonder this captain would send away the two people just now. It turned out that he was here to help him.

Since that was the case, he couldn't be discovered even more!

He immediately nodded, and Huo Ting continued to be silent.

Seeing this, the captain seemed to have noticed something was wrong. He frowned and carefully looked at Huo Ting. He even moved his feet, wanting to walk up to Huo Ting to have a look.

"leader, you..."

Huo Ting held his breath.

Chapter 1640: would rather die than obey

It was not difficult to tell from the captain's words that he and Huo Ting were old acquaintances, and they had a common secret.

If Huo Ting and huo ting looked at each other, they would definitely be found out in an instant.

In that case, the undercover operation would be completely ruined.

Huo Ting did not have time to think more. He immediately came to his senses and punched the captain's face who was approaching him!

"Bang!"

The captain took a solid punch. He was beaten until he turned half a circle before he stopped.

Huo Ting wanted to run away, but the captain suddenly knelt down and begged for mercy, "leader, please calm down! I was too anxious just now, that's why I said something disrespectful to leader! Leader, please calm down!"

"..."

Only then did huo ting remember that when the captain spoke just now, he did seem to have a rather harsh tone.

Just as he was thinking about how to answer, two people came from afar. They should be the people who had come to replace Xia Jinqi.

Huo Ting seized the opportunity and waved his hand and quickly left.

The captain also noticed that someone had come. He immediately stood up, and his face was as tense as before. He ordered the people who came to guard the door, as if nothing had happened just now.

Huo Ting quickly took a detour to a place behind the small wooden house where there was no one... ..

In just a few short minutes, too many turning points in life had happened!

Even an experienced driver like huo ting could not help but cover his heart. He felt the pressure... ..

It was not easy for him to calm down. Huo Ting quietly climbed up to the roof of the small wooden house when no one was looking. Looking down through the transparent glass, he saw Xia Jinqi lying on the wooden bed and sleeping peacefully.

The moment he saw her, Huo Ting's heart, which had been hanging in the air, finally relaxed.

As long as he could confirm that she was still alive and well, it would be fine... ..

Then, Huo Ting realized that Xia Jinqi's shoulders and arms, which were exposed outside the blanket, were fully clothed. Moreover, they were not pajamas.

This... .. So, Lu Yiming had just gone in for two hours, and nothing had happened ? ?

After realizing this, Huo Ting heaved a sigh of relief once again.

Fortunately, fortunately.

He was very clear about the girl's character.

She had given everything to Yan Jun, so she would never betray him.

And if she was given by Lu Yiming... .. No, according to her character, she would rather die than comply ...

After seeing Xia Jinqi, Huo Ting returned to the kitchen.

From the looks of it, staying in that place was the safest.

He was now alone, so it was as difficult as climbing to the sky to take the girl away. He could only guard the girl and wait for Yan Jun's arrival... ..

A PINK CRIB, some baby products, milk powder toys, and clothes suddenly took up half of the space.

Xiao puff lay on her back in the crib, sucking on a pacifier in her mouth. Although she didn't eat anything, she still enjoyed it.

Her small hands and feet couldn't stop either. Sometimes she pulled on her sleeves, and sometimes she kicked the crib to amuse herself.

Behind her was a huge desk.

At the end of the desk, Yan Jun had just received a call from Wen Tao. "How's the situation? "

At that time, he was holding a list of the core members of the left.

"Huo Ting has arrived and caught one of Lu Yiming's men. According to him, sister-in-law is safe and sound. Lu Yiming is very polite to sister-in-law. It's just that..." Wen Tao's tone became hesitant.

Yan Jun instinctively frowned. “speak.”

“Xiao Yuhan doesn’t seem to be with sister-in-law...”
